CAUGHT ON THE CUPOLA

THE GREAT HALL

THIS ROOM SERVED AS THE COLLEGE'S DINING HALL AND MEETING SPACE FOR MORE THAN A CENTURY. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF VIRGINIA MET THERE SEVERAL TIMES IN THE COLONIAL PERIOD. IT CONTAINS THE PORTRAITS OF THREE US PRESIDENTS WHO WERE EDUCATED AT W&M (JAMES MONROE, JOHN TYLER, AND THOMAS JEFFERSON), AND A PORTRAIT OF QUEEN ANNE OF ENGLAND, HANGS OVER THE FIREPLACE.

WILLIAM AND MARY FOOTBALL TIME LINE

1891 Students begin asking for a football team, editorial appears in a literary magazine in favor of its adoption.

1893 Intramural football grows into a faculty-approved team and first game is played against Norfolk YMCA in Norfolk. The first victory was recorded against the Old Dominion Club.

1894 First intercollegiate game played, a 28-0 loss to Hampden-Sydney College.

1895 No football played because of lack of student interest.

1896 First athletic rules adopted, including college regulations for football.

1898 Tribe plays first game vs. Richmond (a 15-0 loss) starting the longest football rivalry in the South. The College also records first intercollegiate win, a 10-0 win vs. Randolph-Macon.

1904 W&M becomes a member of the Eastern Division of the Virginia Collegiate Athletic Association and records its first victory over Richmond, 15-6, which was the College's first-ever conference win.

1906-07 During this academic year, the first Cary Field was built thanks to a donation by T. Archibald Cary of Richmond. The facility included bleachers and was located just west of the original football field along Richmond Road, where the Bryan Complex now stands.

1911 Dr. William J. Young becomes the first full-time head coach at W&M.

1918 World War I interrupts athletics program, and only one game is played. Until this point, only state teams and teams from the immediate area appeared on the schedule.

1924 Legendary coach Knute Rockne gives a two-week coaching clinic on campus. The following year, Rockne gives only two clinics, one at Notre Dame and one at W&M.

1926 On Oct. 23, the Alumni Association stages the first Homecoming Day in the College's 233 years of existence. The team loses only to northern foes to post a 7-3 overall record. William and Mary wins the Southern title and beats Chattanooga in its first bowl bid.

1927 The first night football game in the East is played on Sept. 24, as W&M drops a 12-0 decision to Catholic under the lights set up on Cary Field.

1935 Cary Field Stadium, which would become Zable Stadium, is completed to seat 10,000, with a quarter-mile track and practice field included. The first game played in the stadium is a scoreless tie against the University of Virginia.

1939 Carl Voyles, Wallace Wade's assistant at Duke, is appointed head coach and athletics director, and R.N. "Rube" McCray is made his assistant. "Fabulous Freshman" team, which Voyles and McCray brought in, gains national recognition.

1940 VMI ties William and Mary, but no state team defeats the Indians. From 1940 through 1948, no state team beats or ties W&M.

1942 William and Mary wins the Southern Conference championship, losing only to the star-studded North Carolina Pre-Flight Eleven. The Tribe defeats Oklahoma in postseason play. Guard Garrard "Buster" Ramsey becomes William and Mary's first AP First Team All-America player.

1943 Varsity football discontinued for second time because of war.

Jack Cloud (above), one of the greatest players in Tribe history, earned All-America honors in three consecutive years (1946-48) and led W&M to the Southern Conference Championship in 1947.

1944 Voyles leaves William and Mary for Auburn, McCray becomes head coach and athletics director.

1946 Pre-war stars return from service, and William and Mary finishes second in the Southern Conference.

1947 William and Mary wins second conference championship. McCray is named Coach of the Year in the league, and fullback Jack Cloud is named captain of the All-Southern team and appears on several All-America teams. The Indians receive a bid to the Dixie Bowl in Birmingham, January 1, 1948, but lose to Arkansas, 21-19.

1948 W&M football team gains second consecutive bowl bid, defeating Oklahoma A&M, 20-0, in the Delta Bowl in Memphis. Jack Cloud leads the Tribe to one of the nation's biggest upsets, a 7-7 tie with North Carolina. The Tribe also tops N.C. State and Virginia Tech and gains sweet revenge over Arkansas, 9-0.

