SCOUTING JAMES MADISON

James Madison enjoyed one of the best turnarounds in the country this season. The Dukes are 18-13 overall and 9-9 in the CAA under first-year head coach Matt Brady. JMU was 13-17 last season and had not enjoyed a winning season since 2000. The .500 league record was four games better than the Dukes' 5-13 last season.

James Madison enters the tournament as one of the top offensive teams in the CAA. The Dukes rank second in the conference in scoring at 71.5 points per game, while also ranking second in 3-point percentage (36.1) and third in field goal percentage (45.2). JMU is not only the top free throw shooting team in the CAA, but ranks 14th nationally in the category at 75.4 percent from the charity stripe. On the defensive side of the ball, James Madison ranks second in the CAA and 47th nationally in 3-point field goal percentage defense at 31.8.

Senior Juwann James leads the Dukes at 15.8 points per game, but missed 11 games this season due to injury. He is shooting 59.4 percent from the floor and ranks second on the squad in rebounds at 5.1 per affair. He was a second-team All-CAA honoree this season. Senior Kyle Swanston leads the CAA in 3-pointers per game at 2.7 per contest. His 41.1 percent shooting from 3-point range ranks second in the CAA and 30th nationally. He is second on the team in scoring at 11.9 points per game.

League Rookie of the Year Julius Wells also averages 11.9 points per game, while leading the Dukes in rebounding at 5.5 per contest. He ranks fifth in the league at 38.7 percent shooting from 3-point range. Freshman guard Devon Moore, who has missed each of the Dukes last three games due to injury, joined Wells on the All-Rookie Team. He is the fourth JMU player averaging in double figures at 10.1 points per game, while also topping the team in assists at 3.1 per affair.

James Madison won both meetings with the Tribe this season by nine points. The Dukes defeated W&M, 74-65, in Williamsburg, before reeling a 76-67 victory over the College at home. The wins snapped an eight-game winning streak for the Tribe in the season series. The Tribe won the last meeting between the two schools in the CAA Tournament during the 2005 campaign.

MCDOWELL, SCHNEIDER EARN CAA AWARDS

Junior David Schneider and freshman Quinn McDowell were honored by the CAA during the league's annual awards banquet. Schneider earned Third-Team All-CAA accolades as well as First-Team CAA All-Academic Team honors, while McDowell became the seventh Tribe player in the last eight seasons to be named to the league's All-Rookie Team.

After earning All-Rookie honors as a freshman in 2007 and just missing out on all-league distinction last season, Schneider gave the College its sixth All-CAA honor under head coach Tony Shaver. It marks the 19th occasion a W&M player has been named to the All-CAA squad, and he is the 14th different player to garner the accolade. Schneider leads the Tribe in scoring and ranks seventh in the CAA at 14.4 points per game. He ranks second in the CAA in free throw percentage, third in 3-pointers made per game and 15th in assists per contest.

Schneider became the fourth W&M player to earn two First-Team CAA All-Academic Team honors, joining Matt O'Reilly (1989, 1990) Nick D'Antoni (2004, 2005) and Adam Hess (2002, 2003, 2004). Last year, the business marketing major, along with being named a First-Team CAA All-Academic team honoree, was the league's Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He was the 10th player named to the All-Academic team in Shaver's six seasons.

McDowell became the 18th Tribe player to be named to the league's All-Rookie Team. The Mason. Ohio native garnered CAA Rookie of the Week honors on three occasions this season. He ranks among top five CAA rookies in minutes, points and rebounds per game as well as field goal, 3-point and free throw percentage. McDowell ranks third on the Tribe in scoring at 9.5 points per game, while leading the team in field goal percentage (51 percent) and rebounding (4.5 per game).

MR. BIG SHOT

Junior wing Danny Sumner came up with a big shot in the Tribe's 48-47 win over Drexel on Feb. 28. The 6-7, 215-pounder connected on a 3-pointer from in front of the Tribe bench with 29.5 seconds remaining to give W&M the one-point victory. He finished with a gamehigh 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting, including 3-of-5 from 3-point range.

It was not the first last second triple for the Tribe this season. Earlier in the year, W&M connected on a trio of last second treys to send games against Navy and Liberty to overtime. With 5.9 seconds remaining in regulation against the Midshipmen, Sumner connected on a 3-pointer to cap a 12-point Tribe rally in the final five minutes to send the contest to its first OT period. Freshman Quinn McDowell followed suit with triple from the right wing with 2.2 seconds remaining in the second OT period, sending the affair to a third extra session. In the College's double overtime loss at Liberty. Schneider capped an 11-point W&M comeback in the final 3:17 with a 3-pointer from the left wing with 22.4 seconds remaining to send the contest to OT.

TRIBE TOURNEY SUCCESS UNDER SHAVER

No W&M head coach has enjoyed more success in the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament than current Tribe headman Tony Shaver. In the 18 years prior to Shaver's arrival in Williamsburg, the College totaled two CAA Tournament wins. Over the last five under his direction, the Green and Gold owns four league tournament wins, including last season's magical run to the program's first CAA Championship game appearance.

PROTECTING THE LEATHER

The College has done a better job of protecting the basketball recently. Over its last two contests, W&M is only averaging 9.5 turnovers per game, while dishing out 30 assists in close contests with Old Dominion (Feb. 25) and Drexel (Feb. 28). It has been a growing trend for the Green and Gold lately as over its last four CAA games, W&M has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.47 (63-to-43).

THIRD TIMES THE CHARM

Freshman forward Quinn McDowell was named CAA Rookie of the Week for the third time on March 2. The Mason, Ohio native was also named the league rookie of the week on Jan. 5 and Feb. 9. McDowell, along with James Madison's Julius Wells, is one of only two league rookies to earn the weekly honor on three occasions this season. Wells was named the CAA Rookie of the Week on four occasions.

The 6-5, 195-pounder was recently garnered the accolade for averaging 9.5 points per game and shooting 50 percent from the floor in the Tribe's contests at Old Dominion and against Drexel. In the victory over the Dragons, McDowell was one of three Tribe players in double figures with 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting.

McDowell garnered the Feb. 9th honor after averaging 13.5 points and four rebounds in the Tribe's games against two of the top teams in the CAA, Northeastern and VCU. In the Tribe's 68-63 upset of then-CAA-leading Northeastern on Feb. 4, McDowell scored a game and then career-high 19 points on 6-of-10 shooting from the floor and a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe.

