

Paris

Paris Aug. 8. 1786.

Your favour of the 1st & 11th of July came safely to hand. The wine sent to the care of M^{rs} Richards is arrived at Rouen. your bill was presented to me three days ago, was accepted and shall be duly paid. when M^r Pequet was here I asked him if he could send me some very good Matvie de Madecise. he told me that by attending to the rules of wine, after decess, he could purchase what was old and fine, and at a reasonable price. I therefore desired him to do so. perceiving by your letter that there are only 30 bottles of Mat--vie de Madecise in the parcel sent. I will beg the favour to send me six dozen bottles ^{of that kind of wine} more, of what is old and good. my kind offer of service has induced me to take the liberty of giving you this trouble; I have the honour to be with sentiments of much esteem & respect Gentlemen your most obedient

I most humble serv^t

J. A. J. J. J.
