Tribe

W&M BATTLES No. 4 DUKE IN NORFOLK, VA.

The No. 17 William and Mary field hockey team will face its third ranked foe in four matches when the Tribe battles No. 4 Duke on Saturday, Oct. 14. The match will be played at a neutral site in Norfolk, Va., at Old Dominion's Foreman Field. Game time is slated for 2 p.m. It will mark the seventh straight year that the Blue Devils and Tribe have met and the second in which they will play at ODU. Duke enters the weekend with an 11-3 overall mark and a 2-2 record in the ACC.

TRIBE NEWS AND NOTES

- The Tribe is ranked No. 17 in the womensfieldhockey.com Top 20, while coming in at No. 19 in the STX/NFHCA poll, released on Oct. 10.

- With its perfect 4-0 record at home in 2006, the Tribe improved to 110-48-2 (.696) all-time at Busch Field.

- W&M did not allow a goal in its first two home games of the 2006 season vs. Davidson and Radford. With the pair of shutouts, it marked the first time since the 2000 season that the Tribe blanked back-to-back opponents at home. During that season, W&M shutout American, 3-0, on Sept. 1, before blanking Davidson, 7-0, on Sept. 3.

- Junior goalkeeper Gwen Hunter recorded eight saves in the Tribe's victory over Miami (Ohio). It marked the fifth time in her career she recorded eight or more saves in a contest. The last time she recorded eight or more saves in a game came against Northeastern on Oct. 23, 2005, when she stopped 10 shots.

- Junior goalkeeper Kristen Gillis made the first saves of her W&M career against Drexel and then-No. 6 North Carolina. After battling injuries and missing each of the last two seasons, Gillis saw the first action of her W&M career on Sept. 1 against Davidson. She came on in the second half of both matches against Drexel and UNC. Against the Dragons, Gillis made two saves, while stopping one shot against the Tar Heels.

- In each of W&M's first three victories, one Tribe player recorded a career-high five-point game. Senior forward Maggie Long pulled the trick against Ball State, while junior Kim Hedley did the same against Miami (Ohio). Senior forward Gina Cimarelli notched two goals and an assist to give W&M three straight five-point performances against Davidson.

- Senior midfielder Becky Van Zee recorded her first career game-winner with a first-half goal at Rutgers on Sept. 8.

- Sophomore Lauren Giles registered her first career point in the Tribe's 5-3 win over then-No. 19 Richmond. She assisted on the College's final goal after Richmond had drawn within a single score, 4-3, in the 48th minute. She followed that up by scoring her first career goal in the second half against VCU on Sept. 24.

SCOUTING No. 4 DUKE

The Blue Devils are riding a four match winning streak entering its contest with the Tribe. Most recently, Duke notched victories over No. 16 Villanova, 7-2, on Oct. 9, and over Drexel, 5-1, on Oct. 10. Included in the Blue Devils current winning streak is a victory over No. 1-ranked Maryland, 2-0, on Oct. 7. It was the first loss of the season for the defending national champion Terps. Duke is ranked No. 4 in the both the womensfieldhockey.com and STX/NFHCA National Top 20s.

Marian Dickinson leads Duke in scoring with 42 points on 17 goals and eight assists. She notched her third hat trick of the season in the victory over Drexel. Amy Stopford is second on the squad with 11 goals and 22 points. Cara-Lynn Lopresti and Arnie Survilla round out Duke's double-digit scorers with 14 and 15 points respectively. Brooke Patterson is second on the team with seven assists, while Lopresti is third with six helpers. Survilla has six goals on the year. Caitlin Williams has seen most of the time in net for Duke. In 1020:27 minutes of action, she has a goals against average of 1.30 to got along with 47 saves and three shutouts.

Duke holds a 15-8-1 all-time advantage in the series with the Tribe. The Blue Devils won the only other match at a neutral site last season. Duke notched a 4-0 win in Norfolk, Va., in 2005. The Tribe has not beaten the Blue Devils since a 2-1 victory on Sept. 22, 2001 in Williamsburg.

TRIBE RANKED IN NATIONAL TOP 20s

For the sixth straight week, the Tribe is ranked in both the STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) and the womensfieldhockey.com Top 20s. W&M is No. 17 in the womensfieldhockey.com poll and 19th in the NFHCA rankings.

The Tribe moved down two spots in the NFHCA poll after coming in at No. 17 in the Oct. 3 poll. The No. 17 spot is the highest the Tribe has been ranked in the coaches poll this season, earning the slot during four of its first five weeks in the rankings.

