

Sir

Washington Nov. 21. 1808.

I have it in charge from the President of the United States Military Philosophical Society to present you a diploma of membership.

The execution of this honorable service is peculiarly gratifying, as it affords me an opportunity of assuring you of the high consideration and respect with which I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most Obedient

W. Rogers

The President of the United States.