1951 Marvin Bass directs the Tribe to a 7-3 mark in his only year as a head coach.

1953 With only 24 members on the squad, Head Coach John T. "Jackie" Freeman (Class of 1944) guides the "Iron Indians" to a 5-4-1 record. That depleted squad upsets Wake Forest in the season opener, ties Navy and defeats N.C. State, VPI, George Washington and Richmond.

1964 Marv Levy takes over a program which hasn't posted a winning record in 10 years.

1966 W&M appears on network television for the first time, as ABC-TV broadcasts the Indians' game against Boston College to a large Northeast and Mid-Atlantic audience.

1967 En route to their third consecutive winning season, the Indians score three TDs in the fourth quarter to stun Navy 27-16. Navy, ranked No. 1 in the East, falls to W&M for the first time in 25 years (See below).

1968 Freshman defensive back Warren Winston of Richmond becomes the first African-American to receive a football scholarship at W&M.

1970 With a losing record (5-6), Head Coach Lou Holtz directs the Indians to the Tangerine Bowl after two scrappy, end-of-the-season comebacks. Toledo wins the postseason game, 40-12.

1976 Head Coach Jim Root guides the Indians to seven wins for the first time since 1951.

1980 Jimmye Laycock returns to his alma mater to take over the reins of the program.

W&M's 1967 victory over Navy ranks as one of the biggest upsets in college football history. Most people didn't give the Tribe a chance.

Only Andrew Beyer, in the Washington Post, cautioned that an upset was possible, because of William and Mary's passing game. Few took such warnings seriously. The odds makers made it a 20-point spread at game time.

How big an upset was it? When the NCAA celebrated the first 100 years of college football, they listed the 10 greatest upsets in history. One of them was William and Mary 27, Navy 16, Oct. 21, 1967.

Quarterback Chris Hakel threw for 3,414 yards and 22 touchdowns, as W&M led the nation in total offense in 1990.

1981 The College, along with 44 other programs, moves from Division I-A to I-AA. Freshman Mark Kelso earns all-state honors and would later go on to gain Academic All-America status on two occasions, before a standout professional career with the Buffalo Bills.

1986 The Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting a 9-2 record. W&M loses to Delaware, 51-17. Michael Clemons rushed for 1,118 yards and 10 touchdowns to earn Kodak First Team All-America honors.

1987 Steve Christie is named ECAC Place-kicker of the Year. Christie went on to set school records for career points, field goals, extra points and longest field goal (53 yards), all of which still stand, with the only exception being extra points (Brian Shallcross '94-'97).

1988 Jimmye Laycock becomes winningest coach in W&M football history. The Tribe plays in its sixth postseason game, the first one ever to be played by an American team in Japan against a Japanese all-star squad. The Epson Ivy Bowl is an awesome success with a 73-3 victory.

1989 Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting an 8-2-1 record. W&M loses to Furman, 24-10. W&M ends the season ranked 10th.

1990 Cary Field Stadium is renamed after Walter J. Zable during the homecoming game. The Tribe finishes with a school-record 10 victories and advances to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. William and Mary defeats Richmond in the 100th meeting between the two teams. The College led the nation in total offense by averaging almost 500 yards per game and claimed the Lambert Cup for I-AA supremacy in the East.

1992 William and Mary finishes with a 9-2 record, becoming only the fifth team in school history to achieve nine victories. The Tribe travels to Tokyo and defeats Nihon University, 35-19, in the fifth Epson Ivy Bowl. The game was the first-ever match-up between a major U.S. college team and a Japanese university squad.

1993 Celebrating its 100th year of football, and its first year of Yankee Conference play, the Tribe posts a 9-2 record and finishes second in the league (7-1). W&M advances to the NCAA playoffs where it loses to third-seeded McNeese St., 34-28, in Lake Charles, LA. Quarterback Shawn Knight sets a NCAA Division I-AA record for pass efficiency (204.6) while defensive tackle Craig Staub becomes the most decorated player in Tribe history by being named to four All-America teams, while also being honored as the league's defensive player of the year. Staub was also named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America squad.

