OUR NEXT GOVERNOR.

We have preferences, and who has not, but we do not intend to express any partiality for any of the distinguished gentlemen, who have been, or may mentioned in this connection. We would deprecate any thing like arraying the friends of any possible candidate against those of any other. We shall await the nomination and support the nominee of the Conservative Convention, and make every effort to defeat Radicalism, and any and every independent candidate who adhering to Radicalism, may win the support of that party and attempt to defeat the regular Conservative nominee.

NOTICE.—I am directed by the Executive Committee of the Gloucester Memorial Association to request all persons, who have been appointed agents for the Association, to forward to me the list of those who have subscribed, and pay all money collected over to Capt. J. M. Nicolson, Treasurer.

Capt. J. B. Brown, has been appointed an agent for the county to solicit contributions. JAS. N. STUBBS.

CALIFORNIA CURIOSITIES.

From papers published in the Golden State, we gather a few large items about small things:

The editor of the Santa Barbara Index saw, not long since, on the place of Mr Clark, at Montecito a dwarf pear tree, twelve inches high, looking as old and direct as if its dimensions were Brobdignagian. It is in its third year from a quince cutting, and bore on its tiny branches five good-sized, well-developed pears all of them fully ripened and picked at New Years. Mr. Clark has a peach tree in blossom, grown from the seed since April, 1872 and on another tree is a peach ripening, in seventeen months from the planting of the seed.

They have a sweet potato at San Diego which weighs twenty-two pounds and is three feet in circumference.

In February, 1872, Mr. E D. Switzer, of San Diego, planted a couple of orange seeds in his garden. One of these seeds sprouted, and is now a tree several inches high. But what is most remarkable, this tender twig bears an orange which is perfect in every respect, and at present the size of an ordinary marble.

Mr. John Flack, of Healdsburg, Sonoma county, has five trees of one variety of pears, and they bear annually five thousand pounds of fruit.

Radishes are growing here now nearly two and a half feet in circumference. If you don't believe it, come and see them. —Ventura Signal.

A correspondent of the Alameda Gazette, writing from Ventura county, lately said: "Contracts have been made for planting a good many miles of live fence this winter. Most of this fence is to be of pepper trees. Some such fence is already growing here, and when three years old it turns any kind of stock except hogs. With a board or two in the bottom now and then where needed, it turns hogs also. An experienced gardener contracts to find seed and put this fence in for ten dollars for one hundred and sixty rods. He warrants living trees six inches high, and not more than six inches apart in any place. The farmer prepares the ground and keeps out the weeds. It costs for lumber here to put up a tolerably good fence around a farm of one hundred and sixty acres about one thousand dollars, besides the labor and expense of hauling and putting it up. A live pepper tree fence will cost forty dollars, and about the same amount of labor required by the other fence; besides, it will not burn, but is a very great protection against fire, and also against heavy winds.—N. Y. Observer.

The editor of a Newark paper heard, the other day, that a new pass had been found in the Andes. He immediately wrote to a man in South America that the pass was his, and he would be much obliged if the man would foward it at once.

The other morning Jenkins announced the price of tickets, in an advertisement of his coming lecture, as follows: Tickets fifty cents. Children supplied at the same rates During the afternoon he received orders for three and a pair of twins.

