KAPLAN ARENA AT WILLIAM AND MARY HALL

Kaplan Arena at William & Mary Hall

The 2006-07 season marks the 36th season in William and Mary Hall, home of the Tribe basketball, volleyball and gymnastics teams, and all Tribe athletics department offices. On the concourse and lower levels of the building are coaching and staff offices housing the William and Mary athletics department. The broad-based program offers 23 intercollegiate varsity sports to the College's undergraduates.

Total capacity of the arena is about 8,600 for basketball (the third-largest in the 12-team Colonial Athletic Association), but by using bleachers in the open end and chairs on the floor, capacity can be expanded to 11,300 for convocations, concerts or theater-in-the-round. The building features a medical suite, seminar room, a gymnastics workout area and another room for other sports usages. The facility houses 12 locker rooms with adjoining showers. In addition, there is the newly expanded Joseph P. Montgomery Strength and Conditioning Center, which has a variety of strength training equipment.

Completed in 17 months by the Southeastern Construction Company of Charlotte, N.C., the Hall opened just in time for the inaugural game between the Tribe men's team and the University of North Carolina Tar Heels in 1970. Financed by state revenue bonds, the total cost of the structure was $5.3 million. In the summer of 2005, the Hall received a $750,000 renovation upgrade that included a wall-to-wall, 16,900-square foot permanent wood floor, large enough for two full basketball courts when the arena's bleachers are retracted.

The floor was manufactured by Connor Sports Flooring Corporation- the same company that constructed the floor at Clemson University's Littlejohn Coliseum. The general contractor for the project was Recreation Plus of Hopewell, Va.

In addition to the wood floor, a durable, multi-purpose rubber sports floor was installed at the open end of the arena, to accommodate indoor track and other multi-purpose activities.

Some of the proudest moments in Tribe basketball featured John Lowenhaupt (No. 42), Keith Cieplicki (No. 14) and Chet Giermak (No. 32) having their jersey numbers retired. In 1990, Jeff Cohen's jersey (No. 52) was retired posthumously. In 1993, Bill Chambers (No. 32) was also recognized as a W&M all-time great, and in 2002, Lynn Norenberg-Barry became the first female athlete to have her jersey (No. 22) retired. Banners signifying those great memories hang in Kaplan Arena today.

Other sporting events held at the Hall have included the Harlem Globetrotters and the Roller Derby. Fans in the Williamsburg area have seen auto shows, dog shows, Prince Charles, Glenn Close, a Billy Graham crusade, Bruce Hornsby, Bette Midler, Billy Joel, speeches by presidential candidates Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford, the Shakespeare Players, a three-ring circus, and even a Howdy Doody show.

The first concert held was Sly and the Family Stone in 1971. The largest crowd for a concert was 13,514 for the Police in February 1982. Other performers in the Hall included R.E.M., Sting, the Grateful Dead, Bruce Hornsby, Neil Young, Concrete Blonde, The Beach Boys, Chicago, Stone Temple Pilots, Cake and many more.

Athletic Success

A charter member of the CAA 1986, W&M has been the CAA's most successful program over the past two decades. The 2005-06 year was another banner season for the College, as it added three more conference titles. The Tribe has now captured 84 total CAA Championships since 1986, over 30 more than the closest rival.

Individually, women's tennis standout Megan Moulton-Levy earned All-America honors after advancing to the "Final Four" of the NCAA Singles Tournament.

Academic Excellence

The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of its student's academic responsibilities, as W&M ranked fourth, the highest of any scholarship-granting school and of any public university, in the nation among institutions with two or more Division I teams when the NCAA released its inaugural Academic Progress Rate scores in March of 2005.

This year, the NCAA specifically listed 18 W&M athletic squads as recipients of its public recognition award for 2005-06.

Since 1992, 36 Tribe athletes have been designated Academic All-Americans, including Keith Bechtol, who was a third team selection in the spring, and since 1996, 39 student-athletes have been members of Phi Beta Kappa.

In 2002-03, the CAA created a Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award in each of its 21 sports, and not surprisingly, William and Mary has set the pace with 18.

In addition, three of William and Mary's five Rhodes scholars participated in varsity sports.

The College

"At a Glance"

For more than 300 years, William and Mary has been a symbol of academic distinction in America. Now, in its fourth century, the College is prepared to educate the leaders of the 21st century.