1994 Tribe finishes with 8-3 record, capping the best three-year stretch in school history (26-8).

1995 Jimmye Laycock becomes only the 13th Division I-AA head coach to reach the 100-win plateau with a 39-0 win at defending conference champion New Hampshire. The College finishes the season with a 7-4 mark and places 13 athletes on the all-conference squad, including senior LB Jason Miller, who was also named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

1996 The College wins its first Yankee Conference title in the league's last season of competition. On its way to the league title, the College finishes with a school-record No. 5 final national ranking, ties the school record for wins (10) and makes a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA Div. I-AA playoffs. The team also takes home the Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year trophies. OG Josh Beyer and safety Darren Sharper earn multiple first team All-America honors, while Sharper becomes the third Tribe player to be named as the Yankee Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. As a second-round selection of the Green Bay Packers, Sharper also becomes the highest NFL draft pick in school history.

1997 W&M reaches an all-time high national ranking of No. 2 in the coaches poll in the season's third week and finished with a 7-4 mark. W&M has 10 players named to All-Atlantic 10 honors, marking the third-straight season with double-digit honorees.

1998 The Tribe ends the year with a 7-4 record and a No. 17 final national ranking. The squad produces three players who earned All-America honors: QB Mike Cook, DT Raheem Walker and P/TE Mike Leach.

1999 Laycock and his staff guide the squad to its eighth consecutive winning season with a 6-5 mark. Place-kicker Brett Sterba ties the A10 record for field goals in a season with 18 and WR Dave Conklin graduates as the school's all-time leader in receptions (190), receiving yards (3,269) and TD catches (27). Sophomore Komlan Lonergan sets the school single-season kickoff return yardage mark with 743 yards.

2001 W&M posts an 8-4 mark, winning a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference crown and making its first NCAA Playoff appearance since 1996. Senior tailback Komlan Lonergan sets the career kickoff return yardage record (1,464), junior quarterback Dave Corley establishes the College's career mark for total offense (8,173) and sophomore receiver Rich Musinski breaks the school's single season receiving yardage mark by posting 1,393 yards on 59 catches. Eleven student-athletes earn all-conference honors and Musinski and OT Dwight Beard earn All-American honors.

2002 Tribe senior quarterback Dave Corley, Jr. breaks the school's all-time passing yardage record in W&M's 6-5 season, the 17th winning ledger in the past 20 years. Corley ends up as the holder of 16 school records. His main target, wideout Rich Musinski, becomes the Tribe's all-time receiving yards leader in the season finale against Richmond.

2003 Standout wide receiver Rich Musinski breaks the Atlantic 10 record for career receiving yards with 4,168 yards and is named a first team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association. He also finished his career as the College's all-time leader in receptions (223) and touchdowns (31). He is only the third player in NCAA history to collect more than 4,000 receiving yards.

2004 Tribe senior quarterback Lang Campbell wins the Walter Payton Award, given annually to I-AA's top offensive player, after leading the College to its first-ever 11-win season and first-ever appearance in the national semifinals, a Friday night contest against state-rival JMU broadcast to a national television audience from Zable Stadium. Campbell sets single-season records for passing yards (4,305), completions (298) and touchdown passes (30), among others, and was a consensus First Team All-American and the Atlantic 10 Offensive Player of the Year, W&M's first to earn the award. Junior place-kicker Greg Kuehn takes the A10 Special Teams Player of the Year and All-America honors after leading the nation with 19 field goals. Campbell's main receiving threat, senior Dominique Thompson, shatters the school's single-season record for receiving yards with 1,585 and set a new season standard with 79 receptions en route to All-America status. Junior defensive end Adam O'Connor also earned All-America honors after piling up eight sacks.

WILLIAM AND MARY IN THE PROS

The College of William and Mary has been producing professional football players since 1923, when Isham Hardy began his four-year pro career with the Akron Pros, which later became the Akron Indians. In 1923, for the first time, every franchise that was considered part of the NFL fielded a team and the Canton Bulldogs posted their second-straight undefeated season (11-0-1) to capture the league championship. Over the years, the College has manufactured a multitude of athletes who went on to star at the professional level in leagues ranging from the NFL to the Candian Football League to the Arena League. Most recently, Billy Parker ('03) signed a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins in June, after earning all-rookie and first team all-league honors for the New York Dragons of the Arena League. Two players off the Tribe's 2004 national semifinal squad are also in NFL camps this summer, as Lang Campbell joined the Cleveland Browns, and Dominique Thompson joined the St. Louis Rams.

