GAME	William & Mary 24 N.C. State 34
1	Sept. 6, 2008 Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. (9/6/08) -- William and Mary outscored North Carolina State, 24-20, in the second half but fell to the Wolfpack in its season opener, 34-24.

Junior wide receiver D.J. McAulay led the Tribe with a pair of touchdown grabs and finished the evening with a game-high six catches for 99 yards, while senior all-conference cornerback Derek Cox also provided a score with a 45-yard interception return for a touchdown.

As a unit, the Tribe defense limited N.C. State to just 67 yards on the ground and held the Wolfpack to just 11 first downs.

An interception by senior safety David Houff on the game's initial series put the Tribe inside NCSU's 20 yard line, but W&M was unable to put any points up when freshman running back Jonathan Grimes lost a fumble.

Although the College trailed 14-0 at the half, W&M outgained NCSU in total yards, 103-79, and controlled the time of possession by more than three minutes. Additionally, the Tribe defense surrendered just three first downs, all of which occurred on the Wolfpack's final possession of the half.

The Tribe put up its first points of the game on the initial series of the second half when junior Brian Pate connected on a 43-yard field goal. Senior quarterback Jake Phillips completed 3-of-4 passes on the drive and had a pair of rushes for 14 yards to help set up the score.

Following a NCSU touchdown, W&M answered with a six-play, 77-yard drive that culminated in a 30-yard touchdown strike from Jake Phillips to McAulay.

While NCSU extended its lead to 34-10, W&M scored a pair of touchdowns late in the fourth quarter as Derek Cox returned an interception 45 yards for a score and backup quarterback R.J. Archer found McAulay open in the end zone during the final minute of play.

GAME	William & Mary 28 No. 14/16 Villanova 38
4	Oct. 4, 2008 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (10/4/08) -- William and Mary and No. 14/16 Villanova combined for 66 points and 824 yards of total offense, but the Tribe fell to the Wildcats, 38-28, in its conference opener.

Making his first career start, junior quarterback R.J. Archer stepped in for an injured Jake Phillips and threw for 307 yards and a touchdown. He also recorded a pair of touchdown runs. True freshman tailback Jonathan Grimes was outstanding yet again, as he accounted for a school-true freshman record 324 total yards, including 105 receiving yards and 161 returns yards. The featured part of Grimes' afternoon was his 97-yard kick return for a score near the end of the first half.

After Villanova raced out to a 35-0 lead late in the first half, Grimes' big return with less than a minute left in the second quarter made the score 35-7 at the break.

After forcing VU to a three-and-out on the first possession of the second half, W&M answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive that lasted just three plays and 41 seconds. The drive culminated in a 44-yard touchdown pass from Archer to senior Elliott Mack.

Neither team scored during the remainder of the third quarter, but the Tribe found the end zone again early in the fourth quarter when Archer capped a slick eight-play, 52-yard march with a three-yard touchdown run.

While VU added a field goal midway through the fourth quarter to increase its lead to 38-21, W&M responded with another touchdown run by Archer with 4:20 remaining in the contest.

After forcing Villanova to punt on its next possession, the Tribe took over on its own 34 yard line with 2:00 remaining. However, Archer's only interception of the contest ended the College's comeback bid.

GAME	William & Mary 38 No. 4 New Hampshire 34
5	Oct. 11, 2008 Cowell Stadium • Durham, N.H.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (10/11/08) -- William and Mary scored on its first five possessions of the second half (four touchdowns/one field goal), and senior quarterback Jake Phillips' 17-yard go-ahead touchdown pass to junior wide receiver D.J. McAulay with 22 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter helped lift the Tribe to a 38-34 victory at No. 4 New Hampshire in the Wildcats' homecoming game.

Phillips registered four touchdown passes and completed 30 of his 40 attempts for 310 yards, while true freshman running back Jonathan Grimes finished with a true-freshman record 144 yards rushing (on 23 attempts) and a touchdown (coming on a 56-yard run).

Trailing 34-31 with 4:34 remaining, the Tribe began its game-winning drive on its own 28 yard line. Phillips was intercepted on a third-and-long early in the drive, but W&M maintained possession when UNH was flagged for roughing the passer. Phillips then converted a pair of third-and-longs with completions to Grimes (10 yards) and Mack (13 yards) around midfield to keep the drive alive. Another 13-yard completion from Phillips to Mack put W&M inside the red zone, and the senior all-conference quarterback connected with McAulay for 17 yards out on the next play to put the Tribe ahead, 38-34, with 22 seconds left.

