

SCRATCHING THE SURFACE

The WILLIAM AND MARY MEN'S BASKETBALL PROGRAM is starting to SCRATCH THE SURFACE of the potential that head coach Tony Shaver envisions for the Green and Gold. The four-member senior class of STEVEN HESS, SEAN MC-CURDY, DAVID SCHNEIDER and DANNY SUMNER has been instrumental in the program's turnaround and in taking it to new heights. The quartet will graduate from the College as Tribe basketball's winningest senior class in over two decades. They were key forces in producing the College's first back-to-back seasons of 15 or more wins in nearly a quarter century. In 2008, the Tribe advanced to its FIRST-EVER CAA CHAMPIONSHIP GAME, winning three games in the league tournament. Additionally, W&M won 17 games in 2008, marking the sixth-most in school history. The College made its first national TV appearance on ESPN in the CAA title game and started the program on a path toward new heights unseen in its history. The 2009-10 senior class is SCRATCHING THE SURFACE of where TRIBE BASKETBALL is headed.

WILLIAM & MARY

This year the Tribe enters its 36th season in William and Mary Hall, home of varsity basketball and the Tribe Athletics Program. On the concourse and lower levels of the building are coaching and staff offices housing the William and Mary athletics department. The broad-based program offers 23 intercollegiate varsity sports to William and Mary undergraduates.

The 2005-06 season saw a new addition to the facility. The basketball gymnasium became known as Kaplan Arena in honor of athletics department donors Jim and Jane Kaplan. The name was officially approved in a special session of the W&M Board of Visitors inside the newly named facility prior to the 2005 W&M Tip-Off Classic tournament banquet.

Kaplan Arena was named in recognition of the longtime support of the Kaplans, who most recently announced a commitment of $7 million in support of the Tribe men's basketball team.

Inducted into the W&M Athletics Department Hall of Fame in 1987, Jim Kaplan graduated from the College in 1957 following a stellar basketball career in which he was a captain and three-year starter, scoring 863 points and pulling down 341 rebounds. Jim and his wife, Jane, who graduated from W&M in 1956, have served as co-chairs of the Athletic Campaign Committee since 2001. A member of the W&M Endowment Association since 1997, Jim Kaplan was a board member of the W&M Society of the Alumni from 1995-2000, has been an executive partner with the College's business school since 2000, and has been a member of the Campaign for William and Mary steering committee since 2001. Jane Kaplan served as co-chair of the Lord Botetourt Auction in 2003 and 2004, an annual event that raises money for the Tribe Club. A recipient of the W&M Alumni Medallion in 2002, Jim is the owner of Cornell Dubilier Electronics, the world's oldest manufacturer of electronic capacitors.

Total capacity of the arena is about 8,600 for basketball, but by using bleachers in the open end and chairs on the floor, capacity can be expanded to 11,300 for convocations, concerts, or theater-in-the-round.

The building features a medical suite, seminar room, a gymnastics workout area and another room for general usage. The facility houses also 12 locker room areas with adjoining showers. In addition, the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength and Training Center is located within W&M Hall.

The Hall, completed in 17 months by the Southeastern Construction Company of Charlotte, N.C., opened for its inaugural game between the Tribe and the University of North Carolina Tar Heels. Financed by state revenue bonds, the total cost of the structure was $5.3 million.

Some of the proudest moments in Tribe basketball include John Lowenhaupt (#42), Keith Cieplicki (#14), and Chet Giermak (#32) having their jersey numbers retired. In 1990, Jeff Cohen's jersey (#52) was retired posthumously. In 1993, Bill Chambers (#32) was also recognized as a W&M all-time great. The first woman to have her jersey retired was Lynn Norenberg (#22). Banners signifying those great memories hang in the Hall today.

Other sporting events held at W&M Hall have included the Harlem Globetrotters and the Roller Derby. Fans in the Williamsburg area have seen auto shows, dog shows, Prince Charles, Glenn Close, a Billy Graham crusade, Bette Midler, Billy Joel, speeches by presidential candidates Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford, the Shakespeare Players, a three-ring circus, and even a Howdy Doody show.

The first concert held was Sly and the Family Stone held in 1971. The largest crowd for a concert was 13,514 for the Police in February 1982. Other performers in the Hall included R.E.M., Sting, the Grateful Dead, Bruce Hornsby, 10,000 Maniacs, Beach Boys, Chicago, Stone Temple Pilots, and many more.

KAPLAN ARENA

TRIBE LOCKER ROOM

Thanks to the generosity of Wachovia Securities and former William and Mary basketball players, the locker room and lounge facility is more than just a space for the Tribe to change before and after practices and games. The locker room is located in the basement of William and Mary Hall, just a short distance down the stairs from the hardwood floor of Kaplan Arena.

After a grueling practice or workout, the players can grab a sports drink from the refrigerator, kick back on the leather couch and watch their favorite movie in high-definition glory.

The competitiveness from the court often extends into the locker room, where it's not uncommon to find players battling on the hardwood of NCAA March Madness on the PlayStation. The problem is only one player can play as the Tribe.

Each large leather couch is spacious enough to allow even the largest forward or center to nap comfortably between classes. The recliner is the perfect place to relax while listening to stereo quality tunes over the locker room sound system.

The Tribe locker room provides many different amenities. Below is a list of just some of the features:

- 42" widescreen HDTV
- · Cable Television
- DVD Player
- VHS Player
- PlayStation
- · Six disc compact disk changer
- Stereo Speakers
- Drinks refrigerator stocked with bottled water, sports drinks and nutrition shakes.
- Two spacious leather couches
- Leather Recliner
- · Fully carpeted locker and lounge area
- Tall shower and bathroom area

The Locker room was recently fitted with 17 customized locker units. Each unit is personalized with the player's name and number and includes:

WWW.TRIBEATHLETICS.COM

- A large lockable chest for storing bigger items such as shoes • A small safe with combination lock for valuables
- · Plenty of hanging space for game uniforms, shooting shirts, and practice jerseys.
- · A comfortable padded chair, just like the ones on the Tribe bench

WILLIAM & MARY

The Tribe runs a unique style of play that works toward spreading the floor with more perimeteroriented play from all five positions. This spread offensive scheme opens the floor and relies on spacing, ball movement, effective perimeter shooting and players reading and reacting to teammates' cuts and motion. Defensively, the Tribe employs multiple defenses to throw off opposing offenses.

As a result of the style, W&M not only established school records for 3-point field goals made and attempted in 2007-08, but the College also set the Colonial Athletic Association record in both categories. The Green and Gold connected on 257 3-pointers in 2007-08, while attempting 755 from long range. The College finished with nine contests of double-digit 3-pointers made and in the process set a school record for 3-pointers made per game at 7.8 per contest. In fact, W&M has made over 200 3-point field goals and attempted more than 650 from beyond the arc in each of the last three years. The College has also become better adept at finding the open player as well. For the first time in over 30 years, the Tribe produced back-to-back seasons of 400 or more assists in 2007-08 and 2008-09. Last season, W&M ranked 29th nationally in assist percentage according to Kenpom.com. The Tribe assisted on over 60 percent of its field goals in 2008-09.

The Tribe's varying defensive scheme caused confusion among its opponents and ranked among the league leaders in defense. The Tribe held the opposition to 62.8 points per game in 2007-08, which ranked as the best mark since 1997-98. It was also only the second time since 1985 that W&M held its opponents below 63 points per game.

STYLE OF PLAY

"We made a dramatic change in our style of play three years ago and have had great results, including a trip to the CAA Championship Game. Our players have taken ownership of the style, and I think we will continue to improve with time. Our players have a lot of freedom to read the game and make adjustments. We became a much better defensive team and more of a threat on the offensive end."

Head Coach Tony Shaver

In 2007-08, William and Mary advanced to the Colonial Athletic Association Championship game, running through the league tournament with a trio of last-second victories. In knocking off Georgia State (58-57), Old Dominion (63-60) and top-seeded regular season champion VCU (56-54), the College earned its first-ever appearance in the league title game. The Tribe also appeared on ESPN for the first time in school history with a game broadcast nationally as part of the channel's Championship Week.

The league championship game is not the only revival that has occurred at W&M over the last few seasons. In 2006-07 and 2007-08, the Tribe produced back-to-back seasons of .500 or better records, marking the first time in a quarter century that had occurred. The Green and Gold's 17 wins in 2007-08 on the way to the CAA title game marked the sixth most in school history.

THIS IS TRIBE BASKETBALL

Chris Stratton, Laimis Kisielius, Kyle Carrabine and Nathan Mann were head coach Tony Shaver's first full recruiting class to graduate from the College in 2008.

In his six seasons as W&M head coach, Tony Shaver has led the Tribe to the program's firstever CAA Championship game and the best back-toback seasons in 25 years. He is a twotime CAA Coach of the Year and in 2008 was a finalist for the National Mid-Major Coach of the Year award.

Senior David Schneider is a two-time CAA All-Academic first team selection. He was also named the CAA Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2008, marking the third honoree for the Tribe under head coach Tony Shaver. In total 11 players have been named to the CAA All-Academic team under Shaver's watch.

Adam Hess ('04) was as a two-time CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year, along with graduating as one of the top 10 scorers in school history. Hess finished his fifth season playing professionally in Europe last year. When one thinks of the College of William and Mary, the first thought might be of the history of the institution -- or perhaps its place in American history.

Or, possibly those who attended might think back to their good times, the unforgettable campus or their focus of study. But none of those things are what makes a place of learning great. Though the College has them all -- it is the quality of the graduate and the ability to excel in whichever field of work or study that he or she pursues.

For Tribe basketball, the same principles apply, as many former players have gone on to have successful careers in the business world, professional sports and a number of other areas.

Among the notables are Jim Kaplan ('57), who is the owner of Cornell Dubilier Electronics. He also has endowed William and Mary's Kaplan Arena.

Thomas Jefferson, Class of 1762, said so eloquently: "Above all things I hope the education of the common people will be attended to, convinced that on their good sense we may rely with the most security for the preservation of a due degree of liberty."

This statement embodies exactly what his alma mater has been striving to do for more than 300 years.

Understandably, William and Mary and Tribe basketball have more than its fair share of the best and brightest of America to claim as its own.

Here, a few of the program's finest alums reflect on their time at the College and what the Tribe basketball experience meant to them.

Scott Whitley ('81) Attorney for Morgan & Morgan, PA in Florida Drafted by the NBA's Indiana Pacers in 1981

"I chose William and Mary because of its liberal arts platform, amazing history, academic respect, and overall pedigree across the globe and it's never failed me. When people ask me, "Where did you go to college?" I respond, "William and Mary." Then, they always say the same thing: "That's a very good school.

My degree from W&M has given me the credibility and foundation to pursue the best that life has to offer."

> Thomas Roberts ('93) Founder & CEO of Great Student Network

"I believe William and Mary is a great place and total package in offering a great education and athletic experience. The community that you belong to is outstanding and the long lasting relationships that you have with friends, professors and coaches still exist today – 15 years after graduation!"

Sean Duff ('94) Hedge Fund Development and Mgmt Group Merrill Lynch & Co.

"Besides my dad, there are two people that had the greatest impact on the direction of my life. One was my basketball coach, Bill Chambers, who taught me discipline and toughness. The other was Dr. Alfred Armstrong [my qualitative and quantitative chemistry professor], who taught me to evaluate and analyze each problem before making decisions. Dr. Armstrong and Coach Chambers also taught me that the reason I came to William and Mary was to get an excellent education."

Dr. Walter Wenk ('66) Dentist in Arlington, Va.

"The coaching staff at William and Mary believed in me and I believed in them. It was a blessing for me to come to Williamsburg and feel so comfortable so quickly. At the end of each season, you have to know that you have a family here. At William and Mary, we all knew that we had each other's backs, that we loved each other and that we were brothers."