W&M fell three spots from No. 14 in the womensfieldhockey.com standings. On Sept. 26, the Tribe earned its highest ranking of the season in the womensfieldhockey.com poll at No. 12. The ranking was the highest for the College since the 2003 season. W&M was ranked No. 9 on Nov. 4, 2003. In 2004, the Tribe was ranked as high as No. 13 in the womensfieldhockey.com poll.

STARTING OFF THE CAA SLATE IN STYLE

For the third straight season, the Tribe opened the CAA portion of the schedule with two victories. It marked the fifth time in school history that the Tribe has accomplished the feat, having done so in 1993 and 1998 along with the last three years.

This season, the Tribe opened with victories over VCU (4-2) on Sept. 24, before defeating Drexel (3-0) on Sept. 29. In 2005, the College won its first three matches in league action before falling in overtime to James Madison. In 2004, W&M finished the CAA ledger at 7-0 to claim the regular-season crown.

CONVERTING CORNERS

The Tribe has had success scoring off of penalty corners. In the Tribe's conference-opening victories over VCU and Drexel, all seven W&M goals have come via the penalty corner. For the year, the Tribe has scored 13 of its 30 goals off penalty corners.

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Although the forward trio of Gina Cimorelli, Maggie Long and Kim Hedley pace the Tribe in points and goals, the Tribe has shown the ability to get contribution from players up and down the lineup. In fact, during the 2006 season, a total of 10 different Tribe players have scored a goal. Twelve different W&M players have at least one assist on the season.

W&M's balanced attack is no more evident than in its last five games. Over the five-game stretch, the Tribe has scored nine goals from seven different players. The only players to score more than once over the last five games are freshman Wesley Drew and Hedley.

STRIKER CAREER YEARS

Forwards Gina Cimorelli, Maggie Long and Kim Hedley have all recorded new career highs during the 2006 season. All three have established new career bests for points in a season with Long and Hedley garnering new career best goal totals, while Cimorelli has equaled her best season in the Green and Gold.

Cimorelli leads the Tribe in scoring, while ranking four in the CAA in points (19). She also had seven goals as a sophomore in 2004. The Oak Hill, Va., native also has a career and team-high five assists during her senior campaign.

Hedley ranks sixth in the CAA in goals (7), equalling the team-high mark with Cimorelli. Hedley scored the Tribe's lone goal in a 4-1 loss at then-No. 18 JMU. For the season, she has a career-best 15 points. Both totals bettered her career-high totals from a season ago. On two occasions this season, Hedley has recorded a pair of goals, while helping the Tribe to overcome early deficits against Miami (Ohio) and then-No. 19 Richmond.

Long, like her fellow starting frontrunners, has established new career bests in goals and points. After notching six points on two goals and two assists as a junior in 2005, the Ocean City, N.J., native has 11 points on five goals and one assist.

TOUGH LEDGER

The Tribe's 2006 schedule is peppered with difficult opponents. In total between both the NFHCA and womensfieldhockey.com polls, seven teams are ranked among the top 20. W&M is 1-3 against ranked foes this season with all three of its defeats coming on the road to then-No. 6 North Carolina, then-No. 7 Virginia and then-No. 18 James Madison. W&M owns a 5-3 win in Williamsburg over then-No. 19 Richmond on Sept. 16.

The Tribe will have some difficult contests in the upcoming schedule. Along with the tough CAA conference ledger, the Tribe will face three more opponents ranked in the top 20 and another currently receiving votes.

Two future W&M opponents are ranked among the NFHCA top 20. The list of ranked foes includes No. 3 ODU and No. 4 Duke. Hofstra is receiving votes for the STX/NFHCA national poll. W&M already owns a victory over Miami (Ohio), 4-3, and the Redhawks were in the also receiving votes category at the time of the contest. Three upcoming Tribe opponents are ranked in the womensfieldhockey.com poll - No. 2 ODU, No. 4 Duke and No. 19 Hofstra.

CAN I HELP YOU?

In the Tribe's 4-2 CAA-opening victory over VCU on Sept. 24, junior back Laura Kastelic assisted on the first three W&M goals to help propel the College to victory. Each of Kastelic's three assists came off penalty corners as she found sophomore Katie Broaddus in the 22nd minute, freshman Wesley Drew in the 32nd minute and senior Maggie Long in the 49th minute. All four Tribe goals came via penalty corners.

Kastelic's three helpers were not only a career high, but the second most in school history. The last time a Tribe player notched three assists in a contest, Katie Silverthorne set the school mark with four against the Rams on Oct. 7, 2001. The three assists tied six other players for second in the school's annals.