The College of William and Mary was founded in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of England. Four Presidents of the United States received their education at the College - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler.

William and Mary was the first college to institute an honor code of conduct. The premier academic society, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded by William and Mary students in 1776. The Society of the Alumni, founded in 1842, is the sixth oldest alumni group in the nation. Now the College is designated as a "Public Ivy", and ranks sixth among all public universities (U.S. News and World Report).

• W&M Facts •

- W&M is the best small public university in the nation, according to an analysis by U.S. News and World Report.

- W&M ranked sixth among all public universities in the analysis.

- W&M ranked 31st overall among the nation's best universities.

- W&M ranked 16th in graduation rates, and second among public universities.

- The average freshman retention rate is 94%.

- The 2005 average incoming freshman SAT score was 1344.

- The College's student/faculty ratio is 12/1.

- Over 42% of the classes at W&M have less than 20 students.

- The maximum enrollment for freshman seminars is 15 students.

- Over 20,000 internships are posted on the school's web site.

- 10,610 high school students applied for 1,340 spots in the freshman class for the 2004-05 school year.

- 75% of W&M graduates who apply to medical school are accepted, compared to a national average of 50%.

- 79% of W&M graduates who apply to law school are accepted, compared to a national average of 60%.

- Over 79% of freshmen at W&M were in the top 10% of their high school graduating class.

Student-Athlete Support

Athletics Department Goals

We take pride in the many achievements of William and Mary athletes, both in the classroom and on the playing field. These support services and many others are in place to help each student-athlete achieve their goals. It is our hope that at the completion of their undergraduate career they can reflect upon:

1. An academic experience that prepared them for a successful career.
2. An athletic challenge that brought many rewards.
3. A feeling of loyalty and pride in identifying themselves as a varsity athlete with a degree from The College of William and Mary.

Sports Psychology

Deidre Connelly, Ph.D., is the College's full-time sports psychologist. All consultations are confidential and all student-athletes, teams or coaches are welcome regardless of the issues they wish to discuss. Consultation is available for sport psychology education, performance enhancement skills training, strategies for dealing with stress or injury, or for personal issues that may affect performance.

Compliance and Academic Support

As members of the Colonial Athletic Association and the NCAA, the College is committed to full compliance with all NCAA and conference regulations. The department has a full-time Director of Compliance, Pamela Mason, who is committed to assisting students, staff and coaches through education and monitoring of compliance issues.

All entering students are assigned to a faculty academic advisor by the director of Academic Advising. Students remain with this advisor until their sophomore year, at which time they select a faculty advisor in their chosen major.

The department offers a variety of study, life and career building skills programs, but holds firm to the concept of self-determination—each student must take responsibility for his or her collegiate experience. Our goal is to assure that there is a support system in place to assist students to make positive and informed decisions.

Speed, Strength and Conditioning

Tribe Athletics is very proud of the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center, a 5,000 square foot weight training facility. Under the guidance of the Head Speed, Strength and Conditioning Coach John Sauer, each sport is provided with a program designed to enhance individual strength and flexibility development specific to the skills and movements required for their sport. Individuals are educated on proper lifting techniques and workouts are monitored to ensure safety at all times.

The weight room was upgraded in the spring of 2006, primarily with new Power Lift and Sorinex equipment. The room now contains 16,000 pounds of free weights, over 7,000 pounds of dumbbells and 6,000 pounds of rubber bumper plates. In addition, it has 24 custom-built Olympic platforms, 18 multipurpose power racks and a fully-equipped plyometric area.

Sports Medicine

The Division of Sports Medicine provides a comprehensive health care program for the department of intercollegiate athletics. The staff consists of Assistant Athletics Director for Health Services, Steve Cole, a team physician, seven full-time certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistant athletic trainers and medical specialists from the local community. The team physician has overall responsibility for supervision of the sports medicine program. Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

The priority for the athletic training staff is to enhance and ensure lines of communication and cooperation among its staff, student-athletes, parents, coaches, the Student Health Center and involved medical specialists.

Athletics Facilities

The College of William and Mary and its student-athletes take a great deal of pride in the quality of its athletic facilities. Over the last several years, the College has bolstered its lineup of venues to match the success that the Tribe has shown in the athletic arena, which has been unmatched in the Colonial Athletic Association. William and Mary boasts some of the finest athletic arenas in the nation, from its newest venue, Albert-Daly Field, to the oldest, Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field, a campus landmark since 1935. The College is committed to providing the student-athlete the most enjoyable and rewarding atmosphere possible.