Adam Payton ('07) Professional Basketball Player Lille Metropole (France-Pro B)

"William and Mary was a great place to go to school and to play basketball. As I read through the alumni journals, keep in touch with my classmates and teammates and follow the news, I continue to be impressed with the accomplishments-in the professional world and otherwise-of W&M graduates. Their varied successes stand as a continuing testament to the quality of the education that the College provides and of the type of people it attracts. I also feel fortunate to have been a basketball player during the tenure of Bruce and Barry Parkhill and their coaching staffs. I am proud to have been able to represent the College on the basketball court during those years and think it was a special time for W&M basketball."

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

SCRATCHING THE SURFACE

Building on last season, this year's edition of the Tribe has the potential to be not only one of head coach Tony Shaver's best, but one of the top Green and Gold squads in recent history. In total, The Tribe returns four starters and eight players, all of which played significant minutes last season. The Green and Gold is built around a quartet of seniors, who have left a lasting impression on W&M and have only begun to "Scratch the Surface," of where Shaver believes the program is headed.

The senior foursome of Steven Hess, Sean McCurdy, David Schneider and Danny Sumner has the chance to become W&M's winningest senior class in over two decades. The group has developed the Green and Gold into a competitive program that can play with anyone in the CAA on a nightly basis.

The College graduated only three players from last season and returns over 80 percent of its scoring and nearly 75 percent of its rebounding from the 2008-09 season. The Green and Gold also returns 77 percent of its assists, 83 percent of its steals and over 90 percent from its 3-pointers made from a season ago. Added to the mix of returners in a dynamic group of four newcomers that will add a unique flavor to the Green and Gold rotation. Sophomore transfer JohnMark Ludwick headlines the group of incoming players and is joined by the freshman trio of Kyle Gaillard, Andrew Pavloff and Matt Rum. All four players fit nicely into the College's offensive system and have the ability to shoot the basketball at a high level.

GUARD

Returning Starters

David Schneider Kendrix Brown	Sr./Sr. So./So.	6-3 6-3	190 205	Phoenix, Ariz. Norfolk, Va.
Returning Player Sean McCurdy Matt McFadden	s 5th/Sr. Sr./Jr.	6-1 6-2	184 185	Westport, Conn. Medford, N.J.
Newcomer Matt Rum	Fr./Fr.	6-4	180	Chapel Hill, N.C.

The most experienced position for the Tribe is at guard, where the College returns three players who started last season and another that saw significant minutes throughout his first year. Seniors David Schneider and Sean McCurdy lead the group. Schneider has started 84 of his 88 career games for W&M and is closing in on 1,000 points for his career, while McCurdy, who transferred to the Tribe after two years at Arkansas, started 10 games last season.

Schneider was a Third-Team All-CAA selection last season after ranking seventh in the league in scoring at 14.1 points per game. Last season, Schneider knocked down 73 3-point field goals, which ranks second in school history. His 248 attempts from long range were not only a W&M record, but the fifth-best total in CAA history. Schneider has averaged 60 3-pointers a season over his three seasons and at his current pace would better the school record of 218 held by Matt Verkey.

Last season, McCurdy battled injuries, but appeared in 23 contests, making 10 starts. After offseason surgery and another year to get more familiar with his surroundings at W&M, McCurdy could be poised for a breakout season, providing the Tribe with a dynamic point guard with speed and excellent court vision. Despite his limited time due to injuries, McCurdy led the Tribe in assists on 10 occasions, including a season and career-best eight against Haverford. He also dished out seven helpers at Penn State. During the offseason, McCurdy has worked on his shooting and will provide another offensive threat from beyond the arc.

As a freshman in 2008-09, Kendrix Brown showed maturity well beyond his years, appearing in 29 contests, while earning 22 starts. He started the final 15 games of the season and led the Tribe in assists over that stretch. Brown is a big guard who has flair and creativity with the ball in his hands, and also excelled last season as a defensive stopper. Brown provided an all-around game to the Tribe's starting lineup as a rookie, averaging 3.7 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.2 assists per contest. During the offseason, Brown was one of the Tribe players to really transform his body, adding strength and becoming a lean player. He also worked to refine his shot and will look to improve upon his impressive 37.5 percent shooting from 3-point range as a rookie.

Junior Matt McFadden returned to the fold for the Tribe after sitting out his first two seasons in Williamsburg. He provided the Tribe with a boost off the bench as he averaged 2.7 points per game in 27 contests. McFadden averaged 13 minutes per contest and shot over 40 percent from the floor in his first season.

Despite the plethora of guards in the Tribe rotation, freshman Matt Rum will push for minutes in his rookie season. One of the top players in the Baltimore area last season, Rum was a two-time First-Team All-Baltimore Catholic League, All-MIAA conference and All-Baltimore County selection at Loyola Blakefield. He scored over 1,000 points in his high school career and his known for his ability to shoot the ball from 3-point range. He displayed his 3-point excellence at the 9th annual Charm City Challenge, winning the event's 3-point shootout.

WING

Returning Starter
Danny Sumner	Sr./Sr.	6-7	225	Fairfax, Va.
Newcomer
Kyle Gaillard	Fr./Fr.	6-7	210	Huntersville, N.C.

Sumner returns as a two-year starter at the wing position and cemented himself as one of the top scorers in the CAA last season. The Tribe will welcome the arrival of highly regarded freshman Kyle Gaillard as well, providing the Tribe with a pair of impressive options at the 3 position.

Sumner was voted the Tribe's team Most Valuable Player last season as he averaged 13.4 points per game. His average ranked 12th in the CAA. Over the last two seasons, Sumner has appeared in every game for the College and started 46 contests. He is averaging nearly 12 points per game over that stretch and shooting 44.3 percent from the field and 34.3 percent from 3-point range.

A long, athletic player, Sumner has continued to work on his body during the offseason and added even more strength in the weight room. A gym rat by nature, Sumner has worked relentlessly to continually develop his game and jump shot. Like his fellow classmate and teammate Schneider, Sumner will have the opportunity to eclipse the 1,000-point mark, having scored 797 points over his three-year career.

Gaillard could be perhaps the best athlete on the Tribe roster with his long, springy frame. One of the top players in the state of North Carolina as a prep, the 6-7, 210-pounder drew recruiting interest from Davidson, Penn State and Michigan, before ultimately choosing the Tribe. Gaillard was rated the 96th-best small forward in the country by ESPN.com and was a two-time all-conference selection at one of the top programs in the state, North Mecklenburg. He averaged 18 points per game as a senior as was selected to the North Carolina Coaches Association East-West All-Star Game where he scored 13 points in leading his team to victory.

The most significant loss to graduation from the Tribe came at the forward position, where all three graduating seniors played. Despite losing a three-year starter in Peter Stein to graduation, the College's outlook at forward is more rosy than meets the eye. The Tribe returns a starter at the 4 position in sophomore Quinn McDowell and a pair of players who have played significant minutes over their careers at the 5 spot in senior Steven Hess and junior Marcus Kitts. Add to the group a transfer in sophomore JohnMark Ludwick and a rookie in Andrew Pavloff, and W&M's forward position has some quality depth.

McDowell broke onto the scene with an impressive rookie season in which he was the Tribe's most consistent player on a nightly basis. In total, he finished the year averaging 9.3 points per game and topped the College in rebounds (4.4), field goal percentage (50 percent) and 3-point field goal percentage (38.2 percent). McDowell capped his rookie campaign by being named to the CAA All-Rookie team. He appeared in every game for the Tribe and started the final 15 for the club. Over the final 20 games of the 2008-09 season, McDowell averaged nearly 11 points per game and ranked second on the squad in scoring. Along with starting at forward, McDowell has the versatility to move to both the guard and wing position. He was another Tribe player who transformed his body in the offseason, adding nearly 20 pounds of muscle to his frame.

One of the most intriguing players to watch on the Tribe roster will be sophomore transfer JohnMark Ludwick. The 6-8, 230-pounder sat out last season after coming to W&M from Texas-San Antonio, where he averaged 6.2 points per game while shooting over 40 percent from 3-point range. Ludwick put in significant time in the weight room during his redshirt year and in the offseason, adding muscle. He is without question the top shooter on the Tribe roster even though he stands 6-8 and plays the 4 position. Ludwick is also a good passer for his size and will help the Tribe offensive scheme in stretching the defense with his ability to shoot the ball. Like McDowell, Ludwick also has the versatility to slide over and play the wing position.

Hess and Kitts provide the College with a pair of seasoned players who can both start and contribute at the 5 position. Over the final 10 games of last season, Kitts started eight contests and averaged over six points per game to go along with four rebounds while shooting over 70 percent from the floor. He broke out with his career-best scoring effort last season against South Carolina State, tallying 11 points in a Tribe victory at the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic. Kitts is the Tribe's best low post scorer, and has worked to get better on the defensive end of the floor. He has added more strength in the off season, while also working on his footwork.

Over his three-year career, Hess has been a solid contributor in a reserve roll. A hard-working player who knows how to put himself in the right position, he will have an opportunity to earn the starting nod as a senior. Hess is a strong defender and an excellent passer from the forward position that possesses a high basketball IQ. Those attributes make him a great fit for the Tribe's offensive scheme. Hess has played in 75 games over his career and shot better than 57 percent from the floor. He provides the Tribe with a big body who can defend and rebound. Last season, Hess enjoyed an impressive showing against a tough Drexel front line, tallying seven rebounds in 12 minutes of action.

Along with Ludwick, freshman Andrew Pavloff also joins the front line fold for the Green and Gold. At 6-9, Pavloff is a perfect fit for the Tribe's offensive system with his ability to shoot, handle and pass the basketball from the 5 position. He was a spring signee for the Tribe, giving the College another versatile option at the forward position. Last season, he averaged 14 points, eight rebounds, two assists and three blocks per game as a senior at Walsh Jesuit. He was named to the Division II NE Inland All-District team as a senior, while playing every position on the court for his high school team.

Job Slow

When Tony Shaver accepted the head coaching position at William and Mary in May of 2003, he set his sights on making the Tribe a winning program. Fast-forward six years and the two-time CAA Coach of the Year and National Mid-Major Coach of the Year finalist has led a revival of the Green and Gold program. In 2008, he took W&M to the brink of its first-ever CAA title and NCAA Tournament appearance. Despite all the recent success, Shaver's vision and intensity to win has not wavered.

"I do not want anyone to limit the vision of our program," Shaver said. "We expect our teams to win, and recently we have taken exceptional steps toward where we know our program can be."

Shaver enters his seventh season with the College and 24th overall as one of the winningest active coaches in college basketball. He ranks 31st among active Division I head coach with 423 victories, while ranking 43rd in winning percentage at .644.

In 2007-08, William and Mary posted its first winning season in a decade finishing with a 17-16 ledger. In fact it was only the sixth time in school history that a Tribe team had won 17 or more contests. W&M also finished fifth in the league on the strength of a 10-8 CAA ledger. It marked only the second time in the Tribe's 24year history in the CAA that it has won double-digit games.

In six seasons at the helm of the William and Mary men's basketball program, Tony Shaver has turned the William and Mary men's basketball program into a winner. The program posted back-to-back 15-plus win seasons for the first time in a quarter of a century in 2006-07 and 2007-08. The Tribe also put together consecutive seasons with a .500 or better record for the first time in 23 years.

Shaver was voted the 2008 CAA Coach of the Year by the league's media, coaches and sports information directors. The Shaver-led Tribe punctuated the honor by reeling off three-straight last-second wins on its way to the CAA Championship Game. Included in the run was a 56-54 win over regular season champion and No. 1 seed VCU in the semifinals. W&M won three contests to get to the championship game, matching the program's victory total in the tournament from the previous 22 years. As a result of the title game appearance, W&M had its first-ever national televised game and made its first appearance on ESPN.

