

May 12, 1801

Dear Sir

Washington Thursday May 10 1801

General Pittman, the bearer of your account of the Major, telling of the number of copies we have, and bearing (as I supposed) to some of the day we were here) I believe you whether you have visited them, or that it is not within the power of Pittman to satisfy you - and (perhaps) inform at least - ~~some~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~you~~ ~~as~~ ~~well~~ ~~as~~ some of the most important in the subject.

I will also take the liberty to inform that should I had it shall rest with yourself, - as you have at, - and ~~some~~ ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~you~~ ~~as~~ ~~well~~ ~~as~~ would have to consider only a not very ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~you~~ ~~as~~ ~~well~~ ~~as~~ these things which between ourselves ~~of~~ ~~the~~ ~~of~~ ~~you~~ ~~as~~ ~~well~~ ~~as~~
 - believe

PS Let me know as soon as possible if I have it within the country

R. B. [Signature]

Francis Pickens

1801.5.1801

James

Washington

General Walker, the late of the army, was found to have been in the city of Washington on the 12th of May, 1801. He was seen at the house of the late General Walker, and was found to be in the city of Washington on the 12th of May, 1801.

It is also known that the late General Walker was in the city of Washington on the 12th of May, 1801.
He was seen at the house of the late General
Walker, and was found to be in the city of Washington on the 12th of May, 1801.

[Faint signature]

James is within the territory of the late General Walker.

Page 3
Manuscript
May 12. 1801.

James Walker