EXERCISE and RECREATION...

“Exercise and recreation... are as necessary as reading; I will say rather more necessary, because health is worth more than learning. A strong body makes the mind strong.”

2004 Season Outlook

William and Mary will open the 2004 campaign looking to continue its success of the last few years, which have seen the Tribe earn one of the eight at-large berths into the NCAA Tournament in both the 2000 and 2002 seasons. The Green and Gold annually face a tough non-conference schedule and compete in the Colonial Athletic Association, one of the best field hockey conferences in the nation. Last season, the CAA was ranked as the third-best field hockey league in the nation in the NCAA RPI report. W&M has thrived against its high-level competition, posting a winning record in each of the last six seasons and ending the regular season second or better in the CAA in three of the last four years.

Head coach Peel Hawthorne expects the team to improve from last year, despite losing the team's top three scorers and starting goalkeeper to graduation. Just one win away from her 200th victory at the College, Hawthorne is entering her 18th season at W&M. The combination of a solid corps of returning players and a top-notch recruiting class, has her expecting the Tribe to once again contend for first place in the CAA and advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Hawthorne believes that speed will be one of the biggest strengths of this year's team and hopes that will lead the team towards greater flexibility during games.

"We have the potential to step up and play a very fast-paced game. I don't think we've ever had this much speed at one time and that's going to be true in all of our lines," explains Hawthorne. "My goal is to have players who are capable of playing several different positions from game to game, or within a game. I want them to be comfortable working within several different systems, so that we can make on-field adjustments during a game, and in doing that, be able to match up better against our opposition."

Forwards

The forward line returns a pair of experienced players in senior co-captain Ginny Sutton and junior Kelly Giles. The top two returning scorers on the team with five goals and one assist each last season, they bring a versatile combination of speed and strength to the top of the Tribe attack.

Sutton started all but one game last season, putting home five goals for the second consecutive year, including key scores in one-goal wins over nationally-ranked Virginia and Princeton. She also is an important participant on the corner crew, with the ability to be either the stopper or the striker.

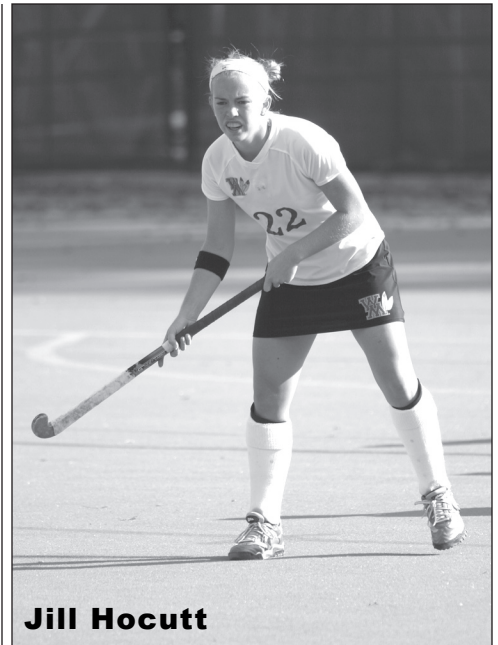

"Ginny has one of the strongest shots on the team," said Hawthorne. "She is capable of very good stick work and also has a knack for finding the cage. Her role on corners will increase this year and she will be a leader for us on the attack."

Giles did not start last season, but played every game. Often the first player off the bench, she scored game-winners in a pair of one-goal victories on the road against conference opponents. Arguably the fastest player on the team, she is adept at tracking down loose balls in the field and starting fast breaks with the ability to pressure opposing defenders to lose possession.

"Kelly has so much natural talent and is probably our most explosive player," commented Hawthorne. "Now her stick skills are catching up with her speed and I expect her to be even stronger in her ability this year."

Also returning at forward for W&M are senior Sue Taylor and sophomore Gina Cimorelli. Taylor has battled injuries during her career, but made the most of her opportunities last season with a goal and an assist, the first points of her career. Cimorelli scored the first goal of her career in a win last season and showed marked improvement during the spring in her confidence and ability to execute under pressure.

The returning forwards will be immediately pushed for playing time by a pair of incoming freshmen in Kimberly Hedley and Ida Henley. With good speed and a long reach, Hedley was very successful in high school with 33 goals and 21 assists in her career. A passionate player with a tremendous amount of hockey experience, Henley has benefited from good coaching and good competition while competing on the USFHA National Futures Elite Touring team.

