TRIBE HEAD COACH

JIMMYE LAYCOCK

When Jimmye Laycock returned to coach his alma mater prior to the 1980 season, he inherited a program that had won six or more games in a season just four times in the previous 25 years. Few could have predicted that the College would produce more than three times that amount of seven-win seasons over the next quarter century. As the architect of what is easily the most extended run of success in William and Mary's 112-year football history, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success and has steadily built his program into a point of pride for the campus, alumni and community.

While no one season can define a career that spans more than two and a half decades, Laycock's 25th year at the top of the Tribe program accentuated what is at the heart of his basic principles for success; character, discipline and attention to details will lead to success. And, the 2004 team experienced levels of success never before reached at the College.

William and Mary set a school record for wins (11), won the A10's automatic NCAA bid, hosted a NCAA semifinal game before a standing room only crowd at Zable Stadium in front of a national television audience and finished the year with a school record No. 3 final national ranking. Along the way, a bevy of school singleseason records fell; total points (486), total yards (6,044), home wins (seven), to name just a few. But, none of these achievements spoke more succinctly to Laycock's approach than the program's 100% official NCAA graduation-rate report for all student-athletes receiving athletics aid. This showed W&M graduated all of its football players that entered the program as freshman during the 1997-98 school year. The Tribe not only carried the highest graduation rate in the conference, but also was far and away the top figure of any team ranked in the final national top 25.

Laycock is the Tribe's winningest coach, boasting a career 170-113-2 (.599) record. Since Laycock's first season in 1980, the College has had 18 winning ledgers in the last 22 years and has played in postseason games in nine of the last 19 seasons.

Laycock has also tutored 30 players to 75 All-America honors from the William and Mary ranks and has coached six Academic All-Americans. Quarterback Lang Campbell is the most decorated of all, as the 2004 season saw him earn the prestigious Payton Award, consensus first team All-American honors, as well as the A10's Offensive Player of the Year and Academic Player of the Year.

The record-setting tandem of quarterback Campbell and wide out Dominique Thompson each signed free agent contracts, with the Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Rams, respectively, in the spring of 2005, joining free safety Darren Sharper (Minnesota Vikings), defensive back Billy Parker (Miami Dolphins) and Mike Leach (Denver Broncos) as representatives of the Green and Gold in the NFL ranks.

As a 1970 graduate of the College, Laycock played football under two gurus of the game. For three years, he learned the details under the watchful eyes of Coach Marv Levy, the legendary former head coach of the Buffalo Bills. In his last season, collegiate coaching legend Lou Holtz schooled Laycock in the finer aspects of psyche and motivation.

Laycock is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at the College. They have three children: Michael (14), Mary Louise (13) and James (10).

Laycock's 24-year-old daughter, Melanie, is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is a teacher in Atlanta, Georgia.

In his 25th season at the helm, head coach Jimmye Laycock ('70) guided the Tribe to a school-record 11 victories in 2004 and W&M's first appearance in the national semifinals.

WILLIAM AND MARY GAME NOTES

Game 1 - at Marshall - Sept. 1, 2005

TEAM NOTES

Opening Day: Thursday, William and Mary begins its 111th season of football. The College's all-time record is 495-484-41 (.505) and only 16 Division I-AA teams have played more games in their history than the College. Since the first Tribe football season began in 1893, W&M is 57-50-3 (.532) in season-openers, including 11-14 under Laycock. In Laycock's 25 seasons at the helm, W&M has opened the year at home seven times, winning each time. The last time the Tribe opened the season at home was in 1997, when W&M crushed Hampton, 31-6. W&M has opened the season against a I-A foe 10 times under Laycock, losing each time.

A Win vs. Marshall Would ...

- Mark the Tribe's first win over a Divison I-A team since defeating Temple 45-38 in Philadelphia in 1998.
- Stand as the team's first win to start a season since 2001 (a 31-10 win at UMass). The team has won only five of the 12 season openers since 1993.
- Be the Tribe's third-consecutive win on an artificial surface (as the team was 2-0 last season; at Towson and JMU). Coming into 2004, William and Mary had won only one of its last eight contests on synthetics.
- Move the College's all-time win total to 496, just four short of 500 for the program's history.
   Give W&M its second-ever victory in the state of West Virginia in nine tries. The Tribe's only win in the Moutaineer State came against Marshall in 1983, in what was the last meeting between the schools, and the only meeting between the Tribe and Thurndering Herd in Huntington. The College is 0-7 all-time against WVU in Morgantown.

Familiar Faces, New Places: During spring workouts, linebackers coach Matt McLeod was promoted to defensive coordinator. Also, Scott Boone, an offensive assistant in 2004, has taken over the secondary. Together, the pair brings more than 29 years of coaching experience to the Tribe's defense.

In the offseason, Laycock welcomed three new assistants to the program in Chris Willetts ('02), who handles tight ends and special teams, Brent Barth, an offensive and special teams assistant, and Wes Dodson, a defensive assistant.

Give Me Five: With five wins this season, the Tribe can reach the 500-win mark in total victories for the program. William and Mary enters the year with an all-time record of 495-484-11 (in 110 previous seasons of football).

Road Warriors: The Tribe will open the season at Division I-A Marshall, which will be the fourth consecutive year the team has opened vs. a I-A. Also, in a scheduling quirk, the College's conference opener at Rhode Island is the 10th consecutive year W&M has opened its conference play on the road.

