2004 OUTLOOK

Success has become synonymous with head coach Jimmye Laycock's program in his 24 seasons at the helm. From conference championships to playoff appearances to record-breaking performances, Laycock's squads have always provided the College's supporters with excitement and excellence. As the Tribe heads into this milestone season, Laycock's 25th team will be looking to add its own chapter to a career which has given the W&M program a legacy of success.

Excitement comes in the form of a high-octane offensive unit that averaged over 39 points and 459 yards per game during a four-game winning streak that capped the 2003 season. It should also be exciting on the other side of the ball, where the unit promises to be very aggressive and attacking under the tutelage of new defensive coordinator Jim Pletcher. With returning all-conference quarterback Lang Campbell leading the offense and junior all-conference linebacker Travis McLaurin pacing the defenders, it is easy to see why the 2004 campaign is already generating excitement in Williamsburg.

The tradition of Tribe football has earned a national reputation and most of it revolves around Laycock. Trailing just Penn State's Joe Paterno and Florida State's Bobby Bowden on the list of Division I coaches who have been with their programs the longest, Laycock is the College's all-time leader in wins, with 114 more than the next-closest coach on the list. Since Laycock returned to his alma mater in 1980, W&M has been to the NCAA playoffs on six different occasions and has posted a winning record in 17 of his 24 seasons.

Excellence is an apt way to describe the legacy of the Tribe football program. One of the winningest programs in all of Division I-AA, W&M perennially fields a competitive team that plays in the always-tough Atlantic 10 Football Conference. W&M has had 111 players earn all-conference honors since joining the league in 1993, an average of 10.1 players each season.

The following is a position-by-position look at the 2004 Tribe:

QUARTERBACKS

Throughout Laycock's tenure, a hallmark of consistency can be found at the quarterback position. With All-Americans like Mike Cook and Dave Corley, the Tribe's signal-callers have long been expected to anchor the offensive attack. This year is no different, as the College is counting on big things from preseason first-team all-conference quarterback and team co-captain Lang Campbell. The rising senior from Winchester, Virginia emerged with a breakout season last fall, his first campaign as the Tribe's starter. Campbell completed 182 of 285 passes, with 22 touchdowns and just seven interceptions. He averaged over 243 passing yards per game in conference play, with a pass efficiency rating of 156.7. Campbell finished the season as the league's leader in passing yards per game (229.6) and pass efficiency (152.1), while finishing second in total offense (259.6).

Campbell's passer rating was seventh in the country, while he ranked 18th nationally in total offense. His improvisation skills give the Tribe an added dimension at QB, as he possesses the ability to run or throw. He has an excellent understanding of the offense and his work in the offseason to improve arm strength should pay dividends this fall.

Spring workouts displayed the squad's impressive quarterback depth as a trio of reserves combined to complete 20 of 29 passes for 268 yards and two touchdowns in the Green and Gold game. Headlining this group is talented redshirt freshman Mike Potts who is slated to be the top backup to Campbell this year. Potts got his first feel at the controls of the Tribe's offensive schemes during spring drills. He made great strides throughout the offseason, capping the spring with a 92-yard performance including a touchdown pass in the spring finale. Potts has a strong arm and possesses good football knowledge.

Also in the mix at quarterback is sophomore Christian Taylor, from nearby Yorktown, Virginia. Taylor made solid progress in the spring by improving his arm and body strength. He proved how far he had come by leading all passers with 101 yards on nine of 13 attempts in the spring game. A hard worker, Taylor is a very accurate passer and will improve with more experience.

Rounding out the quarterbacks is redshirt freshman John Jacobs. After gaining valuable experience as a scout team quarterback last season, Jacobs was much improved this spring. He showed consistency in the Green and Gold game when he completed five of six pass attempts with a touchdown. A solid prospect with a wealth of ability, Jacobs will improve with more time in the offense.

TAILBACKS

The offensive backfield should prove to be one of the strongest and deepest in recent history for the Tribe. From hard-working youngsters to experienced upperclassmen, the tailback position should give the Tribe a versatile look.

Leading the way is senior tailback Jon Smith, who has seen extensive action since his freshman season. Possessing great size, strength and attitude, he is a bruising back who is very consistent and dependable. Smith is the leader in the backfield, and has rushed for over 1,700 yards and 24 touchdowns in his first three seasons, leaving him just 373 yards shy of cracking the top 10 all-time rushers for the College. In addition to his running talents, Smith has worked hard to improve his ball skills and has also developed into an excellent pass protector.

New to the program this fall is sophomore Kent State transfer Elijah Brooks. After leading the Golden Flashes with 403 rushing yards in 2003, Brooks comes to Williamsburg looking to make an impact. One of the most complete backs on the squad, Brooks is solid in all facets of the position. He has excellent vision, good ball skills and will see significant game action as he becomes more comfortable in the system.

Junior tailback Steven Hargrove presents a multitude of problems for opposing defenses, as his 6-foot-1, 252-pound frame enables him to bring a different dimension to the offense than the other running backs. Hargrove is an outstanding receiver out of the backfield and has the speed to be a playmaker, as witnessed by his four career scoring plays of 48 or more yards. The squad's top returning all-purpose yardage gainer with 99.7 yards per game, Hargrove's game-breaking speed and elusiveness make him a valuable asset.

Hard-charging sophomore Trevor McLaurin moved from fullback to tailback late in the 2003 season and flourished in the role, rushing for 83 yards and scoring four touchdowns in the season's final two games. The strongest back on the team, McLaurin squats a team-high 545 pounds and uses that strength to punish opposing defenses between the tackles. A true downhill runner, he thrives on delivering a blow and grinding out yardage after the initial contact. One of the team's leaders in the offseason conditioning program, McLaurin combines speed and strength with a tireless work ethic to be a very effective backfield presence.

Delmus Coley led the Tribe last season with 488 rushing yards, including gaining over 100 yards in three-straight games against Rhode Island, Hofstra and New Hampshire. However, he will not play this fall as he recovers from a knee injury suffered late in the 2003 season, as he looks toward the 2005 campaign for his comeback.

FULLBACKS

After the loss of Nick Rogers to graduation, the Tribe will be looking in another direction this year for its starting fullback. A number of players are looking to fill the void left by Rogers' departure, led by sophomore LeVince Parrott. A sophomore from Williamsburg, Parrott has great knowledge of the offense and is a very physical player. He possesses good ball skills and runs well enough to see spot duty at tailback if necessary.

Entering the fall as the top backup at fullback is redshirt freshman Tony

Lang Campbell / QB

Travis McLaurin / LB

Viola. A former scout team tailback who moved to fullback in the spring, Viola has good size and is an excellent blocker. The coaching staff will look for him to mature into the position as he continues to gain experience.

Fourth-year player Chris Faha will also add depth at the fullback position. Faha has good knowledge of the offensive schemes and is a very dependable player.

A leader on and off the field, Faha will be counted on to set the tone for the position's younger players.

Redshirt freshman Matt Otey spent last season on the scout team and looks to use that experience to compete for playing time this fall. A very dedicated and coachable player, Otey needs to continue to develop and gain more experience.

Redshirt freshman Ryan Horvath will look to continue to improve and impress as he makes the conversion from linebacker to fullback that he began this spring. He has shown promise as a lead blocker and will concentrate on gaining more experience and improving his strength over the summer and fall.

Trevor McLaurin

TIGHT ENDS

Next to tailback, the deepest position for the College could be tight end, where two veteran players return in junior and preseason first-team all-conference performer Adam Bratton and sophomore Matt Trinkle. The pair has combined to either start or play extensively in each of the past two seasons.

Bratton is the returning starter at the position and has contributed heavily since his redshirt freshman campaign. One of the team's more dedicated workers in the weight room, Bratton has shown improvement in each of his three seasons on campus. He proved himself to be a reliable asset in the passing game in 2003, when he caught seven passes for 77 yards. This year sees him poised to have his biggest season yet, as witnessed by his three-catch, 37-yard performance in the spring game. A solid blocker as well, Bratton will have an increased role in the offense this fall.

Trinkle saw significant action last fall and enters the season looking to compete for a starting role. He has very good ball skills and excellent speed for his size. A solid route-runner, Trinkle knows his alignments and assignments and is a consistent, reliable player. He showed a knack for finding the endzone last season, hauling in two touchdowns in just seven total catches. A testament to his talents is the fact that he will be challenging Bratton for starting honors this fall.

Also looking to contribute at tight end is Jordan Troester. A sophomore who saw action last year on special teams, Troester enters 2004 looking to gain more game experience. A very intelligent player, Troester looks to continue to improve his strength and speed while he competes for reps this fall.

Redshirt freshman B.J. Pearce spent last season on the scout team. He missed spring practice due to injury but hopes to recover in time to play a role this fall.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Despite the loss of one of the most productive players in I-AA history, Rich Musinski, to graduation and the NFL's Tennessee Titans, the College's cupboard at the wide receiver position is far from bare. Three returning seniors, Dominique Thompson, John Pitts and Josh Lustig are expected to anchor what could be a deep and dynamic position for the Tribe.

Thompson, the winner of this year's John A. Stewart Winter Warrior Award for his work in the offseason conditioning program, is an explosive talent who emerged late last season as one of the squad's top playmakers. A big-play threat each time he touches the ball, Thompson will have an increased role in the offense in his first year as a starter. Thompson averaged over 20 yards per catch in 2003 and scored three touchdowns despite having just six receptions on the year. His work in the weight room has made him the strongest receiver on the team with a 500-pound squat and a 340-pound bench press. Thompson will be looking to blend this power, along with his 4.4 speed, to become an impact player.

Pitts is a model of consistency for the Tribe at the other wide receiver position. The only fifth-year senior in the receiving corps, Pitts is a classic possession receiver with a large frame and great hands who also has the ability to make plays down the field. He turned in the best spring of any wide receiver and is motivated to have a successful fall campaign. In 2003, Pitts led all Tribe receivers with more than 10 catches by averaging 15.2 yards per catch and perhaps gave a glimpse of what is to come this season by posting career-highs with five catches for 79 yards against New Hampshire including a key touchdown grab.

The other staple in the receiving corps is Lustig, a speedy senior wideout who saw extensive action in the receiving rotation last season and throughout his three-year career. Lustig is an aggressive and physical receiver who plays much bigger than his 5-foot-9, 175-pound frame. He possesses extensive knowledge of the Tribe offense to go along with his tremendous hands and ability to block downfield. A fourth-year senior, Lustig played in nine games as a true freshman, including a career game against VMI in which he caught five balls for 87 yards and two touchdowns.

While the three seniors bring known qualities to the position, untested but talented up-and-comers give the position needed depth. One of the players on the rise is sophomore John Taylor, who returns for the fall after gaining experience last year as a member of the travel squad. Taylor is a tall, aggressive wideout with solid ball skills. He fits the mold of a slot-style receiver and looks to compete for playing time in the fall.

Another youngster who will contribute is Joe Nicholas. A redshirt freshman who spent last season on the travel squad as a defensive back, Nicholas moved to offense this spring and immediately made a positive impression. His emergence was one of the more pleasant surprises of the spring, highlighted in the spring game with an electrifying 98-yard touchdown catch on a halfback pass from Elijah Brooks. Nicholas is very athletic and has good ball skills. He has good size and has shown the speed to be a playmaker. He comes into the fall looking to make an impact in the receiving rotation.

After moving from quarterback to wide receiver in spring practice, Corey Davis looks to make an impact this fall at his new position. Davis has good speed and impressed the coaching staff with his ball skills this spring. With continued improvement on technique, Davis' advanced knowledge of the offense could enable him to contribute immediately. Another player with experience in the offense is sophomore Nathan Holston. Following a season on the travel squad, Holston is looking to use his hard working, competitive attitude to work himself into the receiving rotation.

Also adding depth to the Tribe's lineup at wideout are redshirt freshmen Eric Baker, Paris Jackson and Mark Ely.

OFFENSIVE LINE

William and Mary returns an experienced group of players in the offensive trenches, boasting five veterans who have at least one career start.

Leading the way are senior Matthew Witham and junior Patrick

Jon Smith / TE

Adam Bratton / TE

Mulloy. Those two, along with junior Ryan Lumm, junior Michael Grenz and sophomore Cody Morris, have all seen extensive action coming into this fall.

Witham is the lone senior on the line. The slated starter at left tackle, Witham is an all-conference caliber performer for the College. A very consistent player, Witham uses his 6-foot-6, 330-pound frame to create holes for the running game and to protect the quarterback's blind side.

Mulloy also brings an all-conference level of talent to the Tribe's front five at the crucial center position. One of the squad's strongest linemen with a 440-pound bench press, Mulloy is a tough, physical player who has fought through injuries in each of the past two seasons but still contributed as one of the team's top linemen. His knowledge of defenses enables him to make critical adjustments along the offensive front at the line of scrimmage.