The Tribe accomplished numerous other milestones during the historic 2007-08 season. W&M established not only school records, but CAA marks for 3-pointers made (257) and attempted (755) in a season. The Tribe also bettered the school standard for 3-pointers per game (7.79), double-digit 3-point efforts in a season (9) and consecutive double-digit 3-point shooting performances (5). Shaver engineered a quartet of double-digit comebacks for the Tribe in 2008, including three straight in wins over James Madison (1/9), at Georgia State (1/12) and against Northeastern (1/16). It marked the first time in school history W&M overcame two-straight double-digit second-half deficits, let alone three. The Tribe's 16-point second-half comeback at Georgia State was the largest deficit that W&M overcame on the road in 15 years. Shaver also reached a coaching milestone of his own on December 31, 2007, winning his 400th collegiate coaching game as the Tribe defeated Fairfield, 71-50, at Kaplan Arena.

W&M demonstrated its mettle as a winning team with not only its ability to overcame deficits, but also with being able to win close games. The Tribe won more than half its games (nine) in 2007-08 when trailing at the half. W&M also won nine games by four or fewer points in 2007-08, bettering the total (six) from Shaver's first four seasons. The Tribe put together a six-game CAA winning streak, which marked only the third such league winning streak in Tribe history. Shaver also guided the Tribe to four straight CAA road wins in 2008. It equaled the program's longest CAA mark and was the second-longest single-season road winning streak in school history.

In 2006-07, Shaver earned CollegeInsider.com Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Tribe to a 15-15 record. Shaver also led his troops to eight wins during the tough CAA portion; only the third time the Tribe has accomplished that feat. Another telling stat of the progression of the program was the four CAA road victories, highlighted by a 67-63 win over 2006 Final Four participant George Mason. In Shaver's first four seasons, W&M had won only three road affairs.

The 2006-07 season brought about a change in styles for the 31st W&M head coach. After spending much of his career coaching an up-tempo offense, featuring a trapping defense, Shaver switched over to a more perimeter-oriented attack. The Tribe offensive scheme now spreads the floor and relies on spacing, effective perimeter shooting and players reading and reacting to teammates' cuts and motion. Defensively, W&M employs a plethora of defensive systems to throw off opposing offenses.

The new style led to the Tribe ranking among the top 50 in the country in 3-point field goal defense as well as holding its opponents to 64.2 points per game, the best mark since the 1997-98 season. The College also established school records for 3-point field goals made and 3-point field goals attempted. The success of the new approach was never more evident than in the Tribe's victory over eventual National Invitational Tournament participant Drexel, 60-47, in Williamsburg. It was the lowest point production for Drexel in four seasons, and marked the highest ranked team, in terms of RPI, that W&M had defeated since 2001.

During the 2005-06 season, W&M started 4-1, marking the best start for the Tribe team since opening the 1992-93 campaign with a 6-1 record. During that season, however, two of the team's first four wins were against non-Division I teams Virginia Wesleyan and Shenandoah. As a result, the 4-1 start for the 2005-06 squad was the first time in school history that the Tribe has opened a year with at least four wins in its first five games against current Division I opponents. Included in those four victories was a 70-60 win at Hampton, which went on to make the NCAA Tournament.

In November 2005, Shaver was inducted into the Episcopal High School Hall of Fame. He led EHS for 10 seasons from 1976-86. Shaver has been inducted into the Hall of Fame at both of his head coaching stops prior to taking over the reigns at William and Mary. He was named to the Hampden-Sydney College Hall of Fame in 2004.

"It was a great thrill to return to the campuses of Episcopal High School and Hampden-Sydney College for the induction ceremonies," Shaver said. "Episcopal and Hampden-Sydney are special places to my family."

In his second season at the helm, W&M immediately started the season on a high note, defeating Radford and Hartford to win the inaugural W&M Tip-Off Classic, the first regular season tournament title for the College since 1981. The Tribe defeated James Madison in the first round of the CAA Tournament for W&M's first postseason win since 1997, and just the third in the last 20 years.

Shaver began his Tribe career with a 91-64 pounding of Liberty on Nov. 23, 2003. He also won his first ever Colonial Athletic Association contest, as the Tribe knocked off two-time defending league champion UNC Wilmington, 67-66, in overtime on Dec. 4, 2003. In the Tribe's first contest against a nationally ranked opponent under Shaver's direction, W&M performed well, leading No. 15 Pittsburgh by 10 points midway through the first half, before the Panthers, who attempted 28 more free throws than the Tribe, won 70-55.

There have been individual successes as well for the Green and Gold during Shaver's tenure. On six occasions, a W&M player has been named All-CAA under Shaver, while another five have been named to the CAA All-Rookie Team. 2004 graduate Adam Hess, who played professionally in Germany last season, became the first player in school history to lead the CAA in scoring. An outstanding student and athlete, Hess was named the CAA Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year (for all sports) and was a First-Team Academic All-American and all-conference selection as a senior. Corey Cofield was voted the 2004 CAA Rookie of the Year, leading all freshmen in the league in points, rebounds and field goal percentage. W&M players have also enjoyed success in the classroom under Shaver, as on 11 occasions a Tribe player has been named to the CAA All-Academic team over the last six seasons, including a program-high three in 2007 and 2008. This past season, senior David Schneider was named to the All-Academic first team, while garnering the third CAA Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award under Shaver in 2008.

In total, four former W&M athletes who played under Shaver have gone on to or will shortly begin professional careers overseas. He played his second season for Artland in the German Bundesliga. Hess spent the 2008 season in France after earning Second-Team All-Bundesliga honors with Artland in 2007. Fellow 2004 graduate Zeb Cope spent his sixth professional season overseas with JDA Dijon Bourgogne in the French Pro A League. It marked his third season in France. Adam Payton, a 2007 graduate of W&M, helped French squad Lille Metropole to the French N1 League title and a promotion into the French Pro B League. He will return for his second season with the organization. Laimis Kisielius, who graduated in 2008, began his professional career last season playing in both Lithuania and in the Ukraine.

Shaver was named the head coach of the Tribe on May 2, 2003. He came to W&M after coaching 17 seasons at Hampden-Sydney, compiling a record of 358-121 (.747). He turned the Tigers into a Division III national powerhouse, leading the men's basketball team to eight Old Dominion Athletic Conference titles, 12 20-win seasons and 11 NCAA Division III Tournament appearances. The winningest basketball coach in the program's history, he was named the ODAC and South Region Coach of the Year in 1995, 1999 and 2000, and was picked as the Virginia Sports Information Directors Division II-III Coach of the Year in 1997, 1999 and 2000.

In 2003, Shaver took the Tigers to the NCAA Division III Final Four, as his team finished with a record of 28-4. In 1999, Shaver led H-SC to the national championship game, where the Tigers lost by one point in double-overtime to Wisconsin-Platteville. The team finished 29-3, setting a school record for most wins in a season.

In 1999, one of Shaver's charges, Jack Jirak, was named the ODAC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was also awarded the Gammon Cup as the top-student-athlete at the college. Two of Shaver's players, David Hobbs (1999) and Russell Turner (1992) earned Academic All-America honors. A number of his players have been named to the Academic All-ODAC squad, including six student-athletes in 1998.

Shaver first led the Tigers to the national postseason in 1988-89, just his third season as the team's head coach. That year, H-SC won the ODAC championship, ending the season with a 21-8 record.

Prior to taking over at Hampden-Sydney for the 1986-87 campaign,

Shaver spent 10 years as the head boys' basketball coach at Episcopal High School in Alexandria, Virginia. He was named the Virginia Independent Schools Athletic Association State Coach of the Year in 1986, and was twice picked as the Alexandria Coach of the Year, while winning 73 percent of his games.

A 1976 graduate of North Carolina, Shaver was a guard on the Tar Heel men's basketball team from 1972-75 under head coach Dean Smith. Originally a walk-on, he earned a scholarship his rookie season, when he was awarded the prestigious Butch Bennett Award, presented to the freshman who exemplifies determination, sportsmanship and sacrifice for the team. Shaver was voted the honoree by his teammates. During his four years in Chapel Hill, UNC went 95-26, including a pair of trips to the NCAA Tournament in 1975 and 1976. During the 1975 season, the Tar Heels won the ACC Tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16. During the 1973 and 1974 season, North Carolina made the National Invitational Tournament.

A native of High Point, North Carolina, Shaver and his wife, Ann, are the parents of three sons: Christopher (28), Austin (25) and Jackson (18). Christopher is a professional baseball pitcher and has spent time in the San Diego Padres and Chicago Cubs organizations after a standout career with the Tribe baseball team. Austin is an assistant coach at Hampden-Sydney under former Tribe assistant coach and current Hampden-Sydney head coach Dee Vick. Jackson is a freshman on the William and Mary baseball team.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT TONY SHAVER

"Having coached Tony at the University of North Carolina and followed his teams over the years, I have been very proud of his accomplishments. Tony's teams rose to the top of Division III because he instilled in his players the value of hard work. He is very deserving of the chance to build a program at William and Mary. I have great confidence that he will establish an exciting and winning program."

Ben Wilkins enters his fourth season as an assistant coach on the men's basketball staff. Wilkins has been instrumental in the implementation of W&M's offensive and defensive systems. During his first three seasons, the College moved to an offensive scheme that spreads the floor and relies on spacing, effective perimeter shooting and players reading and reacting to each others' cuts and motion. Defensively, W&M employs a plethora of man and zone systems to throw off opposing offenses.

"Ben has been an instrumental part in the recent success of the Tribe program," head coach Tony Shaver said. "He is a tireless worker, and will do anything possible to make this basketball program successful. Ben was a key factor in implementing our new system, and is always looking for ways to tweak and improve our current scheme. He relates well with the players and is a successful recruiter with the relationship he developments with coaches, parents and potential recruits."

Wilkins' responsibilities also include scouting, schneduling, recruiting, individual skill work and developing the Tribe's perimeter players. During his first two seasons, he headed the College's scouting of opponents. He developed reports and helped in devising offensive and defensive strategy against each of the Tribe foes. During his first two seasons with the Tribe, W&M has posted back-to-back seasons of 15-or-more wins for the first time in 25 years. In 2007-08, the College capped the year with its first winning record in a decade and the program's first CAA Championship Game appearance.

Before coming to W&M, Wilkins was the video coordinator at N.C. State. The Wolfpack advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2005-06, while amassing an overall record of 22-10. N.C. State also went 10-6 in ACC action. During the season, Wilkins was involved with various aspects of the Wolfpack program including film editing, player housing, player financial services and organizing a past player reunion. He also served as the liaison for sports marketing, handled office and player tickets and was an assistant camp director.

Wilkins served as the first assistant and recruiting coordinator for Barton College in Wilson, N.C., during the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. The Bulldogs compiled a 35-21 mark over those two seasons, including a third-place finish in the Carolinas-Virginia Athletics Conference (CVAC) during his final campaign. In his time at Barton, Wilkins' primary responsibilities centered around recruiting, scouting reports, both practice and in-game coaching, development of the perimeter players and film exchange. Wilkin's final recruting class at Barton finished their careers with a 68-12 CVAC record to go along with three regular season and three tournament championships. The group advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament on three occasions and tallied an Elight Eight apperance in 2006 to go along with its 2007 NCAA Division II National Championship. During his time as the recruiting coordinator at Barton, the Bulldogs signed two-time CVAC Player of the Year, Anthony Atkinson, and CVAC Freshman of the Year, Bobby Buffaloe. A trio of Wilkins recruits, including Atkins, Buffaloe and Brian Leggett, were two-time All-CVAC selections during their careers. Wilkins also assisted in the organization and operation of the Barton Basketball Camp and served as the game day manager during both men's and women's basketball games.

Wilkins graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Arts in history in December of 2001. During his time at N.C. State, he was also a team manager.

