TRIBE FOOTBALL

- Seven Conference Titles (Yankee/A-10/CAA, '04, '01, '96; Southern, '70, '66, '47, '42)
- Seven FCS Playoff Berths ('04, '01, '96, '93, '90, '89, '86)
- Every class since 1996 has left W&M with at least one conference championship ring
- Every class since 1986 has made at least one playoff appearance
- 135 all-conference awards since 1993
- 100% graduation rates in '04, '06 and '07
- 17 all-time Academic All-Americans and 55 academic all-conference selections since 1993
- 31 All-Americans under Head Coach Jimmye Laycock
- One Walter Payton Award winner (Lang Campbell, '04)
- 105-63 (.625) against FCS opponents since 1993
- Third-best winning percentage (.582) in conference history
- 191-111-6 (.630) all-time winning percentage at Zable Stadium
- 516 all-time victories, ranking in the top 30 among all FCS teams
- Seven undefeated regular seasons at Zable Stadium
- School records for final ranking (No. 3) and victories (11) in 2004

One of the most decorated players in Tribe Football history, Lang Campbell is one of 31 players to earn All-America honors under Head Coach Jimmye Laycock.

Chuck Albertson (middle) was named the 1966 Southern Conference Athlete of the Year after helping the Tribe earn the league title.

The 2004 Tribe squad won a school-record 11 games, advanced to the national semifinal game and finished the season with a final ranking of No. 3.

In addition to winning seven conference titles in the program's history, every class since 1996 has earned at least one conference championship ring.

Senior captain Derek Cox was one of four players who earned All-CAA honors in 2007. Since 1993, W&M players have garnered 135 all-conference awards.

A MESSAGE FROM HEAD COACH JIMMYE LAYCOCK

In a program that has more than 110 years of tradition, there is no more exciting time to be involved with William and Mary football than the present. Generations of Tribe players have benefited from receiving one of the world's best educations, while also excelling on the playing field. The successes of the coaches and players who have come before have made it possible for all future generations of William and Mary athletes to enjoy facilities that are now equal to the greatness of the program's tradition. In the last four years, the school's commitment to football has been unparalleled, as we have installed a new FieldTurf playing surface, a state-of-the-art scoreboard and, of course, the new $11 million football complex. These additions will allow Tribe players to maximize their development in a first-class environment using the most modern technology available.

There is no doubt that our great history has positioned the program for an even brighter future. As ever, we are looking for student-athletes who want the opportunity to be a part of a championship football program and value the educational experience that will pay dividends for a lifetime.

Go Tribe!

EXCEPTIONAL PEOPLE EXCEPTIONAL PLACE

When one thinks of the College of William and Mary, the first thought might be of the history of the institution -- or perhaps its place in American history.

Or, possibly those who attended might think back to their good times, the unforgettable campus or their focus of study. But none of those things are what makes a place of learning great. Though the College has them all -- it is the quality of the graduate and the ability to excel in whichever field of work or study that he or she pursues.

For Tribe Football, the same principles apply, as many former football players have gone on to have successful careers in the business world, professional sports and a number of other areas.

Among the notables is Mike Tomlin ('95), who was named the head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers on January 22, 2007. J.D. Gibbs ('92) is the team president of the Joe Gibbs Racing organization, while Tom Dexter ('92), the senior vice president of Lehman Brothers, is one of a number of former players to succeed in business.

It was Thomas Jefferson, Class of 1762, who said of education so eloquently: "Above all things I hope the education of the common people will be attended to, convinced that on their good sense we may rely with the most security for the preservation of a due degree of liberty."

This embodies exactly what his alma mater has been striving to do for more than 300 years of its proud history.

Understandably, William and Mary and Tribe Football have more than their fair share of the best and brightest of America to claim as its own.

Here, a few of the program's finest alums reflect on their time at the College and what the Tribe Football experience meant to them.

DARREN SHARPER ('97)
FOUR-TIME PRO BOWL SELECTION
MINNESOTA VIKINGS

"Being on campus you always felt like you were part of something bigger. The history and the prestige of William and Mary makes you proud to be a part of the school. The lessons learned in the classroom and out of it continue to be a part of my life to this day."

MIKE TOMLIN ('95), CAPTAIN 1994
HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
PITTSBURGH STEELERS

"The lessons you learn in athletics are life lessons. You learn how to deal with success. You learn how to deal with failure. Expectations are high at William and Mary and there's nothing wrong with that, you've got to learn to embrace them. I think that's why so many young people that come through this university and this athletic department are successful. On a day-to-day basis, there are exceptional young people walking around this place and it's a proving ground. It's a special place."

TOM DEXTER ('91), CAPTAIN 1991
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT
LEHMAN BROTHERS

"My William and Mary experience was defined by the unique quality of the people, both coaches and players. The football program under coach Laycock's leadership sets a high expectation level for us as students, athletes and men. Based on integrity, accountability and preparation, the program has produced countless leaders and continues to develop outstanding people. I consider it a privilege and a blessing to be part of the William and Mary Football family."

J.D. GIBBS ('92)
TEAM PRESIDENT
JOE GIBBS RACING

"Everyday I face a wide variety of issues, from both a competitive and business standpoint. As the Team President of Joe Gibbs Racing, I think my time as a student-athlete at the College of William and Mary uniquely prepared me for both sets of challenges in running a championship caliber company. The life-lessons I gained as a member of the football program have translated directly to helping me build a premier racing team. The combination of the on-field trials and world class education the College provided equally prepared me to enter boardrooms and build business relationships."

KENDRICK ASHTON, JR. ('98)
PERELLA WEINBERG PARTNERS LP

"Accepting a football scholarship from the College of William and Mary was the realization of a lifelong dream: achieving the opportunity to play highly competitive football at one of the nation's most prestigious universities. I understood that the rigor and talent present in every nook and cranny of the College would stretch and refine my every talent. But what I didn't appreciate was that the College is far more than simply ancient chapels, rigorous scholarship and great athletics. It is a community, a family -- one that embraced a promising young boy from Southeast Washington, D.C. and helped him become a man. And for that I am eternally grateful."

STORIED HISTORY

"Flyin' Jack Cloud
Three-Time All-American

The First Team

In the fall of 1893, Charles L. Hepburn brought together the first official football team at W&M, the College's first organized athletic team.

The 1893 team played three games, starting with the first contest in school history against a YMCA team from Norfolk.

From The Beginning

W&M is one of only 20 FCS schools to play 1,000, or more, games in college football history. Outside of the Ivy League schools, only 13 have played 1,000, or more.

W&M ranks inside the top 30 for all-time victories (515) and is one of four teams in the current CAA Football Conference with 500, or more.

Championships

In 1942, W&M won its first Southern Conference Championship. W&M would add Southern titles in 1947, 1966 and 1970.

After joining what is now the CAA Football Conference in 1993, W&M has won conference championships three times. The Tribe captured league titles in 1996, 2001 and 2004.

Bowl Games

W&M would earn bowl bids in back-to-back years in 1947 and 1948, with the latter being a 20-0 win over Oklahoma State in the Delta Bowl.

In 1947, W&M faced Arkansas in the Dixie Bowl, and in 1970, W&M battled Toledo in the Tangerine Bowl.

Remember When?

Flyin' Jack Cloud led W&M to one of the nation's biggest upsets in 1947, a 7-7 tie against North Carolina, and wins over N.C. State, Virginia Tech and Arkansas.

W&M's 1967 victory over Navy ranks as one of the biggest upsets in college football history. When the NCAA celebrated the first 100 years of college football, it listed the 10 greatest upsets in history. One of them was William and Mary 27, Navy 16, Oct. 21, 1967.

(Right) The 1942 squad posted a 9-1-1 record and concluded the season with a 14-7 victory at Oklahoma en route to W&M's second Southern Conference title.

(Left) Senior co-captains Lang Campbell and Wade Harrell led the Tribe to the national semifinal game in 2004. The Tribe earned a school-record 11 wins that season and claimed the Atlantic 10 title.

(Above) Head Coach Lou Holtz and his staff, which included assistant Bobby Ross, led the Tribe to the 1970 Southern Conference title.

(Above) A two-time All-American at W&M, Steve Christie had a successful NFL career.

Three-time All-American Darren Sharper has earned four NFL Pro Bowl selections with the Green Bay Packers and Minnesota Vikings.

(Above) All-American Mark Kelso went on to have a successful career in the NFL with the Buffalo Bills.

NFL Hall-of-Famer Marv Levy led W&M to the 1966 Southern Conference Championship.

Storied Rivalries

The W&M-Richmond rivalry is the fourth-most played series in FCS history, trailing only Lafayette-Lehigh (142), Yale-Princeton (129) and Yale-Harvard (123).

The W&M-UR and W&M-VMI match-ups are both among the nine current longest uninterrupted running FCS rivalries in the nation.

Legendary Coaches

In 1964, current NFL Hall-of-Famer Marv Levy took over and later directed W&M to one of the school's biggest victories, the 27-16 win over Navy in 1967.

Lou Holtz succeeded Levy as head coach and guided W&M to a berth in the Tangerine Bowl in 1970. Bobby Ross was an assistant on Holtz's 1970 Southern Conference Championship team.

All-Americans

Beginning with Hap Halligan in 1930, Buster Ramsey in 1942 and Jack Cloud in 1946, and ranging to Rich Musinski in 2003 and Lang Campbell in 2004, W&M boasts a long and impressive list of All-Americans.

The program has produced more than 60 all-time All-Americans, including 31 under current head coach Jimmie Laycock.

Laycock Era

Laycock returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1980 and has guided the program through an unprecedented run of success that stretches to present day.

W&M has posted 18 winning seasons, made seven playoff appearances and nine postseason appearances in total, while rewriting nearly the entire football record book.

In 2004, the program reached new heights, advancing to the national semifinals for the first time, recording a school-record 11 wins and finishing with an all-time high No. 3 final ranking.

FACILITY ENHANCEMENT

THE JIMMYE LAYCOCK FOOTBALL CENTER

The William and Mary Athletics Department has recently taken major steps in upgrading the football program's facilities. Primarily through the generosity of private donors, current and future Tribe football players will enjoy some of the finest modern day facilities and amenities in the nation.

This past June, W&M officially dedicated the new $11 million, 30,000-square foot Jimmye Laycock Football Center, which is located at the northwest corner of Zable Stadium. Funded exclusively through private gifts, the facility provides a new home for meeting rooms, coaches' offices, team and coaches' lockers, an athletic training room, equipment storage areas and administrative support areas.

As part of the Laycock Center project, the Joseph Montgomery Practice Complex was also redone with new natural grass Bermuda sod.

The construction of the Laycock Center is just the most recent addition to what has been an incredible transformation of Tribe football facilities. Prior to the 2007 season, W&M added a state-of-the-art scoreboard with video replay capabilities. The new scoreboard is located in the same area as the previous scoreboard and is supported by brick columns that compliment the campus surroundings.

In 2006, FieldTurf Pro, a new top-of-the-line artificial playing surface that is featured in more than 20 NFL stadiums, was installed. During the previous season, a state-of-the-art lighting system was added to accommodate night games.

(Above) A video scoreboard was added to Zable Stadium prior to the 2007 season. The state-of-the-art scoreboard features video replay capabilities and is supported with brick columns.

(Below) A new, natural Bermuda grass sod surface was installed on the Montgomery Practice Complex in June 2008.

ZABLE STADIUM

THROUGH THE YEARS

1906-07

The first Cary Field is built, near the current location of Blow Memorial Hall.

LATE 1920s

Cary Field is moved farther west on campus, approximately to the current site of the Bryan residence complex.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1935

The "New" Cary Field opens at the stadium's current location with a wooden baseball-style bleacher capacity of 10,000. Although the stadium is not fully constructed, W&M and Virginia battle to a scoreless tie. Later that season, W&M records its first victory in the stadium, a 44-0 decision over Guilford.

NOVEMBER 5, 1949

An estimated crowd of more than 19,000 packs the Cary Field Stadium to witness North Carolina earn a hard-fought, 20-14, victory over W&M. It was the College's only loss at Cary Field that season.

1979

A $1 million renovation project at Cary Field replaces the wooden seats, repairs masonry, renovates locker rooms and provides the first enclosed press box.

NOVEMBER 16, 1985

An official Homecoming crowd of 18,054 watches the Tribe defeat Richmond, 28-17, in the season finale, completing the first undefeated season at Cary Field under Jimmie Laycock.

NOVEMBER 29, 1986

W&M hosts Delaware in the first NCAA Playoff game at Cary Field, falling 51-17.

NOVEMBER 3, 1990

The stadium at Cary Field is officially dedicated, Walter J. Zable Stadium, before the Homecoming game against Furman.

SEPTEMBER 25, 1993

W&M defeats Harvard, 45-17, on the 100th anniversary of the College's first football game.

SUMMER 2003

Open-air sky boxes are added above the grandstands in the North end zone.

DECEMBER 10, 2004

The College hosts state-rival James Madison in the NCAA Semifinals in the first night game at Zable Stadium. Temporary lighting was brought in to accommodate a national Friday-night broadcast of the sold out contest on ESPN2.

JUNE 17, 2005

The W&M Athletics Department announces it received $650,000 in anonymous gifts for the installation of permanent lights at Zable Stadium. The lights are installed later in the summer and debut on Nov. 5, when the Tribe hosts James Madison in the first regular season night game at Zable Stadium.

SUMMER 2006

The College completes an $840,000 project to replace Cary Field's natural grass playing surface with a brand new, top-of-the-line artificial surface, FieldTurf Pro, which is used in more than 20 NFL stadiums.

JUNE 25, 2007

W&M announces a new state-of-the-art scoreboard with video replay capabilities will be installed in time for the 2007 season. The scoreboard, financed through private donations at a cost of approximately $800,000, is 53'-3" wide x 27'-5" high. Located in the same area as the old scoreboard, it is supported by brick columns that compliment the campus surroundings.

JUNE 21, 2008

W&M officially dedicates the Jimmie Laycock Football Center, located at the northwest corner of the stadium. The $11 million, 30,000-square foot structure provides a state-of-the-art home for meeting rooms, coaches' offices, team and coaches' lockers, an athletic training room, equipment storage areas and administrative support areas.

The aerial shot above shows a game at Cary Field in 1935, the inaugural season in the current stadium. W&M began playing in the stadium before construction was complete, as shown in the photo.

(Below) More than 19,000 fans packed Cary Field on Nov. 5, 1949 to watch the College battle the University of North Carolina.

(Left) With Walter Zable ('37) and wife Betty ('40) on hand, former president Paul Verkuil announced the dedication of Zable Stadium on Nov. 3, 1990.

(Right) A sellout crowd watched W&M and JMU battle in a NCAA Semifinal contest in 2004. Temporary lights were brought in to accommodate a national television broadcast on ESPN2. Permanent lighting was installed in 2005, while a video scoreboard was added in 2007.

STRENGTH TRAINING

JOSEPH W. MONTGOMERY STRENGTH TRAINING CENTER

The Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center, located in the lower level of Kaplan Arena, was designed by John Sauer in 1995. The state-of-the-art center was made possible through the generosity of Joseph W. Montgomery, '74.

Montgomery earned All-Southern Conference honors as a junior and repeated as a senior when he captained the Tribe. He also earned All-ECAC honors that year and Third-Team All-America honors.

Overview

- 16,000 lbs. of free weights
- 7,500 lbs. of dumbbells
- 6,000 lbs. of bumper plates
- 20 dynamax medicine balls
- 18 custom Olympic platforms
- 18 multi-purpose power racks
- 10 dumbbell benches
- Six seated rows
- Six glute-ham benches
- Four abdominal benches
- Six dip bars
- Two power squats
- Two ground-based jammers
- Full-equipped plyometric area
- Six lat pulldowns
- 5,500 square feet of space

JOHN A. STEWART WINTER WARRIORS

The Winter Warrior Award is given annually to the player who best exemplifies the qualities of dedication, effort and achievement that defined Stewart's career. Award winners are judged on their improvements both on the field and in the offseason training program.

LINKENAUER ATHLETIC TRAINING SUITE

William and Mary's sports medicine department enhanced its facilities recently with the addition of the Mont M. Linkenauer PT, ATC, Athletic Training Suite, which is located in the lower level of the Jimmye Laycock Football Center.

The Linkenauer Athletic Training Suite, which supplements the department's primary facilities in W&M Hall, is a state-of-the-art facility that encompasses approximately 3,900 square feet.

Associate A.D. of Internal Affairs Steve Cole and Head Football Athletic Trainer Andy Carter worked closely with the architects to design the facility, which is unrivaled in the CAA Football Conference and includes features that can benefit all Tribe student-athletes.

One of the highlights of the new facility is a HydroWorx aquatic therapy pool, the same system used by Dr. James Andrews, renowned orthopedic surgeon, the University of Texas, Navy Seals, Pittsburgh Steelers, San Antonio Spurs and Manchester United.

The Linkenauer Athletic Training Suite is another piece of the overall facilities enhancement, which continues to bring the Tribe's facilities to an elite level.

"The Linkenauer Athletic Training Suite will allow the Sports Medicine Department to keep pace with the cutting edge practices and treatments of athletic health care and rehabilitation," Cole said.

Overview

- 3,900 square feet
- Aquatic therapy pool with underwater treadmill and multiple workstations
- Hot and cold whirlpools
- Spacious treatment and rehabilitation area with state-of-the-art therapeutic modalities
- Private physician examination room
- Olympic platform for strength training progression for injured athletes
- Four-station taping area
- Cardiovascular exercise equipment

SPORTS MEDICINE EDUCATION

Throughout the year the College hosts a wide range of sports medicine programs that draws participants from across the nation:

- The ACES Preparatory Workshop is designed to prepare students to take the Board of Certification (BOC) exam to become certified athletic trainers. Hosted at institutions across the country, the ACES Workshop identifies participants' strengths and weaknesses and focuses their study into their weaker content areas.
- The Cramer Sports Medicine Workshop at William and Mary offers high school students a four-day introduction to the field of sports medicine. Classroom instruction on emergency procedures, injury recognition, and basic rehabilitation is mixed with hands-on lab activities including taping and wrapping and CPR.
- The Division of Sports Medicine serves as the sports medicine rotation site for the Riverside Family Medicine Residency Program. Second and third-year residents come to William and Mary to work with our staff and enhance their skills in orthopedic examination, sports injury management and physical therapy referral.
- William and Mary is a clinical site for the Old Dominion University Post Professional Graduate Athletic Training Education Program. Two students from Old Dominion complete their two-year clinical assignments as graduate assistants under the direction of our staff.

