

Thomas Jefferson to Mr. Nicholas -

Monticello May 25th 1809.

Dear Sir,

I am sorry to hear of your attack of rheumatism both on your own account & that of the public, & I think you will have to go on as soon as you are able. I believe that immediately on the pacification with England, a vessel was dispatched to France