And while no one is counting, 2005 will mark the 11th-straight season (since 1993) that the Tribe has more road games (six) than home games (five) on its schedule.

Top-Notch Competition: The 2005 campaign will mark the eighth consecutive season that W&M has faced a Division I-A opponent, which is the longest current streak in the Atlantic 10. In the last 20 years, the Tribe has faced over 25 I-A opponents, including 21 from the current BCS conferences. The last W&M win over a I-A opponent was in 1998, when the Tribe downed Temple, 45-38. Here is a quick look at W&M's last 11 games against a I-A opponent:

Player	'05 #	'04 #
Elliott Mack	2	86
Joe Mariannaci	3	16
Tony Viola	5	30
Brandon Burrow	6	84
David Page	13	38

Back for More: This fall head coach Jimmye Laycock will welcome back five players who earned all-conference honors in 2004, which matches New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Hofstra for the most returning all-league performers from 2004. Leading the way for the Tribe is first team place kicker Greg Kuehn, who is one of eight offensive first teamers around the league back in 2005. Joining Kuehn for the Tribe are junior offensive guard Cody Morris (Second Team), senior defensive end Adam O'Connor (Second Team), senior defensive back Stephen Cason (Second Team) and senior linebacker Chris Ndubueze (Third Team). The College had nine total all-league citations in 2004, which trailed only James Madison and New Hampshire, both with 10.

In fact, since 1993 when W&M joined the Yankee Conference, which later became the Atlantic 10, no school has had more all-conference selections than the Tribe's 117. For comparison's sake, only Delaware is in the same ballpark with 106 all-league award winners in that same span, while James Madison has had 89 and Massachusetts has had 79.

of Laycock's program over the year has been discipline, both off the field and on it, and the 2004 season was no different, as W&M once again was the least penalized team in the A10. In fact, despite playing 14 total games, the Tribe was penalized only 64 times last season, the lowest mark in the league. W&M's average of 39.2 penalty yards per game was the lowest in the conference, a full 10 vards fewer than the next closest opponent (Richmond, 49.5).

Legacy of Success: Jimmye Laycock is in his 26th season as the Tribe's head coach. The school's all-time winningest coach, Laycock has compiled a 170-113-2 career record at W&M. He ranks fourth on the A-10 career victories lists (65). In 2004, W&M made its ninth postseason appearance under Laycock and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in school history. With an 11-3 overall record a year ago, the Tribe has now posted winning ledgers in 18 of the past 22 seasons.

Good Company: Tribe head coach Jimmye Laycock, in his 26th season on the W&M sidelines, ranks third among all current Division I-A and Division I-AA head coaches in terms of most years at their current school. The two coaches ahead of Laycock are Penn State's Joe Paterno (39 years) and Florida State's Bobby Bowden (29 years).

A-10 vs. Division I-A: In addition to the Tribe's battle at Marshall Thursday night, another A10 school will be facing I-A competition on the opening weekend of 2005, as Maine travels to Lincoln, Neb., to take on the Cornhuskers.

Overall, there are five games in 2005 fea-

No Flags on the Play: One of the trademarks turing A10 teams against I-A opponents. Atlantic 10 teams enter the 2005 campaign looking to knock off a I-A team for the fourth consecutive season. Last year, UNH knocked off Rutgers, 35-24. Here is a list of the A-10 vs. Division I-A in 2005:

Date	Match up
9/1	W&M at Marshall
9/3	Maine at Nebraska
9/10	Villanova at Rutgers
9/24	Richmond at Vanderbilt
11/12	Massachusetts at Army

Play It Again, Sam: William and Mary will play host to 2004 playoff opponents James Madison and Delaware on consecutive weekends (Nov. 5 and 12th) this season. The Dukes have never played back-to-back games in Williamsburg since the two starting meeting as conference opponents in 1993. In fact, one has to go back to the 1978-1979 seasons to find the last time JMU made consecutive appearances in Zable. The Blue Hens last played consecutive games in Zable over the 1986-87 seasons, when it faced the same scenario, as it made a playoff appearance in Williamsburg, then returned the next season for a regular season contest.

After W&M ran the table at Zable during the 2004 regular season, and won its first two playoff games at the friendly confines of Cary Field, the Dukes, with their memorable semifinal win, remain the last team to defeat the College in Zable. JMU's 24-17 win on 10/18/2003 was the last home loss for the Tribe, before the College ripped off nine-straight victories leading up to last season's semifinal.

THE LAST MEETING

William and Mary 48, Marshall 24

HUNTINGTON, WV (11/5/83) - Senior quarterback Dave Murphy completed 28 of 38 passes for 401 yards and four touchdowns as William and Mary outscored Marshall, 27-7, in the second half to pull away for a 48-24 victory in Huntington in the last meeting between the schools.

Mike Sutton, Murphy's primary target on the afternoon, had a huge game for the Tribe, hauling in 11 receptions for 226 yards and two touchdowns, while Dave Scanlon rushed for a pair of scores and caught another touchdown on a 9-yard strike from Murphy that opened up a four-point halftime lead to a 27-17 advantage in the third quarter.

A minute into the fourth, Murphy and Sutton connected on a 23-yard scoring pass, but Marshall's Larry Fourqurea rushed for his second touchdown of the game less than four minutes later to pull the Herd within 34-24. On the Tribe next series, however, Murphy found Jeff Sanders, who caught five passes for 55 yards, on a 6-yard TD pass to put it away with 8:51 remaining, and Bernie Marrazzo set the final margin with a 1-yard TD run with four minutes left on the clock.