Lumm solidified the left guard position last year with his consistent play. He has shown steady improvement at W&M and added size and strength this offseason. Lumm has good awareness and technique and should continue to improve.

Morris emerged as a true freshman last season, becoming the first player to start on the offensive line in his first season since current Tribe offensive line coach Bob Solderitch did it in 1982. Morris had an excellent spring and is poised to start at right guard. An all-around solid performer, the coaching staff sees Morris as having the potential to compete for all-conference honors in the near future.

The final starter is slated to be Grenz, who comes out of spring practice getting the nod at right tackle. Grenz has experience at all three positions on the offensive line. A utility player of sorts, Grenz has proven the ability to play anywhere and has improved his strength and technique. This versatility makes him one of the more valuable players up front for W&M.

Other returning players who have seen game action include Stephen Ball and Matt Morgan. Ball saw some special teams action last year and has the opportunity to contribute on the line this year with improved technique. Morgan saw playing time at right tackle last fall and has the physical tools to contribute at either tackle or guard this fall.

Also looking to contribute this season are Brent Cochran, Graham Falbo, Brian Neely, Justin Oliver, Matt Ridjaneck and Brad Stewart. Cochran provides a solid reserve coming off of a decent freshman campaign and should improve with experience. Falbo is a long snapper who also serves as a backup center. Neely has improved steadily in his time on campus and will enter the fall looking to see playing time at either guard or tackle. Oliver missed spring drills this year with an illness, but has tremendous upside. Ridjaneck is one of the strongest linemen on the team and will serve as backup guard as he continues to gain experience. Stewart, a backup at right tackle, is a physical, tough player, who is coming off a solid spring with the potential to earn reps in the fall.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Experience is the strength along the defensive front, as seven returnees have starting experience. The top returning player on the defensive line is junior Adam O'Connor, who recorded 55 tackles, including a team-best 12 tackles for loss, six sacks and an incredible 28 quarterback hurries. O'Connor uses his great size at 6-foot-7 and 275 pounds as an asset to make him a dangerous pass rusher. A candidate for all-conference honors, O'Connor is slated to start at one of the defensive end positions.

Team co-captain Wade Harrell brings all of the intangibles of success day in and day out for the Tribe. His tremendous work ethic was rewarded when he received the Winter Warrior award in 2003 for his offseason workouts. He is coming off of an injury that forced him to miss the 2003 season, yet his presence and leadership abilities earned him the co-captaincy. He impressed the coaching staff with his play and healthy return in the spring. A good pass rusher, Harrell is a quick player who will be counted on as a playmaker this fall.

Another senior who is expected to lead on and off the field is experienced defensive tackle Mike McCarthy. Always one of the team's strongest players, boasting a 440-pound bench press, McCarthy spent the spring improving his technique and will enter the fall as a starter at defensive tackle.

The remaining senior is Justin Kelly, a fifth-year performer who began to experience success last year before dislocating his elbow early in the season. Kelly proved to be healthy in the spring and is a very reliable, hard-working player.

Junior Larry Pendleton brings a stout presence to the middle of the Tribe's defense. Pendleton has quick feet, plays with great energy and is a very coachable player. He made 52 stops last season including two sacks and five quarterback hurries. Pendleton picked up on the new defensive schemes in spring drills, and that should translate to a solid fall season for him.

Perhaps the most improved player in spring drills along the defensive line was junior Jonas Watson. The fastest defensive lineman on the squad, Watson is a very versatile player who showed the ability in the spring to be a good pass rusher, run stopper or coverage player.

Coming back from a knee injury, junior Jerome Griffin, Jr. will be looking to contribute this fall. Griffin sat out spring practice but is working hard towards getting healthy for the season opener. A very athletic player, Griffin runs well and has the ability to be a valuable performer when healthy. As a true freshman, he began his career with a bang by recording sacks on consecutive plays in his first career game action. He combined for 86 tackles in his first two seasons and looks to pick up where he left off prior to last season's setbacks.

After playing as a true freshman last season, Brian Williamson gained valuable game experience at defensive tackle. His speed gives him the ability to make plays at any point behind or around the line of scrimmage and will get him an opportunity to see game action. His contributions will increase as he gains experience and learns to play lower at the point of attack. He needs to improve on his pad level and will continue progressing as his reps increase. Williamson's biggest asset is his speed, and he has promise as a top interior lineman.

While he saw limited game action at defensive end, Josh Wright still served a very important role as the squad's long-snapper. Wright had a good spring and is a very intense, aggressive player who will improve with more reps. He positioned himself to have an increased role this year by turning in a good spring.

Also looking to contribute on the defensive line are redshirt freshmen Jason Bowles, Ryan Jones and Brandon Pugh. Bowles showed potential last year and will improve with a better understanding of the schemes. Jones is a very coachable player who had a good spring and will continue to progress. Pugh improved on his pass rush abilities and his understanding of the defense this spring. He will contribute with more work on his quickness, agility and strength.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacking corps has the potential to be the cornerstone of the Tribe's defense, as four players who have seen significant game action return. This group is led by junior preseason first-team all-conference performer Travis McLaurin. The 5-foot-11, 240-pounder finished second on the squad with 120 tackles a season ago, averaging 12.0 tackles per game. He brings playmaking ability and excellent communication skills to the table. McLaurin made great strides this spring in attacking the line of scrimmage, his overall knowledge of the defense and his leadership skills.

John Pitts / WR

Matt Witham / OT

Pat Mulloy / C

He should contend for postseason honors again this year and is slated to start at middle linebacker.

A physical, hard-hitting linebacker with good speed, Chris Ndubueze is another returning starter at linebacker. He recorded double-digit totals in tackles three times last season, including a career-high 11 stops against Hofstra. Ndubueze improved on his focus in what was a very solid spring session. He should continue to get better with more experience. Ndubueze is penciled in as one of the starting outside linebackers.

For the second-straight year, sophomore Ryan Nickell emerged as one of the top players in spring practice. Slated to start at outside linebacker, Nickell improved his tackling and durability in the spring. An athlete with a knack for making big plays, he is game-tested and has shown improvements across the board in each of the last two seasons.

Probably the most improved linebacker, Leonard Muldrow is another returnee who saw playing time last year. Muldrow improved on his assignment skills and focus in the spring. What he lacks in size is made up for with effort, strength and a fearless playing style.

Others looking to crack the rotation at linebacker include Danny Mazur, T.J. O'Neill, Marcus Shepherd, William Turner and Thad Wheeler. Mazur is a hard-worker with a good understanding of the schemes. O'Neill should improve with more reps and is a very physical player. Shepherd has good speed and quickness and is looking to recover from injuries that forced him to miss spring drills. Turner is a solid prospect who needs to continue to improve his speed and footwork. Wheeler has been out for most of the past two years with injuries, but returned for a very solid spring session. He is very technically-sound, smart and has the potential to contribute in game situations.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Under the tutelage of new defensive coordinator Jim Pletcher, the defensive backfield will have the capability to make big plays. With the talent returning in the secondary, the chance is there for several players to emerge as breakthrough performers.

Junior defensive back James Miller struggled with injuries throughout much of the 2003 season, but he recovered in time to have one of the best days in recent history for a Tribe DB, with two interceptions, including one for a touchdown, in the 59-21 season-ending win over Richmond. Miller had an excellent spring and grasped the new defensive package quickly. He will start at free safety.

Competing for the job at the strong safety spot are senior Craig Patterson and junior Jonathan Shaw. Patterson saw marked improvement throughout the spring, increasing his intensity level while at the same time gaining a strong understanding of the defense. An extremely physical player, Shaw was having an excellent spring prior to a shoulder injury.

that prematurely ended practice for him. He has great command of the system and improved on his tackling consistency. Shaw will challenge for a starting role upon his healthy return.

Returning as a starter at one corner-back spot is sophomore Alan Wheeling. The most consistent cornerback in spring drills, Wheeling improved on his transitional skills and has the ability to be a major factor in the secondary.

At the other corner spot, sophomore Richard Riley is recovering from an injury and should challenge for a starting position. Riley worked on his conditioning throughout the spring in order to get back up to speed. He has good size and skills for his position.

Another senior looking for playing time is Corey Patterson, who has seen action at both safety spots as well as corner in the past three seasons. Patterson missed spring drills with an injury and hopes to be healthy for the beginning of the season. Despite not playing in the spring, Patterson has a good understanding of the schemes.

A consistent young player who will challenge for playing time, David Page comes into the fall as a backup cornerback. Page had a solid spring including an impressive interception in the spring game, and he possesses good strength for his size. Another player adding depth at corner is sophomore Cedric Slye, who showed consistent improvement in the spring. Slye has the physical tools and talent to contribute.

Junior Chris Kimber played both safety spots in the spring and gives W&M another experienced player in the secondary. Sophomore Zach Stout should contribute after returning from a knee injury. Stout has a solid grasp of the new defense and gives good effort. Also, a pair of redshirt freshmen, Brandon Burrow and Alex Cramer, are learning the defense after moving from wide receiver to defensive back in spring practice.

SPECIALISTS

In what seems to be the case every season, the Tribe will once again feature one of the nation's premier corps of specialists. Leading the way are junior placekicker Greg Kuehn and senior punter Mike Mesi. Both enter the year as candidates for postseason honors after very strong 2003 seasons.

Kuehn is a two-time all-conference performer who is one of the league's premier placekickers. He had a strong showing in spring drills and has good technique and approach to the game. Kuehn has the leg to hit from 50 yards out and his consistency and game experience are his strongest assets. Always looking to improve, Kuehn attended three highly-regarded kicking camps in the offseason.

Mesi is a returning third-team All-Atlantic 10 pick who improved on his strength and overall fitness in the off-season. Another tireless worker, he improved his techniques and is entering the fall looking for a breakout season. He has good leg strength and averaged 41.2 yards per punt last year.

The back-up kicker is sophomore Blair Pritchard. With a good leg and accuracy, Pritchard is a solid kicker who gives the Tribe good insurance.

Snapping the ball will be junior Michael Grenz and senior Wade Harrell. Grenz serves as the snapper on placement kicks, while Harrell is the longsnapper for the punt team. Josh Wright is also available to snap, as he served as an able replacement last year while Harrell was injured.

A pair of experienced kick returners are also back in senior Josh Lustig and junior Steven Hargrove. Lustig averaged 20.7 yards per kick return last year, while Hargrove averaged 20.0 yards, including a season-long of 55 yards.

SCHEDULE

William and Mary annually faces one of the toughest schedules in Division I-AA and this year should be no different. The Tribe kicks off the season with a contest in Chapel Hill, North Carolina against Atlantic Coast Conference foe and Division I-A program North Carolina on Sept. 4. The Tribe then has a bye week before starting league play at New Hampshire on Sept. 18.

W&M returns to Williamsburg for its home opener against VMI on Sept. 25. The Tribe then hosts conference rival Northeastern on Oct. 2, before traveling to Lynchburg, Virginia for its first-ever meeting with Liberty University on Oct. 9.

The annual Homecoming contest occurs the next week when the College hosts Rhode Island on Oct. 16. The Tribe follows that up with a trip to take on the defending national champion Delaware Blue Hens on Oct. 23. After that, W&M travels to play Towson on Oct. 30, before returning home for a game against Villanova on Nov. 6.

The Tribe closes out the regular season with its two biggest in-state rivals, traveling to James Madison on Nov. 13 and hosting Richmond on Nov. 20.

ATLANTIC 10 FOOTBALL

Since the Atlantic 10 Football Conference assumed operational control of the Yankee Conference in 1997, the thinking among the league's head coaches has been that if you can win in the A-10 and advance to the postseason, you can win the national championship. For the second time in seven years, that line of thinking came to fruition.

Delaware claimed the 2003 I-AA national championship with a 40-0 win over Colgate, registering the first-ever shutout in the 26-year history of the championship. The Blue Hens became the second team from the Atlantic 10 to claim the national title, joining Massachusetts, which defeated Georgia Southern, 55-43, to claim the title in 1998. Delaware and UMass shared the league crown in 2003 and both teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament, marking the 13th consecutive year that multiple A-10 teams reached the playoffs, the longest active streak among I-AA conferences. For the second consecutive year, seven A-10 teams ended the season with a .500 or better record and over the past two seasons, eight of the Conference's 11 programs have posted a record of .500 or better.

With Delaware (15) and Massachusetts (10) reaching double-digit wins in 2003, five different A-10 teams have won at least 10 games the past two seasons. With victories by Villanova over Temple and Delaware versus Navy in 2003, an Atlantic 10 team has defeated a I-A program in five of the last six seasons. Moreover, the Conference has won two contests versus I-A foes in three of the past four years.