A BEAUTIFUL INCIDENT.—A young man recently ran away from the galleys at Toulouse. He was strong and vigorous, and arrived next morning before a cottage and stopped to get something to eat, and get a refuge while he reposed a little. But he found the inmates of the cottage in the greatest distress. Four little children sat trembling in the corner—the mother sat weeping and tearing her hair, and the father walked the floor in much agony. The galley slave asked what was the matter, and the father replied that they were that morning to be turned out of doors, because they could not pay their rent. 'You see me driven to despair,' said the father; 'my wife and little ones deprived of food and shelter, and I without means to provide for them.' The convict listened to the tale with tears of sympathy, and said, 'I will give you the means. I have just escaped from the galleys. Whoever brings back an escaped prisoner is entitled to a reward of fifty francs How much does the rent amount to?' 'Forty francs,' said the father. 'My children should starve before I would do so base a thing. The generous man insisted, and declared he would go and give himself up if the father would not take him The latter yielded, and taking his preserver by the arm, led him to the city and to the Mayor's office. Everybody was surprised that a little man had been able to capture such a strong fellow. The fifty francs were paid, and the prisoner sent back to the galleys, but after he was gone the father asked a private interview with the Mayor, to whom he told the whole story. The Mayor was so much affected that he not only added fifty francs to the father's purse, but wrote immediately to the Minister of Justice, begging the noble prisoner's release. The minister examined into the affair, and finding it was a comparatively small offence which condemned the young man to the galleys, and that he had already served out half of his term, ordered his release.

Joseph H. Havent, who recently died in Lancaster, N. H., opened the first foot path on the east side, to the summit of Mt. Washington, and, acted as guide for several years to all ascending the mountains at that time on that side. He, with Daniel Pinkham and another man, on the 4th of July, 1825, carried a flag-pole from the woods below to the summit and spread to the breeze the first flag ever floated from that place.

It will be wholesome for those who just now so owlishly croak at 'geniality' to read this sentence of the acute author of Ecce Homo's 'Criticism is generally understood to mean finding faults; a really good criticism would consist much more in finding merits, nor need it for that reason become tame; at least I know that the best critic that ever lived. Goethe, scarcely ever blames any body.'

India seems to surpass even the southwest for peculiar titles to newspapers. Among some of the latest are The Ambrosia Leaf of the Market, The Inner Gate of Paradise Poetically speaking, such names are infinitely preferable to the Cow-Skin Thunderer, The Broad Axe of Freedom, The Scorpion of the South, and The Bayou Alligator of our own native clime.

The Times, of India, gives the following interesting but jaw-trying intelligence: 'We are very glad to learn that the marriage of Mr. Rughoonathdas Madhowdas, a Kupola Bania merchant of Bombay, with Dhuncoorbai, the daughter of Shet Gudhurdas, and the widow of Luchmichard Dhurumsey, was celebrated at Chinchand.

The son of Dr. Thomas, the Peace commissioner murdered by the Modocs, writes a letter from San Fransisco on the martyrdom of his father in the cause of peace. 'Not the poor Modocs, but the rapacious, lawless, perfidious whites are guilty of his blood,' says Mr Thomas. 'We blame no one for his death.'

A HUSBAND.—A very romantic young lady rescued from drowning while in a state of insensibility, declared, on reviving that she must and would marry her preserver. On inquiring the name of her generous deliverer, to her great dismay, she learned that it was a Newfoundland dog.

A poor servant-girl, living in Decatur, Ill., has labored and saved for years, that she might send money to Germany, to bring over her father, mother, and five brothers and sisters. At last they received a sufficient sum, all embarked on the steamer Atlantic, and all were lost.

A Kenosha editor was sick unto death, and several of his contemporaries took occasion to free their minds concerning him. He got well and 'now they must meet him at the muzzle of a revolver, or he will cram their lying types down their false throats.'

A Bay City girl's overskirt slipped down provokingly low, as she stood on the ferry boat and exposed a file of the East Siginaw Enterprise. That journal is usually 'behind,' but to have its whole file in that fix looks very unlike enterprise.

POETRY.

THE FORTY-ACRE FARM.

[BY JOHN B. YATES.]

I'm thinkin', wife, of neighbor Jones, that man with stalwart arm—
He lives in peace and plenty on a forty acre farm;
While men are all around us, with hands
and hearts asore,
Who own two hundred acres, and still are wanting more.

His is a pretty little farm—a pretty little house;
He has a loving wife within, as quiet as a mouse;
His children play around the door—their father's life to charm—
Looking as neat and tidy as the tidy little farm.