All-American Mark Kelso led the W&M defense with a game-high nine tackles and added a pair of interceptions.

TEAM OFFENSIVE NOTES

The Tribe offense ...

- · Scored 31, or more, points in 11 of the 14 games on the 2004 season and averaged 34.7 pts a game overall..
- Turned the ball over a NCAA 11-game regular season record low six times (five fumbles, one interception) in 2004. The only other turnover for the College during the regular season came on a muffed punt.
- Was held scoreless in just 11 of the 56 quarters it played all season. Overall, the team scored points of some kind in 80% of the quarters on the year (45 of 56).

Seeing Red: The Tribe's offense was nothing, if not persistent when it came to finishing drives. The College converted an amazing 49 of its 52 red zone opportunities into points (36 TDs, 13 FGs; .942) during the regular season.

The Tribe started the season with an incredible streak of 40-straight conversions (with Campbell at QB). The College was perfect in the red zone through the first eight games of 2004, until Villanova snuffed out a W&M fourthand-goal attempt from the one-yard line (in the fourth quarter) of the season's ninth game. Before that stop, the Tribe's had run off points of some variety in 48-consecutive ventures inside the opposition's 20-yard line (36 TDs, 12 FGs), dating back to the 2003 season.

Holding Their Own: In the last 11 games against I-A opponents, W&M has posted some impressive offensive numbers, and last season was no different as the Tribe had ACC-rival North Carolina on its "heels" heading into the fourth quarter. W&M led UNC, 31-28, entering the final frame behind 2004 Payton Awardwinning quarterback Lang Campbell, but the Tar Heels depth and running game proved to be the difference, as UNC rallied for a 49-38 victory. The College racked up 442 total vards at Chapel Hill, 322 off the arm of Campbell and 120 on the ground. In fact, the Tribe has averaged 301.6 yards per game against I-A opponents, including 216.1 yards a game through the air, and 19.8 points per outing. Here is look at some of W&M's top performances against I-A opponents in the last 11 games:

Rush. Yds 180 158 158	Opponent East Carolina W. Michigan Temple	Year 2001 2003 1998
Pass. Yds 322 318 292	Opponent North Carolina Central Florida East Carolina	Year 2004 1996 2001

442 418 402	North Carolina Central Florida Temple	2004 1996 1998

Notable Firsts: One certainty of the 2005 season as that a Tribe QB will be making his first career start. The following are the statistics from select first starts of the past decade:

2003: Lang Campbell - Then a junior, Cambpell makes his first career start at Division I-A Western Michigan and shows glimpses of a great career to come as he completes 18 of his 31 attempts for 191 yards and three TDs (with no INTs) and also rushes for 14 yards on eight attempts. The Broncos, however, handed the College a 56-24 defeat.

1999: David Corely, Jr. – As a redshirt freshman, Corely turned in one of the finest afternoons of any QB in Tribe history, as he accounted for 328 total yards (246 passing, 82 rushing) and five TDs (four passing) in leading the College to a sound 42-30 win at Northeastern. The win not only was the start of one of the most productive careers in school history, but also snapped a Tribe season opening three-game losing streak and spurred a strong 5-2 finish.

1996: Mike Cook – Going blow-for-blow with current NFL quarterback Daunte Culpepper at division I-A Central Florida, sophomore Mike Cook out-threw the eventual first-round draft pick by racking up 318 passing yards (on just 12 completions) to Culpepper's 307. Cook connected for three TD passes, all in a 24-point third-quarter explosion, and had no interceptions. But Culpepper's charges eventually won the day 39-33, as a UCF scored the decisive points with under two-minutes remaining.

Hard to Believe: William and Mary has played exactly 171 games since 1990. In that 14 season span, the Tribe has had just seven different QB's account for 166 of the total starts (and just nine total make any starts at all). Payton Award winning QB Lang Campbell made every start of the last two seasons (24 straight), while threetime all-conference signal caller David Corely, Jr., turned in a school-record 41 straight starts between the 1999 and 2002 seasons.

The following is a season-by-season look:

2003-2004 – Lang Campbell – 24 of 24 2000-2002 – Dave Corely, Jr. - 34 of 34 1999 – Daron Pope 3 (first three); David Corely, Jr. final nine 1996-1998 – * Mike Cook – 27 of 34 1995 – Matt Byrne – 11 of 11 1992-1994 – # Shawn Knight – 31 of 34 1990-1991 – Chris Hakel – 24 of 24

- * Daron Pope started three games and Steve Fill started four in 1997, when Cook was injured in season's third game
- # Matt Byrne started two games in 1994 and Matt Durkin one in 1993 for an injured Knight

While on the Subject: Longevity isn't the only measure of success for the Tribe's QBs, as since joining the Atlantic 10 Football conference in 1993, a William and Mary quarterback has earned some variety of all-conference honor in nine of the 12 seasons, including each the last seven-straight campaigns.

Going hand-in-hand with the post-season honors is the fact that in seven of the 12 seasons in league play, a Tribe QB has turned in the conference's top QB efficiency rating.

TEAM DEFENSIVE NOTES

What a Difference a Year Makes: Playing a critical role in the Tribe's success and run to the NCAA semifinals last year was the vast improvement of the defensive unit. As mentioned W&M had multiple all-conference performers on the defensive side of the ball, but you don't need to look any further than the final statistics to see the progress the unit made. Making the squad's exploits even more impressive is the fact W&M played 14 games in 2004, four more contests than the 2003 edition.

