Kaplan Arena K Milliam & Mary H

This year the Tribe enters its 33rd season in William and Mary Hall, home of varsity basketball and the Tribe Athletics Program. On the concourse and lower levels of the building are coaching and staff offices housing the William and Mary athletics department. The broad-based program offers 23 intercollegiate varsity sports to William and Mary undergraduates.

The 2005-06 season saw a new addition to the facility. The basketball gymnasium became known as Kaplan Arena in honor of athletics department donors, Jim and Jane Kaplan. The name was officially approved in a special session of the W&M Board of Visitors inside the newly named facility prior to the 2005 W&M Tip-Off Classic tournament banquet.

Kaplan Arena was named in recognition of the longtime support of the Kaplans, who most recently announced a commitment of $7 million in support of the Tribe men's basketball team. They are also sponsoring the Tribe's Tip-Off Classic men's basketball tournament for the third consecutive season.

Inducted into the W&M Athletics Department Hall of Fame in 1987, Jim Kaplan graduated from the College in 1957 following a stellar basketball career, in which he was a captain and three-year starter, scoring 863 points with 341 rebounds. Jim and his wife, Jane, who graduated from W&M in 1956, have served as co-chairs of the Athletic Campaign Committee since 2001. A member of the W&M Endowment Association since 1997, Jim Kaplan was a board member of the W&M Society of the Alumni from 1995-2000, has been an executive partner with the College's business school since 2000 and has been a member of the Campaign for William and Mary steering committee since 2001. Jane Kaplan served as co-chair of the Lord Botetourt Auction in 2003 and 2004, an annual event that raises money for the Tribe Club. A recipient of the W&M Alumni Medallion in 2002, Jim is the owner of Cornell Dubilier Electronics, the world's oldest manufacturer of electronic capacitors.

Total capacity of the arena is about 8,600 for basketball, but by using bleachers in the open end and chairs on the floor, capacity can be expanded to 11,300 for convocations, concerts or theater-in-the-round.

The building features a medical suite, seminar room, a gymnastics workout area and another room for other sports usages. The facility houses 12 locker room areas with adjoining showers. In addition, the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength and Training Center 5,000 is located in W&M Hall.

The Hall, completed in 17 months by the Southeastern Construction Company of Charlotte, N.C., opened for the inaugural game between the Tribe and the University of North Carolina Tar Heels. Financed by state revenue bonds, the total cost of the structure was $5.3 million.

Some of the proudest moments in Tribe basketball featured John Lowenhaupt (#42), Keith Cieplicki (#14), and Chet Giermak (#32) having their jersey numbers retired. In 1990, Jeff Cohen's jersey (#52) was retired posthumously. In 1993, Bill Chambers (#32) was also recognized as a W&M all-time great. The women to have her jersey retired was Lynn Norenberg (#22). Banners signifying those great memories hang in the Hall today.

Other sporting events held here have included the Harlem Globetrotters and the Roller Derby. Fans in the Williamsburg area have seen auto shows, dog shows, Prince Charles, Glenn Close, a Billy Graham crusade, Bette Midler, Billy Joel, speeches by presidential candidates Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford, the Shakespeare Players, a three-ring circus, and even a Howdy Doody show.

The first concert held was Sly and the Family Stone held in 1971. The largest crowd for a concert was 13,514 for the Police in February 1982. Other performers in the Hall included R.E.M., Sting, the Grateful Dead, Bruce Hornsby, 10,000 Maniacs, Beach Boys, Chicago, Stone Temple Pilots and many more.

Spencer Milne serves as director of William and Mary Hall and Ticket Services. Robb Dunn serves as Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs and is responsible for the operation of W&M Hall.

John Sauer Director of Speed, Strength and Conditioning

Head Speed, Strength and Conditioning Coach John Sauer comes into his 19th year as the director at William and Mary. He is responsible for all aspects of strength and conditioning for the Tribe's 23 varsity sports.

During the summer of 2005, Sauer was one of seven coaches nationwide recognized as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC). The title of MSCC is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach. It represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise, as well as longevity in the field. For these reasons, all applicants must be a full-time collegiate and/or professional strength and conditioning coach for a minimum of 12 years in order to be considered for this distinction.

In 1995, Sauer designed the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center located in the lower level of William and Mary Hall. This 5,000-square foot facility was upgraded in the spring of 2006, primarily with new Power Lift and Sorinex equipment. The room now contains 16,000 pounds of free weights, over 7,000 pounds of dumbbells and 6,000 pounds of rubber bumper plates. In addition, it has 24 custom-built Olympic platforms, 18 multipurpose power racks and a fully-equipped plyometric area.

Daniel Kohn Assistant Coach

Daniel Kohn is entering his second year as assistant speed, strength and conditioning coach. Kohn works primarily with men's and women's basketball, men's and women's track and field, women's volleyball and gymnastics.

Kohn came to William and Mary from the University of Washington, where he was a part-time assistant strength coach 2004-2005. He assisted in the development, coordination and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for football, men's and women's basketball and women's volleyball.

Kohn earned a B.S. in Kinesiology from California State University-Fullerton in 2002. In 2004, Kohn received his M.A. in sports management from California State University-Long Beach.

Kohn is a member of the NSCA, Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (C.S.C.C.a) and is recognized as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified. Kohn also is a Level 1 Club Coach from U.S.A. Weightlifting.

Steve Cole, Assistant Athletic Director for Health Services, enters his 24th year at the helm of the William and Mary Sports Medicine pro- sociate athletic trainer. A William and Mary alumnus and former Tribe gram. Cole, who is familiar with the logistics and scope of the sports medicine field on all levels, Cole has a comprehensive knowledge of the broad discipline and all its components.

Under the direction of Cole, Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility. There are seven full-time certified athletic trainers and two graduate assistants from the post-graduate athletic training educational program at Old Dominion University on staff. In addition, a group of undergraduate students serve as athletic training aides and assist in the daily operation of the sports medicine program.

A certified athletic trainer (BOC) and strength and conditioning specialist (NSCA), Cole graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and athletic training. He subsequently earned a master's degree in sports medicine in 1978 from the University of Virginia.

This past summer, the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) recognized Cole as the College/University National Athletic Trainer of the Year. In 1997, Cole received his 25-year membership pin from NATA. He was also recognized for his service to the profession, receiving the Athletic Trainer Service Award, one of only three recipients from the Mid-Atlantic Region. In 2000, Cole was honored by the College for his many years of service to William and Mary with the recognition as an honorary alumnus.

A true fitness buff, Cole is an exemplary model for all the athletes. He is an avid competitor who has participated in a variety of triathlons resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lonna, 8-year-old daughter Sydney Janaé, and 3-year-old daughter Jahnessa Yaxin.

With 23 sports under his supervision, Cole receives plenty of assistance from his skilled, BOC-certified staff.

Renee Cork, a graduate of lowa State, is beginning her 15th year with the staff. She holds the title of senior associate athletic trainer. In 1999, Cork received the Sport Safety Training Award from the American Red Cross and is in charge of the CPR training for all William and Mary coaches. In 2002, the governor of Virginia appointed Cork to the Athletic Training Advisory Board under the Board of Medicine. She is the only collegiate athletic trainer and the only female representative on the Advisory Board. Cork is very involved in the athletic training profession, serving on several athletic training committees at the state and regional levels.

Andy Carter joined the William and Mary staff in 2000 as an asstudent athletic trainer, he is in his third year year as the head football athletic trainer, overseeing the sports medicine services for the team. He and his wife, Kristina, reside in Williamsburg.

John Knaul, a graduate of Alfred University, is in his seventh year as a Senior Assistant Athletic Trainer. He and his wife, Katie, reside In Williamsburg. Lisa Shook of Salisbury University and Michele Swaney of California University of Pennsylvania return for a second year as Assistant Athletic Trainers. Shook is the athletic trainer for the men's basketball program. Also, the two graduate assistants from the post professional graduate athletic training program at ODU who will be serving on the Tribe's staff are Carla Boelte and Nicole Neumann. Boelte is a graduate of Bridgewater College, while Neumann attended Marietta College.

In addition to the full-time athletic trainers, the sports medicine staff consists of a team physician and a network of physicians and medical specialists from the local community.

A presence on the Tribe sideline for the past 40 years, retired Dr. George Oliver now holds the title of W&M's team physician emeritus. Oliver was recognized by the College as an honorary alumnus in 2002.

Michael Potter is in his fourth year on the staff as the team physician. The team physician oversees the full-time athletic training staff and has overall responsibility for supervising the sports medicine program. A family practice/sports medicine specialist, Potter earned his medical degree from Texas A&M. He completed his residency at the Riverside Family Practice in Newport News and his sports medicine fellowship at Wake Forest University. Potter is in private practice with the Virginia Censince 1980, spending countless hours of his spare time in training. Cole ter of Athletic Medicine (VCAM) of Tidewater Physicians Multispecialty Group (TPMG).

