2006 SPRING PREVIEW

As head coach Jimmye Laycock prepares to steer his 27th edition of the Tribe football program into the 2006 season, he will simultaneously have the luxury of experience, with 13 starters returning, and the task of rebuilding the offensive line and defensive secondary on his plate this spring.

Veterans abound at the offensive skill positions, as the team returns all 4,158 yards of total offense and 38 of the 41 touchdowns the unit scored a season ago. Leading the way will be a trio of returning senior all-conference performers in tailback Elijah Brooks (944 yards and nine TDs on 207 rushing attempts), tight end Matt Trinkle (21 receptions for 148 yards and one TD) and offensive lineman Cody Morris (two-year starter and two-time all-conference performer).

Brooks, a steady and powerful runner, was complimented in the backfield by slashing sophomore DeBrian Holmes (304 yards and one TD on 56 attempts). While the two run with contrasting styles, each are equally adept at catching passes out of the backfield as they combined to bring in 35 passes for 289 yards and three TDs. Hard-nosed junior Tony Viola (30 attempts for 183 yards) and senior Delmus Coley will give the team depth at the position.

Trinkle, a four-year contributor, is the most game tested returning starter on the offense. His experience, along with his large frame (6-5, 260) and outstanding hands will position him as one of the conference's top tight ends, while Trinkle's maturity will be a necessary commodity, as the Tribe is otherwise very short on experience at tight end with no other player on the roster having seen significant game action at the position.

Morris will be leading a young, but promising, group along the offensive front. The staff is going to experiment with putting Morris' stout 6-4, 285-pound frame at the center position this spring, maximizing his knowledge of the offense. The Tribe also returns both tackles from last season in juniors Brent Cochran (6-5, 300) and Brad Stewart (6-3, 300), and the pair will be counted on to provide stability until the guard position solidifies.

Experience is slightly less of an issue at wide receiver, where the Green and Gold return two of the top three pass catchers from last season in junior Joe Nicholas (52 grabs for 731 yards and five TDs) and sophomore Elliott Mack (21 catches for 371 yards and four TDs). Nicholas, who established the school's freshman record for catches (66) and yards (799) in 2004, will enter the fall as one of the league's most proven pass catchers and a serious contender for postseason honors. Mack will be looking to continue to build on solid debut in 2005 that saw him show flashes of big play ability. One of the program's focuses for the spring will be to take better advantage of his speed on the perimeter.

No position will feature better competition than the quarterback spot, where incumbent starter Jake Phillips (123 completions in 192 attempts for 1,564 yards and 12 TDs) and strong-armed junior Mike Potts (78 completions in 127 attempts for 842 yards and seven TDs) give the Tribe two capable signal callers. Phillips, who enters the spring at the top of the depth chart, has added more than 15 pounds of muscle in the off-season, while Potts has been equally dedicated on improving his

The good news on the defense starts at the linebacker position that is absolutely loaded with talent. The position returns two of the top three tacklers from a season ago in sophomore Josh Rutter (109 TT) and senior Ryan Nickell (78 TT), while junior TJ O'Neill (48 TT) saw significant starting action in the middle of the Tribe defense. All three enter the year atop the depth chart at their respective positions and each has the athletic ability to challenge for postseason honors. Add in 2004 all-conference performer, senior Chris Ndubueze, who missed the entire 2005 campaign for personal reasons, to the mix and you have some serious depth.

But, it doesn't stop there, as an additional three athletic, physical performers are also pushing seriously for playing time in senior Trevor McLaurin, sophomore Michael Pigram and red-shirt freshman Raphael Bynum. The topping comes with the eventual return of the unit's spiritual leader, returning team co-captain Travis McLaurin, who missed all of 2005 with a knee injury. McLaurin will have to sit out the spring drills as well, but he is expected to make a complete recovery for the fall. All of this talent and depth is going to be counted on to form the cornerstone of what otherwise will be a fairly inexperienced Tribe defensive unit.

Nowhere did graduation leave a bigger mark than in the defensive secondary, where a combined 88 games of starting experience matriculated from the program in safeties James Miller (30 career starts) and Jon Shaw (28 career starts) and cornerback Stephen Cason (30 career starts). The cornerback position will feature a trio of athletes who have seen significant game action in seniors Richard Riley (16 TT, 3 PBUs and one INT in '05) and Alan Wheeling (27 TT) and sophomore Derrick Cox (19 TT, one INT and one PBU). Riley and Wheeling have shared the starting duties opposite Cason for each of the past two seasons, while Cox gradually asserted himself as the 2005 season wore on and returns as one of the team's most gifted athletes. With Shaw and Miller making the majority of starts at safety over each of the past two seasons, no current player on the Tribe roster boasts much experience. But, heady senior Zach Stout has been a key reserve for the past two seasons and has gained a strong knowledge of the Tribe's system. Sophomore Kevin Allen also served as a key reserve for most of 2005 and has the size and athleticism to be an impact player this season.

Linebacker Josh Rutter led W&M with 109 total tackles in 2005.

