First and 10

The Tribe travels to historic Lexington, Va. on Saturday to face the Virginia Military Institute in a 1 p.m. kickoff. Saturday's game will mark the 85th meeting in the rivalry, as the two schools have met at least once in each of the last 63 seasons. The Tribe has won 21 consecutive games in the series and holds a 49-33-2 all-time edge over the Keydets. W&M is looking to bounce back from a 49-31 season-opening loss to Delaware on Thursday, while VMI opened its season on Saturday with a 20-0 victory over Division II Lock Haven. The Keydets' win snapped a 10-game losing streak, which occurred over the final 10 games of 2006. Saturday's game marks the first of two-straight against Big South opponents, as the Tribe will host Liberty on Sept. 15. W&M is 7-0 all-time against the Big South. Tribe quarterback Jake Phillips will look to build on his record-setting performance against Delaware, as the junior signal-caller set school single-game records for passing yards (433) and total offense (462). VMI counters with a running option attack that piled up 397 yards on the ground against Lock Haven. VMI linebacker Joe Taylor, the Big South Defensive Player of the Week, collected 12 tackles in helping the Keydets post the shutout victory.

The William and Mary Football Radio Network

The W&M Athletics Department is in its second year of a partnership for the Tribe Radio Network with local stations, 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH", as the network's Co-Flagships.

"We are extremely excited to be teaming up with Tribe Athletics," said Tom Davis, the President of Davis Media LLC. "We look forward to enhancing the broadcasts and broadening the reach of the games to the many fans throughout Tidewater Virginia."

The partnership provides the College with solid coverage of the peninsula, as the station's combined footprint reaches from eastern areas of Richmond to the western parts of Norfolk. Tribe fans in Richmond will also be able to catch the action on 1450AM WCLM, which returns for its third season as an affiliate. Also, as usual, long-standing network member WBRG, AM 1050 of Lynchburg is back to carry all the action for 2007.

In addition to the radio coverage, all broadcasts can be heard live on the web at www.TribeAthletics.com, free of charge.

The College's long-standing broadcast team of team of Jay Colley and Bob Sheeran remain in place to deliver all the action of Tribe football over the airwaves.

VMI Series Notes

Serious History

Few schools can boast such long and storied histories as the College of William and Mary (founded in 1693) and the Virginia Military Institute (founded in 1839). This same history can be applied to the football programs, as each has sponsored a team for the better part of the last century. The two schools have met on the gridiron 84 times, including at least once a year for the last 63 seasons.

The 63 consecutive games played streak is tied for the ninth longest, uninterrupted series currently being contested in the FCS ranks. The other is the College's rivalry with Richmond. The Tribe has won 21-consecutive games in the VMI series, which stands as the second longest winning streak in an active uninterrupted series, the longest being Grambling's 30-straight wins over Prairie View.

Connections

Current assistant head coach and offensive line coach Bob Solderitch had a two-year stint as an assistant at VMI (1994-95), overseeing both the offensive and defensive lines.

VMI assistant Greg Shockley is in third season in Lexington, after spending the 2004 season as tight ends and special teams coach at W&M.

Senior running back Tony Viola's brother, Andy, is a junior defensive end for VMI, while freshman offensive lineman Jake Marcey's older brother, Jeff, is an offensive lineman as well for the Keydets.

The Last Meeting - William and Mary 38, VMI 6

WILLIAMSBURG (9/23/06) -- Elijah Brooks rushed for 146 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Tribe past state-rival VMI, 38-6, at Zable Stadium.

W&M posted its 21st consecutive victory over VMI and snapped a six-game losing streak that dated back to the 2005 season.

Brooks recorded his sixth-career 100-yard rushing game and scored three rushing touchdowns for the third time, as W&M ran for a season-high 262 yards. DeBrihan Holmes added 59 yards rushing on only five carries, and the Tribe held a 472-243 advantage in total offense.

Barrett Way kicked a pair of field goals for VMI, hitting from 26 and 40 yards for the Keydets' only points of the game.