Gene R. Nichol President

Gene Nichol became the College of William and Mary's 26th president on July 1, 2005. A scholar of constitutional and civil rights law, Nichol taught at the William and Mary School of Law from 1985 to 1988 and has served as dean at both the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Law and the law school at the University of Colorado. While at William and Mary, Nichol was the Cutler Professor of Law and director of the Institute of Bill of Rights Law. He has also taught at Oxford, Exeter, and the law school of West Virginia University.

Nichol is the co-author of the text Federal Courts and has published articles on civil liberties and federal judicial power in a wide variety of journals, including the Harvard Law Review, Yale Law Review, and the University of Chicago Law Review. He contributed articles on civil rights and public law litigation to the Encyclopedia of the American Constitution, and one on the civil rights movement to the Oxford Companion to the United States Supreme Court. Over the course of his career, Nichol has testified on constitutional matters before committees of the U.S. Congress and various state legislatures. In 2003, he won the American Bar Association's Edward R. Finch Award for delivering the nation's best Law Day Address. He was elected to membership in the American Law Institute and the American Bar Foundation Fellows.

Nichol attended Oklahoma State University, where he received a degree in philosophy and played quarterback on the varsity football team. In 1976, he graduated from the University of Texas Law School, where he was named to the Order of the Coif.

He is married to Glenn George, and they have three daughters: Jesse, Jenny, and Soren. George, a scholar of labor law and civil procedure, received her bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina and graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School.

Sandra Day O'Connor Chancellor

Sandra Day O'Connor, who in July of 2005 announced her intention to retire as Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, was named 23rd Chancellor of the College by the College of William and Mary Board of Visitors on October 4, 2005. Justice O'Connor succeeds Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, former United States Secretary of State, who was appointed in 2000.

The post of Chancellor has been an important one since the College was chartered in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of Great Britain. Until 1776, the Chancellor was an English subject—usually the Archbishop of Canterbury or the Bishop of London—who served as the College's advocate to the crown, while a colonial president oversaw the day-to-day activities of the Williamsburg campus. Following the Revolutionary War, George Washington was appointed as the first American chancellor; later President John Tyler held the post.

"Through her remarkable combination of wisdom, courage, judgment, and skill, Justice O'Connor has become one of the most influential and effective jurists in American history," said President Gene R. Nichol. "I am thrilled that she is willing to share her ability and rich experience with William and Mary students. As a former constitutional lawyer, I am also honored to welcome one of my heroes to the College community."

The first woman to serve on the United States Supreme Court, Justice O'Connor was born in El Paso, Texas, on March 26, 1930. She earned a B.A. in economics (magna cum laude) from Stanford University, and went on to receive an LL.B. from Stanford Law School, where she graduated third in her class. Her classmate, the late Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist, graduated first in the class.

She served as Deputy County Attorney of San Mateo County, California, from 1952 to 1953, and as a civilian attorney for the Quartermaster Market Center, Frankfurt, Germany, from 1954 to 1957. From 1958 to 1960, she practiced law in Maryvale, Arizona, and served as Assistant Attorney General of Arizona from 1965 to 1969. She was appointed to the Arizona State Senate in 1969, and was subsequently reelected to two two-year terms.

In 1975, she was elected Judge of the Maricopa County Superior Court and served until 1979, when she was appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

President Ronald Reagan nominated her as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and she took her seat September 25, 1981. She is married to John Jay O'Connor III, and the couple has three sons: Scott, Brian and Jay.

TERRY Driscoll

Athletics Director

With an extensive resumé that includes four years as a student-athlete, a professional playing career and numerous jobs in the athletic business world, Edward C. "Terry" Driscoll is entering his 11th year as the athletics director at the College of William and Mary.

Driscoll's tenure has seen a wealth of improvements across the board in the W&M athletics department, from new and refurbished facilities to increased fundraising for the Tribe. In addition, the Tribe has reached all-time highs in the annual Director's Cup rankings that summarize excellence in all sports.

Upon the death of legendary Tribe athletics director John Randolph, former W&M president Timothy J. Sullivan chose Driscoll to be the new leader of the department, saying "Terry brings outstanding management and leadership skills to the position."

