

Feb 18 1825

Hopkissville N.Y. July 18 1823

Dear Sir

That sweetening principle of equality so happily blended in ~~the~~ Government, which gives to all & every one the privilege of greeting whomsoever he may, now stars me in the face, while I write to solicit your opinion upon the leading principle in the Politics of our State. They are no doubt familiar to you, as it has become somewhat notorious for its Legislative strides. I should be proud to lay your opinions & views, upon the subject of Legislative Supremacy before the good people of this Commonwealth. I know they would be correct, & speak volumes of satisfactory truth upon the subject.

If you will make a sermonary of them and enclose <sup>them</sup> to me by mail, you will confer a lasting obligation upon the People of this State, & particularly, a favor upon your most devoted servant

 Friend & Servant
 James G. Pitts

Pitts James G. Hopkinton N.H. Feb. 18. 25.

recd. Mar. 12.

Mr. James G. Hopkinton
Hopkinton N.H.

James G. Hopkinton
Hopkinton N.H.