SCOUTING WAKE FOREST

The Demon Deacons enter the NCAA Championship Second Round as the tournament's No. 1 overall seed and at 18-1-1 on the season. Wake Forest is coming off its first loss of the season, falling to Virginia, 3-2, in the semifinals of the ACC Championship. The only other blemish on the Demon Deacons' resume is a 0-0 tie with Duke during the regular season. Wake Forest has been ranked No. 1 nationally throughout the regular season after capturing the NCAA Championship in 2007.

The Demon Deacons are the top scoring team in the country at 3.4 goals per game, having scored 68 overall on the season. Cody Arnoux and Marcus Tracey lead the way for Wake Forest and rank among the top 30 nationally in goals and points per game. Arnoux leads the team with 33 points on 14 goals and five assists, while Tracey is right behind with 31 points on 12 goals and seven assists. Corben Bone leads nation in assists with 16 on the season to go along with six goals. Both Zack Schilawski and Sam Cronin have eight goals on the year for Wake Forest, while Jamie Franks in second on the squad in assists with 10. Goalkeeper Akira Fitzgerald has played nearly every minute for the Demon Deacons and owns a GAA of 0.69 to go along with 56 saves and 11 shutouts.

Wake Forest won the ACC regular season championship and owned the league awards as well. Head coach Jay Vidovich was named the ACC Coach of the Year for the fourth time, while Ike Opara garnered the league's Defender of the Year. Opara was joined on the All-ACC First Team by Arnoux, Bone, Cronin and Tracy. Opara and Tracey were named to Top Drawer Soccer's First Team of the Season, the Web sites version of All-American.

W&M and Wake Forest have played on three other occasions with the Demon Deacons coming away with the victory in each instance. The last meeting between the two teams was in Winston-Salem as part of the Wake Forest adidas Classic in 2006 when the Deacs pulled out a 1-0 win over the Tribe.

HOXIE NAMED TO NATIONAL TEAM OF THE WEEK

Junior Andrew Hoxie was named to the College Soccer News National Team of the Week after leading the Tribe to a 3-1 NCAA Championship First Round victory over Winthrop. The Newport News, Va., native is the first Tribe player to earn the weekly honor from the Web site since 2004. It marks the third national team of the week honor in Hoxie's career as he also earned the distinction twice in 2006 from Top Drawer Soccer.

In the College's NCAA victory over Winthrop, Hoxie scored the College's first two goals for his third multi-goal game of the season. W&M came out firing as Hoxie scored just 34 seconds into the match to give the Green and Gold an early 1-0 cushion. He finished off a pass from sophomore Nat Baako into the center netting from eight yards out. In the 10th minute of play, Hoxie provided W&M with all the scoring it would need, finishing off a breakaway chance from sophomore Alan Koger.

SCORING QUICKLY

The Tribe wasted little time making itself comfortable in the 2008 NCAA Championship, scoring just 34 seconds into its opening round game against Winthrop. Junior forward Price Thomas worked the ball up the left side, before sophomore Nat Baako eventually slide it to a wide-open Andrew Hoxie. The Tribe striker finished into the center netting from eight yards out to give the Tribe the early lead. It was the fastest goal into a match for W&M since in scored 29 seconds into a 3-2 loss at Georgia State on Sept. 30, 2005.

SHUTTING DOWN A POTENT ATTACK

The Tribe defense turned in an impressive performance in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, limiting the fourth-highest scoring offense in the country to a late goal. Winthrop, who won the Big South, entered the NCAA Tournament averaging 2.24 goals per game.

Sophomore goalkeeper Andrew McAdams finished with six saves in goal as the Tribe defense stymied the Eagle attack. Flanking McAdams was the outstanding play of the Green and Gold sophomore center back duo of Nick Orozco and Michael DiNuzzo. The pair limited Big South Player of the Year Daniel Revivo to zero shots in the game. Revivo entered the game rankings in the top 25 nationally in both points and goals per game.

KOGER PROVIDING SCORING PUNCH

Sophomore forward Alan Koger has been a key reserve for the College in 2008, appearing in every game and ranking among the CAA leaders in goals throughout the season. The Spencer, Va., native helped ignite the Green and Gold attack in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, scoring a goal and assisting on the game-winner. Koger made his fifth start of the season in the opening round against Winthrop. The 6-2 striker ranks fourth in the CAA in both goals and points. For the year, Koger has 20 points on eight goals and two assists.

ON THE WINNING END

Fifth-year W&M head coach Chris Norris has been a part of the Tribe program in various capacities through his time in Williamsburg as a player, an assistant coach and now the head coach. In his 17 seasons with the Green and Gold program, Norris has been involved in every W&M victory in the NCAA Tournament. He was a player for the Tribe in its first victory in the NCAA tournament against West Virginia in 1992 and was an assistant coach for the next six Tribe wins. On Nov. 21, he guided the Tribe to the program's eighth NCAA Tournament victory over Winthrop, 3-1.