Last season, the Tribe surrendered 26.6 points per game, a full three-point improvement from 2003 (29.9). But perhaps the biggest upgrade came in stopping the run, as W&M yielded an average of 162.1 rushing yards per game last season, down from 211.4 in 2003. Coincidentally, the Tribe's total offense allowed per game dipped to an average of 367.3 yards per game, as compared to 429.4 yards of total offense per game in 2003. The College allowed 23 rushing touchdowns in 2004, one less than 2003, but again figuring in four more games make it's a significant improvement. W&M's forced turnovers increased last year as well, as the Tribe caused 19 turnovers in 14 games, up from 16 in 2003.

Cashing In: On the topic of caused turnovers, certainly one thing the Tribe would like to carry over from 2004 was its ability to take advantage of forced miscues. Of the 19 turnovers it forced last season, W&M converted 14 of the takeaways into points, but more importantly 12 of the "cash-ins" went for touchdowns. In fact, the Tribe scored after a caused turnover in five consecutive games last season at one point, before the streak ended in the semifinal loss to James Madison.

Familiar Faces, Same Places: With nine defensive starters returning in the fall, it's a bit of an understatement to say there will be a few familiar names patrolling the defensive side of the field. In fact, looking inside the numbers once again, of the Tribe's 1,089 tackles in 2004, which includes offensive and special teams' tackles, only 102 tackles came from players who are not back in 2005, or roughly 9% of the squad's total stops in 2004. The most significant losses came on the defensive line, as Justin Kelly, Mike McCarthy and 2004 co-captain Wade Harrell were all lost to graduation. Of the 102 tackles by graduated seniors in 2004, McCarthy (38), Kelly (34) and Harrell (11) accounted for 83 of them.

Taking it a step further, W&M welcomes back 88% of its TFL production in 2005, as graduated players contributed 10 of the team's 83 TFL in 2004. Along the same lines, just 3.5 of the team's 30 total sacks were lost in the offseason, or just 11.7%. Harrell is the only non-returning player who recorded an interception in 2004, as the Smithfield, VA native extended his school record for INTs by a defensive lineman to four, with two of the Tribe's 12 picks last season.

INDIVIDUAL OFFENSIVE NOTES

Encore Performance: Sophomore Joe Nicholas used his long, athletic frame to turn in one of the most productive and impacting freshman seasons for a Tribe receiver in school history. His 66 receptions shattered the former school freshman mark by 22 catches and stands as seventh most amongst all players in school history.

Nicholas made the most of the postseason, as he totaled 24 receptions for 266 yards and three TDs over the three games. First, he established the College's rookie record for catches in a season by bringing in five receptions in the Tribe's first round playoff win over Hampton (for 53 yards). Nicholas significantly added to that total with an eye-popping 11 catches (94 yards, 2 TD) the following Saturday against Delaware in the NCAA quarterfinals, then turned in another gem of a game vs. James Madison in the national semifinals by grabbing eight more receptions for a personal best 119 yards and another score. The 11 catches vs. Delaware is tied with six other players for sixth-most in a single game in W&M history, just two away from the school record of 13, most recently set by Rich Musinski in 2003 at Rhode Island (10/25).

Nicholas notched two of the Tribe's biggest catches of the season in the postseason contest against the Blue Hens, first making a spectacular over-the-shoulder catch with just 1:06 remaining in regulation to tie the game and send the contest to overtime. After UD scored a TD to start the first extra period, Nicholas came through with another game-tying TD catch, to send the game to the decisive second overtime frame.

The 6-3, 205-pound native of Sugarloaf, PA used his big frame and sticky hands to steadily emerge as one of the conference's most reliable possession receivers and should be even more dangerous in 2005.

Prior to this season, three players were tied for the school's freshman record of 44 receptions. Not coincidently, all three went on to place in the top four in both the College's all-time receptions and receiving yardage listings. The following is a listing of the top four seasons by freshman receivers in school history, followed by how they ended on the career listing in receptions and yardage.

game-tested kickers in the nation. Kuehn has started 46-straight games for the Tribe, and connected on 46 of his 67 career attempts (.687) and 123 of his 127 extra point attempts. Kuehn tied Robert Green's school record for points in a season, with 114 in 2004, and seems a virtual lock to break current NFL kicker Steve Christie's school career scoring mark (279), as he enters 2005 with 261 career points.

Finishing Strong: Senior tailback Elijah Brooks had an outstanding season in 2004 as the team's second-leading rusher, but even more impressive was the way the transfer from I-A Kent State came on during the playoffs when defenses were keying on Payton Award winning quarterback Lang Campbell and the Tribe's proficient passing attack.

In the opening round victory over Hampton, Brooks churned out a career and W&M season-high 120 yards on the ground over 17 carries. In fact, it was just one of two 100-yard rushing games for the Tribe all season. In the quarterfinal win over Delaware, Brooks piled up 82 yards on nine carries, including a career-long 56-yard run he ripped off in the first quarter to set up W&M's first score. And in the semifinals against JMU, Brooks grounded out 35 yards on just seven carries.

In total, Brooks amassed 237 rushing yards in the Tribe's three playoff games, nearly 36% of his entire rushing production on the year.