Jill Hocutt

Midfielders

The midfield position is by far the most experienced for the Tribe, with all four starters returning from last year. Seniors Kate Baird and Jill Hocutt and junior Shannon Karl each have started the last two seasons, while junior Carly Falgowski started every game last season after also playing significant minutes as a rookie.

Hocutt, also a co-captain, made great strides over the last year toward becoming more comfortable at her center midfield position. She recorded a pair of assists last year, including setting up the game-winner in the Tribe's upset win over Princeton.

"Jill has beautiful stick work and has developed a better sense of what she needs to do in her role at center mid," said Hawthorne. "That position is so dependent on good vision and stick skills and Jill has both."

Even with a broken thumb in the middle of the year, Baird played in all but two games and had 13 starts last season after also starting nearly every game in 2002. One of the quickest players on the team, she notched a pair of goals and added an assist in the overtime win against Virginia and may be called upon to score more often this year.

"As a midfielder, Kate's speed has been a terrific asset and her defense gets better and better," said Hawthorne. "She will develop into more of a finisher this season—I would like to see her increase her shooting and she may be moved up to the forward line."

A talented player who continued to improve in the spring, Karl had a goal and three assists last season. She leads all active players in consecutive games started, currently at 37, dating back to her freshman season.

"Shannon has the quickest stickwork on the team," said Hawthorne. "She's realizing how to use that to her advantage and she's starting to shoot more. She had a great spring and made some really nice improvements that I think will translate into her becoming even more of a scoring threat."

Very comfortable in the center of the field, either on defense or the midfield, Falgowski is expected to start at the other center midfield position. A very good defensive player who can distribute the ball up the field, she also may find herself in more of an attacking position this season.

"Carly has textbook defensive skills," said Hawthorne. "It's so much fun to watch her go one-on-one. She has terrific stickwork to get herself out of most any situation that she encounters and can usually put the ball right where her teammates need it. She also has fantastic game sense and I'd like to see her be more assertive in a scoring role this year."

Four sophomores will be pushing the upperclassmen for playing time in the midfield. JJ Kubicek redshirted last season with an injury after playing as a freshman in 2002 and has three years of eligibility remaining. A very smart player, she rebounded with a successful spring and will be expected to contribute in 2004. Maggie Long made improvements this spring in understanding the team's style of play and improved defensively as well. Julienne Palbusa underwent ACL surgery in the middle of the season, too late to apply for a medical hardship waiver from the NCAA, and should be ready to play in the fall. Hawthorne was particularly impressed with her dedication to the team and her rehabilitation regimen and expects the efforts to pay off in 2004. Rounding out the group is Becky Van Zee, one of the team's best athletes who also has tremendous speed. With a very good understanding of the game, she may be asked to fill in at a variety of positions during the season. Freshman Jessica Kacerek is another player with good speed who also adds quality stick skills and field vision.

Defenders

Despite the loss of third-team All-American Kelli Duggan from the back line, the Tribe returns three starters at the position, anchored by second team All-CAA selection, junior Anna Davis, along with senior Tiffany Reeves and junior Diana Esposito.

Davis led the team with three defensive saves last season, including a key stop in a 1-0 road win over Virginia Commonwealth. A fearless competitor who has started for two seasons, she continues to improve her play.

"Anna just keeps getting better," states Hawthorne. "Her stickwork has improved to the point that she can get out of most any situation if she gets pinned down in the deep defense, and her hitting and communication have also improved. She has such a natural instinct for defense and she will do whatever it takes to keep the ball out of the cage."

Reeves came on strong last season, scoring two goals and three assists after having taken just one shot in her first two seasons, while adding a defensive save against James Madison. She also suffered a broken thumb in the middle of the season, but quickly bounced back and was a consistent presence for the Tribe on defense. Reeves also contributes as the team's primary inserter on corners.

"I was impressed with Tiffany last season," said Hawthorne. "She broke her thumb and was able to get it pinned and come back and play the next day. I was impressed with her commitment and determination to come back from that. She became a much steadier player in defense, but could possibly move around and play some different positions for us this year."

Another two-year starter, Esposito recorded two defensive saves in contests against top-10 teams last year. With terrific vision, she has improved her conditioning and is able to contribute as either a defender or a midfielder.

"Diana is another fixture on the defense, but could very easily see time in the midfield," commented Hawthorne. "She's been a very steady performer for us and filled in at both of those position during the season and in the spring."

Sophomore Jamie Fitzgerald and freshman Laura Kastelic will also battle for playing time this year on the back line. Yet another player with good speed, Fitzgerald plays lacrosse for W&M and did not practice with the field hockey team in the spring. A pure defensive player, Kastelic comes from a good high school program where she was teammates with Esposito for two seasons.