Jake Phillips completed 10 of 17 passing attempts for 111 yards, and Mike Potts threw for 99 yards and two touchdowns, on just 3-of-4 passing, after entering the contest in the third quarter.

Joe Nicholas led the Tribe receiving corps with 78 yards on three grabs, including a 54-yard scoring reception from Potts in the fourth quarter. Elliott Mack added 54 yards on three catches and had a 32-yard touchdown reception from Potts in the third quarter.

Redshirt freshman Adrian Tracy led the Tribe defense with nine stops, including 2.5 tackles for loss, all sacks, and forced a fumble, while Richard Riley added two unassisted stops behind the line of scrimmage. Trevor McLaurin had an interception, and T.J. O'Neill and Ryan Jones each recovered fumbles for the Tribe, which forced multiple turnovers for third time in three games. True freshman Max Harris had a pair of unassisted stops and forced a fourth-quarter VMI fumble.

Team Notes

Great Interest

W&M averaged better than 10,000 fans a contest during the 2006 season and opened the 2007 campaign by attracting a near sell-out crowd of 11,639.

Five of the last six home crowds have been over the five-figure mark with the lone exception being the 2006 season finale against Richmond, which drew 9,423.

A Win Over VMI Would:

- Extend the Tribe's win streak in the series to 22.
- Give W&M 50 all-time victories over VMI.
- Be W&M's 17th in Lexington (16-16-1).
- Snap the Tribe's current three-game losing streak.
- Extend W&M's record against Big South teams to a perfect 8-0.
- Move Laycock's all-time record against Jim Reid to 9-3. Reid spent nine seasons as the head coach of Richmond, where his teams went 3-6 vs. Laycock's charges between the 1995 and 2003 seasons. Reid also was the head coach at Massachusetts from 1986 to 1991, which included a 1990 NCAA Playoff loss to William and Mary.

D.J. McAulay recorded career-highs in receptions (7) and receiving yards (162) against Delaware on Thursday.

Playing At Home and Early

For the second-straight season, the College will have three home games before Oct. 1. Last year, the Tribe entertained three opponents in consecutive weeks in September, marking the first time since 1993 that W&M played three home games in the month of September.

Additionally, with last week's early contest against Delaware, and the bye week not occurring until Oct. 20, the Tribe will play five total games before Oct. 1. The last time W&M played as many games prior to Oct. 1 was in 1997.

Tribe Talk

Local fans can catch the Prudential McCordle Coach's Show with head coach Jimmie Laycock on Wednesday nights this fall, as flagship station, 92.3 FM The Tide, will air the show live from the Backfin Restaurant. The show will air starting at 7 p.m. and fans and alumni are invited to attend the event, which will take place on the deck at the Backfin. The show, which is co-hosted by the radio voices of Tribe football, Jay Colley and Bob Sheeran, will consist of Q&A's with Laycock about upcoming opponents, current events with the program and a review of the previous week's action. Questions from the audience are welcomed, or you can email them to ron@tideradio.com. The Backfin is located on 3701 Strawberry Plains Rd, Williamsburg, VA (757-565-5430).

Offensive Notes

Offensive Awakening

The Tribe offense made a strong debut against Delaware, as the unit rolled up 542 total yards and 24 of the team's 31 points, with no turnovers. The 542-yard effort stands as the most total yardage a William and Mary team has produced in a season opener during the 28-year Laycock era.

One of the unit's goals of the offseason was to improve from a 2006 season which saw the offense produce uncharacteristically low numbers, as the team averaged 19 points and 339.4 yards per game. If the early returns are any indication, the offseason hard work has paid dividends.

Just once in the last 23 games, dating back to the 2005 season opener, has the College recorded more total yardage, a 630-yard production in the win at Towson last season. In fact, last season the College reached the 400-yard mark of total offense just twice, which included a 472-yard effort vs. VMI.