TRIBE EQUIPMENT

The Tribe's new state-of-the-art locker room in the Jimmie Laycock Football Center encompasses approximately 4,200 square feet with 102 lockers and two flat-screen HD TVs.

The concept and design of the new GearBoss line of lockers were the product of collaboration between the W&M staff and the Wenger Corporation. The result delivered one of the most unique team room lockers in the country.

The new units are constructed of antimicrobial laminates and surfaces that improve room sanitation. The lockers also feature an airflow system for the functional drying of helmets and shoulder pads, as well as shoes and gloves. For security, the lockers feature a push-button locking mechanism with personal unlocking number codes. Each locker also features a power outlet for charging personal computers and communication devices. At the top of each locker, a backlit nameplate identifies each player's personal unit.

The lockers are completely modular for easy adaptation and a continued new look and feature bolt-through construction for commercial-grade durability.

The Tribe's new 4,200-square foot locker room in the Laycock Center features 102 state-of-the-art lockers fully equipped with an airflow system, power outlets, nameplates and push-button locking systems. The area also features two flat-screen HD TVs, a breakout meeting space and a full bathroom/shower area with a drink station.

ALL-CAA QUARTERBACK

2008 SEASON OUTLOOK

If the preseason selection of a fifth-place finish in the ultra-competitive Colonial Athletic Association's Southern Division is any indication, some outside the William and Mary program see modest potential in the 2008 Tribe. But, those within the College's squad, especially its senior class, are bringing an entirely different set of expectations to the table for the coming season. Coming off a pair of difficult campaigns, the team's leadership has approached the off-season with a sense of urgency and an eye towards reestablishing the program's place among the league's elite.

With each side of the ball returning nine starters, the squad will be long on experience, and the healthy return of several key contributors will only add to the depth in the coming season. The development of young talent has always been a strength of Tribe Head Coach Jimmy Laycock, who enters his 29th season at the helm. He and his staff have never had better resources to accomplish the task than the present, as the team opened a state-of-the-art, 30,000-square foot football complex this spring. The infusion of this facility will allow the squad unprecedented access to the latest teaching technologies in vastly improved meeting environments. Look for this to have both an immediate and lasting impact in all phases of the program.

All discussions of the team's offense begin with returning all-conference quarterback Jake Phillips, who comes into the year as one of the league's most experienced players. There is no doubt Phillips has the talent to challenge for national honors, and his supporting cast, led by fellow returning all-conference talent wide receiver Elliott Mack, will only enhance his effectiveness. Phillips and Mack were two constants in an attack that averaged more than 29 points and nearly 400 yards of total offense in 2007. The squad will look to continue an upward trend that saw it improve radically over the 2006 unit (which produced 'just' 19.0 points a game and 339.4 yds/contest). Overall, the offense returns six of its top seven pass catchers from a season ago, as Mack was tops on the squad in both receptions (46) and receiving yards (849). Sophomore tailback Courtland Marriner was the top rusher from a season ago (518 yards on 115 attempts) and leads a ground game that returns all but 207 yards of the 1,299 total rushing yards from 2007.

With the wealth of skill positions coming back to the fold, much of the attention will fall on the team's offensive front to provide the power behind what promises to be an electric Tribe attack. A solid, experienced foundation is in place between the tackles, as both guards (Michael Grant and C.J. Muse) and the center (Luke Hiteshew) return from last season. The team will turn to youth on the bookends, as it will see talented redshirt freshman Jake Marcey and rising sophomore Keith Hill be the top challengers for starting duties.

The defense is in a similar scenario as the offense, as a pair of key seniors in all-conference cornerback Derek Cox and middle linebacker Josh Rutter will be crucial to the team's success. The pair will team with second-year Tribe defensive coordinator Bob Shoop to form the leadership group of the still young unit.

With one full-season in the program under his belt, Shoop and his defensive charges showed consistent improvement during the spring drills session, including a nearly dominating performance in the spring game. All signs are pointing toward a big upgrade from the unit that surrendered 427 total points in 2007. Much of the defensive unit's struggles a season ago could be attributed to growing pains, as the College's final defensive two-deep had 12 first or second-year players. Cox is the cornerstone of a secondary that returns all four starters. He ended his junior campaign with 51 total tackles and three interceptions.

Overall, the unit returns its top nine tacklers from last season, including junior safety David Caldwell, who led the defense with 107 total tackles (61 solo) and had 5.5 tackles for losses. Fellow junior defensive end Adrian Tracy had team-highs in both sacks (three) and total tackles for loss (9.5) in 2007 and should challenge for national honors this fall. Rutter is another post-season honors candidate, as he was the team's second-leading tackler last fall with 95 stops despite playing somewhat limited by a 2007 off-season surgery. He will enter the fall in arguably the best shape of his career and will be counted on to be the unit's play maker. Adding to the optimism has been the stellar spring play of rising junior defensive end C.J. Herbert. Also bolstering hopes has been the spring play of talented young defensive end Ravi Pradhanang, who would have challenged for game-action as a true freshman last season, if not slowed by injury.

Last season the College faced a total of six ranked opponents in its 11-game regular season, including four straight to end the season. The brutal finish was the first time W&M squared off against four-straight ranked opponents since first joining its current league affiliation in 1993. The College played one of the most-difficult schedules, in terms of overall combined opponent's winning percentage (.604). The slate for 2008 will bring more of the same, in terms of challenges, as the CAA figures to remain as nation's premier Football Championship Series conference. Last year the league produced a record five-playoff teams, which accounted for more than 30 percent of the 16-team championship field. Four of those squads are on the Tribe's schedule for the coming season, with only one (Richmond) making an appearance in Williamsburg. Aside from the daunting league slate, the College will once again face a Football Bowl Series opponent, as it will kick off its season with a visit to North Carolina State. The game will mark the 10th-straight season in which the Tribe has faced an FBS opponent and will be the second time in the same span the College has traveled to Raliegh to face the Wolfpack (1999 being the other appearance).

While the opposition will be challenging, one strong positive for the coming season is the Tribe will be playing six games in the friendly confines of Zable

Stadium. It will mark the first time since 1988 William and Mary has hosted as many home contests. The College ended the 2007 season averaging, 10,699 fans per contest, which was the highest figure for the program since the 1997 season (when the College readjusted its capacity figure for Zable from 15,000 to 13,279 – then reduced further to its current 12,259). It was the second consecutive year the squad had reset its record under the new configuration.

The following is a brief look at the College's 2008 squad, by position:

QUARTERBACK

With Phillips coming off a career year in 2007, which saw him throw for 2,801 yards and 19 touchdowns, the quarterback position is an unquestioned strength for the College. The Tribe has a well documented great history of producing exceptional players at the position and Phillips is well on his way to creating his own legacy. Last season, he earned the 18th all-conference honor for the position since Laycock took over the program in 1980 and is poised to challenge for first-team accolades in 2008.

He comes into the fall with 22 career starts in 28 appearances and is in the school's top 10 in nearly every major career passing category, including passing yards (7th, 5128 yards) and touchdown passes (7th, 36). His 2801 passing yards is the league's leading returning total, while his 19 touchdown passes is the second-highest among returning CAA quarterbacks. His average of 272.1 yards a game is also the league's top returning figure from a season ago.

A tireless worker who is one of four team-elected captains and the recipient of the John A. Stewart Winter Warrior Award, Phillips has the athletic ability to challenge defenses with either his legs or arm. His veteran savvy and decision making ability will be an essential part of the team's successes this season.

Should Phillips be dealt a set-back, there is able help waiting just off the wings, as athletic junior R.J. Archer has emerged as the top reserve. Archer has served as one of the team's top receivers the past two seasons and finished last year with 39 catches for 451 yards. At 6-2, 218 pounds, Archer brings good size to the position, which he has spent the past three springs taking snaps. The move was an especially selfless one for the Charlottesville, Va., native, as he would have certainly been in the mix as a starter at wide out. But, his move gives the staff more options at the position and will groom him to challenge for the outright starting duties in his senior season. His spring was solid, as he showed an outstanding arm and good feel for the offense.

D.J. MCAULAY, WR
ALL-CAA CANDIDATE

RUNNING BACK

First-year running backs coach David Corley, Jr., knows a thing or two about the Tribe offense, as he was the school's last four-year starter at quarterback and earned post-season honors in four consecutive seasons. His first fall as a coach should be an interesting one, as he will be overseeing a great competition for reps at the running back position between a host of talented players.

The conversation starts with returning 2007 starter, senior DeBrihan Holmes, who missed the majority of his junior season with an ankle injury. Holmes is the group's lone senior leader and will be counted on to be vocal force, both in the film room and on the playing field. His healthy return is expected for the fall and will make him the team's most complete back, as he is solid in all phases of the game. He has appeared in 25 career games and rushed for 720 yards on just 149 attempts (an average of 4.9 yards a carry). He has reliable hands and is efficient with his pass protections. The time he has missed on the playing field has been usefully spent increasing his size and strength and he will enter the year at a career-high 200 pounds.

While Holmes is currently the most complete back, sophomore Courtland Marriner is clearly the most fleet afoot and made great strides in his all-around game as the starter over the final seven games of last season. He ended the year with a team-high 518 rushing yards and averaged 4.5 yards a carry over 115 attempts. His rushing total was the second-highest mark of any freshman rusher in the conference last season, and his career-best 100m time of 10.30 marks him as one of the CAA's most explosive players. Marriner steadily improved his all-around abilities this spring, and look for him to have an increased role in passing situations this fall.

Standing at 6-1, 234-pounds, sophomore Terrence Riggins has a blend of size and speed unique to the Tribe backfield. There is no question he has the physical ability to make a significant contribution in 2007; it will only be a matter of how many touches the staff is able to bring his way. He made a tremendous personal sacrifice at the end of last season by eschewing his redshirt year during the ninth week of the season to provide much needed depth at a position that had been depleted by injury. While handling the ball just 19 times during the three games, he did produce a pair of touchdowns and gained valuable experience. As he continues to grow in confidence and gains more familiarity with the Tribe attack, he has the potential to be a game-changing back.

With the wealth of talent at the position, look for long-time Tribe offensive coordinator Zbig Kepa to find a variety of creative ways to create opportunities for some combination of the three to be on the field at the same time.

The depth at the position is increased even more by the steady presence of yet another sophomore, Thomas Schonder. He proved to be invaluable in a reserve role last year by contributing 154 yards on 35 attempts. He picked an unlikely opponent to have a career-best afternoon against when he rushed for a team-best 42 yards against Virginia Tech. A sure-handed receiver out of the backfield, Schonder was also called on to return kicks and averaged a solid 22.9 yards over 17 attempts. In the situations where the team will be featuring a fullback, the most likely option will be sophomore Jimmy Hobson. Hobson primarily saw special teams action a year ago but showed well in spring and proved to be a versatile performer. He improved in all phases of the game and will get the opportunity to contribute this fall.

RECEIVER/TIGHT END

Brendan Nugent comes into his first season as the College's receivers coach with the challenge of managing a relatively young corps. Early on, he will look for team quad-captain Elliott Mack to be the leader of the unit, as he will bring 31 games of playing experience to the field this fall. As injuries steadily depleted the depth at the position in 2007, Mack continually elevated his game and ended the year as an all-conference performer. He finished among the league's leaders in both catches (46) and receiving yards (849), while his average of 18.5 yards per reception was the second-highest figure in the CAA among the top 10 receivers. Mack is among the team's most committed players to the off-season conditioning program and has continually improved his 6-0, 195-pound frame since coming to campus. His combination of size, speed and experience will make him one the league's most difficult assignments this fall.

Making Mack even more dangerous this fall is the healthy return of D.J. McAulay. A freak fourth-quarter injury in the season opener versus Delaware cost McAulay the remainder of the 2007 season, but earned him a redshirt year,

JOSH RUTTER, LB
ALL-CAA CANDIDATE

SEAN LISSEMORE, DT

as he returns with two years of eligibility. With a lifetime best of 10.5 in the 100m dash to his credit, McAulay's return gives the College a legitimate dual deep threat this fall. In his only action last season, he gave a glimpse of what may be to come as he torched Delaware for a career-high 162 yards and one TD on seven catches before being injured. Much like Holmes, he also took advantage of the extra time in the weight room and significantly improved what already was a sturdy 5-11, 185-pound frame. He remained on campus this summer and should be poised to make a run for all-conference honors this fall.

With the College likely to run a healthy amount of plays out of three-receiver sets, sophomore Cameron Dohse will figure to have plenty of opportunity to build on what was an impressive freshman debut in 2007 that saw him bring down 31 catches for 557 yards and five TDs. He owns the team's surest set of hands and has an uncanny knack for making plays down field. Despite not possessing blazing speed, he averaged a healthy 18 yards a catch and should be extremely effective working underneath coverages as Mack and McAulay stretch the defenses vertically. Junior Eric Robertson falls in a similar mold. While Dohse figures to get the majority of the reps at the third receiver position, at least early in the season, Robertson will be counted on to contribute spot reps.

With the graduation of NFL free agent signee Drew Atchison, the College enters the fall with little depth at tight end. In fact, look for several wrinkles in the team's scheming from a season ago that may see more sets that do not feature the position. When the unit is lined up with a tight end, it will likely be junior Rob Varno getting the nod. At 6-5, Varno has great height, and he is continually working to add weight to his 220-pound frame. He saw significant action a season ago and has proven to be a capable player as he recorded 11 catches for 115 yards. Varno could also see some action as an h-back, as will converted sophomore quarterback Chase Hill. Hill has good speed and strength, but will need to continue to work on his techniques, both in routes and blocking. He is versatile enough to be both a wide or covered receiver and will only improve with continued exposure to the position. Hardworking sophomore Gareth Hissong is a big (6-3, 252) and strong candidate for the tight end position. He has spent time in the program as an offensive lineman and will see action as a situational player while contributing on special teams.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Tribe's projected starting front five features four starters standing taller than 6-4 and averages better than 300 pounds a player. But, despite the size, the unit will look to be more athletic in the coming season as it will be the key ingredient in powering what projects to be an offense that will give multiple looks and formations this fall. William and Mary offensive line coach Bob Solderitch will return the interior of his unit from a season ago, in guards Michael Grant (6-5, 296) and C.J. Muse (6-4, 315) and senior center Luke Hiteshew (6-1, 304), but faces the daunting task of trying to replace a pair of veteran tackles in Brad Stewart and Brent Cochran, who graduated the program after starting for three-plus seasons.

After starting his career as a guard, Hiteshew moved exclusively to center for last season, starting all 11 games. He is the strongest lineman on the squad and the most experienced. His continued improvement into his senior season could make him one of the squad's key players. Grant brings a wealth of physical ability to the position. His 11 games of playing experience last season positions him to be one of the offensive front's key leaders. Muse has good mobility for his size and is able to use his feet well. His potential and effectiveness continues to improve as he adds strength in the offseason.

Sophomore Keith Hill (6-4, 315) and redshirt freshman Jake Marcey (6-4, 308) emerged from the spring as the likely starters at right and left tackle, respectively. Hill turned in the most impressive spring of the group. He showed tremendous improvement this spring from last fall and a solid summer training session could position him for a solid season as the starter. Marcey also has great potential and will need to live up to it playing at the crucial left tackle position. He brings an aggressive attitude to the unit and has tremendous feet.

Though last season's unit combined to miss just one total start all season (Brad Stewart missed the last game of the season), the depth at the position will be crucial for the coming year. Versatile senior Eric O'Brien (6-1, 258) provides quality insurance at all three interior line positions. He is unquestionably one of the squad's hardest workers and will be looking to maximize any opportunity every time he steps on the field. Past O'Brien, there is no other player currently listed on the two deep who has seen any collegiate game action.

DEFENSIVE LINE

After going through years of growing pains, the College and defensive line coach Trevor Andrews is looking forward to seeing his charges be one of the team's leading units. The fiery Andrews will count on the veteran defensive end combination of Adrian Tracy (6-4, 244) and C.J. Herbert (6-3, 264) to attack the perimeter of the offense and generate pressure. The pair brings a combined 44 games of starting experience to the field and both clearly have the ability to play at an all-conference level. The tackle combination of junior Sean Lissemore (6-4, 274) and Mike Stover (6-3, 253) each played major snaps a season ago and will be active at the point of attack.

Of the linemen, Tracy has proven he has the ability to be the most explosive, as he returns with a team-high 25 career tackles for losses. He has the raw athleticism to beat tackles off the ball and has worked to improve his overall consistency. Tracy's efforts will only be improved if Herbert carries over his impressive spring into the fall. Herbert was the most improved player on the unit during the spring drills and he has always been one of the team's best leaders. A tireless worker, his continued improvement on techniques and footwork position him for his most productive season to date. Herbert can also move down to tackle, if necessary, and remain a productive player.

Lissemore is a hard-nosed player who battled through a variety of nagging injuries last season and missed the spring drills altogether. But, his healthy return may be one of the keys to the team's success, as he brings a relentless tenacity to the middle of the squad's defense. A great effort player, he is one of the team's strongest linemen. Last season he turned in 43 total tackles and four TFLs despite being physically limited. Stover may have been one of the team's most pleasant surprises last season, as he earned playing time in 10 games, including one start, after coming into the season as a true-freshman walk-on. He continued his solid play this spring and has proven to be a consistent contributor. He plays with a great motor and moves well to the football.

While the starters are long on experience, only sophomore Derek Toon (6-3, 278) has seen game action (10 games in '07) among the reserves listed on the two-deep. But, what they may be lacking in experience should be more than made up for by potential. Redshirt freshman defensive end Ravi Pradhanang (6-4, 258) would have seen game action as a true freshman had he not suffered a late summer camp ankle injury. But, a solid start to spring drills gave the staff a taste of the kind of production he has the ability to create with his physical style of play. Toon is another physical talent who has a tremendous upside. Despite being hindered by various injuries last season, he still totaled 21 tackles and three TFLs.

Redshirt freshman Marcus Hyde will make his first full-time appearance at defensive end when summer camp opens, as he played linebacker through spring. He worked hard this off-season to add weight to his 6-3, 233-pound frame and should see extensive reps this fall. His key attribute is his aggressive style of play, which the move down to line will allow him to turn loose in the pass rush.