No weeds are in the corn fields, no thistles in the oats;
The horses show good keeping by their fine
and glossy coats;
The cows within the meadow, resting 'neath
the beechen shade,
Learn all their gentle manners from the gentle milking maid.

Within the field—on Saturday—he leaves
no cradled grain
To be gathered on the morrow for the fear of coming rain;
He keeps the Sabbath holy—his children learn his ways—
And plenty fills his barn and bin after the harvest days.

He never has a law-suit to take him to the town,
For the very simple reason, there are no line fences down—
The bar-room in the village does not have for him a charm—
I can always find my neighbor on his fortyacre farm.

His acres are so very few, he plows them very deep—
'Tis his own hands that turn the sod, 'tis his own hands that reap—
He has a place for everything, and things are in their place—
The sunshine smiles upon his fields, contentment in his face.

May we not learn a lesson, wife, from prudent neighbor's Jones?
And not—for what we haven't got—give vent to sighs and moans?

[illegible]
life's alarms—
But blest are they who live content, though small may be their farms.

ORIGIN OF THE WHITE TRASH.—A negro minister delivered a funeral discourse, in which he gave an account of the origin of the white folk, which throws Darwin in the shade:

'My brederen, when Adam and Ebe was fust made, they was bof niggers. But de good Lord put dem in de garden where he had his summer apples, and tole em, 'Adam, you an Ebe may eat dem summer apples much as you want, but you jes let dem Fowler apples be—I dun save dem for my own special foot. [illegible] good for niggers.'

'Den, de good Lord went off 'bout his business, promenading up and down the yerth, seeking whom he might save up. But he no sooner turn his back dan, jes' like two fool niggers, Adam and Ebe steal all de Fowler apples. She taste de first one, smack her lubly thick lips, and 'quired of Adam, 'How is dat for high?' Adam said it was all O. K. and den dey went for dem Fowler apples like de hedging Chinee.

'Bimbi de Lord come back, and de fust ting he said was, 'Adam! Adam! where my Fowler apples?' Den Adam got skeered and said: I don't know, Lord, but I speck Ebe got 'em.' De Lord went to Ebe and said 'Ebe, you got dem Fowler apples?' Den, Ebe got skeered and said: 'Dunno, Lord, but I kinder spect dat fool nigger, Adam, took 'em.' Den de Lord got so mad he fairly smashed his teef. He stomped back up to where Adam was standin' shiverin' like a sheep-killin' kog, and he made de ground fairly shake as he say, 'Adam! Adam! you grand old thief, what for you steal my Fowler apples?' Adam got so skeered he turned white as sheet, and, my belubbed bredden, he never grow black any more, add dat accounts for the poor white trash ye see flyin' round here so grand, votin.' Let us look to de Lord and be dismist.'

MANNERS IN A TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—In illustration of the importance of good manners a London paper recalls an incident which ocurred at a Scotch telegraphic office some years ago. Lord Russell was the Minister in attendance upon Her Majesty at Balmoral, and one evening there came a messenger to Aboyne—a little old man, buried in a great coat—with a telegram from his Lordship to one of his Ministerial colleagues in London. The message was handed to the clerk in charge, a peremptory person, who seeing that it did not bear a signature—it was in the days of the old companies, when a signature was [illegible] ously back, with the authoritative command: 'Put your name to it; it's a pity your master don't know how to send a telegram.' The name was added, and the message handed back. 'Why you can't write, either!' cried the enraged clerk, after vainly endeavoring to make out the signature. 'Here, let me do it. What's your name?' 'My name,' said the little old messenger, very deliberately, 'is John Russell.' It was the veritable Lord John himself, and unhappy clerk was removed from Aboyne forth-with.