Dwight Beard (57) was an AFCA and AP First Team All-American in 2002, while Rich Musinski (44) was an AFCA First Team All-American in 2003.

After leading the College to one of its most successful seasons in school history, quarterback Lang Campbell put a fitting end to what was a magical football season by being named as the recipient of the 2004 Payton Award at the 18th annual I-AA College Football Awards Ceremony held on December 16th in Chattanooga, TN. Campbell, became the first Tribe player to earn the award, which is presented annually to the most outstanding offensive player in the I-AA ranks, by virtue of a national vote of college sports information directors and selected media.

Campbell established school single-season records for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305) and touchdowns (30), as well as touchdowns responsible for (38, as he also had eight rushing TDs). The Winchester, VA native led William & Mary to a share of the Atlantic 10 title and its first appearance in the NCAA I-AA semifinals, along with the first 11-win season in the 110-year history of the Tribe's program. At the conclusion of the regular season, Campbell was honored as the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year, becoming the first player in the Tribe's 12-year association with the league to earn the award.

He earned the A10's highest individual offensive honor as the key component in a Tribe attack that averaged over 430 yards and 34 points a contest. The history and economics major helped power the squad to a 11-3 final record, a share of the A10 Title and a school-record No. 3 seed in the NCAA Championship field by leading the conference in seven different categories, including passing yards, passing efficiency and total offense.

By ending the season leading the sixth-ranked Tribe to a 38-14 win over arch rival Richmond with 291 yards and four touchdowns on 21 completions (in 28 attempts), Campbell earned his third A10 Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Campbell's season average of 284.9 passing yards per game is a school-record and was the top figure in the A10. Campbell became just the fourth Tribe quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in a season and joins former All-American signal-caller Mike Cook (1995-98) as the College's only quarterbacks to accomplish the trick in just 11 games (Cook threw for 3,028 in 1998). Campbell's 3,988 passing yards shatters the school's previous single-season total of 3,414, set by Chris Hakel during a 13-game 1990 season.

By completing an eye-catching .655 of his attempts (298 of 455), Campbell had the third best completion percentage in school history. In fact, he ended his career by completing better than 50% of his attempts in all but one of his 24 career starts. For his career, Campbell has a completion percentage of .649, which ranks him second all-time at the College (trailing only Shawn Knight's career mark of .655).

Campbell ended the regular season with just one INT in 326 attempts. His minuscule interception percentage of .31 was the best 11-game average in the nation among all levels (the next closest total was Georgetown's Andrew Crawford, who sported a .64 average, with just one INT in 156 attempts) and an NCAA regular season record. Campbell ended the regular season by throwing 235 consecutive passes without an interception and had a TD-to-INT ratio of 21:1, which was far and away the nation's best total among all quarterbacks.

He also has rushed for eight touchdowns and 317 yards.

The semifinal match up with eighth-ranked James Madison was the Tribe's eighth game against a ranked opponent in 13 contests this season. By running up 335 yards of total offense against the Dukes, Campbell provided just one more example of his ability to excel when the spotlight is shining brightest. In the eight games against ranked opponents this season, he averaged 291.1 passing yards per game (2,330), completed 66.1% of his attempts (154 of 233) and accounted for 18 touchdowns.

In his lone outing against I-A competition, at the University of North Carolina, Campbell accounted for four touchdowns and 357 total yards in the team's hard-fought 49-38 loss.

He etched his name throughout the College's record book in just two years a starter, ranking fifth in career passing yards (6,494), fourth in total offense (7,149) and third in touchdown passes (54).

A four-time honor roll student at the College, Campbell graduated with GPA of better than 3.3 and with a degree in history and economics. Not only a leader on the field, Campbell was active in helping chart the school's athletic policies, as they relate to athletes, by being a member of the school's Student Athletics Advisory Committee. He also has made an impact for several local charities, including Avalon (a house for abused women and children) and St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Campbell received 40 first-place votes and 315 points from the panel of 94 I-AA sports information directors and selected media. Following Campbell in the voting were Sam Houston State quarterback Dustin Long, who earned 17 first-place votes and 185 total points, and Appalachian State wide receiver DaVon Fowlkes, who had eight first-place votes and 151 total points.