Hand in Hand

One specific offensive area that was challenged for improvement in the offseason was the wide receiving corps. Despite the absence of projected senior starter Joe Nicholas, who missed the opener with an injured knee, the Tribe's receivers had a standout evening, as starting wide outs D.J. McAulay, Elliott Mack and R.J. Archer combined for 16 receptions and 273 yards. McAulay led the way with a career best 162 yards on seven receptions and a touchdown. Add in the efforts of senior tight end Drew Atchison and his six-catch, 139-yard afternoon and the early returns on the receiving outfit are positive. Atchison also brought in a 50-yard touchdown reception.

McAulay and Atchison's 100-yard performances in the season opener already equaled the total number of 100-yard receiving efforts the squad had all of last season, which both came at Towson where Archer and Nicholas had 122 and 104 yards, respectively.

CAA FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

More on McAulay

While McAulay's 162-yard receiving effort ties him for the 16th-best single game effort in school history, it stands as the best for a Tribe receiver in a season opener. The junior bested the previous record, held by Rich Musinski, who posted an 161-yard evening in the team's lid lifter of the 2001 season at UMass. Musinski went on to post one of the most remarkable single-season efforts in school history, as he finished with 1,393 yards in 12 games that season.

McAulay also established a career-high with seven receptions. The seven receptions are the most for a Tribe receiver in a game since Nicholas had eight grabs, for 121 yards, against Delaware in 2005, a span of 14 games.

Unfortunately, McAulay will not get the opportunity to follow up his standout effort this weekend at VMI, as he sustained a serious knee injury that will force him to miss the rest of the season. If there is a bright side to the incident, McAulay has yet to use a redshirt season and will have two years of football eligibility remaining.

Jake Phillips set school records for passing yards (433) and total offensive yards (462) against Delaware.

Atchison Involved

The coaching staff has made a point of concentrating some schemes that would take more advantage of the impressive physical skills that 6-7, 250-plus pound tight end Andrew Atchison brings to the table, especially in the passing game. The plan was made a reality on Thursday evening, as the senior from Charlottesville was one of the team's most effective offensive weapons. His 139-yards receiving effort stands as the best single-game performance for a Tribe tight end since Glenn Bodnar set the school's position record with a 183-yard performance vs. Colgate in 1983.

Atchison's six-receptions are the most for a Tribe tight end since the 1999 season, when current Denver Bronco, Mike Leach, brought down seven spirals for 64 yards in a 30-20 loss to James Madison.

Archer Impressive

After seeing action in all 11 games of the 2006 season as a wide receiver, sophomore R.J. Archer concentrated his entire spring, summer and the great majority of fall camp competing for the starting quarterback position. While he was the dark horse in a race that featured two other talented and game-tested players, Archer's athletic ability and strong arm kept him very much in the conversation until game week preparations began, and Jake Phillips was named the starter.

In what is a great testament to his athletic ability and willingness to compete and contribute, Archer made the switch back to wide receiver in earnest just days before Thursday's opening kickoff. With a late camp injury preventing projected senior starter Joe Nicholas from suiting up, Archer stepped right back into the starting line-up and made his eighth-straight start at wide out. Despite throwing far more passes than he caught over the last eight months, Archer didn't miss a beat as he contributed five receptions for 58 yards.

Archer has now caught at least one pass in all 12 of his career appearances and has caught more than two in eight-straight contests. He has been especially effective over his last four starts at the position. Beginning with his career high six-grab, 122-yard effort in the win at Towson last season, Archer has 19 catches for 303 yards in the span.

Archer ended the 2006 season as the team's second leading receiver, with 30 catches for 489 yards.

Record Setting Performance

After the Tribe conducted an intense and lengthy competition for the starting job at quarterback, junior Jake Phillips emerged from the battle as the week one starter and quickly produced a statement game by throwing for a school-record 433 yards and two scores against Delaware.