The Tribe rookies' first weekly CAA honor came on Jan. 5 after he led W&M in scoring (12.5 ppg) and rebounding (7 rpg) in its split of games against Harvard and Northeastern. He shot 64.2 percent from the floor and was a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. In the victory over Harvard, McDowell turned in his first collegiate double-double with career marks in points (13) and rebounds (10). He followed that up with 12 points and four rebounds off the bench at Northeastern.

SILENT CONTRIBUTOR

Junior forward Steven Hess, despite playing in only 23 games this season, has provided W&M with productive minutes off the bench as a reserve post player. He came up big for the College in its 48-47 win over Drexel. In 12 minutes of action, the Charlotte, N.C., native pulled down a career-best seven rebounds, while adding two points, an assist and a blocked shot.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE?

The Tribe will attempt to repeat its impressive CAA Tournament run from a season ago, beginning with James Madison in the first round on March 6. Last season, W&M enjoyed a magical run to the league championship game for the first time in school history, reeling off three last second victories in downing Georgia State, Old Dominion and regular season champion VCU. The Tribe's run came to a close in the title game against George Mason. The CAA title game was the College's first-ever national TV appearance on ESPN.

In the opening round, the College turned the tables on Georgia State as a David Schneider's 3-pointer from the top of the key with 1.5 seconds remaining gave the College a 58-57 victory. The previous season, GSU's Leonard Mendez drilled a buzzer-beater to send the College home in the opening round. The Tribe overcame a six-point deficit against the Panthers in the final 1:25 as Schneider scored eight of his game-high 20 points in the final seconds.

W&M overcame a slow start against Old Dominion in the quarterfinals, and a Nathan Mann 3-pointer from the left wing found the bottom of the net with 7.5 seconds left, giving the Green and Gold a 63-60 victory. Laimis Kisielius and Danny Sumner led the way with 16 points each.

A Kisielius six-foot bank shot with three seconds remaining sent the College to its firstever CAA Championship game as W&M defeated VCU, 56-54, in the semifinals. Kisielius scored a game-high 23 points to go along with six assists, while Sumner added 19 points. The Tribe trailed by six points at the half, but rallied to take an eight-point second-half advantage prior to Kisielius' game-winner.

TRIBE LEGEND - BRANT WEIDNER

Former Tribe standout Brant Weidner will be honored as the W&M 2009 Colonial Athletic Association Legend. The league's legends will be recognized at the CAA Awards Banquet on March 5, and during the 2009 CAA Men's Basketball Championship at the Richmond Coliseum, March 6-9.

Weidner was the first and only William and Mary player to play in the National Basketball Association (NBA) after being drafted in the fourth round of the 1983 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs. Weidner was the 20th pick of the fourth round and the 90th overall. #### WHITLEY INDUCTED IN W&M HALL OF FAME

Former Tribe player Scott Whitley (1978-81) will be inducted into the W&M Athletics Hall of Fame on March 28. He is one of eight former W&M student-athletes scheduled to be inducted into the Hall of Fame this year.

Whitley led the Tribe in scoring during the 1979, 1980 and 1981 seasons and finished his career with 1,061 points, which ranks 25th on the W&M career scoring list. Whitley is one of only two players and the last W&M student-athlete to lead the College in points, rebounds and assists per game in a single season, which he accomplished in 1979. As a junior in 1980, Whitley averaged a career-high 13.4 points per game.

During each of his final three seasons in Williamsburg, Whitley led the Tribe in free throw shooting. He finished his career as a 75.9 percent shooter from the charity stripe and had a career-best 80.2 percent free throw percentage in 1980. Whitley finished his W&M career ranked eighth on the steals list with 128, averaging 1.3 per contest. In 2007, Whitley was recognized as Tribe's CAA Legend during the league tournament.

The Indiana Pacers selected Whitley with the 12th pick of the ninth round (195th overall) in the 1981 NBA Draft. Whitley is an experienced attorney for Morgan & Morgan, PA in Florida.

W&M FORMS MASCOT COMMITTEE

William and Mary President Taylor Reveley informed the campus community on Friday morning about the creation of a 13-member Mascot Committee that is charged to encourage and review potential mascot ideas submitted by the broader William & Mary community. Tribe Athletics Director Terry Driscoll will head the college's search for mascot.

"We have the 'Tribe.' which will continue to unite us." said Reveley. "but the College has lacked a mascot ever since the feathers bit the dust. We need a mascot for all purposes at William & Mary, athletic and other. It's time to find one and have fun in the process."

The committee will look to collect, then disseminate mascot concepts for feedback from the W&M community.

Ultimately, the mascot committee will make a final recommendation to President Taylor Reveley.

"This will be a very open and inclusive selection process," said Driscoll, adding that the committee's first order of business will be deciding on guidelines for submissions. Updates on the process and time lines will be posted on the committee's Web site. "We encourage people to participate and submit ideas."

The College currently has no intentions of changing its Tribe nickname or any other of its branded images or colors during this process.

In conjunction with Reveley's message, the mascot committee launched a Web site at www.wm.edu/mascot so that people can submit ideas or comments, ask questions and learn about the process through a section of frequently asked questions. The goal, Driscoll said, is for the committee to bring final recommendations to the president during the fall of 2009.

ON THE GLASS

The Tribe outrebounded three of its last four opponents, including back-to-back strong performances on the glass against squads with solid rebounding numbers entering the game. The College started the stretch by pulling down 37 rebounds compared to 33 for Towson in a road victory. The effort on the class came less than a month after the Tigers outrebounded the Tribe, 39-30, in the team's meeting in Williamsburg. In the College's BracketBusters game against Manhattan, W&M held a 39-37 advantage on the glass. The Jaspers entered the game with a rebounding margin of nearly four. The most impressive showing on the glass for the Green and Gold came in its last contest at Old Dominion. The Monarchs entered the

SCHNEIDER CLOSING IN ON SCHOOL-RECORD MARK

Junior guard David Schneider is closing in on a pair of school records for 3-point shooting. His 2.61 3-pointers made per game is currently better than the school-record mark of 2.59 held Greg Burzell during the 1987-88 season. Schneider is also just two triples short of the single-season 3-point field goals made record. In total, the Phoenix, Ariz., native has connected on 73 3-point field goals on the season, which is tied for second in school history with Nathan Mann's total from last season behind only Burzell's 75 from 1987-88. Schneider has already established a W&M single season record for 3-pointers attempted with 241. The number also ranks eighth on the all-time CAA list, which is only seven attempts behind the fifth-place total of 248 from Dominick Mejia (Drexel) during the 2005-06 season. Mark Poag of Old Dominion is fourth at 253 during the 1996-97.