Goalkeepers

The most wide-open competition for a starting role on the team this season will come at the goalkeeping position. Junior Heather Kibbee is the only returning netminder for the Tribe, playing in seven games with two starts last year. She shared a shutout against Vermont with graduated first team all-conference goalie Stacey Gaenzle, allowing nine goals in 242:30 last season.

"Heather improved a great deal this spring," said Hawthorne. "She was our only goalie for the spring, so she played 100% of every game and every scrimmage, and I think that will really benefit her, to have had so much game time and experience."

A pair of incoming freshmen, Kristen Gillis and Gwen Hunter, will challenge Kibbee for time in the cage in 2004. A very vocal player, Gillis continued to impress the Tribe coaching staff with her play at indoor tournaments in the spring. Hunter was a member of the Under-16 and Under-19 national teams and has an impressive command of the game. She has strong skills and can quickly assess the situation and organize the defense.

Schedule

Once again the Tribe will face a very challenging schedule, featuring six schools that competed in the 16-team NCAA Tournament in 2003. Eight of this year's opponents ended the year ranked in the top 20 or received votes in the final NFHCA national coaches poll.

"The schedule is great," said Hawthorne. "For the last few years I have felt that our scheduling has put us where we need to be at the end of the year."

W&M's non-conference slate features games against many of the top programs in the country, including home matchups against Duke, Princeton and Richmond. The Tribe will also face Indiana, Louisville, North Carolina and Virginia during a tough four-game road trip in September. W&M takes on some stiff competition against conference foes as well, as the Colonial Athletic Association continues to prove itself as one of the nation's top field hockey leagues. Last season seven of the conference's eight teams were ranked or received votes in the national coaches poll, including Old Dominion, Delaware and William and Mary, who all ended the season in the top 20.

Head Coach Peel Hawthorne

Peel Hawthorne Head Coach (18th season) William and Mary (1980)

Peel Hawthorne enters her 18th season as head coach of the William and Mary field hockey team just one win away from earning her 200th victory at the College. During her tenure, she has led the Tribe to a record of 199-138-2 (.590), including at-large berths into the 16-team NCAA Tournament in two of the last four seasons. Including four seasons as the head coach at Connecticut College, Hawthorne has a career record of 230-155-5, placing her 10 wins away from 30th on the coaching victories list, while her 390 games coached ranks 30th in the history of collegiate field hockey.

The 1995 and 2001 Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year, in 2003 Hawthorne helped the Tribe to a 6-1 league record and the Green and Gold's first-ever share of the regular season CAA title. She has mentored 28 players to a total of 44 all-region honors and has coached three players (Kelli Duggan, Ann Ekberg and Claire Miller) to All-America accolades in the last two seasons. Hawthorne was also selected as the Society of the Alumni Coach of the Year at William and Mary following the 2001-02 academic year.

Currently on a streak of six consecutive winning seasons, Hawthorne has consistently improved the Tribe's national reputation. In 2000 she led the Tribe to a 12-8 record as the College earned one of just eight at-large berths into the NCAA Tournament. W&M proved it was worthy of its selection, taking No. 5 Michigan to two overtimes in the first round, before falling, 3-2. The game marked the first time that W&M had competed in the national postseason in 20 years, with the College's last appearance coming in the 1980 AIAW Nationals.

In 2002, W&M returned to the NAAs, as the Tribe advanced to the CAA championship game for the first time in more than a decade, before falling to No. 1 Old Dominion. Again the Tribe validated its appearance in the national postseason, this time taking No. 5 Maryland to the wire, before losing in overtime, 2-1.

Far and away the winningest coach in school history, Hawthorne's 199 career victories are more than twice as many as the 86 recorded by her former mentor, Nancy Porter, who coached at the College from 1974-80. Hawthorne set the school record in 1993, as the Tribe shut out Villanova, 2-0, on October 9. Including her four years as a player from 1976 through 1979, she has either coached or played in 251 (74.7 percent) of the W&M field hockey program's 336 victories since the start of the 1973 season.

The head field hockey and lacrosse coach at Connecticut College for four years, Hawthorne produced three All-Americans, 15 All-New England players and six USFHA Northeast players while posting a 31-17-3 (.637) record. As lacrosse coach, she led her teams to a 35-15-1 (.696) record and four postseason bids.