> Ed Wilhelm and Alex Lambert, surgeons at Virginia Orthopedics and Sports Medicine (VOSM), provide the team's orthopedics care. Each brings a vast amount of experience to their positions, having worked and traveled on the international level as sports medicine physicians. Also assisting the Tribe are chiropractors Bob Pinto and Brian Mc-Gaughran.

> John Mitrovic, a former Tribe football player who graduated in 1983, is the owner/director of Williamsburg Physical Therapy Center. He is a licensed physical therapist, a certified strength and conditioning specialist and a certified athletic trainer. Mitrovic works with the program as a physical therapy consultant.

> William and Mary's "team approach" to health care allows the sports medicine program to offer a wide range of comprehensive service to the student-athletes in a caring, cooperative manner.

• Three Tribe starters return from last season in seniors Corey Cofield and Adam Payton, along with junior Laimis Kisielius. The College returns the bulk of its scoring from last season with four of its top five scorers. W&M also returns over 60 percent of its rebounding from 2005-06.

"There is some excitement in our program," Shaver said. "I think we all feel, from our staff to our players, that we are really close to making big strides in this program. Whether it will come in November, February or next year, we are really close to breaking through."

BACKCOURT

The most important position on the floor to run Shaver's preferred up-tempo style of play, this group has both experience and youth that provide with the College with an exciting blend as the program continues to grow. W&M will have a pair of players who have been through the wars of starting in the CAA, but the coaching staff is also excited about the potential of a pair of rookies.

The backcourt will be led by Payton, who started 25 of 28 games a season ago. The senior Vanderbilt transfer was one of the top defensive players in the CAA in 2005-06 and topped the Tribe in steals with 1. 61 per contest, which ranked eighth in the CAA. The Burlington, N.J., native added a dynamic mix to the guard position with his ability to score off the dribble and in transition, while also being able to find the open teammate and rebound. Payton averaged 7.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 1.8 assists per game as a junior. His assist total ranked third on the team. He shot 48.3 percent from the floor and 46.7 percent from behind the arc.

Junior sharpshooter Nathan Mann also returns as one of the top guards for the College. The Overland Park, Kan., native ranked third in the CAA a season ago in 3-point field goal percentage hitting on 41.1 percent (51-of-124) from downtown. In just two seasons in the Green and Gold, he has already established himself as one of the top 3-point shooters in the history of the College. Mann ranks eighth in the school annals in career 3-point percentage, while coming in at No. 6 in the 3-point field goals per game list at 1.54 over his two-year career. Despite only starting seven games, he averaged 21.8 minutes per contest and ranked third on the team at 7.8 points per game. Mann topped double-digits on nine occasions in 2005-06, leading W&M in scoring on six occasions.

"We think both (Adam and Nathan) will have great seasons," Shaver said. "Our backcourt is probably the best mix of youth and experience. Our point guards will probably be freshman. You look at the two-guard spot, and we have some experience in Adam and Nathan. Those guys have to lead us. I have always thought the keys to success were the play of the juniors and seniors. These guys have been very dedicated in the off-season. Physically, when you look at them, you will see a difference. And they are also excited and ready to have good years."

Senior Adam Trumbower and junior Kyle Carrabine add an important dimension of leadership and depth. A former walk-on, Trumbower has been a key cog in the Tribe lineup each of the last two seasons. As a junior in 2005-06, the Roanoke, Va., native played in all 28 contests, starting a pair. Last season, Trumbower came off the bench in 21 affairs. Carrabine is a lanky shooting guard who has worked hard in the weight room over the last two seasons to bulk up. In 2005-06, he averaged 1.1 points per game as a reserve for the College.

The Tribe coaching staff is excited about the addition of a pair of freshman point guards in David Schneider and Matt McFadden. Both players come from basketball bloodlines as Schneider's father, Jeff, played at Virginia Tech before being drafted by the Houston Rockets in the fifth round of the 1982 NBA Draft, while McFadden's father, John, was a four-year letterwinner at Rutgers.

"(David and Matt) are very capable young players," Shaver said. "I think normally, in coaching, if you were counting on playing freshman at the point, you would be pretty nervous about it. I think our point guard position is going to be stronger than it has been in the last couple of years. David and Matt both are guys who have a really good understanding of the game. They are point guards with a 'pass first, score second' mentality, but both are very capable scorers. They are young guys who can run a team."

Schneider was an all-state player at Brophy College Prep in Phoenix, Ariz. He garnered firstteam all-region accolades his final two years of high school, averaging 18 points, six rebounds and six assists as a senior.

McFadden was a two-time all-conference honoree, and as a senior, was a Second-Team New Jersey All-Group 4 choice. He averaged nearly five assists a game in each of his final two seasons at Shawnee High School in Medord, N.J. McFadden is a floor general with deceptive speed and a workman-like mentality.

Junior Marcus Barnett earned his way on to the Tribe roster, impressing the coaching staff during a workout period. Barnett lettered as a combo guard at Phoebus High School in Hampton, Va.

FRONTCOURT

Much like the backcourt, the Tribe will have a nice mix of youth and experience in the frontcourt. Topping the list of returners is threeyear starter Corey Cofield. In 2005-06, Cofield joined an exclusive list of 14 W&M players that have registered 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds. He enters his senior campaign 25th on the Tribe's career scoring list with 1,039 points. Over his three-year career, Cofield has averaged 12.1 points and 6.1 rebounds per contest.

In his first three seasons in the Green and Gold, Cofield has played in every contest (85), making 63 starts. In fact, he has only played fewer than 12 minutes in a game on one occasion (the second game of his career), while averaging 22.4 per contest. Cofield ranks sixth on the career field goal percentage list at the College, hitting on 53 percent of his attempts (357-of-674). The two-time All-CAA performer has 12 career double-doubles. Cofield has notched 51 games with double-digit points and 14 with double-digit rebounds.

"For us to have a great season, Corey has to have a great year," Shaver said. "We need Corey to be consistent in every phase of the game; offensively, defensively and as a leader. I really feel that he has had a different level of off-season committment than he's had in the past. I have told these guys many times that you win titles and championships in the off-season. So I think our players have approached this off-season in a really positive way."

Junior Laimis Kisielius returns for the Green and Gold after enjoying success on the international front over the summer. Kisielius averaged double figures for Lithuania in helping the squad to the silver medal at the Global Games in Dallas, Texas, June 19-24. He tallied his best game in pool play against Argentina scoring 17 points on four three-point field goals to go along with seven rebounds and three assists in a team-high 38 minutes in an 80-77 victory.

Over his first two seasons with the College, the 6-8, 210-pounder has averaged 7.9 points and 3.3 rebounds, while playing in 56 games and starting 45. As a freshman in 2004-05, Kisielius earned CAA All-Rookie team honors.

Junior Chris Stratton also returns in the Tribe frontcourt. The walk-on appeared in nine games as a sophomore. During his freshman campaign, Stratton earned his first career start against Hofstra on Jan. 31.

A trio of sophomores in Chris Darnell, Alex Smith and Peter Stein return to the fold after seeing significant minutes as rookies a season ago. Smith appeared in 27 of 28 contests, while making three starts. He averaged 2.6 points and 2.1 rebounds per game.

Stein averaged 14.8 minutes a game as a rookie, playing in 25 games. He finished the year shooting 57.7 percent from the floor, while averaging four points and two rebounds a game. Stein turned in his best performance of the year against James Madison in which he scored 16 points on a perfect 4-of-4 from the field and 8-of-11 from the free throw line.

Darnell finished his freshman season at 2.6 points and 2.2 rebounds per game. The Stafford, Va., native averaged 11.3 minutes per game, appearing in 21 contests. His lone start came against Hofstra on Feb. 20, after he turned in his best performance of the season against Delaware five days before with eight points and seven rebounds.

The Tribe's freshman class includes a pair of frontcourt players in Danny Sumner and Steven Hess. Sumner enters as the Tribe's most heralded freshman having earned Washington Post First-Team All-Metro and Virginia Independent Schools State Player of the Year honors as a senior. He averaged 19.3 points and 8.6 rebounds per game at Paul VI Catholic in 2006.

Hess was a McDonald's All-America nominee last season after averaging 13.1 points and nine rebounds per game at Gaston Day School. He earned all-conference accolades as a junior and a senior. During his junior campaign, the 6-10, 230-pounder helped his team reach the semifinals of the state tournament in North Carolina's largest independent-school classification.

William and Mary 2004-present

William and Mary head coach Tony Shaver is in his fourth season at the helm of the Tribe men's basketball program and his 31st overall in coaching. Shaver has coached at the collegiate level for the last 19 years and was officially hired as the 31st head men's basketball coach in the history of the College on May 2, 2003.