Phillips, who is coming off a season that saw him battle injuries and inconsistency, appeared to have complete command of the Tribe attack, completing 26 of 41 attempts (63.4 %). He saw the field well all evening, as he completed a career high 26 passes to seven different receivers. The Warm Springs, Va. native also showed good feel in the pocket, as he was able to avoid pressure and extend plays with his feet, ending the game with 42 rushing yards gained, which does not count yardage lost on sacks, and an additional rushing touchdown. Phillips' final tally of 29 yards rushing gave him 462 yards of total offense, which also established a school single-game record.

With the 433-yard effort, Phillips now has 2,760 career passing yards and sits just 328 away from breaking into the College's all-time top 10. Dave Murphy (1980-83) currently holds the 10th position with 3,087 yards.

Tailback Talk

Junior tailback DeBrian Holmes turned in a solid effort in his first career start. He toted the ball a career high 17 times for 53 yards. The 53-yard effort stands as his second-best game as a collegian, trailing only a 73-yard performance vs. Towson in '05. He also contributed two receptions for 20 yards and was solid in pass protection.

Offensive Experience

Aside from Holmes, the only other member of the Tribe offense who took the field as a first-time starter on Thursday was junior guard Michael Grant.

Taking it a step further, redshirt freshman tailback Courtland Marriner was the only player for the Tribe's offense to touch the ball for the first time in game action, as the speedster carried the ball four times for 21 yards and returned six kickoffs for 137 yards. Fellow redshirt freshman Cameron Dohse was the only other member of the Tribe's offense to see the field for the first time. Contrast this number to the College's defensive unit, which featured four first-time starters and an additional six players who were seeing their first collegiate action.

Defensive Notes

Youth Movement on Defense

A look at the Tribe's roster reveals only three seniors on the defensive side of the ball, while a glance at the two deep shows eight redshirt or true freshman and an additional eight redshirt or true sophomores. In last week's season-opener against Delaware, four defensive players made their first career start for the Tribe, while an additional six saw the playing field for the first time.

Six of those sophomores started the season-opener, including free safety Robert Livingston, tackle Sean Lissomore and corner Max Harris, who all started for the first time. The other to make his first career start was senior tackle Ryan Jones. The six players to see their first collegiate snaps were redshirt freshmen Evan Francks (LB), Michael Alvarado (DB), Bryan Jean-Pierre (DL), Derek Toon (DL) and Carl Watts (DL) and true freshman Terrell Wells (DB). Wells had one of the defensive highlights of the night, scoring on a 28-yard fumble recovery in the fourth quarter.

Secondary Overhaul

True sophomore David Caldwell also had a first of sorts as well in the opener Thursday, making his start at strong safety. Caldwell started one game at corner for the Tribe in 2006. Caldwell's new position is one of several aspects to a near total overhaul of the defensive backfield. With Livingston and Harris each making their first career starts, junior co-captain Derek Cox was the lone returning veteran in the secondary against Delaware.

Livingston was one of three for the Tribe with double-digit tackles against the Blue Hens, recording 10 total stops with five unassisted. Cox broke up a pass and collected three tackles, and Caldwell finished with five stops. Harris recorded three tackles, including an assist behind the line of scrimmage.

Going to the Well(s)

When true freshman corner Terrell Wells scooped and scored from 28-yards out on a fourth-quarter fumble recovery, it marked the Tribe's first defensive touchdown since the 2005 season when former linebacker Trevor McLaurin and safety James Miller each scored on second half interception returns at Villanova, a span of 14 games.

With the score, Wells became the first true freshman to score a touchdown for the Tribe since the 1992 season. The last William and Mary true freshman to reach the end zone was former all-conference tailback Troy Keen. Keen, who was a key reserve on the '92 squad, found paydirt six times that season and went on to have one of the finest playing careers in school history. Keen finished as the school's third all-time leading rusher (2,949 yards) and the second all-time leader in touchdowns scored (42, trailing only 'Flyin' Jack Cloud's all-time record of 43).