The graduation of 6-8 all-conference defensive end Adam O'Connor and 6-3, 300-pound defensive tackle Larry Pendleton literally leaves large shoes to fill on the defensive front. The return of defensive end Josh Wright (44 TT, 5.0 TFL) for what will be his third seasons as a starter, eases the losses some, as does the return of solid senior defensive tackle Brian Williamson (6-3, 280 pounds). The pair will form the nucleus of a defensive front that will be supplemented by mammoth senior tackle Brian Neely (6-4, 298) and the promising redshirt freshman trio of ends Sean Lissemore and Adrian Tracy and tackle Cortenous Herbert.

In all, this interesting blend of experience and talent positions this spring to be one of the most intense in recent years.

Jake Phillips passed for 1,564 yards and 12 TDs and rushed for eight scores as a redshirt freshman in 2005.

Senior Cody Morris is a two-time all-conference selection returning to anchor the Tribe's offensive line. After playing his first three seasons at guard, Morris is transitioning to center during spring practice.

Senior defensive tackle Brian Williamson is one of the defense's most experienced returners and will be key contributor along the front line.

Active Coaches in Bold

When Jimmye Laycock returned to coach his alma mater prior to the 1980 season, he inherited a program that had won six or more games in a season just four times in the previous 25 years. Few could have predicted that the College would produce more than three times that amount of seven-win seasons over the next quarter century.

As the architect of what is easily the most extended run of success in William and Mary's 113-year football history, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success and has steadily built his program into a point of pride for the campus, alumni and community.

While no one season can define a career that spans more than two and a half decades, Laycock's 25th year at the top of the Tribe program accentuated what is at the heart of his basic principles for success; character, discipline and attention to details will lead to success. And, the 2004 team experienced levels of success never before reached at the College.

William and Mary set a school record for wins (11), won the Atlantic 10 Football Conference's automatic NCAA bid, hosted a NCAA semifinal game before a standing room only crowd at Zable in front of a national television audience and finished the year with a school record No. 3 final national ranking. Along the way, a bevy of school single-season records fell; total points (486), total yards (6,044), home wins (seven), to name just a few.

But, none of these achievements spoke more succinctly to Laycock's approach than the program's 100% official NCAA graduation-rate report for all student-athletes receiving athletics aid. This showed W&M graduated all of its football players that entered the program as freshman during 1997-98 school year. The Tribe not only carried the highest graduation rate in the conference, but also was far and away the top figure of any team ranked in the final national top 25. Only fourth-ranked Furman (81%) was within 20 percentage points of the College. In fact, William and Mary is one of only four teams in the entire I-AA top 25 to have a graduation rate of 70%, or better.

When looking at the I-AA football world, Tribe's stellar 161-70-2 (.695) record against fellow I-AA foes during Laycock's career also confirms the success of his formula. The College also boasts a 66-33 mark in league play and has had 121 student-athletes named to all-conference honors since 1993.

Laycock is the Tribe's winningest coach, boasting a career 175-119-2 (.595) record. Since Laycock's first season in 1980, the College has had 18 winning ledgers in the last 22 years and has played in postseason games in nine of the last 19 seasons.

The 2001 campaign stood as a testament to Laycock's program's stability, as the team rebound from a nine-year low 5-6 record in 2000 to post an 8-4 mark, claiming a share of the Atlantic 10 Crown and earning a spot in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

The 1996 campaign is another prime example of how Laycock has perpetuated a winning tradition within W&M's rigorous classroom standards, as he led a youth-laden squad to a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA playoffs, a 10-3 overall record (7-1 in league play), the Tribe's first Yankee Conference Championship and a fifth-place national ranking.

One trademark of a Laycock-coached team is a prolific and intricate offensive attack. The Tribe offense averaged better than 420 yards and 26 points over the 115 games it played in the 1990s.

Prior to the 2004 campaign, the 1990 season stood as the benchmark for the Tribe program. That season, Laycock was honored by his peers as Coach of the Year in Region II and the state of Virginia for guiding the Tribe to 10 wins and an appearance in the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

That 1990 squad, ranked No. 7 in the final NCAA poll, refashioned many pages in the school record book. W&M led the country in total offense by averaging almost 500 yards per game and claimed the Lambert Cup for I-AA supremacy in the East. Even the Virginia General Assembly passed a resolution commending Laycock accomplishments. The Tribe's 1996 squad led the conference in both total offense and defense on its way to earning its own Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year honors.

Laycock has made the home turf in Zable Stadium into unfriendly territory for opponents as the Tribe has won 78% of its games (90-25-1) there in the last 22 years. Counting last season, W&M has turned in seven undefeated regular season home campaigns in the last 16 years.

Laycock has tutored 30 players to 75 All-America honors from the William and Mary ranks and has coached six Academic All-Americans. Quarterback Lang Campbell is the most decorated of all, as the 2004 season saw him earn the prestigious Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive player in the I-AA ranks, consensus first team All-American honors, as well as the A10's Offensive Player of the Year and Academic Player of the Year.

The record-setting tandem of quarterback Campbell and wide out Dominique Thompson each signed free agent contracts, with the Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Rams, respectively, in the spring of 2005, joining free safety Darren Sharper (Minnesota Vikings), a second round draft pick of the Green Bay in 1997, defensive back Billy Parker (Miami Dolphins) and Mike Leach (Denver Broncos) as representatives of the Green and Gold in the NFL ranks. Michael Clemons (Class of 1987) had been one of the CFL's most explosive players since joining the Toronto Argonauts in 1989, a team he now coaches.