"Bringing a coach and person the caliber of a Tony Shaver into the William and Mary program certainly makes this an exciting day for the College," said director of athletics Terry Driscoll at the time of the hire. "His resume speaks for itself in terms of his coaching abilities, but beyond that, I believe that he possesses all the intangible qualities that will make him a perfect fit for our school and program."

The Green and Gold continue to make strides under the direction of Shaver. W&M started the 2005-06 season 4-1, marking the best start for a Tribe since opening the 1992-93 campaign with a 6-1 record. During that season, however, two of the team's first four wins were against non-Division I teams Virginia Wesleyan and Shenandoah, which means the 4-1 start for the 2005-06 squad was the first time in school history that the Tribe has opened a year with at least four wins in its first five games against current Division I opponents. Included in those four victories was a 70-60 win at Hampton, who went on to make the NCAA Tournament.

Prior to the start of the 2005-06 season, Shaver was inducted into the Episcopal High School Hall of Fame in a ceremony at the school on Nov. 11. He led EHS for 10 seasons from 1977-86. With his inception into the Episcopal Hall of Fame, Shaver has been inducted into the Hall of Fame at both of his head coaching stops prior to taking over the reigns at William and Mary.

"It was a great thrill to return to the Episcopal High School campus for the induction ceremony," Shaver said. "EHS is a special place to my family, as it was home for us for 10 years. The highlight of the day was seeing several former players in attendance at the banquet. Lifelong friendships and memories make coaching all the more enjoyable."

In his second season at the helm, W&M immediately started the season on a high note, defeating Radford and Hartford to win the inaugural W&M Tip-Off Classic, the first regular season tournament title for the College since 1981. The Tribe defeated James Madison in the first round of the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament for W&M's first postseason win since 1997, and just the third in the last 20 years.

Shaver began his Tribe career with a 91-64 pounding of Liberty on Nov. 23, 2003. He also won his first ever Colonial Athletic Association contest, as the Tribe knocked off two-time defending league champion UNC Wilmington, 67-66, in overtime on Dec. 4, 2003. In the Tribe's first contest against a nationally ranked opponent under Shaver's direction, W&M performed well, leading No. 15 Pittsburgh by 10 points midway through the first half, before the Panthers, who attempted 28 more free throws than the Tribe, won 70-55.

- Three-Time VaSID Division II-III Coach of the Year (1997, 1999, 2000)

There have been individual successes as well for the Green and Gold under Shaver's reign. 2004 graduate Adam Hess, currently playing professionally in Germany, became the first player in school history to lead the CAA in scoring. An outstanding student and athlete, Hess was named the CAA Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year (for all sports) and was a First-Team Academic All-American and all-conference selection as a senior. Current senior Corey Cofield was voted the 2004 CAA Rookie of the Year, leading all freshmen in the league in points, rebounds and field goal percentage. Cofield earned his second straight selection to the All-CAA third team in 2005, while current junior Laimis Kisielius earned a spot on the CAA All-Rookie team in 2005.

Shaver came to W&M after coaching 17 seasons at Hampden-Sydney, compiling a record of 358-121 (.747). He turned the Tigers into a Division III national powerhouse, leading the men's basketball team to eight Old Dominion Athletic Conference titles, 12 20win seasons and 11 NCAA Division III Tournament appearances. The winningest basketball coach in the program's history, he was named the ODAC and South Region Coach of the Year in 1995, 1999 and 2000, and was picked as the Virginia Sports Information Directors Division II-III Coach of the Year in 1997, 1999 and 2000.

In 2003, Shaver took the Tigers to the NCAA Division III Final Four, as his team finished with a record of 28-4, tied for the secondmost wins in the program's history. In 1999, Shaver led H-SC to the national championship game, where the Tigers lost by one point in double-overtime to Wisconsin-Platteville. The team finished 29-3, setting a school record for most wins in a season.

Shaver also has a firm commitment to his players' success in the classroom. In 1999, one of his charges, Jack Jirak, was named the ODAC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was also awarded the Gammon Cup as the top-student-athlete at the college. Two of Shaver's players, David Hobbs (1999) and Russell Turner (1992) earned Academic All-America honors. A number of his players have been named to the Academic All-ODAC squad, including six student-athletes in 1998.

Shaver first led the Tigers to the national postseason in 1988-89, just his third season as the team's head coach. That year, H-SC won the ODAC championship, ending the season with a 21-8 record.

Prior to taking over at Hampden-Sydney for the 1986-87 campaign, Shaver spent 10 years as the head boys' basketball coach at Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Virginia. He was named the Virginia State Private School Coach of the Year in 1986, and was twice picked as the Alexandria Coach of the Year, while winning 73 percent of his games.

A 1976 graduate of North Carolina, Shaver was a guard on the Tar Heel men's basketball team from 1972-75 under head coach Dean Smith. Originally a walk-on, he earned a scholarship his rookie season, when he was awarded the prestigious Butch Bennett Award, presented to the freshman who exemplifies determination, sportsmanship and sacrifice for the team. Shaver was voted the honoree by his teammates. During his four years in Chapel Hill, UNC went 95-26, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1975 and 1976. During the 1975 season, the Tarheels won the ACC Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. During the 1973 and 1974 season, North Carolina made the National Invitational Tournament.

A native of High Point, North Carolina, Shaver and his wife, Ann, are the parents of three sons: Christopher (25), a former standout pitcher on the Tribe's baseball team, who is currently pitching with the Chicago Cubs organization, Austin (22) and Jackson (15).

What They're Saying About Tony Shaver...

"Having coached Tony at the University of North Carolina and followed his teams over the years, I have been very proud of his accomplishments. Tony's teams rose to the top of Division III because he instilled in his players the value of hard work. He is very deserving of the chance to build a program at William and Mary. I have great confidence that he will establish an exciting and winning program."

- Legendary North Carolina head coach Dean Smith, the winningest men's basketball coach in NCAA history

"My son Ryan made an outstanding choice to play for Tony Shaver. Ryan was able to learn, experience success and grow as a person during his time with Coach Shaver. Tony is very passionate about the game and pays great attention to detail. Success will follow him." "Coach Shaver runs a big-time program. The players learn how to play basketball, develop their individual skills and win. There is little more to ask for anywhere."

- Golden State Warriors assistant coach and former All-American as a player under Tony Shaver, Russell Turner

"My family was impressed with Coach Shaver's long-standing reputation. It was important for us to send our son to play basketball for a program that produces winners on and off the court. Coach Shaver's attentiveness to David as an athlete and as a person was invaluable to David's college experience and to his future."

Dee Vick is in his fourth season at W&M, after rejoining his college head coach, Tony Shaver, in May of 2003. Vick has been instrumental in the strides the Tribe has taken over the last three seasons.

"The growth and positive change in our program can be attributed to many things, but the most important contributor has been Dee Vick," head coach Tony Shaver said. "His leadership skills and vision for the future are so meaningful. We have been fortunate to add some exciting young recruits to our program in the last two years. Dee has organized our recruiting efforts and helped raise our level of expectation. I have been a college coach for 20 years and my most prized possession of those years has been my relationship with Dee and his family."

Vick came to Williamsburg from the College of Charleston, where he was as an assistant coach in 2002-03 under Tom Herrion. The Cougars had a record of 25-8 and advanced to the National Invitation Tournament. Before that, Vick served as a special assistant to Dave Odom at the University of South Carolina for the 2001-02 season, when USC went to the championship game of the NIT. Prior to his time with the Gamecocks, Vick was an assistant coach at East Carolina University for two seasons.

"William and Mary is a great school in a great conference located in an incredible community," Vick said. "But the No. 1 reason I decided to join the program was the opportunity to work with Coach Shaver again. It is difficult to put into words how much he has meant to me as a coach, mentor, competitor and, most important ly, a friend. I love him and his family very much. Their support and love for he has been invaluable toward my development as a coach and as a father."

Vick played basketball at Hampden-Sydney, graduating in 1994 with a degree in psychology. In his four years as a player under Shaver's tutelage, Vick was a three-year starter at shooting guard while helping to lead the team to a combined record of 79-31 (.718), which included a pair of Old Dominion Athletic Conference championships and two appearances in the NCAA Division III Sweet 16.

Upon his graduation, Vick joined Shaver's staff and promptly picked up where he left off as a player, helping the Tigers to a record of 118-28 (.808) and four Division III NCAA Tournament berths. That included a 29-3 campaign in 1999, when Hampden-Sydney made it all the way to the national championship game before losing to Wisconsin-Platteville in double overtime.

A native of Raleigh, N.C., Vick was a standout basketball player at Broughton High School. He and his wife, Krissy, a native of Chesapeake, Va., have two daughters, Ellie (6) and Sallie (5) and a son, Ran (3).

