Tribe

TRIBE HITS THE ROAD AGAIN

The No. 14 William and Mary field hockey team will hit the road for its third two-game road trip of the season. The Tribe will face No. 4 Virginia in its first midweek game on Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 7 p.m., before opening the CAA ledger at VCU on Sunday, Sept. 24, at 1 p.m.

TRIBE NEWS AND NOTES

- The Tribe moved up to No. 14 in the womensfieldhockey.com Top 20, while it remained 17th in the STX/NFHCA poll, released on Sept. 19.

- With its perfect 3-0 record at home in 2006, the Tribe improved to 109-48-2 (.692) all-time at Busch Field.

- The Tribe is 10-5 all-time in CAA openers, including a 3-3 record in CAA openers that are on the road.

- W&M did not allow a goal in its first two home games of the 2006 season vs. Davidson and Radford. With the pair of shutouts, it marked the first time since the 2000 season that the Tribe blanked back-to-back opponents at home. During that season, W&M shutout American, 3-0, on Sept. 1, before blanking Davidson, 7-0, on Sept. 3.

- Junior goalkeeper Gwen Hunter recorded eight saves in the Tribe's victory over Miami (Ohio). It marked the fifth time in her career she recorded eight or more saves in a contest. The last time she recorded eight or more saves in a game came against Northeastern on Oct. 23, 2005, when she stopped 10 shots.

- After battling injuries and missing each of the last two seasons, sophomore goalkeeper Kristen Gillis saw the first action of her W&M career on Sept. 1 against Davidson. Gillis played the entire second half in goal versus the Wildcats, but was not tested.

- In each of W&M's first three victories, one Tribe player recorded a career-high five-point game. Senior forward Maggie Long pulled the trick against Ball State, while junior Kim Hedley did the same against Miami (Ohio). Senior forward Gina Cimarelli notched two goals and an assist to give W&M three straight five-point performances against Davidson.

- Senior midfielder Becky Van Zee recorded her first career game-winner with a first-half goal at Rutgers on Sept. 8.

- Sophomore Lauren Giles registered her first career point in the Tribe's 5-3 win over then-No. 19 Richmond. She assisted on the College's final goal after Richmond had drawn within a single score, 4-3, in the 48th minute.

SCOUTING VIRGINIA

Virginia enters its Sept. 20 matchup with W&M as one of the hottest teams in the country. The Cavaliers are coming off a 2-1 upset victory over then-No. 4 UNC in Chapel Hill. The victory bumped UVA's national ranking up to No. 7 in the STX-NFHCA poll and to No. 4 in the womensfieldhockey.com rankings.

The Cavaliers are 6-1 on the year, including a 5-1 mark at home. Their lone loss on the season came to current No. 3 Old Dominion, 3-2, on Sept. 1. UVA completed a perfect weekend with its victory over UNC after also defeating VCU, 3-1. The Cavaliers also own a 3-2 victory over then-No. 10 Indiana to open the season.

Traci Ragukas lead a trio of Cavaliers in double-digit points with 16 on the season. She tops the team in goals with seven to go along with two assists. Inge Kaars Sijpesteiji ranks second on the team with 15 points and six goals. Biffy Cornelison leads UVA in assists with five to go along with four goals for 13 points. Katherine Blair and Amy Desjadon have both seen time in goal for UVA. Blair has played in six contest with four starts, while Desjadon has three starts. Blair has 15 saves, a save percentage of 0.652 and a goals against average of 1.46. Desjadon has four saves, a save percentage of 0.667 and a goals against average of 1.33.

Virginia holds a 19-15-2 all-time record against the Tribe, including a 9-5-1 advantage in Charlottesville. Last season, the Cavaliers notched a 1-0 victory in Williamsburg. The last time the two teams met in Charlottesville, the Tribe defeated then-No. 12 UVA, 5-4, in 2004.

SCOUTING VCU

VCU will travel crosstown on Friday, Sept. 22, to battle Richmond before hosting the Tribe on Sept. 24. The Rams enter the weekend at 1-6 overall after dropping contests to Virginia, 3-1, and Longwood, 3-2. VCU's lone victory on the year came against Monmouth, 7-3, on Aug. 27.

Nikki Lloyd leads VCU in scoring with 10 points on four goals and two assists. Emilie Osinga and Jenna Harris both have seven points on the campaign with three goals and an assist. Laura Baker has started six of the Rams' seven games in goal. She carries a goals against average of 4.18 with 39 saves.

The Tribe is 36-6 all-time against VCU, including a 12-2 mark in Richmond. In the 42 series meetings, the Tribe owns a 111-25 scoring advantage. Last season, the Tribe won its CAA opener at home against VCU, 2-0. Katie Broaddus and Laura Kastelic scored in the victory, while Gwen Hunter notched the shutout with five saves.

TRIBE RANKED IN NATIONAL TOP 20s

For the third straight week, the Tribe is ranked in both the STX/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) and the womensfieldhockey.com Top 20s. W&M jumped to 14th in the womensfieldhockey.com poll after its 5-3 victory over then-No. 19 Richmond on Sept. 16. The College remains 17th for the third time in as many weeks in the coaches poll.

