'08-09 TRIBE BASKETBALL

TRIBE RADIO NETWORK

Teaming up once again to call all the exciting action of William and Mary basketball over the airwaves will be Jay Colley and Bill McDonald. The duo will celebrate their 20th season together calling Tribe men's basketball action over the airwaves. For the fifth season the pair will be joined by former W&M basketball coach and player, Charlie Woollum, who will add his insight and experience to the broadcast.

Colley is a veteran broadcaster who shifts from sport to sport with ease. He calls the play-by-play for the Tribe on the gridiron and is also a veteran baseball commentator, who was previously the voice of the Rochester Redwings as well as the Richmond Braves and the Tidewater Tides.

In recognition of Colley's years of service to the College, he was selected as an honorary alumnus of William and Mary and was officially presented with the honor at Charter Day in February, 2003. A mass communications graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, Jay is entering his 26th season of broadcasting Tribe basketball. Jay and his wife Cindy have a daughter, Carleigh Danielle (17) and a son, Benjamin William (14).

A 1962 graduate of William and Mary, Charlie Woollum was the head coach of the Tribe from the 1994-95 through the 1999-2000 seasons, leading the Tribe to 20 wins and a regular season tie for first place in the CAA in 1998. Bill McDonald, a 1974 graduate of the College, has been a working broadcast journalist who has been involved with the Tribe radio network for many years.

Stretching over 150 miles of the state, the Tribe Radio Network is the gateway to all of the W&M action over the air. The flagship stations for the network are 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH" in Williamsburg.

TRIBE MEDIA COVERAGE

The College of William and Mary and the Colonial Athletic Association have experienced an unprecedented increase in media exposure through various outlets over the last few years. Throughout the 2007-08 season, the Tribe men's basketball program was covered by five local newspapers and various television stations in the Hampton Roads area. Over the last few seasons, the Tribe also garnered exposure on ESPN.com as well as the New York Times and the Washington Post.

In 2007-08, the Tribe had its first-ever contest broadcast nationally on ESPN as the College advanced to the CAA Championship Game during the memorable month of March. Recently, the Tribe has had games televised on ESPN Regional, CN-8 Sports, the Comcast Network, locally in the Hampton Roads area on WSKY-Channel 4, and this year, will add the Big Ten Network to that already growing list.

For the third straight season, W&M will take part in the ESPNU BracketBusters. All 12 CAA schools will take part in the event for the second year in a row. The Green and Gold will host a game as part of the event for the second straight season.

Along with the extensive television exposure, all W&M men's basketball games are carried over the Tribe Radio Network with Jay Colley, Bill McDonald and Charlie Woollum on the call. Stretching over 150 miles of the state, the Tribe Radio Network is the gateway to all of the W&M action over the air. The flagship stations for the network are 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH" in Williamsburg. The Tribe men's basketball contests are also carried simultaneously through live web streaming at TribeAthletics.com.