LINEBACKERS

Another unit that will be looking to make a statement in 2008 will be coach Scott Boone's corps of linebackers. The group is lead by seniors Josh Rutter and Michael Pigram. The pair will be looking to make an all-conference caliber showing in their final season and the staff is going to heavily rely on their on-field play and off-field leadership to help elevate the play of the entire unit. Rutter, one of the team's quad captains, has recorded a team-best 224 tackles in just 25 career games (an average of nearly 9.0 start) and is coming off a solid junior season which saw him collect 95 stops. He played through some discomfort last season stemming from a knee injury sustained in 2006 but comes into this fall without a brace and moving at 100 percent, which should translate into even greater production from his middle linebacker position. Pigram is one of the team's toughest competitors and has tremendous playmaking ability as he packs significant explosiveness in his compact frame (5-11, 220). Among the strongest players on the team (425-plus pound bench, 510-plus pound squat), he is also among the most intelligent in schemes and alignments. Primarily a weak side backer, Pigram is also a plus player in terms of speed and this, in combination with his strength and experience, positions him to be one of the squad's key playmakers.

Coming into the fall, redshirt freshman Jake Trantin figures to be in the first team huddle at the strong side position. He made a strong impression on the staff this spring with his speed and physical style of play. He will be looking to continue his familiarity with the schemes in fall camp but appears to have the potential to make an immediate impact. Trantin's main competition for starting

ADRIAN TRACY, DL
ALL-CAA CANDIDATE

ALL-CAA CANDIDATE

ALL-CAA CANDIDATE

duties, sophomore Wes Steinman, also brings a great deal of talent to the field. He saw action in seven games last season, earning one start, and has the size (6-2, 226) and physical skills to be a consistent contributor this fall. A converted defensive back, he has the athleticism to play in space and also be a threat coming off the edge of the defense.

Senior Todd Reyher and sophomore Evan Francks provide depth at position. Reyher is into his fifth year in the program and is able to spot at any of the three linebacker roles, while Francks will mostly see action at the weak side position.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Defensive coordinator and backfield coach Bob Shoop has the luxury of returning all eight players from last season's final two-deep to his secondary, including all-conference cornerback Derek Cox. Cox, a two-time team captain, is the complete package, as he brings good size (6-1, 186), experience, speed and strength to the field corner. He has the potential and work ethic to show as one of the elite players in the Football Championship Series division this season and will be counted on to be one of the leaders of the Tribe's defensive unit. Cox has played in 32 career games and produced 110 total tackles and 20 total passes defended, including a career-high three interceptions last season.

Another player looking to challenge as one of the league's elite players is junior strong safety David Caldwell. Quite possibly is the team's most gifted athlete, Caldwell brings a physical presence both at the point of attack and in coverage. He was the team's leading tackler a season ago with 107 stops, while also contributing 5.5 tackles for losses. He set the position's squat record this off-season at 550 pounds, yet has the speed and quickness to provide man coverage. The staff will look to maximize his talents and utilize his playmaking ability.

Junior free safety Robert Livingston and sophomore boundary corner Ben Cottingham provide steady compliments to Caldwell and Cox, respectively. Livingston, who transferred into the program from Western Michigan after the 2006 season, has quickly become the unit's coach on the field. He combines his great instincts for the game with a complete grasp of the team's schemes. Livingston started all 11 games a season ago and found his way to the ball carrier 76 times, while also contributing six pass break ups. Cottingham worked his way from a walk-on to the team's starter by the end of his redshirt freshman season last year. He is solid in all facets of the game and has displayed a knack for making plays. A very fundamentally sound player, he ended last season by making a pair of interceptions against Richmond and will enter his first season as a starter in 2008.

Athletic sophomore Terrell Wells will push Cottingham for playing time as the season presses on, while junior Fred Johnson will provide the depth behind Cox while being a valuable special teams contributor. The depth at the safety positions are provided by senior David Houff (strong) and junior Michael Alvarado (free). Houff has great explosion (40-plus inch vertical, 530-pound squat), while Alvarado brings a physical style of play to the field.

SPECIAL TEAMS

With the exception of graduated short snapper Brent Cochran, the Tribe returns all of its key specialists from a season ago. Junior Brian Pate was solid in his first season as the place-kicker, as he converted 40 of his 41 conversion attempts and was true on nine of his 16 placement kicks. He had a solid spring and worked on improving his strength and accuracy and ended the camp converting better than 80 percent of his attempts. Sophomore David Miller returns as the squad's punter, after averaging 35.1 yds/attempt over 43 attempts in 2007. Gradual improvement is expected as he continues to gain confidence. He averaged better than 40 yards per attempt during team situations this spring.

Either Chase Hill or Eric O'Brien will handle snapping duties, while R.J. Archer returns as the top holder on placement kicks.

The team has plenty of options where the return specialists are concerned, with David Caldwell being the most experienced kick returner (36 career returns for 851 yards, an average of 23.6 yds/att.) and Archer was the primary deep player on punts. Terrell Wells, Tommy Schonder and DeBrian Holmes are among the candidates for duty on the kick returns, while Elliot Mack, Wells and Derek Cox could also see some action as punt returners.

³Harvest Bowl

The inaugural season of CAA Football kicked off in 2007 with plans to take the nation's premier conference in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS, formerly I-AA) to even greater heights and the mission was accomplished. The league boasted as many as seven teams ranked among the national Top-25 during the season, logged 15 national player of the week honorees and culminated the regular season success by advancing a record five squads to the NCAA Playoffs field of 16.

The success did not stop on Selection Sunday. CAA Football came within four points of all five squads advancing to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Championships. Both Delaware and Richmond, moved on to the final four marking the eighth time in 11 years a CAA Football squad has competed in the semifinals. Delaware logged a win in the semifinals to earn the league its fourth National Final berth in five seasons, while Richmond fell to the eventual national champions. Following the season, the league notched a total of 67 All-America honors. James Madison safety Tony LeZotte became the first player in conference history to earn All-America honors in every year of his career, while New Hampshire quarterback Ricky Santos left his name among the NCAA's career Top-3 in touchdown passes, passing yards and total offense.

The quality and depth of CAA Football is unmatched in the FCS. Ten of the league's 12 teams have participated in the NCAA playoffs over the past seven seasons and at least one team has advanced to the national semifinals in eight of the last 11 years.

In 2004, James Madison claimed the national championship with a 31-21 triumph over Montana, becoming the first team to reach the title game by winning three road playoff contests since the field expanded to 16 teams in 1986. Delaware rolled past Colgate 40-0 to capture the national championship in 2003, becoming the first team to ever post a shutout in the title game. No other conference has had two different teams win national titles in back-to-back years. Massachusetts earned a national championship in 1998, beating perennial power Georgia Southern, 55-43.

Along with the team accomplishments, the conference has accumulated numerous individual accolades. Santos (2006), William & Mary quarterback Lang Campbell (2004), Villanova running back Brian Westbrook (2001), Villanova wide receiver Brian Finneran (1997), New Hampshire running back Jerry Azumah (1998) and Towson running back Dave Meggett (1988) all have won the prestigious Walter Payton Award under the league banner. James Madison linebacker Derrick Lloyd received the Buck Buchanan Award in 2001. New Hampshire's Sean McDonnell (2005), James Madison's Mickey Matthews (1999), Villanova's Andy Talley (1997) and Boston University's Dan Allen (1993) have earned the Eddie Robinson Award as the top coach in the FCS.

The CAA Football geographic footprint encompasses much of the East Coast with schools located from Maine to Virginia. Members include Delaware, Hofstra, James Madison, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Northeastern, Rhode Island, Richmond, Towson, Villanova and William & Mary. While CAA Football officially began March 1, 2007, its roots date back more than 60 years.

On December 3, 1946, the Code of the Yankee Conference went into effect. Established as an all-sports conference for the New England land grant colleges, the six charter members included Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont. Upon the formation of Division I-AA football in 1978, the league disbanded all sports except football. Delaware and Richmond were admitted to the conference in 1986, Villanova was added in 1988 and James Madison, Northeastern and William & Mary joined the league in 1993.

The Atlantic 10 assumed operation control of the conference from 1997-2006, with Hofstra becoming part of the league in 2001 and Towson joining the group in 2004.

COACHING STAFF

JIMMYE LAYCOCK

HEAD COACH

JIMMYE LAYCOCK

Success on the Field

One of the most successful head coaches in college football history, Jimmye Laycock is the sixth-winningest active coach in the FCS division. During his 28-year career, he has guided the Tribe to 182 victories, seven playoff berths, 18 winning seasons and an appearance in the 2004 national semifinal game. In addition to his teams' success, 22 players have gone on to sign with NFL teams, including four-time Pro Bowl selection Darren Sharper.

Excellence in the Classroom

In addition to being the program's all-time winningest coach, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success. Since the NCAA began its academic reform with graduation rates surveys and APR rankings in 2004, the Tribe football program has posted a 100 percent graduation rate three times. Additionally, Laycock has produced 11 Academic All-Americans and 55 academic all-conference selections.

A Pro's Perspective

"Coach Laycock has shown that he has one of the more creative offenses in college football. One of the best trademarks for football coaches is a consistent program over a longer period of time. I think Coach Laycock consistently demonstrates that with his program."

Joe Gibbs
Former Washington Redskins Head Coach

1966-69

Jimmye Laycock plays for legendary head coaches Marv Levy and Lou Holtz at William and Mary. After starting in the defensive secondary as a sophomore, the Hamilton, Va., native later moved to quarterback.

1970-76

After serving as an offensive coach at Newport News High School, Laycock began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 1971. He later served as an assistant for legendary head coach Bobby Ross at the Citadel before becoming the quarterback's coach at Memphis State for two seasons.

1977-79

Laycock serves as the offensive coordinator at Clemson for three seasons. Under his tutelage, the Tigers went 27-8-1 with three bowl game appearances, including a 17-15 win against Ohio State in the 1978 Gator Bowl. Among his players was All-Pro Dwight Clark.

1980

Laycock returns to his alma mater as head coach where he would become the program's all-time winningest coach.

1986

Laycock leads the Tribe to a FCS playoff berth for the first time in the program's history. Under his guidance, W&M posts a 9-3 record and earns a national ranking of eighth at the conclusion of the season. Additionally, the College has three players selected in the NFL Draft.

1990

Laycock leads the Tribe to its first-ever 10-win season and is ranked No. 7 in the final national rankings. W&M leads the country in total offense, averaging almost 500 yards per game.

1997

W&M's Darren Sharper is selected by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round of the NFL Draft. Sharper has gone on to earn Pro Bowl selections four times.

2004

The Tribe establishes a school-record 11 victories and advances to the FCS National Semifinals, which is played before a sold-out Zable Stadium crowd and in front of a nationally-televised audience. W&M finishes the year ranked No. 3, while quarterback Lang Campbell earns the Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive player in the FCS.

William and Mary recognizes Laycock and his tremendous success when it dedicates the newly constructed $11 million Laycock Center on June 21, 2008.

Entering his 29th year at the helm of the William and Mary program, Jimmye Laycock is one of the nation's longest tenured and most respected head coaches. He has authored a school-record 182 wins (against 127 losses and two ties) and 18 winning ledgers since first taking over the program in 1980. The Tribe has also appeared in nine postseason contests with Laycock at the helm.

On June 21, 2008, the College dedicated the $11 million Jimmye Laycock Football Complex with a ceremony that featured more than 500 friends and alumni of the program. While the building carries his name and stands as a strong symbol of what Laycock has meant to the Tribe, it makes a stronger statement about the school's commitment to football and the program's proud tradition. The state-of-the-art complex provides the College with one of the finest facilities in the Football Championship Series and, paired with Laycock's steady leadership, gives the Tribe a bright future.

As the architect of what is easily the most extended run of success in William and Mary's 114-year football history, Laycock has never compromised academic standards for athletic success and has steadily built his program into a point of pride for the campus, alumni and community. When Laycock, a 1970 grad, returned to coach his alma mater prior to the 1980 season, he inherited a program that had won six or more games in a season just four times in the previous 25 years. Few could have predicted that the College would produce more than three times that amount of seven-win seasons over the next quarter century. The accumulated successes, both on and off the field, have led to an era of unprecedented interest and support for his program.

Some evidence of this is provided in the fact the Tribe averaged over 10,000 fans per game in five home dates in 2007. W&M drew a total of 53,499 spectators to Zable Stadium in 2007, an average of 10,700 per game, the program's best figure since the 1995 season.

During Laycock's tenure, the fans at Zable have consistently been treated to a winner on the field, as the program's mentor ranks in the top 10 of all active FCS head coaches in terms of career wins. Laycock is also second among active conference head coaches in career league wins with 71.

Laycock has made the home turf in Zable Stadium into unfriendly territory for opponents as the Tribe has won 74.2 percent of its games (93-32-1) in Williamsburg in the last 24 years. W&M has turned in seven undefeated regular season home campaigns.

Individual accomplishments under Laycock have been plentiful, as he has also tutored 30 players to 76 All-America honors from the William and Mary ranks and has coached 11 Academic All-Americans. Quarterback Lang Campbell is the most decorated of all, as the 2004 season saw him earn the prestigious Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top offensive player in the FCS ranks, consensus first team All-America honors, as well as the A-10's Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The Tribe has produced an astounding 135 all-conference selections since 1993.

While no one season can define a career that spans more than two and a half decades, Laycock's 2004 season, his 25th at the school, produced levels of success never before reached at the College.

W&M set a school record for wins (11), won the Atlantic 10 Football Conference's automatic NCAA bid, hosted a NCAA semifinal game before a standing room only crowd at Zable Stadium in front of a national television audience and finished the year with a school record No. 3 final national ranking. Along the way, a bevy of school single-season records fell; total points (486), total yards (6,044) and home wins (seven), to name just a few.

But, none of these achievements spoke more succinctly to Laycock's approach than the program's 100 percent official NCAA graduation-rate report for all student-athletes receiving athletics aid. This showed W&M graduated all of its football players who entered the program as freshmen during the 1997-98 school year. The Tribe not only carried the highest graduation rate in the conference, but also was far and away the top figure of any team ranked in the final national top 25 for that season. To prove this lofty number was no fluke, the team repeated the feat just two years later, as the 1999-2001 cohort also graduated at 100 percent. Since the NCAA started the Academic Progress Report, Laycock's program has been recognized as one of the nation's elite.

When looking at the NCAA Division I Championship Division world, the Tribe's stellar 168-83-2 (.675) record against fellow Championship Division foes during Laycock's career also confirms the success of his formula. The College also boasts a 71-51 mark in league play and has had 135 all-conference honors since 1993.

The 2001 campaign stood as a testament to Laycock's program's stability, as the team rebounded from a then nine-year low 5-6 record in 2000 to post an 8-4 mark, claiming a share of the Atlantic 10 Crown and earning a spot in the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

The 1996 campaign is another prime example of how Laycock has perpetuated a winning tradition within W&M's rigorous classroom standards, as he led a youth-laden squad to a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA playoffs, a 10-3 overall record (7-1 in league play), the Tribe's first Yankee Conference Championship, and a fifth-place national ranking.

One trademark of a Laycock-coached team is a prolific and intricate offensive attack. The Tribe offense averaged better than 420 yards and 26 points over the 115 games it played in the 1990s.

Prior to the 2004 campaign, the 1990 season stood as the benchmark for the Tribe program. That season, Laycock was honored by his peers as Coach of the Year in Region II and the state of Virginia for guiding the Tribe to 10 wins and an appearance in the quarterfinals of the Division I-AA playoffs.

That 1990 squad, ranked No. 7 in the final NCAA poll, refashioned many pages in the school record book. W&M led the country in total offense by averaging almost 500 yards per game and claimed the Lambert Cup for I-AA supremacy in the East. Even the Virginia General Assembly passed a resolution commending Laycock accomplishments. The Tribe's 1996 squad led the conference in both total offense and defense en route to earning its own Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year honors.

After some lean years early in his tenure, Laycock's teams began building respectability among all opponents. After a pair of 6-5 seasons, W&M carved out a 7-4 mark in 1985 and a national ranking of No. 16. The winning ways continued in 1986 with a 9-3 record and an eighth-place final ranking. In that season, the Tribe advanced to the I-AA playoffs for the first time and had three players drafted by the NFL.

Although William and Mary dipped to a 5-6 slate in 1987, the Tribe recovered to post a 6-4-1 overall record in 1988. That memorable season climaxed with a trip to Japan and a 73-3 victory over the Japanese College All-Stars in the first Epsom Ivy Bowl. The Tribe returned to the NCAAs in 1989 with an 8-2-1 regular season record.

The record-setting tandem of quarterback Campbell and wide out Dominique Thompson each signed free agent contracts, with the Cleveland Browns and St. Louis Rams, respectively, in the spring of 2005. Thompson is currently with the Carolina Panthers, while Campbell entered the 2008 season as the starting quarterback for the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena League. The Tribe also is represented by four-time Pro Bowl free safety Darren Sharper (Minnesota Vikings), a second round draft pick of the Green Bay in 1997 and Mike Leach (Denver Broncos) in the NFL ranks, along with 2008 free agent signees; Drew Atchison (Dallas Cowboys) and Mike Potts (Pittsburgh Steelers). Former all-conference defensive back Billy Parker also played professionally in 2008, as he started every game for the New York Dragons of the Arena League. Michael Clemons (Class of 1987) had been one of the CFL's most explosive players since joining the Toronto Argonauts in 1989, a team he now coaches.

As a 1970 graduate of the College, Laycock played football under two gurus of the game. For three years, he learned the details under the watchful eyes of Marv Levy, the legendary former head coach of the Buffalo Bills. In his last season, collegiate coaching legend Lou Holtz schooled Laycock in the finer aspects of psyche and motivation. As a sophomore, Laycock was a starter in the defensive secondary, but he was soon switched to quarterback where he completed 96 of 218 passes for 1,366 yards.

Laycock's first full-time coaching position came at The Citadel as the offensive backfield coach under Bobby Ross, who went on to coach the NFL's San Diego Chargers and Detroit Lions. In 1975, Memphis State tabbed Laycock as its quarterback's coach and he helped the Tigers to consecutive 7-4 records.

In 1977, Laycock traveled to Clemson to serve as offensive coordinator for three years. Under his tutelage, the Tigers went 8-3-1, 11-1 and 8-4. Clemson played in bowl games each year, defeating Ohio State 17-15 in the 1978 Gator Bowl. At that time, Laycock coached two-time All-ACC performer Steve Fuller, the Tiger quarterback who later played in the NFL, and Dwight Clark, an All-Pro receiver for the 49ers.

A native Virginian, Laycock played football, basketball and baseball at Loudoun Valley High School, where he won 12 letters and has since had his number retired.

Future NFL Hall of Fame quarterback Brett Favre was one of the featured instructors at Laycock's 2008 All-Pro Football Camp. Favre has assisted with Laycock's camp three times.