After graduating from N.C. State, Wilkins served as the junior varsity coach for Apex High School in Apex, N.C. He guided the Cougars to a 17-1 mark and a first-place showing in conference play. As an assistant for the boys' varsity squad, Wilkins helped guide Apex to the state playoffs.

JONATHAN HOLMES

Jonathan Holmes enters his second season with the Tribe staff. He served as an assistant coach at the Division II and NAIA levels before coming to Williamsburg prior to the 2008-09 season. Holmes grew up in the basketball-rich state of Indiana and furthers the W&M-North Carolina connection at the College after playing four seasons for the Tar Heels.

"Jonathan has a strong pedigree in basketball and he just could not be more excited about this opportunity," head coach Tony Shaver said. "He brings great knowledge of the game and great recruiting contacts to our program. Jonathan has been runner-up for Indiana's 'Mr. Basketball' and played in the Final Four for the University of North Carolina, so he brings a winning way to help us continue to improve our program."

Holmes' reponsibilities with the Tribe include overseeing the team's academics, working with guards, scouting and recruiting. His main focus area in recruiting is the Midwest.

Holmes spent two seasons at Division II school Francis Marion University in Florence, S.C. During his tenure with the Patriots, Holmes' primary responsibilities included recruiting, on-floor coaching, individual player workouts, pre- and post-season workouts and helping in the area of academic support for team members.

Prior to his time at FMU, the Bloomington, Ind., native spent one season as an assistant coach and head junior varsity coach at Montreat College in 2005-06. The Cavaliers compiled a 22-10 mark and won both the Appalachian Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while also reaching the second round of the NAIA Division II national tournament. Holmes has also served as a counselor at numerous North Carolina Men's Basketball Camps, as well as at his own Jonathan Holmes Basketball Camp in Bloomington, which started in 2002.

Holmes is a 2003 graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he was a four-year letterman on the Tar Heel basketball team. He played in 76 career games and recorded nearly a two-to-one assists to turnovers ratio. During his career, the Tar Heels advanced to the 2000 Final Four, appeared in the 2003 NIT post-season tournament and won both the 1999 Maui Invitational and the 2002 Preseason NIT. Holmes was named to the 2003 ACC All-Academic Team. He earned a degree in communications from UNC with a 3.6 grade point average.

Upon graduation, Holmes played professional basketball for two seasons overseas. He was a member of the Leicester Riders in the British Basketball League (England) during the 2003-04 season. The following season, Holmes was a member of the IC Horsens in the Basketligaen Danish League (Denmark). He averaged 14 points and five assists in helping IC Horsens to a runner-up finish during the Danish League regular season as well as a tournament semifinal appearance in 2005.

Holmes was a four-year varsity starter for his father, J.R., at Bloomington South High School and capped his career as the runner-up for Indiana Mr. Basketball in 1999. He left as the school's all-time leader in points, assists, consecutive games started, free throw percentage and 3-pointers made. Holmes was also the recipient of the John Wooden Citizenship Award in 1999. His high school honors also included Nike High School All-American in the summer of 1998, McDonald's All-American Nominee, two-time first team All-State in Indiana and being named to the Indiana All-Star team. As a student at Bloomington South, Holmes was the co-valedictorian and carried a perfect grade point average.

Jonathan and his wife, Jennifer, were married in September of 2006. Jennifer, who is originally from New Hampshire, is a graphic designer. The couple have a daughter, Lillian Annabel, born Dec. 1, 2008.

Kevin Snyder joins the Tribe staff as the College's Director of Basketball Operations. He enjoyed a stellar collegiate basketball career at Williams College in Williamstown, Mass., before making the move to William and Mary. Williams College is rated the No. 1 liberal arts school in the country by U.S. News and Word Report.

"Kevin is a wonderful addition to our basketball program," Shaver said. "He is a bright, energetic young man with a great knowledge of basketball and the style we play. His ideas will contribute to our approach to the game, and he will be a great friend to our younger players."

Snyder's duties with the Tribe include overseeing the team's managers, film exchange, film breakdown and the team's toughness chart. He also has a number of administrative responsibilities, including the team's daily schedule. Some of his other responsibilities inlcude keeping track of players' shooting stats during the fall, t-shirt design, create player handouts, update and maintain the Tribe's recruiting database and help with on-campus recruiting.

Snyder graduated from Williams in 2009 with a degree in art and psychology. He was a three-year starter for the Ephs and became the 26th player in Williams history to score over 1,000 career points. As a senior, Snyder was named a first-team All-NESCAC honoree, while averag> ing 16.8 points per game and leading the squad in minutes played (34.8), 3-pointers made (66) and assists (96). He ranked first in the NESCAC in made 3-piont field goals and fourth in scoring. He shot 41.5 percent from 3-point range and averaged 3.7 assists and 4.0 rebounds per game. Snyder also finished second in the NESCAC in assist-to-turnover ratio in 2009 at 1.81. He scored a career-high 30 points on three occasions as a senior against Ursinus, Framingham State and Amherst College, helping Williams to a 17-9 overall mark and a 6-3 conference ledger.

"I am incredibly excited to be given the opportunity to join such a respected staff," Snyder said. "I am looking forward to helping in any way possible to make this season a successful one."

The Littleton, Colo., native finished his Williams' career with 1,016 points, 237 assists and 272 rebounds in 80 career starts. As a sophomore starter in 2007, Snyder helped the Ephs to the NESCAC Champion-ship and a berth in the Division III NCAA Tournament. In 2008, Williams finished the year at 17-8 overall as Snyder started all 25 games, while averaging 10.1 points per game, 2.4 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game.

Along with his prowess on the court, Snyder succeeded in the classroom as well. He was a Second-Team ESPN The Magazine Academic District I selection as a senior and a two-time Academic All-NESCAC honoree.

Snyder played at Heritage High School in Littleton, Colo., as a prep and captained the squad to a state championship during his senior season in 2005. Heritage finished the year at 27-1 overall and was ranked No.1 in the state of Colorado throughout the season, before finishing No. 43 nationally. Snyder was an honorable mention all-state selection after averaging 14.4 points per game and hitting 70 3-pointers.

JAKE DYSLIN Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

IAN HEISEL Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

The Division of Sports Medicine at the College of William and Mary is responsible for the health care of nearly 450 student-athletes in 23 intercollegiate sports at the country's second-oldest institution of higher learning. The athletic training program focuses on the prevention, evaluation, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for all intercollegiate studentathletes.

Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility. There are eight full-time certified athletic trainers and two graduate assistants from Old Dominion University's post-graduate athletic training educational program on staff. In addition, a group of undergraduate students serve as athletic training aides and assist in the daily operation of the sports medicine program.

Renée Cork heads the William and Mary Sports Medicine staff and holds the title of Assistant Athletic Director for Heath Services. Cork is in her 18th year at the College and in 2007 was honored as the National Trainers' Association Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Cork is joined on the sports medicine staff by a pair of veteran trainers in Senior Associate Athletic Trainer Andy Carter and Associate Athletic Trainer John Knaul. Carter joined the William and Mary staff in 2000 as an associate athletic trainer. A William and Mary alumnus and former Tribe student athletic trainer, he is in his sixth year as the head football athletic trainer, overseeing the sports medicine services for the team. He and his wife, Kristina, who is a physical therapist at Advanced Specialty Center of Williamsburg Physical Therapy, reside in Williamsburg.

Knaul, who earned his bachelor's degree of Alfred University and his master's at Elmira College, is in his 10th year at William and Mary. He and his wife, Katie, reside in Williamsburg.

Lisa Shook and Michele Heisel enter their fifth seasons with W&M athletics and both hold the title of Senior Assistant Athletic Trainers. Shook holds a bachelor's degree from Salisbury University and a master's from Western Carolina. She is the head athletic trainer for the men's basketball program. Heisel, who resides in Williamsburg with her husband, Ian, holds a bachelor's degree from California University of Pennsylvania and a master's from Virginia.

Hollie Walusz begins her third year on the Tribe staff as an Assistant Athletic Trainer, after completing her undergraduate degree at Northern Iowa and her master's at UNC Chapel Hill. Tracey Eisen and Bryce Mueller return for their second seasons as Assistant Athletic Trainers. Eisen, who is originally from Silver Springs, Md., completed her undergraduate degree at Pittsburgh and her graduate work at George Washington. Bryce earned his bachelor's degree from Northern Iowa, while receiving his master's degree from West Virginia.

Also, the two graduate assistants from the post professional graduate athletic training program at ODU, Crystal Nelson and Shawn Lucci, enter their second years on staff. Nelson is a graduate of the University of Tampa, while Lucci completed her undergraduate degree at Pittsburgh.

Michael Potter is in his seventh year on the staff as the team physician. The team physician oversees the full-time athletic training staff and has overall responsibility for supervising the sports medicine program. A family practice/sports medicine specialist, Potter earned his medical degree from Texas A&M. He completed his residency at the Riverside Family Practice in Newport News and his sports medicine fellowship at Wake Forest University. Potter is in private practice with the Virginia Center of Athletic Medicine (VCAM) of Tidewater Physicians Multispecialty Group (TPMG).

THE CAA

The Colonial Athletic Association celebrates its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10 with memories of a proud and storied past and visions of an exciting future.

Regarded as one of the nation's top collegiate conferences, the CAA encompasses five of the nation's nine largest metropolitan areas with a geographic footprint that stretches from Boston to Atlanta. The conference has produced 16 national team champions in five different sports, 33 individual national champions, 12 national players of the year, 12 national coaches of the year and 12 Honda Award winners. Just as impressive, however, are the honors accumulated away from competition, which include five Rhodes Scholars and 20 NCAA post-graduate scholars. In 2008-09, the CAA had more than 1,700 of the league's 4,000 student-athletes received the Commissioner's Academic Award after posting at least a 3.2 grade point average while lettering in a varsity sport. The conference ranked in the top 10 in the nation in 12 of its 23 sports in the latest APR report released by the NCAA

The landscape of the conference stretches along the majority of the East Coast, and includes six of the nation's top 25 media markets – New York (1), Philadelphia (4), Boston (7), Atlanta (8), Washington, D.C. (9) and Baltimore (25). The number of television homes in the CAA market exceeds 20 million.

The CAA currently sponsors 23 sports with the addition of a 12-team football league in 2007 and women's rowing in 2009. Male athletes compete for championships in baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, lacrosse, soccer, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and wrestling. Female athletes battle for conference titles in basketball, cross country, field hockey, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming & diving, tennis, track & field and volleyball. In 2008-09, 28 teams earned NCAA Tournament berths and 45 student-athletes received All-America honors.

The conference has made its presence known nationally in men's basketball with a league-record five teams advancing to postseason play in 2008-09. Conference champion VCU made its third NCAA Tournament appearance in the last six years, while George Mason reached the postseason for the seventh time in a decade in the NIT. Old Dominion, making its fifth straight postseason trip, captured the inaugural CIT championship, while James Madison made the CIT semifinals. Northeastern reached the quarterfinals of the CBI. In 2006, George Mason captured the nation's imagination by becoming the first mid-major program since 1979 to reach the Final Four, knocking off powerhouses Michigan State, North Carolina, Wichita State and Connecticut along the way. The Patriots were ranked No. 8 in the final ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll, which was the highest ever for a CAA team.

The CAA has had at least three women's basketball teams participate in post-season play for the past four seasons. Drexel captured its first CAA championship in 2009 and was joined in the NCAA Tournament by VCU, giving the league multiple teams in the Big Dance for the second time in three years. James Madison earned a post-season berth for the fourth year in a row in the WNIT. Perennial power Old Dominion, which has won three national championships (1979, 1980, 1985) and was national runner-up in 1997, claimed an NCAA-record 17 straight CAA titles before seeing its incredible streak come to an end last year.