AS THE HOST...

The Tribe hosted a NCAA Tournament game in Williamsburg for only the third time and the first in 16 years during the opening round of the 2008 event. W&M last hosted an NCAA Tournament contest in Williamsburg during the 1992 season when it downed West Virginia, 2-0, in the opening round at Busch Field. The Tribe also hosted an NCAA Quarterfinal game against Alabama A&M during the 1980 campaign. W&M improved to 2-1 in NCAA Tournament games in Williamsburg with its 3-1 win over Winthrop. The Tribe-Eagle game was the first-ever NCAA Tournament game at Albert-Daly Field.

W&M served as the host of NCAA Tournament games since 1992, but those contests were played in Norfolk, Va. Due to an NCAA rule that prohibited championship competition on artificial turf, the College could not host a home game in Williamsburg until the completion of Albert-Daly Field in 2004. Prior to 2004, W&M played its home games at Busch Field, which is an artificial turf facility on campus. The 1996 NCAA Tournament matches against Army and St. John's were played at the ODU Soccer Stadium in Norfolk, Va.

PLAYING IT CLOSE

Of the Tribe's 21 NCAA Tournament games, 17 have been decided by a goal or gone to a shoot-out. W&M has never been defeated in the NCAA Tournament by more than a goal. Prior to the College's 3-1 win over Winthrop, each of the Tribe's last nine NCAA Tournament matches had been decided by a goal.

HOXIE A VALUED COMMODITY

Junior Andrew Hoxie has been a valuable asset to the Tribe in 2008 and the numbers back it up. Despite playing in only 14 of the Tribe's 20 matches and only making seven starts due to various injuries, Hoxie leads the Tribe and the CAA with 25 points on 10 goals and five assists. He has also tallied a trio of game-winning goals and two more game-winning assists. With Hoxie in the lineup, the College is 9-3-2 on the season and only 2-3-1 without the 6-4 striker. He has erupted for a pair of two-goal game this season, scoring two tallies in the win over Georgia State, before registering five points on two goals and an assist in the CAA Semifinal against George Mason. He tallied his third multi-goal game of the season, scoring the first two Tribe tallies in the NCAA Championship First Round win over Winthrop.

CAA SUCCESS IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

For the 12th time in the past 14 years, the CAA placed at least two teams in the NCAA Men's Soccer Championship field. W&M received an at-large bid to the event, while George Mason claimed the CAA Tournament crown to earn the league's at-large bid. The conference has had a great deal of success in recent years, with at least one team advancing to the third round in five of the past six seasons. Both the Tribe and Mason won their opening round games and advanced to the second round.

ON THE WINNING TRACK

With its 3-0 win over Drexel on Senior Night, the Tribe notched its 10th victory of the season. The Tribe's 11 wins in 2008 are the most for the program since the 2002 campaign, which was also the last time the Tribe advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The six CAA victories also gave the Tribe back-to-back league ledgers of 6-4-1. It marks the first time since the 1995 and 1996 campaigns that the College has won six or more conference games in back-to-back seasons.

LEADING THE WAY WITH FIVE ALL-CAA PLAYERS

W&M topped the CAA and tied a school record with five players named to the three all-league teams. Sophomore midfielder Nat Baako topped the list as a First-Team All-CAA selection, while junior forward Andrew Hoxie garnered second team accolades. It marks the second time Hoxie has earned second team all-league honors. Senior Doug McBride and juniors Price Thomas and Roger Bothe were named to the All-CAA third team. The All-CAA honor was the second of Thomas' Tribe career as well. It marked the sixth time the Tribe has had five All-CAA selections as it also pulled the trick in 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994 and 1996.

IN THE REGIONAL RANKINGS

The Tribe spent the entire 2008 season ranked among the top five in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America South Atlantic Region poll. In the final regular season poll, W&M was ranked No. 5 behind ACC programs Maryland, Virginia and Boston College as well as CAA Champion George Mason. The Green and Gold was ranked among the top three in six of the 12 polls this season.

ON THE OFFENSIVE

The Tribe has ranked among the top scoring teams in the Colonial Athletic Association throughout the 2008 season. Currently, W&M is ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in every offensive category. W&M leads the CAA in goals per game (1.8) and assists per game (1.7), while ranking second in assists (34), goals (36) and points (106). W&M also ranks 35th nationally in scoring offense.

