W&M Men's Tennis to Open With Texas A&M-Corpus Christi at NCAA Tournament

William and Mary's men's tennis team, ranked 62nd in the nation, will travel across the state to Charlottesville to face No. 25 Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Friday, May 13 ... Should the Tribe win that match it will face either No. 2 Virginia or Richmond in the second round the following day, with the winner advancing to the tournament's final site at Texas A&M in College Station, Texas ... This will be the Tribe's ninth overall appearance in the NCAA Tournament ... W&M's last appearance at the event was when the Tribe earned an at-large bid in 1999 ... The Green and Gold earned an automatic bid this year by winning the Colonial Athletic Association tournament.

About the Tribe

W&M has a record of 11-14 overall this season and is ranked 62nd in the nation ... The Tribe won its third CAA title, and first since 1990, stunning top seed Virginia Commonwealth, 4-2, in the final ... After a slow start to the season, W&M has won seven of its last eight matches, including four wins over nationally ranked opponents ... Senior Jeff Kader is ranked 52nd in the nation in singles and was named the CAA Tournament MVP after winning all three of his singles and doubles matches at the event ... He upset both of the CAA's Co-Players of the Year on consecutive days in the semifinal and final matches of the tournament.

W&M Wins First Conference Title in 15 Years

The Tribe stunned nine-time defending champion Virginia Commonwealth, then ranked 38th in the nation, in the finals of the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament on April 24 ... The 4-2 victory gave W&M its first CAA title since 1990 and just its third conference title in school history ... The Rams had won every CAA title since joining the league in 1996.

Kader Picked to NCAA Singles Tournament

For the second straight season, Jeff Kader has been selected to compete in the NCAA Singles Tournament ... He is the only Tribe player in more than 50 years to be selected to the event ... Last season, he lost in the first round of the the event to Alex Vlaski (Washington), 7-5, 7-6 (5) ... Kader has a 10-17 career record against the other 63 players in the singles tournament.

Five Tribe Players Earn All-CAA Honors

Five W&M individuals earned All-CAA honors this season ... Freshman Alex Cojanu was named the league's Co-Rookie of the Year, joining current senior Sean Kelleher as the only Tribe players ever to earn that honor ... Senior Jeff Kader was named first team all-conference in singles for the third straight season and was voted to the second team in doubles with partner Cojanu ... The doubles team of Kelleher and junior Stephen Ward were named to the conference's first team for the second time ... Kelleher was joined by sophomore Colin O'Brien on the second team in singles.

Kader Winning When it Matters Most

Senior Jeff Kader, currently ranked 52nd in the nation, was named the Most Outstanding Performer of 2005 CAA Tournament after going 3-0 in both singles and doubles at the event

W&M in the NCAA Tournament

The NCAA Men's Tennis Championship has been decided by a dual-match, single-elimination tournament since 1977.

|-------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1946 | Second place |
| 1947 | NCAA champion |
| 1948 | NCAA champion |
| 1949 | Sixth place |
| 1950 | Ninth place |
| 1951 | Eighth place |
| 1973 | Tied for 44th place |
| 1999 | Lost at Clemson, 4-3, in first round |

W&M's two NCAA championships in men's tennis are the school's only national team titles in any sport. W&M's Gardner Larned won the NCAA singles title in 1947 and the Tribe's Bernard "Tut" Bartzen and Frank Kovaleski won the NCAA doubles championship in 1948.

... After an easy singles win in the quarterfinal round, he continued to impress in the last two matches, defeating both of the CAA's Co-Players of the Year in straight sets ... In the semifinal, Kader defeated No. 33 Izak van der Merwe (Old Dominion), 6-3, 6-4 ... The next day he beat No. 20 Arnaud Leclourec (Virginia Commonwealth), 6-3, 7-5 ... Kader teamed with freshman Alex Cojanu for a 3-0 record at No. 2 doubles, helping the Tribe clinch the doubles point in all three league tournament matches.