THE USE OF LEMONS.—All do not know that lemons sprinkled with loaf sugar, almost completely allay feverish thirst. They are invaluable in the sick room. Invalids affected with feverishness can safely consume two or three lemons a day. A lemon or two thus taken at tea time is recommended as an entire substitute for the ordinary supper of summer, and will often induce a comfortable sleep through the night, and give a good appetite for breakfast.

LOVE OF OFFICE—PATRIOTISM—GENERAL WISE.

It is a curious fact that once elect a man to political office, and forthwith he becomes seized with a sort of rabies that directs the whole current of his after life. We have known a good many modest aspirants who never having tasted the sweets of political victory, are somewhat timid in the matter, but who when election times come around becomes nervously patriotic and wondertully wise, in the sedate and ominous manner in which they speedily agree with the current feeling of any little assemblage with which they may be thrown. Such characters rarely accomplish more than the generation of a certain sourness of temper and the formation of a neighborhood admiration society. There are others who have been emboldened with the flash of victory and the sweets of power, who live in the belief that they are specially commissioned to reregulate society, and to live on the public. If they can fulfill their imagined destinies through the assistance of one party they will through that of another, such men are reckless of principle, and substitute impudence and assurance for the boldness of patriotism. There are others who claim office from one party, because they ars deserters from another. But that any blandishment, any species of animosity, any form of political ambition, or any condition of mind other than lunacy, could induce Gen. HENRY A. WISE, to become the candidate of the Radical party or permit that party to use him as an independant candidate, passes belief.

The Auditor of the State having refused to allow the accounts of the collectors, for extra compensation allowed by the county judges, some attention has been called to the act of Assembly under which the said extra compensation is claimed, and we published an extract from the 7th section of said act:

"If from any cause, no township collector be elected in any township, or being elected fails to qualify, and the county judge fails to find any suitable person to appont who will qualify, then such county judge shall make an order either in term time or in vacation, requiring the senior constable of said township to be the collector thereof, who shall give an additional bond in a penalty equal to double the amount to be collected by him, and account for any taxes collected by him at the same time and in the same manner as collectors are now required by law. If said constable refuses to act as such collector, then said judge shall appoint a collector for such township, who shall give bond in a penalty double the amount to be collected by him, and shall be paid by the treasurer of such county a per centum to be fixed by said judge, but not to exceed ten per centum on the amount actually collected and paid to the treasurer by said collector; but no person who has been previously entitled to said office for said term, by election, appointment or operation of law, shall be appointed under this section."

It will be seen from the above that the extra compensation, (not to exceed 10 per cent.) can only be allowed when no suitable person can be found who is willing to accept the office with the compensation allowed by law, i. e. 5 per cent. which the tax-payer has to pay, and when the senior constable refuses to act.

Now the people of the county are deeply interested in this question, the taxes of the county, state, county and township, are not much short of twenty thousand dollars, and 10 per cent. of that amount is two thousand dollars, which is an item to be looked into:

As a meeting of the Ladies of this county, held at the Courthouse on Saturday, the 17th inst. in response to the request of the Soldiers' Monument Association, for the purpose of organizing a co-operative society to aid in the erection of a monument to the memory of the soldiers of Gloucester who had fallen in the late war, after consultation, the following organization was effected:

SHIPMENT OF VEGETABLS.—Wednesday was a busy day at Capahosic, there were shipped from this plce three hundred and sixty five barrels of peas. Five years ago Mr. Asher soweche first bushel that ever was seeded i this city for market. What an amount of money was distributed among the may women and children—$192 50 for pking—which went into the hands, notockets of at least two hundred people. Paid the steamer freight $115 50—aid for barrels second handed $77—pd the wharf $19 20—[illegible] at $1 p barrel will amount to $1,540. Now if all of our people would make some kind of truck for market, what an amount would go daily from here, as we expect daily boats next month. I believe there were not over twelve persons who shipped, and none had more than three acres in peas except Mr. Asher and Mr. Hopper, who shipped one hundred and four barrels.