Return of Rutter a Welcome Sight

Junior linebacker Josh Rutter returned to the field against Delaware for the first time since missing the final eight games of 2006 with a knee injury. Rutter collected 11 total tackles against the Blue Hens and showed the hard hitting, play-making ability that enabled him to lead all league freshmen in tackles as a redshirt rookie in 2005 with 109. Rutter entered the 2006 season looking to challenge for postseason honors before sustaining a season-ending knee injury in the third game against VMI. After sitting out contact drills in the spring, Rutter returned to full-speed practice in camp and will look to regain his all-conference caliber form this fall.

Horvath Starts Senior Season Strong

Senior linebacker Ryan Horvath challenged for a starting role through fall camp and his performance in the season opener Thursday will likely keep his name in consideration. Horvath, who has primarily seen playing time on special teams the past two seasons, recorded six total tackles, including four unassisted, with one emphatic stop behind the line of scrimmage against the Blue Hens. He also forced the fourth-quarter fumble that was recovered and returned for a touchdown by Wells.

Courtland Marriner returned six kickoffs for 137 yards against Delaware and rushed for 21 yards on four attempts.

Game Notes

Pigram Tops in Tackles vs. Delaware

Junior linebacker Michael Pigram collected a game-high 13 total tackles in the loss to Delaware on Thursday. Pigram, who started all 11 games at outside linebacker last season as a true sophomore, started the 2007 campaign strong with five solo tackles, including an unassisted tackle for loss. After collecting 14 tackles and a fumble recovery as a true freshman in 2005, Pigram was third on the team last year with 69 total stops, including 38 unassisted tackles and 4.5 stops behind the line of scrimmage. The hard-hitting backer also led the team with three forced fumbles in 2006.

Cox The Leader in the Secondary

Junior Derek Cox was one of the team's most consistent contributors last season, recording 59 total tackles to rank fifth on the team. Cox led the squad with 41 unassisted stops and nine pass break-ups, while adding an interception.

Cox's 2007 debut was solid, recording six total tackles with three solo stops. He also broke up one pass in coverage.

Cox was named a team co-captain during spring practice and has been one of the key leaders for both defense and entire team through the offseason. As a junior, Cox is the most experienced player in the secondary, having played in 22 career contests.

Josh Rutter recorded 11 total tackles in his return as the team's starting middle linebacker.

Tribe Quick Hitters from Delaware Game

- Sophomore place-kicker Brian Pate connected on his first career field goal attempt vs. Delaware, a 20-yarder. He finished 1-for-2 on field goals and 4-for-4 on point-after attempts.
- Sophomore punter David Miller saw his first collegiate action Thursday as well, averaging 42.0 yards on two punts, including a long of 44 yards.
- Quarterback Jake Phillips set single-game records for passing yards (433) and total offense (462) against Delaware, surpassing the previous records of 426 passing yards and 454 yards of total offense held by David Corley in the same game against Northeastern in 2000.
- Wide receiver D.J. McAulay and tight end Drew Atchison each recorded career highs in receiving yards with 162 and 139, respectively. The pair each caught a touchdown pass from Phillips as well.
- Sophomores Robert Livingston collected 10 total tackles in his first collegiate start.
- Sophomore David Caldwell made his first start at strong safety, after starting one game at corner last year.
- True freshman Terrell Wells returned a fumble 28-yards for a touchdown in his collegiate debut, becoming the first Tribe true freshman to score a touchdown since Troy Keen in 1992.
- Sophomore defensive tackle Sean Lissemore recorded the team's only quarterback sack in his first career start.

Comments From Monday's CAA Football Coaches Conference Call:

Q: Give us your general thoughts on the team's performance vs. Delaware:

A: As I look back on it, I think the play of [junior quarterback] Jake Phillips, and the offense in general, was kind of lost in the game. I was very disappointed in losing the game and very disappointed in the amount of points we allowed – but it wasn't like Delaware didn't earn [the points]. They were pretty good.

Offensively, we played pretty well. We didn't take advantage of some opportunities in the red zone, but 542 yards and 433 of it throwing, I thought was pretty good for our opening game, so far as execution. I think our performance was kind of lost in the shuffle with all the yards and points [seven touchdowns] that Omar Cuff got.