Antwon Jackson is entering his second season with the Tribe as an assistant coach. Jackson's duties with the Tribe include recruting, team travel and working with the Tribe's post players.

"Antwon has a year of experience under his belt and is a much more comfortable and confident coach," head coach Tony Shaver said. "He is a very aggressive and eager recruiter. He loves the world of recruiting and has helped us find some exciting players. Antwon is a big asset to our program here at William and Mary."

Jackson came to W&M for his first college coaching position, after spending four years as an assistant boys' basketball coach in the high school ranks. Two years ago, he was at Paul VI High School in Fairfax, Va., where he helped lead the team to an 18-8 record and an appearance in the Virginia Independent Schools championship game. Prior to that, Jackson was an assistant for three years at Bishop Mc-Namara High School in Forestville, Maryland. In the last two years he has also served as an assistant coach for the successful DC Assault and Maryland Select AAU teams. Typically one of the top AAU teams in the nation, DC Assault has produced many Division I and NBA players and coaches. Jackson also has worked at some of the top summer basketball camps in the country, including the adidas Superstar Camp last summer, and the last five years at the Five Star Basketball Camp.

Along with his coaching positions, Jackson has spent the last 11 years at KPMG, LLP in Washington, D.C., and McLean, Va., most recently holding the position of senior associate in the company's real estate and mortgage division. Jackson graduated in 1993 from Pikeville College in Pikeville, Ky., with a degree in business management and accounting. A Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honorable mention selection as a junior in 1991-92 and as a senior in 1992-93. Jackson also led his team in assists each of those seasons.

Ben Wilkins enters his first season as an assistant coach on the men's basketball staff. He joins the program after spending the 2005-06 season as the video coordinator at North Carolina State University.

"Ben has a very diverse basketball background, which is a very attractive asset," head coach Tony Shaver said. "He has proven himself as a successful recruiter at Barton College. He worked with Coach Herb Sendek at N.C. State, and brings a lot of new ideas to our program. I really feel like he is a total package that can help better the William and Mary program."

The Wolfpack advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06, while amassing an overall record of 22-10. N.C. State also went 10-6 in Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) action. During the season, Wilkins was involved with various aspects of the Wolfpack program including film editing, player housing, player financial services and he organized a past player reunion. He also served as the liaison for sports marketing, handled office and player tickets and was an assistant camp director.

After graduating from N.C. State in 2001, Wilkins served as the junior varsity coach for Apex High School in Apex, N.C. He guided the Cougars to a 17-1 mark and a first-place showing in conference play. As an assistant for the boys' varsity squad, Wilkins helped guide Apex to the state playoffs.

Wilkins served as the first assistant and recruiting coordinator for Barton College in Wilson, N.C., during the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. The Bulldogs compiled a 35-21 mark over those two seasons, including a thirdplace finish in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletics Conference (CVAC) during his final campaign. In his time at Barton, Wilkins' primary responsibilities centered around recruiting, scouting reports, both practice and in-game coaching, development of the perimeter players and film exchange. Wilkins also assisted in the organization and operation of the Barton Basketball Camp and served as the game day manager during both men's and women's basketball games.

Wilkins graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in history in December of 2001. During his time at N.C. State, he was also a team manager.

Tracey Hiller is in her first year at the College as Coordinator of Academic Support.

With the assistance of interns from the Graduate School of Education, she works to monitor academic progress of studentathletes. The office of academic support organizes tutorial and study programs, leads a freshman transition program, teaches sessions on enhancing study and test-taking skills, and serves as a point of referral to various campus resources.

A graduate of the College of William and Mary, Hiller was a member of the varsity cheerleading team. Earning a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2003, she continued her education at the college and received a master's degree in educational policy, planning and leadership in 2005.

Lisa Shook Athletic Trainer

Lisa Shook begins her second season working with the W&M men's basketball program. Shook joined the staff of the Division of Sports Medicine in 2005.

Before coming to William and Mary, she worked as a graduate assistant Athletic Trainer at Western Carolina University while completing her master's degree. She earned her Masters in Health Science with a concentration in Education in 2005. Prior to Western Carolina, Shook attended Salisbury University, where she earned a Bachelor's of Science in Athletic Training in 2003.

At the College, Shook works primarily with women's soccer, cheerleading and men's basketball. She also works with the jumpers and sprinters on the track team.

She enjoys going to the beach, painting, and playing with her dog in her free time. A Towson, Md., native, Shook resides in Williamsburg.

ESPN BRACKETBUSTERS

Feb. 16-17 • Away

Information

Years: Fifth year of ESPN BracketBusters Teams Competing: 102 Conferences Competing: 16 CAA Teams Competing: 12 Dates: Feb. 16-17 Games on TV: Six on ESPN2 Five on FSPNU Two on ESPN360 Pairing Date: Jan. 29, 2007

As part of the agreement, all home squads will play a "return" game at their opponent's facility next season.

CAA and BracketBusters History

Eight CAA teams participated in BracketBusters in 2005 06, posting a 6-2 record. The conference gained national attention by winning all three of its nationally-televised contests as VCU edged Albany, 70-67, Old Dominion defeated Marist, 84-71 and George Mason downed Wichita State, 70-67.

The CAA is a perfect 4-0 in televised BracketBusters games with Drexel having posted a 74-70 win at Ball State in 2005.

The inaugural BracketBusters in 2003 featured 18 teams and the 2004 event grew to 46 teams, including 2003 CAA champion UNC Wilmington. Three CAA teams -Drexel, George Mason and VCU - were among 64 participating squads in 2005 and the event grew to 100 teams a year ago. This season's BracketBusters pool boasts a total of 70 team appearances in the last five NCAA Tournaments.

MEDIA

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in its 21-year history, the Colonial Athletic Association continues to enhance its reputation as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences.

With a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Atlanta, the CAA encompasses five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas. On the playing field, the conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national players of the year, 11 national coaches of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. Even more impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 19 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2005-06, the CAA had 11 ESPN the Magazaine Academic All-Americans and more than 1,500 of our 4,000 student-athletes posted at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport and received the CAA Commissioner's Academic Award.

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes six of the nation's top 25 media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (5), Washington, D.C. (8), Atlanta (9) and Baltimore (23). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 19 million.

The CAA conducts championships in 21 sports. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. The CAA will also begin sponsorship of a 12-team Division I-AA football league in the fall of 2007.

The conference made its presence known nationally in men's basketball, with four teams advancing to post-season play for the second year in a row. George Mason became the first mid-major program since 1979 to reach the Final Four, knocking off powerhouses Michigan State, North Carolina, Wichita State and Connecticut along the way. The Patriots were ranked #8 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll, which was the highest ever for a CAA team. UNC Wilmington claimed its third league title in the past five years before dropping an overtime decision in the NCAA Tournament. ODU became the first conference team to reach the final four of the NIT, defeating league member Hofstra in the quarterfinals. Drexel was the first CAA squad to make the final four of the NIT Pre-Season Tip-Off Tournament, where it dropped close decisions to national powers Duke and UCLA. The CAA was ranked eighth out of 31 conferences in the final RPI with six teams among the top 88 in the country.

In women's basketball, the CAA had a leaguerecord four teams earn post-season berths and was ranked #8 in the final RPI. Perennial power Old Dominion, which claimed its 15th consecutive conference title, has a storied history that includes three national championships (1979, 1980, 1985) and a national runner-up finish in 1997. Delaware, James Madison and Hofstra received berths in the 2006 WNIT.

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have won 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981 and Old Dominion advanced to the national semifinals in 2005. In baseball, James Madison's Kellen Kulbacki was chosen as the Co-National Player of the Year and the league had 28 players chosen in the 2006 Major League Baseball draft. The CAA is annually ranked among the nation's top 10 conferences in men's and women's soccer, and traditionally sends multiple teams to the NCAA Tournament. Hofstra's men's lacrosse team was ranked #2 in the nation last season and tied an NCAA record with 17 victories while CAA women's tennis players Megan Moulton-Levy of W&M and Tatsiana Uvarova of VCU both earned All-America honors after facing off in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship. In 2005-06, 21 league teams earned NCAA Tournament berths in 16 sports. There were 37 CAA student-athletes who earned All-America honors.

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs already established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs and granting visiting academic status to student-athletes traveling to an away contest so that they have access to libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs.

In 2002, two faculty members from CAA institutions were awarded academia's most coveted distinction – the Nobel Prize. John B. Fenn, a research professor in the Department of Chemistry at Virginia Commonwealth University, received the Nobel Prize for chemistry, and Vernon Smith, a professor of economics and law at George Mason University, shared the Nobel Prize in economic sciences.

CAA Dominance

H, N

Overall, William and Mary has won a total of 84 Colonial Athletic Association championships, more than 20% of all league titles awarded and far more than any other conference school.

Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager has guided the CAA since its inception. Long-time members George Mason University, James Madison University, the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, Old Dominion University, Virginia Commonwealth University and the College of William & Mary were joined by the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference on July 1, 2005.

The CAA traces its roots back to 1983 when three of its current members- George Mason, James Madison, and William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (UNC Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new association. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985. Old Dominion became a member of the CAA in 1991-92 and VCU joined the conference prior to the 1995-96 season.

From all-star athletes to Nobel Prize winning faculty, the CAA takes great pride in producing performers who stand out both on the playing field and in the classroom.

THE COLLEGI

GETTING OFF ON THE RIGHT FOOT

The Tribe opened the 2005-06 season with its first 4-1 start since the 1992-93 campaign. It also marked the first time in school history that W&M opened a year with four wins in its first five games against Division I opponents. After splitting the first two games at the W&M Tip-Off Classic, the Tribe won three straight over NCAA Tournament participant Hampton, Campbell and Longwood.

COFIELD NOTCHES CAREER MILESTONES

Forward Corey Cofield set a pair of career milestones during the 2005-06 season, scoring his 1,000th career point on Feb. 23, 2006 at Drexel just eight days after pulling down his 500th career rebound against Delaware (Feb. 15, 2006). He is the 28th 1,000point scorer in W&M history and just the 14th to do it in less than three full seasons. Cofield is just the 14th W&M player to have 1,000 points and 500 rebounds. He is the Tribe's top returning scorer and rebounder at 10.3 points and 4.7 rebounds per game. He has finished in the top two on the team in both categories during each of his three years at William and Mary. Cofield sits in 25th place on the William and Mary career points list with 1,039 tallies.

MANN ON THE MARK

Junior guard Nathan Mann has connected on 35.9 percent (88-of-245) during his William and Mary career, a percentage that ranks eighth on the school's career list. The 88 made three point field goals is tied for 11th on the career list. During the 2005-06 season, Mann knocked down three pointers at a 41.1 percent (51-of-124) clip. The percentage ranked third in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) and sixth on the W&M single season list. Mann also tied for 11th in the CAA, knocking down 1.81 three-point field goals per game.

PAYTON STEALING THE SHOW

Senior guard Adam Payton made an immediate impact at William and Mary following his transfer from Vanderbilt. Payton started every contest at the guard position in 2005-06 and ranked among the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) leaders in steals. The Burlington, N.J., native finished the year tied for eighth in the conference at 1.61 swipes per contest. His 45 steals during the campaign tied for fourth on the College's single season list. Payton will be the lone transfer on the roster in 2006-07, after he averaged 7.0 points per game during his first season with the Tribe.

TEAM OF THIEVES

In 2005-06, the Tribe proved to be one of the most successful team in school history when it came to steals. Led by guard Adam Payton, the Tribe posted 196 steals on the year, a total that ranks eighth in school history. It was the most steals for a Tribe team since the 1997-98 team had 215. The average of seven per contest ranked 10th in the program's annals. Four W&M players had over 20 swipes on the season, while a pair, including Payton, had over 40.

CAA HONORS

Two William and Mary basketball players received All-Colonial Athletic Association honors at the league's annual awards banquet in 2006. Point guard Calvin Baker was voted to the conference's all-rookie team, while forward Hawley Smith was named to the league's all-academic team. It marked the fifth straight season that W&M has had both an all-rookie and all-academic selection.

W&M'S BASKETBALL GYMNASIUM NAMED KAPLAN ARENA

On Nov. 17, W&M's basketball gymnasium was officially named Kaplan Arena, in honor of the longtime support of W&M graduates Jim and Jane Kaplan. The sponsors of the W&M Tip-Off Classic for the second straight season, the Kaplans also announced a $7 million commitment in support of the Tribe men's basketball team.

TRIBE ON TARGET VS. GEORGIA STATE

W&M shot an impressive 63.3 percent from the field in its 90-73 win over Georgia State (2/4). The is the Tribe's most accurate performance from the field since making 37 of 58 field goals (63.8%) in a 101-69 win over Elon on Dec. 22, 1998 at the Stanford Invitational. W&M made an incredible 73.9 percent (17-23) of its shots in the second half against GSU, after making 14 of 26 (.538) in the first.

HITTING THE BOARDS

For the fifth straight season, including all three under head coach Tony Shaver, the Tribe outrebounded its opponents in 2005-06. The College held an advantage of 947 (33.8 average) to 929 (33.2 average). The rebounding defensive stat is the best for the College in nearly 20 years. The last time W&M held its opponents to a lower average and few total rebounds was during the 1986-87 season. The Tribe held its opponents to 869 total and a 32.2 average during that season.

FACILITY UPGRADES

During the summer of 2005, W&M Hall underwent a major renovation project with the installation of a new hardwood floor. The $750,000 project included a wall-to-wall, 16,900 square foot permanent wood floor, large enough for two full basketball courts when the arena's bleachers are retracted. The floor was manufactured by Connor Sports Flooring Corporation and was installed by Recreation Plus of Hopewell, Virginia.

KISIELIUS. LITHUANIA CLAIM SLIVER AT GLOBAL GAMES

Forward Laimis Kisielius helped lead the Lithuania to the silver medal at the Global Games in Dallas, Texas, June 19-24. Kisielius started every game for the Lithuania side that won its group with a perfect 3-0 mark before falling in the Championship Game against Russia on June 24. Kisielius turned in his top performance in an 80-

77 victory over Argentina on June 22 with 17 points, including four three-point field goals in the win. He also added six rebounds and three assists while playing a team-high 38 minutes.

The Global Games is the pre-eminent international basketball event played in the United States. The Global Games exist to highlight the rising stars in the world of international basketball and to promote the growth of international basketball in the United States. This goal is validated and reinforced every year by the large number of NBA scouts, basketball fans, and coaches attending the Global Games. A total of 11 players from the 2005 event were drafted into the NBA in 2005. Some of the event alums currently playing in the NBA include Yao Ming, Carlos Boozer, Darko Millicic and Chris Bosh.

In his first two seasons with William and Mary, Kisielius averaged 7.9 points and 3.3 rebounds per game. He has played in 56 games during his career and started 45 of those contests. He scored in double figures during 21 combined games during his freshman and sophomore seasons at the College. As a freshman in 2005, Kisielius earned Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) All-Rookie Team honors as he averaged 8.7 points and 3.1 rebounds per game.

THE KRAZE AWARD

John Kratzer, captain of William and Mary's 1977-78 men's basketball team, received the inaugural United States Basketball Writers Association Most Courageous Athlete award. After lettering his first two years at forward, Kratzer was diagnosed with cancer and battled the disease for three more years. Throughout the ordeal, John never lost his sense of humor and continued to be the player who kept the team loose and served as an inspiration. "Kraze" attended practices and sat on the bench his senior year, playing a major role in W&M's 78-75 win over No. 2 North Carolina on December 7, 1977. Through it all, John's warmth, cheerfulness and courage touched countless people.

The "Kraze Award" is William and Mary basketball's most coveted award. Recipients over the past years include:

1993	Brendan Connor
1995	Carl Parker
1996	Carl Parker
1997	Shaka Arnold

PRESIDENT

GENE R. NICHOL

Gene R. Nichol President

Gene R. Nichol became the 26th president of the College of William and Mary on July 1, 2005.

Before returning to Williamsburg, where he taught two decades ago, Nichol was Burton Craige Professor and Dean of the law school at the University of North Carolina. He served as Law Dean at the University of Colorado from 1988 to 1995, and as James Gould Cutler Professor and Director of the Institute of Bill of Rights Law at William and Mary from 1985 to 1988. Nichol was also a faculty member at the University of Florida and West Virginia University. He founded the Byron White Center of Constitutional Law at the University of Colorado (1990) and the Center for Civil Rights at the University of North Carolina (2001).

Nichol teaches courses in constitutional law and civil rights. He is the co-author of Federal Courts: Cases, Comments, and Questions (West, 2000) and a contributor to Where We Stand: Voices of Southern Dissent (NewSouth Books, 2004). Nichol has published articles and essays in the Harvard Law Review, the Yale Law Journal, the University of Chicago Law Review, the Michigan Law Review, the Pennsylvania Law Review, the California Law Review, the Virginia Law Review and an array of other leading legal journals. From 1998 to 1999, he was a political columnist for the Rocky Mountain News and the Colorado Daily. From 1999 to 2005, he was a regular op-ed writer for the Raleigh News & Observer. He has also written for The Nation and other periodicals.

Nichol has been significantly involved in public affairs. He has testified before a number of committees of the United States Congress and various state legislatures. In 1991, he was appointed special master by a three-judge federal court in Colorado to mediate a redistricting dispute between the governor and the legislature. The accord was ratified by statute. A year later he helped head the Colorado Reapportionment Commission. In 2004, Nichol led the North Carolina Bi-Partisan Commission on Lobbying Reform. Legislation was passed enacting commission recommendations. He ran unsuccessfully for national political office while in Colorado. He has been elected to membership in the American Law Institute and the American Bar Foundation Fellows.