3 HEAVY

The Tribe has relied heavily on the 3-pointer over the last three seasons and in the process has produced three of the best statistical seasons when it comes to shooting from long range. Last season, the College established a CAA record for 3-pointers made (257) and 3pointers attempted (755). Already this season, the College has connected on 201-of-635 from 3-point range. Both totals rank second behind last season's CAA records. Overall it marks the third straight season in which the Tribe has attempted more than 600 3-point field goals and made 200 or more. The Tribe's current average of 6.93 3-pointers per game ranks second in school history behind the 7.79 from last season. As of March 2, W&M ranked 24th nationally in percentage of field goal attempts coming from 3-point range, according to Kenpom.com. On the year, 41.5 percent of the Tribe's field goal attempts have come from beyond the 3-point arc.

HELPING HAND

The College dished out 400-plus assists for the second straight season in 2008-09. After dishing out 441 assists last season, the Tribe has handed out 402 so far this season. It marked the first time in 31 years that W&M had enjoyed back-to-back seasons of 400 or more assists. The last time in occurred was during the 1977 and 1978 campaign.

W&M has done of better job of finding the open man lately. Over its last five CAA games, W&M is averaging 16.2 assists per game. Also over the five-game league stretch, W&M has an assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.33 (81 assists/61 turnovers). At Old Dominion on Feb. 25, the Tribe dished out 20 assists, the squad's most in CAA play this season. More impressive was the fact that those 20 helpers came on 25 field goals made. The Tribe dished out 18 assists in its contests against UNC Wilmington on Feb. 11 and James Madison on Feb. 14, before registering 15 at Towson. Those 18 helpers against UNCW came on 27 made field goals, while occurring on 25 made field goals at the Dukes. According to Kenpom.com (as of Feb. 26), the College ranks 27th nationally in assist percentage at 62.5 percent. That means that more than 60 percent of the Tribe's made field goals have come as a result of assists from teammates. The percentage is second among CAA schools, behind only Old Dominion.

DEFENSE LEADS TO WINS

The Tribe's success in 2008-09 has relied heavily on the Green and Gold's defensive prowess. In its victories this season, the College is limiting opponents to 54.1 points per game and a shooting percentage of 36.5. In contrast, Tribe opponents are scoring 68 points per game and shooting 45.5 percent from the field in W&M's losses. On the year, the Tribe ranks fifth in the CAA in scoring defense and sixth in 3-point field goal percentage defense. The College's 63.2 points per game allowed ranks 59th nationally in scoring defense.

SCHNEIDER SCORING

Junior guard David Schneider has found his scoring touch recently for the Tribe. The 6-3 guard is averaging 17 points per game over his last five contests and has topped the 20-point mark on two occasions over the stretch. In the College's win at Towson. Schneider scored the second-highest total of his career with 26, before registering a game-high 22 points at Old Dominion on Feb. 25. On the year, he has scored in double-digits a team-best 20 times, while also topping the 20-point mark a team-high six times.

Over his last 11 games (he missed the Jan. 28 Towson contest due to injury), the Phoenix, Ariz., native has scored in doubles figures on nine occasions, including six contests of 17 or more points. With his recent scoring outburst, Schneider leads W&M and ranks seventh in the CAA in scoring at 14.4 points per game.

SUMNER AMONG TRIBE 3-POINT LEADERS

Junior Danny Sumner has etched his named into the W&M record books for 3-point shooting both this season and over his career. In 2008-09, the Fairfax, Va., native has connected on 53-of-162 from long range. His 53 3-pointers made rank 15th on the Tribe's singleseason list, while his 162 attempts are the 10th most in program history. Sumner also ranks among the Tribe's career leaders in 3-pointers made, attempted, made per game and percentage. He is 12th in career 3-point percentage at 33.2. His 1.04 3-pointers made per game average is 13th in Tribe history, while his 86 treys are 15th in program annals and his 259 attempts are the 15th most on the career list.

'08-09 TRIBE BASKETBALL

CAA Tournament (3/6/09-3/9/09)

BACKCOURT BOARDING

The Tribe owned the glass in its victory over Towson thanks in large part to the rebounding production of its starting backcourt. Junior David Schneider and freshman Kendrix Brown pulled down 19 of the College's 37 rebounds against the Tigers. Brown finished with a careerbest 10 rebounds, while Schneider narrowly missed his second double-double of the season with nine boards. The nine rebounds marked the second-highest total of Schneider's career, behind only the 11 he garnered earlier this season against George Mason.

STROKING IT FROM DEEP

W&M produced back-to-back games of double-digit 3-pointers made against UNCW on Feb. 11 and James Madison on Feb. 14. The College drilled 10 longballs against UNCW before hitting 11 at James Madison. It marked the third time this season W&M hit double-digit 3-pointers in back-to-back games, but the 10 threes made against UNCW was the first double-digit performance since Nov. 29 at Liberty. The College has connected on double-digit treys 15 times over the last two years and 24 times overall under the direction of head coach Tony Shaver. The Tribe is 15-9 under Shaver when connecting on 10 or more threes in a game.

STIFLING DEFENSE

In its victory over UNCW on Feb. 11, the Tribe limited the Seahawks to 22.7 percent shooting from the floor and 40 total points. UNCW entered the game leading the CAA in scoring at 73.4 points per contest. The defensive performance was a record-setting one for the Tribe as the Seahawks field goal percentage was the lowest ever for a CAA opponent against the College. W&M limited UNCW to the lowest point total for a Green and Gold league foe since 1984. The last time a Tribe conference opponent finished with fewer than 40 points was during the 1984 ECAC Tournament when East Carolina scored 32 in a 47-32 Tribe win.

SUMNER DOUBLING UP

Junior forward Danny Sumner tallied his second double-double of the season with 19 points and 10 rebounds off the bench in the Tribe's victory over UNCW. Making the numbers more impressive was the fact that the 6-7 wing played only 24 minutes. He scored 17 of his game-high 19 points in the second half as the College shot 63.3 percent from the floor in the second 20 minutes of action. Earlier this season, Sumner became the first W&M player in nearly 50 years to score 30 points and pull down 10 or more rebounds against Navy. He is the first W&M player to record multiple double-doubles in a season since Corey Cofield had five during the 2004-05 season.

STEIN AMONG TRIBE CAREER LEADERS

Senior forward Peter Stein has appeared in 117 career games donning the Green and Gold to go along with 81 career starts and 2481 minutes played. His career games played total ranks third in W&M history. With the College's CAA Tournament game against James Madison, Stein will move into sole possession of third place after residing in a tie with former teammate Laimis Kisielius. The Houston, Texas native's career minutes played total is 18th in W&M history. Stein ranks among the Tribe's career leaders in field goal percentage as well, connecting on 52.1 percent from the floor over his four seasons. His percentage ranks eighth in Green and Gold history. He also ranks 13th on the Tribe's career blocked shots list.