The conference also excels in many other sports. CAA squads have combined to win 10 field hockey national titles since the championship began in 1981. Delaware and Towson have each reached the Final Four of the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship. Three women's soccer teams have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the past two seasons and at least one men's soccer team has advanced to the final 16 of the NCAA Championship in five of the last seven years. In men's cross country, William & Mary placed 16th nationally as a team in 2008 and Georgia State's Mark Steeds earned All-America status after a 12th-place individual effort. On the mat, ODU's Ryan Williams was one of three wrestling All-Americans after finishing as the national runner-up at 141 pounds. The CAA has sent multiple teams to the NCAA Baseball Championship in nine of the last 12 years and has had 12 or more players selected in the last seven Major League Baseball drafts. The conference also boasts numerous All-Americans in tennis, golf, track and field and swimming and diving

CAA member institutions are committed to excellence in the classroom. The Colonial Academic Alliance was created in 2002 by the league's presidents with a goal of expanding their partnership to all aspects of university life outside of intercollegiate athletics. Among the programs already established are an undergraduate research conference, coordination of study abroad programs and granting visiting academic status to student-athletes traveling to an away contest so that they have access to libraries, academic resource centers and computer labs.

In 2002, two faculty members from CAA institutions were awarded academia's most coveted distinction – the Nobel Prize. John B. Fenn, a research professor in the Department of Chemistry at Virginia Commonwealth University, received the Nobel Prize for chemistry, and Vernon Smith, a professor of economics and law at George Mason University, shared the Nobel Prize in economic sciences.

Commissioner Thomas E. Yeager has guided the CAA since its inception. The conference traces its roots back to 1983 when three of its current members- George Mason University, James Madison University, and the College of William and Mary - were aligned with East Carolina University, the United States Naval Academy and the University of Richmond as a basketball league (ECAC South). During the next two years, the league added 11 sports, acquired two new members (the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and American University) and decided to form a new association. The transformation from ECAC South to CAA took place on June 6, 1985.

Charter members George Mason, James Madison, UNC Wilmington and William and Mary were joined by Old Dominion University in 1991 and by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1995. The conference added the University of Delaware, Drexel University, Hofstra University and Towson University in 2001. Georgia State University and Northeastern University became members of the conference on July 1, 2005.

Celebrating its 25th Anniversary, the CAA takes great pride in producing student-athletes who stand out on the playing field and in the classroom.

2008-09 REVIEW

SENIORS CLOSE OUT CAREERS

The 2008-09 season marked the close in the career's of four-year Tribe players Peter Stein, Alex Smith and Chris Darnell. Stein was a three-year starter for the College and a key cog in W&M's run to the CAA Championship game in 2008. His career games played total of 118 ranked third in school history, while he also ranked among the program's all-time best in field goal percentage. He finished his career with 686 points and 430 rebounds, while shooting 52.1 percent from the floor. Darnell appeared in 109 games over his career, while starting 33 contests. He tallied 363 career points and 320 career rebounds. Smith was plagued by injuries during most of his Tribe career, but went on to earn his degree in kinesiology. He played 79 games over his career and finsihed with 324 points and 216 rebounds.

END OF THE YEAR TRIBE AWARDS

The Tribe handed out its yearly awards at its annual banquet, and junior Danny Sumner highlighted the award winners, claiming the team's most valuable player honors, while both senior Peter Stein and junior David Schneider took home three awards each.

Sumner finished the year averaging 13.4 points per game to go along with 4.4 rebounds and 1.2 assists per contest. The Fairfax, Va., native led the Tribe in scoring on a team-best 15 occasions, while also recording a pair of double-doubles on the year. He finished the year ranked No. 12 in the CAA in scoring, No. 13 in 3-pointers made and 3-point percentage and No. 14 in field goal percentage.

For the second straight season, Stein walked away with the W&M awards for toughness and defense. He also added the Mark Batzel Award, which is given to the player who displays leadership, determination, mental toughness and heart, while having the ability to instill those qualities in his teammates, to his haul of awards.

Schneider also took home three honors at the banquet, including two of the distinctions for the third time in his collegiate career. The Phoenix, Ariz., native was named the winner of the Kraze Award and took home the Green and Gold's top honors in assists and free throw percentage. It marked the second straight season he won the free throw award and the third consecutive year he took home the assists and Kraze Awards. Schneider finished the 2008-09 season averaging 2.7 assists per game, while shooting 84.6 percent from the free throw line.

Schneider is one of only two multiple Kraze Award winners and is the first in school history to receive the accolade on three occasions. The award was named after John Kratzer, who was the captain of the Tribe in 1977-78. He received the inaugural United States Basketball Writers Association Most Courageous Athlete award. Kratzer lettered two years with the Tribe, before being diagnosed with cancer and battled the disease for three more years. Throughout the ordeal, he continued to provide an inspiration to the Tribe and provided the major emotional lift that allowed the College to upset No. 2 North Carolina, 78-75, on Dec. 7, 1977.

Sophomore forward Marcus Kitts was named the Tribe's most improved player. The Holly Springs, N.C., native finished the year averaging 3.8 points and 2.8 rebounds per game, but really came on as the season progressed. He provided W&M with a presence in the low post and started eight of the Tribe's final 10 games.

Freshman forward Quinn McDowell took home the Tribe's rebounding award, leading the Green and Gold on the glass at 4.4 boards per contest. The College also handed out its captain's cups to its quartet of team captains. Stein, Schneider, senior Chris Darnell and junior Sean Mc-Curdy all served as team captains for the squad during the 2008-09 season. W&M Director of Academic Support for Athletics Jason Simms was named the Tribe's Sixth Man Award winner for his hard work and dedication throughout the year.

as well as First-Team CAA All-Academic Team honors, while McDowell became the seventh Tribe player in the last eight seasons to be named to the league's All-Rookie Team.

After earning All-Rookie honors as a freshman in 2007 and just missing out on all-league distinction as a sophomore, Schneider gave the College its sixth All-CAA honor under head coach Tony Shaver. It marks the 19th occasion a W&M player has been named to the All-CAA squad, and he became the 14th different player to garner the accolade. Schneider led the Tribe in scoring and ranked seventh in the CAA at 14.1 points per game. He ranked second in the CAA in free throw percentage, third in 3-pointers made per game and 15th in assists per contest.

Schneider became the fourth W&M player to earn two First-Team CAA All-Academic Team honors, joining Matt O'Reilly (1989, 1990) Nick D'Antoni (2004, 2005) and Adam Hess (2002, 2003, 2004). He was the 10th player named to the All-Academic team in Shaver's six seasons.

McDowell became the 18th Tribe player to be named to the league's All-Rookie Team. The Mason, Ohio native garnered CAA Rookie of the Week honors on three occasions. He ranked among top five CAA rookies in minutes, points and rebounds per game as well as field goal, 3-point and free throw percentage. McDowell ranked third on the Tribe in scoring at 9.3 points per game, while leading the team in field goal percentage (50 percent) and rebounding (4.4 per game).

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM

Freshman forward Quinn McDowell was named CAA Rookie of the Week for the third time on March 2. The Mason, Ohio native was also named the league rookie of the week on Jan. 5 and Feb. 9. McDowell, along with James Madison's Julius Wells, is one of only two league rookies to earn the weekly honor on three occasions in 2008-09. Wells was named the CAA Rookie of the Week on four occasions.

The 6-5, 195-pounder was recently garnered the accolade for averaging 9.5 points per game and shooting 50 percent from the floor in the Tribe's contests at Old Dominion and against Drexel. In the victory over the Dragons, McDowell was one of three Tribe players in double figures with 11 points on 5-of-8 shooting.

McDowell garnered the Feb. 9th honor after averaging 13.5 points and four rebounds in the Tribe's games against two of the top teams in the CAA, Northeastern and VCU. In the Tribe's 68-63 upset of then-CAA-leading Northeastern on Feb. 4, McDowell scored a game and then career-high 19 points on 6-of-10 shooting from the floor and a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe.

The Tribe rookie's first weekly CAA honor came on Jan. 5 after he led W&M in scoring (12.5 ppg) and rebounding (7 rpg) in its split of games against Harvard and Northeastern. He shot 64.2 percent from the floor and was a perfect 7-of-7 from the free throw line. In the victory over Harvard, McDowell turned in his first collegiate double-double with career marks in points (13) and rebounds (10). He followed that up with 12 points and four rebounds off the bench at Northeastern.

SCHNEIDER NEARS SCHOOL-RECORD MARKS

Junior guard David Schneider finished just shy of a pair of school record in 2008-09. His single-season total of 73 3-pointers and his per game average of triples (2.55) ranked both second in school history behind only Greg Burzell's 1987-88 totals of 75 and 2.59 per game. Schneider established a W&M single season record for 3-pointers attempted with 248. The number is tied for fifth on the all-time CAA list. Schneider also established W&M and CAA single game record for treys attempted with 23 at Liberty on Nov. 29.

3 HEAVY

Like it had the previous two seasons, the Tribe relied heavily on the 3-pointer in 2008-09. Over the three season stretch, W&M produced three of the best statistical seasons when it comes to shooting from long range. In 2007-08, the College established a CAA record for 3-pointers made (257) and 3-pointers attempted (755). The College's 2008-09 totals of 202 threes made and 653 attempted ranked second in school history. Overall it marks the third straight season in which the Tribe has attempted more than 600 3-point field goals and made 200 or more.

HELPING HAND

The College dished out 400-plus assists for the second straight season in 2008-09. After dishing out 441 assists in 2007-08, the Tribe handed out 409 in 2008-09. It marked the first time in 31 years that W&M had enjoyed back-to-back seasons of 400 or more assists. The last time in occurred was during the 1977 and 1978 campaign.

According to Kenpom.com, the College ranked 29th nationally in assist percentage at 61.8 percent. That means that more than 60 percent of the Tribe's made field goals came as a result of assists from teammates. The percentage was second among CAA schools, behind only Old Dominion. The Tribe ranked fourth in the CAA in assists per game at 13.6. On four occasions, W&M eclipsed the 20-assist mark. W&M dished out season-best 23 helpers at Liberty on Nov. 29 and against Haverford on Dec. 20.

STIFLING DEFENSE

In its victory over UNCW on Feb. 11, the Tribe limited the Seahawks to 22.7 percent shooting from the floor and 40 total points. UNCW entered the game leading the CAA in scoring at 73.4 points per contest. The defensive performance was a record-setting one for the Tribe as the Seahawks field goal percentage was the lowest ever for a CAA opponent against the College. W&M limited UNCW to the lowest point total for a Green and Gold league foe since 1984. The last time a Tribe conference opponent finished with fewer than 40 points was during the 1984 ECAC Tournament when East Carolina scored 32 in a 47-32 Tribe win.

ROOKIE STARTERS

In each of the Tribe's last 14 contests, the first five on the court included the freshman pair of Kendrix Brown and Quinn McDowell. The pair put up impressive numbers as starters in those contests. Over the stretch, McDowell ranked second on the team at 10.8 points per game to go along with a team-best 4.6 rebounds per game. Brown, on the other hand, was more of a floor general. He has led the squad in assists on five occasions. He registered three assists compared to just one turnover in both games at Delaware and Hofstra, before handing out four assists at Drexel. Brown dished out a career-high tying five helpers vs. Towson. In the College's most recent at Towson, he finished with an impressive stat line of a career best 10 rebounds to go along with four assists compared to zero turnovers.

DYNAMIC DUO

The Tribe possessed one of the best 1-2 scoring punches in the CAA in juniors Danny Sumner and David Schneider. Schneider ranked seventh in the CAA at 14.1 points per game, while Sumner is 12th at 13.2. W&M is one of three schools in the league with two players among the top 12 in scoring. The duo accounted for 810 of the Tribe's 1844 points last season, which equates to 43.9 percent. In 25 of the Tribe's 30 games in 2008-09, either Sumner, Schneider or both led the Tribe in scoring with Sumner leading the way on 15 occasions and Schneider 11 times.