Laycock is married to Deidre Connelly, a sports psychology consultant at the College. They have three children: Michael (17), Mary Louise (16) and James (14).

Laycock's daughter, Melanie was married this past summer to Doug Johnson and is a teacher in Atlanta, Ga.

The Talk About Laycock

Marv Levy - Former W&M Head Coach and NFL Hall of Famer

"I've always admired the work that Jimmie's done at William and Mary. He's very well-respected throughout the coaching fraternity. He's the right man for the right college."

Darren Sharper - Minnesota Vikings four-time Pro Bowl safety

"Coach Laycock knew from the time that he was recruiting me what position was best for me to reach my ultimate potential. Joining the Tribe family turned out to be the best situation for me to grow as a person and as a player. Without being a part of this family, I wouldn't be as successful as I am today."

Mike Tomlin - Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach

"William and Mary sets the stage to address the challenges you face. Coach Jimmie Laycock has been the blueprint for me. He is what the job of coaching is all about."

Laycock Era Highlights ...

• Jimmye Laycock enters his 29th season as the Tribe's head coach in 2008. The school's all-time winningest coach, Laycock has compiled a 182-134-2 career record at W&M.

• Among active Division I (FBS and FCS) head coaches, Laycock's 182 victories rank tied for 12th. The total also ranks inside the top 20 of active coaches in all divisions. Among only active FCS head coaches, Laycock's total is tied for sixth.

• Laycock ranks fourth on the all-time CAA Football career victories list with 71. Among active coaches, Laycock trails only Villanova's Andy Talley (93).

• In 2004, W&M won a school-record 11 games and made its ninth postseason appearance under Laycock, advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the first time in school history and finishing with a school-record No. 3 final national ranking.

• The Tribe has posted winning ledgers in 18 of the past 25 seasons under Laycock.

• Laycock has guided the Tribe to a total of 53 career 40-plus point outings in his 318 games as the College's head coach, a number that represents more than 16 percent of his total games. By comparison, the College had seen only 12 total 40-plus point outings in the 30 seasons prior to Laycock taking the reigns of the program in 1980.

• Since joining what is now the CAA Football conference in 1993, a William and Mary quarterback has earned all-conference honors in 10 of the 15 seasons, including seven-straight campaigns from 1998 to 2004. Going hand-in-hand with the postseason honors is the fact that in seven of the 15 seasons in league play, a Tribe quarterback has turned in the conference's top passer efficiency rating.

• The College has earned 135 total all-conference citations under Laycock.

• The Tribe has posted a 100-42-1 record (.703) at Zable Stadium under Laycock, which includes seven undefeated regular seasons in Williamsburg. In Laycock's 28 seasons, the College has failed to post a .500 or better record at home just four times (1980, 1999, 2006, 2007).

• Since joining the CAA Football Conference, W&M has gone 105-63 (.625) against FCS opponents.

• During Laycock's 28-year tenure, 22 Tribe players have gone on to sign with NFL teams, including four-time Pro Bowl selection Darren Sharper.

• Laycock has mentored 31 student-athletes to All-America honors at the College, including a career-high four in 2004 that earned either Sports Network or Associated Press All-America citations (Lang Campbell, Dominique Thompson, Greg Kuehn, Adam O'Connor). Campbell was a consensus First Team All-American (AFCA, Walter Camp, AP, Sports Network) and was also the winner of the 2004 Walter Payton Award.

• Since the NCAA began its academic reform with graduation rates surveys and APR rankings in 2004, the Tribe football program has posted a 100 percent graduation rate three times (2004, 2006, 2007).

• Under Laycock, 11 Tribe football players have been named Academic All-Americans, including the most recent selection of Bryce Lee in 2001.

• W&M has had 55 players earn academic all-conference honors since 1997 under Laycock, including a career-high tying seven in 2007, and one conference scholar athlete of the year (Lang Campbell, 2004).

Frank Beamer, Marv Levy, Ralph Friedgen, Jim Copeland, Mike Tomlin and Lanny Watkins comprised an elite group of featured speakers at the Jimmye Laycock Football Center dedication on June 21, 2008.

2008 opponents in bold

A fixture on the Tribe's staff for 25 years, Zbig Kepa is one of the most respected offensive coaches in the CAA Football Conference. Evidence of this can be found in the fact that the school's career leaders in rushing yards, passing yards, total offense, receiving yards, touch-down passes and receptions, to name a few, have all played during Kepa's tenure as coordinator.

Kepa's time with the College began in 1984, when he arrived as a part-time assistant and worked primarily with the defense. The following year he became a full-time assistant and moved to offense where he took charge of the receivers.

Kepa primarily recruits the Peninsula and Northern Neck areas in Virginia. He also recruits eastern Pennsylvania.

Since joining the offensive staff, Kepa has helped develop one of the most productive offenses in FCS football. The 1996 team led the conference in total offense, while the 1993 unit finished sixth in the nation in total yards with the second-highest total (5,504) in school history.

Overall, the Tribe is averaging nearly 400 yards of total offense per game during Kepa's 16-year stint as the offensive coordinator. He oversaw the most prolific single-season receiving performance in school history by Dominique Thompson (1,585 yards; 79 receptions; 13 TDs) in 2004. Kepa also mentored the school's all-time leading receiver, Rich Musinski ('04), who became just the third player in Championship Subdivision history to surpass the 4,000-yard career receiving mark.

Kepa's receivers dominate the W&M record book, as nine of the top 10 all-time career receiving yardage leaders were developed under his mentorship. Prior to Musinski, the most prolific of the group was 2000 graduate Dave Conklin (1996-99), who left the College as the all-time leader in receiving yards (3,269), catches (190) and touchdown catches (27). Harry Mehre (1985-89) was the first to etch his name into the archives, as he set a then career receiving yardage mark (2,748) and earned AP All-America honors as a senior. Kepa has also groomed a pair of student-athletes to conference Rookie of the Year honors (Conklin, 1996; Musinski, 2000).

In his 24 seasons at W&M, Kepa has tutored 10 receivers to 12 all-conference citations, including four first-team honorees. Most recently, current wide out Elliott Mack earned third-team honors in 2007. Musinski, who graduated as the school's all-time leader in receiving yards (4,168), receptions (223) and touchdown catches (31), was a three-time first-team all-league pick from 2001 to 2003.

Kepa grew up in northern Indiana and attended Bishop Noll Institute, where he lettered four years in football. After graduation in 1975, he accepted a football scholarship at St. Joseph's College in Indiana. He led the Pumas at quarterback and defensive back before a knee injury ended his playing career. He continued at St. Joseph's as a student assistant coach and graduated in 1979 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and health. Kepa stayed on the Pumas' staff for the 1979 and 1980 seasons, while working on his master's degree in health and physical education at Purdue.

Kepa earned his master's in 1981 and went onto become an assistant with the offense and defense at Fenwick High School in Chicago. In 1983, he returned to his undergraduate alma mater for one year as a full-time offensive assistant before joining W&M in 1984.

He and his wife, the former Mary Cappuccilli from Indiana, have three children, Christina (24), Nathaniel (16) and Nicholas (14).

One of the league's most established mentors, 20-year coaching veteran Bob Shoop enters his second season of overseeing the College's defense. After going through a run of four coordinators in the five years prior to last season, the Tribe was searching for stability in the position and turned to Shoop in February of 2007. An outstanding teacher and organizer, Shoop brings the program a proven track record of success and championship credentials.

Shoop's resumé spans two decades as a Division I coach, including two separate stints as a defensive coordinator (Yale, 1994-96; Villanova, 1997) and three years of head coaching experience (Columbia, 2003-05).

He is responsible for recruiting Western Pennsylvania and the Richmond area.

While his first season at the reigns of the Tribe defense saw him list as many as 16 freshmen and sophomores on the two-deep, he returns an experienced group for the 2008 season, including all-conference cornerback Derek Cox.

Shoop's most recent position prior to coming to the College was at the University of Massachusetts, where he mentored the Minutemen's defensive backfield and helped the squad to an appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA Championship game in 2007. His season at UMass was successful on an individual basis as well, as three of his players were named to all-conference honors, including a pair being tabbed for first-team accolades.

Prior to his season in Amherst, Shoop headed the Columbia football program for three seasons and produced 20 All-Ivy League selections during his tenure. In 2005, he led the program to its first 2-0 start since 1996, a feat accomplished just three times in the previous 50 years. He ended his time with the Lions with a 7-23 mark. In his first season with the Lions (2003), he led Columbia to a 4-6 record, its best since 1998, which included victories over Princeton and Harvard for the first time in the same season since 1978, and league victories in two of the Lions' last three games.

Prior to Columbia, he served as defensive secondary coach at Boston College for four years (1999-2002). Shoop played a major role in the Eagles' success, including bowl victories in three of his four seasons. Shoop's secondary was a key cog in BC's 9-4 record and Motor City Bowl victory in 2002, as the Eagles ranked 13th in the nation in passing defense and 17th in pass efficiency defense.

Shoop also had Ivy League experience as an assistant coach at Yale (1989 and 1994-96) under legendary Hall of Fame coach Carmen Cozza. He also has served stints as an assistant coach at Army (1998), Villanova, where he was defensive coordinator for the 12-1 1997 squad, and Northeastern (1991-93).

Shoop played his collegiate football at Yale. He earned honorable mention All-Ivy accolades in 1987 as a wide receiver. He was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. Shoop also captained the Bulldog baseball team for which he earned four letters. He twice earned the Ducky Pond Award as the team's most outstanding pitcher.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts in economics from Yale in 1988.

Shoop hails from Oakmont, Pa., a suburb of Pittsburgh. He and his wife, Maura, have two children, Tyler and Jay. His brother John is the offensive coordinator at the University of North Carolina.

In his 13 seasons on campus, William and Mary Assistant Head Coach and offensive line mentor Bob Solderitch has made a positive impact on several generations of Tribe linemen, maintaining a legacy of success he helped create as an all-conference center for the College.

A 1986 graduate of W&M, Solderitch returned to Williamsburg in 1996 to take over the offensive line and eventually assumed the duties of assistant head coach in 2000. In what is a tribute to his unyielding dedication to the program, a private donor provided funding to have the staff room in the Laycock Football Center named in his honor.

Solderitch recruits the Tidewater area for the Tribe, as well as North Carolina and handling transfer students.

In his first season as a full-time assistant, he groomed Tribe guard Josh Beyer to consensus first-team All-America honors. Fellow guard Dan Rossetini earned multiple all-conference honors under Solderitch, including first-team honors in 1997. In 1998, guard Greg Whirley, Jr. capped his career by earning first-team all-conference honors, while Matt Mazefsky earned multiple all-conference citations in his career and All-America recognition after the 2001 season. In 2002, first team all-conference tackle Dwight Beard also earned All-America honors under Solderitch's tutelage.

In all, Solderitch has seen 15 players earn 19 all-conference awards on his watch, including 2006 team captain Cody Morris who graduated as a three-time all-conference performer, with second-team honors after his sophomore and senior seasons. Former team captain Pat Mulloy put a fitting punctuation on what was a standout four-year career by being named as a Second-Team All-Atlantic 10 pick in 2005. Last season, another team captain, tackle Brad Stewart, was named to third-team honors.

After a brief stint with the Indianapolis Colts, Solderitch returned to his alma mater as a graduate assistant from 1986 to 1990. While earning his MBA at the College, his responsibilities included tight ends, long snappers and organizing the scout team. He also assisted with the offensive line and helped prepare Tribe All-America linemen Scott Perkins and Reggie White.

After receiving his master's, Solderitch was named as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Newport News Apprentice School. He helped guide the team to a 17-9-1 overall record between the 1991 and 1993 seasons.

While earning his B.A. in economics as an undergraduate at the College, Solderitch was a three-year starter at offensive center and earned all-state and All-East Coast Athletic Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. In 1985, he was named team captain and won the Tribe's outstanding lineman award. In 1990, he was named to William and Mary's 100 Years All-Time squad.

Prior to his return to Williamsburg, Solderitch had a two-year stint at the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached both the offensive and defensive lines over two seasons (1994-95). His offensive lines paved the way for standout Keydet tailback Thomas Haskins, who would graduate as the NCAA's all-time leading rusher in the College Championship Division.

Solderitch graduated from Whitehall High School in 1982, where he was an all-district lineman and member of two East Penn Conference championship teams (1980-81).

Solderitch and his wife, Karen, reside in the Williamsburg area.

In his eight years on campus, Trevor Andrews has made a significant impact on the Tribe's program. For the past five seasons, he has been the spirited leader of the College's defensive front and, perhaps even more significantly, has enhanced and improved the team's recruiting efforts.

In addition to coordinating the Tribe's recruiting, Andrews also serves as W&M's chief recruiter in Washington, D.C., as well as eastern Maryland, North Jersey and New England.

Prior to his current responsibilities, Andrews worked as a defensive assistant for three seasons and was responsible for mentoring the secondary. The 2003 season saw Andrews groom the Tribe cornerbacks, including first-team all-league selection Billy Parker, who signed as a free agent with the Carolina Panthers upon graduation and is currently a starting defensive back for the Arena League's New York Dragons.

In his first season as defensive line coach in 2004, Andrews helped defensive end Adam O'Connor to Third-Team Associated Press All-America honors and a Second-Team All-A10 citation. O'Connor made it two-straight all-league awards in 2005, gaining third-team status. O'Connor signed a free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings during the summer of 2007 after spending the spring as a starting offensive tackle for NFL Europa Champions, the Hamburg Sea Devils.

Andrews came to the College after spending the 2000 season as an assistant at Randolph-Macon College, where he worked as the secondary coach and special teams coordinator.

As a three-year letterwinner at defensive back for the University of Dayton, Andrews was a member of three conference championship teams with the Flyers and played on Dayton's undefeated 1996 squad (11-0).

After earning his B.S. in physical education from Dayton in 1998, Andrews accepted a graduate position at Illinois Wesleyan University and coached the secondary while working towards his graduate degree in athletic administration.

Andrews, an accomplished musician and avid golfer, resides in the Williamsburg area.

Scott Boone brings more than a quarter century of coaching experience to the field for the College. While the 2007 season is his fifth on campus, it will be his second working with the linebackers. The veteran mentor has proven to be a versatile developer of talent, as he has also worked with the Tribe's defensive backs and as an offensive assistant on the staff.

Boone handles the Tribe's recruiting efforts in northern Virginia, the Philadelphia-metro area and southern New Jersey.

In 2006, Boone helped develop a unit that recorded six of the team's eight interceptions. Boone's first season (2005) as the team's defensive backs coach saw him direct a corps that was responsible for 13 of the team's 19 interceptions and two defensive touchdowns. Leading the way was two-time All-Atlantic 10 corner Stephen Cason, who paced the squad with four picks, including one he returned 62 yards for a score at VMI.

In 2004, Boone served as an offensive assistant on the Tribe staff after spending the previous seven years as the head football coach at Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, Va.

In his seven seasons at Randolph-Macon, Boone compiled a record of 37-33, including a 22-18 ledger in conference action. In 1997, Boone guided the Yellow Jackets to a share of the ODAC title, going 4-1 in league play and 8-2 overall, and garnered Richmond Touchdown Club and VaSID Small College Coach of the Year honors.

While at RMC, Boone coached 34 players to First-Team All-ODAC honors in his seven seasons. Also, 14 team and individual school records were broken under Boone.

Prior to his stint at RMC, Boone was an assistant coach at his alma mater, Wabash College in Crawfordsville, Ind., from 1983 to 1996. In Boone's 14 years as an assistant, Wabash posted an 81-38-2 record. In addition to his football duties, Boone was the head baseball coach at Wabash from 1986 to 1997, compiling a career record of 231-219 on the diamond, which ranks him as the school's all-time coaching wins leader. Boone is a member of the Wabash College Athletic Hall of Fame.

In addition to his bachelor's degree from Wabash, Boone holds a Master's of Science – Education in Higher Education Administration from Purdue University, which he received in 1999.

One of the greatest players ever to wear the Green and Gold, David Corley, Jr., is in his first season as the Tribe's running backs coach. He brings the staff a wealth of perspective and playing experience, being a 2002 graduate of the College and the school's all-time leading passer.

Corley's primary recruiting areas are Charlottesville and Richmond in Virginia and the southeast, including Georgia and South Carolina.

In his current position, Corley oversees the development of the Tribe's tailbacks and fullbacks as well as working with assigned special teams.

Corley returns to the Williamsburg campus where he excelled as a four-year starter and multiple-time all-conference quarterback from 1999 through 2002. In his time under center for the College he wrote his name in nearly every significant passing record for the school, including graduating as the Tribe's all-time leader in passing yards (9,805), total offense (10,948) and touchdown passes (73).

He remains one of only two quarterbacks (the other being Stan Yagiello, 1981-85) to be a four-year starter during the Laycock era. Corley began his playing career by earning the league's Rookie of the Year honors after the 1999 season, where he started the final eight games of the Tribe's schedule. He twice led the league in passing efficiency (1999 and 2002) and earned post-season honors in each of his final four years on campus.

Corley played an important role in helping lead the team to a conference title in 2001 and was selected as the squad's captain for the 2002 season. The native of Columbia, S.C., was named as the College's Outstanding Senior Athlete for the 2002-03 school year and was a two-time runner up for the prestigious Dudley Award, presented annually to the outstanding collegiate player in the state of Virginia.

While the position will be Corley's first full-time collegiate coaching job, he will be drawing on a wide-range of playing experience he has gathered since graduating after the 2002 season. He has had professional playing stints in the Canadian Football League with the Hamilton Tiger Cats (2003) and Calgary Stampeders (2006). He also had a brief stint as a member of the Arena Football League's New York Dragons (2005).

Corley is married to the former Brianne Tinsley and resides in Williamsburg.

A three-year veteran of the Tribe's staff, Trey Henderson enters his second season as an assistant with the team's defensive backs and his first with the title of video coordinator.

In his three-years on campus, Henderson has worked with both sides of the ball, but he has been heavily involved in collecting, editing and preparing practice and game footage for the staff, using the team's DV Sports editing system for the past two seasons. He also played a lead role in helping to organize and implement the program's brand-new, networked video editing suite in the Jimmie Laycock Football Center.

Henderson came to Williamsburg in 2006 after working for Overhead Door Company of Central Va., where he arranged over $180,000 in sales. While working in sales, Henderson also coached football at Hopewell High School, where he served as the defensive backs and wide receivers coach for the previous three seasons and helped guide the Blue Devils to the 2003 AAA State Championship.