In 2003, Nichol won the American Bar Association's Edward R. Finch Award for delivering the nation's best Law Day address. Two years later, Governor Michael Easley inducted Nichol into the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the state of North Carolina's highest civilian honor, and the national judicial access organization, Equal Justice Works, named him pro bono law dean of the year.

Nichol attended Oklahoma State University, where he received a degree in philosophy and played varsity football. He obtained his J.D. from the University of Texas, graduating Order of the Coif in 1976. He is married to Glenn George, a scholar of employment and labor law who joins the faculty at the William and Mary School of Law this fall. They have three daughters: Jesse (18), Jenny (17), and Soren (13).

Sandra Day O'Connor Chancellor

Sandra Day O'Connor, who in July of 2005 announced her intention to retire as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was named 23rd Chancellor of the College of William and Mary by its Board of Visitors on October 4, 2005. Justice O'Connor succeeds Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, former United States Secretary of State, who was appointed in 2000.

The post of Chancellor has been an important one since the College was chartered in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of Great Britain. Until 1776, the Chancellor was an English subject–usually the Archbishop of Canterbury or the Bishop of London–who served as the College's advocate to the crown, while the president oversaw the day-to-day activities of the Williamsburg campus. Following the Revolutionary War, George Washington was appointed as the first American Chancellor; later President John Tyler held the post.

The first woman to serve on the United States Supreme Court, Justice O'Connor was born in El Paso, Texas, on March 26, 1930. She earned a B.A. in economics (magna cum laude) from Stanford University, and went on to receive an LL.B. from Stanford Law School, where she graduated third in her class. Her classmate, the late Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist, graduated first in the class.

She served as Deputy County Attorney of San Mateo County, California, from 1952 to 1953, and as a civilian attorney for the Quartermaster Market Center, Frankfurt, Germany, from 1954 to 1957. From 1958 to 1960, she practiced law in Maryvale, Arizona, and served as Assistant Attorney General of Arizona from 1965 to 1969. She was appointed to the Arizona State Senate in 1969, and was subsequently reelected to a pair two-year terms.

In 1975, she was elected Judge of the Maricopa County Superior Court and served until 1979, when she was appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

President Ronald Reagan nominated her as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and she took her seat September 25, 1981. She is married to John Jay O'Connor III, and the couple has three sons: Scott, Brian and Jay.

"Through her remarkable combination of wisdom, courage, judgment, and skill, Justice O'Connor has become one of the most influential and effective jurists in American history," said President Gene R. Nichol. "I am thrilled that she is willing to share her ability and rich experience with William and Mary students. As a former constitutional lawyer, I am also honored to welcome one of my heroes to the College community."

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

W&M BASKETBALI

Terry Driscoll Athletics Director

With an extensive resumé that includes four years as a student-athlete, a professional playing career and numerous jobs in the athletic business world, Edward C. "Terry" Driscoll is entering his 11th year as the athletics director at the College of William and Mary.

Driscoll's tenure has seen a wealth of improvements across the board in the W&M athletics department, from new and refurbished facilities to increased fundraising for the Tribe. In addition, the Tribe has reached all-time highs in the annual Director's Cup rankings that summarize excellence in all sports.

Upon the death of legendary Tribe athletics director John Randolph, former W&M president Timothy J. Sullivan chose Driscoll to be the new leader of the department, saying "Terry brings outstanding management and leadership skills to the position."

Since Driscoll took over as athletics director, he has overseen the construction of more than $16 million in new facilities, including Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). That figure will continue to increase significantly in the future, as Driscoll announced plans last year to build the $11 million Jimmye Laycock Football Complex at Zable Stadium. Already, the football program has seen the installation of permanent lighting, a $650,000 project, and a new state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, Field Turf Pro, a $840,000 project, at Zable Stadium in the last 10 months.

Driscoll has also increased the annual fundraising totals for noncapital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to around $2.7 million currently. He also has served on numerous conference and NCAA committees, including a stint as president of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference.

The Tribe has also had outstanding success across the board since Driscoll came to Williamsburg. In 2002-03, W&M had a schoolrecord 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four teams won conference titles, while six were in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. One of the department's goals each year is to finish in the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, and that has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the AD, with a high ranking of 42 occurring in 1997. In addition, W&M had captured 84 CAA Championships coming into the 2005-06 school year, by far the highest total among all conference schools.

Driscoll's leadership skills were developed in his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament Finals as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom with a major in biology garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth pick of the NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three picks after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communication with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports as well as organizing the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix, a five-week competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children – Keith, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross and Leslie, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

Barbara Blosser Senior Associate Athletics Director

After serving 12 years as the College's associate athletics director, Barbara Blosser was promoted to her current position of senior associate athletic director in April of 2004. Blosser started her career at William and Mary as the head women's basketball coach in 1978 and guided the Tribe to a VAIAW crown in her first season with a school-record 16 wins (16-13). Her 1980 Tribe team (11-14) placed third, while the 1981 squad (16-16) was VAIAW runner-up. She was also at the helm during the 1984-85 season when William and Mary made the jump to NCAA Division I. Overall, she finished her coaching career with 115 wins, 84 of which came at William and Mary.

When the College's men's and women's athletic programs merged in May of 1986, she moved to administration, first serving as the Assistant to the Associate Athletics Director. Over the past 16 years, her administrative responsibilities at W&M have included the monitoring of financial aid matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic facilities, supervision of coaches and staff and, currently, serving as the person primarily responsible for administering the day-to-day operations of the department.

From October 1992 to June 1993 and August 1995 to July 1996, Blosser also served as acting athletics director in an interim capacity. For her efforts, she was named the first recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award. Blosser has served on various committees such as the NCAA Strategic Planning Committee and the Colonial Athletic Association Competition Committee.

Blosser began her coaching career at the helm of the women's basketball program at Ashland College in Ohio. During two seasons there, she led the Eagles to successive 15-7 and 16-8 ledgers. Her 1977 squad won the AIAW Region V Championship, while her 1978 team took the OAISW Small College title.

A former three-sport standout at Ohio State, Blosser graduated Cum Laude in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. At OSU, she was selected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She competed in basketball, field hockey and tennis and captained both the basketball and field hockey squads her senior year. She went on to earn her master's degree from the University of North Carolina Greensboro in 1978.

Pete Clawson Assistant AD, Media Relations

Pete Clawson, now in his 11th year at the College, was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations during the summer of 2006.

Clawson, a 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, has spent the previous 10 years working in the College's sports information office, including the last six as the Sports Information Director.

In the position, Clawson over sees all workings of the Media Relations Department and was the primary contact for the Tribe's nationally-recognized pastics programs.

football and men's gymnastics programs. Prior to his stint at W&M, Clawson was an assistant at Fresno State. Clawson has also spent time as an assistant at his alma mater and at Florida. A native of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, Clawson and his wife, Catherine, were married on July 19, 2003 and reside in Williamsburg.

Steve Cole Assistant AD. Health Services

Steve Cole enters his 24th year at the helm of the W&M Sports Medicine program. One who is familiar with the logistics and scope of the sports medicine field on all levels, Cole has a comprehensive knowledge of the broad discipline and all its components.

Under the direction of Cole, Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

A certified athletic trainer (BOC) and strength and conditioning specialist (NSCA), Cole graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and athletic training. He subsequently earned a master's degree in sports medicine in 1978 from the University of Virginia.

This past summer, the National Athletic Trainers Association recognized

Cole as the College/University National Athletic Trainer of the Year. In 1997, Cole received his 25-year membership pin from NATA. He was also recognized for his service to the profession, receiving the Athletic Trainer Service Award, one of only three recipients from the Mid-Atlantic Region. In 2000, Cole was honored by the College for his many years of service to William and Mary with the recognition as an honorary alumnus. A true fitness buff, Cole is an exemplary model for all the athletes. He is an avid competitor who has participated in a variety of triathlons since 1980, spending countless hours of his spare time in training. Cole resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lonna, eight-year-old daughter Sydney Janaé, and three-year-old daughter Jahnessa Yaxin.

Deidre Connelly Sports Psychologist

Deidre Connelly is entering her 14th year with the William and Mary athletic department. Connelly came to the College from the University lowa, where she was a professor and the director of the sport psychology program. She has been published many times and has been invited to speak at numerous conferences and seminars. Connelly received her undergraduate degree from the University of Bridgeport, and did graduate work at William and Mary. She received her master's and Ph.D. in sports psychology from Virginia.