We have been informed, from what seems to be a reliable source, that seven boats are to be put on York river by the first of June. Two are to run from West Point to New York, two to Philadelphia, two to Baltimore, and one to Norfolk. We hope that the report is true. No stream in the country affords better facilities for commerce than the York.

We have had for the past week or two an attempt at a tri-weekly mail from West Point. Every Monday the mail carries comes but brings no mail, because he has never received his mail bag. Wednesdays and Saturdays he meets the mail from Little Plymouth and takes that mail bag and brings it down. Will not the proper authorities remedy this evil.

We have received a communication from John B. Donovan, Esq., of Mathews, on the constitutionality of the Oyster Law, which we have to decline publishing for the present on account of its length. It contains nineteen pages of close writing foolscap.

Japan has a population of more than 30-000,000 souls and a history which runs back, by traditions, over 2,500 years, which authentic records for more than 1,000, while her neighbors in China, from whom Japan obtained her written language, and whose civilization Japan adopted about a thousand years ago, have a population of nearly 400,-000,000, and a history covering about 4,000 years.

THE FIRST MARRIAGE.

We like short courtship, and in this Adam acted like a sensible man. He fell asleep a bachelor and awoke to find himself a married men. He appeared to have popped the question immediately after to Mother Eve and she, without any flurate or shyness, gave him a kiss and herself. Of this first event in this world we have however, our thoughts: sometimes in a poetical mood have wished that we were the man that did it. But the deed is done. The chance was Adam's and he improved it. We like the notion of getting married in a garden. It is a good taste. We like a private wedding. Adam's was private. No envious beaux were there, no croaking old maids no chattering aunts and grumbling grandmothers. The birds of heaven were the ministrels, and the glad sky flung its light upon the scene. One thing about the wedding brings queer thoughts to us, spite of scriptual truth. Adam and his wife were very young to be married—two or three days old, according to the sagest speculations of theogras—mere babies—larger, but no older, without a house, without a pot or kittle—nothing but love and Eden.

THE USE OF STORMS.—The wildest storms of the winter do great good by thoroughly removing any noxious gases that may lurk about our great cities, and harrying them out to the deep, there to 'suffer a sea change,' and replacing them with purer air. Air and ocean are the two great physical purifiers of the world So, while we fasten our garments more tightly about us, and hurry along in the pelting shower flung at us by boisterous wind, let us think of the health-giving oxygen that comes on the tempest, and while enjoying the shelter of our roof, think of the good work going on above us in the sky, alike whether we wake or sleep. We love to think of the mighty operations of the hand of God going on ceaselessly for the good of man and the mass of living things on earth, when we are passive and powerless, and this wind movement is one of these.

An Oxford undergraduate, with the natural modesty of the race, sent to the Editor of Household Words, at the end of the Crimean War, a copy of verses on the return of the Guards, with this note: 'Sir: Understanding that you insert rhymes in your serial, I send you some.' To which Dicken's answered: Sir: We do not insert rhymes without reasons.'

The following is one figure in a deplorable picture of a correspondent of the Missouri Republican of Radical misrule in Arkansas:

Another shining light is Senator White who represents the capital of the state in the upper house of the general assembly. who introduced the following on Thursday, and it was referred to the judiciary committee:

Whereas, there is a vast amount of business of importance pending before the general assembly, and whereas, as there is some vast amount of other business to be disposed of,

Therefore, be it resolved that the pres and speaker be and is hereby requested to adjourn their respective houses, the 31st of March, to meet the 1st of November, 1873.

Such are some of the prominent rulers in Arkansas. A member of the house remarked to me to-day that the present legislature was the weakest and most corrupt body ever assembled in Arkansas; that twenty dollars would buy votes in that house.

These are no fancy sketches I have drawn. They are true, and 'pity 'tis 'tis true.'