On four occasions in 2008-09, both Sumner and Schneider scored 20 or more points. In W&M's homeopening win over Norfolk State, the duo both scored 20-plus points, becoming the first W&M pair to pull the trick since 2005. In W&M's 3OT loss to Navy, Schneider and Sumner became only the second set of teammates in W&M history to score 30 or more points in the same game. Both turned in career-best totals as Schneider scored a game-high 31 points and Sumner added 30 points. The feat last occurred during the 1967-68 season.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES ALL AROUND

Junior guard David Schneider became the third Tribe player this season to register a double-double, finishing with 15 points and 11 rebounds against George Mason on Jan. 14. Fellow classmate Danny Sumner had a double-double earlier this season against Navy, while freshman Quinn McDowell notched a double-double at home in the Tribe's win over Harvard. It marks the first time since the 2003-04 season that three different Tribe players registered a double-double during the season. Going into last season, no Tribe player had accomplished the feat in three seasons. During the 2003-04 season, Nick D'Antoni, Zeb Cope, Adam Hess and Corey Cofield each registered double-doubles during that campaign.

MCDOUBLE-DOUBLE

Freshman forward Quinn McDowell became the second W&M player in 2008-09 to register a doubledouble, finishing with 13 points and 10 rebounds. Both totals were season highs as McDowell became the first Tribe rookie since Corey Cofield in 2004 to register a double-double. Cofield had six double-doubles during his freshman year in 2003-04 on his way to earning CAA Rookie of the Year honors. McDowell is the second and one of only four freshmen in the CAA last season to register a double-double.

SCHOOL AND LEAGUE RECORDS FALL

In the Tribe's 80-74 overtime loss at Liberty in the championship game of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic, W&M set a pair of school and CAA records. The College attempted a program-high 46 3-pointers, bettering the previous mark of 39 set last season in a victory over UNC Wilmington. The total also topped the CAA record of 45 attempted by VCU in 2003 and Navy in 1990. Junior guard David Schneider not only bettered the W&M school record for 3-pointers attempted in a game with 23, but also topped the CAA mark. The previous school mark as well as the CAA record was 16 by W&M's Greg Burzell at Richmond in 1988.

OVERTIME

In the championship game of the Liberty Thanksgiving Classic, W&M played its second multiple overtime game of the season. In fact, the Tribe played a triple overtime game against Navy (Nov. 22) and a double overtime contest vs. Liberty (Nov. 29) in a week time frame. It marked the first time in school history that W&M played a triple OT and double OT game in the same season. The only other time W&M played two multiple OT games in a season was during the 1978-79 season when it played double OT games against East Carolina and Davidson. Those two games came nine days apart on Jan. 30, 1979 and Feb. 8, 1979.

The Tribe's triple overtime setback to Navy on Nov. 22 marked the fifth time in W&M history that the program played three overtime periods. The Green and Gold also played three OTs in 1949 against George Washington in the Southern Conference Tournament, in 1958 against Richmond, in 1961 against Furman in the Southern Conference Tournament and against Virginia Tech in 1981.

SUMNER FIVE STRAIGHT 20-POINT EFFORTS

Junior wing Danny Sumner became the first W&M player in nearly 40 years to score 20-plus points in five straight games from Nov. 19-29. He tallied his fifth straight game with 20 or more points, pouring in a gamehigh 23 points in the championship game of the Liberty Classic against the host Flames. During the streak, the Fairfax, Va., native added 20 points against South Carolina State (Nov. 28), 24 vs. Norfolk State (Nov. 19), a career-high 30 points against Navy (Nov. 22) and 21 points vs. Radford (Nov. 25). He became the first Tribe player since Bob Sherwood during the 1969-70 season to tally five straight games of 20 or more points. Sherwood had six consecutive games of 20-plus points against Richmond (21), at Duke (22), George Washington (20), Virginia Tech (23), VMI (22) and Virginia (20).

30 AND 10

Junior Danny Sumner was sensational for the Tribe in its triple overtime loss to Navy, finishing with the program's first double-double in three seasons with 30 points and 11 rebounds. The fact that makes those numbers more impressive is that its the first time a Tribe player has scored 30 or more points and pulled down 10 or more rebounds in a game since 1961. All-American Jeff Cohen pulled the trick with 49 points and 31 rebounds against Richmond during the 1961 campaign.

SUMNER NAMED CAA PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Junior Danny Sumner was named Colonial Athletic Association co-Player of the Week on Nov. 24. The 6-7 wing averaged 27 points and eight rebounds per game in the Tribe's first two home games of the season and shared the honor with Northeastern's Matt Janning.

In the home-opener against Norfolk State, Sumner scored a then-career high 24 points on 9-of-13 shooting from the floor in leading the College to a 74-58 win. The Fairfax, Va., native followed that performance by eclipsing his career mark for the second straight night, scoring 30 points and pulling down 11 rebounds. It was the first W&M double-double in three seasons. Sumner was 11-of-22 from the floor and 4-of-9 from 3-point range against the Midshipmen. With just five seconds remaining in regulation, the Tribe junior knocked down a trey from the left side to cap a 12-point W&M rally and send the game to OT. For the week, Sumner shot 60.6 percent (20-of-35) from the floor and 50 percent (7-of-14) from 3-point range.

Danny Sumner was named the Tribe's MVP for 2008-09.

THE KRAZE AWARD

John Kratzer, captain of William and Mary's 1977-78 men's basketball team, received the inaugural United States Basketball Writers Association Most Courageous Athlete award. After lettering his first two years at forward, Kratzer was diagnosed with cancer and battled the disease for three more years. Throughout the ordeal, John never lost his sense of humor and continued to be the player who kept the team loose and served as an inspiration. "Kraze" attended practices and sat on the bench his senior year, playing a major role in W&M's 78-75 win over No. 2 North Carolina on December 7, 1977. Through it all, John's warmth, cheerfulness and courage touched countless people.

The "Kraze Award" is William and Mary basketball's most coveted award. Recipients over the past years include:

1993	Brendan Connor
1995	Carl Parker
1996	Carl Parker
1997	Shaka Arnold
1998	Terence Jennings
1999	Jim Moran
2000	James Haunty
2001	Brian Brown
2002	Cody Carbaugh
2003	Sherman Rivers
2004	Zeb Cope
2007	David Schneider
2008	David Schneider
2009	David Schneider

David Schneider has been named the Kraze Award winner each of the last three years.

W. TAYLOR REVELEY III President

Taylor Reveley was sworn in as the 27th president of the College of William and Mary on September 5, 2008, after serving as interim president since February 2008. Before assuming his current post, he served as dean of William & Mary Law School for almost a decade, starting in August 1998. He is the John Stewart Bryan Professor of Jurisprudence.

Reveley received his A.B. from Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs in 1965. At Princeton, he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and rowed on the lightweight crew for two years. Reveley went to law school at the University of Virginia, receiving his J.D. in 1968. During the United States Supreme Court's 1969 term, he clerked for Justice William J. Brennan, Jr.

Reveley has extensively studied and written about the constitutional division of the war powers between the President and Congress. In 1972-73, he spent 13 months studying the war powers while an International Affairs Fellow of the Council on Foreign Relations in New York City and a Fellow of the Woodrow Wilson Center for Scholars in Washington, D.C. He is the author of War Powers of the President and Congress: Who Holds the Arrows and Olive Branch? (University of Virginia Press, 1981).

Before joining William & Mary, Reveley practiced law for many years at Hunton & Williams, where he specialized in energy matters, especially those involving commercial nuclear power. He was the managing partner of the firm for nine years.

Much of Reveley's extracurricular time over the years has gone to non-profit organizations. He has served on many educational and cultural boards, including those of Princeton University (where he is a trustee emeritus), Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, St. Christopher's School, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, JSTOR, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, the Virginia Historical Society, the Virginia Foundation for the Humanities, the Richmond Symphony, and the Presbyterian Church (USA) Foundation.

Reveley and his wife Helen have four children – Taylor, Everett, Nelson and Helen Lanier – and a daughter-in-law, Margaret Louise (Marlo, married to Taylor).

W. Taylor Reveley III speaks with 2008 W&M basketball graduate Nathan Mann at the team hotel during the Tribe's magical run to the CAA Championship Game in 2008.

W&M CHANCELLOR

SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR Chancellor

Sandra Day O'Connor, one of the most distinguished jurists in the history of the United States Supreme Court—and its first female justice—addressed the most profound legal issues of her age with wisdom, courage, and skill. After a long career in public service, including nearly a quarter century on the nation's highest court, she retired in 2006.

Justice O'Connor spent her childhood on an isolated cattle ranch in southeastern Arizona tending to a variety of ranch chores, raising farm animals, and reading voraciously. After completing school in El Paso, Texas, she journeyed west to continue her education at Stanford University, where her professors inspired and challenged her to make a difference in her nation and the world.

Justice O'Connor earned a B.A. in economics (magna cum laude) from Stanford University and a LL.B. from Stanford Law School. She was an editor of the law review and graduated third in her law class—two spots behind her friend and future colleague, the late Chief Justice William Rehnquist.

After being admitted to the bar, Justice O'Connor served as Deputy County Attorney of San Mateo County, California, from 1952 to 1953, and as a civilian attorney for the U.S. Army Quartermaster Market Center in Frankfurt, Germany, from 1954 to 1957. From 1958 to 1960, she practiced law in Maryvale, Arizona, and served as Assistant Attorney General of Arizona from 1965 to 1969. She was appointed to the Arizona State Senate in 1969, and was subsequently reelected to two two-year terms, during which she served as Majority Leader. In 1975, she was elected Judge of the Maricopa County Superior Court and served until 1979, when she was appointed to the Arizona Court of Appeals.

President Reagan nominated her as an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and she took her seat September 25, 1981. She succeeded the Honorable Henry A. Kissinger as Chancellor of the College of William and Mary in 2005. In the years since her investiture, she has visited the College numerous times, visiting classes, talking with students, and addressing academic conferences.

She is married to John Jay O'Connor III, whom she met in law school. They have three sons: Scott, Brian, and Jay.

Sandra Day O'Connor was invested as the College's 23rd chancellor on April 7, 2006. At investiture ceremonies, she was presented with a Tribe football jersey.

W&M ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

TERRY DRISCOLL Athletics Director

Under the steady guidance and watchful eye of Terry Driscoll, the William and Mary Athletics Department has solidified its standing as one of the nation's preeminent broad-based programs. As Driscoll enters his 14th year as athletics director, he has overseen an unprecedented era of improvement in terms of funding and facilities while also maintaining the College's rich history of producing well-rounded studentathletes.

Driscoll oversees a program that is committed to balancing academic demands with athletic success. One of the department's stated goals each year is to finish among the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, which has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the director.

In the last six years, the Tribe's program has combined for a total of 26 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) titles. This past season, W&M claimed three CAA titles (Men's and Women's Cross Country and Women's Track & Field). In 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament, with four teams winning conference titles and six that finished in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. Overall, no institution in the CAA can claim more all-time league championships than the 95 William and Mary has earned.

As impressive as the athletic accomplishments have been during Driscoll's tenure, the program's academic successes have been even greater. In the NCAA's inaugural (2004) APR rankings, a measurement of academic progress based on academic eligibility, retention, and graduation of student-athletes, W&M was fourth in the nation overall and first among institutions offering athletic performance-based scholarships. Additionally, the Tribe football team has posted a 100 percent graduation rate three times, while the majority of the program's squads have consistently ranked among the nation's finest in terms of graduation. In 2002, the CAA started recognizing Scholar-Athletes of the Year for each of the 22 sports it sponsors, and the College has had a conference-high 29 individuals receive the honor.