Laycock is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at the College. They have three children: Michael (15), Mary Louise (14) and James (12). Laycock's 25-year-old daughter, Melanie, is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is a teacher in Atlanta, Georgia.

Q&A WITH COACH LAYCOCK

Prior to the start of spring practice, head coach Jimmye Laycock sat down and answered questions about the upcoming spring season and what to look for from the 2006 Tribe.

Q: The player's intensity during the off-season workouts has been at a very high level. Have you noticed any of that enthusiasm and effort carrying over into the spring drills?

A: The off-season workouts went very well. We were very consistent in the way we went about the program, and that has carried over into the beginning of spring practice. The work ethic has been at a consistent level, and we are pleased with it.

Q: As far as position battles go, one of the most obvious openings is along the offensive line. The team returns a pair of tackles, in juniors Brad Stewart and Brent Cochran, who saw extending starting action in 2005. Also back is two-time all-conference guard Cody Morris, who is working on a move to center. How do you see Cody's transition going? Whom do you see competing for playing time at guard?

A: Cody Morris is an outstanding returning offensive lineman. We are working him at center right now, though we haven't established our plans for sure, whether he will be a center or guard. We want him to be able to play either position. [Junior] Justin Oliver, [redshirt freshman] C.J. Muse, and [sophomore] Luke Hiteshew are all looking to contribute at guard and they are all rotating in there and working very well. Brad Stewart and Brent Cochran are working at tackle and doing fine, and we are continuing to build depth at that position. As is the case for any spring, we are looking to develop cohesiveness among the entire offensive line.

Q: The secondary is another area the team will have large shoes to fill, as both starting safeties from last season have graduated, along with multiple-time all-conference cornerback Stephen Cason. Who is most likely to work into the rotations at each position?

A: [Senior Richard] Riley, [sophomore Derrick] Cox, and senior [Alan] Wheeling all have playing experience and are rotating in at the cornerback position. There are some other promising younger players that also may work in there as well. The safety position is pretty open. Zach Stout is a fifth-year senior who has seen some playing time, while [junior Brandon] Burrow, [sophomore] Kevin Allen and a few freshman are in there getting time as well. We will see how things shake out this spring. We hope there are battles for these positions. But, I am more interested in seeing the players compete hard to improve themselves than I am in them competing with each other.

Joe Nicholas led the Tribe in receptions (52), receiving yards (731) and touchdown catches (5) in 2005.

Q: Along the defensive line, the team will have to replace all-conference defensive end Adam O'Connor and steady defensive tackle Larry Pendleton. While seniors Josh Wright, Brian Williamson and Brian Neely bring experience to the line, there is a talented group of redshirt freshman that have the potential to make an impact at the position. Can you comment briefly on these players, and how they have developed to this point?

A: It is early, but some of the redshirt freshmen we are looking at up front are [ends] Adrian Tracy and Sean Lissemore and [tackle] Cortenous Herbert. We have also moved [converted junior linebacker] William Turner to end and are giving him a good look since he brings a lot of effort and intensity to the field. But the defensive line is a concern. We are going to look for an improvement from the players we are bringing back, they need to show in there and step up to replace the talent we lost.

We're not in a position right now to say who will be a starter and who's not.

Q: Last year during the spring practices, the team was trying to replace a variety of key offensive skill players, most notably the quarterback position. This spring sees all but two skill position players (WR Josh Lustig and TE Adam Bratton) return. With this much experience returning, does this allow you to structure your spring any differently, in terms of expanding the playbook, etc ?

A: We're not working on expanding our offensive playbook right now, though we might later in the spring. Right now, we just want to get our base offense down and installed and work on its execution.

Matt Trinkle is the Tribe's only returning tight end with playing experience. Trinkle pulled in 21 grabs for 148 yards and a touchdown last fall.

Q&A WITH COACH LAYCOCK

Q: With the top three players from last season's final depth chart returning, it would appear that running back should be one of the team's deeper areas. How does the position set up for 2006?

A: [Senior returning all-conference tailback] Elijah Brooks and [sophomore] DeBrian Holmes are both coming off very good years and I think both have the qualities to be outstanding running backs and bring different dimensions to the offense. We hope to be able to utilize both of them and take advantage of our depth at that position with [junior] Tony Viola and [senior] Delmus Coley as well.

Q: Coming into spring, junior two-year starter Joe Nicholas, senior John Taylor and speedy sophomore Elliott Mack are the three most experienced receivers on the roster. Can you point out briefly, what some of the strengths of each are and touch on some of the younger players who will be looking to add depth to the position?

A: Joe Nicholas has been a starter here the last two seasons and we need him to step up and use his experience to be able to play all the receiver positions. John Taylor is a good, solid player who knows our system, while Elliot Mack has shown the ability to be a big play threat down the sidelines with his speed. We are looking for more ways to take advantage of his abilities. D.J. McAulay has shown some good potential and he is also capable of giving us speed and big play ability. One thing I felt we really lacked last year was big plays coming from the receiving corps. We are looking to expand on the solid play of Nicholas and Taylor and utilize the abilities of the others.

In addition, we have a quality player in [returning senior all-conference performer] tight end Matt Trinkle returning. Matt has proven to be an outstanding football player and I'm looking for him to have a terrific year for us this season and provide leadership to a very young group of tight ends.

