

May 9 1804

Sir,

By the mail which arrived last evening from Savannah in Georgia
I rec^d the inclosed extra sheet, and supposing the conduct of Judge Bowen to be of a very extraordinary nature, have taken the liberty of transmitting the sheet to you for your perusal, and am Sir

with sentiments of esteem
to your friend & fellow Citizen
Ben: Ragsdale

Petersburg. V.
9 May 1804

L. V.

of the mine which occurs but every four barrels in place for the mine is a bit, and every the amount of charge should be of a very extraordinary nature, have taken the best of them
this paper for your papers, and on the

with various other
of fine yellow color
Dr. J. J. J. J.
L. V.

London, 7.
May 1847

Ragsdale Iron, Scotland, May 9. 02.
1847? May 14.