

Balto. 13. th Octo. 1823

Sir

You do the favor to remit me in New York one hundred Dollars, directed to the same person you direct the letters, letters - I wish this money in order to depart for Italy, to ~~work~~ ^{fulfil} the commission of the University. I should not have troubled you had I been able to sell my sculptures in Richmond.

I would entreat you not fail in this remittance as it will be necessary for me to have the money to go to Italy - at Richmond. I spoke to Dr. Brockebrough he promised to remit me 100^l for Balto - he has not done it, & I am obliged to borrow money here to go to New York -

Respectfully yr Obedt.

Giacomo Gaggi

Your letter of the 13th inst. has just been received and I am glad to hear that you are well and hope that the weather is now better than it was some days ago. I am sorry to hear that you have had a cold and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am sure that you will be very happy to hear from me again. I am very affectionately yours
 Giacomo Raggi