There is a movement in Paris to do away with the wearing of gloves. It is argued that as a small hand, like a small foot is generally the sign of aristocratic descent, there is no reason why it be concealed within a vulgar integument, where the fingers of the Faubourg are on equal terms with the horny ones of Belleville and Montmartre.

At the request of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mr. Wm Wirt Henry, of Charlotte, has deposited in the State Library the ledger kept by Patrick Henry when he was merchandising in Hanover county, also his fee book as a lawyer. The ledger is for 1758,'59.

A littld boy who sang; 'I want to be an angel, in Sunday-school with so much energy that he almost choked himself, confessed to an enterprising reporter that he really wanted to be a captain on a canal boat.

THE

Gloucester Herald!

A FIRST-CLASS

FAMILY NEWSPAPER

Devoted to the material interests of Tidewater Virginia, and the cause of Conservative Reform in the politics of the Country.

THE HERALD,

after an experience of two years as a newspaper, is now, it may be hoped, an institution of this section of the State, and, profiting by that experience, it bids fair to be even more efficient in the future than in the past.

ITS EDITORIALS,

while breathing the spirit of courtesy toward all, will be uncompromisingly Conservative and thoroughly Virginian, and will deal unsparingly with all offenders against its tenets of political truth.

ITS LOCAL NEWS

we hope to make a most interesting feature of the paper. With efficient correspondents at every important point in this section, we expect to more than rival the city papers in giving those items which are of special interest to our people.

ITS LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will be carefully guarded from the intrusion of anything that is not of first-class literary merit, and we hope the articles in this department will always be found worthy of the most attentive perusal.

ITS NEWS SUMMARY,

we shall endeavor to make in the future a special recommendation of he Herald. Whils the numerous Weeklies, made up from the city Dailies, contain only certain articles culled from a large mass of material, we hope, by careful editing, to give the cream of all the news of the week—giving "much in little," instead of little in much.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

our paper offers decided advantages. To give the city merchants some idea of the advantages of advertising in the Herald, we will state that in the county of Gloucester alone there are about 60 stores, which average annually the sale of about $160,000 worth of dry goods, $60,000 worth of hardware and farming utensils, $68,000 worth of liquors, and other goods in proportion. This is in Gloucester only—how much more can be done in adjoining counties. The Herald goes regularly to more than 100 stores.

J. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 34 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. The GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

THE

Gloucester Herald!

A FIRST-CLASS

FAMILY NEWSPAPER

Devoted to the material interests of Tidewater Virginia, and the cause of Conservative Reform in the politics of the Country.

THE HERALD,

after an experience of two years as a newspaper, is now, it may be hoped, an institution of this section of the State, and, profiting by that experience, it bids fair to be even more efficient in the future than in the past.

ITS EDITORIALS,

while breathing the spirit of courtesy toward all, will be uncompromisingly Conservative and thoroughly Virginian, and will deal unsparingly with all offenders against its tenets of political truth.

ITS LOCAL NEWS

we hope to make a most interesting feature of the paper. With efficient correspondents at every important point in this section, we expect to more than rival the city papers in giving those items which are of special interest to our people.

ITS LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will be carefully guarded from the intrusion of anything that is not of first-class literary merit, and we hope the articles in this department will always be found worthy of the most attentive perusal.

ITS NEWS SUMMARY,

we shall endeavor to make in the future a special recommendation of he Herald. Whils the numerous Weeklies, made up from the city Dailies, contain only certain articles culled from a large mass of material, we hope, by careful editing, to give the cream of all the news of the week—giving "much in little," instead of little in much.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

our paper offers decided advantages. To give the city merchants some idea of the advantages of advertising in the Herald, we will state that in the county of Gloucester alone there are about 60 stores, which average annually the sale of about $160,000 worth of dry goods, $60,000 worth of hardware and farming utensils, $68,000 worth of liquors, and other goods in proportion. This is in Gloucester only—how much more can be done in adjoining counties. The Herald goes regularly to more than 100 stores.