KITTS AS A STARTER

Sophomore forward Marcus Kitts moved into the Tribe starting lineup against Georgia State on Jan. 31 and has produced solid numbers in his first collegiate starts. In his eight starts, Kitts is averaging six points and 3.9 rebounds per game, while shooting 73.3 percent from the floor in 15.9 minutes. He has scored eight or more points in four of his eight starts, including a perfect 4-of-4 from the floor for eight points at ODU. After scoring nine points on 4-of-4 shooting from the floor to go along with five rebounds against the Panthers, Kitts turned in an all-around performance against Northeastern with six points, six rebounds and a career-high four assists. In the College's most recent win over UNCW, Kitts finished with eight points and four rebounds. At Towson, the 6-9 sophomore turned in an 8-point, 5-rebound effort.

FRESHMAN TOTALS

With his 19-point, four-rebound effort against Northeastern, freshman Quinn McDowell became the 14th W&M rookie to score at least 200 points and pull down at least 100 rebounds in a season. McDowell currently ranks third on the team in scoring at nine points per game to go along with a team-best 4.7 rebounds per contest. Currently, McDowell currently ranks among the Tribe's freshman top-five single-season lists in field goal, 3-point field goal and free throw percentage. He ranks second in 3-point field goal percentage at 40, third in free throw percentage at 80.3 and fourth in field goal percentage at 51.

McDOWELL SHOOTING THE LONGBALL

Over the last 14 games, freshman forward Quinn McDowell has developed into a 3-point option for the Green and Gold. Following an 0-of-4 effort from 3-point range in the Tribe's loss to James Madison on Jan. 10. McDowell's percentage dropped to 20.8 percent from 3-point range. He was 5-of-24 from deep through the opening 15 games and had missed each of its last nine attempts from 3-point range. The Green and Gold rookie spent a little extra time in the gym, which has paid dividends. Over the last 14 games, McDowell is shooting 51.2 percent (21-of-41) from 3-point range. His 21 longball over the stretch are more than quadruple the five he made in the first 15 games. McDowell connected on multiple triples in six of the 14 contests, including a career-best three against Towson and at James Madison.

DISHING IT OUT

W&M ranks four in the CAA in assists per game at 13.9. The average is the best for the College since 2004. The Tribe's assist total for the season of 402 ranks eighth in the program's history. On four occasions, W&M has eclipsed the 20-assist mark. W&M dished out season-best 23 helpers at Liberty on Nov. 29 and against Haverford on Dec. 20. Most recently, the College had 20 assists at Old Dominion.

DEFENSE A KEY TO SUCCESS

One of the biggest keys to success for the College has been its play on the defensive end. W&M is 8-3 this season when holding opponents under 60 points this season. Under head coach Tony Shaver, W&M is 32-14 when allowing opponents to score fewer than 60 points in a game over the last six years. When W&M holds opponents to below 40 percent shooting from the floor, the Tribe is 7-1 in 2008-09 and 16-2 over the last two seasons. In Shaver's six years at the helm, the Green and Gold is 33-13 when holding opponents to a shooting percentage below 40 percent.

ROOKIE STARTERS

In each of the Tribe's last 13 contests, W&M head coach Tony Shaver has gone with different looks in the starting lineup. On every occasion the first five on the court has had one constant, the freshman pair of Kendrix Brown and Quinn McDowell. The pair has put up impressive numbers as starters in those contests. Over the stretch, McDowell is second on the team at 11.1 points per game to go along with a team-best 4.8 rebounds per game. Brown, on the other hand, has been more of a floor general. He has led the squad in assists on five occasions. He registered three assists compared to just one turnover in both games at Delaware and Hofstra, before handing out four assists at Drexel. Brown dished out a careerhigh tying five helpers vs. Towson. In the College's most recent at Towson, he finished with an impressive stat line of a career best 10 rebounds to go along with four assists compared to zero turnovers.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

After starting six games earlier this season with various players battling injury, freshman guard Kendrix Brown earned his way back into the first five and does not appear he will be parting with his spot anytime soon. The Norfolk, Va., native has started each of the College's last 13 games and led the Green and Gold in assists in five of those contests. Over the 12game stretch, Brown is leading the Tribe at 2.8 assists per game.

Known for his athleticism and ability on the defensive end through the opening half of the season, the Tribe rookie has started to show his skill on the offensive end of the court as well. Brown enjoyed a career night in the Tribe's 74-65 setback to James Madison on Jan. 10 as he tallied his first career double-digit scoring performance with 10 points on 4-of-7 from the floor. The 6-3 guard followed that performance with seven-point outings against both UNC Wilmington and George Mason. He tallied eight points in the opening half against UNCW in Williamsburg to help the Tribe to a halftime lead and eventual victory.

BENCH SCORING AND REBOUNDING

A signature of W&M teams under head coach Tony Shaver over the last few seasons has been the College's production off the bench and 2008-09 is no different. The Tribe is outscoring and outrebounding its opponents off the bench this season. W&M is producing 19 points and 11.3 rebounds per game off the bench compared to 18.2 points and 9.6 rebounds per game from its opposition. In total, the Green and Gold has outscored its foes in 15 of the College's 29 games, while outrebounding its opponents on 18 occasions.

On 15 occasions this season, the College has produced a double-digit scorer off the bench. Freshman Quinn McDowell has topped the Tribe in scoring off the bench on 10 occasions, including six double-digit scoring performances. He has also topped the W&M bench in rebounding on 10 occasions. #### MIGHTY QUINN

Over the last 20 games, freshman Quinn McDowell has developed into a consistent scoring option for the Tribe. He is averaging 10.7 points and a team-best 5.2 rebounds per game, while shooting 51.4 percent from the floor and 42.9 percent from 3-point range. In 10 of his last 20 games, McDowell has scored double-digits, including a career-high 20 points at James Madison. He has also been a consistent scoring option, having scored fewer than seven points in only three games during the stretch.

McDowell has made an impact on the Tribe lineup throughout his rookie season. Appearing in all 29 games with 14 starts, the Mason, Ohio native ranks third on the team in scoring at 9.5 points per game and leads the team at 4.5 rebounds per game. Prior to starting each of the last 13 games for W&M, he led the Tribe bench in scoring on 10 occasions this season, including six double-digit showings.