Henderson also spent time as an assistant wrestling coach at Benedictine High School in Richmond, sending two wrestlers to the Prep National Tournament.

A four-year letterwinning defensive back at Randolph-Macon College, Henderson started three years in the secondary and was the Yellow Jackets' co-captain in 2001, while also spending three seasons on the baseball team. He received his Bachelor of Arts in economics and business from RMC in 2002 and completed a Master's of Science in sport leadership at Virginia Commonwealth University in December of 2006.

Henderson, whose complete name Herman Allen Henderson, III, is an active member of American Football Coaches Association and the Virginia High School League.

He enjoys fishing, golfing and spending time at Claytor Lake. Henderson resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Summers.

NUGENT
Offensive Assistant, Wide Receivers
Second Season
Iowa, 2006

After spending his first season on campus working with the tight ends, Brendan Nugent comes into the 2008 season with his focus being on the team's wide receiving corps.

In addition to working with the wide outs, Nugent will also have duties working with the Tribe's special teams. He is the staff's primary recruiter for the state Florida.

His first year on campus was a successful one, as he mentored eventual 2008 NFL free agent signee Drew Atchison to all-state recognition.

Nugent was exposed to the collegiate coaching game by working as the offensive undergraduate assistant on Kirk Ferentz's staff at the University of Iowa during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. In this position, Nugent worked directly with Iowa offensive coordinator, Ken O'Keefe, assisting him with day-to-day and game day operations.

Aside from his on-field work with the team's offense and the defensive scout team, some of his additional responsibilities included playbook and opponent scouting preparation and extensive work with editing instructional footage on the team's XOS Sagio Video System.

His first job in the coaching ranks came at Archbishop Stepinac High School in his hometown of White Plains, New York, where he served as the Crusaders' linebacker coach for the 2004 season.

As a player, Nugent lettered three seasons at linebacker at Catholic University of America. He went onto earn his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Iowa in December of 2006.

Nugent is single and resides in Williamsburg.

TAYLOR
Offensive Assistant, Tight Ends
First Season
William and Mary, 2007

The Tribe welcomed Christian Taylor to the staff this spring as an offensive assistant. The first-year coach will have the responsibilities of overseeing the team's tight ends and working with the kicking game.

The position is Taylor's first in the collegiate ranks, but he brings extensive experience of the College's attack, as he was a four-year member of the team's travel squad, earned two letters as a quarterback.

He is responsible for recruiting the southwestern, northern neck and eastern shore areas of Virginia, as well as the Midwest and Canada.

Taylor has already worked extensively in helping put together the team's playbook and is going to play a vital role in working with the video system. This past spring, he drilled the quarterbacks, as well as working with the kicking game.

He played his scholastic football at Grafton High School in Virginia, where his was a two-year letter winner and all-region selection at quarterback and safety.

Taylor is a 2007 graduate of the College, earning a degree in kinesiology and enjoys traveling, going to the beach, and working out.

john SAUER
Dir. of Speed, Strength and Conditioning
21st Season
Montana, 1984

Head Speed, Strength and Conditioning Coach John Sauer is now in his 21st year as the director at William and Mary. He is responsible for all aspects of strength and conditioning for the Tribe's 23 varsity sports.

Under his guidance, the College has had a football player earn All-America strength honors for the past 20 seasons, including the recent selections of Drew Atchison ('08), Josh Wright ('07), Adam O'Connor ('06) and Dominique Thompson ('05) as All-American Strength and Conditioning Athletes of the Year by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

During the summer of 2005, Sauer was one of seven coaches nationwide recognized as a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC). The title of MSCC is the highest honor that can be achieved as a strength and conditioning coach. It represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise, as well as longevity in the field. For these reasons, all applicants must be a full-time collegiate and/or professional strength and conditioning coach for a minimum of 12 years in order to be considered for this distinction.

In 1995, Sauer designed the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center located in the lower level of William and Mary Hall. This 5,500 square-foot facility was upgraded in the spring of 2006, primarily with new Power Lift and Sorinex equipment. The room now contains 16,000 pounds of free weights, over 7,500 pounds of dumbbells and 6,000 pounds of rubber bumper plates. In addition, it has 18 custom-built Olympic platforms, 18 multipurpose power racks and a fully-equipped plyometric area.

Sauer came to William and Mary from Clemson where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach. At Clemson, he assisted in the development, coordination and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for more than 450 varsity athletes.

Before Clemson, Sauer held assistant coaching positions at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City and at Southern Methodist University in Dallas. He earned his bachelor of science degree in health and physical education from the University of Montana in 1984. In 1985, he received his master's in health and physical education from Delta State University, where he was the head coach of strength and conditioning in charge of all varsity sports.

Sauer is a certified member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association. He is also a member of the NSCA, International Sports Science Association and the U.S. Weightlifting Federation. In addition to being a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach, he is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist and Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified. Sauer is certified as a Level I Club Coach & Level II Senior Coach by U.S.A. Weightlifting. Additionally, he has achieved Level I Coaches certification from the USAT&F. From 1996-98, Sauer was honored as Strength and Conditioning Professional of the Year by the CAA.

andy CARTER
Senior Associate Athletic Trainer
Head Athletic Trainer, Football
Fifth Season
William and Mary, 1998

A William and Mary alumnus and former Tribe student athletic trainer, Carter returns to the Tribe sidelines for his fifth year as the Head Football Athletic Trainer, overseeing the sports medicine services for the team.

Carter received his B.S. in Kinesiology from the College of William and Mary in 1998. He then attended Illinois State University where he earned his M.S. in Health, Physical Education, and Recreation with an emphasis in Sports Management. Carter joined the Tribe sports medicine staff in 2000.

In addition to his clinical responsibilities at the College, Carter is also involved in sports medicine education on many levels. Since 2000, he has been an instructor for the ACES Preparatory Workshop, a course designed to prepare athletic training students to take the national board exam. He developed and continues to coordinate the Sports Medicine rotation for the Riverside Family Medicine Residency Program and has also served as an instructor in the SMART (Sideline Management Assessment Response Techniques) Workshop for physicians. He coordinates the Athletic Training Aide program in which pre-med and pre-physical therapy students work alongside the staff in the clinic and on the field. Carter serves a Clinical Instructor for the Post-Professional Athletic Training Educational program at Old Dominion University, and, each spring, he teaches a course on the evaluation and treatment of the spine.

Originally from Fieldale, Va., Carter resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Kristina, who is a physical therapist at the Advanced Specialty Center of Williamsburg Physical Therapy.

After serving a season as the senior assistant, Greg Klimas moves into his first year as the squad's full-time head equipment manager.

Klimas played a major role in assisting the relocation of the program's entire equipment operation from its old home to the state-of-the-art facility in the Laycock Football Center.

Before his first full season on campus was completed, Klimas assumed an interim role as the head of his department in February. After successfully working his way through the spring football drills, Klimas was elevated into the full-time role in May of 2008.

In his position, Klimas organizes and manages a student work force and is responsible for all inventory and coordination of field use for the football program. He also is responsible for the stewardship of all the team's various vendor contracts, including the squad's Nike deal.

Klimas has earned degrees from Phoenix College (Arizona) in 2002 and Arizona State University in 2006. Klimas served in the equipment room at Phoenix College as both a student (2001-02) and assistant (2003-05). Klimas later spent two years (2006-07) working with Sunvalco Athletic Supply Company.

Klimas was married this past summer to the former Samantha Collins and the couple resides in Williamsburg.

Gary Phibbs is entering his second season on the Tribe football staff as the program's Director of Football Operations. In this capacity, Phibbs coordinates all aspects of team travel in conjunction with a senior associate athletics director and the assistant athletics director for business affairs.

In addition, he assists the recruiting coordinator in organizing and directing all facets of on-campus recruiting. Phibbs also oversees budget operations in the football office, while at the same time assisting the coaching staff with game week preparation.

Phibbs also assists with the organizational and operational duties associated with the Colonial All-Pro Football Camp and serves as the program's primary contact with the Football Parents Club and the Quarterback Club.

A 2005 graduate of Virginia Tech, Phibbs earned a Masters of Education in Higher Education Administration degree from the College in 2008. It was while he was working on his advanced degree that he first volunteered in the Tribe's football office, assisting with the coordination of on-campus recruiting weekends. Phibbs started in his current position on an interim basis in July of 2007, before being promoted to full-time status in January of 2008.

Phibbs currently resides in his hometown of Newport News, Va. and is an avid golfer.

A true asset to the football program, James Carter is in his 10th year working with the equipment staff.

Carter's main responsibilities include driving the 30-foot, or 26-foot, moving trucks that haul the Tribe's equipment for all road games. Carter also drives any rental vehicles when the team flies to away games.

Carter takes responsibility for all sideline communications for both home and away contests, including setup and take down of all communication equipment and monitoring the functionality during the games.

Before and after games, Carter is an essential member of the equipment staff, assisting the athletes and coaches with any equipment needs that they may have.

The HVAC and Plumbing Supervisor at Kings Dominion in Doswell,

Carter volunteers his time to help the Tribe program on Fridays and Saturdays during the season, and whenever else he may be needed throughout the season.

Carter and his wife, Wendy, reside in Hanover, Va.

Former NFL and college coach Bobby Ross was an assistant at W&M from 1967-70, serving on Lou Holtz's 1970 Southern Conference Championship staff.

In his first year as head coach at W&M in 1980, Jimmy Laycock's coaching staff included assistants Kevin Rogers and Ralph Friedgen. Rogers is currently in his third season as the Minnesota Vikings quarterbacks coach, while Friedgen is the head coach at the University of Maryland.

Alan Williams returned to his alma mater as an assistant in 1996. Williams is entering his seventh season as the defensive backs coach of the 2007 Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts.

GAME	William & Mary 31 No. 19 Delaware 49
1	Aug. 30, 2007 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG (8/30/07) -- Omar Cuff tied a NCAA FCS record with seven touchdowns, including six rushing, to lead the 19th-ranked Blue Hens past W&M, 49-31, in the inaugural CAA Football game at Zable Stadium.

Despite a school-record 433 passing yards from Tribe quarterback Jake Phillips, the Delaware stole the show with a powerful offensive attack. Cuff ran for a career-high 244 yards and school-record six touchdowns on 30 attempts and also set a school record with seven total touchdowns, which included a 19-yard scoring catch from Joe Flacco.

Flacco completed 19 of 23 attempts for 202 yards with the one scoring pass to Cuff.

Cuff's six rushing touchdowns, and seven overall, were both conference records.

Phillips connected on 26 of 41 attempts with two touchdowns, surpassing the previous school record of 426 passing yards set by David Corley, Jr. against Northeastern in 2000.

D.J. McAulay finished with seven receptions for a career-high 162 yards and a touchdown, and tight Drew Atchison finished with six catches for a career-best 139 yards and a score.

DeBrian Holmes rushed for 53 yards, and Phillips added 29 yards rushing and a touchdown. W&M finished with 542 total yards of offense.

Terrell Wells scored on a 28-yard fumble return for the Tribe in the fourth.

GAME	William & Mary 63 VMI 16
2	Sept. 8, 2007 Foster Stadium • Lexington, Va.

LEXINGTON, Va. (9/8/07) -- Jake Phillips and DeBrian Holmes paced a near flawless first-half offensive performance to help lead William and Mary to a 63-16 victory over VMI at Foster Stadium.

The Tribe picked up its first win of the season and 22nd consecutive victory over the Keydets in a series that dates back to 1905.

Phillips completed 13 of his 15 first-half attempts for 242 yards and three touchdowns, and Holmes rushed for three scores, as the Tribe raced out to a 42-10 halftime edge.

W&M went on to record over 500 yards of total offense for the second time in as many games, finishing with 524 to VMI's 271.

Cameron Dohse had four catches for 77 yards and a touchdown in his first start, and Elliott Mack recorded four receptions for 73 yards and a score.

Courtland Marriner led the ground attack with a career-high 107 yards and a touchdown on 13 attempts. Tony Viola and Thomas Schonder added rushing touchdowns for the Tribe.

David Caldwell led a solid defensive effort, collecting a career-best 15 total tackles, including nine solo stops and 1.5 tackles for loss. Josh Rutter recovered a pair of fumbles, and Evan Francks had a sack.

Brian Pate connected on all nine of his point-after attempts, setting a school record for extra points in a single game.

GAME	William & Mary 48 Liberty 41 (2 OT)
3	Sept. 15, 2007 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG (9/15/07) -- Jake Phillips scored on a 1-yard dive, and the Tribe defense came up with a big stop in double-overtime to defeat Liberty, 48-41, at Zable Stadium.

Phillips' 15-yard touchdown pass to Drew Atchison in the first overtime sent the game into the second extra session.

Phillips completed 20 of 28 attempts for 335 yards and three touchdowns in total and finished with 19 yards rushing, including the 1-yard keeper that proved to be the game-winner.

Atchison finished with six catches for 103 yards, and Cameron Dohse (27 yards) and Elliott Mack (7 yards) also had touchdown receptions.

DeBrian Holmes rushed for 96 yards on 28 carries and scored twice on the ground. Tony Viola rushed for 57 yards on 15 attempts, mainly coming in an impressive second-half and overtime performance.

Brian Pate kicked a pair of field goals, including a key career-long 43-yarder as time expired in the first half, and was perfect on six PAT attempts.

Josh Rutter paced the defense with 15 total tackles, and David Caldwell and Derek Cox each had interceptions.

GAME	William & Mary 3 No. 17 Virginia Tech 44
4	Sept. 22, 2007 Lane Stadium • Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (9/22/07) -- Brandon Ore scored two first-half touchdowns, and the Virginia Tech defense and special teams each turned in big plays early to help the 17th-ranked Hokies cruise past William and Mary, 44-3, at Lane Stadium.

Virginia Tech went in front 6-0 on a pair of Jud Dunlevy field goals on its first two possessions, and Ore's 2-yard touchdown run extended the margin to 13-0.

Brandon Flowers returned an interception 49 yards for a touchdown, giving the Hokies a 20-0 edge, and Eddie Royal later returned a punt 60 yards for a touchdown to make it 34-0.

The Tribe, which saw its two-game winning streak snapped, scored its only points on a 22-yard field goal by Brian Pate.

Jake Phillips finished with 243 yards passing, completing 17-of-40 attempts, but was picked off three times. Drew Atchison was the Tribe's leading receiver with five catches for 81 yards. Joe Nicholas finished with 63 yards on two receptions, and R.J. Archer had three catches for 39 yards.

Against a stout defensive effort by the Tribe in the second half, Virginia Tech gained only 94 total yards and just four first downs. The Hokies finished with 287 total yards to the Tribe's 262.

Adrian Tracy recorded 3.0 tackles for loss, including one of the team's season-high four quarterback sacks. David Caldwell paced the Tribe with 10 total tackles, including one behind the line of scrimmage. Josh Rutter and Sean Lissemore also recorded sacks.

Thomas Schonder was the Tribe's leading rusher with 42 yards on nine carries, though W&M finished with a net of only five yards rushing.

GAME	William & Mary 27 Towson 22
5	Sept. 29, 2007 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG (9/29/07) -- Jake Phillips passed for two touchdowns, and the William and Mary defense came up with two big fourth quarter stops to secure a 27-22 victory over Towson in CAA Football action at Zable Stadium.

Phillips passed for 179 yards and also rushed for a season-high 42 yards to help W&M win its first home conference game since 2005. The Tribe also snapped a three-game losing streak in league games.

Towson pulled within 27-22 on Sean Schaefer's 29-yard touchdown pass to Demetrius Harrison with 10:55 remaining, but the Tigers couldn't avoid their third consecutive conference loss and fifth-straight defeat in the series.

Tony Viola rushed for 24 yards on six carries, including a 2-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that proved to be the difference.

Towson held a 422-284 advantage in total yards, but the Tribe defense forced three turnovers, in addition to the two timely stops late.

Derek Cox had two interceptions, and Sean Lissimore recorded his first career pick. David Caldwell led the defensive effort with 14 total tackles, including 10 unassisted stops.

Elliott Mack had a 61-yard touchdown reception, and Joe Nicholas turned in a 38-yard catch run for a touchdown as the Tribe erased a 13-0 deficit in a four-minute span in the second quarter. Brian Pate started the Tribe run with a 36-yard field goal and would later add a 41-yarder.

Courtland Marriner and Thomas Schonder each finished with 20 yards rushing. Nicholas and R.J. Archer each finished with three receptions.

GAME	William & Mary 24 Villanova 63
6	Oct. 6, 2007 Villanova Stadium • Villanova, Pa.

VILLANOVA, Pa. (10/6/07) -- Villanova quarterback Antwon Young passed for four touchdowns and rushed for another in a 63-24 victory over William and Mary at Villanova Stadium.

Young completed 20 of 26 attempts for 216 yards and rushed for 38 yards on five attempts, and Villanova won its third straight in the series. The Wildcats' 63-point total was the highest against the Tribe in a league game.

W&M put itself in a big hole early, losing two fumbles on kickoff returns, both of which led to short Villanova touchdown drives. The Wildcats, which scored on its first five possessions, led 28-7 with 4:06 remaining in the opening quarter, before the Tribe offense took the field for the second time.

Jake Phillips passed for 291 yards and two touchdowns and also rushed for a score. Cameron Dohse recorded career-highs with six receptions and 117 yards and scored on a 24-yard pass from Phillips. Elliott Mack also went over the 100-yard receiving mark with 105 yards on three catches. Eric Robertson and Marshall Dill also set career marks for receptions with five and three, respectively.

Courtland Marriner rushed for 81 yards on 16 attempts, and Brian Pate connected on a 41-yard field goal attempt.

GAME	<h2>William & Mary 21</h2> <h3>Maine 20</h3>
Oct. 13, 2007 Alford Stadium • Orono, Maine

ORONO, Maine (10/13/07) -- Tony Viola's fourth-quarter touchdown run, and a strong defensive effort in the second half helped William and Mary hang on for a 21-20 victory at Maine.

Jake Phillips passed for 255 yards and two touchdowns, both to Cameron Dohse, and engineered two long second-half scoring drives, but it was Viola's late hard running and the defense limiting Maine to two fourth-quarter field goals that secured the Tribe's second CAA win.

Viola finished with 44 yards rushing with 36 of those yards coming on nine fourth-quarter attempts. Viola's 3-yard run with 11:13 remaining capped a 90-yard, 13-play drive that gave W&M its first lead, 21-14.