In addition to the many academic and athletic successes, Driscoll's impact on the program has been equally impressive in terms of physical and financial improvements. Since taking over as athletics director, Driscoll has overseen the construction of more than $20 million in new facilities, including Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). Recently, the College dedicated an $11 million, 30,000 square-foot Jimmye Laycock Football Center at Zable Stadium in the summer of 2008. During the last four years, the venerable stadium has been enhanced with an $800,000-plus video scoreboard (2007), the installation of a $650,000 permanent lighting system (2006) and an $840,000 state-of-theart Field Turf Pro artificial playing surface (2006). This past summer, new synthetic turf with water cannons were installed at Busch Field, the home of the William and Mary Field Hockey program.

In addition to the physical structures, Driscoll has also worked with the Associate Athletics Director for Development, Bobby Dwyer, to increase the annual fund-raising totals for non-capital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to the current annual total of approximately $2.7 million.

A true student-athlete himself, Driscoll's leadership skills were developed during his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament Finals as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom as a biology major garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth overall pick of the 1969 NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three spots after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and then coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communications - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the venue executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports to organize the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children – Keith, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross, and Leslie, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

W&M FACILITY ENHANCEMENTS UNDER DRISCOLL

In his 14 years of guiding the William and Mary Athletic Department, Athletics Director Terry Driscoll has overseen a significant number of facility enhancements for a number of Tribe's athletic programs. It total, W&M has dedicated more $25 million to facilities enhancements under Driscoll. Here is a look at some of the facility enhancements on Driscoll's watch:

• The $11 million, 30,000-square foot JIMMYE LAYCOCK FOOTBALL CENTER (dedicated in June 2008).

 $7 million specifically for men's basketball and the naming of KAPLAN ARENA for the gift from Jim (Class of '57) and Jane Kaplan (Class of '56).

• Upgrades to ZABLE STADIUM, including a permanent lighting system (2005), new artificial playing surface (Field Turf Pro) in 2006, a new video scoreboard (2007) and a new tartan all-weather synthetic track surface (2008).

• The recently completed renovation to BUSCH FIELD with a new playing surface, AstroTurf 12[™], underlying pad and drainage systems to create a competition surface that ranks alongside that used at the U.S. National Training Centers in Virginia Beach, Virginia, Chula Vista, California and that used at the 2008 Olympic Games.

• The construction of PLUMERI PARK, home of Tribe baseball, in 1999 due in large part to the generous donation by Joseph J. Plumeri II (Class of 1966).

• The $1 million natural grass facility for soccer and lacrosse, ALBERT-DALY FIELD, (dedicated in August 2004) was made possible by long-time athletic benefactors Jim and Bobbie Ukrop (classes of '60 and '61, respectively).

• BUSCH COURTS opened in September of 2001 as the home for Tribe tennis, includes eight individual hard courts, stadium seating for 500 people and state-of-the-art lighting system.

PETE CLAWSON Assistant AD, Media Relations

Pete Clawson, now in his 15th year at the College, was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations during the summer of 2006.

Clawson, a 1990 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, had spent the previous 12 years working in the College's sports information office, including six as the Sports Information Director.

In his current position, Clawson oversees all workings of the Media Relations Department and is the primary contact for the Tribe's nationallyrecognized football and men's gymnastics programs.

Prior to his stint at W&M, Clawson was an assistant at Fresno State. Clawson has also spent time as an assistant at his alma mater and at the University of Florida.

A native of Dillsburg, Pa., Clawson and his wife, Catherine, were married on July 19, 2003 and reside in Williamsburg. The couple has a one-year-old son, Charlie.

STEVE COLE Associate AD, Internal Operations

Steve Cole enters his 27th year at the College of William and Mary, with the previous 25 at the helm of the W&M Sports Medicine program. In 2008, Cole assumed the role as the Associate Athletics Director for Internal Operations, overseeing nearly every facet of the department's daily operation. His administrative responsibilities include monitoring financial matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic events and facilities, and supervision of coaches and staff.

A certified athletic trainer (BOC), Cole graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and athletic training. He subsequently earned a master's degree in sports medicine in 1978 from the University of Virginia.

In the summer of 2006, the National Athletic Trainers Association recognized Cole as the College/University National Athletic Trainer of the Year. In 1997, Cole received his 25-year membership pin from NATA. He was also recognized for his service to the profession, receiving the Athletic Trainer Service Award, one of only three recipients from the Mid-Atlantic Region. In 2000, Cole was honored by the College for his many years of service to William and Mary with the recognition as an honorary alumnus.

A true fitness buff, Cole is an exemplary model for all the athletes. He is an avid competitor who has participated in a variety of triathlons since 1980, spending countless hours of his spare time in training. Cole resides in Williamsburg with his wife Lonna, 11-year old daughter Sydney Janaé, and six-year-old daughter Jahnessa Ya Xin.

DEIDRE CONNELY Sports Psychologist

Deidre Connelly is entering her 20th year with the William and Mary Athletic Department. Connelly came to the College from the University of Iowa, where she was a professor and the director of the sport psychology program. Dr. Connelly works with Tribe athletes, coaches, and teams on mental skills for competition, leadership training, and success skills. She has been published many times and has been invited to speak at numerous conferences and seminars. Connelly received her undergraduate degree from the University of Bridgeport, and did graduate work at William and Mary. She received her MEd and Ph.D. in sport psychology from the University of Virginia. Dr. Connelly is also a member of the College's Counseling Center staff.

RENÉE CORK Assistant AD, Sports Medicine

Renée Cork is in her 18th year with the William and Mary Sports Medicine staff and holds the title of Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Medicine.

Honored as the 2007 National Trainers' Association Assistant Athletic Trainer of the Year, Cork was appointed to the Athletic Training Advisory Board under the Board of Medicine by Governor Warner in 2002. She is the only collegiate athletic trainer representative on the Advisory Board. Very involved in the athletic training committees at the state and regional levels, she was honored with the Sports Safety Training Award by the American Red Cross in 1999.

Cork is responsible for the CPR training for all members of the Tribe coaching staffs and also teaches a graduate course at Old Dominion.

A native of Elgin, III., Cork served as the head athletic trainer at Drew University prior to coming to W&M as an associate athletic trainer. She earned her undergraduate degree from Iowa State and a master's degree in physical education from Southwest Texas State.

BOBBY DWYER Senior Associate AD, Development

Bobby Dwyer, Associate Athletics Director for Development, heads the Tribe Club, the department's alumni fund-raising arm. He came on board in October 1985 after holding assistant basketball coaching positions at the U.S. Military Academy and Duke.

Dwyer was promoted to Senior Associate Athletics Director in the spring of 2004. Dwyer heads up the fund-raising efforts for the athletics department, and supervises the marketing and promotions and special events departments.

Dwyer graduated from Wake Forest in 1974 where he was a member of the varsity basketball team for three years and captained the squad as a senior. He received his master's degree in higher education from W&M in 1994.

He is a past president of the Williamsburg chapter of the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association. He and his wife Patti have two sons, Patrick (26) and Peter (24), and live in Williamsburg.

PETE KRESKY Director of Marking and Promotions

Pete Kresky, in his eighth year at William & Mary, has transformed the marketing department to one of ultimate success by more than tripling the number of corporate sponsors and thus increasing revenue beyond budgeted expectations each year. Kresky came to William & Mary in 2002 with

Most notable of his accomplishments were the creation of one of the most successful sporting goods franchises in the Athlete's Foot organization with over 20 locations, as well as his time as a professional consultant for corporations such as Brooks Shoes and Reebok. Kresky has also worked in commercial and mortgage banking. Kresky is a certified rowing coach and is a member of the membership committee and the newly formed sports committee for the Greater Williamsburg Chamber and Tourism Alliance, Ducks Unlimited, U.S. Rowing Association and the Virginia State Board of Realtors. Kresky attended the University of Wisconsin and currently resides in Stonehouse with his wife Bonnie.

W&M STAFF

PAM MASON

Assistant AD, Compliance & Edcuational Services

Pamela Mason took over full time duties of the College's compliance office on April 1, 2006, and she was promoted to Assistant AD for Compliance and Educational Services in July 2008. Previously, she served as the Associate Director of Development for two years.

Under Mason, the compliance office works with the NCAA Eligibility Center to determine initial eligibility of all incoming freshmen and continues to monitor student-athlete eligibility throughout their college careers. Mason is also responsible for educating all student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters on the NCAA rules.

Mason graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1994 as a marketing major, with a minor in psychology. She continued her education at the College and earned a JD and an MBA in four years (1996-2000). She is a member of the Bar in both Virginia and North Carolina.

A native of Marion, Ohio, Mason brings a diverse range of athletic administrative experience to the position. Prior to arriving in Williamsburg, Mason worked as the Assistant Director of Compliance at James Madison University from 2003-04, where she assisted in many facets of the department's day-to-day operations. Mason served as the primary Compliance Officer and Sports Information Director for the University of North Carolina, Pembroke during the 2001 and 2002 athletic seasons.

Her first position out of college came with the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, as she served as the Marketing and Media Relations Assistant with the team's nationally acclaimed cheerleading squad from 1993-96. A varsity cheerleader at SMU, Mason also served a three-year stint as William and Mary's cheerleading coach while she was pursuing her graduate degrees.

Mason and her husband, Monty, a 1989 graduate of the College and chairman of the Tribe Club, reside in Williamsburg with their daughter, Taylor Anne.

SPENCER MILNE Director of Ticket Operations

Spencer Milne is in his fourth year as the Director of Ticket Operations. Milne launched the Tribe's new dynamic ticketing system, TicketReturn, which has significantly improved the ticket office's ability to serve fans and alumni.

Milne comes to W&M from Florida Atlantic University, where he had been the Owls' director of ticket operations since January of 2005. Prior to Florida Atlantic, he was an assistant in the ticket office at Wake Forest from July of 2004 through December of 2005. Before that, Milne worked in the ticket office at Ohio University, as he earned his master's degrees in business administration (2003) and sports administration (2004).

Milne graduated from Ohio University in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in sports industry and a minor in business administration. After earning his degree, he worked for one year as a facilities and operations intern at Southern Methodist University. Milne also has experience as a promotions and operations intern with Major League Soccer's D.C. United.

Milne and his wife, Lisa, reside in Toano.

MICHAEL PRITCHETT Assistant AD, Facilities and Operations

Michael Pritchett joined the William and Mary Athletics Department in 2007 and brought with him a diverse and experienced background to the College. As the Assistant Athletics Director for Facilities and Operations, Pritchett serves William and Mary in a variety of areas, including overseeing the set up and operations of athletic events as well as maintenance and improvement of facilities.

Pritchett came to William and Mary after serving as the Director of Athletic Facilities and Game Operations, as well the Assistant Director of Marketing and Promotion at Idaho State University. As Director of Facilities and Operations, he scheduled a majority of athletic events for Idaho State as well as coordinated and supervised the set up and operations of all athletic events.

As Assistant Director for Marketing and Promotion, Pritchett helped increase athletic attendance at football and women's basketball games, as well as tripling the corporate sponsorship revenue in six months.

A graduate of Idaho State University, Pritchett earned a B.S. in Physical Education in 2002 with a minor in World History. In August of 2003, he earned his Masters in Athletic Administration also from Idaho State.

From 1983 to 1992 Pritchett served in the United States Marine Corps in the 3rd Battalion, stationed at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina where he supervised all marine training operations within his platoon level all the while attending Leadership Training School.

Pritchett is also very active in service and volunteer work; he has been a Special Olympics Volunteer since 1998 and Relay for Life volunteer since 2005. He has also worked in support of the 'National Girls and Women in Sports Day' and has coordinated fund raising efforts for the Gate City Youth Soccer League.

DAN WAKELY Assistant AD, Business Affairs

Dan Wakely is in his second year as the assistant athletics director for business affairs after spending the previous two years as a business manager in the W&M Athletics Department. In his current position, Wakely is responsible for monitoring the athletics department's finances, preparing monthly analysis, financial reports and long-term projections, and the annual budgeting process. He manages the day-to-day operations of the business office with the assistance of business managers Chelsey Pryor and Chad Zwierlein. Wakely also serves as an administrative liaison with the baseball, men's soccer, men's and women's tennis, and men's and women's golf programs.