A member of numerous professional organizations, Hawthorne recently ended her term as the Division I representative for the National Field Hockey Coaches Association and has also served as the South Region Chair for the NCAA Division I Field Hockey Committee and as a member of the South Region All-America Selection Committee. In 2003, she served as head coach for the South team at the NFCA North/South Senior All-Star Game. Hawthorne holds a U.S. Field Hockey Association (USFHA) coaching certification, was site director and head coach of several USFHA Development Camps and the Head Futures Coach for eastern Virginia. She also served as a USFHA summer league volunteer coach in 1999 and is the director of the Colonial Field Hockey Camp held each June at W&M. She has experience as a field hockey clinician at many levels, helping to host the NFCA Coaches Clinic at W&M, as well as participating in VHSLCA and NCAA Youth Education through Sports (YES) clinics.

Hawthorne also served for nine years on the Executive Committee of the U.S. Women's Lacrosse Association and is past chair of that organization's Sports Medicine committee. As a member of the American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) subcommittee on Eye Safety in Sports, Hawthorne chaired the organization's task force on women's lacrosse. She was instrumental in establishing an ASTM manufacturing standard for protective eyewear for the sport.

A field hockey and lacrosse standout at W&M, Hawthorne graduated with a B.S. in physical education in 1980. In her career, the Tribe field hockey team posted a record of 52-13-7 and made two trips to the AIAW Nationals, finishing fifth in the nation in 1979. A defender, she helped the team allow just 0.92 goals per game during her career, while still scoring five goals. The Tribe totaled 37 shutouts in her four years, more than half the total number of games played in the span and the most in any four-year period in school history. Hawthorne was an NATA certified athletic trainer for six years and has an M.Ed. in the field from Virginia. She enjoys water skiing and has been an instrumentalist and vocalist for a contemporary Christian band for the last eight years.

Coaching Staff

Quan Nim Anderson
Assistant Coach (Fourth season)
Iowa (1999)

Quan Nim Anderson begins her fourth season as the top assistant at William and Mary. A 1999 graduate of the University of Iowa with a B.A. in psychology and a minor in social work, she came to the Tribe after serving as the assistant coach at Davidson for one year.

Anderson brings a wealth of playing experience to the sidelines for the College. Playing for the Hawkeyes, she was one of the most well-known forwards in the country. As a senior in 1999, she received second team NFHCA All-America honors and was named to the All-Big Ten and all-region first teams and the NCAA All-Tournament squad. She also earned all-region honors in 1995 and 1998 and was a second team All-Big Ten pick in 1998. Anderson played in 86 games in her Iowa career, scoring 29 goals and 10 assists for a total of 68 points.

Outside of college, Anderson participated in the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival and the 1993 and 1994 Junior Olympics. She is currently the site director and head coach of the under-19 team for the USFHA Futures Regional site at W&M.

Last season, Anderson was the assistant coach for the South team in the USFHA North/ASouth Senior All-Star game. She gained leadership experience in her two seasons as captain of the Hawkeye team and received the Dr. Patricia Hicks Award given for overcoming adversity and showing perseverance and great strength of character.

Kelly McQuade
Assistant Coach (First season)
William and Mary (2004)

Following her graduation with a degree in kinesiology from William and Mary last May, Kelly McQuade returns to serve as an assistant coach this season.

McQuade culminated her outstanding college field hockey career in the 2003 season, earning first team All-Colonial Athletic Association and all-state honors, while also securing a spot on the All-South Region second team. A participant in the 2003 NFHCA North/South Senior All-Star game, McQuade finished second on the team in scoring last season with 12 goals and four assists for 28 points. The five game-winning goals she recorded led the team and is tied for the third-most in one season in school history.

McQuade ended the year ranked sixth in the CAA with 1.56 points per game and was fourth in the league with 0.67 goals per contest. The two-year starter finished her career with 38 points on 16 goals and six assists.

A two-sport athlete at the College, McQuade also played lacrosse for four years, starting every game in her last three seasons. She scored 21 goals with six assists last season, finishing tied for third on the team with 42 ground balls. For her career, she totalled 55 goals, 14 assists and 110 ground balls.

Prior to W&M, McQuade earned first team all-state and all-league honors at Central Bucks West High School in Doylestown, Pennsylvania. Her team's captain and most valuable player, she ended her prep career with 31 goals and 17 assists. McQuade also lettered in diving and lacrosse, having graduated as the school's all-time leading goal scorer in that sport.

Tess Ellis
Volunteer Assistant (Ninth season)

Previously the U.S. Field Hockey Association's Under-21 head coach and national team assistant coach, Tess Ellis returns to William and Mary as a volunteer assistant this season. Ellis previously served as an assistant coach for the Tribe for eight seasons, from 1993 through 2000.