Double Down: The return senior tight end Adam Bratton and junior tight end Matt Trinkle, coupled with four returning starters on the interior offensive line, provides a significant amount of experience and talent to Tribe's offensive front in 2005. Even more promising is the collective receiving threat the pair serves in the passing game, as the duo combined for 32 catches for 386 yards and six touchdowns in 2004. Bratton hauled in 16 grabs for 215 yards and four touchdowns, while Trinkle added 16 receptions for 171 yards and a pair of scores. In fact, the pair gave W&M its best one-two punch at tight end since 1991, when Michael Locke and Joe Person combined for 53 receptions that went four 726 yards and eight touchdowns.

INDIVIDUAL DEFENSIVE NOTES

A Tall Order: Undoubtedly, the main focus of opposing offensive line coaches this season will be to slow down All-American defensive end Adam O'Connor. Standing at 6-8, he will at the very least be the first Tribe defender noticed when the huddle breaks.

In 2004, O'Connor gained Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press after racking up eight sacks, the second-best total in the Atlantic 10. A preseason all-league pick, the Greensboro, N.C. native finished the 2004 campaign with 53 total tackles, 15.5 TFLs, which ranked fifth in the A10, nine quarterback hurries, two pass breakups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. His eight sacks are the most by a Tribe player since Luke Cullinane pulled down a school-record 12 quarterbacks in 1996.

O'Connor was also named the Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Week on Nov. 7, for his efforts in the Tribe's crucial 37-29 victory over Villanova. O'Connor wreaked havoc in the Wildcats' backfield all afternoon, as he recorded three sacks in the contest, which was just a half-sack short of a W&M single-game record. The single-game record for sacks stands at 3.5, set by Cullinane in 1996, coincidentally against Villanova. O'Connor had five total tackles, all solo, and added another quarterback hurry against the Wildcats.

Senior Stephen Cason earned Second Team All-Atlantic 10 honors in 2004 after recording 74 total tackles, 7.5 TFL and 2.5 sacks.

End-to-end: Along with senior All-American Adam O'Connor, first-year defensive coordinator Matt McLeod has two other defensive ends with starting experience and proven play-making ability in his stable.

Slated to start opposite of the towering 6-8 O'Connor is junior Josh Wright. Wright earned a starting role in the second week of the season and never relinquised it, as he went on to lead all of the Tribe's defensive linemen with 56 total tackles, the seventh best overall mark for the unit. A fierce competitor who is as tough as they come, Wright recorded 8.5 TFLs in 2004, including two sacks and added six quarterback hurries and one forced fumble.

Joining the fray in pass-rushing situations will be senior Jonas Watson, who started the season-opener last year at North Carolina. With the quickness and speed of an outside linebacker, Watson registered 6.5 sacks in 2004, which stood as the seventh-best total in the A10. Watson totalled 9.5 TLFs on the campaign, the third-best tally on the team, recovered a fumble and added four quarterback hurries.

Return to Form: Joining O'Connor as a preseason All-Atlantic selection is senior cornerback Stephen Cason. After missing the entire 2003 season rehabing a career-threatening neck injury, Cason rebounded to grab second team all-league accolades in 2004 on the strength of 74 total tackles, 7.5 TFLs and 2.5 sacks.

Cason turned in perhaps the biggest play of the season in the quarterfinal win over Delaware on Dec. 4, intercepting UD quarterback Sonny Riccio on the first play of the fourth quarter and racing 62 yards for a touchdown. The score cut the Tribe's deficit to 31-17, and W&M went on to force overtime and ultimately prevail in two extra frames.

In arguably his best all-around performance of the season in the Tribe's 27-24 victory at fourth-ranked JMU on Nov. 13, Cason was third on the squad, and one of four W&M players in double-figure tackles, with 10 total stops, including six solos. He also made one of the key plays of the day, recovering a fumble that was caused by linebacker Chris Ndubueze, when JMU quarterback Justin Rascati attempted to stretch the ball across the first-down line. The recovery led to a three-yard TD run by Jon Smith three plays later, which gave the Tribe its first lead of the game at 24-17 with 5:40 remaining.

Second to None: Although the defensive backs will be under the eye of a new position coach in Scott Boone in 2005, the majority of secondary personnel returns this season, which could lead to multiple all-conference citations. In fact, including Cason, the Tribe returns five defensive backs with significant starting experience, including both senior safeties who each started all 14 games last season.

Leading the way is free safety James Miller, the cornerstone of the secondary, if not the entire defensive unit. Miller is coming off a breakout season which saw him post 114 total tackles, the second-best mark on the squad, three interceptions and nine pass breakups, and he will be counted on for much of the same in 2005 as one of the squad's top play-making threats. His big-play ability was best on display in the win at Liberty, when he intercepted a pass and ripped off a wild 70-yard return, the longest by any Tribe defender in 2004.

Fellow senior Jon Shaw stepped into the starting strong safety spot last season and turned in an outstanding year, improving throughout the season. A competitive, physical player with a solid work ethic, Shaw stabilizes the secondary and, combined with Miller, gives the Tribe a formidable presence in the middle of the field. In his first full season as a starter, Shaw turned in 74 total tackles, including 45 solos, 3.5 TFLs, a sack and two interceptions.

At corner with Cason will be juniors Alan Wheeling and Richard Riley. Wheeling started six games in 2004 and is coming off a good spring performance. A technically sound player with a great understanding of the schemes, Wheeling relies on his tremendous instincts and form tackling to make plays. With possibly the best ball skills and ball awareness at the position (INT, 7 PBUs in 2004), Wheeling also has big-play potential.