Q: Sophomore Jake Phillips ended the season as the starting quarterback, while junior Mike Potts made five starts to begin the year. Each had highlights, while both also experienced some rough times as well. Both are capable of leading the squad, how are you going to handle the position this spring?

A: We are working with both Jake Phillips and Mike Potts and looking for both to get better. Both are rotating in with the first team and getting a lot of reps. We also want to make sure to develop depth at the position with [senior] Christian Taylor also competing and [redshirt freshman] R.J. Archer coming along behind him. Right now, Mike and Jake have both shown they can play, what we are concentrating on now with them is to develop a better understanding of our offense and have more consistency.

Ryan Nickell leads a veteran corps of linebackers in 2006. Nickell recorded 78 total tackles last fall and returned an interception 72 yards for a TD.

Q: Without a doubt, the linebacker position looks to be the deepest position on the field, as no less than four players are returning with significant starting experience. What is your outlook at the position?

A: We have some outstanding quality depth at linebacker right now. There are very good players who are competing for playing time. [Senior two-year starter] Ryan Nickell, and [sophomore] Josh Rutter, and [junior] T.J. O'Neill are obviously all in mix, as they return after taking the majority of the snaps last season. [Senior] Travis McLaurin has to sit out this spring, but he will hopefully be back and fully recovered from an off-season knee operation for the fall. We also return a three-year contributor, [senior] Chris Ndubueze, who is back after missing all of last season [personal reasons] and trying to get himself a spot back in the lineup. We also have two talented young guys in [redshirt freshman] Raphael Bynum and [sophomore] Michael Pigram who are going to compete for playing time, along with [senior] Trevor McLaurin. So we have good competition at linebacker and it looks like a good strong position, probably our deepest on the defense. We are going to look to this position to step up and help take care of the lack of depth and lack of experience we have on the line and in the secondary.

Josh Wright is one of only two returning defensive linemen with starting experience after recording 44 total tackles, including 5.0 for loss in 2005.

2005 SEASON REVIEW

After an amazing 2004 season, which saw W&M advance to the national semifinals and finish with a No. 3 final national ranking, expectations and hopes for a return trip to the playoffs were high entering the fall of 2005. And after a 5-2 start, which included a 42-10 pasting of top-ranked New Hampshire at Zable Stadium, a postseason berth seemed all but secured. But, the Tribe's playoff aspirations and quest for the 16th winning season in the last 18 years were dashed by a season-ending, four-game losing streak that featured two heart-breaking one-point losses at home.

W&M's four-game slide was the longest since 2003, and at 5-6, the Tribe posted its first sub-.500 season since going 5-6 in 2000. With a final 3-5 mark in A10 play, the 2005 campaign also marked W&M's first sub-.500 conference season since the College joined the A10 in 1993.

Despite the unpleasant ending, the 2005 season provided both some memorable and historic moments. Zable Stadium, the Tribe's venerable home since 1935, saw a new addition with the construction of permanent lights for the playing field and nearby practice field. The state-of-the-art lighting system debuted for the Tribe's Nov. 5th contest against state-rival James Madison, marking the first regular season night game held at Zable Stadium. In a rematch of the 2004 NCAA Semifinal played under temporary lighting at Zable a season earlier, the Dukies and Tribe once again battled in front of a sellout crowd with JMU pulling out a 30-29 victory on a 44-yard field goal with three seconds remaining.

Two of the more memorable moments came in back-to-back weeks, as W&M won its first game over a No. 1 nationally ranked team, defeating New Hampshire on Oct. 1. In front of a rain-soaked crowd, Stephen Cason set the tone by returning the opening kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown and Elijah Brooks scored four touchdowns on the afternoon to fuel the rout. A week later at Northeastern, redshirt freshman quarterback Jake Phillips came off the bench in the second half and rallied the Tribe from a 31-10 fourth-quarter deficit to force overtime, and W&M eventually prevailed on Phillips' 8-yard scoring run in the second extra session.

The 2005 season also brought to a close the record-breaking career of place-kicker Greg Kuehn, who will leave the College as one of the program's most decorated athletes. An All-American and former conference special teams player of the year, Kuehn shattered the Atlantic 10 record for career field goals and also set the school standard with 59 field goals, a mark that ranks eighth in NCAA I-AA history. Kuehn also stands as the College's career scoring leader at 343 points, which also ranks third in NCAA history for kickers. Additionally, Kuehn became the first A10 kicker to earn all-conference honors in each of his four seasons.

The 2005 campaign began on the first day of September in Huntington, W.Va., as the Tribe took on Division I-A Marshall. The Thundering Herd struck first on a short field goal, but the Tribe answered quickly with a 47-yard field goal by Kuehn. Then, after trailing 23-10 at the half, Mike Potts threw touchdown passes to Brooks and Tony Viola in the third quarter, and W&M had Marshall on the ropes leading 24-23, before eventually falling 36-24.

Again on the road the following week, W&M traveled to historic Lexington, Va., to battle VMI, and behind Phillips, the Tribe cruised to a 41-7 victory and its 20th consecutive win over the Keydets. Phillips was named the A10 Rookie of the Week after throwing for 202 yards and a touchdown on 17-for-21 passing and rushing for another score. Cason was named the league's defensive player of the week after returning an interception 57 yards for a touchdown.