The 2003 campaign saw five teams from the Conference ranked at one time for eight weeks in both The Sports Network/CSTV and ESPN/USA Today polls during the season. By comparison, no other I-AA conference had five teams ranked at anytime in 2003. In addition, four different A-10 teams (Delaware, Massachusetts, Northeastern, and Villanova) garnered top five rankings in 2003. Individual honors were bestowed upon a host of A-10 standouts in 2003, with 12 different players representing six A-10 programs earning All-America honors. Quarterback Andy Hall of Delaware finished second runner-up in the voting for the prestigious Walter Payton Award, presented to the most outstanding I-AA football player in the country, while Liam Ezekiel of Northeastern and Delaware's Shawn Johnson each finished in the top 10 in voting for the Buck Buchanan Award, presented to the top defensive player in I-AA.

Other recent milestones include the 2002 season marking the seventh time in Conference history that three teams (Maine, Northeastern, and Villanova) qualified for the NCAA Tournament, as well as the first time in league history that three teams reached the double-digit victory plateau. From the start of the 2001 season through the 2003 season, every team in the Atlantic 10 has been nationally ranked, a feat no other Conference in college football - at any level - can match.

Former Villanova standout Brian Westbrook became the third Atlantic 10 player to win the Walter Payton Award in 2001, joining former teammate Brian Finneran (1997) and New Hampshire running back Jerry Azumah (1998). Also in 2001, linebacker Derrick Lloyd of James Madison became the first A-10 player to win the Buck Buchanan Award, marking the first time in I-AA history that the winners of the Walter Payton and Buck Buchanan Awards hailed from the same conference.

Twice in league history has an Atlantic 10 coach been honored with the Eddie Robinson Award, with current A-10 coaches Andy Talley of Villanova and Mickey Matthews of James Madison winning the award in 1997 and 1999, respectively.

The Atlantic 10 Football Conference officially took over operational control of the Yankee Conference on July 1, 1997, marking the end of a 50-year legacy. Yet a new era began in collegiate football. Delaware, Hofstra, James Madison, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Northeastern, Rhode Island, Richmond, Towson, Villanova, and William & Mary make up the 12-team membership of the league.

The Atlantic 10 Football Conference traces its roots to December 3, 1946 when the Code of the Yankee Conference went into effect. Originally established as an all-sports conference for the New England land grant colleges, the six charter members of the Yankee Conference included Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont. In 1973, Boston University joined the Conference as its first non-land grant institution.

After the 1974 season, Vermont withdrew from the league. Then, upon the formation of Division I-AA football in 1978, the league disbanded all sports except football. Membership remained stable until 1986 when Delaware and Richmond were admitted. Villanova gained admittance in 1988 and, in 1993, the Conference grew again with James Madison, Northeastern, and William & Mary joining the league. Boston University withdrew from the league when it suspended its football program following the 1997 season. Connecticut withdrew following the 1999 season and Hofstra was added beginning with the 2001 campaign. Towson begins its first season of Atlantic 10 Football Conference competition this fall.

Since 1978, Atlantic 10 Football Conference members have accumulated 55 playoff berths, 13 Lambert Cups, 66 final top 25 rankings, and 28 final top 10 rankings. The Conference is fully intent on remaining the best NCAA I-AA Conference in the country. In light of the success achieved by the Yankee Conference since 1947 and the Atlantic 10 Football Conference since 1997, the Atlantic 10 figures to continue its national prominence in 2004.

Laycock's William and Mary Program is the only team in Yankee/Atlantic 10 Conference history that has never posted a losing record in league play.

Twenty-two former assistant coaches under Jimmye Laycock have gone on to coach or scout at the Division I-A or the professional level including Ralph Friedgen, who was named the 2001 National Coach of the Year at the University of Maryland.

THEIR COACHES

HEAD COACH JIMMYE LAYCOCK

There is little doubt that W&M head coach Jimmye Laycock has established himself as one of the nation's premier mentors in the 24 seasons he has watched over the College's program. His team is run on the simple principle that hard work, discipline and preparation will lead to success.

One needs to look no further than the Tribe's stellar 145-63-2 (.695) record against fellow I-AA foes during his career to see the results of this formula. The College also boasts a 59-32 mark in league play and has had a league-high 114 student-athletes named to all-conference honors since 1993.

These principles were never better showcased than in the 2001 campaign, which saw the team rebound from a nine-year low 5-6 record in 2000 to post an 8-4 mark, claiming a share of the Atlantic 10 Crown and earning a spot in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs for the first time since 1996.

Laycock is the Tribe's winningest coach, boasting a career 159-110-2 (.590) record. Since Laycock's first season in 1980, he has firmly established himself as one of the brightest coaching talents in the nation. Under his guidance, the College has risen to the upper echelon of Division I-AA programs and has posted a stellar 82-43 (.656) mark over the last 11 years. The Tribe has had 17 winning ledgers in the last 21 years and has played in 20 postseason games in eight of the last 18 seasons.

The 1996 campaign stood as a prime example of how Laycock has perpetuated a winning tradition within W&M's rigorous classroom standards, as he led a youth-laden squad to a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA playoffs, a 10-3 overall record (7-1 in league play), the Tribe's first Yankee Conference Championship and a school record fifth-place national ranking.

One trademark of a Laycock-coached team is a prolific and intricate offensive attack. The Tribe offense averaged better than 420 yards and 26 points over the 115 games it played in the 1990s.

Prior to the 1996 campaign, the 1990 season stood as the benchmark for the Tribe program. That season, Laycock was honored by his peers as Coach of the Year in Region II and the state of Virginia for guiding the Tribe to 10 wins and an appearance in the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs. That 1990 squad, ranked No. 7 in the final NCAA poll, refashioned many pages in the school record book. W&M led the country in total offense by averaging almost 500 yards per game and claimed the Lambert Cup for I-AA supremacy in the East. Even the Virginia General Assembly passed a resolution commending Laycock accomplishments. The Tribe's 1996 squad led the conference in both total offense and defense on its way to earning its own Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year honors.

Laycock has made the home turf in Zable Stadium into unfriendly territory for opponents as the Tribe has won 78.2 percent of its games (80-22-1) there in the last 20 years. W&M has turned in six undefeated home campaigns in the last 15 years, with the most recent coming in 1996.

After some lean years early in his tenure, Laycock's teams began building respectability among all opponents. After a pair of 6-5 seasons, W&M carved out a 7-4 mark in 1985 and a national ranking of No. 16. The winning ways continued in 1986 with a 9-3 record and an eighth-place ranking. In that historic season, the Tribe advanced to the I-AA playoffs for the first time and had three players drafted by the NFL.

Although William and Mary dipped to a 5-6 slate in 1987, the Tribe recovered to post a 6-4-1 overall record in 1988. That memorable season climaxed with a trip to Japan and a 73-3 victory over the Japanese College All-Stars in the first Epsom Ivy Bowl. The Tribe returned to the NAAs in 1989 with an 8-2-1 regular season record.

Laycock has also tutored 22 players to 29 All-America honors from the William and Mary ranks and has coached six Academic All-Americans.

Record-setting wide out Rich Musinski signed a free agent contract with the Tennessee Titans in the spring of 2004, joining free safety Darren Sharper, a second round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers in 1997, linebacker Jude Waddy and Mike Leach (Denver Broncos) as representatives of the Green and Gold in the NFL ranks. Michael Clemons (Class of 1987) had been one of the CFL's most explosive players since joining the Toronto Argonauts in 1989, a team he now coaches.

As a 1970 graduate of the College, Laycock played football under two gurus of the game. For three years, he learned the details under the watchful eyes of Coach Marv Levy, the legendary former head coach of the Buffalo Bills. In his last season, current South Carolina head coach Lou Holtz schooled Laycock in the finer aspects of psyche and motivation. As a sophomore, Laycock was a starter in the defensive secondary, but he was soon switched to quarterback where he completed 96 of 218 passes for 1,366 yards.

Laycock's first full-time coaching position came at The Citadel as the offensive backfield coach under Bobby Ross, who went on to coach the NFL's San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions. In 1975, Memphis State tabbed Laycock as its quarterbacks coach and he helped the Tigers to consecutive 7-4 records.

In 1977, Laycock traveled to Clemson to serve as offensive coordinator for three years. Under his tutelage, the Tigers went 8-3-1, 11-1 and 8-4. Clemson played in bowl games each year, defeating Ohio State 17-15 in the 1978 Gator Bowl. At that time, Laycock coached two-time All-ACC performer Steve Fuller, the Tiger quarterback who later played in the NFL, and Dwight Clark, an All-Pro receiver for the 49ers.

A native Virginian, Laycock played football, basketball and baseball at Loudoun Valley H.S., where he won 12 letters and has since had his number retired.

An avid golfer, Laycock can be found on the local links as well as jogging along Williamsburg's popular running routes.

Laycock is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at the College. They have three children: Michael (13), Mary Louise (12) and James (10).

Laycock's 23-year-old daughter, Melanie, is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

The Talk About Laycock

Joe Gibbs - Washington Redskins Head Coach

“Coach Laycock has shown that he has one of the more creative offenses in college football. One of the best trademarks for football coaches is a consistent program over a longer period of time. I think Coach Laycock consistently demonstrates that with his program.”

Marv Levy - Former W&M Head Coach and NFL Hall of Famer

“I’ve always admired the work that Jimmye’s done at William and Mary. He’s very well-respected throughout the coaching fraternity. He’s the right man for the right college.”

Darren Sharper - Two-time Pro Bowl Green Bay Packers safety

“Coach Laycock knew from the time that he was recruiting me what position was best for me to reach my ultimate potential. Joining the Tribe family turned out to be the best situation for me to grow as a person and as a player. Without being a part of this family, I wouldn’t be as successful as I am today.”

Mike Tomlin - Defensive Backs Coach, Tampa Bay Buccaneers

“William and Mary sets the stage to address the challenges you face. Coach Jimmye Laycock has been the blueprint for me. He is what the job of coaching is all about.”

ASSISTANT COACHES

W&M coaching icon Zbig Kepa enters his 21st year on the William and Mary coaching staff as one of the most respected offensive coaches in the Atlantic 10. He joined the Tribe in 1984 as a part-time assistant coach working primarily with the defense. The following year Kepa became a full-time assistant and moved to offense where he took charge of the receivers.

Kepa primarily recruits the Peninsula and Northern Neck areas in Virginia. He also recruits eastern Pennsylvania.

Since joining the offensive staff, Kepa has helped develop one of the most productive passing offenses in I-AA football. The 1996 team led the conference in total offense, while the 1993 unit finished sixth in the nation in total yards with the second-highest total (5,504) in school history. Overall, the Tribe is averaging nearly 400 yards of total offense per game during Kepa's ten-year stint as the offensive coordinator. Most recently, Kepa coached the school's all-time leading receiver, Rich Musinski, who became just the third player in I-AA history to surpass the 4,000-yard receiving mark.

Kepa's receivers dominate the W&M record book, as seven of the top 10 all-time career reception yardage leaders were developed under his mentorship. The most prolific of the group was 2000 graduate Dave Conklin (1996-99), who left the College as the all-time leader in receiving yards (3,269), catches (190) and TD catches (27). Harry Mehre (1985-89) was the first to etch his name into the archives, as he set a then-career receiving yardage mark (2,748) and earned AP All-America honors as a senior. Kepa has also groomed a pair of student-athletes to conference Rookie of the Year honors (Conklin, 1996; Musinski, 2000).

Kepa grew up in northern Indiana and attended Bishop Noll Institute, where he lettered four years in football. After graduation in 1975 he accepted a football scholarship at St. Joseph's College in Indiana. He led the Pumas at quarterback and defensive back before a knee injury ended his playing career. He continued his involvement at St. Joseph's as a student assistant coach and graduated in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and health.

Kepa earned his master's in health and physical education from Purdue University in 1981. Upon completing his masters, he assisted with the offense and defense at Fenwick High School in Chicago.

In 1983, he returned to his undergraduate alma mater for one year as a full-time offensive assistant before joining W&M in 1984.

He and his wife, the former Mary Cappuccilli from Indiana, have three children, Christina (19), Nathaniel (12) and Nicholas (10).

Bob Solderitch, a 1986 graduate and four-year letterwinning center at William and Mary, enters his ninth year with the College as the offensive line coach. He assumed the duties of assistant head coach in 2000. Solderitch also served as an offensive assistant at W&M from 1986-90.

Solderitch recruits the Tidewater area for the Tribe, as well as eastern North Carolina. He also handles the recruitment of transfer students.