Riley made 13 starts last season and will again be in the starting mix this fall. A long, physical defender, Riley finished last season with 50 total tackles, including 33 solo stops.

Senior free safety James Miller recorded 114 total tackles in 2004 and led the Tribe with three interceptions.

UNC 49, W&M 38

CHAPEL HILL, NC (9/4/04) -- Despite career days from DURHAM, NH (9/18/04) - All-conference kicker Greg WILLIAMSBURG (9/25/04) - All-American candidate Lang Campbell and Josh Lustig and four first-half takeaways, the Tar Heels used three fourth-quarter TDs from Ronnie McGill to rally past the Tribe, 49-38, at Kenan Stadium.

Campbell had the Division I-A North Carolina defense on its "heels" most of the afternoon, throwing for 322 yards and two TDs, including a 46-yard strike to Lustig on the opening possession. Lustig hauled in a career-best 112 yards on six catches. Campbell added a pair of rushing TDs in the first half and Greg Kuehn booted a 21-yard FG as time expired, as the Tribe built a 10-point halftime lead.

Stephen Cason and Alan Wheeling each forced a fumble in the first half, Travis McLaurin recovered two fumbles in the first half, including one he returned 33 yards and Wade Harrell returned his third-career interception 37 yards to set up Kuehn's FG, as W&M forced four turnovers in a game for the first time since 2002 (IU). James Miller, who also recovered a fumble, led the Tribe with 15 tackles.

Dominique Thompson, a NC native, caught six passes for 83 yards and a TD, while Jon Smith added a 2-yard TD run.

W&M 9, #10 UNH 7

Kuehn connected on field goals of 27,35 and 21 yards and the Tribe defense held the Wildcats' high-powered offense in check, as W&M won its conference-opener, 9-7, over 10th-ranked New Hampshire at rained-soaked Cowell Stadium.

Playing in heavy rains from the remnants of Hurricane Ivan, W&M held UNH to 226 offensive yards, nearly 150 below its average, after yielding 575 yard to North Carolina two weeks prior. It was the fewest yards allowed by a W&M defense since yielding 141 to Massachusetts in the 2001 season-opener.

All-American candidate Lang Campbell and the Tribe offense were efficient in the treacherous conditions, as Campbell threw for 148 yards on 11 for 23 passing and ran for 42 yards on 14 attempts. With 148 passing yards, he moved into 10th place on the W&M career passing list. Senior Jon Smith churned out 63 vards on 23 carries.

Kuehn kicked three field goals for the fourth time in his career, with the last coming in a win over Rhode Island on Oct. 25, 2003.

Chris Ndubueze paced the defense with a career-high 16 tackles, including 10 solo stops. Junior Larry Pendleton tallied seven tackles and a sack, while sophomore Josh Wright, who made his first career start, also recorded a sack.

The win gave W&M its first victory over a ranked opponent since knocking off 15th-ranked Northeastern in Williamsburg on Oct. 26, 2002.

W&M 42, VMI 6

Lang Campbell threw for 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the first half to surpass the 3,000-yard mark for his career, as W&M used four second-quarter touchdowns and another outstanding defensive effort to knock off state-rival VMI, 42-6, in front of 8,101 fans at Zable Stadium.

Playing on his 23rd birthday, Campbell went over the 3,000-yard plateau in the first quarter and went on to complete 11-of-15 passes for 160 yards to move into ninth place (3,136) on the College's career passing yardage list. With two TD passes, Campbell also moved into eighth place (28) on the career list at W&M.

The Tribe defense forced four turnovers for the second time this season (UNC) and held the Keydets to 197 total yards, the first time a W&M defense surrendered fewer than 200 total yards since a seasonopening win at UMass in 2001 (146). Dating back to a 9-7 win at UNH on Sept. 18, W&M has not allowed a touchdown for over seven consecutive quarters, a feat that has not been accomplished since 1995.

Sophomore linebacker Ryan Nickell recorded interceptions on consecutive VMI offensive plays from scrimmage, while all-conference linebacker Travis McLaurin and Chris Ndubueze each had six tackles and defensive end Adam O'Connor recorded five stops, a sack and three quarterback hurries.

Senior tailback Jon Smith led the Tribe ground game with 52 yards and two TDs, as he inched closer to 2,000 rushing yards for his career (1,899).

W&M 38, #16 NU 35 (OT)

WILLIAMSBURG (10/2/04) - Powered by a career-best 378vard passing performance by All-American candidate Lang Campbell, the College pulled off a thrilling 38-35 overtime victory over 16th-ranked Northeastern at Zable Stadium.

The decisive points came off the foot of all-conference kicker Greg Kuehn, who nailed a 28-yard FG in the first overtime period. He ended the afternoon converting three of his four FG opportunities.

After the Tribe scored on a 77-vard TD pass from Campbell to Dominique Thompson with 2:34 remaining in the fourth guarter, and also got the two-point conversion on a pass to redshirt freshman receiver Joe Nicholas, W&M had a 35-28 lead. But, NU quarterback Shawn Brady's third TD pass tied the game with 42 seconds remaining and forced OT.

W&M won the toss and elected to play defense first. On the Huskies' first snap, junior Adam O'Connor sacked Brady, and NU eventually missed a 53-yard FG attempt. On the Tribe's OT possession, Nicholas caught a key first-down pass from Campbell on third-and-long, and two plays later Kuehn drilled the game-winner.