Maine, which managed only one first down on five third down tries and 132 total yards in the second half, reached the Tribe 12-yard line on its next possession but settled for a 32-yard field goal after Adrian Tracy sacked Adam Farkes on third down.

A fumbled punt snap after a three-and-out gave it right back to Maine deep in Tribe territory at the 24-yard line, but the Black Bears would again settle for three points after a big defensive stand.

Dohse finished with seven receptions for 123 yards, both career highs, and scored on receptions of 31 and 33 yards. It was the second-straight 100-yard receiving game for the redshirt freshman.

Elliott Mack finished with five receptions for 53 yards, and R.J. Archer had four catches for 29 yards. Thomas Schonder rushed for 34 yards on carries, and Courtland Marriner ran for 33 yards.

Josh Rutter paced the defensive effort with 9 total tackles, and Derek Cox recorded eight unassisted stops. Adrian Tracy recorded a solo pass sack, and Derek Toon had an unassisted tackle for loss on a fourth down play in the first half.

GAME	<h2>William & Mary 34</h2> <h3>No. 4 Massachusetts 48</h3>
Oct. 27, 2007 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG (10/27/07) -- Matt Lawrence rushed for three touchdowns in a big second half for fourth-ranked Massachusetts, as the Minutemen survived an upset bid by William and Mary with a wild 48-34 victory at Zable Stadium.

Lawrence ran for a career-high 186 yards on 34 attempts and kept UMass perfect in conference play with two rushing scores in the final four minutes.

W&M built a 24-13 lead with 6:36 remaining in the third quarter on Jake Phillips' 1-yard keeper, before UMass stormed back with 21 points in just over six minutes. Phillips rushed for a season-high 49 yards, had a 25-yard reception and also threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Drew Atchison in the first half.

After falling behind, the Tribe put together a rally of its own, using a 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Michael Pigram, then a 22-yard fumble return by Josh Rutter to set up Brian Pate's 20-yard field goal that tied the game, 34-34, with 7:31 remaining.

Atchison led the Tribe receiving corps with six catches for 65 yards. Elliott Mack had three grabs for 26 yards, and R.J. Archer had three receptions for 24 yards. Courtland Marriner rushed for 86 yards on 21 attempts, and Tony Viola added a 1-yard touchdown run in the first half.

Pigram finished with 14 total tackles, including 10 solo and one quarterback sack, and also recorded his first career interception.

GAME	William & Mary 14 No. 20 Hofstra 34
9	Nov. 3, 2007 Shuart Stadium • Hempstead, N.Y.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (11/3/07) -- Hofstra quarterback Bryan Savage rushed for three touchdowns and passed for an additional two to lead the 20th-ranked Pride past William and Mary, 38-14, in CAA Football action at Shuart Stadium.

Hofstra won its second-straight in the series and snapped a two-game losing streak to keep its playoff hopes alive. Savage completed 15 of his 17 pass attempts, finishing with 196 yards through the air and rushed for 57 yards on 13 total attempts.

Though W&M would strike first, the Tribe fell victim to a dominating first-half performance by Savage and Hofstra and never recovered. W&M was limited to a season-low 138 yards passing and matched its season-high with three turnovers. The Tribe gained just 263 total yards.

Jake Phillips completed 12 of 22 attempts but finished with a season-low 92 yards passing with one interception. Phillips did rush for a season-high 54 yards but lost two second-half fumbles.

True freshman Terrence Riggins made his collegiate debut and gave the Tribe its first score of the game, a 2-yard run that was set up by a high Hofstra punt snap. Riggins finished with 11 yards on five carries. Courtland Marriner paced the ground game with 60 yards on 14 attempts.

Mike Potts entered the game in the fourth and completed 4-of-5 attempts, including a 16-yard touchdown pass to Marriner for the Tribe's only other score.

Elliott Mack had four receptions for 48 yards, and Drew Atchison recorded four receptions for 25 yards.

Josh Rutter and David Caldwell paced the defense with 12 tackles each.

GAME	William & Mary 34 No. 16 James Madison 55
10	Nov. 10, 2007 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG (11/10/07) -- James Madison quarterback Rodney Landers rushed for 171 yards and two touchdowns, and Griff Yancey ran for three more scores to help the 16th-ranked Dukes roll past William and Mary, 55-34, at soldout Zable Stadium.

JMU scored on its first eight possessions and posted its highest point total in the rivalry, winning its fourth consecutive game in the series.

Landers set a JMU quarterback rushing record with his 171 yards on 18 attempts and also passed for another score, completing 9-of-15 attempts for 89 yards. Yancey rushed for 132 yards on 25 carries, as the Dukes netted 371 yards rushing.

Jake Phillips completed 14 of 24 attempts for 219 yards and three touchdowns, including a 52-yard scoring pass to Elliott Mack. Mack had five receptions for 128 yards.

Terrence Riggins scored on a 1-yard run, and Phillips threw an 18-yard scoring pass to Drew Atchison and a 23-yard touchdown pass to Courtland Marriner. Mike Potts came on in the fourth and threw a 24-yard touchdown pass to R.J. Archer, who had six catches for 74 yard.

Riggins was the Tribe's leading rusher with 39 yards in his second collegiate game. Marriner finished with 32 yards rushing on 10 attempts, and Phillips added 22 yards on 10 attempts.

GAME	<h2>William & Mary 20</h2> <h2>No. 7 Richmond 31</h2>
11
Nov. 17, 2007 UR Stadium • Richmond, Va.

RICHMOND, Va. (11/17/07) -- Richmond's Josh Vaughan rushed for 132 yards and two touchdowns to help the seventh-ranked Spiders win their sixth-straight game and claim a share of the Colonial Athletic Association title with a 31-20 victory over William and Mary.

Jake Phillips passed for 342 yards and a touchdown, and Elliott Mack recorded career-highs with 10 receptions for 201 yards, but W&M couldn't overcome four turnovers, seven Richmond sacks and a blocked punt return for a touchdown by the Spiders.

Ben Cottingham had a pair of interceptions, and W&M denied four red-zone scoring chances by the Spiders, including two early that kept the Tribe in the game.

Vaughan's 16-yard run midway through the opening quarter was the game's first score.

A holding penalty slowed the Tribe's next possession, and W&M was forced to punt deep in its own territory. The Spiders' Joseph Forte blocked the attempt at the 2-yard line, and Patrick Weldon picked up the loose ball and hopped into the end zone to push the score to 14-0 with 11:39 remaining in the second.

The Tribe quickly answered with a six-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with a four-yard TD pass to from Phillips to Mack.

UR countered with another TD by Vaughan, this time a two-yard scamper with 7:47 showing, as the Spiders went into the locker room with a 21-6 lead.

After Richmond opened the second half with a field goal, W&M narrowed the deficit to 10 with a quick TD drive. A 41-yard competition to Mack set up the score, a run by Phillips from a yard out.

Richmond reclaimed a comfortable advantage, 31-14, when Ward found the end zone with a five-yard run later in the quarter.

Mack's five-yard touchdown run with 5:03 remaining in the fourth quarter would be the contest's final score.

TRIBE HISTORY

MICHAEL CLEMONS

1891 Students begin asking for a football team, editorial appears in a literary magazine in favor of its adoption.

1893 Intramural football grows into a faculty-approved team and first game is played against Norfolk YMCA in Norfolk. The first victory was recorded against the Old Dominion Club.

1894 First intercollegiate game played, a 28-0 loss to Hampden-Sydney College.

1895 No football played because of lack of student interest.

1896 First athletic rules adopted, including college regulations for football.

1898 Tribe plays first game vs. Richmond (a 15-0 loss) starting the longest football rivalry in the South. The College also records first intercollegiate win, a 10-0 win vs. Randolph-Macon.

1904 W&M becomes a member of the Eastern Division of the Virginia Collegiate Athletic Association and records its first victory over Richmond, 15-6, which was the College's first-ever conference win.

1906-07 During this academic year, the first Cary Field was built thanks to a donation by T. Archibald Cary of Richmond. The facility included bleachers and was located just west of the original football field along Richmond Road, where the Bryan Complex now stands.

1911 Dr. William J. Young becomes the first full-time head coach at W&M.

1918 World War I interrupts athletics program, and only one game is played. Until this point, only state teams and teams from the immediate area appeared on the schedule.

1924 Legendary coach Knute Rockne gives a two-week coaching clinic on campus. The following year, Rockne gives only two clinics, one at Notre Dame and one at W&M.

1926 On Oct. 23, the Alumni Association stages the first Homecoming Day in the College's 233 years of existence. The team loses only to northern foes to post a 7-3 overall record. William and Mary wins the Southern title and beats Chattanooga in its first bowl bid.

1927 The first night football game in the East is played on Sept. 24, as W&M drops a 12-0 decision to Catholic under the lights set up on Cary Field.

1935 Cary Field Stadium, which would become Zable Stadium, is completed to seat 10,000, with a quarter-mile track and practice field included. The first game played in the stadium is a scoreless tie against the University of Virginia.

1939 Carl Voyles, Wallace Wade's assistant at Duke, is appointed head coach and athletics director, and R.N. "Rube" McCray is made his assistant. "Fabulous Freshman" team, which Voyles and McCray brought in, gains national recognition.

1940 VMI ties William and Mary, but no state team defeats the Indians. From 1940 through 1948, no state team beats or ties W&M.

1942 William and Mary wins the Southern Conference championship, losing only to the star-studded North Carolina Pre-Flight Eleven. The Tribe defeats Oklahoma in postseason play. Guard Garrard "Buster" Ramsey becomes William and Mary's first AP First Team All-America player.

1943 Varsity football discontinued for second time because of war.

1944 Voyles leaves William and Mary for Auburn, McCray becomes head coach and athletics director.

1946 Pre-war stars return from service, and William and Mary finishes second in the Southern Conference.

Jack Cloud (above), one of the greatest players in Tribe history, appeared on the cover of Street and Smith's 1948 Football Yearbook. Cloud earned All-America honors in three consecutive years (1946-48) and led W&M to the Southern Conference Championship in 1947.

1947 William and Mary wins second conference championship. McCray is named Coach of the Year in the league, and fullback Jack Cloud is named captain of the All-Southern team and appears on several All-America teams. The Indians receive a bid to the Dixie Bowl in Birmingham, January 1, 1948, but lose to Arkansas, 21-19.

1948 W&M football team gains second consecutive bowl bid, defeating Oklahoma A&M, 20-0, in the Delta Bowl in Memphis. Jack Cloud leads the Tribe to one of the nation's biggest upsets, a 7-7 tie with North Carolina. The Tribe also tops N.C. State and Virginia Tech and gains sweet revenge over Arkansas, 9-0.

1951 Marvin Bass directs the Tribe to a 7-3 mark in his only year as a head coach.

1953 With only 24 members on the squad, Head Coach John T. "Jackie" Freeman (Class of 1944) guides the "Iron Indians" to a 5-4-1 record. That depleted squad upsets Wake Forest in the season opener, ties Navy and defeats N.C. State, VPI, George Washington and Richmond.

1964 Marv Levy takes over a program that hasn't posted a winning record in 10 years.

1966 W&M appears on network television for the first time, as ABC-TV broadcasts the Indians' game against Boston College to a large Northeast and Mid-Atlantic audience.

1967 En route to their third consecutive winning season, the Indians score three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to stun Navy 27-16. Navy, ranked No. 1 in the East, falls to W&M for the first time in 25 years (See below).

1968 Freshman defensive back Warren Winston of Richmond becomes the first African-American to receive a football scholarship at W&M.

1970 With a losing record (5-6), Head Coach Lou Holtz directs the Indians to the Tangerine Bowl after two scrappy, end-of-the-season comebacks. Toledo wins the postseason game, 40-12.

1976 Head Coach Jim Root guides the Indians to seven wins for the first time since 1951.

1980 Jimmie Laycock returns to his alma mater to take over the reins of the program.

1981 The College, along with 44 other programs, moves from Division I-A to I-AA. Freshman Mark Kelso earns all-state honors and would later go on to gain Academic All-America status on two occasions, before a standout professional career with the Buffalo Bills.

W&M's 1967 victory over Navy ranks as one of the biggest upsets in college football history. Most people didn't give the Tribe a chance.

Only Andrew Beyer, in the Washington Post, cautioned that an upset was possible, because of William and Mary's passing game. Few took such warnings seriously. The odds makers made it a 20-point spread at game time.

How big an upset was it? When the NCAA celebrated the first 100 years of college football, they listed the 10 greatest upsets in history. One of them was William and Mary 27, Navy 16, Oct. 21, 1967.

The scoreboard at Scott Stadium reflects the Tribe's 1986 victory over Virginia in Charlottesville.

1986 The Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting a 9-2 record. W&M loses to Delaware, 51-17. Michael Clemons rushed for 1,118 yards and 10 touchdowns to earn Kodak First Team All-America honors.

1987 Steve Christie is named ECAC Place-kicker of the Year. Christie went on to set school records for career points, field goals, extra points and longest field goal (53 yards).

1988 Jimmye Laycock becomes winningest coach in W&M football history. The Tribe plays in its sixth postseason game, the first one ever to be played by an American team in Japan against a Japanese all-star squad. The Epson Ivy Bowl is an awesome success with a 73-3 victory.

1989 Tribe gains a bid to the NCAA playoffs after posting an 8-2-1 record. W&M loses to Furman, 24-10. W&M ends the season ranked 10th.

1990 Cary Field Stadium is renamed after Walter J. Zable during the homecoming game. The Tribe finishes with a school-record 10 victories and advances to the quarterfinals of the NCAA playoffs. William and Mary defeats Richmond in the 100th meeting between the two teams. The College led the nation in total offense by averaging almost 500 yards per game and claimed the Lambert Cup for I-AA supremacy in the East.

1992 William and Mary finishes with a 9-2 record, becoming only the fifth team in school history to achieve nine victories. The Tribe travels to Tokyo and defeats Nihon University, 35-19, in the fifth Epson Ivy Bowl. The game was the first-ever match-up between a major U.S. college team and a Japanese university squad.

1993 Celebrating its 100th year of football, and its first year of Yankee Conference play, the Tribe posts a 9-2 record and finishes second in the league (7-1). W&M advances to the NCAA playoffs where it loses to third-seeded McNeese St., 34-28, in Lake Charles, La. Quarterback Shawn Knight sets a NCAA Division I-AA record for pass efficiency (204.6) while defensive tackle Craig Staub becomes the most decorated player in Tribe history by being named to four All-America teams, while also being honored as the league's defensive player of the year. Staub was also named to the GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-America squad.

1994 Tribe finishes with 8-3 record, capping the best three-year stretch in school history (26-8).

1995 Jimmye Laycock becomes only the 13th Division I-AA head coach to reach the 100-win plateau with a 39-0 win at defending conference champion New Hampshire. The College finishes the season with a 7-4 mark and places 13 athletes on the all-conference squad, including senior LB Jason Miller, who was also named the Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

1996 The College wins its first Yankee Conference title in the league's last season of competition. On its way to the league title, the College finishes with a school-record No. 5 final national ranking, ties the school record for wins (10) and makes a quarterfinal showing in the NCAA Div. I-AA playoffs. The team also takes home the Lambert Cup and ECAC Team of the Year trophies. OG Josh Beyer and safety Darren Sharper earn multiple first team All-America honors, while Sharper becomes the third Tribe player to be named as the Yankee Conference's Defensive Player of the Year. As a second-round selection of the Green Bay Packers, Sharper also becomes the highest NFL draft pick in school history.

1997 W&M reaches an all-time high national ranking of No. 2 in the coaches poll in the season's third week and finished with a 7-4 mark. W&M has 10 players named to All-Atlantic 10 honors, marking the third-straight season with double-digit honorees.

1998 The Tribe ends the year with a 7-4 record and a No. 17 final national ranking. The squad produces three players who earned All-America honors: QB Mike Cook, DT Raheem Walker and P/TE Mike Leach.

1999 Laycock and his staff guide the squad to its eighth consecutive winning season with a 6-5 mark. Place-kicker Brett Sterba ties the A10 record for field goals in a season with 18 and WR Dave Conklin graduates as the school's all-time leader in receptions (190), receiving yards (3,269) and TD catches (27). Sophomore Komlan Lonergan sets the school single-season kickoff return yardage mark with 743 yards.

2001 W&M posts an 8-4 mark, winning a share of the Atlantic 10 Conference crown and making its first NCAA Playoff appearance since 1996. Senior tailback Komlan Lonergan sets the career kickoff return yardage record (1,464), junior quarterback Dave Corley establishes the College's career mark for total offense (8,173) and sophomore receiver Rich Musinski breaks the school's single season receiving yardage mark by posting 1,393 yards on 59 catches. Eleven student-athletes earn all-conference honors and Musinski and OT Dwight Beard earn All-American honors.

2002 Tribe senior quarterback Dave Corley, Jr. breaks the school's all-time passing yardage record in W&M's 6-5 season, the 17th winning ledger in the past 20 years. Corley ends up as the holder of 16 school records. His main target, wide out Rich Musinski, becomes the Tribe's all-time receiving yards leader in the season finale against Richmond.

2003 Standout wide receiver Rich Musinski breaks the A-10 10 record for career receiving yards with 4,168 yards and is named a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association. He also finished his career as the College's all-time leader in receptions (223) and touchdowns (31). He is only the third player in NCAA history to collect more than 4,000 receiving yards.

2004 Tribe senior quarterback Lang Campbell wins the Walter Payton Award, given annually to I-AA's top offensive player, after leading the College to its first 11-win season and first appearance in the national semifinals, a Friday night contest against state-rival JMU broadcast to a national television audience from Zable Stadium. Campbell sets single-season records for passing yards (3,988), completions (298) and touchdown passes (30), among others, and was a consensus First Team All-American and the Atlantic 10 Offensive Player of the Year, W&M's first to earn the award. Junior place-kicker Greg Kuehn takes the A10 Special Teams Player of the Year and All-America honors after leading the nation with 19 field goals. Campbell's main receiving threat, senior Dominique Thompson, shatters the school's single-season record for receiving yards with 1,585 and set a new season standard with 79 receptions en route to All-America status. Junior defensive end Adam O'Connor also earned All-America honors after piling up eight sacks.

2005 Record-breaking place-kicker Greg Kuehn ends his career as one of the program's most decorated athletes. An All-American and former conference special teams player of the year, Kuehn shattered the Atlantic 10 record for career field goals and also set the school standard with 59 field goals, a mark that ranks eighth in NCAA I-AA history. Kuehn also stands as the College's career scoring leader at 343 points, which also ranks third in NCAA history for kickers. Additionally, Kuehn became the first A-10 kicker to earn all-conference honors in each of his four seasons. Also in 2005, permanent lights are installed at Zable Stadium and the Tribe hosts JMU, once again in front of a sellout crowd, in the first regular season night game at Zable.