In his first season as a full-time assistant (1996), he groomed Tribe guard Josh Beyer to consensus first team All-America honors. Fellow guard Dan Rossetini earned multiple all-conference honors under Solderitch, including first team honors in 1997. In 1998, guard Greg Whirley, Jr. capped his career by earning first team all-conference honors. In 2002, first team all-conference tackle Dwight Beard also earned All-America honors under Solderitch's tutelage.

After a brief stint with the Indianapolis Colts, Solderitch returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant from 1986 to 1990. While earning his MBA at the College, his responsibilities included tight ends, long snappers and organizing the scout team. He also assisted with the offensive line and helped prepare Tribe All-America linemen Scott Perkins and Reggie White.

After receiving his masters, Solderitch was named as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Newport News Apprentice School. He helped guide the team to a 17-9-1 overall record between the 1991 and 1993 seasons.

While earning his B.A. in economics as an undergraduate at the College, Solderitch was a three-year starter at offensive center and earned all-state and All-East Coast Athletic Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. In 1985, he was named team captain and won the Tribe's outstanding lineman award. In 1990, he was named to William and Mary's 100 Years All-Time squad.

Prior to his return to Williamsburg, Solderitch had a two year stint at the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached both the offensive and defensive lines over two seasons (1994-95).

Solderitch graduated from Whitehall High School in 1982, where he was an all-district lineman and member of two East Penn Conference championship teams (1980-81).

Solderitch and his wife, Karen, reside in the Williamsburg area.

With nearly 30 years of coaching experience in college football, Jim Pletcher brings a multitude of talent and knowledge to Williamsburg in his first year as the Tribe's defensive coordinator.

Pletcher's primary recruiting responsibilities with the Tribe are in northern Virginia. He also recruits the south Jersey and Delaware players for W&M.

Pletcher came to the College from Cornell University, where he had served as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach since 2001. While at Cornell, Pletcher led a defensive unit that led the Ivy League in pass defense in 2003, allowing 182.5 yards per game through the air. Three players earned All-Ivy citations on the defensive side of the ball under Pletcher in 2003.

Prior to Cornell, Pletcher served as assistant head coach and outside linebackers coach at the University of Wyoming for the 2001 season. That followed a stint at the University of Memphis, where Pletcher served in a variety of positions, including four years as the squad's defensive coordinator. In Pletcher's first year as the helm of the Tigers defense, Memphis upset sixth-ranked Tennessee, 21-17.

This will be Pletcher's second stint in the state of Virginia, as he was the defensive coordinator at James Madison from 1985-95. In his time with the Dukes, Pletcher's defensive unit ranked among the top 20 in the nation on six occasions. JMU also reached the NCAA Playoffs three times, twice making it to the quarterfinals.

Before JMU, Pletcher served as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the University of Connecticut from 1983-84. The 1983 Huskies squad won the Yankee Conference championship, while the 1984 team was 10th in the nation in pass defense under Pletcher's tutelage.

Pletcher also served at another current Atlantic 10 Football Conference school, as he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Northeastern from 1981-83. In 1981, one of his players led the nation in interceptions, and in 1982, Northeastern had the country's best pass defense and was ranked 12th in the nation in total defense.

The first collegiate coaching position for Pletcher was at Springfield College, where he served as defensive backs coach from 1975-80. While at Springfield, Pletcher also served as an instructor of physical education and an academic advisor, among other duties.

A 1973 graduate of the University of Delaware, Pletcher received a master's degree in education from Springfield College in 1976. He and his wife, Barbara, reside in Williamsburg.

Matt McLeod enters his second season as the Tribe's linebackers coach, and fifth season in the program overall.

McLeod recruits central Virginia and western North Carolina, as well as the southern states of Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana for William and Mary.

A fiery leader, McLeod has motivated and mentored a plethora of all-conference performers over the past five seasons. His first season on campus saw him oversee standout Tribe defensive tackle Raheem Walker to All-American honors and First-Team All-Atlantic 10 accolades. In addition to Walker, defensive end Chris Stahl earned All-Atlantic 10 recognition under McLeod's tutelage. Chad Richards was an all-league pick in 2001, while Marcus Washington was a third-team all-conference selection in 2002. Last season, senior Paul Carpenter earned second-team honors while sophomore Travis McLaurin received a third-team all-league citation.

McLeod, a former Clemson standout, came to the Williamsburg campus after spending two seasons at his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach (1997-99). While in this capacity, he worked with the Tigers' defensive staff and was responsible for the linebacking corps. Among the players he tutored was consensus All-American linebacker and 1999 Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year Keith Adams, who went on to become a Butkus Award finalist and 2001 draft pick of the Tennessee Titans.

Prior to joining the staff at Clemson, McLeod spent four seasons in the Tigers' football program and earned four varsity letters at the center position.

McLeod, who enjoys fishing and hunting in his spare time, resides in Williamsburg.

As a player at W&M, Laycock studied under two legendary sideline generals in longtime Notre Dame and current South Carolina head coach Lou Holtz as well as NFL Hall of Fame coach Marv Levy. (See complete list on page 81)

ASSISTANT COACHES

Steven Jerry is in his first year as the Tribe's running backs coach. Jerry comes to W&M from Virginia State, where he served as quarterbacks coach. While at Virginia State, Jerry also was the head coach of a pair of arenafootball2 squads, the Greensboro Prowlers and the Roanoke Steam. Jerry also served as the tight ends coach at East Tennessee State for the 2001 season.

Jerry is the Tribe's recruiting contact in northwest Virginia, as well as in Philadelphia and the western part of Maryland.

Jerry spent the 2000 season in Williamsburg, where he served as an offensive assistant for W&M. From January 1997 until early in 2000, Jerry served in multiple capacities at Central Florida, working as a tight ends coach, an assistant strength and conditioning coach and an assistant track and field coach. He also has collegiate experience at Siena College and his alma mater, the University of North Carolina. Jerry was an assistant strength coach at UNC in the summer of 1994. A 1994 graduate of UNC, Jerry received bachelor's degrees in both sociology and communications.

Trevor Andrews is in his first year as W&M's defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator after serving the past three seasons as a defensive assistant for the Tribe. In 2003, Andrews coached the Tribe cornerbacks, including first-team all-league selection Billy Parker.

In addition to organizing and coordinating the Tribe's recruiting efforts, Andrews also serves as W&M's chief recruiter in Washington, D.C., as well as eastern Maryland, North Jersey and Ohio.

Andrews came to the College after spending the 2000 season as an assistant at Randolph-Macon College, where he worked as the secondary coach and special teams coordinator.

As a three-year letterwinner at defensive back for the University of Dayton, Andrews was a member of three conference championship teams with the Flyers and played on Dayton's undefeated 1996 squad (11-0).

After earning his BS in physical education from Dayton in 1998, Andrews accepted a graduate position at Illinois Wesleyan University and coached the secondary while working towards his graduate degree in athletic administration.

Andrews, whose interests include playing the guitar and fishing, is single and resides in the Williamsburg area.

When Jimmye Laycock agreed to become the head coach of the Tribe he was just 31 years old, making him the youngest head coach in the College's history.

Returning to Williamsburg for his first year as a defensive assistant for the Tribe is former W&M standout Adam Braithwaite. A four-year letterwinner for the Tribe, Braithwaite graduated from the College in 2002. Braithwaite will assist with the defensive backs.

Braithwaite will recruit for the Tribe in western Pennsylvania, as well as northern West Virginia.

Braithwaite comes to the Tribe after spending one season as an assistant coach at West Liberty State. While with the Hilltoppers, Braithwaite served a variety of roles, coaching the squad's wide receivers and special teams, as well as working as a strength and conditioning coach. Prior to that, the Winchester, Virginia native spent a season as an assistant at Handley High School, his alma mater.

Braithwaite started 11 games for W&M in 2001 as the Tribe captured a share of the A-10 title and advanced to the I-AA playoffs. He finished with three INTs and recorded 48 tackles in the season. For his career, he made 124 tackles and five interceptions.

In his free time, Braithwaite enjoys fishing and playing golf. He is single and resides in Williamsburg.

Greg Shockley is in his first season as the Tribe's tight ends coach. Shockley came to Williamsburg from Virginia Tech, where he was a player and then a graduate assistant under Frank Beamer.

Shockley is in charge of the Tribe's recruiting efforts in his native southwest Virginia, as well as southern West Virginia.

While working at VT, Shockley was an offensive assistant and worked primarily with the offensive line and tight ends. He also directed the defensive scout team during practice. The Hokies were selected to bowl games in each of his three seasons as a coach.

A 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Shockley is a native of Blacksburg, Virginia. He was a quarterback and wide receiver for the Hokies as the team won three Big East championships during his time on the squad. Included in that run was the 1999 squad, which played in the Sugar Bowl for the national championship.

Shockley was also honored in 1999 with the John William Schneider Award, given to the VT player who excels in athletics, scholarship and leadership. Shockley was married this spring to the former Cheryl Denny, an assistant softball coach at JMU.

Steve Cole
Assistant AD
for Health Services

Renee Cork
Senior Associate
Athletic Trainer

Andy Carter
Associate Athletic Trainer

Steve Cole, Assistant Athletic Director for Health Services, enters his 22nd year at the helm of the William and Mary Sports Medicine program. One who is familiar with the logistics and scope of the sports medicine field on all levels, Cole has a comprehensive knowledge of the broad discipline and all its components.

Under the direction of Cole, Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility. There are seven full-time certified athletic trainers and two graduate assistants from the post-graduate athletic training educational program at Old Dominion University on staff. In addition, a group of undergraduate students serve as athletic training aides and assist in the daily operation of the sports medicine program.

A certified athletic trainer (NATABOC) and strength and conditioning specialist (NSCA), Cole graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and athletic training. He subsequently earned a master's degree in sports medicine in 1978 from the University of Virginia.

In 1997, Cole received his 25-year membership pin from NATA. He was also recognized for his service to the profession, receiving the Athletic Trainer Service Award, one of only three recipients from the Mid-Atlantic Region. In 2000, Cole was honored by the College for his many years of service to William and Mary with the recognition as an honorary alumnus.

A true fitness buff, Cole is an exemplary model for all the athletes. He is an avid competitor who has participated in a variety of triathlons since 1980, spending countless hours of his spare time in training. Cole resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lonna, five-year-old daughter Sydney Janae, and two-year-old daughter Jahnessa Yaxin.

Andy Carter joined the William and Mary staff in 2000 as an Associate Athletic Trainer. A William and Mary alumnus and former Tribe student athletic trainer, Andy returns to the Tribe sidelines this year as he oversees the sports medicine services for the football team. He and his wife, Kristina, reside in Williamsburg.

With 23 sports under his supervision, Cole receives plenty of assistance from his skilled, NATABOC-certified staff.

Renee Cork, a graduate of Iowa State, is beginning her 13th year with the staff. She holds the title of Senior Associate Athletic Trainer. Cork recently received the Sport Safety Training Award from the Red Cross and is in charge of the CPR training for all William and Mary coaches. In 2002, the governor of Virginia appointed Cork to the Athletic Training Advisory Board under the Board of Medicine. She is the only collegiate athletic trainer and the only female representative on the Advisory Board.

John Knaul, a graduate of Alfred University, is in his fifth year as a Senior Assistant Athletic Trainer. Jon Thompson, a Rowan College graduate, is entering his fourth year as Senior Assistant Athletic Trainer. Becky Cordell, a Duquesne University graduate, joined the staff as Assistant Athletic Trainer in 2003. Likewise, Assistant Athletic Trainer David Lagow joined the staff in 2003 from the College of Charleston.

Also, the two graduate assistants from the post-graduate athletic training program at ODU who will be serving on the Tribe's staff are Jared Howell and Jason Hollar. Howell is a graduate of the College of Charleston, while Hollar attended James Madison University.

In addition to the full-time athletic trainers, the sports medicine staff consists of a team physician and a network of physicians and medical specialists from the local community.

A presence on the Tribe sideline for the past 40 years, retired Dr. George Oliver now holds the title of W&M's team physician emeritus. Oliver was recognized by the College as an honorary alumnus three years ago.

Michael Potter is in his third year on the staff as the team physician. The team physician oversees the full-time athletic training staff and has overall responsibility for supervising the sports medicine program. A family practice/sports medicine specialist, Potter earned his medical degree from Texas A&M. He completed his residency at the Riverside Family Practice in Newport News and his sports medicine fellowship at Wake Forest University. Potter is in private practice with Tidewater Physicians Multispecialty Group.

Doctors Ed Wilhelm, Dan Carr, and Alex Lambert, surgeons with Virginia Orthopedics and Sports Medicine, provide the team's orthopedics care. Each brings a vast amount of experience to their positions, having worked and traveled on the international level as sports medicine physicians. Also assisting the Tribe is chiropractor Bob Pinto.

