RETURNING TO THE LINEUP

After missing four of the Tribe's previous five matches due to injury, junior forward Andrew Hoxie returned to the W&M lineup in a big way against George Mason. He came on as a second-half sub against the Patriots and promptly assisted on the game-winning goal as the Tribe pulled out a 1-0 overtime win at Mason. This season, Hoxie ranks third on the team in points (7) and goals (2) and second in assists with three despite only playing in five matches. He got off to a great start to the 2008 campaign for the College, registering a goal and an assist in each of the Tribe's first two games of the season. The Tribe has been a more successful team with Hoxie in the lineup. The Tribe is 4-0-1 on the season when Hoxie plays, but 1-2-1 without him in the lineup.

THOMAS FINDS HIS GROOVE

Junior forward Price Thomas earned First-Team All-CAA honors last season, while leading the Tribe in scoring with 17 points on seven goals and three assists. After a slow start to the season, the Charlottesville, Va., native has increased his production over the last five games. Over the stretch, Thomas has seven points on three goals and an assist. Two of this three markers have been game-winners, including the strike against George Mason just 29 seconds into overtime on Oct. 4.

BAAKO TURNING INTO AN OFFENSIVE FORCE

Sophomore Nat Baako has long been a key fixture in the Tribe offense, starting every match for W&M since stepping on the Williamsburg campus from Accra, Ghana in 2007. During his sophomore season, the heady sparkplug has been an offensive force for the Green and Gold. Baako currently leads the Tribe and ranks among the CAA leads in points (11), goals (4) and assists (3).

The 5-5 dynamo enjoyed a breakout start to the 2008 season at the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic, earning MVP honors after finishing with three goals and an assist. Baako was also named CAA co-Player of the Week following his performance at the event. He scored his first collegiate goal in the Tribe's win over UCF and then exploded for both Green and Gold tallies in the program's 2-2 tie with 2007 NCAA College Cup Semifinalist UMass.

OFFENSIVELY SPEAKING

The Tribe ranks among the CAA leaders in every offensive category. The Green and Gold is second in the league in shots and corners, third in points and fourth in goals. W&M is the conference leader in both assists on just under two per game. The Tribe has dished out 17 assists on the year, an average of just under two per game. Everyone has gotten in on the act as 10 different Green and Gold players have tallied assists on the year. Sophomore Nat Baako and junior Andrew Hoxie lead the Tribe and rank fifth in the CAA with three assists each.

ODU/STIHL SOCCER CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIP

For the second time in the last three seasons and the fifth time overall, the College won the ODU/Stihl Soccer Classic as a result of its 1-0-1 record at the event. The Tribe opened with a 3-1 win over Central Florida on Sept. 12, before forging a 2-2 tie with 2007 NCAA College Cup Semifinalist UMass on Sept. 14. The College improved to 26-13-5 (.648) all-time at the Stihl Soccer Classic, having competed in the event on 22 occasions. W&M also claimed the event title in 1987, 1992, 1998 and 2006.

2008 TRIBE MEN'S SOCCER

VALUABLE FIRST

Sophomore Nick Orozco enjoyed a solid rookie season for the Tribe in 2007, starting all 21 games at center back and helping to anchor a defense that set a program record with six shutouts during the CAA portion of the schedule. While his defensive exploits are well documented, Orozco had yet to register a shot, let alone a point in a collegiate game. That was until the Tribe's season opener against UNC Greensboro. The Moseley, Va., native made his first collegiate shot count, volleying in a rebound in the 88th minute to help the Tribe secure a 2-1 win over the Spartans.

COMEBACK WINS

The Tribe's 2-1 come-from-behind win over UNC Greensboro was the team's first since the 2006 season. Last season, W&M was 0-6 when its opponent scored first in a game. After UNCG took a 1-0 advantage with a penalty kick in the 14th minute, W&M responded to pull even with just over three minutes remaining in the opening half and then tacked on the game-winner in the 88th minute. It was the first comeback win since W&M overcame a 2-0 deficit against Georgia State on Oct. 20, 2006 on its way to a 4-2 victory. During head coach Chris Norris' tenure, W&M has five comeback victories.

THOMAS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CAA

Junior forward Price Thomas was named to the Preseason All-CAA Team. Thomas is one of six players in the league who returns in 2008 after earning first-team all-conference laurels last season.

In 2007, Thomas enjoyed a breakout season and became the first Tribe player since 2004 to earn First-Team All-CAA honors. The Charlottesville, Va., native led the Tribe and ranked among the CAA leaders in shots (40), points (17), goals (7), assists (3) and game-winning goals (4). He topped the conference in game-winning goals, while also ranking seventh in goals and ninth in points. Earlier in the season, Thomas registered a point in seven straight games from Sept. 22-Oct. 14. Included over that stretch, he scored a goal in each of the first four CAA games of the season.

MCADAMS NAMED TO CSN'S PLAYERS TO WATCH IN 2008.

Sophomore goalkeeper Andrew McAdams was named as one of College Soccer News Players to Watch in 2008. McAdams was one of nine goalkeepers nationally to be named to the list, developed by CSN talent analyst Joe Mauceri as part of the Web sites College Soccer Coast to Coast preseason coverage.

In his analysis of the goalkeeper position, Mauceri said, "I look for players with good hands; who are decisive, fearless when needed, and who understand good positioning." The second-year Tribe backstop demonstrated his mettle as one of the top up-and-coming goalkeepers in the country last season. The Palm Harbor, Fla., native turned in one of the best statistical seasons for a Tribe goalkeeper on his way to earning CAA All-Rookie Team honors.

McAdams garnered his first collegiate start in the Tribe's fourth game of the regular season in 2007 and never relinquished the slot. He finished his rookie campaign among the Tribe's single-season leaders in save percentage (fourth at .850), shutouts (sixth with seven), saves (fifth with 96) and goals against average (seventh at 0.87). McAdams was instrumental in organizing a young Tribe defense, which started three freshmen and a sophomore in the defensive third. The W&M defense posted a school-record six shutouts during the CAA portion of the schedule. McAdams finished as the CAA leader in save percentage, while also finishing ranked 10th nationally in the category. He also ranked third in the CAA in both goals against average and saves, while ranking 23rd nationally in saves per game and 42nd in goals against average.
