1804
Feb 22

Dear Sir,

I do with unequivocal sincerity return my ~~sincere~~ thanks for your benevolent acts of kindness to me. If it had not been for the thirty dollars placed by you in the hands of the then Governor Monroe, I should have had not any Cloaths at all: and he well knowing that there was no prospect of my return to Kentucky in any short time, thought it could not be better applied. My eldest son from Kentucky is now in Richmond, but has not the means to carry me out — nor do I know how this can be done, but by the contributions of the Benevolent, who will consider my applic'd, and absolutely dependant situation on the Hand of Private bounty. with a view solely to this object, I am constrain'd to send forward Several Letters begging Charity.

Mrs Cabbart with whom I have boarded for nearly twelve months, well knowing my situation, undertakes on foot to deliver those Letters, if she can see the Persons to whom they are addressid. She is upwards of sixty has nothing to pay her Rent, and purchase common necessaries, but by spining. The money allowed her by the Cincinnati on my account for board, from my disabled state of body & and her bounty will know does not enable her to lay up one penny at the years end. She has had a great proportion of trouble with me. I wish from her kind attention to me it was in my power to reward her for it. She has undergone many afflictions for the greater part of her life. Her late Husband was for twenty years, in an absolute and unhappy state of insanity; and she attended him all that time. Her character she will shew.

On her shewing you Letters, I am confident (Sir, that you will be so good as to instruct her in the way of finding the Gentlemen, if in place. There is one Paper open. Be so kind as to read it. It describes nothing but facts, and yet they are but hints comparitively speaking to what I have long suffered, and do now suffer: But in my afflictions of body or mind, I beg leave to congratulate and your Patriotic Coadjutor, for the great and beneficial effects to the Citi-zens of the United States, under a virtuous administration of the National Govern-ment. May God long preserve you in Health, and may you have to the latest Poster-ity, Thanks of cordial Gratitude.

I remain with every Sentiment of Gratitude, respect, and Esteem,

Bacon Branch Dear Sir, Feby 22nd 1804.

Your much oblig'd, and most obed.t Servt Will you be so good as to write a few lines by Mrs.
Caphart.

Ro: Lawton

Lawton Robt. Bacon branch Feb. 22. 04.
recd Mar. 6

His Excellency

Thomas Jefferson Esqr

President of

The United States.

Favd by

Mrs Capehart