Robb Dunn Associate A

Associate AD, Internal Affairs

Robb Dunn is in his sixth year with the College, and his third as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs.

Dunn oversees the facilities and operations for William and Mary athletics. In this position, Dunn is responsible for maintenance, budgets, capital projects and game day operations of all Tribe athletic facilities, as well as summer camps and equipment operations.

Dunn also oversees the day-to-day operations of the baseball, men's soccer, and men's and women's gymnastics programs. In addition to his duties within the athletics department, Dunn coordinates all outside events held at William and Mary Hall.

Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Dunn spent eight years at the University of Michigan, the last three as Facilities and Game Management Supervisor. He also worked at Michigan's Yost Arena, oversaw the consulting portion of the Sport Facilities Research Laboratory and taught in the Sports Management and Urban Planning departments.

A California native, Dunn earned a bachelor of arts degree in history from the University of California at Berkeley in 1993. During his undergraduate days, he lettered as a member of the Golden Bears' football program and also worked for Cal's department of intercollegiate athletics and recreational sports. He then went on to earn a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan and completed coursework on a Ph.D. in Urban Planning at Michigan.

Bobby Dwyer Associate AD, Development

Dwyer was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in the spring of 2004. Dwyer heads up the fund-raising efforts for the athletics department, keting and promotions and special events depart.

and supervises the marketing and promotions and special events departments.

Dwyer graduated from Wake Forest in 1974 where he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and captained the squad as a senior. He received his master's degree in higher education from W&M in 1994.

He is a past president of the Williamsburg chapter of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He and his wife Patti have two sons, Patrick (22) and Peter (20), and live in Williamsburg.

Frank Hardymon Associate AD, External/Business Affairs

Frank Hardymon is in his ninth year at W&M and third year as Associate Athletics Director for External/Business Affairs. Hardymon joined the Tribe staff in October of 1997 as Assistant Athletics Director for Business Affairs. Previously, he managed the athletics budget at Villanova University as the Associate Business Manager and Coordinator of Corporate Finance.

In his current role, Hardymon assists in formulating the athletic budget, and working with all head coaches and directors to manage the budget. He manages the day-to-day operations of the Athletics Business Office, with the assistance of athletic business managers Cathy Rossi and Dan Wakely. In addition, Hardymon oversees the sports information and ticket offices. He also handles the day-to-day oversight of the men's and women's track and field, cross country and golf programs.

A University of Kentucky graduate, Hardymon worked in corporate finance for five years. He earned an MBA from DePaul University in 1992 and a MEd from the University of Georgia in Sport Management in 1995. He is a member of the Collegiate Athletic Business Managers Association, serving on their membership and publicity programs committees.

Hardymon resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lisa. They have a six-year old daughter, Emma, and a four-year old daughter, Grace.

Pete Kresky Director of Marketing and Promotions

Pete Kresky, in his fifth year at William & Mary, has transformed the marketing department to one of ultimate success by more than doubling the number of corporate sponsors and thus significantly increasing revenue. Key to this progress has been the successful inclusion of the Williamsburg community into operations and the cultivation of both new and old supporters of Tribe Athletics.

Kresky came to William & Mary in 2002 with over twenty years of sports retail experience. Most notable of his accomplishments were the creation of one of the most successful sporting goods franchises in the Athlete's Foot organization with over 20 locations, as well as his time as a professional consultant for corporations such as Brooks Shoes and Reebok. Pete has also worked in commercial and mortgage banking.

Pete is a certified rowing coach and currently resides in Stonehouse with his wife Bonnie.

Pamela Mason Director of Compliance

Pamela Mason took over full time duties as the College's Director of Compliance on April 1, 2006, after previously working as the Associate Director of Development for two years.

Under Mason, the compliance office works with the NCAA Clearinghouse to determine initial eligibility of all student-athletes and continues to monitor eligibility throughout their college careers. Mason is also responsible for educating all student-athletes, coaches and staff to the NCAA rules.

Mason graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1994 as a marketing major, with a minor in psychology. She continued her education at the College and earned a law degree and an MBA in four years (1996-2000). She is a member of the Bar in both VA and NC.

A native of Marion, Ohio, Mason brings a diverse range of athletic administrative experience to the position. Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Mason worked as the Assistant Director of Compliance at James Madison University from 2003-04, where she assisted in many facets of the department's day-today operations.

After completing her postgraduate studies at William and Mary, Mason served as the primary Compliance Officer and Sports Information Director for the University of North Carolina, Pembroke during the 2001 and 2002 athletic seasons. In this position, she oversaw all of the daily compliance duties for the school, as well as coordinated the day-to-day media relations activities for the school's 16 varsity sports. Her first position out of college came with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, as she served as the Marketing and Media Relations Assistant with the team's nationally acclaimed cheerleading squad from 1993-96. A member of the varsity cheer squad at SMU, Mason also served a three-year stint as William and Mary's cheerleading coach, while she was pursuing her double graduate degrees. She spent one year doing an externship in William and Mary's compliance office during law school.

Mason and her husband, Monty, a 1989 graduate of the College and AEF Executive committee member, reside in Williamsburg.

Spencer Milne Director of Ticket Operations

Spencer Milne is in his first year at the College after taking over the duties of the Director of Ticket Operations on March 27.

Milne comes to W&M from Florida Atlantic University, where he had been the Owls' director of ticket operations since January of 2005. Prior to Florida Atlantic, he was an assistant in the ticket office at Wake Forest from July of 2004 through December of 2005. Before that, Milne worked in the ticket office at Ohio University, as he earned his master's degrees in business administration (2003) and sports administration (2004).

Milne brings a working knowledge of the Tribe's dynamic new ticketing system, Ticket Return, which has significantly improved the Tribe ticket office's ability to more easily serve William and Mary's fans and alumni.

Milne graduated from Ohio University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in sports industry and a minor in business administration. After earning his degree, he worked for one year as a facilities and operations intern at Southern Methodist University. Milne also has experience as a promotions and operations intern with Major League Soccer's D.C. United.

Milne and his wife, Lisa, reside Williamsburg.

Millie West Director of Special Projects

An integral part of William and Mary athletics for more than 40 years, Millie West began another chapter of her affiliation with the College in 1991 when she retired as Associate Athletics Director and assumed the role of Director of Special Projects.

A highly successful fund raiser, she has been a key in the success of the four BASF Wightman Cup tennis tournaments held at the College, as well as the annual Plumeri Pro-Am golf tournament which has reaped great benefits for the College. West coordinated W&M's Indoor Tennis Center Project, which brought the McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center onto campus. She is also the curator, and 1998 inductee, of the ITA Women's Tennis Hall of Fame at the center.

A 1957 graduate of Georgia College, West, who was awarded the USTA Educational Merit Award, is also a member of the W&M Athletic Hall of Fame. She also serves on executive committees for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Williamsburg Community Health Foundation.

Established in 1948 to create support for William and Mary Athletics, the Tribe Club is made up of alumni and friends of the College's athletics programs. Due to the fact that W&M receives no aid from the state for its sports programs, the Tribe Club is the sole provider of scholarships for William and Mary's student-athletes. Additionally, money raised annually by the Tribe Club helps defray a portion of the operating expenses for program support.

Whether you are a former Tribe student-athlete, a proud alum, a Tribe parent or a fan of William and Mary Athletics, you are invited to join the Tribe Club. By donating to the unrestricted fund or to a specific sport, you are providing opportunities for many young men and women to experience both academic and athletic excellence here at the College. In addition to supporting our student-athletes with generous gifts, Tribe Club members receive exclusive benefits based on their giving level, as well as invitations to tailgates, pre-game and halftime events, golf outings and regional Tribe Club social events.

To join, you can make a contribution to the Tribe Club online at www.tribeclub.com or send your donation to PO Box 399, Williamsburg, VA, 23187. Thanks to all those who are loyal members of the Tribe Club family. Your support of our gifted and talented athletes is truly appreciated. We could not succeed without you!

ATHLETIC SUCCESS

A charter member of the CAA 1986, W&M has been the CAA's most successful program over the past two decades. The 2005-06 year was another banner season for the College, as it added three more conference titles. The Tribe has now captured 84 total CAA Championships since 1986, over 30 more than the closest rival.

The men's cross country team won its sixth consecutive title, while the women's cross country team captured its third-straight. The women's track and field team completed the sweep in the spring, bringing its sixth consecutive championship back to Williamsburg. Additionally, the men's gymnastics team won the ECAC Championship, its third overall.

Individually, women's tennis standout Megan Moulton-Levy earned All-America honors after advancing to the "Final Four" of the NCAA Singles Tournament.

The athletic achievements this past season continue the program's latest run of success, which saw W&M finish 76th in the 2004-05 NACDA Director's Cup standings as the highest ranked team in the CAA.