SCHNEIDER FROM THE CHARITY STRIPE

Over the last two seasons, junior David Schneider has proven to be one of the best free throw shooters in the CAA. After ranking second in the league in free throw percentage last season at 85.5 percent, Schneider is hitting on 84.6 percent this season and again ranks second in the league in the statistical category. As of the latest NCAA rankings released on March 1, Schneider ranks 47th nationally in free throw shooting. His career free throw percentage of 80.6 (232-of-288) currently ranks sixth in W&M history.

MOVING UP THE CAREER STANDINGS

With his lone 3-point field goal against Manhattan, junior David Schneider moved into sole possession of third-place on the Tribe's career 3-pointers made list. He currently has 179 for his career and bettered the previous third-place mark of Randy Bracy on the Tribe's career list. In his three seasons with the Green and Gold, Schneider has averaged two 3pointers per game, and at his current pace, he will become the most prolific 3-point shooter in school history. His two 3-pointers per game over his career is the third-best in school history.

DYNAMIC DUO

The Tribe possesses one of the best 1-2 scoring punches in the CAA in juniors Danny Sumner and David Schneider. Schneider ranks seventh in the CAA at 14.4 points per game, while Sumner is 12th at 13.2. W&M is one of three schools in the league with two players among the top 12 in scoring. The duo has accounted for 785 of the Tribe's 1796 points this season, which equates to 43.7 percent. In 24 of the Tribe's 28 games this season, either Sumner, Schneider or both has led the Tribe in scoring with Sumner leading the way on 13 occasions and Schneider 11 times.

On four occasions this season, both Sumner and Schneider scored 20 or more points. In W&M's home-opening win over Norfolk State, the duo both scored 20-plus points, becoming the first W&M pair to pull the trick since 2005. In W&M's 3OT loss to Navy, Schneider and Sumner became only the second set of teammates in W&M history to score 30 or more points in the same game. Both turned in career-best totals as Schneider scored a gamehigh 31 points and Sumner added 30 points. The feat last occurred during the 1967-68 season.

CLUTCH FREE THROWS

While the Tribe is shooting 65.4 percent from the charity stripe on the season, W&M has seen its free throw percent increase dramatically over the final five minutes of regulation and in overtime. The Green and Gold connects on 76.5 percent of its free throws during that time frame. Junior guard David Schneider, who ranks 30th nationally at 86.1 percent from the foul line, is a near perfect 36-of-39 from the free throw line in the final five minutes and overtime. Here is a look at how the Tribe has fared from the free throw line over the final five minutes of regulation and in overtime:

Chris Darnell	10-of-10 (1.000)
Alex Smith	3-of-3 (1.000)
David Schneider	36-of-39 (.923)
Quinn McDowell	20-of-22 (.909)
Kendrix Brown	13-of-20 (.650)
Danny Sumner	18-of-26 (.692)
Peter Stein	11-of-16 (.688)
Steven Hess	2-of-3 (.667)
Sean McCurdy	8-of-14 (.571)
Marcus Kitts	2-of-5 (.400)
Matt McFadden	1-of-4 (.250)
Total	124-of-162 (.765)

STEIN IN CHARGE

Over the last two seasons, senior forward Peter Stein has been regarded as the Tribe's top defender, doing numerous things that do not translate over to the box score. Last season, Stein led the Tribe with 20 charges taken and in rebounding at 4.8 per game. He has already bettered his charge total during his senior season as he once again tops the team in charges taken with 24.

A HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Sophomore forward Marcus Kitts celebrated his 20th birthday on Jan. 31, the same night as the Tribe's game against Georgia State, and the 6-9 forward earned his first collegiate start. Kitts turned in a solid performance in the post, finishing with a team-high nine points on 4-of-4 from the field to go along with five rebounds.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES AROUND

Junior guard David Schneider became the third Tribe player this season to register a double-double, finishing with 15 points and 11 rebounds against George Mason on Jan. 14. Fellow classmate Danny Sumner had a double-double earlier this season against Navy, while freshman Quinn McDowell notched a double-double at home in the Tribe's win over Harvard. It marks the first time since the 2003-04 season that three different Tribe players registered a double-double during the season. Going into this season, no Tribe player had accomplished the feat in three seasons. During the 2003-04 season, Nick D'Antoni, Zeb Cope, Adam Hess and Corey Cofield each registered double-doubles during that campaign.

MCDOUBLE-DOUBLE

Freshman forward Quinn McDowell became the second W&M player this year to register a double-double, finishing with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Both totals were season highs as McDowell became the first Tribe rookie since Corey Cofield in 2004 to register a double-double. Cofield had six double-doubles during his freshman year in 2003-04 on his way to earning CAA Rookie of the Year honors. McDowell is the second and one of only four freshmen in the CAA this season to register a double-double.

TRIUMPHANT RETURN

After missing a total of 38 games over the last two seasons due to injuries, junior forward Alex Smith made a big return to the W&M lineup in the College's victories over Haverford and Harvard. Smith missed 29 games last season due to injury, including the final 27 of the year after suffering a season-ending injury in December. The injuries carried over to the 2008-09 season, causing him to miss the opening nine games this season. In his first game back from injury vs. Haverford, he equaled a career-high with 16 points on 6-of-6 shooting from the floor. He connected on his only 3-point field goal attempt and finished with four rebounds. Smith tallied 10 points and seven rebounds in W&M's contest against Harvard. The Greenville, S.C., native was 6-of-7 from the free throw line.

IMPACT TRANSFER

The College has a strong tradition of impact transfers under the direction of sixth-year head coach Tony Shaver. Hawley Smith served as a two-year captain for the Tribe during the 2005 and 2006 seasons after transferring from Temple, while Adam Payton earned All-CAA honors in 2007 after moving to Williamsburg from Vanderbilt. Payton is currently playing professionally in France. W&M has another impact transfer in the fold this season in junior guard Sean McCurdy, who sat out last season after transferring to the College from Arkansas.

Despite missing part of the season due to various injuries, McCurdy has started 11 of his 20 games this season and is averaging 4.2 points, 2.2 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game. He has topped the Tribe in assists on 10 occasions. In two seasons at Arkansas, McCurdy appeared in 61 games, while making six starts, in helping the Razorbacks to the NCAA Tournament twice

50 PERCENT EQUALS VICTORIES

The Tribe has been flawless under head coach Tony Shaver when it hits on 50 percent or better from the floor, going a combined 24-0 over his six seasons. W&M is 5-0 in 2008-09 when shooting 50 percent from the floor. Here is a look at the Tribe's 50-percent or better shooting from the field under Shaver:

FREE THROWS VALUABLE TO SUCCESS

Free throw shooting has proven to be another key ingredient in the Tribe's winning recipe over the last few seasons. Getting to the foul line has been a valuable commodity for the Green and Gold. Last season, W&M was 12-1 when connecting on more free throws than its opponent, and so far in 2008-09, the Tribe is 8-5.