An internationally experienced player, coach and clinician, field hockey has afforded Ellis many opportunities to travel the globe. She served as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Team at the 1999 Sydney International Hockey Challenge in Australia and at the 2000 Olympic Qualifying Tournament in Milton Keynes, England. Ellis also served as an instructor at U.S. Field Hockey's selection camps and Futures Program. In the fall of 1992, Tess volunteered as a part-time coach at Salisbury State University in Maryland, which reached the final four of the NCAA Division III Tournament. From 1986-1990 she was the head coach of Pymble Ladies College in Sydney, Australia, and in 1991 spent time as the head hockey coach at The American School in London, England. She has also served as head coach of the under-18 West team at the Olympic Sports Festival in St. Louis, traveled back to Australia with the USA National squad and toured Canada with the under-18 USA national squad.

Ellis played as a member of the Australian National Indoor team and Australia's National Under-21 National team. She was a player/coach of several New South Wales championship teams. Ellis founded the Peninsula Field Hockey Club and co-founded the Colonial Field Hockey Camp at W&M.

2003 Season Review

The 2003 season was another strong one for William and Mary, as the Tribe tied Old Dominion for the regular season Colonial Athletic Association title with a 6-1 league record. W&M ended the year with an overall record of 12-6 and was ranked as high as 13th in the nation in the final polls, as the College recorded its sixth consecutive winning season.

Tribe Earns Best-Ever Finish in CAA

For the first time, W&M ended the season tied for first in the Colonial Athletic Association. The Tribe finished with a 6-1 league record, losing only to Old Dominion, which also ended the season with a 6-1 conference mark. W&M has finished in third place or better in the CAA each of the last six campaigns.

W&M Sets Pace With Five All-Conference Selections

Five Tribe players, more than any other CAA school, were named to the all-conference team, voted on by the league's head coaches. Defender Kelli Duggan, goalkeeper Stacey Gaenzle and forwards Kelly McQuade and Jordan Steele were picked to the first team, with W&M earning two more first team selections than any other school. Defender Anna Davis was picked to the second team. Duggan, Gaenzle, McQuade and Steele each also earned all-state honors in a vote of Virginia's sports information directors.

Tribe Succeeds With Balanced Attack

One key to the Tribe's success last season was its versatile offensive attack with a variety of scoring options. Five different players scored five or more goals in 2003, led by Jordan Steele with 13 and Kelly McQuade with 12. A total of 12 different W&M players recorded either a goal or an assist on the year.

Green and Gold Produce Upsetting Results

In 2003, W&M upset three teams ranked in the top 15 in the nation at the time of the game. The first such game came at home, when the College defeated No. 14 Virginia, 4-3, in overtime. W&M also defeated No. 11 Delaware (2-1) and No. 8 Princeton (3-2).

Close Calls

Twelve of the Tribe's 18 games were decided by just one goal in 2003, with the College recording an impressive 8-4 record in those contests. Included in that list was a 2-1 loss to Louisville, in W&M's first game to be decided by penalty strokes in almost 10 years. The Tribe won five consecutive games in the middle of the season by one goal.

Defender Kelli Duggan Named Third Team All-American

Kelli Duggan had an outstanding season for the Tribe in 2003, earning third team All-American and first team All-South Region honors from the National Field Hockey Coaches Association. The 2004 graduate tied for third on the team with five goals and was tied for second with four assists for a total of 14 points on the season.

Goalkeeper Stacey Gaenzle Ranked 14th in the Nation

Tribe netminder Stacey Gaenzle ended the season with a 1.38 goals against average, the 14th lowest mark in the nation and the best in the CAA last season. The first team all-state and all-conference honoree allowed just 21 goals in her 17 games played and finished with a .781 save percentage, just outside of the top 20 in the nation in that category. Together with returning goalkeeper Heather Kibbee, the Tribe compiled a 1.60 GAA and a .735 save percentage in 2003.

W&M Excels in Classroom Also

Along with the Tribe's accomplishments on the field in 2003, W&M had a school record four players selected to the National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Academic Squad. Katie Casto, Diana Esposito, Stacey Gaenzle and JJ Kubicek earned the honor with a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 or higher through the fall semester.

Year-by-Year Results

William and Mary game-by-game results for every season since 1973. William and Mary was a member of the South Atlantic Field Hockey/Lacrosse Conference from 1985 through 1990. W&M began playing field hockey as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association when the league first sponsored the sport in 1991. The CAA champion has always been determined by a postseason tournament.