William and Mary offers a broad range of competitive opportunities for our students, including intercollegiate athletics, club and intramural competition, and a broad array of recreational sports, both team and individual.

For intercollegiate athletes, the balance between academics and athletics is appropriate and student-athletes excel at both.

Competitive athletics is an integral and meaningful part of the William and Mary experience and contributes in unique and fundamental ways to the educational mission of the College and to the diverse nature of our community.

The task force feels that William and Mary represents a national "Green and Gold standard" for balanced excellence and unassailable integrity in athletics.

-- 2006 Athletic Task Force Report

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of its student's academic responsibilities, as W&M ranked fourth, the highest of any scholarship-granting school and of any public university, in the nation among institutions with two or more Division I teams when the NCAA released its inaugural Academic Progress Rate scores in March of 2005.

This year, the NCAA specifically listed 18 W&M athletic squads as recipients of its public recognition award for 2005-06. The Tribe teams recognized were baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, football, men's and women's golf, men's and women's gymnastics, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field, men's soccer, men's and women's tennis and volleyball.

Since 1992, 36 Tribe athletes have been designated Academic All-Americans, including Keith Bechtol, who was a third team selection in the spring, and since 1996, 39 student-athletes have been members of Phi Beta Kappa.

In 2002-03, the CAA created a Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award in each of its 21 sports, and not surprisingly, William and Mary has set the pace with 18, including Keith Bechtol and Meghan Bishop in both men's and women's cross country and track and field this past year, while former men's basketball standout Adam Hess was named the conference's male scholar athlete of the year in 2004. Also, men's gymnast Jeff Jaekle and women's gymnast Christina Padilla were honored as ECAC Scholar Athletes of the Year in 2006.

In addition, three of William and Mary's five Rhodes scholars participated in varsity sports.

For more than 300 years, William and Mary has been a symbol of academic distinction in America. Now, in its fourth century, the College is prepared to educate the leaders of the 21st century.

The College of William and Mary was founded in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of England. Four Presidents of the United States received their education at the College - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler.

William and Mary was the first college to institute an honor code of conduct. The premier academic society, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded by William and Mary students in 1776. The Society of the Alumni, founded in 1842, is the sixth oldest alumni group in the nation. Now the College is designated as a "Public Ivy", and ranks sixth among all public universities (U.S. News and World Report).

The W&M Mission Statement

The College of William & Mary, a public university in Williamsburg Virginia, is the second-oldest institution of higher learning in the United States. Established in 1693 by British royal charter, William & Mary is proud of its role as the Alma Mater of generations of American patriots, leaders and public servants. Now, in its fourth century, it continues this tradition of excellence by combining the best features of an undergraduate college with the opportunities offered by a modern research university. Its moderate size, dedicated faculty, and distinctive history give William & Mary a unique character among public institutions, and create a learning environment that fosters close interaction among students and teachers.

The university's predominantly residential undergraduate program provides a broad liberal education in a stimulating academic environment enhanced by a talented and diverse student body. This nationally acclaimed undergraduate program is integrated with selected graduate and professional programs in five faculties—Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Law, and Marine Science. Masters and doctoral programs in the humanities, the sciences, the social sciences, business, education, and law provide a wide variety of intellectual opportunities for students at both graduate and undergraduate levels.

At William & Mary, teaching, research, and public service are linked through programs designed to preserve, transmit, and expand knowledge. Effective teaching imparts knowledge and encourages the intellectual development of both student and teacher. Quality research supports the educational program by introducing students to the challenge and excitement of original discovery, and is a source of the knowledge and understanding needed for a better society. The university recognizes its special responsibility to the citizens of Virginia through public and community service to the Commonwealth as well as to national and international communities. Teaching, research, and public service are all integral parts of the mission of William & Mary.

Goals

In fulfilling its mission, William & Mary adopts the following specific goals:

to attract outstanding students from diverse backgrounds;

 to develop a diverse faculty which is nationally and internationally recognized for excellence in both teaching and research;

 to provide a challenging undergraduate program with a liberal arts and sciences curriculum thatencourages creativity, independent thought, and intellectual depth, breadth, and curiosity;

 to offer high quality graduate and professional programs that prepare students for intellectual, professional, and public leadership; to instill in its students an appreciation for the human condition, a concern for the public well-being, and a life-long commitment to learning; and to use the scholarship and skills of its faculty and students to further human knowledge and understanding, and to adress specific problems confronting the Commonwealth of Virginia, the nation, and the world.

Applette Facilities

The College of William and Mary and its student-athletes take a great deal of pride in the quality of its athletic facilities. Kris Sears Associate Sports Information Director

Kris Sears is in his first year as the associate sports information director at the College of William and Mary.

Prior to joining the W&M staff, Sears spent five years in the Media Relations office at Indiana University as a student, graduate and staff assistant. He worked with the seven-time national champion IU men's soccer team as well as the men's basketball program. Sears handled publicity for the 2004 NCAA Championship men's soccer team and for the 2004 Missouri Athletic Club Hermann Trophy winner. In 2004 and 2005, Sears' men's soccer and water polo guides were voted the 'Best in the Nation' by CoSIDA.

In addition to working with the men's basketball program, Sears also serves at the primary media contact for the College's men's soccer, field hockey and men's and women's tennis programs.

A native of Kokomo, Ind., Sears earned his bachelor's degree in sports marketing and management from IU in 2004, before receiving his master's from Indiana in December of 2005 in athletic administration and sports management.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Radio

Visiting radio lines may be rented through the Sports Information Office at a cost of $75 per line. An ISDN line may be installed at additional request given enough advance notice. Radio stations should make arrangements with Kris Sears in the sports information office at least one month in advance of the game. Requests for the line will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis. Only collect, toll-free and incoming calls will be available through this phone line. Please contact Kris Sears at least 24 hours in advance if you wish to tape an interview with any William and Mary coaches to be broadcast before a game.

Post-Game Press Conference

The W&M locker room is closed to the media at all times. A member of the W&M Sports Information Office will take requests for players near the end of each game. After each game, both head coaches and selected players from each team will be brought to the media workroom for the post game press conference.

Interview Policy

All William and Mary players and head coaches will be available for interviews throughout the season. All interview requests must be coordinated through Kris Sears in the Sports Information Office. Please give at least 24 hours notice whenever possible. Home phone numbers will not be made available and members of the media are asked not to contact players or coaches at home.

Practices

All W&M practices are closed to the media.

Internet Access

The official web site of William and Mary Athletics is www.TribeAthletics.com. This web site contains information for all 23 of William and Mary's sports, including schedules and results, statistics, releases, game notes and media guides. Information about the Colonial Athletic Association can be found at www.caasports.com.

Press Releases

Game notes will be available at least one day prior to each contest. All William and Mary basketball game notes and releases will be e-mailed, faxed and posted on the Tribe's web site. Please contact Kris Sears if you would like to be added to either the fax or e-mail distribution list.

CAA Teleconference

Members of the media are invited to participate in the CAA's weekly telephonic press conferences. The first call will occur on January 2 and run each Tuesday morning through February 27. CAA coaches will be available to answer questions beginning at 10:00 AM. W&M coach Tony Shaver will be available from 10:40-10:50 AM. The phone number for the call is (888) 677-9010. Contact Kris Sears or Rob Washburn in the CAA office at (804) 754-1616 for the password to access the call.

THE TRIBE RADIO NETWORK

Teaming up once again to call all the exciting action of William and Mary basketball over the airwaves will be Jay Colley and Bill McDonald. For the fifth season the pair will be joined by former W&M basketball coach and player, Charlie Woollum, who will add his insight and experience to the broadcast.

Colley is a veteran broadcaster who shifts from sport to sport with ease. He calls the play-by-play for the Tribe on the gridiron and is also a veteran baseball commentator, who was previously the voice of the Rochester Redwings as well as the Richmond Braves and the Tidewater Tides.

In recognition of Colley's years of service to the College, he was selected as an honorary alumnus of William and Mary and was officially presented with the honor at Charter Day in February, 2003. A mass communications graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, Jay is entering his 25th season of broadcasting Tribe basketball. Jay and his wife Cindy have a daughter, Carleigh Danielle (15) and a son, Benjamin William (12).

A 1962 graduate of William and Mary, Charlie Woollum was the head coach of the Tribe from the 1994-95 through the 1999-2000 seasons, leading the Tribe to 20 wins and a regular season tie for first place in the CAA in 1998. Bill McDonald, a 1974 graduate of the College, has been a working broadcast journalist who has been involved with the Tribe radio network for many years.

Stretching over 150 miles of the state, the Tribe Radio Network is the gateway to all of the W&M action over the air. The flagship stations for the network are 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH" in Williamsburg.

The listening format for basketball games is similar to past Tribe broadcasts with a pre-game show with head coach Tony Shaver, a halftime scoreboard and a post-game wrap-up.