John Mitrovic, another former Tribe football player who graduated in 1983, is the owner/director of Williamsburg Physical Therapy Center. He is a licensed physical therapist, a certified strength and conditioning specialist and a certified athletic trainer. Mitrovic works with the program as a physical therapy consultant.

William and Mary's "team approach" to health care allows the sports medicine program to offer a wide range of comprehensive service to the student-athletes in a caring, cooperative manner.

The Tribe's sports medicine center is located in the lower level of William and Mary Hall. The state-of-the-art facility enables W&M's athletic training staff to provide the best possible care to the College's student-athletes. The training room has lifecycles, elliptical machines, treadmills and modality machines that enhance rehabilitation programs and ensure the proper treatment of any injuries. It also features multiple laptop workstations with wireless Internet connections as well as two cable televisions for use by William and Mary student-athletes.

Throughout the year, the College hosts a wide range of sports medicine programs, drawing participants from across the nation:

- The ACES Preparatory Workshop is designed to prepare students to take the NATA Board of Certification exam to become certified athletic trainers. Hosted at institutions across the country, the ACES Workshop identifies participants' strengths and weaknesses and focuses their study into their weaker content areas.
- The William and Mary Sports Medicine Workshop offers high school students a four-day introduction to the field of sports medicine. Classroom instruction on emergency procedures, injury recognition, and basic rehabilitation is mixed with hands-on lab activities including taping and wrapping and CPR.
- The Division of Sports Medicine serves as the sports medicine rotation site for the Riverside Family Practice Residency Program. Second and third year residents come to William and Mary to work with our staff and enhance their skills in orthopedic examination, sports injury management, and physical therapy referral.
- William and Mary is a clinical site for the Old Dominion University Graduate Athletic Training Education Program. Two students from Old Dominion complete their two-year clinical assignments as graduate assistants under the direction of our staff.

For more information about the Division of Sports Medicine, including details about these educational programs, please visit our website at www.TribeAthletics.com (follow links to Sports Medicine).

SPEED, STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Strength and conditioning coach John Sauer is in his 17th year with W&M athletics and the results speak for themselves. Tribe football players have earned National Strength and Conditioning Association All-America honors for the past 16 seasons, including the selection of Nick Rogers in 2004. In 1995, Sauer designed the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center located in the lower level of William and Mary Hall. Built in large part due to the generosity of former Tribe football player Joe Montgomery (Class of 1974), it is one of the top facilities in the Mid-Atlantic, featuring 5,000 square feet of strength training equipment, including the following:

- 12,000 pounds of free weights
- 6,500 pounds of dumbbells
- 3,500 pounds of rubber bumper plates
- 20 dynamax medicine balls
- 14 custom-built olympic platforms
- 14 multipurpose power racks with adjustable benches
- 8 dumbbell benches
- 6 adjustable combo plyo/step-up boxes
- 6 glute-ham benches
- 4 adjustable abdominal benches
- 4 dip bars
- 2 hip sleds
- 2 ground-based jammers

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT STAFF

In addition to the tutelage of coaches on the playing fields and teachers in the classrooms, many others contribute vital efforts to the cause of William and Mary football. From the academic advisors to the sports psychologist, many different people give their time and energy to help the program.

Academic advising is of significant importance to the educational development of the student-athlete. W&M holds firm to the concept of "self-determination," each individual is responsible for directing his own college experience. Comprehensive support services are provided for all students, including consultation with freshman and concentration faculty advisors. In addition, the department offers an academic support program for student-athletes with extensive tutorial opportunities, organized study groups and a monitored study hall with on-site tutors for modern languages and mathematics.

Bill Bryant enters his seventh year as the College's Director of Compliance. Bryant came to W&M with a diverse and well-rounded background in collegiate administration.

Under the direction of Bryant, the compliance office works with the NCAA Clearing House to determine initial eligibility of all student athletes and continues to monitor eligibility throughout their college careers. Bryant is also responsible for educating all student-athletes, coaches and staff to the NCAA rules.

Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Bryant had spent seven years as the Asst. AD for Student Affairs at the University of Pittsburgh. In that capacity he was responsible for the development of academic programs for student athletes, NCAA compliance and eligibility and served as the academic liaison for the football program.

A 1970 graduate of Cal-Davis, Bryant also served three-year stints in similar positions at both Arizona State (1987-90) and Oregon (1984-87), where he also earned his M.S. in Physical Education. Bryant and his wife, JoAnn, are the parents of two children, Christy (27), a graduate of Bowling Green, and Bobby (22), an avid hockey player. Bobby was a member of the SUNY-Morrisville ice-hockey team which won the Junior College National Championship three years ago.

The academic support coordinator, Nancy Everson, is a member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics and the National Academic Advising Association. Everson is a graduate of William and Mary with a degree in psychology.

With the assistance of interns from the Graduate School of Education, she monitors the academic progress of student-athletes, coordinates the tutorial and study hall programs and serves as a point of referral to campus counseling services as well as the Writing Resource Center, the Oral Communication Studio and Disability Services.

Everson's biggest asset to the athletic department is her care and concern for the student-athlete. She has the ability to direct student-athletes to the proper resources and to serve as a liaison between the athletic department and various campus entities. Cooperative arrangements exist within the College's professional staff to provide specialized study skills workshops, freshman orientation sessions and career development seminars to assist student-athletes at all levels in maximizing their potential.

Another valuable member of the athletic department is sports psychologist Deidre Connelly, who is entering her 13th year with the William and Mary athletic department. Connelly came to the College from Iowa, where she was a professor and the director of the sport psychology program. She has been published many times and has been invited to speak at numerous conferences and seminars. Connelly received her undergraduate degree from the University of Bridgeport, and did graduate work at William and Mary. She received her master's and Ph.D. in sports psychology from Virginia.

Teresa Ptachick is entering her fourth year on the Tribe football staff as the program's Coordinator of Football Operations.

In this capacity, Ptachick coordinates all aspects of team travel in conjunction with associate athletics director for health services and associate athletics director for external affairs.

In addition, she organizes and directs all facets of on-campus recruiting. Ptachick assists with the organizational and operational duties associated with the Colonial All-Pro Football Camp as well.

The primary contact person for the Football Parents Club and the Quarterback Club, Ptachick also oversees budget operations in the football office, while at the same time assisting the coaching staff with game week preparation.

Teresa and her husband, Kevin, have two children, 14-year old TJ and 11-year old Alexandra, and reside in the Williamsburg area.

Jerry Fife is entering his third season as the head equipment manager at the College of William and Mary. Fife handles all of the equipment issues for the Tribe football squad, including ordering and maintaining all of the team's gear.

Fife comes to the College from Ashland University, where he held the position of Head Equipment Coordinator from 1998-2001.

During his time at Ashland, Fife was able to establish many contacts with vendors and national merchandising companies that should help him greatly in his position at William and Mary. He supervised a staff that included two graduate assistants as well as student employees.

Well-respected among his peers, Fife chaired the Athletic Equipment Managers Association's National Curriculum Committee in 2002 to 2003. He was a presenter at the AEMA's national convention in 2003.

In addition to his work as the equipment manager, Fife also was an instructor of sports sciences at Ashland. After earning his undergraduate degree from Ashland in 1994, he began his career in the profession as a graduate assistant equipment coordinator, a position he held in 1996-97. He went on to earn a master's degree from Ashland in 2001.

Fife is certified by the AEMA and has designed and maintained his own computer inventory program for use with student-athletes.

Fife became engaged to Missy Harrison this past June.

The oldest player on the current William and Mary roster, Mike McCarthy was born on June 29, 1981. At that time Coach Laycock was readying to begin his second season as the Tribe's head coach.

WMU 56, W&M 24

KALAMAZOO, MI (9/6/03) -- Chad Munson threw for 450 yards and six touchdowns as the Broncos spoiled Lang Campbell's debut as W&M's starting quarterback in a 56-24 win.

Campbell played well for W&M, completing 18 of 31 passes for 181 yards and three scores, including two to Steven Hargrove. Rich Musinski had eight catches for 101 yards, leaving him six short of tying Jerry Rice's I-AA record for 100-yard games in a career.

Defensively, the Tribe was led by linebackers Paul Carpenter and Travis McLaurin, who each had 14 tackles on the evening. Senior corner Billy Parker had a 27-yard fumble return and linebacker Chris Outlaw contributed a 68-yard interception return for the Tribe defense.

Fullback Nick Rogers had a one-yard TD catch for the Tribe, while sophomore kicker Greg Kuehn nailed a 33-yard field goal and converted all three of his PAT attempts.

No. 4 NU 48, W&M 14

BOSTON, MA (9/20/03) - Just days after Hurricane Isabel affected life in and around the Williamsburg area, the W&M football squad ran into another power, this time the force of No. 4 Northeastern. The Huskies broke open a close game in the third quarter and pulled away for a 48-14 win over the Tribe.

W&M spotted NU a 3-0 lead but took the lead when junior quarterback Lang Campbell connected with senior All-America candidate Rich Musinski on a 25-yard touchdown pass with just over eight minutes remaining in the first quarter.

W&M closed a 17-6 halftime margin to within three points at 17-14 in the third quarter on a TD pass from Campbell to Danny Wade. That's when Northeastern did its own imitation of Hurricane Isabel, as the Huskies scored on a seven-yard run by Anthony Riley, and added a safety and two more touchdown runs in the third quarter to take a 41-14 lead into the final stanza.

NEWARK, DE (10/4/03) - Traditionally, football contests between William and Mary and Delaware are fast-paced, high-scoring affairs that leave the fans of both squads on the edge of their seats. This year's game at Delaware Stadium was no different, as the two squads combined for over 800 yards of total offense, but in the end, the Blue Hens were too much for the Tribe, as No. 4 Delaware prevailed 41-27 before a crowd of 20,485 fans under the lights.

Tribe junior quarterback Lang Campbell had an outstanding game in his fourth career start, completing 27 of 37 passes for 278 yards, all career-highs, plus three touchdowns. On the receiving end of nine of those passes was senior wideout Rich Musinski, who finished with 109 yards and three touchdowns. Musinski went over the 100-yard mark for the 18th time in his career, leaving him five short of tying Jerry Rice's I-AA record.

The Tribe hung in throughout the game but could not battle back to even the score.

No. 7 UMass 24, W&M 14

WILLIAMSBURG, VA (10/11/03) - Entering the fourth quarter facing a 17-0 deficit, William and Mary forced a pair of turnovers and converted them into two touchdowns, but the Tribe comeback fell short, as W&M fell to UMass, 24-14, in its home opener at Zable Stadium.

W&M got on the scoreboard when quarterback Lang Campbell hit Steven Hargrove for a 51-yard score to make the margin 17-7 in favor of the Minutemen. That score came immediately after a fumble recovery by the Tribe. On the next UMass possession, sophomore linebacker Travis McLaurin intercepted a Jeff Krohn pass, setting up a touchdown run by senior Nick Rogers to close the gap to 17-14.

However, W&M could not take the lead, as UMass scored another TD and later picked off a Campbell pass in the end zone to ensure the victory, as the Minutemen improved to 4-0 in league play this season.

Campbell threw for 265 yards in the losing effort for W&M, while McLaurin and fellow linebacker Paul Carpenter combined for 32 tackles. The Tribe recovered two fumbles and picked off two passes on the afternoon.

JMU 24, W&M 17

WILLIAMSBURG, VA (10/18/03) - James Madison used a pair of big plays in the first half that resulted in two scores and controlled possession for a majority of the second half to hold off William and Mary, 24-17, before a crowd of 8,038 at Zable Stadium.

Despite the loss, it was an eventful day for the Tribe, as senior wideout Rich Musinski broke another school record. This time, he passed Dave Conklin to become the school's all-time leader in receptions. Musinski finished the game with 10 catches for 137 yards.

Tribe sophomore Greg Kuehn nailed two early field goals on the ends of a Dukies touchdown to make the early score 7-6. Then, JMU's Cortez Thompson ran a punt back 70 yards for a score, giving JMU a 14-6 advantage.

W&M tied the game when junior wideout Dominique Thompson caught his first career TD pass in the second quarter and quarterback Lang Campbell added the two-point conversion. But JMU bounced back to score a TD late in the half for a 21-14 lead. Kuehn nailed another field goal on the last play of the half to make it 21-17, but the only scoring left to be done in the game was a 26-yard field goal by JMU's David Rabil late in the contest.

W&M 37, URI 24

KINGSTON, RI (10/25/03) - A steady dose of offensive firepower and a key defensive touch-down late in the game led William and Mary past Rhode Island, 37-24, in Atlantic 10 Football action at Meade Stadium.