Since Driscoll took over as athletics director, he has overseen the construction of more than $16 million in new facilities, including Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). That figure will continue to increase significantly in the future, as Driscoll announced plans last year to build the $11 million Jimmie Laycock Football Complex at Zable Stadium. Already, the football program has seen the installation of permanent lighting, a $650,000 project, and a new state-of-the-art artificial playing surface, Field Turf Pro, a $840,000 project, at Zable Stadium in the last 10 months.

Driscoll has also increased the annual fundraising totals for non-capital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to around $2.7 million currently. He also has served on numerous conference and NCAA committees, including a stint as president of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference.

The Tribe has also had outstanding success across the board since Driscoll came to Williamsburg. In 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four teams won conference titles, while six were in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. One of the department's goals each year is to finish in the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, and that has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the AD, with a high ranking of 42 occurring in 1997. In addition, W&M had captured 84 CAA Championships coming into the 2005-06 school year, by far the highest total among all conference schools.

Driscoll's leadership skills were developed in his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament Finals as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom with a major in biology garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth pick of the NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three picks after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communication - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports as well as organizing the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix, a five-week competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children - Keith, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross and Leslie, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

BARB Blosser
Senior Executive
Associate Athletics Director

After serving 12 years as the College's associate athletics director, Barbara Blosser was promoted to her current position of senior associate athletic director in April of 2004. Blosser started her career at William and Mary as the head women's basketball coach in 1978 and guided the Tribe to a VAIAW crown in her first season with a school-record 16 wins (16-13). Her 1980 Tribe team (11-14) placed third, while the 1981 squad (16-16) was VAIAW runner-up. She was also at the helm during the 1984-85 season when William and Mary made the jump to NCAA Division I. Overall, she finished her coaching career with 115 wins, 84 of which came at William and Mary.

When the College's men's and women's athletic programs merged in May of 1986, she moved to administration, first serving as the Assistant to the Associate Athletics Director. Over the past 16 years, her administrative responsibilities at W&M have included the monitoring of financial aid matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic facilities, supervision of coaches and staff and, currently, serving as the person primarily responsible for administering the day-to-day operations of the department.

From October 1992 to June 1993 and August 1995 to July 1996, Blosser also served as acting athletics director in an interim capacity. For her efforts, she was named the first recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award. Blosser has served on various committees such as the NCAA Strategic Planning Committee and the Colonial Athletic Association Competition Committee.

Blosser began her coaching career at the helm of the women's basketball program at Ashland College in Ohio. During two seasons there, she led the Eagles to successive 15-7 and 16-8 ledgers. Her 1977 squad won the AIAW Region V Championship, while her 1978 team took the OASW Small College title.

A former three-sport standout at Ohio State, Blosser graduated Cum Laude in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. At OSU, she was selected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She competed in basketball, field hockey and tennis and captained both the basketball and field hockey squads her senior year. She went on to earn her master's degree from the University of North Carolina Greensboro in 1978.

PETE Clawson
Assistant A.D. for Media Relations

Pete Clawson, now in his 11th year at the College, was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations during the summer of 2006.

Clawson, a 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, has spent the previous 10 years working in the College's sports information office, including the last six as the Sports Information Director.

In the position, Clawson oversees all workings of the Media Relations Department and was the primary contact for the Tribe's nationally-recognized football and men's gymnastics programs.

Prior to his stint at W&M, Clawson was an assistant at Fresno State. Clawson has also spent time as an assistant at his alma mater and at Florida.

A native of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, Clawson and his wife, Catherine, were married on July 19, 2003 and reside in Williamsburg.

ROBB Dunn
Associate Athletics Director,
Internal Affairs

Robb Dunn is in his sixth year with the College, and his third as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Affairs.

Dunn oversees the facilities and operations for William and Mary athletics. In this position, Dunn is responsible for maintenance, budgets, capital projects and game day operations of all Tribe athletic facilities, as well as summer camps and equipment operations.

Dunn also oversees the day-to-day operations of the baseball, men's soccer, and men's and women's gymnastics programs. In addition to his duties within the athletics department, Dunn coordinates all outside events held at William and Mary Hall.

Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Dunn spent eight years at the University of Michigan, the last three as Facilities and Game Management Supervisor. He also worked at Michigan's Yost Arena, oversaw the consulting portion of the Sport Facilities Research Laboratory and taught in the Sports Management and Urban Planning departments.