The College of William and Mary - The Best Small Public University in the United States

For more than 300 years, William and Mary has been a symbol of academic distinction in America. Now, in its fourth century, the College is prepared to educate the leaders of the 21st century.

The College of William and Mary was founded in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of England. Four Presidents of the United States received their education at the College - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler. The current chancellor of the College is former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, and he took over the post from former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

William and Mary was the first college to institute an honor code of conduct. The premier academic society, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded by William and Mary students in 1776. The Society of the Alumni, founded in 1842, is the sixth oldest alumni group in the nation. Now the College is designated as a "Public Ivy", and ranks 15th among the best regional business schools.

The Wren Building is the oldest one in the United States in which classes are still taught.

Tribe Athletics

“Exercise and recreation ... are as necessary as reading;
I will say rather more necessary, because health is worth more than learning.
A strong body makes the mind strong.”
—Thomas Jefferson, W&M Class of 1762

Few colleges in America can boast of the combination of athletic and academic excellence that is found at the College of William and Mary. Each year, more than 500 Tribe student-athletes, competing on 23 Division I teams, prove that it is possible to simultaneously excel at the highest levels of athletics and academics.

Athletic Excellence

The 2003-04 season was one of the best in W&M history, as the Tribe captured six CAA titles to push its total to a dominant 76, 26 more than the next closest competitor. Seven teams competed in their respective NCAA Tournaments, highlighted by Ramon Jackson's national championship on the parallel bars. It has become typical for W&M to win at least five conference championships and send seven or more teams to the NCAA Tournament each season.

Each year the goal of the athletics department is to finish in the top-100 nationally in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings and in recent years W&M has far exceeded that standard. Punctuating this run is the College's 58th-place ranking for the 2002-03 campaign, marking the eighth time in the last 10 years that the Tribe finished in the top-four in Virginia and first or second in the Colonial Athletic Association.

William and Mary fields Division I teams for both men and women in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. There are also field hockey, lacrosse and volleyball squads for women of the College, while there are two additional sports (baseball and football) for men.

Academic Success

The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not come at the expense of its students' academic responsibilities. 83% of all athletes earn a degree while a formidable 36 athletes have been selected Academic All-America since 1992.

In 2002-03 the CAA began a Scholar-Athlete of the Year award for each of the league's 21 sports. Not surprisingly, W&M set the pace with five athletes winning the honor, more than any other school. The College continued to set the standard in 2003-04 with another five athletes claiming the honor: Ali Henderson (women's cross country), Adam Otstot (men's cross country), Adam Hess (men's basketball), Chris Parsons (men's track and field) and Ann Schnell (women's golf).

W&M Administration

Timothy J. Sullivan
President

Timothy J. Sullivan first came to William and Mary as a freshman in 1962. He left four years later with a bachelor's degree in government, a Phi Beta Kappa key and membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Sullivan was elected president of the College on April 9, 1992 by the Board of Visitors and was sworn in as president on June 1, just eight months before the College began its 300th anniversary celebration.

Sullivan's life has been intimately linked with William and Mary. His wife, Anne Doubet Klare, was a fellow member of the class of 1966. Like other William and Mary alumni, they were married in the chapel of the Sir Christopher Wren Building.

After receiving a law degree from Harvard University in 1969, Sullivan went on to serve in the Army Signal Corps in Vietnam, where he received the Army Commendation Medal, First Oak Leaf Cluster and Bronze Star.

Sullivan came back to William and Mary in 1972 as an assistant professor at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law where he specialized in teaching contract law. He rose quickly, becoming an associate law professor in 1974, then full professor and associate dean in 1977.

In 1981 and 1982, he was visiting law professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He served for nearly three years as executive assistant for policy for then-Governor Charles S. Robb. Sullivan returned to Marshall-Wythe in 1984, as the John Stewart Bryan Professor of Jurisprudence. He became dean of the law school in July 1985. He is a member of the Virginia State Bar and the Ohio State Bar and a Fellow of the Virginia Bar Foundation and the American Bar Foundation, and he currently serves on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association.

Sullivan was given the Freedom of the Drapers' Company in London in November 1992. In April 1993 he received an LLD (hon.) from the University of Aberdeen. He received the Outstanding Virginian Award from the Virginia 4-H Foundation in 1999.