Campbell ended the day 22 of 36 for 378 yards, including the score to Thompson. He also ran for a pair of TDs. The 378 passing yards ranks as the eighth-best singlegame performance in W&M history, and it was his second game over 300 yards in four contests.

Thompson led the Tribe with a career-high 157 yards on five grabs, while Nicholas hauled in a career-best 111 yards on six catches.

#18 W&M 37, LU 17

LYNCHBURG, VA (10/9/04) - Senior All-American candidate Lang Campbell threw for 368 yards, including 221 to senior wide receiver Dominique Thompson, as the 18th-ranked College of William and Mary defeated Liberty, 37-17.

In the first-ever meeting between the schools, Campbell completed 19-of-30 passes to surpass the 300-yard mark for the second time in as many games and the third time this season. Thompson pulled in a career-high 10 catches for a personal-best 221 yards, which ranks as the third-best single-game performance in W&M history behind only David Conklin's 240-vard performance against VMI on Sept. 13, 1997, and Mike Sutton's 226-yard effort at Marshall on Nov. 5, 1983. The College piled up a season-high 498 total yards of offense to the Flames' 264.

Senior Jon Smith carried 19 times for 51 yards and a pair of TDs, while Campbell and sophomore Elijah Brooks each added a score on the ground, as W&M recorded a season-high four rushing TDs.

Junior cornerback Stephen Cason had an outstanding game to pace the defense, sharing team-high honors with eight total tackles, in addition to 1.5 sacks, three pass breakups and 2.5 total tackles for loss. The Tribe defense recorded a season-high seven sacks, led by Jonas Watson's two. All-conference candidate Adam O'Connor registered 1.5 sacks to bring his team-leading total to 4.5.

The win gave W&M its fourth consecutive victory and eighth-straight win over a Division I-AA opponent, dating back to the 2003 season.

NEWARK, DE (10/23/04) - Despite a record-setting performance from senior wide receiver Dominique Thompson and four TD passes from All-American candidate, senior Lang Campbell, the 14th-ranked Tribe dropped a hard-fought 31-28 decision to thirdranked Delaware in front of 22,058 fans at Delaware Stadium.

Thompson set a W&M single-game record with 244 receiving vards, surpassing the previous mark of 240 set by Dave Conklin against VMI in 1997. He also caught all four of Campbell's TD passes, matching a W&M record also held by Vito Ragazzo (1949, vs. WFU) and Corey Ludwig (1993, vs. Maine).

Campbell completed 20 of 30 passes for 355 yards and a career-best four TDs, surpassing the 300yard mark for the fourth time this season.

The duo connected on scoring plays of 10, 62, 87 and 64 yards with the 87-yard completion tying the longest pass play in W&M history (Dan Henning to Tom Scott vs. Navy, 1961).

W&M scored on its first three possessions and held a 21-7 advantage in front of shocked sellout crowd at the end of one quarter, but the defending I-AA National Champions outscored the Tribe 24-7 to close the game, capped by a 25-yard TD pass from Sonny Riccio to Joseph Blaymaier with 4:41 remaining.

Junior linebacker Chris Ndubueze and junior corner Stephen Cason shared the team-lead with 11 tackles apiece, while sophomore end Josh Wright recorded a career-high 10 stops in the loss.

TOWSON, MD (10/30/04) - Senior All-American candidate, quarterback Lang Campbell threw for 268 yards and three touchdowns in three quarters, and the 16th-ranked Tribe piled up a season-high 585 yards of total offense to subdue A10 Conference newcomer Towson, 41-16.

Campbell completed 20-of-29 attempts and his three touchdown passes brought his season total to 14, seven of which have come in the last two games. The 268 passing yards brought his career total to 4,697, moving him into sixth place on the W&M career list, while his three TD passes brought his career total to 38, also moving him into sixth place on the W&M career list in that category.

Senior wide receiver Dominique Thompson caught seven passes for 122 yards and two touchdowns, his fifth and sixth scoring receptions in the last two games. Thompson went over the 1,000-yard mark on the season early in the third quarter, becoming just the sixth player in W&M history to record a 1,000-yard receiving season.

As impressive as Campbell's feats through the air were, the Tribe's ground attack was equally inspired, as it racked up a season-high 280 rushing yards after averaging just 99.1 yards per game coming in. Senior tailback Jon Smith led the rushing attack with a season-high 113 yards on 16 carries and added a running score. Smith became the first Tribe player this season to surpass the century mark on the ground, and it was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of his career, moving him into a tie for eighth place on the W&M career list.

WILLIAMSBURG (11/6/04) - Senior tailback Jon Smith scored on runs of 1, 1 and 17 yards and All-American candidate Lang Campbell threw for 232 yards and a touchdown, while also rushing for 60 yards and another score to lead the 13th-ranked Tribe past 19thranked Villanova, 37-29, at Zable Stadium.

The victory gave head coach Jimmye Laycock his 13th career season with seven or more victories, and stood as the College's third win over a ranked opponent this season.

After trailing 21-14 at the break, Campbell connected with redshirt freshman WR Joe Nicholas on a six-yard scoring strike to cap the Tribe's opening drive of the second half, and after the teams exchanged punts, W&M took its first lead of the game when the Wildcats' center sent a snap over the punter's head and out of the end zone.

