

New York Sept^r 12th 1808
Respected Sir

I send you enclosed by the desire of a number of Republicans of this City, a printed Copy of the proceedings of a republican Meeting held in this place where I was elected chairman I hope the sentiments contained in it will meet your approbation, the Language is not so correct as it might have been, I being a native of Wales and not proficient in the English Tongue a great number are distributed in this city and generally approved, which induced me to take the Liberty of sending you one

His excellency
Thomas Jefferson

Your most Devoted Humble & Obedient Servant

Doctor Roberts
No 5 Oliver Street

Reverts Doctor. N. Y. Sep. 12. 18. and Oct. 3.

Respectfully

Wm. Brewster