The win broke a four-game losing streak for W&M. Senior wideout Rich Musinski led the way by snagging a career-high 13 passes for 191 yards, going over the 100-yard mark for the 20th time in his career and keeping alive his pursuit of Jerry Rice's I-AA record of 23 career 100-yard games.

The victory was clinched for the Tribe on a key defensive play late in the game. Trailing 30-17 after a field goal by Tribe sophomore Greg Kuehn, URI immediately got back into the game on a 97-yard kick return for a score with just over eight minutes left. After the Rams defense held, URI took to the field trailing by six points and trying to rally to stun the Tribe.

But URI's chances ended when the W&M defense scored its second touchdown of the season, as an option pitch by the Rams' quarterback went awry, and W&M sophomore defensive end Adam O'Connor fell on the ball for the score.

W&M 23, Hofstra 9

WILLIAMSBURG, VA(11/1/03) - Redshirt freshman tailback Delmus Coley rushed for a career-high 133 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in the second half as William and Mary rallied to defeat Hofstra, 23-9, before a Homecoming crowd of 9,051 at Zable Stadium.

The win also saw senior wideout Rich Musinski break the Atlantic 10's all-time receiving yardage record, as he made five receptions for 44 yards, including a 13-yard catch in the second quarter that broke Brian Forster's mark of 3,944 career receiving yards.

W&M trailed 9-0 with just under nine minutes remaining in the third quarter when junior quarterback Lang Campbell hit junior wideout Dominique Thompson on a 51-yard play-action pass to cut into the deficit.

On the Tribe's next possession, Coley broke free for a 49-yard run that brought the ball all the way down to the Hofstra five-yard line. Three plays later, Coley carried the ball in from the one-yard line to give the Tribe a 13-9 advantage. Campbell then carried the ball in for the two-point conversion to put the College up by six points.

Clinging to the six-point lead, Coley set the final margin when he went off left-tackle from 19 yards out to cap a five-play, 74-yard drive with just over 12 minutes remaining in the game. Musinski then caught a conversion pass from Campbell to make the final margin 23-9.

W&M 38, UNH 28

WILLIAMSBURG, VA(11/15/03) - Behind a balanced offensive attack and an opportunistic defense, William and Mary won its third-straight game with a 38-28 victory over New Hampshire before a crowd of 4,887 at Zable Stadium.

The first half was highlighted by an amazing performance by wide receiver Rich Musinski. Musinski had four catches for 117 yards in the first quarter alone before leaving with an injury. Even without Musinski, the passing game kept rolling. Lang Campbell hit junior John Pitts from 26 yards out to put W&M up 17-10 early in the second quarter.

With the game tied at the half, it was the play of redshirt freshman running back Trevor McLaurin that broke the game open in the second half. McLaurin tallied the first score of his career on a 22-yard run in the third quarter. He followed that up just over seven minutes later by catching an 11-yard score. And finally, late in the game McLaurin hit paydirt again, this time from two yards out to set the final margin.

W&M 59, UR 21

RICHMOND, VA(11/22/03) - In the final game of the 2003 season, there was a bit of symmetry for the Tribe football team, as seniors scored the first and last touchdowns of the game, while a handful of underclassmen highlighted the middle of W&M's 59-21 victory over Richmond.

The Tribe scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams en route to reclaiming the I-64 Trophy before a crowd of 6,228 at UR Stadium. The win saw the Tribe's record end at 5-5 and capped a four-game winning streak to end the year.

Senior safety Marques Bobo ignited the Tribe with a 69-yard punt return to open the scoring. The Tribe took a 10-point lead into halftime after tailback Trevor McLaurin scored.

The Tribe defense then got on the board in the second half as sophomore James Miller scored on a 77-yard INT return. Finally, senior fullback Nick Rogers ended the scoring with a one yard plunge with 3:14 remaining.

A young, aggressive Tribe defense steadily improved throughout the year. In a four-game winning streak that ended the 2003 season, the hard-hitting unit totaled 26 tackles for loss, eight sacks, five forced fumbles and five interceptions.

The coaches in second, third, fourth and fifth place on the all time William and Mary wins list have combined for 143 wins in 24 seasons, 16 fewer than Coach Laycock has totaled with 159 in the same number of years.

TRIBBLE HIS STORY

W&M FOOTBALL TIMELINE

- 1891 Students begin asking for a football team, editorial appears in a literary magazine in favor of its adoption.
- 1893 Intramural football grows into a faculty-approved team and first game is played against Norfolk YMCA in Norfolk. The first home game was against Capitol City Athletic Club.
- 1894 First intercollegiate game played, a 28-0 loss to Hampden-Sydney College.
- 1895 No football played because of lack of student interest.
- 1896 First athletic rules adopted, including college regulations for football.
- 1898 Tribe plays first game vs. Richmond (a 15-0 loss) starting the longest football rivalry in the South. The College also records first intercollegiate win, a 10-0 win vs. Randolph-Macon.
- 1918 World War I interrupts athletics program, and only one game is played. Until this point, only state teams and teams from the immediate area appeared on the schedule.
- 1926 The team loses only to northern foes to post a 7-3 overall record. William and Mary wins the Southern title and beats Chattanooga in its first bowl bid.
- 1935 Cary Field Stadium is completed to seat 10,000, with a quarter-mile track and practice field included.
- 1939 Carl Voyles, Wallace Wade's assistant at Duke, is appointed head coach and athletics director, and R.N. "Rube" McCray is made his assistant. "Fabulous Freshman" team, which Voyles and McCray brought in, gains national recognition.
- 1940 VMI ties William and Mary, but no state team defeats the Indians. From 1940 through 1948, no state team beats or ties W&M.
- 1942 William and Mary wins the Southern Conference championship, losing only to the star-studded North Carolina Pre-Flight Eleven. The Tribe defeats Oklahoma in postseason play. Guard Garrard "Buster" Ramsey becomes William and Mary's first AP first team All-America player.
- 1943 Varsity football discontinued for second time because of war.

The 1946 team, led by captain Denver Mills (left) and coach Rube McCray (right), returned more than 50 players from WWII.

- 1944 Voyles leaves William and Mary for Auburn, McCray becomes head coach and athletics director.
- 1946 Pre-war stars return from service, and William and Mary finishes second in the Southern Conference.
- 1947 William and Mary wins second conference championship. McCray is named Coach of the Year in the league, and fullback Jack Cloud is named captain of the All-Southern team and appears on several All-America teams. The Indians receive a bid to the Dixie Bowl in Birmingham, January 1, 1948, but lose to Arkansas, 21-19.

- 1948 W&M football team gains second consecutive bowl bid, defeating Oklahoma A&M, 20-0, in the Delta Bowl in Memphis. Jack Cloud leads the Tribe to one of the nation's biggest upsets, a 7-7 tie with North Carolina. The Tribe also tops N.C. State and Virginia Tech and gains sweet revenge over Arkansas, 9-0.
- 1951 Marvin Bass directs the Tribe to a 7-3 mark in his only year as a head coach.
- 1953 With only 24 members on the squad, Head Coach John T. "Jackie" Freeman (Class of 1944) guides the "Iron Indians" to a 5-4-1 record. That depleted squad upsets Wake Forest in the season opener, ties Navy and defeats N.C. State, VPI, George Washington and Richmond.
- 1964 Marv Levy takes over a program which hasn't posted a winning record in 10 years.
- 1967 En route to their third consecutive winning season, the Indians score three TDs in the fourth quarter to stun Navy 27-16. Navy, ranked No. 1 in the East, falls to W&M for the first time in 25 years.
- 1970 With a losing record (5-6), Head Coach Lou Holtz directs the Indians to the Tangerine Bowl after two scrappy, end-of-the-season comebacks. Toledo wins the postseason game, 40-12.
- 1976 Head Coach Jim Root guides the Indians to seven wins for the first time since 1951.
- 1980 Jimmye Laycock returns to his alma mater to take over the reins of the program.

W&M's 1967 victory over Navy ranks as one of the biggest upsets in college football history. Most people didn't give the Tribe a chance.

Only Andrew Beyer, in the Washington Post, cautioned that an upset was possible, because of William and Mary's passing game. Few took such warnings seriously. The odds makers made it a 20-point spread at game time.

How big an upset was it? When the NCAA celebrated the first 100 years of college football, they listed the 10 greatest upsets in history. One of them was William and Mary 27, Navy 16, Oct. 21, 1967.

Tribe coach Marv Levy (at left with football) celebrates the upset win over Navy.

1986 The Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting a 9-2 record. W&M loses to Delaware, 51-17.

1988 Jimmye Laycock becomes winningest coach in W&M football history. The Tribe plays in its sixth postseason game, the first one ever to be played by an American team in Japan against a Japanese all-star squad. The Epsom Ivy Bowl is an awesome success with a 73-3 victory.

1989 Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting an 8-2-1 record. W&M loses to Furman, 24-10. W&M ends the season ranked 10th.

1990 The Tribe finishes with a school-record 10 victories and advances to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. William and Mary defeats Richmond in the 100th meeting between the two teams.

1992 William and Mary finishes with a 9-2 record, becoming only the fifth team in school history to achieve nine victories. The Tribe travels to Tokyo and defeats Nihon University, 35-19, in the fifth Epsom Ivy Bowl. The game was the first-ever match-up between a major U.S. college team and a Japanese university squad.

1993 Celebrating its 100th year of football, and its first year of Yankee Conference play, the Tribe posts a 9-2 record and finishes second in the league (7-1). W&M advances to the NCAA playoffs where it loses to third-seeded McNeese St., 34-28, in Lake Charles, LA. Quarterback Shawn Knight sets a NCAA Division I-AA record for pass efficiency (204.6) while defensive tackle Craig Staub becomes the most decorated player in Tribe history by being named to four All-America teams, including the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America squad.

1994 Tribe finishes with 8-3 record, capping the best three-year stretch in school history (26-8).

1995 Jimmye Laycock becomes only the 13th Division I-AA head coach to reach the 100-win plateau with a 39-0 win at defending conference champion New Hampshire. The College finishes the season with a 7-4 mark and places 13 athletes on the all-conference squad.

1996 The College wins its first Yankee Conference title in the league's last season of competition. On its way to the league title the College finishes with a school-record No. 5 final national ranking, ties the school record for wins (10) and makes a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA Div. I-AA playoffs. The team also takes home the Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year trophies. OG Josh Beyer and safety Darren Sharper earn multiple first team All-America honors, while Sharper becomes the third Tribe player to be named as the Yankee Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. As a second-round selection of the Green Bay Packers, Sharper also becomes the highest NFL draft pick in school history.

1997 W&M reaches an all-time high national ranking of No. 2 in the coaches poll in the season's third week and finished with a 7-4 mark. W&M has 10 players named to All-Atlantic 10 honors, marking the third-straight season with double-digit honorees.

1998 The Tribe ends the year with a 7-4 record and a No. 17 final national ranking. The squad produces three players who earned All-America honors: QB Mike Cook, DT Raheem Walker and P/TE Mike Leach.

1999 Coach Laycock and his staff guide the squad to its eighth consecutive winning season with a 6-5 mark. Placekicker Brett Sterba ties the A10 record for field goals in a season with 18 and WR Dave Conklin graduates as the school's all-time leader in receptions (190), receiving yards (3,269) and TD catches (27). Sophomore Komlan Lonergan sets the school single-season kickoff return yardage mark with 743 yards.

2001 W&M posts an 8-4 mark, winning a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference crown and making its first NCAA Playoff appearance since 1996. Senior tailback Komlan Lonergan sets the career kickoff return yardage record (1,464), junior quarterback Dave Corley establishes the College's career mark for total offense (8,173) and sophomore receiver Rich Musinski breaks the school's single season receiving yardage mark by posting 1,393 yards on 59 catches. Eleven student-athletes earn all-conference honors and Musinski and OT Dwight Beard earn All-American honors.

2002 Tribe senior quarterback Dave Corley, Jr. breaks the school's all-time passing yardage record in W&M's 6-5 season, the 17th winning ledger in the past 20 years. Corley ends up as the holder of 16 school records. His main target, wideout Rich Musinski, becomes the Tribe's all-time receiving yards leader in the season finale against Richmond.

2003 Standout wide receiver Rich Musinski breaks the Atlantic 10 record for career receiving yards with 4,168 yards and is named a first team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association. He also finished his career as the College's all-time leader in receptions (223) and touchdowns (31). He is only the third player in NCAA history to collect more than 4,000 receiving yards.

Offensive lineman Garrard "Buster" Ramsey was chosen to the All-Southern Conference team in both 1941 and 1942 for W&M.

