TRIBE HITS THE ROAD TO BATTLE TOWSON AND GEORGE MASON

The William and Mary men's soccer team will begin the most difficult portion of its Colonial Athletic Association schedule with five of its next six matches on the road. The College will travel to face Towson on Friday, Oct. 19, at 3 p.m., before battling George Mason on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 2 p.m. W&M is currently 6-5-2 on the season and tied for third in the CAA at 3-1.

W&M HOME GAMES LIVE OVER THE INTERNET

All nine W&M men's soccer home matches will be broadcast live over Internet at TribeAthletics.com. Click on the Live Audio link at the top of the homepage or on the Listen Live link on the schedule page.

TRIBE NEWS AND NOTES

- For the second time this season, W&M garnered a regional ranking. The Tribe are No. 10 in the South Atlantic Region poll released by the NSCAA on Oct. 16.

- The Tribe was No. 64 in the Division I midseason RPI standings released by the NCAA on Oct. 15. W&M is listed third among CAA schools behind Old Dominion (No. 40) and Drexel (No. 52).

- W&M has started at least five freshmen in each of its last 10 contests, going 5-3-2 over the stretch. For the first time in school history, the Tribe started six freshmen in its CAA opening wins over Hofstra and Northeastern.

- Senior Ryan Overdevest and junior Doug McBride are the W&M captains for 2007.

- Sophomore Price Thomas has registered a point in each of the Tribe's last seven matches, while scoring a goal in the last four contests.

- Redshirt freshman goalkeeper Andrew McAdams made his first collegiate start in the Tribe's 3-1 win over Temple, finishing with three saves. In games in which McAdams starts, W&M is 5-3-2 with a goals against average of 0.95.

- Seven W&M player have garnered their first collegiate points in 2007. Redshirt freshman Alan Koger scored his first collegiate goal in the Tribe's victory over Temple, while sophomore Jeremy Harris opened the season with his first marker against Elon and junior Doug McBride scored his first career goal at Stony Brook. Most recently, sophomore Roger Bothe tallied his first career goal on a PK against JMU. Redshirt freshman Andrew McAdams (assist vs. American) and freshmen Nathaniel Baako (assist vs. Dartmouth) and Michael DiNuzzo (assist vs. Temple) tallied their first career points on assists this season.

- Two former W&M players are currently playing professionally in Major League Soccer (MLS) and with a club in the Norway. Wade Barrett (1994-97) is in his second season with the Houston Dynamo, after captaining the club to the 2006 MLS Cup. He has earned 29 starts this season, assisting on two goals. The Dynamo currently lead the MLS Western Division and having already secured a playoff spot. Former All-American Adin Brown (1996-99) is the first-team goalkeeper for Aalesunds FK in Norway. Brown has five shutouts in 20 games for Aalesunds FK and even scored the last-minute equalizing header against defending champion Rosenborg in July. In total, over 28 former Tribe players have played pro soccer at some level.

- The Tribe is 15-8-9 all-time at Albert-Daly Field, including a 5-1-1 mark this season.

- W&M improved to 30-6-2 all-time in home openers with its win over Elon. The Tribe is a perfect 4-0 under head coach Chris Norris in home openers.

- Juniors Nathan Belcher and Doug McBride were named to the Penn State Classic All-Tournament Team. Redshirt freshman Alan Koger, freshman Nathaniel Baako and junior Brock Jones were named to the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic All-Tournament Team.

-W&M was greeted by a boisterous crowd of 667 when its hosted then-No. 15 Virginia Tech. It was the largest crowd for the Tribe since a crowd of 850 versus North Carolina in 2005.

SCOUTING TOWSON

Towson enters its match with the Tribe at 6-4-1 overall and 3-1 in the CAA. The Tigers had their 14-match CAA unbeaten streak snapped at the hands of Drexel, 2-1, on Oct. 12, before rebounding to close out the weekend with a 3-0 win over Delaware on Oct. 14. The Tigers are ranked No. 8 in the NSCAA South Atlantic Region standings.

The Tribe and Tigers have one common opponent this season in Stony Brook. Towson defeated the Seawolves, 2-1, at home in overtime, while the Tribe suffered a 2-1 defeat at Stony Brook.

Towson is the No. 3 scoring offense in the country at 2.45 goals per game. Pat Healey leads the Tigers in scoring with 16 points on six goals and four assists. Cesar Cisneros, Matt Beckman, Kevin Ruck and Angus Burke each of a three goals on the season for Towson. Cisneros and Beckman each have double-digit points for TU at 11 and 10, respectively. Cisneros leads Towson in assists with five. Billy Chiles has played every minute in goal for the Tigers and has a goals against average of 1.21 to go along with 61 saves and three shutouts.