Close Calls

Five of W&M's losses this season have been decided by just one point, with all of those matches coming against higher-ranked opponents ... The Tribe has lost 4-3 decisions to No. 42 Boise State, No. 36 Alabama, No. 29 Harvard, No. 18 Notre Dame and No. 40 Virginia Commonwealth this season ... Last year, the Green and Gold had a record of 4-3 in matches decided by just one point.

Good Sport

Senior Jeff Kader was named as the recipient of the Blue-Gray Tennis Classic Sportsmanship Award ... The only player in the 16-team event to receive the award, Kader was selected ahead of more than 100 other players ... It was the second sportsmanship award in less than a year for the Tribe, as the team received the ITA National Team Sportsmanship Award for March of 2003, given to one of the over 1,200 ITA member institutions each month.

Rookie Cojanu Leading Tribe in Singles and Doubles Wins

Freshman Alex Cojanu the CAA's Co-Rookie of the Year, leads W&M with 24 singles victories and 24 doubles wins this season ... He is just three singles victories away from tying current senior Jeff Kader for the second-most by a Tribe freshman since 1986 and just two doubles wins from also tying for second in that category ... His 48 combined wins is the most by a Tribe rookie since current senior Alex Fish combined for 52 wins (26 each in singles and doubles) as a freshman in 2001-02.

Kader Named CAA Player of the Week Three Times

Senior Jeff Kader was named the CAA Singles Player of the Week a league-high three times this season, earning the award on March 16, March 30 and April 13 ... Kader is currently ranked 52nd in the nation in singles and has defeated nine nationally ranked opponents this season ... The 2005 CAA Tournament MVP was also named the CAA Singles Player of the Week on March 23 of last season.

Kelleher and Ward Named CAA Doubles Team of the Week

Senior Sean Kelleher and junior Stephen Ward were named the CAA Doubles Team of the Week on April 13 ... It was the only time this season that they won the award, although they also earned the award on April 6 of last season.

Streaking

The doubles team of senior Jeff Kader and freshman Alex Cojanu has won eight straight matches, the longest winning streak for the Tribe this season ... Senior Sean Kelleher enters the NCAA Tournament on a seven-match singles winning streak, tied for the longest by a W&M individual this season ... Cojanu had his seven-match winning streak stopped with a loss in the final of the CAA Tournament.

Strength in the Middle

The key to the Tribe's recent hot streak, in which the Green and Gold has won seven of eight matches, has been its consistency in the middle of the lineup ... During that time, the Tribe has a combined record of 23-5 (.821) at No. 2-5 singles and is 7-1 (.875) at No. 2 doubles.

Doubles the Key?

All 11 of W&M's wins this season have come after the Tribe opened a match by winning the crucial doubles point ... The only time all season that the College won the doubles point, but lost the team match was in a 4-3 loss to No. 36 Alabama on Feb. 13.

Peter Daub Honored by Temple

Temple University announced this spring that W&M head coach Peter Daub was named one of 20 "Outstanding Graduates of the Sport and Recreation Administration Program" at the school ... Daub received his graduate degree from Temple in 1987.

Kader Finalist for W&M Senior Male Athlete of the Year

Jeff Kader was one of three finalists for the 2005 William and Mary Tribe Club Senior Male Athlete of the Year ... The award was won by Lang Campbell, the starting quarterback for W&M's football team, which advanced to the NCAA Semifinals in 2004 ... Earlier this season, Campbell won the Walter Payton award, given to the nation's most outstanding offensive Division I-AA football player and was a consensus first team All-American.

2004 Fall Review

In fall individual tournaments, the Tribe combined for a 45-40 (.529) singles record and a 28-13 (.683) doubles mark ... Freshman Alex Cojanu led the team with 11 singles victories, reaching the final of the B Flight at the UVA Invitational and the championship match of the top flight at the Hampton Roads Invitational ... In doubles, Cojanu and senior Jeff Kader went 8-2, including a win over No. 10 Jeff Groslimond/Chris Westerhof (Florida State) to reach the quarterfinals of the ITA Mideast Regionals ... Senior Sean Kelleher and junior Stephen Ward went 9-3 in doubles this fall, also reaching the regional quarterfinals, after defeating No. 26 Nate Grover/Izak van der Merwe (Old Dominion).