ALL-TIME HONORS AND AWARDS

Walter Zable, Class of 1937, has long been one of the biggest supporters of Tribe football. Zable was a starting end for W&M from 1934-36, playing well enough to be named to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary All-America team. In 1987, the NCAA awarded Zable with its highest honor, the Theodore Roosevelt Award. Zable ensured that his legacy would remain with W&M when, in 1990, he and his wife Betty (Class of 1940) made a commitment towards athletics, student aid and other needs. In recognition of the gesture, the College's Board of Visitors approved the naming of the on-campus football stadium as Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field.

Disney Spirit Award

Hameen Ali III

Former Tribe standout Hameen Ali III was given the Disney Spirit Award in 2000, which signifies a college football player who has overcome obstacles to achieve success.

Steve Christie twice converted 53-yard field goals for W&M, which established a school record that Brett Sterba tied in 2000.

WALK-ON HALL OF FAME

“There has been a tradition of success for walk-on athletes in our program ... I think it exemplifies the importance we place on work ethic here ... If a player comes to the College and is willing to do the work in the classroom and on the field, he will get an equal opportunity to play.”

- Tribe Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

In athletics, players develop at different rates and react to competitive situations in different ways. For those reasons, the W&M football coaching staff understands the impact walk-on players, athletes not presented athletic scholarships directly out of high school, can make on the program. W&M has been fortunate to attract many top-quality players as walk-ons who have gone on to earn scholarships and become important parts of the success of Tribe football. Many of these players, wanting to be part of a traditional power like W&M, have turned down other scholarship offers in favor of walking onto the Tribe program with the hopes of earning a scholarship.

These players' dedication to Tribe football have been rewarded by earning scholarships and making the most of their opportunity, on and off the field. Without quality walk-on players the Tribe could not continue to perform at such a high level on the national scene. Notable players who came to W&M as walk-ons include 1995 Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year Jason Miller, record-setting wideout Josh Whipple and all-conference safety Sean McDermott. Largely due to their unselfish approach to the game and their consummate team play, a number of former walk-ons have gone on to serve as team captains at W&M, including Mike McGowan and Stefon Moody in 1996 and McDermott in 1997 and, more recently, Marc Matthie in 2001 and both Lang Campbell and Wade Harrell in 2004. Former W&M defensive back Palmer Scarritt, who ranks second on the W&M all-time punt return yardage list, came to the program as a walk-on. Former defensive line walk-on Alan Garlic set W&M's career sack record at 21. Lynchburg's Charlie White came to W&M as an undersized center and went on to earn second-team all-conference honors in 1995. Receiver Mark Compner came to Williamsburg as a walk-on and established a then-W&M record for single-season receiving yards with 1,180 in 1990. One of Compner's teammates, fullback Tyrone Shelton, went from walk-on to a career that saw him rush for 2,534 yards, the fifth-highest total in W&M history, and become an NFL draft selection. In 2002, Andrew Solomon led the Tribe in tackles after joining the squad as a walk-on his freshman year.

The following is a list of some of the most prominent W&M players who have come to the Tribe as walk-ons since 1980. Each of these student-athletes went on to earn starting positions and, more importantly, bachelor's degrees from the College.

ATHLETIC DIRECTORS

Terry Driscoll
Athletics Director

With an extensive resumé that includes four years as a student-athlete, a professional playing career and numerous jobs in the athletic business world, Edward C. "Terry" Driscoll is entering his eighth year as the athletics director at the College of William and Mary.

Driscoll's tenure has seen a wealth of improvements across the board in the W&M athletics department, from new facilities to increased fundraising for the Tribe. In addition, the Tribe has reached all-time highs in the annual Director's Cup rankings that summarize excellence in all sports.

Upon the death of legendary Tribe athletics director John Randolph, W&M president Timothy J. Sullivan chose Driscoll to be the new leader of the department, saying "Terry brings outstanding management and leadership skills to the position."

Since Driscoll took over as athletics director, he has overseen the construction of more than $6 million in facilities, including the new Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). Driscoll has also increased the annual fundraising totals for non-capital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to around $2.7 million currently. He also has served on numerous conference and NCAA committees, including a stint as president of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference.

The Tribe has also had outstanding success across the board since Driscoll came to Williamsburg. In 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four teams won conference titles, while six were in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. One of the department's goals each year is to finish in the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, and that has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the AD, with a high ranking of 42 occurring in 1997. In addition, W&M had captured 76 CAA Championships coming into the 2004-05 school year, by far the highest total among all conference schools.

Driscoll's leadership skills were developed in his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament championship game as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom with a major in biology garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth pick of the NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three picks after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communication - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports as well as organizing the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix, a five-week competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children - Keith, 28, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross and Leslie, 24, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

Barb Blosser
Senior Executive
Associate Director

After serving 12 years as the College's associate athletics director, Barbara Blosser was promoted to her current position of senior executive associate athletic director in April of 2004. Blosser started her career at William and Mary as the head women's basketball coach in 1978 and guided the Tribe to a VAAIAW crown in her first season with a school-record

16 wins (16-13). Her 1980 Tribe team (11-14) placed third, while the 1981 squad (16-16) was VAAIAW runner-up. She was also at the helm during the 1984-85 season when William and Mary made the jump to NCAA Division I. Overall, she finished her coaching career with 115 wins, 84 of which came at W&M.

When the College's men's and women's athletic programs merged in May of 1986, she moved to administration, first serving as the Assistant to the Associate Athletics Director. Over the past 16 years, her administrative responsibilities at W&M have included the monitoring of financial aid matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic facilities, supervision of coaches and staff and, currently, serving as the person primarily responsible for administering the day-to-day operations of the department.

From October 1992 to June 1993 and August 1995 to July 1996, Blosser also served as acting athletics director in an interim capacity. For her efforts, she was named the first recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award. Blosser has served on various committees such as the NCAA Strategic Planning Committee and the Colonial Athletic Association Competition Committee.

Blosser began her coaching career at the helm of the women's basketball program at Ashland College in Ohio. During two seasons there, she led the Eagles to successive 15-7 and 16-8 ledgers. Her 1977 squad won the AIAW Region V Championship, while her 1978 team took the OASISW Small College title.

A former three-sport standout at Ohio State, Blosser graduated Cum Laude in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. At OSU, she was selected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She competed in basketball, field hockey and tennis and captained both the basketball and field hockey squads her senior year. She went on to earn her master's degree from the University of North Carolina Greensboro in 1978. In 1993, she was selected as a member of the first class of women inducted to the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Robb Dunn
Associate AD, Internal Affairs

Robb Dunn is in his fourth year with the College, and his first as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs.

Dunn oversees the facilities and operations for W&M athletics. In this position, Dunn is responsible for budgets, maintenance and game-day operations of all Tribe athletic facilities. He oversees a staff of seven full-time employees. In addition to his duties with athletics, Dunn also coordinates all outside events held at William and Mary Hall, as well as summer camps and equipment operations. Also, Dunn oversees the day-to-day operations of the baseball, men's soccer and men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Dunn served as the Facilities and Game Management Supervisor at the University of Michigan. In that capacity, Dunn managed six department facilities, as well as handling game management duties for baseball, basketball and football. Prior to assuming this position, Dunn spent five years at Michigan's Yost Arena, including four years overseeing the consulting portion of the Sport Facilities Research Laboratory.

A California native, Dunn earned a bachelor of arts degree in history from the University of California at Berkeley in 1993. During his undergraduate days, he lettered as a member of the Golden Bears' football program and also worked for Cal's department of intercollegiate athletics and recreational sports. He then went on to earn a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan in 1994.

Bobby Dwyer
Associate AD, Development

Bobby Dwyer, Associate Athletics Director for Development, heads the W&M Athletic Educational Foundation, the department's alumni fund-raising arm. He came on board in October 1985 after holding assistant basketball coaching positions at the U.S. Military Academy and Duke. He was promoted to Associate Athletics Director this spring. Dwyer heads up the fund-raising efforts for the athletics department, and supervises the marketing and promotions and special events departments.

Dwyer graduated from Wake Forest in 1974 where he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and captained the squad as a senior. He received his master's degree in higher education from W&M in 1994.

He is a past president of the Williamsburg chapter of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He and his wife Patti have two sons, Patrick (20) and Peter (18), and live in Williamsburg.

Frank Hardymon
Associate AD, External Affairs

Frank Hardymon is in his first year as W&M's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. Hardymon joined the Tribe staff in October of 1997 as Assistant Athletics Director for Business Affairs. Previously, he managed the athletics budget at Villanova as the Associate Business Manager (1995-97).

Pete Kresky,
Director of Marketing and Promotions

Pete Kresky brings a vast amount of marketing, retail and business experience into his third year as the Director of Marketing and Promotions for William and Mary's athletics department.

Kresky has over 20 years of sports retail experience, consisting of ownership of more than 20 Athlete's Foot stores, and consulting with Brooks Shoes, Reebok and other manufacturing/retail companies. His also has worked in commercial and mortgage banking. He is vice president of the Williamsburg Boat Club and is a certified rowing coach. Kresky and his wife, Bonnie, reside in Stonehouse.

Millie West
Director of Special Projects

An integral part of William and Mary athletics for more than 40 years, Millie West began another chapter of her affiliation with the College in 1991 when she retired as Associate Athletics Director and assumed the role of Director of Special Projects.

A highly successful fundraiser, she has been a key in the success of the four BASF Wightman Cup tennis tournaments held at the College, as well as the annual Plumeri Pro-Am golf tournament which has reaped great benefits for the College. West coordinated W&M's Indoor Tennis Center Project, which brought the McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center onto campus. She is also the curator, and 1998 inductee, of the ITA Women's Tennis Hall of Fame at the center.

A 1957 graduate of Georgia College, West, who was awarded the USTA Educational Merit Award, is also a member of the W&M Athletic Hall of Fame. She also serves on executive committees for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Williamsburg Community Health Foundation.

The College has sent 22 players into the professional ranks during Coach Laycock's tenure.

CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION

Timothy J. Sullivan President

Timothy J. Sullivan first came to William and Mary as a freshman in 1962. He left four years later with a bachelor's degree in government, a Phi Beta Kappa key and membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Sullivan was elected president of the College on April 9, 1992 by the Board of Visitors and was sworn in as president on June 1, just eight months before the College began its 300th anniversary celebration.

Sullivan's life has been intimately linked with William and Mary. His wife, Anne Doubet Klare, was a fellow member of the class of 1966. Like other William and Mary alumni, they were married in the chapel of the Sir Christopher Wren Building.

After receiving a law degree from Harvard University in 1969, Sullivan went on to serve in the Army Signal Corps in Vietnam, where he received the Army Commendation Medal, First Oak Leaf Cluster and Bronze Star.

Sullivan came back to William and Mary in 1972 as an assistant professor at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law where he specialized in teaching contract law. He rose quickly, becoming an associate law professor in 1974, then full professor and associate dean in 1977.

In 1981 and 1982, he was visiting law professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He served for nearly three years as executive assistant for policy for then-Governor Charles S. Robb. Sullivan returned to Marshall-Wythe in 1984, as the John Stewart Bryan Professor of Jurisprudence. He became dean of the law school in July 1985. He is a member of the Virginia State Bar and the Ohio State Bar and a Fellow of the Virginia Bar Foundation and the American Bar Foundation, and he currently serves on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association.

Sullivan was given the Freedom of the Drapers' Company in London in November 1992. In April 1993 he received an LLD (hon.) from the University of Aberdeen. He received the Outstanding Virginian Award from the Virginia 4-H Foundation in 1999.

Active in public service, Sullivan has been executive director of the Governor's Commission on Virginia's Future, counsel for the Commission on the Future of the Virginia Judicial System, a member of the Virginia Board of Education and the Governor's Task Force on Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault on Campus. In addition, he was appointed by Governor L. Douglas Wilder as chair of the Governor's Task Force on Intercollegiate and Interscholastic Athletics. President Sullivan served as chair of the Council of Presidents for 1998 and 1999.

Henry A. Kissinger Chancellor

Soldier, statesman, academician, author, peacemaker Henry A. Kissinger was installed February 10, 2001, as the 22nd Chancellor of the College of William and Mary. The former U.S. Secretary of State and Nobel Peace Prize winner also delivered the Charter Day address. Mr. Kissinger, who succeeded Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, as chancellor was selected by the Board of Visitors to a seven-year term that began July 1, 2000. Mr. Kissinger will officiate at ceremonies such as the spring commencement and future Charter Day celebrations, which commemorate the College's founding in 1693. He will also help the College extend its international reach by guiding the establishment of relationships with institutions and people around the globe.

The College's charter established the position of chancellor, stating that the role should go to "one eminent and discreet person," who would serve as the College's representative to the English crown. During the pre-Revolutionary war era, either the Bishop of London or the Archbishop of Canterbury held the position. The first American chancellor was George Washington, who served from 1788 until his death in 1799.