In 2004, W&M won a school-record 11 games and its third Atlantic 10 Championship. The Tribe advanced to the NCAA I-AA Semifinals, hosting state-rival James Madison in a nationally-televised (ESPN2) contest at soldout Zable Stadium.

2004 PAYTON AWARD WINNER

LANG CAMPBELL

After leading the College to one of its most successful seasons in school history, quarterback Lang Campbell put a fitting end to what was a magical football season by being named the recipient of the 2004 Walter Payton Award at the 18th annual I-AA College Football Awards Ceremony held on December 16th in Chattanooga, Tennessee. Campbell, became the first Tribe player to earn the award, which is presented annually to the most outstanding offensive player in the FCS ranks, by virtue of a national vote of college sports information directors and selected media.

Campbell established school single-season records for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305) and touchdowns (30), as well as touchdowns responsible for (38, as he also had eight rushing TDs). The Winchester, Virginia, native led William & Mary to a share of the Atlantic 10 title and its first appearance in the NCAA I-AA semifinals, along with the first 11-win season in the 110-year history of the Tribe's program. At the conclusion of the regular season, Campbell was honored as the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year, becoming the first player in the Tribe's 12-year association with the league to earn the award.

He earned the A-10's highest individual offensive honor as the key component in a Tribe attack that averaged over 430 yards and 34 points a contest. The history and economics major helped power the squad to a 11-3 final record, a share of the A-10 Title and a school-record No. 3 seed in the NCAA Championship field by leading the conference in seven different categories, including passing yards, passing efficiency and total offense.

By ending the season leading the sixth-ranked Tribe to a 38-14 win over arch rival Richmond with 291 yards and four touchdowns on 21 completions (in 28 attempts), Campbell earned his third A-10 Offensive Player of the Week honor.

Campbell's season average of 284.9 passing yards per game is a school-record and was the top figure in the A-10. Campbell became just the fourth Tribe quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in a season and joins former All-American signal-caller Mike Cook (1995-98) as the College's only quarterbacks to accomplish the trick in just 11 games (Cook threw for 3,028 in 1998). Campbell's 3,988 passing yards shatters the school's previous single-season total of 3,414, set by Chris Hakel during a 13-game 1990 season.

By completing 65.5 percent of his attempts (298 of 455), Campbell had the third-best single-season completion percentage in school history. In fact, he ended his career by completing better than 50 percent of his attempts in all but one of his 24 career starts. For his career, Campbell registered a completion percentage of .649, which ranks him second all-time at the College (trailing only Shawn Knight's career mark of .655).

Campbell ended the regular season with just one interception in 326 attempts. His minuscule interception percentage of .31 was the best 11-game average in the nation among all levels (the next closest total was Georgetown's Andrew Crawford, who sported a .64 average, with just one pick in 156 attempts) and an NCAA regular-season record. Campbell ended the regular season by throwing 235 consecutive passes without an interception and had a TD-to-INT ratio of 21:1, which was far and away the nation's best total among all quarterbacks. He also rushed for eight touchdowns and 317 yards.

All season Campbell proved his ability to excel when the spotlight was shining brightest. In the eight games against ranked opponents in 2004, he averaged 291.1 passing yards per game (2,330), completed 66.1% of his attempts (154 of 233) and accounted for 18 touchdowns.

In his lone outing against I-A competition, at the University of North Carolina, Campbell accounted for four touchdowns and 357 total yards in the team's hard-fought 49-38 loss.

He etched his name throughout the College's record book in just two years as a starter, ranking fifth in career passing yards (6,494), fourth in total offense (7,149) and third in touchdown passes (54).

A four-time honor roll student at the College, Campbell graduated with a GPA of better than 3.3 and with a degree in history and economics. Not only a leader on the field, Campbell was active in helping chart the school's athletic policies, as they relate to athletes, by being a member of the school's Student Athletics Advisory Council. He also made an impact for several local charities, including Avalon (a house for abused women and children) and St. Jude's Children's Hospital.

Campbell received 40 first-place votes and 315 points from the panel of 94 I-AA sports information directors and selected media. Following Campbell in the voting were Sam Houston State quarterback Dustin Long, who earned 17 first-place votes and 185 total points, and Appalachian State wide receiver DaVon Fowlkes, who had eight first-place votes and 151 total points.

Walter Zable, Class of 1937, has long been one of the biggest supporters of Tribe football. Zable was a starting end for W&M from 1934-36, playing well enough to be named to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary All-America team. In 1987, the NCAA awarded Zable with its highest honor, the Theodore Roosevelt Award. Zable ensured that his legacy would remain with W&M when, in 1990, he and his wife Betty (Class of 1940) made a commitment towards athletics, student aid and other needs. In recognition of the gesture, the College's Board of Visitors approved the naming of the on-campus football stadium as Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field.

Terry Morton ('69) was an All-Southern Conference half back for the Tribe as a senior.

Lou Creekmur ('50) was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1996.

DARREN SHARPER
FOUR-TIME ALL-PRO SELECTION

TRIBE IN THE PROS

W&M has been producing professional football players since 1923, when Isham Hardy began his four-year pro career with the Akron Pros. Through the years, the College has manufactured a multitude of athletes who went on to star at the professional level in leagues ranging from the NFL and NFL Europa to the Canadian Football League and the Arena League.

In 2005, six former Tribe players appeared on NFL rosters, including 1996 graduate, Minnesota Viking Darren Sharper, who has gone on to earn four trips to the Pro Bowl.

This past spring, a pair of '08 Tribe graduates signed free agent deals with NFL teams. All-American tight end Drew Atchison signed with the Dallas Cowboys, while quarterback Mike Potts signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

TRIBE WALK-ON HALL OF FAME

In athletics, players develop at various rates and react to competitive situations in different ways. For those reasons, the W&M football coaching staff understands the impact walk-on players, athletes not presented athletic scholarships directly out of high school, can make on the program. W&M has been fortunate to attract many top-quality players as walk-ons who have gone on to earn scholarships and become important parts of the success of Tribe football. Many of these players, wanting to be part of a traditional power like W&M, have turned down other scholarship offers in favor of walking onto the Tribe program with the hopes of earning a scholarship.

These players' dedication to Tribe football have been rewarded by earning scholarships and making the most of their opportunity, on and off the field.

Without quality walk-on players the Tribe could not continue to perform at such a high level on the national scene. Notable players who came to W&M as walk-ons include 2004 Walter Payton Award-winning quarterback Lang Campbell, 1995 Yankee Conference Defensive Player of the Year Jason Miller, record-setting wide out Josh Whipple, 2007 All-American Drew Atchison and all-conference safety Sean McDermott. Largely due to their unselfish approach to the game and their consummate team play, a number of former walk-ons have gone on to serve as team captains at W&M, including Mike McGowan and Stefon Moody in 1996, McDermott in 1997, Marc Mattheie in 2001, both Campbell and Wade Harrell in 2004 and Pat Mulloy in 2005.

In just two seasons as a starter, Campbell etched his name throughout the College record books, ranking fifth in career passing yards (6,494), fourth in total offense (7,149) and third in touchdown passes (54). In 2004, Campbell established school single-season records for passing yards (3,988), total offense (4,305) and touchdowns (30), as well as touchdowns responsible for (38, as he also had eight rushing TDs). The Winchester, Va., native led William and Mary to a share of the Atlantic 10 title and its first appearance in the NCAA I-AA semifinals, along with the first 11-win season in the 111-year history of the Tribe's program. At the conclusion of the regular season, Campbell was honored as the A-10 Offensive Player of the Year, becoming the first Tribe player to earn the award.

Former W&M defensive back Palmer

Scarritt, who ranks second on the W&M all-time punt return yardage list, came to the program as a walk-on. Former defensive line walk-on Alan Garlic set W&M's career sack record at 21. Lynchburg's Charlie White came to W&M as an undersized center and went on to earn second-team all-conference honors in 1995. Receiver Mark Compher came to Williamsburg as a walk-on and established a then-W&M record for single-season receiving yards with 1,180 in 1990. One of Compher's teammates, fullback Tyrone Shelton, went from walk-on to a career that saw him rush for 2,534 yards, the fifth-highest total in W&M history, and become an NFL Draft selection. In 2002, Andrew Solomon led the Tribe in tackles after joining the squad as a walk-on his freshman year.

The lists that appear on this page show some of the most prominent W&M players who have come to the Tribe as walk-ons since 1980. Each of these student-athletes went on to earn starting positions and, more importantly, bachelor's degrees from the College. The additions from the class of 2008 are All-American tight end Drew Atchison and linebacker T.J. O'Neill.

"There has been a tradition of success for walk-on athletes in our program ... I think it exemplifies the importance we place on work ethic here ... If a player comes to the College and is willing to do the work in the classroom and on the field, he will get an equal opportunity to play."

TRIBE ATHLETICS A SUCCESSFUL BALANCE

ATHLETIC SUCCESS

• The 2007-08 season was another strong year for the College, as Tribe teams added four more CAA titles to bring the school's all-time league-leading total to 92. W&M also had eight different programs represented at the NCAA Championship level in some capacity.

• The men's cross country squad won its eighth consecutive CAA crown in the fall, while the women's cross country team won its fifth straight. The women's track and field team won its seventh CAA Championship in the last eight years, while the women's tennis team added its 20th all-time CAA crown in the 23-year history of the league during the spring.

• In total, W&M had five conference players of the year, five conference scholar-athletes of the year, 18 All-Americans and 100 athletes earned all-conference honors in their respective sports during the 2007-08 season.

• Individually, the women's tennis doubles team of Megan Moulton-Levy and Katarina Zoricic garnered All-America honors by advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championship. Moulton-Levy also became the first Tribe athlete and only the fourth in CAA history to win conference player of the year honors for a fourth time. Katie Radloff, who garnered CAA Swimmer of the Year and Swimmer of the Championships honors for the second straight season, earned a spot in the NCAA Swimming Championships for the second time in as many years. Christo Laundry earned All-America honors for the third time in cross country and also won the CAA Individual Championship. Women's soccer player Claire Zimmeck garnered CAA Player of the Year honors for the second straight season and was a semifinalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy. Additionally, Emily Anderson earned All-America honors with a fifth-place finish in the 1,500m, marking the best Tribe finish in 14 years.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of its student-athlete's academic responsibilities, as W&M ranked fourth, the highest of any athletic scholarship-granting school and of any public school, among the Division I teams when the NCAA released its inaugural Academic Progress Rate scores in 2005.
- In a recent NCAA survey on graduation rates, William and Mary athletic teams set the standard for academic excellence – 13 teams graduated 100 percent of their players. The overall graduation rate for our athletes is 96 percent (higher than 86 percent for the entire student body).
- There have been 45 student athletes elected to Phi Beta Kappa in the past 10 years. Four Rhodes Scholars were W&M student-athletes.
- The College's Athletics Department showed a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 86 percent among its student-athletes who entered school on athletics scholarships in the 2000-01 athletics year in data released by the NCAA in 2007.
- The national average among all Division I schools was 63 percent. W&M is tops in both the CAA and among all Division I Virginia schools.
- In 2002-03, the CAA created a Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award in each of its sports, and not surprisingly, W&M has set the pace with 25 winners in the six-year history of the award.

THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

The College of William and Mary is a public university located in Williamsburg, Va. Founded in 1693 by Royal Charter issued by King William III and Queen Mary II of England, William and Mary is the second oldest college in the country after Harvard. William and Mary has a long history of liberal arts education and a growing research and science curriculum that demonstrates a strong commitment to undergraduate research. The College, which became a state university in 1906, has been designated a "Public Ivy," and for nine straight years has been ranked by U.S. News & World Report as sixth-best public university in the country – and the nation's top small public university.

Also referred to as "the alma mater of a nation," the College has educated four U.S. Presidents -- George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler, which is the third most of any college in the country. William and Mary also claims several firsts, including the 1776 creation of Phi Beta Kappa -- the country's first academic honor society -- the first honor code of conduct for college students, and the first collegiate law school, established in 1779. William and Mary is also home to the Sir Christopher Wren Building – the country's oldest academic building still in use – and the President's House, the oldest home of a university president still in use.

William and Mary Facts:

- In addition to four U.S. Presidents, William and Mary has educated a number of this country's key historical figures, including U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Marshall and 16 signers of the Declaration of Independence.

- More recent famous alumni from William and Mary include U.S. Secretary of Defense Robert Gates ('65), the late David Brown ('78) (astronaut on the Columbia Shuttle), actress Glenn Close ('74), comedian John Stewart ('84), fashion designer Perry Ellis ('61), actor Patton Oswalt ('91), the late Mark McCormack ('51) (founder of sports and celebrity agency IMG), actress Linda Lavin ('59), NASCAR and Gibbs Racing's J.D. Gibbs ('91), Minnesota Vikings star Darren Sharper ('97), and Pittsburgh Steelers Head Coach Mike Tomlin ('95).

- In 2008, William and Mary recognized as 5th-highest producer of Peace Corps volunteers among mid-sized schools (5,000-15,000 students). As of January 2008, 51 W&M alumni are serving. Since the Peace Corps' inception, 499 W&M alumni have volunteered with the Corps, making the university the 82nd-highest producer of volunteers of all time.

- For 2007-2008, the College had more Fulbright Scholars than any other college of university in Virginia, and it had the highest application-to-award rate among nation's top research institutions. In 2006-2007, 12 William and Mary students were named Fulbright Scholars. Eleven received the honor in 2007-08 and scholars are studying in countries such as Argentina, Hungary, Uganda, Sweden, Senegal, and Ecuador.

- In 2008, U.S. News ranked William and Mary sixth among all public colleges and universities and 33rd out of all universities – both public and private. The William & Mary Law School ranked tied for 30th in 2008 by U.S. News. The Mason School Business ranked 40th in nation (2008) by Financial Times and 71st in the world. William and Mary ranked 4th-best bargain in higher education by Kiplinger's in 2008. Newsweek magazine named W&M "hottest small state university" in 2006.

- In 2008, W&M received a record number of applications for undergraduate admission for the 3rd year in a row. More than 11,500 undergraduate applications were received.

- According to a recent survey, William and Mary students contribute 323,000 hours of community service per year. Seventy-five percent of undergraduates and 50 percent of graduate students report they volunteered during their time at the College. Ninety percent of undergraduates report they will volunteer in the community they reside in following graduation.

TRIBE FACILITIES

William and Mary is committed to building and maintaining outstanding facilities for all 23 of its varsity athletic teams. The College has demonstrated this commitment by investing approximately $16 million toward the construction and upgrade of its athletics facilities during just the last five years. Among W&M's recent projects was the construction of the $11 million, 30,000-square foot Jimmie Laycock Football Center, which was dedicated this past June. In recent years, the College has hosted NCAA tournament events for football and women's tennis, while a number of other W&M programs have hosted conference championships at Tribe venues.

W. TAYLOR
Reveley, III
Interim President

Taylor Reveley became interim president of the College in mid February 2008. Before assuming his current post, he served as dean of William & Mary Law School for almost a decade, starting in August 1998. He is the John Stewart Bryan Professor of Jurisprudence.

Reveley received his A.B. from Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs in 1965. At Princeton, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and rowed on the lightweight crew for two years. Reveley went to law school at the University of Virginia, receiving his J.D. in 1968. During the United States Supreme Court's 1969 term, he clerked for Justice William J. Brennan, Jr.

Reveley has extensively studied and written about the constitutional division of the war powers between the President and Congress. In 1972–73, he spent 13 months studying the war powers while an International Affairs Fellow of the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City and a Fellow of the Woodrow Wilson Center for Scholars in Washington, D.C. He is the author of War Powers of the President and Congress: Who Holds the Arrows and Olive Branch? (University of Virginia Press, 1981).

Before joining William & Mary, Reveley practiced law for many years at Hunton & Williams, where he specialized in energy matters, especially those involving commercial nuclear power. He was the managing partner of the firm for nine years.

Much of Reveley's extracurricular time over the years has gone to non-profit organizations. He has served on many educational and cultural boards, including those of Princeton University (where he is a trustee emeritus), Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, St. Christopher's School, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, JSTOR, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, the Virginia Historical Society, the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, the Richmond Symphony, and the Presbyterian Church (USA) Foundation.

Reveley and his wife Helen have four children—Taylor, Everett, Nelson, and Helen Lanier—and a daughter-in-law, Margaret Louise (Marlo, married to Taylor).

SANDRA DAY
O'Connor
Chancellor

Sandra Day O'Connor, one of the most distinguished jurists in the history of the United States Supreme Court—and its first female justice—addressed the most profound legal issues of her age with wisdom, courage, and skill. After a long career in public service, including nearly a quarter century on the nation's highest court, she retired in 2006.

Justice O'Connor spent her childhood on an isolated cattle ranch in southeastern Arizona tending to a variety of ranch chores, raising farm animals, and reading voraciously. After completing school in El Paso, Texas, she journeyed west to continue her education at Stanford University, where her professors inspired and challenged her to make a difference in her nation and the world.

Justice O'Connor earned a B.A. in economics (magna cum laude) from Stanford University and a LL.B. from Stanford Law School. She was an editor of the law review and graduated third in her law class—two spots behind her friend and future colleague, the late Chief Justice William Rehnquist.

After being admitted to the bar, Justice O'Connor served as Deputy County Attorney of San Mateo County, California, from 1952 to 1953, and as a civilian attorney for the U.S. Army Quartermaster Market Center in Frankfurt, Germany, from 1954 to 1957. From 1958 to 1960, she practiced law in Maryvale, Arizona, and served as Assistant Attorney General of Arizona from 1965 to 1969. She was appointed to the Arizona State Senate in 1969, and was subsequently reelected to two two-year terms, during which she served as Majority Leader. In 1975, she was elected Judge of the Maricopa County Superior Court and served until 1979, when she was appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

President Reagan nominated her as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and she took her seat September 25, 1981. She succeeded the Honorable Henry A. Kissinger as Chancellor of the College of William and Mary in 2005. In the years since her investiture, she has visited the College numerous times, visiting classes, talking with students, and addressing academic conferences.

She is married to John Jay O'Connor III, whom she met in law school. They have three sons: Scott, Brian, and Jay.

