

Dear Sir

Your esteemed favour of 23^d Inst was regularly forwarded, had I been in place to receive it — The Facts stated in answer to my queries, are highly important, and as such shall endeavour to palliate the suffering of our fellow citizens, by forwarding the deductions from the communication, with such other documents as I can collect on the subject, (as early as Dr French of Fred^d will forward me the infection) to my Medical friends of Kentucky & Tennessee

It will afford me pleasure to accompany you on a view of the grounds over which I proposed this new road should pass, and will cause a servant to meet you on the George Town road to conduct you to my House on next Saturday morning or any other morning or day that you may find it convenient to yourself, during this or the
