

1803
Jan 23

Mr. Jefferson presents his salutations & thanks to Mr. Reich for the Masonic medal he was so kind as to send him, and which is another proof of the superior talents of Mr. Reich in that art. What may be the designs of the Mint is not unknown, but he will be very happy to see Mr. Reich; still find full employment either privately or publicly in the U.S.

Washington Jan. 23. 1803.

Reich.

Jan. 23. 1803

Dr. Lightfoot
I am very happy to see your book; will find full
- ment either privately or publicly in the U.S.
not what may be the destination of the book is not and which is another proof of the superior talent of our our book for the Western world be not so kind as to send to

Washington Jan. 23. 1803

Reich. Jan. 23. 1803