TERRY Driscoll

Athletics Director

Under the steady guidance and watchful eye of Terry Driscoll, the William and Mary Athletics Department has solidified its standing as one of the nation's preeminent broad-based programs. As Driscoll enters his 13th year as athletics director, he has overseen an unprecedented era of improvement in terms of funding and facilities while also maintaining the College's rich history of producing well-rounded student-athletes.

Driscoll oversees a program that is committed to balancing academic demands with athletic success. One of the department's stated goals each year is to finish among the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, which has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the director.

In the last five years alone, the Tribe's program has combined for a total of 23 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) titles. This past season, W&M claimed four CAA titles (Men's and Women's Cross Country, Women's Track & Field and Women's Tennis). As recently as 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament, with four teams winning conference titles and six that finished in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. Overall, no institution in the CAA can claim more all-time league championships than the 92 William and Mary has earned.

As impressive as the athletic accomplishments have been during Driscoll's tenure, the program's academic successes have been even greater. In the NCAA's inaugural (2004) APR rankings, a measurement of academic progress based on academic eligibility, retention, and graduation of student-athletes, W&M was fourth in the nation overall and first among institutions offering athletic performance-based scholarships. Additionally, the Tribe football team has posted a 100 percent graduation rate three times, while the majority of the program's squads have consistently ranked among the nation's finest in terms of graduation. In 2002, the CAA started recognizing Scholar-Athletes of the Year for each of the 22 sports it sponsors, and the College has had a conference-high 26 individuals receive the honor.

In addition to the many academic and athletic successes, Driscoll's impact on the program has been equally impressive in terms of physical and financial improvements. Since taking over as athletics director, Driscoll has overseen the construction of more than $20 million in new facilities, including Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). Most recently, the College dedicated a new $11 million, 30,000 square-foot Jimmie Laycock Football Center at Zable Stadium in the summer of 2008. During the last three years, the venerable stadium has been enhanced with an $800,000-plus video scoreboard (2007), the installation of a $650,000 permanent lighting system (2006) and an $840,000 state-of-the-art Field Turf Pro artificial playing surface (2006).

In addition to the physical structures, Driscoll has also worked with the Associate Athletics Director for Development, Bobby Dwyer, to increase the annual fund-raising totals for non-capital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to the current annual total of approximately $2.7 million.

A true student-athlete himself, Driscoll's leadership skills were developed during his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament Finals as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom as a biology major garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth overall pick of the 1969 NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three spots after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and then coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communications - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the venue executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports to organize the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children - Keith, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross, and Leslie, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

PETE
Clawson

Assistant AD,
Media Relations

Pete Clawson, now in his 14th year at the College, was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations during the summer of 2006.

Clawson, a 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, had spent the previous 12 years working in the College's sports information office, including six as the Sports Information Director.

In his current position, Clawson oversees all workings of the Media Relations Department and is the primary contact for the Tribe's nationally-recognized football and men's gymnastics programs.

Prior to his stint at W&M, Clawson was an assistant at Fresno State. Clawson has also spent time as an assistant at his alma mater and at the University of Florida.

A native of Dillsburg, Pa., Clawson and his wife, Catherine, were married on July 19, 2003 and reside in Williamsburg. The couple gave birth to their first child, Charlie, in December.

STEVE Cole

Associate AD,
Internal Operations

Steve Cole enters his 26th year at the College of William and Mary, with the previous 25 at the helm of the W&M Sports Medicine program. This summer, Cole assumed the role as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Operations, overseeing nearly every facet of the department's daily operation.

His administrative responsibilities include monitoring financial matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic events and facilities, and supervision of coaches and staff.

A certified athletic trainer (BOC) and strength and conditioning specialist (NSCA), Cole graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and athletic training. He subsequently earned a master's degree in sports medicine in 1978 from the University of Virginia.

In the summer of 2006, the National Athletic Trainers Association recognized Cole as the College/University National Athletic Trainer of the Year. In 1997, Cole received his 25-year membership pin from NATA. He was also recognized for his service to the profession, receiving the Athletic Trainer Service Award, one of only three recipients from the Mid-Atlantic Region. In 2000, Cole was honored by the College for his many years of service to William and Mary with the recognition as an honorary alumnus.

A true fitness buff, Cole is an exemplary model for all the athletes. He is an avid competitor who has participated in a variety of triathlons since 1980, spending countless hours of his spare time in training. Cole resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lonna, 10-year old daughter Sydney Janaé, and five-year-old daughter Jahnessa Yaxin.

DEIDRE Connelly

Sport Psychologist

Deidre Connelly is entering her 19th year with the William and Mary Athletic Department. Connelly came to the College from the University of Iowa, where she was a professor and the director of the sport psychology program. Dr. Connelly works with Tribe athletes, coaches, and teams on mental skills for competition, leadership training, and success skills. She has been published many times and has been invited to speak at numerous conferences and seminars. Connelly received her undergraduate degree from the University of Bridgeport, and did graduate work at William and Mary. She received her MEd and Ph.D. in sport psychology from the University of Virginia. Dr. Connelly is also a member of the College's Counseling Center staff.

RENÉE
Cork

Assistant AD,
Sports Medicine

Renée Cork is in her 17th year with the William and Mary Sports Medicine staff and holds the title of Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Medicine.

Honored as the 2007 National Trainers' Association Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year, Cork was appointed to the Athletic Training Advisory Board under the Board of Medicine by Governor Warner in 2002. She is the only collegiate athletic trainer representative on the Advisory Board. Very involved in the athletic training committees at the state and regional levels, she was honored with the Sports Safety Training Award by the American Red Cross in 1999.

Cork is responsible for the CPR training for all members of the Tribe coaching staffs and also teaches a graduate course at Old Dominion.

A native of Elgin, Ill., Cork served as the head athletic trainer at Drew University prior to coming to W&M as an associate athletic trainer. She earned her undergraduate degree from Iowa State and a master's degree in physical education from Southwest Texas State.

BOBBY Dwyer

Associate AD, Development

Bobby Dwyer, Associate Athletics Director for Development, heads the W&M Athletic Educational Foundation, the department's alumni fund-raising arm. He came on board in October 1985 after holding assistant basketball coaching positions at the U.S. Military Academy and Duke.

Dwyer was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in the spring of 2004. Dwyer heads up the fund-raising efforts for the athletics department, and supervises the marketing and promotions and special events departments.

Dwyer graduated from Wake Forest in 1974 where he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and captained the squad as a senior. He received his master's degree in higher education from W&M in 1994.

He is a past president of the Williamsburg chapter of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He and his wife Patti have two sons, Patrick (25) and Peter (23), and live in Williamsburg.

PETE Kresky
Director of Marketing and Promotions

Pete Kresky, in his seventh year at William & Mary, has transformed the marketing department to one of ultimate success by more than tripling the number of corporate sponsors and thus increasing revenue beyond budgeted expectations each year.

Kresky came to William & Mary in 2002 with more than 20 years of sports retail experience. Most notable of his accomplishments were the creation of one of the most successful sporting goods franchises in the Athlete's Foot organization with over 20 locations, as well as his time as a professional consultant for corporations such as Brooks Shoes and Reebok. Kresky has also worked in commercial and mortgage banking.

Kresky is a certified rowing coach and is a member of the membership committee for the Greater Williamsburg Chamber and Tourism Alliance, Ducks Unlimited, U.S. Rowing Association and the Virginia State Board of Realtors. Kresky attended the University of Wisconsin and currently resides in Stonehouse with his wife Bonnie.

PAM Mason
Assistant AD, Compliance & Educational Services

Pamela Mason took over full time duties of the College's compliance office on April 1, 2006, and she was promoted to Assistant AD for Compliance and Educational Services in July 2008. Previously, she served as the Associate Director of Development for two years.

Under Mason, the compliance office works with the NCAA Eligibility Center to determine initial eligibility of all incoming freshmen and continues to monitor student-athlete eligibility throughout their college careers. Mason is also responsible for educating all student-athletes, coaches and staff to the NCAA rules.

Mason graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1994 as a marketing major, with a minor in psychology. She continued her education at the College and earned a law degree and an MBA in four years (1996-2000). She is a member of the Bar in both Virginia and North Carolina.

A native of Marion, Ohio, Mason brings a diverse range of athletic administrative experience to the position. Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Mason worked as the Assistant Director of Compliance at James Madison University from 2003-04, where she assisted in many facets of the department's day-to-day operations. Mason served as the primary Compliance Officer and Sports Information Director for the University of North Carolina, Pembroke during the 2001 and 2002 athletic seasons.

Her first position out of college came with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, as she served as the Marketing and Media Relations Assistant with the team's nationally acclaimed cheerleading squad from 1993-96. A varsity cheerleader at SMU, Mason also served a three-year stint as William and Mary's cheerleading coach while she was pursuing her graduate degrees.

Mason and her husband, Monty, a 1989 graduate of the College and chairman of the Tribe Club, reside in Williamsburg with their daughter, Taylor Anne.

SPENCER Milne
Director of Ticket Operations

Spencer Milne is in his third year as the Director of Ticket Operations. Milne launched the Tribe's new dynamic ticketing system, TicketReturn, which has significantly improved the ticket office's ability to serve fans and alumni.

Milne comes to W&M from Florida Atlantic University, where he had been the Owls' director of ticket operations since January of 2005. Prior to Florida Atlantic, he was an assistant in the ticket office at Wake Forest from July of 2004 through December of 2005. Before that, Milne worked in the ticket office at Ohio University, as he earned his master's degrees in business administration (2003) and sports administration (2004).

Milne graduated from Ohio University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in sports industry and a minor in business administration. After earning his degree, he worked for one year as a facilities and operations intern at Southern Methodist University. Milne also has experience as a promotions and operations intern with Major League Soccer's D.C. United.

Milne and his wife, Lisa, reside in Toano.

MICHAEL Pritchett
Assistant AD, Facilities and Operations

Michael Pritchett joined the William and Mary Athletics Department in 2007 and brought with him a diverse and experienced background to the College. As the Assistant Athletics Director for Facilities and Operations, Pritchett serves William and Mary in a variety of areas, including overseeing the set up and operations of athletic events as well as maintenance and improvement of facilities.

Pritchett came to William and Mary after serving as the Director of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations, as well the Assistant Director of Marketing and Promotion at Idaho State University. As Director of Facilities and Operations, he scheduled a majority of athletic events for Idaho State as well as coordinated and supervised the set up and operations of all athletic events.

As Assistant Director for Marketing and Promotion, Pritchett helped increase athletic attendance at football and women's basketball games, as well as tripling the corporate sponsorship revenue in six months.

A graduate of Idaho State University, Pritchett earned a B.S. in Physical Education in 2002 with a minor in World History. In August of 2003, he earned his Masters in Athletic Administration also from Idaho State.

From 1983 to 1992 Pritchett served in the United States Marine Corps in the 3rd Battalion, stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina where he supervised all marine training operations within his platoon level all the while attending Leadership Training School.

Pritchett is also very active in service and volunteer work; he has been a Special Olympics Volunteer since 1998 and Relay for Life volunteer since 2005. He has also worked in support of the 'National Girls and Women in Sports Day' and has coordinated fund raising efforts for the Gate City Youth Soccer League.

JASON Simms

Coordinator of Academic Support

As Coordinator of Academic Support, Jason Simms acts as an academic advisor to the College's varsity athletes and is currently in his second year at William and Mary. Simms assists student-athletes in maintaining excellence in the classroom, scheduling classes, and assisting in future planning.

Simms brought a diverse background to the William and Mary Athletic Department from his work at Salisbury University. He acted as the Associate Dean of Admissions as well as the Director of Minority Recruitment. In regards to athletics, Simms worked as the Admissions Athletics Liaison and an Assistant Men's Basketball Coach for the SU Sea Gulls.

As an assistant basketball coach for Salisbury University, Simms advised and scheduled classes for athletes during registration periods, monitored mandatory study hall sessions, and provided academic guidance throughout the semester for athletes. During his work as the admissions-athletic liaison, he coordinated relationships between teams, coaching staff, and the enrollment management, as well as assisted the Director of Athletics with NCAA compliance and eligibility requirements.

Simms was also a member of the Board of Directors for Kids of Honor in Cambridge, Md., providing guidance to elementary and middle school-aged first generation college-bound students.

Simms attended Frostburg State University, graduating in 1994 with a B.S. in Business Administration. An excellent student athlete himself, he was a member of both the basketball and baseball teams at FSU from 1990-1994. He acted as team captain of the basketball team during the 1993-1994 season and received the team MVP award. Simms also captained the baseball team during the 1994 season while earning the baseball team MVP award in 1993 and 1994.

He earned his Masters of Education in Guidance and Counseling in 2002 from the University of Maryland - Eastern Shore. Since then Simms has been a member and college delegate representative for the Potomac and Chesapeake Association of College Admission Counseling as well as an active member of the National Association of Athletic Academic Advisors (N4A).

Simms resides in Williamsburg and enjoys working out and playing golf in his spare time.

ROB Turner

Associate Sports Information Director
Secondary Football Media Contact

Rob Turner enters his third year as the Associate Sports Information Director at William and Mary and serves as the secondary football contact.

Prior to joining the W&M staff, he spent five years with the University of Tennessee Lady Volunteer Media Relations Department as a student and graduate assistant.

As a G.A. at Tennessee, he worked primarily with the Lady Vol basketball team. In addition to coordinating interviews, he assisted with the production of various publications, including the 2004-05 media guide that was judged "Best in the Nation" by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

A native of Williamsburg, Va., Turner earned his undergraduate degree in communications from UT in 2003 and a master's degree in sport management in 2005.

DAN Wakely

Assistant AD,
Business Affairs

Dan Wakely enters his first year as the Assistant AD for Business Relations after spending the previous two years as a business manager in the W&M Athletics Department. In his current position, Wakely assists in formulating the athletics department budget and working with all head coaches and directors for managing the budget. Additionally, he manages the day-to-day operations of the business office with the assistance of business managers Chelsey Pryor and Chad Zwierlein and intern Kevin Kirby. Wakely also serves as a liaison between the administration and the men's soccer, baseball, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's golf programs.

Prior to joining the business office in June 2006, Wakely worked eight years in the Tribe Sports Information Department. During his final five years with the office, he held the title of Associate Sports Information Director and worked with the field hockey, men's soccer, men's basketball and men's and women's tennis programs.

A native of Warren, Maine, Wakely earned a bachelor's of business administration degree in marketing and a minor in kinesiology from William and Mary in 1998. He later earned his master's degree in business administration from the College in 2001.

MILLIE West

Director of Special Projects

An integral part of William and Mary athletics for more than 40 years, Millie West began another chapter of her affiliation with the College in 1991 when she retired as Associate Athletics Director and assumed the role of Director of Special Projects.

A highly successful fund raiser, she has been a key in the success of the four BASF Wightman Cup tennis tournaments held at the College, as well as the annual Plumeri Pro-Am golf tournament which has reaped great benefits for the College. West coordinated W&M's Indoor Tennis Center Project, which brought the McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center onto campus. She is also the curator, and 1998 inductee, of the ITA Women's Tennis Hall of Fame at the center.

A 1957 graduate of Georgia College, West, who was awarded the USTA Educational Merit Award, is also a member of the W&M Athletic Hall of Fame. She also serves on executive committees for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Williamsburg Community Health Foundation.

Established in 1948 to create support for William and Mary Athletics, the Tribe Club is made up of alumni and friends of the College's athletics programs. Due to the fact that W&M receives no aid from the state for its sports programs, the Tribe Club is the sole provider of scholarships for William and Mary's student-athletes. Additionally, money raised annually by the Tribe Club helps defray a portion of the operating expenses for program support.

Whether you are a former Tribe student-athlete, a proud alum, a Tribe parent or a fan of William and Mary Athletics, you are invited to join the Tribe Club. By donating to the unrestricted fund or to a specific sport, you are providing opportunities for many young men and women to experience both academic and athletic excellence here at the College. In addition to supporting our student-athletes with generous gifts, Tribe Club members receive exclusive benefits based on their giving level, as well as invitations to tailgates, pre-game and halftime events, golf outings and regional Tribe Club social events.

To join, you can make a contribution to the Tribe Club online at www.tribeclub.com or send your donation to PO Box 399, Williamsburg, VA, 23187. Thanks to all those who are loyal members of the Tribe Club family. Your support of our gifted and talented athletes is truly appreciated. We could not succeed without you!

Weekly Football Press Luncheon

Every Tuesday afternoon during the regular season, members of the media are encouraged to join coach Laycock and various Tribe players for the W&M weekly football press luncheon, starting at noon at the Hospitality House on Richmond Road across from Zable Stadium.

Lunch is served at noon, followed by opening statements by Laycock and a question-and-answer session for members of the media. Student-athletes are available for one-on-one interviews following the luncheon.

The date of the first luncheon will be announced in August. Please confirm your attendance with Pete Clawson in the sports information office.

Weekly CAA Football Coaches Call

The CAA Football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, Aug. 25. The call will take place each Monday throughout the entire 2008 season. The call will come to an end when the final CAA Football squad loses its final game in the 2008 NCAA Division I National Championships. Coaches will only participate in the postseason calls if their teams are still alive in Championship play. The teleconference will open with the release of the selected player of the week winners, a recap of the weekend and a preview of the following week. CAA Football coaches will be available to answer questions beginning at 10:10 a.m. The weekly lineup is listed below. The phone number to take part in the call is 888-289-3996. Members of the media should contact Scott Meyer (804-754-1616 x20) at the CAA office for the password to access the call. Comments from the call will also be available on the web at www.CAAsports.com each Monday after 1 p.m.

The William and Mary Radio Network

All W&M radio broadcasts can be heard via a live simultaneous web stream online at TribeAthletics.com, the official Internet home of Tribe sports. Click the Live Audio link at the top of page for more information.

The broadcast team of Jay Colley and Bob Sheeran will once again relay the excitement of Tribe football over the airwaves. Play-by-play chief Colley also covers the Tribe basketball squad. A mass communications graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, Colley has been a fixture of the Tribe's sports broadcasts for more than 20 years. In 2002, Colley was granted honorary alumnus status by William and Mary.

Bob Sheeran has never drifted far from the beat of W&M sports. A 1967 graduate of the College, Sheeran served as W&M's sports information director for 16 years before entering private business in 1985. He has teamed up with Colley for the last 23 years as part of the football broadcasts and has also served as an integral part of all W&M Quarterback Club booster functions since his graduation. A testament to his dedication to the College was witnessed in 2003 as an endowment was organized in his name by HEYFARL (a W&M football booster organization) to provide scholarship support for a Tribe walk-on football player.