Over the last four seasons, W&M is 30-15 when shooting 20 or more free throws in a game. Last season, the College was 9-2 when attempting 20 or more freebies in a contest and the Green and Gold is 6-4 this year when pulling the trick. It is just as important for the Tribe to connect on its free throw opportunities. W&M was 9-1 last season when making more than 15 free throws in a game. Over the last three seasons, the College has posted a 19-9 mark when connecting on 15 or more free throws. The Tribe's record jumps to 12-2 over the last four seasons when hitting on 20-plus free throws.

SCHOOL AND LEAGUE RECORDS FALL

In the Tribe's 80-74 overtime loss at Liberty in the championship game of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic, W&M set a pair of school and CAA records. The College attempted a program-high 46 3-pointers, bettering the previous mark of 39 set last season in a victory over UNC Wilmington. The total also topped the CAA record of 45 attempted by VCU in 2003 and Navy in 1990. Junior guard David Schneider not only bettered the W&M school record for 3-pointers attempted in a game with 23, but also topped the CAA mark. The previous school mark as well as the CAA record was 16 by W&M's Greg Burzell at Richmond in 1988.

AS TOUGH AS NAILS

Junior guard David Schneider is an all-out type of player, who gives it everything he has game after game. That statement was no more evident than in the Tribe's double-overtime game at Liberty. With less than two minutes remaining in the opening half, Schneider dove out of bounds to save the ball that resulted in a fast-break lay-up for the Tribe. On the dive, Schneider hit a guard rail that surrounds the playing floor and separates the fans from the court. He lost a tooth and needed stitches on two facial cuts. The injury did not impact the junior guard's effectiveness as he came out in the second half and went on to finish with a gamehigh 23 points on seven 3-pointers. One of those treys came with 22.4 seconds remaining in regulation to tie the game at 60 and send it to OT.

OVERTIME

In the championship game of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic, W&M played its second multiple overtime game of the season. In fact, the Tribe played a triple overtime game against Navy (Nov. 22) and a double overtime contest vs. Liberty (Nov. 29) in a week time frame. It marked the first time in school history that W&M played a triple OT and double OT game in the same season. The only other time W&M played two multiple OT games in a season was during the 1978-79 season when it played double OT games against East Carolina and Davidson. Those two games came nine days apart on Jan. 30, 1979 and Feb. 8, 1979.

The Tribe's triple overtime setback to Navy on Nov. 22 marked the fifth time in W&M history that the program played three overtime periods. The Green and Gold also played three OTs in 1949 against George Washington in the Southern Conference Tournament, in 1958 against Richmond, in 1961 against Furman in the Southern Conference Tournament and against Virginia Tech in 1981.

SUMNER FIVE STRAIGHT 20-POINT EFFORTS

Junior wing Danny Sumner became the first W&M player in nearly 40 years to score 20-plus points in five straight games from Nov. 19-29. He tallied his fifth straight game with 20 or more points, pouring in a game-high 23 points in the championship game of the Liberty Classic against the host Flames. During the streak, the Fairfax, Va., native added 20 points against South Carolina State (Nov. 28), 24 vs. Norfolk State (Nov. 19), a career-high 30 points against Navy (Nov. 22) and 21 points vs. Radford (Nov. 25). He became the first Tribe player since Bob Sherwood during the 1969-70 season to tally five straight games of 20 or more points. Sherwood had six consecutive games of 20-plus points against Richmond (21), at Duke (22), George Washington (20), Virginia Tech (23), VMI (22) and Virginia (20).

30 AND 10

Junior Danny Sumner was sensational for the Tribe in its triple overtime loss to Navy, finishing with the program's first double-double in three seasons with 30 points and 11 rebounds. The fact that makes those numbers more impressive is that its the first time a Tribe player has scored 30 or more points and pulled down 10 or more rebounds in a game since 1961. All-American Jeff Cohen pulled the trick with 49 points and 31 rebounds against Richmond during the 1961 campaign.

SCHNEIDER IN THE RECORD BOOKS

Junior David Schneider has already etched his name into the Tribe record books in a number of capacities. He ranks among the W&M career leaders in 11 career categories. Here is a look at where Schneider ranks in each category:

Assist-to-Turnover Ratio: 3rd (1.84) Minutes Per Game: 4th (32.9) Minutes Played: 10th (2864) 3-Pointers Made: 3rd (179) 3-Pointers Attempted: 3rd (566) 3-Pointers Made Per Game: 2nd (2.06) Assists Per Game: 9th (3.10) Assists: 14th (270) Steals Per Game: 10th (1.33) Steals: 13th (116) Free Throw Percentage: 6th (80.6 percent)

SUMNER NAMED CAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior Danny Sumner was named Colonial Athletic Association co-Player of the Week on Nov. 24. The 6-7 wing averaged 27 points and eight rebounds per game in the Tribe's first two home games of the season and shared the honor with Northeastern's Matt Janning.

In the home-opener against Norfolk State, Sumner scored a then-career high 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the floor in leading the College to a 74-58 win. The Fairfax, Va., native followed that performance by eclipsing his career mark for the second straight night, scoring 30 points and pulling down 11 rebounds. It was the first W&M double-double in three seasons. Sumner was 11-of-22 from the floor and 4-of-9 from 3-point range against the Midshipmen. With just five seconds remaining in regulation, the Tribe junior knocked down a trey from the left side to cap a 12-point W&M rally and send the game to OT. For the week, Sumner shot 60.6 percent (20-of-35) from the floor and 50 percent (7-of-14) from 3-point range.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Six current Tribe players are following in their father's footsteps playing athletics collegiately. Senior Peter Stein, juniors David Schneider and Sean McCurdy, sophomores Marcus Kitts and Matt McFadden as well as freshman Quinn McDowell are second-generation college athletes.

Three fathers played basketball collegiately, while three more were college football players. Schneider's father, Jeff, played basketball at Virginia Tech, before being drafted in the fifth round of the 1982 NBA Draft by the Houston Rockets. McCurdy's father, Bob, was an All-American at the University of Richmond after leading the nation in scoring during the 1975 season. McFadden's father, John, played basketball for four years at Rutgers.

Kitts' father, Jon, played college football at Central Michigan from 1978-81, while McDowell's father, Dave, graduated from W&M in 1985 and played football for current Tribe head coach Jimmye Laycock. Stein's father, Mike, played football at Princeton from 1973-76.