A California native, Dunn earned a bachelor of arts degree in history from the University of California at Berkeley in 1993. During his undergraduate days, he lettered as a member of the Golden Bears' football program and also worked for Cal's department of intercollegiate athletics and recreational sports. He then went on to earn a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan and completed coursework on a Ph.D. in Urban Planning at Michigan.

BOBBY Dwyer
Associate Athletics Director,
Development

Bobby Dwyer, Associate Athletics Director for Development, heads the W&M Athletic Educational Foundation, the department's alumni fund-raising arm. He came on board in October 1985 after holding assistant basketball coaching positions at the U.S. Military Academy and Duke.

Dwyer was promoted to Associate Athletics Director in the spring of 2004. Dwyer heads up the fund-raising efforts for the athletics department, and supervises the marketing and promotions and special events departments.

Dwyer graduated from Wake Forest in 1974 where he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and captained the squad as a senior. He received his master's degree in higher education from W&M in 1994.

He is a past president of the Williamsburg chapter of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He and his wife Patti have two sons, Patrick (22) and Peter (20), and live in Williamsburg.

FRANK Hardymon
Associate Athletics Director,
External/Business Affairs

Frank Hardymon is in his ninth year at W&M and third year as Associate Athletics Director for External/Business Affairs. Hardymon joined the Tribe staff in October of 1997 as Assistant Athletics Director for Business Affairs. Previously, he managed the athletics budget at Villanova University as the Associate Business Manager and Coordinator of Corporate Finance.

In his current role, Hardymon assists in formulating the athletics budget, and working with all head coaches and directors to manage the budget. He manages the day-to-day operations of the Athletics Business Office, with the assistance of athletic business managers Cathy Rossi and Dan Wakely. In addition, Hardymon oversees the sports information and ticket offices. He also handles the day-to-day oversight of the men's and women's track and field, cross country and golf programs.

A University of Kentucky graduate, Hardymon worked in corporate finance for five years. He earned an MBA from DePaul University in 1992 and a MEd from the University of Georgia in Sport Management in 1995. He is a member of the Collegiate Athletic Business Managers Association, serving on their membership and publicity programs committees.

Hardymon resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lisa. They have a six-year-old daughter, Emma, and a four-year-old daughter, Grace.

PETE Kresky
Director of Marketing and Promotions

Pete Kresky, in his fifth year at William & Mary, has transformed the marketing department to one of ultimate success by more than doubling the number of corporate sponsors and thus significantly increasing revenue. Key to this progress has been the successful inclusion of the Williamsburg community into operations and the cultivation of both new and old supporters of Tribe Athletics.

Kresky came to William & Mary in 2002 with more than 20 years of sports retail experience. Most notable of his accomplishments were the creation of one of the most successful sporting goods franchises in the Athlete's Foot organization with more than 20 locations, as well as his time as a professional consultant for corporations such as Brooks Shoes and Reebok. Pete has also worked in commercial and mortgage banking.

Pete is a certified rowing coach and currently resides in Stonehouse with his wife Bonnie.

Tribe Club Williamsburg President John Mitrovic (center) welcomes Guy Crittenden, David Murphy, Lee Glenn and Ron Barden to the Sports Outing golf tournament.

Established in 1948 to create support for William and Mary Athletics, the Tribe Club is made up of alumni and friends of the College's athletics programs. Due to the fact that W&M receives no aid from the state for its sports programs, the Tribe Club is the sole provider of scholarships for William and Mary's student-athletes. Additionally, money raised annually by the Tribe Club helps defray a portion of the operating expenses for program support.

Whether you are a former Tribe student-athlete, a proud alum, a Tribe parent or a fan of William and Mary Athletics, you are invited to join the Tribe Club. By donating to the unrestricted fund or to a specific sport, you are providing opportunities for many young men and women to experience both academic and athletic excellence here at the College. In addition to supporting our student-athletes with generous gifts, Tribe Club members receive exclusive benefits based on their giving level, as well as invitations to tailgates, pre-game and halftime events, golf outings and regional Tribe Club social events.

To join, you can make a contribution to the Tribe Club online at www.tribeclub.com or send your donation to PO Box 399, Williamsburg, VA, 23187. Thanks to all those who are loyal members of the Tribe Club family. Your support of our gifted and talented athletes is truly appreciated. We could not succeed without you!