After a tough loss at Rhode Island, W&M finally made its home debut on Sept. 24 against another state-rival, Liberty, and much to the delight of the Zable faithful, the Tribe dominated the Flames 56-0. W&M piled up a season-high 635 yards of total offense and Brooks scored four times, while the defense surrendered only 145 total yards and posted its first shutout since 2001.

Riding the momentum of the blowout victory, W&M welcomed top-ranked New Hampshire to Williamsburg following a bye week. Brooks was the offensive star once again, rushing for 135 yards and four touchdowns to earn his second A10 Offensive Player of the Week citation in as many games. The Tribe defense forced four turnovers and held the nation's top offense scoreless in the second half.

A week later, W&M needed a spark, and a little magic, on the road at Northeastern, as the Tribe faced a 31-10 deficit heading into the fourth quarter. Phillips, who entered the contest in the third, provided the spark W&M needed, completing 16-of-18 attempts for 231 yards and three touchdowns in little over a quarter and a half to force overtime. Phillips hooked up with Joe Nicholas on a 30-yard scoring pass that converted a fourth-and-14 and went on to throw a 22-yard score to Elliott Mack and a 27-yard touchdown to Josh Lustig that tied the score at 31-31 with less than two minutes remaining in regulation. Phillips, who also rushed nine times for 32 yards and the game-winner in double-OT, was named the A10 Offensive Player of the Week and the I-AA National Player of the Week by the College Sports Report after the performance.

W&M continued to roll the following week, handling Towson in front of a Homecoming crowd at Zable to the tune of 44-13. The Tribe reeled off 28 unanswered points after the break, while the defense took control in the second half, allowing 95 total yards, including just nine yards rushing, while recording two turnovers and four sacks in the final 30 minutes. One of the turnovers was a Ryan Nickell interception, which the junior linebacker returned 72 yards for a touchdown that blew the game wide open. Phillips completed 16-of-21 attempts for 202 yards and a touchdown and added two rushing scores, while DeBrian Holmes gained a career-high 76 yards rushing on 13 attempts to pace the W&M offense, which eclipsed the 40-point mark in a victory for the fourth consecutive game.

But, a week later, W&M's four-game win streak came to an abrupt end with a 35-21 loss at Villanova. The Wildcats built a 28-0 third-quarter lead and survived two Tribe defensive touchdowns, interception returns by Trevor McLaurin and James Miller, before eventually sealing the victory with an interception return for a touchdown of their own with less than a minute remaining.

JMU's Paul Wantuck made it two-straight losses with his 44-yard field goal on Nov. 5, and the next week Delaware handed the Tribe another devastating one-point loss, 22-21, at Zable Stadium. Phillips passed for a career-high 289 yards and added two rushing scores, but the Blue Hens used a safety and late touchdown pass to escape with the narrow victory. W&M's slide reached four games in the season finale, when the Tribe ran into the buzz saw that was Richmond, the Co-Atlantic 10 Champions and NCAA Quarterfinal participants.

Eight members of the team received All-Atlantic 10 status with Brooks, Matt Trinkle, Adam Bratton, Patrick Mulloy, and Kuehn all named to the A10 Second Team Offense. Cason was awarded Second Team Defense, while Cody Morris and Adam O'Conner were named Third Team Offense and Third Team Defense, respectively. Several members of the team were also named to the A10 Academic All-Conference Team, including Trinkle, Brian Neely, Nickell, and Jon Shaw.

2005 GAME-BY-GAME

MU 36, #9 W&M 24

HUNTINGTON, WV (9/1/05) -- Tribe junior tailback Elijah Brooks rushed for a career-high 149 yards, but Marshall used a game-breaking 70-yard fumble return for a touchdown late in the third quarter to rally for a 36-24 victory over W&M at Edwards Stadium.

The Tribe led 24-23 after a pair of touchdown tosses from sophomore quarterback Mike Potts, who made his first-career start, in the third period and was on the move again deep in MU territory, when Herd linebacker Matt Coach picked up a Potts fumble and raced 70 yards for a touchdown.

After W&M's next drive stalled, the Herd put it away with an 11-play, 84-yard drive capped by Bernie Morris' third touchdown pass of the contest, a 12-yard hook-up with Hiram Moore.

Brooks gained 149 yards on 28 carries, surpassing his previous career best of 120 set last season against Hampton and hauled in a 19-yard scoring reception from Potts that pulled W&M within 23-17 at the 10:29 mark of the third.

After junior linebacker Ryan Nickell recovered a fumble at the Herd 30-yard line, forced by senior defensive end Jonas Watson, Potts connected with redshirt freshman Tony Viola for an 18-yard touchdown pass, the first of Viola's career, to give W&M its first and only lead of the game.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Josh Rutter, in his first career start, paced the defense with 16 total tackles, while classmate Kevin Allen recorded the first interception of his career in the first half.

Senior Greg Kuehn nailed a 47-yard field goal in the first to knot the game at 3-3, and Matt Otey recovered a fumble in the end zone in the second that evened the game at 10-10.

#11 W&M 41, VMI 7

LEXINGTON, VA (9/10/05) -- Redshirt freshman quarterback Jake Phillips threw for 202 yards and a touchdown and 11th-ranked William and Mary piled up 469 yards of total offense to down VMI, 41-7, in the 83rd all-time meeting between the state schools.