The Green and Gold is the only team in the league with three players among the top 10 in points and the top 10 in goals. Junior Andrew Hoxie leads both the Tribe and the CAA with 10 goals and 25 points. Sophomore Nat Baako ranks fourth in points (18) and 10th in goals (6), while fellow classmate Alan Koger is also fourth in points (18) and fourth in goals (8). Junior forward Price Thomas and Baako are tied for second in the CAA in assists with six.

FIRST CAREER GAME-WINNERS

A quintet of Tribe players scored their first career game-winning goals in 2008, accounting for half of the College's wins this season. Both Tribe seniors Nathan Belcher and Doug McBride tallied the first clinchers of their careers, while junior Roger Bothe and sophomores Michael DiNuzzo and Nick Orozco also accomplished the feat this season.

Orozco opened the season with his first career goal, scoring the game-winner on a volley off a rebound with under three minutes remaining to knock off UNC Greensboro. Belcher was next scoring the game-winning goal in the Tribe's 2-1 overtime win at Elon. DiNuzzo, like Orozco, had his first career goal count for the game-winner on a toe poke from in close in the College's 2-0 win at Old Dominion. In each of the Tribe's last two home wins, McBride and Bothe accounted for the game-winners. McBride found the back of the net on a breakaway against Georgia State off a counter, while Bothe found the far side netting from 12 yards out with just four second left in the half to propel the Tribe to a 3-0 win over Drexel to close out the regular season.

ROAD WARRIORS

The Tribe has put up a remarkable 5-2-3 ledger away from Williamsburg this season, going 4-1-2 on the road and 1-1-1 at neutral sites. Included in that 5-2-3 mark is a tie with No. 6-ranked Loyola (Md.), 0-0, in September. The tie snapped a 13-match home winning streak for the Greyhounds.

2008 TRIBE MEN'S SOCCER

BATTLING THE BEST

Including its first round NCAA Tournament victory over Winthrop, the Tribe has faced eight conference champions during the 2008 season. W&M was 5-2-2 against the group with its setbacks coming to UNC Wilmington and George Mason, who won the CAA regular season and postseason crowns, respectively. The Tribe also faced Atlantic Sun regular season champion Campbell, Atlantic 10 regular season winner UMass, MAAC regular season champion Loyola (Md.) and Southern Conference regular season titlist Elon and postseason champion UNC Greensboro. The College opened the season with a 2-1 win over UNCG and also notched wins over Campbell, 3-2, in double overtime and Elon, 2-1, on the road. The Tribe also downed George Mason, 1-0, in overtime during the team's regular season affair. W&M played to a 2-2 draw with UMass at the ODU/Stihl Soccer Classic. The College also tied Loyola (Md.), who is ranked No. 10 nationally, 0-0, on the road and snapped the Greyhounds 13-match home winning streak.

WINNING TOUCH

Senior Doug McBride has been an unsung hero for the Tribe throughout his career. The 5-8 holding midfielder is a tireless worker that does a number of things that go unnoticed but in the end provide his team with a chance to be successful. The Mechanicsville, Va., native was finally recognized for his attributes, being named to the All-CAA third team as a senior. While McBride's numbers are not eye-catching at five points on a goal and three assists, one thing that rings true is the production of his points. Every one of McBride's points this season have come on game-winning goals. His lone marker of the year was the game-winner against Georgia State at home on Oct. 29, while his trio of assists against Central Florida, Elon and Delaware all came on game-winning goals.

DISHING IT OUT

The Tribe leads the CAA in assists per game and for good reason. W&M has six players with three or more assists on the season. The six players with three or more assists are the most for the College since it had seven in 2001. In total, 10 different Tribe players have tallied an assist on the season. Junior Price Thomas and sophomore Nat Baako are second in the CAA in assists with six each followed by junior Andrew Hoxie with five. Junior Roger Bothe has four assists on the year, while senior Doug McBride and junior Jeremy Harris each have three helpers for the Green and Gold.

BAAKO TURNING INTO AN OFFENSIVE FORCE

Sophomore Nat Baako has long been a key fixture in the Tribe offense, starting every match for W&M since stepping on the Williamsburg campus from Accra, Ghana in 2007. During his sophomore season, the heady spark plug has been an offensive force for the Green and Gold. Baako currently ranks among the CAA leads in points (18), goals (6), assists (6). He leads the Tribe in assists, ranks second in points and is third in goals. Baako is second in the CAA in assists, is fourth in points and 10th in goals.

The 5-5 dynamo enjoyed a breakout start to the 2008 season at the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic, earning MVP honors after finishing with three goals and an assist. Baako was also named CAA co-Player of the Week following his performance at the event. He scored his first collegiate goal in the win over UCF and then exploded for both W&M tallies in the program's 2-2 tie with 2007 NCAA College Cup Semifinalist UMass. In the Tribe's comeback 3-2 double overtime win over Campbell earlier this season, Baako assisted on each of the Tribe's final two goals, including the game-winner two minutes into the second extra session.