Active in public service, Sullivan has been executive director of the Governor's Commission on Virginia's Future, counsel for the Commission on the Future of the Virginia Judicial System, a member of the Virginia Board of Education and the Governor's Task Force on Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault on Campus. In addition, he was appointed by Governor L. Douglas Wilder as chair of the Governor's Task Force on Intercollegiate and Interscholastic Athletics. President Sullivan served as chair of the Council of Presidents for 1998 and 1999.

Henry A. Kissinger
Chancellor

Soldier, statesman, academician, author, peacemaker Henry A. Kissinger was installed February 10, 2001, as the 22nd Chancellor of the College of William and Mary. The former U.S. Secretary of State and Nobel Peace Prize winner also delivered the Charter Day address. Mr. Kissinger, who succeeded Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, as chancellor was selected by the Board of Visitors to a seven-year term that began July 1, 2000. Mr. Kissinger will officiate at ceremonies such as the spring commencement and future Charter Day celebrations, which commemorate the College's founding in 1693. He will also help the College extend its international reach by guiding the establishment of relationships with institutions and people around the globe.

The College's charter established the position of chancellor, stating that the role should go to "one eminent and discreet person," who would serve as the College's representative to the English crown. During the pre-Revolutionary war era, either the Bishop of London or the Archbishop of Canterbury held the position. The first American chancellor was George Washington, who served from 1788 until his death in 1799.

Born in 1923 in Furth, Germany, Mr. Kissinger immigrated to the United States in 1938 to escape Nazi persecution. After studying accounting at the City College of New York, he served in the U.S. Army and the military government of the defeated Germany after World War II.

In 1969, President Richard M. Nixon appointed him Assistant for National Security Affairs, and subsequently head of the National Security Council and Secretary of State, a post he held until 1976.

During his time with the government, Mr. Kissinger led efforts to establish detente with the former Soviet Union, opened the People's Republic of China to the outside world for the first time since Mao Tse Tung came to power in 1949, helped limit the spread of nuclear weapons, helped resolve some of the differences between the Arabs and Israelis, and played a vital role in bringing an end to the war in Vietnam.

For his efforts to end the war in Vietnam, Mr. Kissinger and his North Vietnamese counterpart, Le Duc Tho, were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Today Kissinger is an international consultant and author.

Athletics Administration

Terry Driscoll Director of Athletics

With an extensive resumé that includes four years as a student-athlete, a professional playing career and numerous jobs in the athletic business world, Edward C. "Terry" Driscoll is entering his eighth year as the athletics director at the College of William and Mary.

Driscoll's tenure has seen a wealth of improvements across the board in the W&M athletics department, from new facilities to increased fundraising for the Tribe. In addition, the Tribe has reached all-time highs in the annual Director's Cup rankings that summarize excellence in all sports.

Upon the death of legendary Tribe athletics director John Randolph, W&M president Timothy J. Sullivan chose Driscoll to be the new leader of the department, saying "Terry brings outstanding management and leadership skills to the position."

Since Driscoll took over as athletics director, he has overseen the construction of more than $6 million in facilities, including the new Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). Driscoll has also increased the annual fundraising totals for non-capital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to around $2.7 million currently. He also has served on numerous conference and NCAA committees, including a stint as president of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference.

The Tribe has also had outstanding success across the board since Driscoll came to Williamsburg. In 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four teams won conference titles, while six were in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. One of the department's goals each year is to finish in the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, and that has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the AD, with a high ranking of 42 occurring in 1997. In addition, W&M had captured 76 CAA Championships coming into the 2003-04 school year, by far the highest total among all conference schools.

Driscoll's leadership skills were developed in his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament championship game as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom with a major in biology garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth pick of the NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three picks after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communication - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports as well as organizing the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix, a five-week competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children - Keith, 28, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross and Leslie, 24, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

Barbara Blosser Senior Executive Associate AD

After serving 12 years as the College's associate athletics director, Barbara Blosser was promoted to her current position of senior executive associate athletic director in April of 2004. Blosser started her career at William and Mary as the head women's basketball coach in 1978 and guided the Tribe to a VAIAW crown in her first season with a school-record 16 wins (16-13). Her 1980 Tribe team (11-14) placed third, while the 1981 squad (16-16) was VAIAW runner-up. She was also at the helm during the 1984-85 season when William and Mary made the jump to NCAA Division I. Overall, she finished her coaching career with 115 wins, 84 of which came at William and Mary.

When the College's men's and women's athletic programs merged in May of 1986, she moved to administration, first serving as the Assistant to the Associate Athletics Director. Over the past 16 years, her administrative responsibilities at W&M have included the monitoring of financial aid matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic facilities, supervision of coaches and staff and, currently, serving as the person primarily responsible for administering the day-to-day operations of the department.