NEW FACES ON STAFF

While every year bring new faces to collegiate programs in form of players, W&M also added two new assistant coaches and a new director of basketball operations during the offseason. Former assistant coaches Dee Vick and Antwon Jackson left W&M for opportunities as the head coach at Hampden-Sydney College and an assistant coach at UMass, respectively. Those two vacancies paved the way for the hiring of Jamion Christian and Jonathan Holmes as assistant coaches. Both young coaches bring experience as both collegiate players and coaches. Coupled with third-year assistant Ben Wilkins, the Tribe's assistant coaching staff is one of the youngest in the country.

Christian spent the last two seasons on staff at Bucknell University. In Christian's first season with the Bison during the 2006-07 campaign, Bucknell finished with a 22-9 mark and advanced to the Patriot League Championship game before falling to Holy Cross. As a player, Christian was the VHSL Group A State Player of the Year at New Kent, before playing at Mount St. Mary's where he was a three-year captain.

Holmes has enjoyed coaching stops at Montreat College and Francis Marion University. He furthers the Tribe's North Carolina connection, having played four years for the Tar Heels. Holmes was runner-up for Indiana's "Mr. Basketball" as a high school senior, before helping North Carolina to the 2000 Final Four.

The Tribe also adds David Kontaxis to the program as the director of basketball operations during the offseason. Kontaxis spent seven seasons as a basketball coach at Central High School in Capitol Heights, Md. He was the head coach of the Falcon program the last two years after spending five season as an assistant.

KYLE GAILLARD, MATT RUM SIGN WITH TRIBE

William and Mary head men's basketball coach Tony Shaver announced the signing of Kyle Gaillard (Huntersville, N.C./North Mecklenburg) and Matt Rum (Chapel Hill, N.C./Loyola Blakefield) to National Letters of Intent. Both players will be eligible to compete for the Tribe during the 2009-10 season.

Kyle Gaillard (Huntersville, N.C./North Mecklenburg)

Gaillard is a three-year letterwinner for Duane Lewis at North Mecklenburg, where he helped propel the Vikings to the MECA-7 regular season championship and a North Carolina 4A Sectional Championship as a junior in 2008. The 6-7 lefty is averaging 18 points per game as a senior and scored his 1,000th career point earlier this year. Gaillard is rated the 49th-best small forward prospect in the country by ESPN.com.

Earlier this season, Gaillard scored a season-high 33 points in the Vikings victory over Central Cabarrus. He also knocked down seven 3-pointers in the first meeting between the two schools in December. As a junior, Gaillard averaged 17 points per game for one of the top teams in the state of North Carolina, while shooting 43 percent from 3-point range. He was named to the MECA-7 All-Conference team and received all-region honors.

Gaillard grew four inches between his sophomore and junior years of high school and is listed as a two-star recruit by Scout.com. As one of the top underclassmen in the state of North Carolina, Gaillard was invited to participate in the second annual Carolina Challenge in 2008 by national recruiting analyst Dave Telep. Prior to signing with the Tribe, Gaillard gained recruiting interest from Penn State, Michigan, Davidson and Winthrop. He was recently named a McDonald's All-American nominee.

During his high school career, Gaillard was named North Mecklenburg's Most Improved player in 2007. This coming season, he will serve as the Viking's team captain. Also during his high school career, Gaillard was a two-year letterwinner as a pitcher on the North Mecklenburg varsity baseball team.

During his AAU career, Gaillard was a part of six different teams that won North Carolina State Championships. He played for the Carolina Flight 11U-16U and the Charlotte Royals 17U. He participated in the 2008 Hoops Group Elite Camp and was named to two of their Super Seven lists, while playing in the summer event that included over 3,400 athletes. Hoops Group Elite ranked Gaillard the No. 6 in Best Player from Outside the Northeast list and also ranked him No. 3 in Best Players from North Carolina list.

Kyle is the son of Jill and Ted Gaillard and was born on April 15, 1991 in Naperville, Ill. His father, Ted, played baseball at the University of Delaware from 1977-79. At North Mecklenburg, Kyle was a Junior Marshall for the 2008 Graduating Class and was chosen based on his top 50 academic standing in the junior class of 525 students. As a senior in high school, Kyle was voted homecoming king at North Mecklenburg.

Matt Rum (Chapel Hill, N.C./Loyola Blakefield)

Rum signed with the Tribe as one of the top players in the Baltimore area. This season, he became the 13th player in Loyola Blakefield history to score 1,000 points in his career. Rum is averaging 17 points per game as a senior and prior to the 2008-09 campaign was named one of the Baltimore Sun Times Players to Watch. He was recently named First-Team All-Baltimore Catholic League for the second straight season as well as earning an invitation to participate in the 9th annual Charm City Challenge.

On Jan. 25, Rum scored his 1,000th career points against Calvert Hall. A week later, he scored a career-high 32 points in a doubleovertime win over Mt. St. Joseph's. Rum was 6-of-8 from 3-point range, including the game-tying triple at the end of regulation, and 12of-15 from the free throw line. It marked the second time this season that Rum has eclipsed the 30-point mark as he tallied 31 in Loyola Blakefield's first win over Towson Catholic in 11 years on Dec. 19.

As a junior, the 6-3 guard was named to the All MIAA 'A' Conference, All-Baltimore Catholic League and All-Baltimore County. Rum led Loyola Blakefield to the semifinals of the BCL playoffs for the first time since 1998 as he averaged 15.7 points per game, 5.7 rebounds and knocked down 44 3-point field goals. The Baltimore Catholic League is nationally known for its high level of play and producing numerous Division I and NBA players. Rum also was named the MVP of Gilman High School Holiday Tournament as a junior. During his sophomore year at Loyola, Rum averaged 14.8 points per game, while shooting 40 percent from 3-point range. He highlighted the campaign by knocking down eight 3-pointers on his way to a career-high 30 points in a victory over Archbishop Curley.

Rum also received recruiting interest from Towson, Radford and Boston University. He played AAU basketball for Severna Park/ Maryland 3D and is listed as a two-star recruit by Scout.com. Rum grew up in Chapel Hill, N.C., prior to moving to Baltimore for high school. He played AAU for the North Carolina Gators out of Greensboro and helped the program to 13U and 14U state championships.

As a youth, Rum was a ball boy at Duke University in 2000 when the Blue Devils had the likes of current and former NBA players Mike Dunleavy, Jr., Carlos Boozer, Shane Battier and Jason Williams. He is one of the first former Duke ball boys to earn a Division I scholarship to play basketball. Rum also had the opportunity to play HORSE against ESPN college basketball guru and Hall of Famer Dick Vitale during his time as a Blue Devil ball boy.