W&M leads the all-time series with Towson at 5-2-2, including a 2-1-2 mark at Towson. The Tigers have won two of the last three matches between the two schools with the 2005 affair ending in a tie. Last season, Towson downed W&M, 3-0, in Williamsburg.

SCOUTING GEORGE MASON

The Patriots enter the weekend at 5-5-1 on the season and 2-2 in the CAA. George Mason will host Old Dominion on Friday, Oct. 19, before welcoming the Tribe to Fairfax, Va. Last weekend, GMU split its CAA affairs, winning at Delaware, 1-0, in double overtime, before falling to Drexel, 1-0.

The Tribe and Patriots have one common opponent on the year in American. GMU fell to the Eagles at home, 2-1, while W&M downed AU, 1-0, in Williamsburg.

Freshman Fro Adu, the younger brother of American soccer star Freddy Adu, leads the Patriots with three goals on the season. Irvin Martinez shares team high-scoring honors with Adu, having registered six points (2g, 2a) on the year. Kwame Adjeman-Pamboe also has two goals on the season for George Mason. Sean Kelley has started every game in goal for GMU. He has a goals against average of 1.10 to go along with 43 saves and three shutouts.

The Tribe leads the all-time series with George Mason at 21-13-4, including a slim 7-6-2 advantage in Fairfax. Last season, the two teams played to a scoreless draw in Williamsburg.

LOOKING INTO HIS CRYSTAL BALL

W&M head coach Chris Norris has been spot on each of the last two seasons when noting Tribe players on the verge of a breakout season. Last season, Norris said he felt it was time for midfielder Doug Ernst to step to the forefront for the College, and the Alexandria, Va., native went on to lead the CAA in assists with nine. This season, Norris said he expected big things from sophomore Price Thomas, and the Charlottesville, Va., native has followed suit.

With W&M limited at the forward position this season, Thomas has stepped in to fill the void alongside blossoming redshirt freshmen striker Alan Koger. Thomas, who started 17 of 19 matches as a true freshman in the midfield, is starting to establish himself as one of the more dangerous players in the CAA with the ball at his feet. In each of the Tribe's last seven games, the Charlottesville, Va., native has registered a point for the Tribe. Over the stretch, he has tallied six goals and an assist to lead the Tribe in scoring. Thomas has tallied game-winners in three of the Tribe's last six matches, scoring the decisive goal against American on Sept. 25, in the CAA opener versus Hofstra on Oct. 5 and vs. VCU on Oct. 14.

Thomas ranks among the CAA leaders on points, goals and game-winning goals. He leads the league in game-winning goals with three, while ranking third in goals (6) and fourth in points (13).

FAST CAA STARTS

The Tribe started the CAA portion of its schedule winning its opening two contest. The 2-0 start marked the College's best since the 2002 when W&M opened the conference season with a 5-0-1 record before dropping its first league match of the season. In fact, the Tribe's 3-1 ledger is its best through four matches in league play since the 2002 team was 3-0-1.

The Tribe's 2-0 start marked the seventh time in the Tribe's 23-year history in the CAA that W&M has opened the CAA 2-0. The Tribe has started 2-0 in the CAA during the 2002, 1996, 1994, 1989, 1987 and 1986 seasons. On four of those occasions, the College went on to win the CAA regular season championship.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

A glance at the Tribe roster will bring about one common theme, youth. The W&M roster features 17 of 25 players, who are underclassmen (freshmen, redshirt freshmen and sophomores). Head coach Chris Norris has wasted little time not only putting the Tribe's youth movement on display, but relying on it to win matches for the College.

In the College's CAA opening wins over Hofstra and Northeastern, the Tribe lineup featured six freshmen. It marked the first time in school history that six freshmen have started together in a match. In fact, in each of the Tribe's last 10 matches, five or more freshmen have started. The Tribe is a remarkable 5-3-2 over that stretch.

Against Hofstra on Oct. 5, the Tribe starting XI featured redshirt freshmen Andrew McAdams and Alan Koger along with true freshmen Nick Orozco, Michael DiNuzzo, Derek Buckley and Nathaniel Baako. The youth movement didn't stop there as nine of the 11 starters were underclassmen with sophomores Roger Bothe, Price Thomas and Jeremy Harris joining the fold.

In the College's season-opening win over Elon, the starting XI featured four true freshmen (Nick Orozco, Michael DiNuzzo, Nathaniel Baako and Ian Stowe). It marked the first time in 15 years that four true freshmen started the same game. The last time a W&M starting lineup included four true freshmen was Nov. 14, 1992 when Chris Scrofani, Tim Pricso, Bill Owens and Greg Richards started the Tribe's First Round NCAA Tournament victory over West Virginia. The 1992 campaign was also the last time five freshmen started at least one game during the season as Andrew Petty started eight games as well as the four players who started the NCAA Tournament affair.