UNH was unable to mount a quick comeback, as Adrian Tracy sacked quarterback R.J. Toman on first down, and Fred Johnson picked off the sophomore's long pass on the next play.

W&M outscored UNH 31-13 in the second half and dominated the time of possession, (20:44-8:16) after the break. The Tribe also converted on 8-of-10 third downs in the second half, including its only fourth down attempt, while registering 358 yards of total offense in the final two quarters.

GAME	No. 23 William & Mary 34 Rhode Island 24

Oct. 25, 2008 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (10/25/08) -- Junior safety David Caldwell returned a fourth-quarter interception 62 yards for a touchdown to help No. 23 William and Mary pull away for a 34-24 victory against Rhode Island on a rainy homecoming at Zable Stadium.

True freshman tailback Jonathan Grimes posted another outstanding performance, rushing for a game-high 111 yards with a touchdown.

While both teams scored touchdowns on their opening drives, neither squad was able to put any more points up on the board until late in the first half when URI's Louis Feinstein kicked a 40-yard field goal with 1:39 remaining in the second quarter to put the Rams ahead, 10-7.

At the break, the Rams had out gained the Tribe in total offense, 212-115, and controlled the time of possession, 20:05-9:15.

W&M scored a pair of quick touchdowns during the first five minutes of the second half to build a 21-10 advantage. D.J. McAulay provided the first touchdown when Jake Phillips found him with an 18-yard strike, while Courtland Marriner scored the second touchdown with an 8-yard run.

After recovering a punt that bounced off the back of an retreating W&M player, URI narrowed the score with an eight-play, 38-yard drive that ended with a 1-yard touchdown run by Cassidy late in the third quarter.

Trailing by just seven, 24-17, early in the fourth quarter, URI drove inside the Tribe 40-yard line, but safety David Caldwell intercepted a pass by Cassidy and raced 62 yards down the right sideline to give the College a 31-17 cushion with 10:12 left in the game.

W&M later tacked on a field goal and URI scored a late touchdown to narrow the score to 34-24, but the Tribe recovered the Rams' on-side kick attempt and ran out the clock.

Nov. 22, 2008 Zable Stadium • Williamsburg, Va.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (11/22/08) -- The No. 16/19 Tribe scored a pair of touchdowns in the final 3:02 to force overtime, but No. 6/7 Richmond's Andrew Howard kicked a 37-yard, game-winning field goal in the first extra session to give the Spiders a 23-20 victory on Senior Day at Zable Stadium.

Trailing 20-6 late in the fourth quarter, senior Derek Cox ignited the College's comeback when he returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown with 3:02 remaining in the contest. W&M's RJ Archer then skied to recover the ensuing onside kick, putting the Tribe in business at its own 41-yard line. The squad then marched 59 yards in 10 plays to tie the score when senior quarterback Jake Phillips found the end zone on a sneak from a yard out with 18 seconds on the clock.

The College took the ball first in overtime and had its 39-yard field attempt blocked by Sherman Logan. Howard finished what was a five-yard Spider drive in its half of the extra session and spun his game-winning try from the right hash from 37 yards out.

Despite turning the ball over seven times, W&M kept the score close with an outstanding defensive effort that saw the unit hold the Spiders scoreless over the final 30 minutes of play, allowing just 35 yards of total offense and two first downs.

UR took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when offensive lineman Michael Silva recovered a fumble by quarterback Eric Ward in the end zone.

UR increased its advantage to 10-0 with a 33-yard field goal by Howard with 7:01 left in second quarter. The successful kick capped off an 11-play, 50-yard drive that lasted 6:26.

The Spiders' Derek Hatcher later returned an interception 35 yards for a score, while an 18-yard field goal by Hatcher as the second quarter clock expired put the Spiders ahead, 20-0, at halftime.

A pair of field goals by Pate cut the lead to 20-6 with 11:13 left in the contest, and the Tribe held Richmond to just 12 yards of total offense during the remainder of regulation en route to mounting the comeback.