OFFENSIVE OUTBURSTS

The Tribe notched five goals in its first match against a ranked opponent on Sept. 16 versus then-No. 19 Richmond. In the 5-3 victory, all three W&M strikers scored as senior Gina Cimorelli and junior Kim Hedley added a pair apiece with senior Maggie Long adding the first W&M tally. It marked the first time W&M has scored five or more goals at home since downing then-No. 19 Hofstra, 5-1, in Williamsburg on Oct. 3, 2004.

W&M tallied four goals in each of its first three victories in 2006. It marked the first time since the 2004 season that W&M scored four or more goals in three consecutive games. The Tribe scored four or more goals in three straight wins at Virginia (5-4) on Sept. 29, vs. Drexel (4-2) on Oct. 1 and vs. Hofstra (5-1) on Oct. 3 during that season.

W&M opened the season with road wins over Ball State (4-1) and Miami (Ohio) (4-3 OT). The back-to-back four-goal performances on the road also were the first time since 1988 that the Tribe notched four or more goals in back-to-back road victories. During that season, W&M defeated Loyola (Md.), 4-3, on Oct. 1, before disposing of American, 4-0, on Oct. 2.

IN MULTIPLES

Through the opening nine games of the 2006 season, the Tribe has received two-goal games on six different occasions from three different players. Senior forward Gina Cimorelli has three multi-goal games, junior striker Kim Hedley has two and senior frontrunner Maggie Long has one. The two-goal games were the first of Hedley and Long's careers, while Cimorelli's three multigoal games gives her four in her career.

The last time W&M had more than six multi-goal games came during the 2002 season when it had nine. During that season Ann Ekberg had seven multi-goal games to lead the way for the College. Ekberg's season marked the last time a single Tribe player had more than three multi-goal games in a season.

The Tribe has also produced four, five-point games from the trio of forwards. Cimorelli pulled the trick against then-No. 19 Richmond and Miami (Ohio), while Hedley did it against the Red-hawks as well and Long accomplished the feat against Ball State. The 2000 season was the last time W&M had more than four five-plus point games in a season. During that campaign, the College had five games of five or more points. In 2002, Ekberg had four games of five-plus points, making her the last W&M player to have more than two games with five or more points.

TWO-FERS

This season, the Tribe has had two players score two goals in the same game. Seniors Gina Cimorelli and Maggie Long each notched a pair in the College's 4-1 over Ball State to open the season. Cimorelli then joined forces with junior Kim Hedley to pull the trick against then-No. 19 Richmond.

When Cimorelli and Long each notched a pair of goals in the Tribe's 4-1 win over Ball State, it marked the first time since the 2003 season that two W&M players recorded multi-goal games in the same contest. The last duo to do it was Kelli Dugan and Kelly McQuade, who each notched a hat trick in W&M's 8-3 win over James Madison on Oct. 26, 2003.

The last time W&M had two players score a pair of goals in two games in a season was during the 2000 campaign. The feat occurred on four occasions for the Tribe in 2000. Katie Uhran and Lianne Ligtoet tallied two and three goals, respectively against Columbia (10/13/00), while Uhran teamed with Jaime Bolen to each add a pair in a 5-2 win over Villanova (10/28/00). Bolen and Ann Ekberg each scored two goals in a pair of games in 2000 against Davidson (Sept. 3) and Yale (Sept. 10).

BEST START SINCE 2000

The Tribe started the season a perfect 5-0 before falling in its most recent affair with Princeton. The 5-0 start marked the first time since 2000 that W&M has won five straight to open the season. During the 2000 season, the College opened with seven-straight victories. The 5-0 start is only the fourth five-game winning streak to start a season in school history. Aside from 2000, the Tribe accomplished the feat in 1978 and 1979

CIMARELLI NAMED TO NATIONAL HONOR ROLL

Following her three-goal performance in the Tribe's season-opening victories over Ball State and Miami (Ohio), senior forward Gina Cimarelli was named to the womensfieldhockey.com National Honor Roll. Cimarelli was one of seven players on the list with Lauren Crandall of Wake Forest taking home the national player of the week accolade.

Cimarelli became the first Tribe player since 2004 to be named to the national honor roll. Kelly Giles (10/4) and Heather Kibbee (10/25) were on the weekly list during that campaign. Cimarelli scored a pair of goals in the Tribe's 4-1 victory over Ball State, before notching the game-winner 21 seconds into overtime against Miami (Ohio).