Smith scored his second touchdown early in the fourth to push the lead to 30-21, and found the end zone for third time with 2:57 remaining, after senior Wade Harrell's 19-yard interception return. Smith scored three rushing TDs for the third time in his career with the last coming against VMI in 2002.

Campbell completed 22 of 34 passes for 232 and threw his 39th career TD pass. He was equally effective on the ground, gaining a season-high 60 yards, including several key first-down runs in the fourth quarter.

Junior all-conference candidate Adam O'Connor recorded three sacks in the game, just a half-sack away from a W&M single-game record. For his efforts, O'Connor was named the A10 Defensive Player of the kicker Greg Kuehn nailed a 46-yard field goal as time expired to lead 10th-ranked William and Mary to a thrilling 27-24 victory over fourth-ranked James Madison in front of 13,904 fans at Bridgeforth Stadium.

The College gained possession at its 28-yard line with 38 seconds remaining, after JMU tied the game at 24-24 with 45 seconds left. With three timeouts in hand, senior All-American and Payton Award candidate. quarterback Lang Campbell calmly led the Tribe on a five play, 43-yard drive to set up Kuehn's game-winning kick. Kuehn's heroics gave the Tribe its first win in Harrisonburg since 1998 and its second victory over a top-10 team on the road this season.

The kick was Kuehn's second game-winning effort of the season, as he also drilled a 28-yard field goal in overtime to beat 16th-ranked Northeastern, 38-35, on Oct. 2.

Campbell was brilliant all day, as he methodically picked apart the Dukes' vaunted defense for 323 yards and two touchdowns on 26 of 33 passing. It was Campbell's fifth 300-yard passing game of the season, as he moved over the 5,000-yard barrier for his career (5,302), becoming just the sixth quarterback in W&M history to accomplish the feat.

Junior Chris Ndubueze led the Tribe with 12 total tackles and forced a critical JMU fumble late in the game, which was recovered by classmate Stephen Cason, who had 10 total stops in the game. All-conference candidate, junior Adam O'Connor registered nine total tackles, including a team-high 1.5 for loss.

WILLIAMSBURG (11/27/04) - Sophomore tailback Elijah Brooks ran for a career-high 120 yards and senior Payton Award Candidate Lang Campbell threw for 294 yards and three touchdowns to lead William and Mary over Hampton, 42-35, in the first round of the 2004 NCAA I-AA Football Championship in Williamsburg.

The Tribe shook off a sluggish start and erased a 13-7 halftime deficit with 35 second-half points and a season-high 592 yards of total offense, including a season-high 298 on the ground, to overcome a 394 all-purpose vard and three touchdown performance from Pirates' senior wide receiver Jerome Mathis.

After Mathis scored his third TD of the game, a 43-yard pass play with 12:01 remaining in the game, Tribe senior Dominique Thompson returned the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for a score, becoming the first W&M player to take a kickoff to the house since 1995.

The defense forced a turnover on the Pirates' next possession, and one play later, Campbell hit Thompson on a 45-yard scoring strike to put the Tribe ahead for good. It was Thompson's second TD catch of the game, as he piled up 118 receiving yards on seven grabs for his fifth 100-vard game of the season.

Senior tailback Jon Smith and Campbell each contributed to the Tribe's impressive rushing attach, as Smith racked up 80 yards and two scores on 13 carries, while Campbell added a season-high 71 yards on nine attempts.

The victory gave W&M its 10th win of the season, becoming just the third team in school history to reach the mark. It was also the Tribe's first playoff victory, since a 45-6 win over Jackson State in 1996.

WILLIAMSBURG, VA (12/4/04) - Senior tailback Jon Smith scored from seven yards out in the second overtime and the Tribe defense held on a fourth-and-goal from the nine, as William and Mary knocked defending national champion Delaware out of the NCAA I-AA Championship with a 44-38 double-overtime victory in the quarterfinals at Zable Stadium.

#8 JMU 48, #6 W&M 34

WILLIAMSBURG, VA (12/10/04) - Senior All-American quarterback Lang Campbell threw for 315 yards and three touchdowns on 30-for-39 passing, but eighthranked James Madison defeated sixth-ranked William and Mary, 48-34, in the semifinals of the 2004 NCAA I-AA Football Championship in front of a Friday night sellout crowd at Zable Stadium.

After spotting the Dukes a 21-0 first-quarter lead, Campbell rushed for a score and threw a nine-yard TD pass to redshirt freshman Joe Nicholas and All-American Greg Kuehn kicked a pair of field goals, including a 42-yarder as time expired in the first half, to cut the deficit to 21-20 at the break.

W&M kept the momentum going to start the third, as Campbell hit senior All-American wide receiver Dominique Thompson on a seven-yard strike to give the Tribe its first lead, 26-21. The advantage was shortlived however, as JMU engineered a two-play scoring drive on its next series and took advantage of two costly Tribe turnovers to reel off 27-straight points en route to the victory.

Campbell completed the most prolific season by a W&M quarterback with his school-record 30th TD pass late in the fourth, a four-yard connection with senior John Pitts. Campbell set season marks for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305), completions (298) and touchdown passes.

Thompson extended his school-record for receiving yards in a season to 1,585 and established a new standard for receptions in a season (79) with eight catches for 96 yards against the Dukes.

Despite the loss, the 2004 campaign proved to be one of the most successful in W&M history, as the Tribe won 11 games and advanced to the national semifinals for the first time.