From October 1992 to June 1993 and August 1995 to July 1996, Blosser also served as acting athletics director in an interim capacity. For her efforts, she was named the first recipient of the John Randolph Inspiration Award. Blosser has served on various committees such as the NCAA Strategic Planning Committee and the Colonial Athletic Association Competition Committee.

Blosser began her coaching career at the helm of the women's basketball program at Ashland College in Ohio. During two seasons there, she led the Eagles to successive 15-7 and 16-8 ledgers. Her 1977 squad won the AIAW Region V Championship, while her 1978 team took the OASW Small College title.

A former three-sport standout at Ohio State, Blosser graduated Cum Laude in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. At OSU, she was selected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She competed in basketball, field hockey and tennis and captained both the basketball and field hockey squads her senior year. She went on to earn her master's degree from the University of North Carolina Greensboro in 1978. In 1993, she was selected as a member of the first class of women inducted to the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Student-Athlete Support

Goals

We take pride in the many achievements of William and Mary athletes, both in the classroom and on the playing field. These support services and many others are in place to help each student-athlete achieve their goals. It is our hope that at the completion of their undergraduate career they can reflect upon:

1. An academic experience that prepared them for a successful career.
2. An athletic challenge that brought many rewards.
3. A feeling of loyalty and pride in identifying themselves as a varsity athlete with a degree from The College of William and Mary.

Compliance and Academic Support

As members of the Colonial Athletic Association and NCAA Division I, the College is committed to full compliance with all NCAA and conference regulations. The department has a fulltime Director of Compliance committed to assisting students, staff and coaches through education and monitoring of compliance issues.

All entering students are assigned to a faculty academic advisor assigned by the director of Academic Advising. Students remain with this advisor until their sophomore year at which time they select a faculty advisor in their chosen major.

Within the athletic department, the Academic Support Coordinator is a valuable resource for student-athletes serving in a liaison role with the various student service offices throughout the campus community. The College has offices for Volunteer Services, Career Services, a Writing Resource Center and Oral Communication Studio, to name a few.

The department offers a variety of study, life and career building skills programs, but holds firm to the concept of self-determination—each student must take responsibility for his or her collegiate experience. Our goal is to assure that there is a support system in place to assist students to make positive and informed decisions.

Strength, Speed and Conditioning

Tribe athletics is very proud of the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center, a 5,000 square foot weight training facility. Under the guidance of the Head and Assistant Strength Coach each sport is provided with a program designed to enhance individual strength and flexibility development specific to the skills and movements required for their sport. Individuals are educated on proper lifting techniques and workouts are monitored to assure safety at all times.

Sports Psychology

The athletic department has on staff a sports psychologist, who holds a Ph.D. in sports psychology. All consultations are confidential and all student-athletes, teams or coaches are welcome regardless of the issues they wish to discuss. Consultation is available for sport psychology education, performance enhancement skills training, strategies for dealing with stress or injury, or for personal issues that may affect performance. The sports psychology consultant is considered a member of the Counseling Center and refers individuals to the Center when appropriate.

Sports Medicine

The Division of Sports Medicine provides a comprehensive health care program for the department of intercollegiate athletics. The staff consists of a team physician, seven full time certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistant athletic trainers and medical specialists from the local community. The team physician has overall responsibility for supervision of the sports medicine program. Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

The priority for the athletic training staff is to enhance and assure lines of communication and cooperation among its staff, student-athletes, parents, coaches, the Student Health Center and involved medical specialists. Through a team approach to health care the sports medicine program can offer comprehensive health care services to the student-athletes in a caring and cooperative manner.

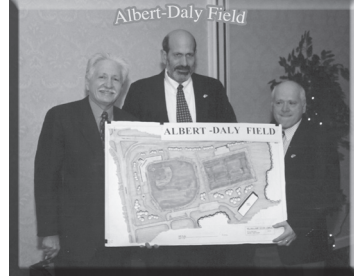

Facilities

The College of William and Mary and its student-athletes take a great deal of pride in the quality of its athletic facilities. Over the last several years, the College has bolstered its lineup of venues to match the success that the Tribe has shown in the athletic arena, which has been unmatched in the Colonial Athletic Association. William and Mary boasts some of the finest athletic arenas in the nation, from its newest venue, Albert-Daly Field, to the oldest, Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field, a campus landmark since 1935. The College is committed to providing the student-athlete the most enjoyable and rewarding atmosphere possible.
