Senior Profile

What are your expectations – individually and as a team – for the upcoming season?

I expect only great things from our team this year. Last year we were all able to see just how talented our team was, and this year we are all excited to build on that and continue to improve. Individually, I want to have fun and really focus on enjoying each and every minute of my senior season, but at the same time, give everything I can to contribute to the continuing success of this program.

Describe what last season's success – the nation's second-best turnaround – meant to you and to the team?

Words really can't express how amazing last season was. After being counted out from day one, I think we not only surprised everyone else, but we also surprised ourselves in how well we played and what we accomplished throughout the season. Personally, it was definitely my best year here, and I look forward to our team doing even better this year.

What has been the best part of playing at W&M?

The best part of playing at W&M is definitely my friendships with my teammates and coaches. Basketball is a passion for each and every one of us, and it is an amazing experience to be able to share that passion with people that eventually become your family.

What was your most memorable on-court moment as a member of the Tribe?

My mom lives in Florida, and because of the distance, is rarely able to come to any of my games. However, when we played Indiana State in a tournament in South Florida during my sophomore year, my mom was able to come and see me get my career high. Seeing the pride in her eyes when the game was over is something I'll never forget, and is definitely my most memorable on-court moment.

What was your most memorable off-court moment as a member of the Tribe?

Wow, there are so many to choose from! But I guess since last year was so amazing, I would have to say that my most memorable off-court moment would be sitting at our table at the CAA Banquet and watching our coach receive CAA Coach of the Year, and watching my best friend and teammate Kyra Kaylor receive CAA Player of the Year. I know I speak for our entire team when I say those were proud moments for all of us.

What part of your game has improved the most during the past four years?

I think the one major strength that I have acquired throughout the past four years has been an understanding of the game that I had not grasped beforehand. With this understanding, I have been able to improve upon many aspects of my game, and I am still learning something new every day.

What is your post-graduate ambition?

To go to law school and eventually practice corporate law.

What is the one thing you would most like to accomplish in life?

I think the one thing that I would really like to do is become involved in or form an organization where victims of drug and alcohol abuse can come for support. Unfortunately, I think that drug and alcohol abuse has become far too prevalent in our society, and the effects extend much further than many people believe. Having organizations to help support these victims along with educating our society about the far reaching effects of this abuse is a very noble cause, and one I would be proud to serve.

Most impressive talent outside of basketball:

I am probably the best "Capture the Flag" player ever. Seriously.

Advice for the freshman class:

Don't take any of these years for granted, because before you know it, they will be behind you. The opportunity you have before you is immense, and your potential is limitless. Make the most out of every day, push yourself beyond what you believe you are capable, and never save anything for tomorrow.

Senior Profile

What are your expectations – individually and as a team – for the upcoming season?

Team: To build on last year's successes, and to learn from its failures

Individually: Enjoy every last minute of my senior season

Describe what last season's success – the nation's second-best turnaround – meant to you and to the team?

It was nice to see our hard work finally pay off in the form of wins, and it was by far my favorite year here at W&M. It was awesome to have so many people excited about what our team was doing.

What has been the best part of playing at W&M?

My teammates and coaches - the fact that I have a family away from home. I know that I could go to any one of them at any time and they would do everything they could to look out for me.

What were the key factors that made you choose W&M?

The academic reputation of the school and the camaraderie of the team.

What was your most memorable on-court moment as a member of the Tribe?

On the court, I love it when we play together...when we make a beautiful play where every single person was involved in its success.

What was your most memorable off-court moment as a member of the Tribe?

It's hard to pin point a single moment. Off the court, we have had so many good times together as a team. We never cease to make each other laugh.

What part of your game has improved the most during the past four years?

Ball handling

What does wearing the Tribe jersey mean to you?

That I am representing my school, my teammates and coaches, my fellow students, my professors, the CAA and the city of Williamsburg.

What is the one thing you would most like to accomplish in life?

I want to be able to look back on my life when I am older and not have any regrets. No matter what I end up doing, and no matter where I end up living, I would like to be able to say that I am truly happy with how I lived my life.

Most impressive talent outside of basketball:

That I can stand on a physio ball (and used to be able to jump from the ground on to one).

Advice for the freshman class:

Make the most out of the wonderful opportunity you've been given. Do what you need to do to enjoy your time here at W&M. Always look on the positive side each situation.