Matt is the son of Steve and Carol Rum and was born Nov. 9, 1989 in Alexandria, Va. His father, Steve, played professional baseball in Italy and Japan and is currently the senior associate vice president for development and alumni relations at Johns Hopkins Medicine. Along with his athletic exploits, Matt has also been involved with numerous community service projects, including Special Olympics and day camps for Eagle Scouts.

HEAD COACH TONY SHAVER

TONYSHAVER Head Coach , Sixth Season at W&M

When Tony Shaver accepted the head coaching position at William and Mary in May of 2003, he set his sights on making the Tribe a winning program. Fast-forward five years and the two-time CAA Coach of the Year and National Mid-Major Coach of the Year finalist has led a revival of the Green and Gold program, and last season, took it to the brink of its first-ever CAA title and NCAA Tournament appearance. Despite all the recent success, Shaver's vision and intensity to win has not wavered.

"I do not want anyone to limit the vision of our program," Shaver said. "We expect our teams to win and the last two seasons have been exceptional steps toward where we know our program can be."

In 2007-08, William and Mary posted its first winning season in a decade finishing with a 17-16 ledger. In fact it was only the sixth time in school history that a Tribe team had won 17 or more contests. W&M also finished fifth in the league on the strength of a 10-8 CAA ledger. It marked only the second time in the Tribe's 23-year history in the CAA that it has won doubledigit games. Over the last two seasons, W&M ranks fifth in the league in conference wins with 18. The stat demonstrates the rising success of the Tribe program, given W&M won only 10 CAA games in Shaver's first three seasons at the helm.

In five seasons at the helm of the William and Mary men's basketball program, Tony Shaver has turned the William and Mary men's basketball program into a winner. Over the last two seasons, the program posted back-to-back 15-plus win seasons for the first time in a quarter of a century. The Tribe also put together consecutive seasons with a .500 or better record for the first time in 23 years.

Shaver was voted the 2008 CAA Coach of the Year by the league's media, coaches and sports information directors. The Shaver-led Tribe punctuated the honor by reeling off three-straight last-second wins on its way to the CAA Championship Game. Included in the run was a 56-54 win over regular season champion and No. 1 seed VCU in the semifinals. W&M won three contests to get to the championship game, matching the program's victory total in the tournament from the previous 22 years. As a result of the title game appearance, W&M had its first-ever national televised game and made its first appearance on ESPN.

The Tribe accomplished numerous other milestones during the historic 2007-08 season. W&M established not only school records, but CAA marks for 3-pointers made (257) and attempted (755) in a season. The Tribe also bettered the school standard for 3-pointers per game (7.79), double-digit 3-point efforts in a season (9) and consecutive double-digit 3-point shooting performances (5). Shaver engineered a quartet of double-digit comebacks for the Tribe in 2008, including three straight in wins over James Madison (1/9), at Georgia State (1/12) and against Northeastern (1/16). It marked the first time in school history W&M overcame two-straight double-digit second-half deficits, let alone three. The Tribe's 16-point second-half comeback at Georgia State was the largest deficit that W&M overcame on the road in 15 years. Shaver also reached a coaching milestone of his own on December 31, 2007, winning his 400th collegiate coaching game as the Tribe defeated Fairfield, 71-50, at Kaplan Arena.

W&M demonstrated its mettle as a winning team with not only its ability to overcame deficits, but also with being able to win close games. The Tribe won more than half its games (nine) when trailing at the half. W&M also won nine games by four or fewer points this season, bettering the total (six) from Shaver's first four seasons at the helm of the program. The Tribe put together a six-game CAA winning streak from Jan. 5 through Jan. 23, which marked only the third such league winning streak in Tribe history. Shaver also guided the Tribe to four straight CAA road wins in 2008. It equaled the program's longest CAA mark and was the second-longest single-season road winning streak in school history.

In 2006-07, Shaver earned CollegeInsider.com Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Tribe to a 15-15 record. It marked just the second time in the last 20 years W&M had won 15 games.

Shaver also led his troops to eight wins during the tough CAA portion; only the third time the Tribe has accomplished that feat. Another telling stat of the progression of the program was the four CAA road victories, highlighted by a 67-63 win over 2006 Final Four participant George Mason. In Shaver's first four seasons, W&M had won only three road affairs.

The 2006-07 season brought about a change in styles for the 31st W&M head coach. After spending much of his career coaching an up-tempo offense, featuring a trapping defense, Shaver switched over to a more perimeter-oriented attack last season. The Tribe offensive scheme now spreads the floor and relies on spacing, effective perimeter shooting and players reading and reacting to teammates' cuts and motion. Defensively, W&M employs a plethora of defensive systems to throw off opposing offenses.

The new style led to the Tribe ranking among the top 50 in the country in 3-point field goal defense as well as holding its opponents to 64.2 points per game, the best mark since the 1997-98 season. The College also established school records for 3-point field goals made and 3-point field goals attempted. The success of the new approach was never more evident than in the Tribe's Feb. 14 victory over eventual National Invitational Tournament participant Drexel, 60-47, in Williamsburg. It was the lowest point production for Drexel in four seasons, and marked the highest ranked team, in terms of RPI, that W&M had defeated since 2001.

There have been individual successes as well for the Green and Gold under Shaver's reign. On five occasions, a W&M player has been named All-CAA under Shaver, while another four have been named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. 2004 graduate Adam Hess, currently playing professionally in France, became the first player in school history to lead the CAA in scoring. An outstanding student and athlete, Hess was named the CAA Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year (for all sports) and was a First-Team Academic All-American and all-conference selection as a senior. Corey Cofield was voted the 2004 CAA Rookie of the Year, leading all freshmen in the league in points, rebounds and field goal percentage. W&M players have also enjoyed success in the classroom under Shaver, as on 10 occasions a Tribe player has been named to the CAA All-Academic team over the last five seasons, including a program-high thee in 2007 and 2008. This past season, junior David Schneider garnered the third CAA Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award under Shaver.

In total, four former W&M athletes who played under Shaver have gone on to or will shortly begin professional careers overseas. Hess is currently playing his second season for Artland in the German Bundesliga. He spent last season in France after earning Second-Team All-Bundesliga honors with Artland in 2007. Fellow 2004 graduate Zeb Cope is in his sixth professional season overseas and third in France. He is playing in the French Pro A League with JDA Dijon Bourgogne. Adam Payton, a 2007 graduate of W&M, completed his first season in 2008 with BC Boncourt in Switzerland and signed with Lille Metropole in the French N1 League. Laimis Kisielius, who graduated last season, will begin his professional career in Europe in the fall.