Q: Talk a little more about Phillips' performance. Is it safe to say he's your starter moving forward?:

A: There is no question at all Jake is our starter. We were kind of forced to take one of the other quarterbacks, [sophomore] R.J. Archer and move him in less than a week to receiver because we didn't know whether we'd get [senior starting WR] Joe Nicholas back [from a pre-season knee injury]. So we moved R.J. back to wide out [a position he started at last season for the final eight games]. Jake will be our starting quarterback [against VMI]. He played very well. He was very much in control. I thought his decision making was excellent. He improved on his scrambling technique and made plays when [the blocking] broke down. I think the biggest [improvement] was his ability to make the proper decisions.

Q: Touching on some of his targets, [senior] Drew Atchison had 139 yards receiving out of the tight end spot. Talk a little bit about his performance:

A: Drew has to be a big part of our passing game because of his size [6-7, 250-plus pound] and catching ability. I think he can play better than he did against Delaware, and he played pretty well. But he had a couple more opportunities to make plays that he missed. He's going to be a big part of our offense and he'll continue to improve. [Thursday] was his first game as a true starter, so hopefully he'll continue to get better.

Q: Coach, you travel to VMI this weekend. What have you seen from Coach Reid's team at VMI thus far?:

A: Well, we know VMI always plays hard, especially [at home]. I've been here enough years to know how difficult a place it is to play when you go to Lexington with the corps and everyone behind them. It's a heck of an environment. We've got to make a quick turnaround and get ready for that option offense. It's something we don't see very often and, again, we have a very young defense. After what we saw Thursday night against Delaware, it's going to be tough for them to regroup, get better, and focus in on the option.

Q: We talked a little bit about Joe Nicholas missing last week. Any update to his injury or any injuries, in general, to report for your team?:

A: Talking about Joe first, I don't know if he'll be back this week [for VMI]. We're kind of taking [the injury] day-by-day. He has not practiced with us for a while. He's getting better. We didn't practice yesterday, and we'll go tonight and see how he moves. Tomorrow we'll see how he moves and determine if he's getting any better.

As for other injuries, the big one we've got is [junior WR] D.J. McAulay, who is out for the year. He sustained a knee injury Thursday night against Delaware and the MRI confirmed that it was a MCL. It's going to require surgery, so he's going to be gone for the season. [His injury] is really a shame because D.J. had, I thought, the best game of his career Thursday night against Delaware. He really started coming into his own and was playing well. We're going to really miss him.

Q: Talk a little about how you approach the opening game of the season being a conference game. And then how do you rebound from such a tough outcome?:

A: The most important game is the next game. That's the approach that I think most coaches would take. We opened up with a really good opponent Thursday night. Whether it was conference or non-conference, they were very good and I thought their offensive line, their running back were both very good. [Delaware] controlled the line of scrimmage and that was the difference in the game. That and our inability to control them on some screen passes. We played a very good team in our first game. Now we've got to get ready and look at this one as the most important game.

In the Spotlight

Ryan Jones, Senior, Defensive Tackle

Where are you from?:

About 20 minutes outside of Blacksburg, Va., from a little community called McCoy. It used to be coal mining community down by the river.

What brought you to William and Mary?:

A chance to play football and good academics.

Being a senior, who walked onto the program, you had to work extremely hard to earn the scholarship and playing time you have had in your time here. How did it feel for you to be able to walk out there on Thursday night, in front of a packed house, and make your first career start?:

It was amazing. A lot of hard work paid off. I was really excited.

What do you think was the hardest part of being a walk-on and earning your stripes?:

Well, first off, I felt good about the opportunity the staff gave me to play here. I loved the fact that they did set aside scholarships every year for people who would come and just work hard – work their way to earn a scholarship. I mean not everyone's ready for one right out of high school. People develop at different rates. That was a huge plus that I was given a chance to earn one even after I didn't get one initially."