In his first-career start, Phillips completed 17 of 21 pass attempts and hit redshirt freshman tailback DeBrian Holmes for a 19-yard catch and run score in the fourth quarter.

On the mark from the start, Phillips connected on all three of his throws for 33 yards on the Tribe's opening series, leading W&M on an 87-yard march that was capped by Phillips' 1-yard sneak on fourth-and-goal from the 1.

Senior corner Stephen Cason pushed the lead to 17-0 in the second with a 57-yard interception return for a touchdown, his second pick of the contest.

After VMI trimmed the advantage to 17-7, senior place-kicker Greg Kuehn nailed a 39-yard field goal as time expired in the first half to give the Tribe a 20-7 advantage at the break. It was Kuehn's second field goal of the game, bringing his career total to 49, which at the time ranked second on both the W&M and Atlantic 10 career list.

Junior running back Elijah Brooks led the Tribe ground game for the second-straight week with 94 yards on 18 carries, including a third-quarter 6-yard touchdown scamper that increased the lead to 27-7. Classmate Trevor McLaurin completed the Tribe's scoring with a 1-yard touchdown run with 2:12 remaining.

Cason finished with seven total tackles, including five solos. Redshirt freshman linebacker Josh Rutter paced the defense for the second time in as many weeks with nine total tackles, and senior Jonas Watson recorded 1.5 sacks.

URI 48, #7 W&M 29

KINGSTON, RI (9/17/05) -- Rhode Island quarterback Jayson Davis rushed for three touchdowns and passed for two more to lead the Rams to a 48-29 upset of seventh-ranked William and Mary at Meade Stadium.

Davis ran for scores of 13, 10 and 2 yards, and completed 7-of-15 pass attempts for 197 yards, including touchdown passes of 43 and 41 yards to Keith Brown and Kyle Edwards, respectively, as URI piled up 578 yards of total offense.

W&M senior place-kicker Greg Kuehn became the College's all-time leading scorer with 11 points on the afternoon, kicking field goals of 50, 35 and 31 yards and adding two extra points. Kuehn surpassed Steve Christie's ('90) record of 278 career points and now holds the mark with 289. Kuehn also broke the Atlantic 10 career field goals record, which previously stood at 50, as he brought his career total to 52.

Junior running back Elijah Brooks rushed for 110 yards on 18 carries, his second 100-yard rushing game of the season. Brooks became the first Tribe back to have two 100-yard games since Delmus Coley in 2003. He scored on a 2-yard run in the first to open the game's scoring.

Sophomore quarterback Mike Potts completed 20-of-29 attempts for 208 yards and a touchdown, a 49-yard scoring play to sophomore Joe Nicholas that gave W&M a 14-0 lead in the first quarter.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Jake Phillips saw time in the second half and completed 6-of-8 attempts for 84 yards, including a 31-yard scoring bomb to classmate Elliott Mack. It was Mack's first-career touchdown reception.

Senior Jon Shaw had a pair of interceptions.

2005 GAME-BY-GAME

#16 W&M 56, LU 0

WILLIAMSBURG (9/24/05) -- W&M found the end zone on eight of its 10 possessions and piled up 635 yards of total offense, to Liberty's 145, and shut out the Flames 56-0 at Zable Stadium.

The Tribe held Liberty to a net of minus-6 yards rushing and posted its first shutout since blanking VMI, 34-0, in 2001.

Junior Elijah Brooks paced the W&M ground attack, which rang up 335 rushing yards, with 102 yards on 22 carries, his third 100-yard game of the season. Brooks scored three rushing touchdowns, all on 1-yard runs, and added another receiving score to become the first Tribe player to score four touchdowns since Dominique Thompson at Delaware in 2004.

In his third career start, sophomore quarterback Mike Potts went for 226 yards and two touchdowns on 19-for-25 passing. Redshirt freshman Jake Phillips spelled Potts in the second half and completed 3-of-3 attempts for 74 yards, including a 34-yard touchdown toss to Elliott Mack. Phillips also ran three times for 16 yards and a score.

Junior quarterback Christian Taylor took over for Phillips in the fourth quarter and scored on a 4-yard run, his first-career touchdown.

Sophomore Joe Nicholas paced the receiving corps with 110 yards on eight catches, his second 100-yard game in three outings. Brooks finished with three catches for 43 yards, while true freshman D.J. McAulay pulled in two balls for 49 yards.

For the fourth consecutive game, redshirt freshman linebacker Josh Rutter led the defense in tackles, recording seven total stops. Junior Ryan Nickell made five total tackles, including 2.0 TFL, and added an interception. Senior defensive end Jonas Watson registered 1.5 sacks and five total stops, while redshirt freshman free safety Kevin Allen picked off his second pass of the season.

#17 W&M 42, #1 UNH 10

WILLIAMSBURG (10/8/05) -- Senior Stephen Cason returned the game's opening kickoff 92 yards for a touchdown, and W&M never looked back in upsetting top-ranked New Hampshire, 42-10, at Zable Stadium.

Junior tailback Elijah Brooks churned out 135 yards and four touchdowns on a career-high 32 carries, and the Tribe held UNH's high-scoring offensive attack scoreless in the second half to pick up W&M's first win over a No. 1-ranked team.

Brooks scored on a 7-yard run in the first quarter, and sophomore quarterback Mike Potts found senior Josh Lustig for a 9-yard touchdown pass on the first play of the second quarter to give W&M a 21-0 lead.

