

[July 16, 1789?]

Sir -

I did not have taken the Liberty of writing to you if I had not been encouraged by the fullest confidence in your Friendship for my uncle Doctor Price - when I left London He was induc'd by the contents of your last Letter to suppose that in the present time you had reach'd America - I was therefore charg'd with no specific Message to yourself. But I have brought Letters for M. Target and C. Mirabeau expressive of my uncle's and L^d Lansdowne's eager desire to know some certainty about the State of things in this place - Dr Price when he deliver'd these Letters deplo'r'd your suppos'd absence - since my arrival in Paris, my Friend Mr Dallas, inform'd me of your unexpected Delay - and of the possibility of my seeing you - I leave this place on Tuesd^y Ev^g. I shall be at Versailles till to Morrow Even^g. Ho^d you therefore be disengag'd either on the Mond^y or the Tuesd^y Morn^g. I will do myself the Honor to call upon you - Ho^d your engagements call your attention elsewhere any Message sent ^{for me} at our grand Hotel Palais Royal will be deliver'd with care and will afford the highest gratification to Dr Price - I am with the greatest Respect

Yr. Obedient^t
Geo. C. Morgan -

Grand hôtel de

Palais Royal cour des fontaines

Sat. Morn^g -

July . 11 - [1789?]

Morgan George C.

[Faint, illegible handwriting throughout the page, likely bleed-through from the reverse side.]