Born in 1923 in Furth, Germany, Mr. Kissinger immigrated to the United States in 1938 to escape Nazi persecution. After studying accounting at the City College of New York, he served in the U.S. Army and the military government of the defeated Germany after World War II.

In 1969, President Richard M. Nixon appointed him Assistant for National Security Affairs, and subsequently head of the National Security Council and Secretary of State, a post he held until 1976.

During his time with the government, Mr. Kissinger led efforts to establish detente with the former Soviet Union, opened the People's Republic of China to the outside world for the first time since Mao Tse Tung came to power in 1949, helped limit the spread of nuclear weapons, helped resolve some of the differences between the Arabs and Israelis, and played a vital role in bringing an end to the war in Vietnam.

For his efforts to end the war in Vietnam, Mr. Kissinger and his North Vietnamese counterpart, Le Duc Tho, were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Today Kissinger is an international consultant and author.

Established in 1948 to create support for William and Mary athletics, the Tribe Club is made up of alumni and friends of the College's athletics programs. Due to the fact that W&M receives no aid from the state for its sports programs, the Tribe Club is the sole provider of scholarships and program support for William and Mary's student-athletes.

Whether you are a former Tribe student-athlete, a proud alum or a Tribe parent or fan, you are invited to join the Tribe Club. By joining, you are providing opportunities for many young men and women to experience both academic and athletic excellence here at the College. In addition to the coveted chance to support our student-athletes, the Tribe Club holds many fun and exciting events throughout the year. Members can enjoy tailgates, pregame and postgame events, golf outings and various other Tribe-related functions.

To join, simply make a contribution to the Tribe Club/Athletic Educational Foundation and support the gifted and talented athletes in the Tribe family. As a member of the Tribe Club, you will feel a special sense of satisfaction by helping one of America's truly outstanding groups of student-athletes.

Tribe Club member Doug Morton, along with his wife Marilyn, models the autographed Denver Broncos jersey of former Tribe great Mike Leach that he purchased at this year's Lord Bote-tourt auction.

“Exercise and recreation ... are as necessary as reading;
I will say rather more necessary, because health is worth more than learning.
A strong body makes the mind strong.”
—Thomas Jefferson, W&M Class of 1762

Few colleges in America can boast of the combination of athletic and academic excellence that is found at the College of William and Mary. Each year, more than 500 Tribe student-athletes, competing on 23 Division I teams, prove that it is possible to simultaneously excel at the highest levels of athletics and academics.

Athletic Excellence

The 2003-04 season was one of the best in W&M history, as the Tribe captured six CAA titles to push its total to a dominant 76, 26 more than the next closest competitor. Seven teams competed in their respective NCAA Tournaments, highlighted by Ramon Jackson's national championship on the parallel bars. It has become typical for W&M to win at least five conference championships and send seven or more teams to the NCAA Tournament each season.

Each year the goal of the athletics department is to finish in the top-100 nationally in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings and in recent years W&M has far exceeded that standard. Punctuating this run is the College's 58th-place ranking for the 2002-03 campaign, marking the eighth time in the last 10 years that the Tribe finished in the top-four in Virginia and first or second in the Colonial Athletic Association.

William and Mary fields Division I teams for both men and women in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. There are also field hockey, lacrosse and volleyball squads for women of the College, while there are two additional sports (baseball and football) for men.

Academic Success

The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of its students' academic responsibilities. 83% of all athletes earn a degree while a formidable 36 athletes have been selected Academic All-America since 1992.

In 2002-03 the CAA began a Scholar-Athlete of the Year award for each of the league's 21 sports. Not surprisingly, W&M set the pace with five athletes winning the honor, more than any other school. The College continued to set the standard in 2003-04 with another five athletes claiming the honor: Ali Henderson (women's cross country), Adam Otstot (men's cross country), Adam Hess (men's basketball), Chris Parsons (men's track and field) and Ann Schnell (women's golf).

The atmosphere and ambiance of game day at Zable Stadium is one of college sport's most picturesque Saturday afternoon locations.

The College of William and Mary - The Best Small Public University in the United States

For more than 300 years, William and Mary has been a symbol of academic distinction in America. Now, in its fourth century, the College is prepared to educate the leaders of the 21st century.

The College of William and Mary was founded in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of England. Four Presidents of the United States received their education at the College - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler. The current chancellor of the College is former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, and he took over the post from former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

William and Mary was the first college to institute an honor code of conduct. The premier academic society, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded by William and Mary students in 1776. The Society of the Alumni, founded in 1842, is the sixth oldest alumni group in the nation. Now the College is designated as a "Public Ivy", and ranks 15th among the best regional business schools.

The Wren Building is the oldest one in the United States in which classes are still taught.

ZABLE STADIUM

Walter and Betty Zable, classes of 1937 and 1940 respectively, made a commitment of $10 million to the Campaign for the Fourth Century in the fall of 1990. The money will be used for athletics, graduate student aid and various other needs.

In appreciation of this large gift, the College's Board of Visitors approved the naming of the football stadium at Cary Field as the Walter J. Zable Stadium. A formal dedication was held November 3, 1990, prior to kickoff of that season's 38-28 homecoming victory over Furman.

A three-year letterwinner for the Tribe's football team (1934-36), Zable is more than familiar with college athletics. He also lettered in baseball, basketball and track, and was an honorable mention All-America on the gridiron. After graduation Zable enjoyed a professional football career with the Richmond Arrows and the New York Giants.

Besides being named to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary All-America team, he was a National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Gold Medal recipient in 1980, and received the "Teddy" Award from the NCAA in 1987, which is presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national reputation and outstanding accomplishment who has earned a varsity award in college.

Constructed in 1935 at a cost of $175,000, Zable Stadium at Cary Field has been home to a solid winning tradition for the Tribe gridders. The first game there was contested on September 21, 1935 and ended in a 0-0 deadlock with state rival Virginia in what was that year's opening contest.

Zable Stadium was financed by a grant for construction through the Public Works Administration during President Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration. Improvements in the past decade have boosted Zable Stadium's capacity to 13,279. However, in the 1985 Homecoming victory over Richmond, a record crowd of 18,054 packed the stadium and grounds.

Heading into the 2004 season, William and Mary owns a cumulative 178-101-6 (.635) record at Zable Stadium, while head coach Jimmye Laycock has guided the Tribe to a 85-28-1 (.750) home mark during his 24-year tenure — including a school-record 13 straight victories from 1988-90. W&M's 20-13 home loss to then No. 1 Villanova in the 1997 season snapped a Tribe 13-game home unbeaten streak dating back to 1995.

The 1996 team was the sixth in the last 14 years to finish undefeated at home, and W&M sports a 65-17-1 record on Zable's Bermuda surface in the last 83 games.

Coach Laycock has won three fourths of his games played at Zable Stadium during his tenure going 85-28-1 in the past 24 seasons including six undefeated home seasons and two separate 13 game home winning streaks.

The College of William and Mary and its student-athletes take a great deal of pride in the quality of its athletic facilities. Over the last several years, the College has bolstered its lineup of venues to match the success that the Tribe has shown in the athletic arena, which has been unmatched in the Colonial Athletic Association. William and Mary boasts some of the finest athletic arenas in the nation, from its newest venue, Albert-Daly Field, to the oldest, Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field, a campus landmark since 1935. The College is committed to providing the student-athlete the most enjoyable and rewarding atmosphere possible.

Tribe athletics is very proud of the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center, a 5,000 square foot weight training facility. Under the guidance of the Head and Assistant Strength Coach each sport is provided with a program designed to enhance individual strength and flexibility development specific to the skills and movements required for their sport. Individuals are educated on proper lifting techniques and workouts are monitored to assure safety at all times.

Sports Psychology

The athletic department has on staff a sports psychologist, who holds a Ph.D. in sports psychology. All consultations are confidential and all student-athletes, teams or coaches are welcome regardless of the issues they wish to discuss. Consultation is available for sport psychology education, performance enhancement skills training, strategies for dealing with stress or injury, or for personal issues that may affect performance. The sports psychology consultant is considered a member of the Counseling Center and refers individuals to the Center when appropriate.

Compliance and Academic Support

As members of the Colonial Athletic Association and NCAA Division I, the College is committed to full compliance with all NCAA and conference regulations. The department has a fulltime Director of Compliance committed to assisting students, staff and coaches through education and monitoring of compliance issues.

All entering students are assigned to a faculty academic advisor assigned by the director of Academic Advising. Students remain with this advisor until their sophomore year at which time they select a faculty advisor in their chosen major.

Within the athletic department, the Academic Support Coordinator is a valuable resource for student-athletes serving in a liaison role with the various student service offices throughout the campus community. The College has offices for Volunteer Services, Career Services, a Writing Resource Center and Oral Communication Studio, to name a few.

The department offers a variety of study, life and career building skills programs, but holds firm to the concept of self-determination—each student must take responsibility for his or her collegiate experience. Our goal is to assure that there is a support system in place to assist students to make positive and informed decisions.

Strength, Speed and Conditioning

Sports Medicine

The Division of Sports Medicine provides a comprehensive health care program for the department of intercollegiate athletics. The staff consists of a team physician, seven full time certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistant athletic trainers and medical specialists from the local community. The team physician has overall responsibility for supervision of the sports medicine program. Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

The priority for the athletic training staff is to enhance and assure lines of communication and cooperation among its staff, student-athletes, parents, coaches, the Student Health Center and involved medical specialists. Through a team approach to health care the sports medicine program can offer comprehensive health care services to the student-athletes in a caring and cooperative manner.

Since the beginning of its conference affiliation in 1993, the Tribe has had 111 players named all-conference, an average of 10.1 per year.

William and Mary

In his ninth year in the W&M Sports Information Office and his fifth as the Director is Pete Clawson. His responsibilities include overseeing the department, while also directly handling all aspects of media relations for the Tribe football and men's gymnastics teams.

A 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Clawson has assisted in the sports information departments at his alma mater, the University of Florida and Fresno State.

While at Florida, Clawson was the primary contact for all electronic media interviews for the Gator football program. In his two years at Fresno State, he was responsible for all interviews and practice coverage for the football team, as well as serving as the media contact for the wrestling and track and field teams.

The Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, native enjoys music, fishing and jogging. He and his wife, the former Catherine Merrill '98, were married on July 19, 2003 and reside in Williamsburg.

Radio stations should make arrangements with the Sports Information Office at least a month in advance. Requests for the line will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visiting Film Crews

Space will be allotted in the West Press Box for film and video crews of visiting teams' coaches' shows. We will provide two spots per team.

Post-Game Procedures

Head coach Jimmye Laycock and the visiting coach will be available about 10 minutes after the game in an interview area located directly below the press box. Individual W&M players' names should be given to Pete Clawson during the fourth quarter and they will be made available in the interview room.

Interviews

All requests for interviews must be directed through the Sports Information Office. Players are available Monday morning until noon Thursday.

Weekly Press Conference

A press conference with head coach Jimmye Laycock will be held every Tuesday at noon at the Hospitality House in Williamsburg. Interviews with selected players will follow the luncheon. Please confirm your attendance with Pete Clawson in the Sports Information Office at least 24 hours in advance at (757) 221-3369 or pmclaw@wm.edu.

The William and Mary Radio Network

The broadcast team of Jay Colley and Bob Sheeran will once again relay the excitement of Tribe football over the airwaves. Play-by-play chief Colley also covers the Tribe basketball squad. A mass communications graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, Colley has been a fixture of the Tribe's sports broadcasts for 19 years. In 2002, Colley was granted honorary alumnus status by William and Mary.

Bob Sheeran has never drifted far from the beat of W&M sports. A 1967 alumnus of the College, Sheeran served as W&M's sports information director for 16 years before entering private business in 1985. He has teamed up with Colley for the last 16 years as part of the football broadcasts and has also served as an integral part of all W&M Quarterback Club booster functions since his graduation. A testament to his dedication to the College was witnessed in 2003 as an endowment was organized in his name by HAYFARL (a W&M football booster organization) to provide scholarship support for a Tribe walk-on football player.

For the third year in a row, Williamsburg affiliate WMBG-AM 740 will originate and serve as the flagship station on the broadcasts of all William and Mary football and basketball games. Also airing the network will be WSRV-FM 92.3, The Surf.

Stretching over 150 miles across the commonwealth, the W&M radio network is the gateway to all of the Tribe action.

WMBG 740 AM Williamsburg
WSRV 92.3 FM Williamsburg
WBRG 1050 AM Lynchburg
WTOX 1480 AM Richmond

In addition, all W&M broadcasts can be heard online at TribeAthletics.com, the official internet home of Tribe sports.

EXERCISE and RECREATION...

"Exercise and recreation... are as necessary as reading; I will say rather more necessary, because health is worth more than learning. A strong body makes the mind strong."