UNH responded with a quick five-play, 79-yard drive that resulted in a 5-yard touchdown run by John McCoy, but Brooks answered with a 1-yard scoring run with just over two minutes remaining in the half. Wildcats' kicker Connor McCormack hit a 33-yard field goal as time expired in the opening half to cut the deficit to 28-10, but that was as close as UNH would get.

Brooks scored on a 15-yard scamper, that was set up by junior Leonard Muldrow's punt block, in the third quarter and plowed into the end zone from four yards out with 4:26 remaining to set the final margin.

W&M caused four turnovers in the game, including two interceptions, one each by Cason and sophomore T.J. O'Neill, and three times stopped UNH on fourth down attempts.

Cason paced the defense with nine total tackles, and the pick was his third of the season. O'Neill finished with eight total stops, including seven solo stops to go along with his first-career interception. Senior Jon Shaw and redshirt freshman Josh Rutter each recovered a fumble.

#11 W&M 44, NU 41 (2 OT)

BROOKLINE, MA (10/15/05) -- Redshirt freshman quarterback Jake Phillips' 8-yard touchdown run in the second overtime gave the 11th-ranked Tribe a thrilling, 44-41, victory over Northeastern at Parsons Field.

Phillips entered the game in the third quarter with the Tribe trailing 31-10 and led a furious fourth-quarter comeback, throwing for 231 yards and three touchdowns on 16-for-18 passing in regulation to force overtime.

In overtime, Phillips threw a 20-yard touchdown pass to sophomore Joe Nicholas in the first extra period and ran in the game-winning score from eight yards out in the second.

Phillips finished the game 18-for-20 through the air for 256 yards and four touchdowns, both career-highs, and added 32 yards rushing on nine attempts.

Nicholas hauled in seven receptions for 105 yards, including two of Phillips' touchdown passes, and senior Josh Lustig pulled in six balls for a W&M season-high 126 yards, including the game-tying 27-yard touchdown reception with 1:43 remaining.

Senior Jon Shaw paced a Tribe defense, with 11 total tackles, that did not allow a first down and forced four Northeastern punts in the fourth quarter, aiding the dramatic rally. Senior Jonas Watson added a career-high 10 total stops, including seven solos and three tackles for loss. Redshirt freshman Josh Rutter finished with 10 stops to give W&M three in double-digit stops.

Matt Otey caught a 3-yard touchdown pass from Mike Potts in the first for the Tribe's first score.

#12 W&M 44, TU 13

WILLIAMSBURG (10/22/05) -- W&M reeled off 28 unanswered points and held Towson's high-scoring offense scoreless in the second half to pull away for a 44-13 victory at Zable Stadium.

The Tribe forced two second-half turnovers, including junior linebacker Ryan Nickell's 72-yard interception return for a touchdown, and recorded four sacks in the final 30 minutes in holding the Tigers to 95 total yards after intermission.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Jake Phillips guided a nearly flawless offensive performance, throwing for 202 yards and a touchdown on 16-for-21 passing, as the Tribe scored on eight of its 10 possessions. Phillips added a pair of rushing scores and finished with 39 yards on 10 attempts.

Senior place-kicker Greg Kuehn connected on three field goal attempts in the first half (44, 48, 39), bringing his career total to 56, which at the time was one shy of the W&M career record. With 14 points on the day, Kuehn extended his school scoring record to 325 career points.

Redshirt freshman tailback DeBrian Holmes gained a career-high 76 yards rushing on 13 carries, as W&M turned out 210 yards on the ground. Sophomore Tony Viola added 24 yards on five totes and scored on a 1-yard run in the third quarter, the first rushing touchdown of his career.

Sophomore Joe Nicholas paced the receiving corps with 83 yards on six catches, including a 13-yard scoring reception from Phillips in the first quarter. Redshirt freshman Elliott Mack had three grabs for 65 yards.

Josh Rutter and Jon Shaw tied for the team with lead with seven tackles each.

VU 35, #9 W&M 21

VILLANOVA, PA (10/29/05) -- Villanova built a 28-0 lead and withstood two Tribe interception returns for touchdowns to post a 35-21 upset win over W&M at Villanova Stadium.

Wildcats' quarterback Frank Jankowski threw for 325 yards and three touchdowns, and tailback Moe Gibson rushed for a career-high 176 yards and a touchdown as Villanova piled up 540 yards of total offense, to the Tribe's 232, to halt W&M's four-game winning streak.

Junior linebacker Trevor McLaurin returned an interception 14 yards for a touchdown to cut the Tribe's deficit to 21-7 in the third quarter, his first career pick and return for a score.

Redshirt freshman Jake Phillips hooked up with senior Josh Lustig on a 37-yard scoring pass to make it 28-14 midway through the fourth, before senior James Miller stepped in front of a Jankowski pass and raced 80 yards for a touchdown with 2:05 remaining to pull W&M within a score.

After a failed on-side kick attempt, W&M was able to force a Villanova punt, and the Tribe regained possession at its own 3-yard line with 1:32 left, but Phillips' second pass on the drive was intercepted and returned 15 yards for a touchdown by Rodney Badger to seal the Wildcat win.