Prior to joining the business office in June 2006, Wakely worked eight years in the Tribe sports information department. During his final five years with the office, he held the title of associate sports information director and worked with the field hockey, men's soccer, men's basketball and men's and women's tennis programs.

A native of Warren, Maine, Wakely earned a bachelor's of business administration degree in marketing and a minor in kinesiology from William and Mary in 1998. He later earned his master's degree in business administration from the College in 2001.

MILLIE WEST Director of Special Projects

An integral part of William and Mary athletics for 50 years, Millie West began another chapter of her affiliation with the College in 1991 when she retired as Associate Athletics Director and assumed the role of Director of Special Projects.

A highly successful fund raiser, she has been a key in the success of the four BASF Wightman Cup tennis tournaments held at the College, as well as the annual Plumeri Pro-Am golf tournament, which has reaped great benefits for the College. West coordinated W&M's Indoor Tennis Center Project, which brought the McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center on campus. She is also the curator, and 1998 inductee, of the ITA Women's Tennis Hall of Fame at the Center.

A 1957 graduate of Georgia College, West, who was awarded the USTA Educational Merit Award, is also a member of the W&M Athletic Hall of Fame and has been given the status of Honorary Alumni at William and Mary. She also has served on executive committees for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Williamsburg Community Health Foundation.

Currently West serves on the Williamsburg Community Foundation Board and the Old Point National Bank Advisory Board.

Established in 1948 to create support for William and Mary Athletics, the Tribe Club is made up of alumni and friends of the College's athletics programs. Due to the fact that W&M receives no aid from the state for its sports programs, the Tribe Club is the sole provider of scholarships for William and Mary's studentathletes. Additionally, money raised annually by the Tribe Club helps defray a portion of the operating expenses for program support.

Whether you are a former Tribe student-athlete, a proud alum, a Tribe parent or a fan of William and Mary Athletics, you are invited to join the Tribe Club. By donating to the unrestricted fund or to a specific sport, you are providing opportunities for many young men and women to experience both academic and athletic excellence here at the College. In addition to supporting our student-athletes with generous gifts, Tribe Club members receive exclusive benefits based on their giving level, as well as invitations to tailgates, pre-game and halftime events, golf outings and regional Tribe Club social events.

To join, you can make a contribution to the Tribe Club online at www.TribeClub.com or send your donation to PO Box 399, Williamsburg, VA, 23187. Thanks to all those who are loyal members of the Tribe Club family. Your support of our gifted and talented athletes is truly appreciated. We could not succeed without you!

The College of William and Mary is a public university located in Williamsburg, Va. Founded in 1693 by Royal Charter issued by King William III and Queen Mary II of England, William and Mary is the second oldest college in the country after Harvard. William and Mary has a long history of liberal arts education and a growing research and science curriculum that demonstrates a strong commitment to undergraduate research. The College, which became a state university in 1906, has been designated a "Public Ivy," and for nine straight years has been ranked by U.S. News & World Report as the sixth-best public university in the country - and the nation's top small public university.

Also referred to as "the alma mater of a nation," the College has educated four U.S. Presidents - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler - the third-most of any college in the country. William 0910 and Mary also claims several firsts, including the 1776 creation of Phi Beta Kappa - the country's first academic honor society – the first honor code of conduct for college students, and the first collegiate law school, established in 1779. William and Mary is also home to the Sir Christopher Wren Building - the country's oldest academic building still in use – and the President's House, the oldest home of a university president still in use.

Second oldest educational institution in the U.S.

- In addition to four U.S. Presidents, W&M has educated a number of this country's key historical figures, including U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Marshall and 16 signers of the Declaration of Independence.
- W&M is one of only eight U.S. institutions of higher education designated a "Public Ivy." A Public Ivy is a stateassisted institution that offers a superior education at a cost far below that of Ivy League schools.
- U.S. News ranked W&M sixth among all public colleges and universities and 32nd among both public and private institutions in 2009.
- Newsweek named W&M "hottest small state university" in 2006.
- U.S News and World Report rated the School of Education 48th in the country in 2010.
- W&M ranked 18th in graduation rates for national universities in 2009.
- The Princeton Review named W&M a the 'Best of the Southeast' school in 2009.
- The W&M Law School ranked 30th in the nation in 2008.
- The History Department's doctoral program ranked fourth in the nation for U.S. Colonial History in 2010.

W&M ranked as the sixth-best public university in the country in the inaugural guide, "America's Best Colleges 2008" by Forbes Magazine.

The Princeton Review rated W&M the third among the top 50 best value public colleges nationally in 2009.

Phi Beta Kappa, the premier academic honor society in America, was founded by W&M students in 1776.

W&M's 11-to-1 student-faculty ratio is the lowest among the top public universities. Nearly 50 percent of William and Mary's classes have fewer than 20 students.

W&M libraries, including the main Earl Gregg Swem Library, were rated the eighth best College Library in the Country by the Princeton Review in 2008.

Business Week rated the W&M Undergraduate Business Program in the top 10 among Public Institutions in the country.

The College of William and Mary sponsors 23 varsity sports and provides students with a unique and successful balance of athletics and academics. The Tribe Athletics Department finished 117th nationally in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup Standings for 2008-09, a number that ranked second among Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) programs and fourth in the state of Virginia. The Directors' Cup, which was created by the NACDA and USA Today in 1993-94, is a program that honors institutions maintaining a broad-based program, achieving success in many sports, both men's and women's. W&M has placed among the top 100 nationally in 12 of the program's 16 years, while leading the CAA on seven occasions.

W&M has produced more CAA Championships than any program in the league's history. The College owns 95 league crowns, nearly 40 more than its closest competitor. The Tribe raked in the awards in 2008-09 as well, tallying a combined 197 all-conference honors, 34 All-America honors and six league players of the year. During the 2008-09 season, the Green and Gold produced an overall athletics winning percentage of 68.2, while racking up a combined 888 wins.

Along with its accomplishments on the field of play, the Tribe is just as successful in the classroom, epitomizing the term student-athlete. In the NCAA's inaugural Academic Progress Report in 2005, W&M ranked fourth among Division I teams, which was the highest of any athletic scholarshipgranting school and of any public school. Since the inception of the CAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year, W&M has produced 28 honorees, more than any school in the conference.

THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM & MARY ATHLETICS AN EXPERIENCE IN EXCELLENCE

William and Mary is committed to building and maintaining outstanding facilities for all 23 of its varsity athletic teams. The College has demonstrated this commitment by investing approximately $16 million toward the construction and upgrade of its athletics facilities during just the last six years. Among W&M's recent projects was the completion of the $11 million, 30,000-square foot Jimmye Laycock Football Center, which was dedicated in June of 2008. This past summer, the Laycock Center renovated the foyer to include photos, information and memorablia on the Tribe's storied football tradition.

This past summer, Busch Field experienced a renovation that included a total revamp of the field, underlying pad, water cannon and drainage system. The renovation created a competition surface that ranks alongside those used at the U.S. National Training Centers in Virginia Beach, Va., Chula Vista, Calif., and that used at last year's Olympic Games.

In 2005, Kaplan Arena received an upgrade with the installation of 6,900-square foot permanent wood floor along with rubberized sports flooring on the open end of the arena to accomodate track and field and other multi-purpose activities. A year earlier, the home of Tribe soccer and lacrosse, Albert-Daly Field was dedicated, providing the programs with a $1 million all-natural grass facility.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

W&M STUDENT REC CENTER

Tribe basketball as well as various other William and Mary athletic teams use the William and Mary Student Recreation Center for practice and training throughout the season. The Student Rec Center, located across from William and Mary Hall on Brooks Street, offers a variety of avenues for physical advancement. The Student Rec Center had renovations completed on the facility in 2006.

Here is a list of some of the features of the Rec Center:

- Alan B. Miller Gymnasium
- Fitness Room
- · Weight room-free weights
- 5 racquetball courts
- 2 squash courts
- 25 yard, 8-lane pool
- Fitness Trail
- Sauna
- Recreational Sports offices
- Outdoor basketball/volleyball/floor hockey court (lighted)
- · Sand volleyball court

The Alan B. Miller Gymnasium houses three basketball courts and is used by the Tribe basketball program as a practice facility at times during the season. A plaque outside the gymnasium honors Miller and states, "In recognition of the generosity and leadership exemplified by Alan B. Miller, Class of 1958." Miller played basketball at William and Mary from 1956-58. The facility was dedicated on Nov. 3, 1989. Miller is the chairman and president of Universal Health Services, Inc., and namesake of the the new home for the Mason School of Business (Alan B. Miller Hall).

The fitness area at the Student Rec Center include various elliptical machines, tairmasters, treadmills and row machines for use. The areas also include flat screen televisions for the enjoyment of students and staff during workouts.

TRIBE RADIO NETWORK

Teaming up once again to call all the exciting action of William and Mary basketball over the airwaves will be Jay Colley and Bill McDonald. The duo will celebrate their 21st season together calling Tribe men's basketball action over the airwaves. For the sixth season the pair will be joined by former W&M basketball coach and player, Charlie Woollum, who will add his insight and experience to the broadcast.

Colley is a veteran broadcaster who shifts from sport to sport with ease. He calls the play-by-play for the Tribe on the gridiron and is also a veteran baseball commentator, who was previously the voice of the Rochester Redwings as well as the Richmond Braves and the Tidewater Tides.

In recognition of Colley's years of service to the College, he was selected as an honorary alumnus of William and Mary and was officially presented with the honor at Charter Day in February, 2003. A mass communications graduate of Middle Tennessee State University, Jay is entering his 27th season of broadcasting Tribe basketball. Jay and his wife Cindy have a daughter, Carleigh Danielle (18) and a son, Benjamin William (15).

A 1962 graduate of William and Mary, Charlie Woollum was the head coach of the Tribe from the 1994-95 through the 1999-2000 seasons, leading the Tribe to 20 wins and a regular season tie for first place in the CAA in 1998. Bill McDonald, a 1974 graduate of the College, has been a working broadcast journalist who has been involved with the Tribe radio network for many years.

Stretching over 100 miles of the state, the Tribe Radio Network is the gateway to all of the W&M action over the air. The flagship stations for the network are 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH" in Williamsburg.

The listening format for basketball games is similar to past Tribe broadcasts with a pre-game show with head coach Tony Shaver, a halftime scoreboard and a post-game wrap-up.

Throughout the 2008-09 season, the Tribe men's basketball program was covered by five local newspapers and various television stations in the Hampton Roads area. Over the last few seasons, the Tribe also garnered exposure on ESPN.com as well as the New York Times and the Washington Post.

In 2007-08, the Tribe had it first-ever contest broadcast nationally on ESPN as the College advanced to the CAA Championship Game during the memorable month of March. Recently, the Tribe has had games televised on ESPN Regional, CN-8 Sports, the Comcast Network, locally in the Hampton Roads area on WSKY-Channel 4, and last year, added the Big Ten Network to that already growing list.

For the four straight season, W&M will take part in the ES-PNU BracketBusters. All 12 CAA schools will take part in the event for the second year in a row. The Green and Gold will be a road team for the second time in its four seasons in the event. The Tribe were also an away squad in 2007, and followed with home games in the event in 2008 and 2009.

Along with the extensive television exposure, all W&M men's basketball games are carried over the Tribe Radio Network with Jay Colley, Bill McDonald and Charlie Woollum on the call. Stretching over 150 miles of the state, the Tribe Radio Network is the gateway to all of the W&M action over the air. The flagship stations for the network are 92.3 FM "The Tide" and 107.9 FM "WBACH" in Williamsburg. The Tribe men's basketball contests are also carried simultaneously through live web streaming at TribeAthletics.com.