Was there ever a time here in your five years that you felt like you weren't going to make it?:

Not really. Football has always been really important. I wasn't always sure how much I'd actually get to play here. But it was important to me to be a part of the team and learning from being around the game at this level. I want to coach some day, so the more information I can gather from coaches around me and players and situations, the better. College football is a very unique experience and is something many people never get to experience. I always knew I'd stick it out, but I didn't know how it'd end up.

What's your major?:

I'm an economics major and a math minor.

What are your general future plans?:

Well, I got engaged after the game on Thursday night. So next summer, there will probably be a wedding. I'd like to move back to the Blacksburg area, whether it be Roanoke or somewhere around there. I'm trying to move into investment banking and eventually getting into coaching as soon I can. I worked this summer with Chesapeake Bank as a teller and through some networking met some people. This spring, I'll probably have an internship with the Chesapeake investment group.

That must of have been a very big evening for you. Who did you ask and how did you propose?:

Cassidy Harris. She's a former track and field athlete from William and Mary. She graduated two years ago. After the game I had one of my roommates and his girlfriend help me and set up a little situation on the Crim Dell Bridge for me. So after the game, we were walking to my car and took a little bypass and stopped off there. I will never forget that night – the only way it could have been more memorable is if we would have won.

Getting engaged on the Crim Dell Bridge is very old school William and Mary.:

Yes. We had never walked across it together before Thursday night.

Did your William and Mary connections play a part helping you get a job?:

I think they probably did. At my year end meeting with Coach Laycock this past spring, I told him I was looking at banks for jobs. I had looked at a few and he suggested I go to the people at Chesapeake. I went there that day and got a job.

What was the hardest class you've taken at William and Mary?:

Econometrics . . . It got into the whys and hows certain economic trends are started.

What was the last book you've read?:

Measure of a Man, an autobiography of Sidney Poitier. It was very interesting to see how he came up through the world, dealing with the issues of his time. He dealt with some very difficult issues to get to be the successful person he is today.

What do you do for fun, when you have a day off?:

I enjoy hunting and fishing. I will go and do some trap shooting, when possible. But, another, newer interest is photography. I got a camera last year and I've really gotten into taking scenic photography. I'll take pictures of birds and other animals.

What is the most interesting summer job you've ever had?:

Well, prior to this summer, when I stayed here for summer workouts, I've gone home and worked construction jobs. I've been a member of a welding crew and the other I had was working with an outfit that poured concrete as part of industrial projects. Both of those jobs made me realize that I wasn't really interested in making a living in construction.

Delaware 49, William and Mary 31

Aug. 30 | Williamsburg, Va. | Zable Stadium | 7:30 p.m.

WILLIAMSBURG (8/30/07) -- Omar Cuff tied a NCAA FCS record with seven touchdowns, including six rushing, to lead the 19th-ranked Blue Hens past W&M, 49-31, in the inaugural CAA Football game at Zable Stadium.

Despite a school-record 433 passing yards from Tribe quarterback Jake Phillips, the Delaware stole the show with a powerful offensive attack. Cuff ran for a career-high 244 yards and school-record six touchdowns on 30 attempts and also set a school record with seven total touchdowns, which included a 19-yard scoring catch from Joe Flacco.

Flacco completed 19 of 23 attempts for 202 yards with the one scoring pass to Cuff.

Cuff's six rushing touchdowns, and seven overall, were both conference records.

Phillips connected on 26 of 41 attempts with two touchdowns, surpassing the previous school record of 426 passing yards set by David Corley, Jr. against Northeastern in 2000.

D.J. McAulay finished with seven receptions for a career-high 162 yards and a touchdown, and tight Drew Atchison finished with six catches for a career-best 139 yards and a score.

DeBrian Holmes rushed for 53 yards, and Phillips added 29 yards rushing and a touchdown. W&M finished with 542 total yards of offense.

Terrell Wells scored on a 28-yard fumble return for the Tribe in the fourth.