PERFECT FROM THE SPOT

Junior Andrew Hoxie has been clutch for the Tribe from the penalty mark over his three-year career. The 6-4 striker is a perfect 8-of-8 on penalty kicks over his career, including an unblemished 5-of-5 from the spot this season. He converted a pair of chances in the Tribe's CAA semifinal loss to George Mason.

THE PRICE IS RIGHT

After enjoying a breakout sophomore season in 2007, junior forward Price Thomas has been a marked man. Last season, he earned First-Team All-CAA honors, while leading the Tribe with 16 points on six goals and four assists. Thomas followed that up with another solid performance this season for the Green and Gold on his way to Third-Team All-CAA honors. He has 14 points on four goals and six assists. His assist total ranks second in the CAA. The Charlottesville, Va., native was recently named CAA Player of the Week after factoring in on all three Tribe goals against Drexel. He tallied a goal and two assists in the win. Earlier this season, Thomas scored the game-winner just 29 seconds into overtime as the College notched a 1-0 win at George Mason.

HATS OFF

Sophomore forward Alan Koger did something that had never been accomplished by a men's player in the five-year history of Albert-Daly Field earlier this season. He scored a hat trick in leading the Tribe to a 3-1 win over Delaware on Oct. 18. He was named CAA and ECAC Player of the Week for his efforts.

Koger tallied the 14th fastest three-consecutive goal hat trick in NCAA history during the Tribe's victory over the Fighting Blue Hens. He scored the three goals over a 15:32 stretch. The hat trick was also the first for a Tribe player since Brannon Thomas tallied a three-goal game against High Point on Sept. 18, 2001. Koger ranks second on the team and fourth in the CAA in goals and points with eight and 18, respectively.

CLEAN SHEETS

Sophomore Andrew McAdams currently ranks third in the CAA with six shutouts on the season, coming up just one shy of his rookie total in 2007. For his career, McAdams has 13 shutouts, which ties him for fifth on the Green and Gold's all-time list. The second-year Tribe backstop also ranks sixth in three different statistical categories: career saves (177), career save percentage (.794) and career goals against average (1.14).

BAAKO NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

Sophomore midfielder Nathaniel Baako was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District III Second Team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). It marks the eighth time in the last six years that a Tribe men's soccer player has been named to the academic all-district team by CoSIDA. Baako was one of five CAA players named to the academic all-district teams this season.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT

The Green and Gold has proven in 2008 that it is never out of game no matter how much time is remaining. During the 2008 campaign, the College has fallen behind by a goal and rallied to earn results on three occasions. On two occasions, W&M trailed with less than 10 minutes remaining before coming back.

In W&M season opener, the Tribe rallied from a 1-0 deficit to pull out a come-from-behind 2-1 win over UNC Greensboro. After an Andrew Hoxie penalty kick tied the game at one, sophomore Nick Orozco scored on a volley with less than three minutes remaining in the contest to help the Tribe pull out the victory. At the ODU Stihl Soccer Classic, UMass took a 2-1 lead in the 84th minute, but W&M tied the game less than three minutes later as sophomore Nat Baako found the back of the net. The game ended in a 2-2 tie. On Sept. 23, Campbell scored on a breakaway with six minutes remaining to take a 2-1 lead, but W&M did not quit as senior Nathan Belcher scored the equalizer in the 88th minute. Junior striker Price Thomas added the game-winner two minutes into the second overtime period. During head coach Chris Norris' tenure, W&M has six comeback victories.

IMPRESSIVE START

W&M jumped out to its best start since the 1994, going unbeaten through its first six matches at 4-0-2. The Tribe started the 1994 campaign on a school-record 12-match winning streak. The six-game unbeaten streak to start the season marks the sixth time in school history a W&M team has accomplished the feat. W&M also opened the 1970 (11 games), 1985 (10), 1987 (6) and 1991 (6) seasons with unbeaten streaks of six or more matches.

ODU/STIHL SOCCER CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIP

For the second time in the last three seasons and the fifth time overall, the College won the ODU/Stihl Soccer Classic as a result of its 1-0-1 record at the event. The Tribe opened with a 3-1 win over Central Florida on Sept. 12, before forging a 2-2 tie with 2007 NCAA College Cup Semifinalist UMass on Sept. 14. The College improved to 26-13-5 (.648) all-time at the Stihl Soccer Classic, having competed in the event on 22 occasions. W&M also claimed the event title in 1987, 1992, 1998 and 2006.