Lou Creekmur was awarded the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1950 and went on to star with the Detroit Lions from 1950 to 1959. He was inducted into the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame in 1989.

Walter Zable, Class of 1937, has long been one of the biggest supporters of Tribe football. Zable was a starting end for W&M from 1934-36, playing well enough to be named to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary All-America team. In 1987, the NCAA awarded Zable with its highest honor, the Theodore Roosevelt Award. Zable ensured that his legacy would remain with W&M when, in 1990, he and his wife Betty (Class of 1940) made a commitment towards athletics, student aid and other needs. In recognition of the gesture, the College's Board of Visitors approved the naming of the on-campus football stadium as Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field.

WALK-ON HALL OF FAME

"There has been a tradition of success for walk-on athletes in our program ... I think it exemplifies the importance we place on work ethic here ... If a player comes to the College and is willing to do the work in the classroom and on the field, he will get an equal opportunity to play!"

- Tribe Head Coach Jimmye Laycock

In athletics, players develop at different rates and react to competitive situations in different ways. For those reasons, the W&M football coaching staff understands the impact walk-on players, athletes not presented athletic scholarships directly out of high school, can make on the program. W&M has been fortunate to attract many top-quality players as walk-ons who have gone on to earn scholarships and become important parts of the success of Tribe football. Many of these players, wanting to be part of a traditional power like W&M, have turned down other scholarship offers in favor of walking onto the Tribe program with the hopes of earning a scholarship.

These players' dedication to Tribe football have been rewarded by earning scholarships and making the most of their opportunity, on and off the field. Without quality walk-on players the Tribe could not continue to perform at such a high level on the national scene. Notable players who came to W&M as walk-ons include 2004 Walter Payton Award-winning quarterback Lang Campbell, 1995 Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year Jason Miller, record-setting wideout Josh Whipple and all-conference safety Sean McDermott. Largely due to their unselfish approach to the game and their consummate team play, a number of former walk-ons have gone on to serve as team captains at W&M, including Mike McGowan and Stefon Moody in 1996 and McDermott in 1997 and, more recently, Marc Matthe in 2001 and both Campbell and Wade Harrell in 2004.

In just two seasons as a starter, Campbell etched his name throughout the College record books, ranking fifth in career passing yards (6,494), fourth in total offense (7,149) and third in touchdown passes (54). In 2004, Campbell established school single-season records for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305) and touchdowns (30), as well as touchdowns responsible for (38, as he also had eight rushing TDs). The Winchester, VA native led William & Mary to a share of the Atlantic 10 title and its first appearance in the NCAA I-AA semifinals, along with the first 11-win season in the 111-year history of the Tribe's program. At the conclusion of the regular season, Campbell was honored as the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year, becoming the first player in the Tribe's 12-year association with the league to earn the award.

Former W&M defensive back Palmer Scarritt, who ranks second on the W&M all-time punt return yardage list, came to the program as a walk-on. Former defensive line walk-on Alan Garlic set W&M's career sack record at 21. Lynchburg's Charlie White came to W&M as an undersized center and went on to earn second-team all-conference honors in 1995. Receiver Mark Compher came to Williamsburg as a walk-on and established a then-W&M record for single-season receiving yards with 1,180 in 1990. One of Compher's teammates, fullback Tyrone Shelton, went from walk-on to a career that saw him rush for 2,534 yards, the fifth-highest total in W&M history, and become an NFL draft selection. In 2002, Andrew Solomon led the Tribe in tackles after joining the squad as a walk-on his freshman year.

The following lists show some of the most prominent W&M players who have come to the Tribe as walk-ons since 1980. Each of these student-athletes went on to earn starting positions and, more importantly, bachelor's degrees from the College.

Payton Award-winning quarterback Lang Campbell came to W&M as a walk-on in 2000. Campbell established school single-season records for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305) and touchdowns (30), as well as touchdowns responsible for (38, as he also had eight rushing TDs) in 2004. He was also named the A10 Offensive Player of the Year en route to leading the Tribe to its first 11-win season and first appearance in the national semi-finals.

Jason Miller, who started his W&M career as a walk-on, was named the 1995 Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year after leading the Tribe with 115 total tackles and nine TFLs.