DOWN RIGHT DEFENSIVE

W&M head coach Chris Norris tinkered with his defensive lineup over the opening part of the regular season, and if recent results are any indication, Norris has pushed the right buttons. The first change came prior to the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic moving redshirt freshman goalkeeper Andrew McAdams into the starting XI. The changes continued a week later as the fourth-year Tribe headman moved junior Brock Jones to center back in an attempt to solidify the backline prior to the North Carolina match.

The moves have paid dividends as W&M has posted a 5-3-2 mark to go along with a 0.95 goals against average in the 10 games since the initial change. In fact, over the Tribe's last eight matches, W&M has a GAA of 0.82, while registering four shutouts. The College shutout ACC foe North Carolina on the road on Sept. 19, before holding the nation's No. 7-ranked scoring offense, Virginia Tech, to only one goal in 110 minutes of play.

To make the Tribe's defensive strides more impressive is the influx of youth in the back third of the field. The W&M lineup not only sports a first-year goalkeeper in McAdams but also includes true freshmen Nick Orozco and Michael DiNuzzo in the back along with sophomore Roger Bothe. The trio of Orozco, DiNuzzo and Bothe has started every match this season for the Tribe.

In the Tribe's CAA opening wins over Hofstra and Northeastern, freshman back Derek Buckley stepped in for an injury Brock Jones in the back. The starts were the first of Buckley's W&M career.

KOGER MAKING AN IMPACT UP TOP

Redshirt freshman forward Alan Koger has made his presence felt in the attacking half for the Tribe in 2007. After coming on as a reserve in the Tribe's opening three matches of the season, Koger moved into the starting lineup prior to the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic and has been there ever since. Over the Tribe's last eight games, Koger has nine points on three goals and three assists. In his first career start against Temple, Koger tallied two goals to lead the Tribe to a 3-1 victory.

Koger has not only made his impact in the scoring department for the Tribe, but also with his ability in the air as well. The 6-2 striker gives the College a big target in the attacking half, and has demonstrated the ability to dominate a game by winning balls in the air. On two different occasions this season against Virginia Tech and Hofstra, Koger has flicked a header off a long ball to set up W&M goals.

McADAMS GARNERS CAA ROOKIE OF THE WEEK HONOR

After helping the Tribe register a pair of ties against Atlantic Coast Conference foes North Carolina, 0-0, and current No. 9 Virginia Tech, 1-1, redshirt freshman goalkeeper Andrew McAdams was named CAA Rookie of the Week on Sept. 24. McAdams became the first Tribe rookie to earn the CAA weekly honor since Brennan Wergley garnered the accolade in 2005.

In the Tribe's 0-0 stalemate at North Carolina, McAdams tallied his first career shutout making 10 saves in just his third career start. The Palm Harbor, Fla., native came up with the biggest save of the game in the second overtime period. After W&M was whistled for a foul in the box, McAdams denied Scott Campbell's penalty kick with a kick save in the 105th minute of play to preserve the shutout. His 10-save performance was the best by a W&M goalkeeper since Kris Rake had 10 stops against then-No. 1 Maryland on Sept. 22, 2004.

McAdams followed that performance with a seven-save effort allowing only one goal to the nation's No. 7-ranked scoring offense in Virginia Tech. The Hokies came into the match averaging three goals a game over their five-match win streak, but could only muster a single score in a 110 minutes against the Tribe. For the week, McAdams finished with a goals against average of 0.41 against a pair of teams who have been in the national top-25 or receiving votes throughout the 2007 season.

KOGER NAMED CAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Redshirt freshman men's soccer player Alan Koger was named the Colonial Athletic Association Player of the Week on Sept. 17. Koger scored three goals for the Tribe at the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic on his way to earning All-Tournament team honors. Koger became the first Tribe men's soccer player this season and the 26th overall to win the CAA weekly honor.

In the College's 3-1 win over Temple, Koger earned his first career start and responded by providing a vital scoring punch for the Tribe. The Spencer, Va., native tallied goals just 2:16 apart in the opening 20 minutes of the play to stake the Tribe to a 2-0 advantage. W&M's first marker came in the 17th minute of play as Koger jumped on a rebound, heading the ball into the back of the net for the goal. At the 18:46, Koger struck again to give the Tribe a little breathing room at 2-0 as he beat the Owl goalkeeper to the ball on a service from junior midfielder Brock Jones.

Koger notched his third goal of the weekend in the Tribe's 2-1 loss to Dartmouth. The 6-2 striker scored on a breakaway following a through ball from fellow rookie Nathaniel Baako in the 30th minute of play. On the weekend, Koger registered eight shots, including six on goal.
