W&M: Team quad-captain ... Returns as one of league's top ball carriers as his 944 rushing yards ranks as the A10's fifth-highest returning total from last season, while his nine rushing TDs ranks third ... Tremendous leader on and off field ... Enjoyed a healthy, breakout season last fall to earn all-conference honors ... Consistent performer who excels at alignments and assignments ... Receiving threat out of the backfield with great ball skills and also an all-around good blocker ... Needs just 567 rushing yards to move into the Tribe's all-time top 10 on the career rushing chart ... Durable player who has played in 37 consecutive games (between W&M and Kent State) ... One of team's strongest backs with 370-lb. bench ... 2005: Earned Second Team All-A10 status and the team's offensive MVP award after leading the squad in rushing (944), rushing touchdowns (9) and all-purpose yards (1,112) ... Finished the season fifth in the A10 in rushing yards per game (85.8) and tied for ninth in scoring (6.0 ppg) ... Also ranked as the team's fifth-leading receiver with 19 catches for 168 yards and two touchdowns ... Started the season strong with four 100-yard rushing games in the first five contests ... Ran for a career-high 149 yards on 28 carries in the season-opener at Marshall ... Added three catches for 27 yards and a TD against the Herd ... Carried 18 times for 110 yards and a score at URI ... Followed with 102 yards rushing and three touchdowns on 22 attempts and three receptions for a season-high 43 yards and another TD against Liberty ... Became the first W&M back to rush for four scores in a game since 1993 in the win over top-ranked UNH ... Gained 135 yards on a career-high 32 carries in the program's first win over a No. 1-ranked team ... Hauled in a season-high five receptions for 34 yards and ran for 89 yards on 24 totes in the double-OT win at Northeastern ... Churned out 92 yards on 17 rushes against a stingy JMU defense ... 2004: Played in all 14 games and was the second-leading rusher on the year with 661 yards ... Averaged 47.2 yards per game on the ground and a team-high 4.2 yards per carry ... Ranked second on the squad in all-purpose yards, averaging 74.1 yards per game ... Came on strong at the end of the season, rushing for 237 yards in three playoff games, including a season-best 120 yards against Hampton ... Ripped off a career-long 56-yard run against Delaware in the quarterfinals ... Amassed 126 all-purpose yards against the Blue Hens in the playoffs, including 82 rushing yards, 22 receiving yards and 22 kickoff return yards ... Logged 18 carries for 93 yards and a touchdown at Towson ... Scored a rushing touchdown in four consecutive games (VMI, Northeastern, Liberty, Rhode Island) ... Churned out 45 yards on 11 carries, including a touchdown, and caught two passes for 31 yards, including a season-long 25-yarder, in the win over Northeastern ... Recorded a season-high 36 receiving yards on four catches in the win at James Madison ... Played a total of 816 offensive snaps, second only to Jon Smith's 957 amongst tailbacks ... 2003: Kent State's second-leading rusher ... Ran for 409 yards on 113 carries for the Golden Flashes ... Averaged 34.1 rushing yards per game ... Proved to be a solid receiver out of the backfield, catching seven balls for 54 yards ... 2002: Scout team at Kent State ... Named the program's Outstanding Offensive Scout ... DeMatha Catholic High School: Four-year letterwinner at running back and linebacker for coach Bill McGregor ... Rushed for more than 3,500 yards and 43 touchdowns in his career ... 1,529 rushing yards and 27 touchdowns as a senior ... Two-time all-league selection ... First team all-metro and all-county as a senior ... Helped lead DeMatha to two consecutive conference titles and a 22-game winning streak spanning two seasons ... Also lettered four years in basketball as a guard ... Personal: Son of Lester and Yvonne Brooks ... Enjoys playing basketball, bowling, going to movies and listening to music ... Majoring in kinesiology ... Born February 7, 1984 in Landover, MD.