Miller's and McLaurin's touchdowns gave W&M two non-offensive touchdowns in a game for the first time since the 2003 season finale at Richmond, when the Tribe had a defensive and special teams score. It was Miller's second-career interception return for a touchdown with the first coming in the same 2003 victory at Richmond.

Lustig finished with five grabs for 92 yards, and junior tailback Elijah Brooks added 78 yards rushing on 14 attempts.

Miller led the team with 16 total tackles, and junior linebacker Ryan Nickell added 15 stops.

JMU 30, #16 W&M 29

WILLIAMSBURG (11/5/05) -- James Madison's Paul Wantuck kicked a 44-yard field goal with three seconds remaining to give the Dukes a 30-29 victory over 16th-ranked William and Mary at sold out Zable Stadium.

In the first regular season night game in the 70-year history of Zable Stadium, JMU won its third consecutive game on the Tribe's home field and snapped W&M's 10-game, regular season home winning streak.

The Dukes gained possession with 1:43 remaining after a W&M punt, and JMU quarterback Justin Rascati moved JMU 53 yards on nine plays to set up Wantuck's game-winning kick.

W&M had taken a 29-21 lead with 13:31 remaining in the game on redshirt freshman Jake Phillips' 17-yard touchdown pass to sophomore Joe Nicholas, but the Dukes trimmed the lead to 29-27 on Rascati's 14-yard run with 4:39 on the clock.

Phillips threw for 202 yards and a touchdown on 15-for-28 passing and added 57 yards rushing and a touchdown on 15 attempts.

Senior place-kicker Greg Kuehn booted three field goals (30, 26, 33) to break the W&M career record for field goals, which now stands at 59. Kuehn surpassed Steve Christie's (1986-89) previous standard of 57.

Redshirt freshman tailback DeBrian Holmes scored on a 14-yard run in the second quarter, his first-career rushing touchdown.

Seniors James Miller and Stephen Cason, and redshirt freshman Derek Cox each had an interception for the Tribe, which recorded three picks in a game for the second time this season. Miller paced the defense with 11 total tackles, and redshirt freshman linebacker Josh Rutter added 10.

2005 GAME-BY-GAME

UD 22, #24 W&M 21

WILLIAMSBURG (11/12/05) -- Delaware quarterback Sonny Riccio threw a 6-yard touchdown pass to Aaron Love with 4:17 remaining, and the Blue Hens turned away two late W&M possessions to knock off the 24th-ranked Tribe, 22-21, at Zable Stadium.

Despite out-gaining UD, 393-339, and forcing eight Blue Hen punts, W&M dropped its third consecutive game and the second-straight by a point.

The Tribe took a 21-14 lead on redshirt freshman Jake Phillips' 2-yard scoring pass to Matt Otey with 11:30 remaining in third, but UD sacked Phillips for a safety early in the fourth to pull within 21-16.

W&M had two possessions in the final 4:17 of the contest, the first reaching the UD 48-yard line before stalling on downs. The Tribe's final chance came when the defense held on fourth down, giving the ball back to W&M at its 34 with 30 seconds remaining, but Phillips' second down pass was picked off at the Blue Hen 28.

Phillips set career-highs in pass attempts (34), completions (24) and passing yards (289) and added a pair of 1-yard rushing scores, his seventh and eighth of the season, which established a W&M freshman quarterback record.

Sophomore wide receiver Joe Nicholas was Phillips' top target, hauling in eight catches for 121 yards, his fourth 100-yard receiving game of the season. Redshirt freshman Elliott Mack tallied 106 yards receiving on seven grabs to give the Tribe two receivers over the 100-yard mark in a game for the second time in 2005.

Redshirt freshman DeBrian Holmes paced the Tribe ground attack with 66 yards on eight carries and added 52 yards receiving on a career-high seven receptions.

Redshirt freshman linebacker Josh Rutter recorded 14 total tackles to lead the defensive effort, his fifth double-digit tackle game of the season.

#17 UR 41, W&M 7

RICHMOND (11/19/05) -- Richmond quarterback Stacy Tutt rushed for three touchdowns to lead the 17th-ranked Spiders to a 41-7 victory over William and Mary at UR Stadium.

With the victory, UR captured a share of the A10 Championship and finished the regular season on a seven-game winning streak, while W&M dropped its fourth consecutive game, matching the College's longest losing streak since 2003, and finished with its first losing season since 2000.

In the 115th meeting between the schools, Richmond snapped a four-game losing streak in the series and posted its most decisive win over the Tribe since a 31-0 victory in 1973.

Tutt and the Spiders wasted little time in taking control of the game, as Richmond held a 10-0 lead before the Tribe offense had its first possession, and the Spiders controlled the ball for 12:05 of the opening quarter, taking a 17-0 lead on Tim Hightower's 32-yard run.

It didn't get any better from there, as Richmond held the Tribe to 20 total offensive yards in the first half, including a net rushing total of minus-13 yards, and no first downs to build a commanding 34-0 halftime lead.

W&M managed its only points of the game on the opening drive of the second half, as redshirt freshman Jake Phillips hooked up with classmate Elliott Mack on a 15-yard scoring pass with 9:04 remaining in the third.

Phillips finished 9-for-19 for 78 yards but was intercepted twice in the second half, as Richmond held the Tribe scoreless the rest of the afternoon.

W&M redshirt freshman Josh Rutter and senior Jon Shaw each had interceptions for the Tribe.