The ranking is the highest in the coaches poll since the College finished the 2004 campaign ranked 15th. A season ago, the Tribe was ranked as high as No. 18 in the STX/NFHCA National poll. That ranking came on Sept. 13, 2005.

The ranking earlier this season in the womensfieldhockey.com poll marked the Tribe's return to the rankings. It was the first ranking for the Tribe in the womensfieldhockey.com poll since garnering the No. 15 spot on Sept. 12, 2005. W&M's latest ranking of No. 14 is the highest since the College was No. 13 on Nov. 2, 2004.

OFFENSIVE OUTBURSTS

The Tribe notched five goals in its first match against a ranked opponent on Sept. 16 versus then-No. 19 Richmond. In the 5-3 victory, all three W&M strikers scored as senior Gina Cimarelli and junior Kim Hedley added a pair apiece with senior Maggie Long adding the first W&M tally. It marked the first time W&M has scored five or more goals at home since downing then-No. 19 Hofstra, 5-1, in Williamsburg on Oct. 3, 2004.

W&M tallied four goals in each of its first three victories of 2006. It marked the first time since the 2004 season that W&M scored four or more goals in three consecutive games. The Tribe scored four or more goals in three straight wins at Virginia (5-4) on Sept. 29, vs. Drexel (4-2) on Oct. 1 and vs. Hofstra (5-1) on Oct. 3 during that season.

W&M opened the season with road wins over Ball State (4-1) and Miami (Ohio) (4-3 OT). The back-to-back four-goal performances on the road also were the first time since 1988 that the Tribe notched four or more goals in back-to-back road victories. During that season, W&M defeated Loyola (Md.), 4-3, on Oct. 1, before disposing of American, 4-0, on Oct. 2.

IN MULTIPLES

Through the opening seven games of the 2006 season, the Tribe has received two-goal games on six different occasions from three different players. Senior forward Gina Cimarelli has three multi-goal games, junior striker Kim Hedley has two and senior frontrunner Maggie Long has one. The two-goal games were the first of Hedley and Long's careers, while Cimarelli's three gives her four in her career.

The last time W&M had more than six multi-goal games came during the 2002 season when it had nine. During that season Ann Ekberg had seven multi-goal games to lead the way for the College. Ekberg's season marked the last time a single Tribe player had more than three multi-goal games in a season.

The Tribe has also produced four, five-point games from the trio of forwards. Cimarelli pulled the trick against then-No. 19 Richmond and Miami (Ohio), while Hedley did it against the Redhawks as well and Long accomplished the feat against Ball State. The 2000 season was the last time W&M had more than four five-plus point games in a season. During that campaign, the College had five games of five or more points. In 2002, Ekberg had four games of five-plus points, making her the last W&M player to have more than two games with five or more points.

STRIKER CAREER YEARS

Forwards Gina Cimarelli, Maggie Long and Kim Hedley have all recorded new career highs in only the first seven games of the 2006 season. All three have established new career bests for points in a season with Long and Hedley garnering new career best goal totals, while Cimarelli has equaled her best season in the Green and Gold.

Cimarelli leads not only the Tribe, but the CAA in points (17) and goals (7). She also had seven goals on a sophomore in 2004. More impressive is the fact that Cimarelli's points (2.43) and goals per game (1.00) averages ranked 13th nationally. She also has a career and team-high three assists during her senior campaign.

Hedley ranks eighth in the CAA in points (11) and fourth in goals (5). Both total bettered her career-high totals from a season ago. On two occasions this season, Hedley has recorded a pair of goals, while helping the Tribe to overcome early deficits against Miami (Ohio) and then-No. 19 Richmond.

Long, like her fellow starting frontrunners, has established new career bests in goals and points. After notching six points on two goals and two assists as a junior in 2005, the Ocean City, N.J., native already has nine points on four goals and one assist during the opening parts of the 2006 campaign.

TWO-FERS

This season, the Tribe has had two players score two goals in the same game. Seniors Gina Cimarelli and Maggie Long each notched a pair in the College's 4-1 over Ball State to open the season. Cimarelli then joined forces with junior Kim Hedley to pull the trick against then-No. 19 Richmond.

When Cimarelli and Long each notched a pair of goals in the Tribe's 4-1 win over Ball State, it marked the first time since the 2003 season that two W&M players recorded multi-goal games in the same contest. The last duo to do it was Kelli Dugan and Kelly McQuade, who each notched a hat trick in W&M's 8-3 win over James Madison on Oct. 26, 2003.

The last time W&M had two players score a pair of goals in two games in a season was during the 2000 campaign. The feat occurred on four occasions for the Tribe in 2000. Katie Uhran and Lianne Ligtoet tallied two and three goals, respectively against Columbia (10/13/00), while Uhran teamed with Jaime Bolen to each add a pair in a 5-2 win over Villanova (10/28/00). Bolen and Ann Ekberg each scored two goals in a pair of games in 2000 against Davidson (Sept. 3) and Yale (Sept. 10).

TOUGH LEDGER

The Tribe's 2006 schedule is peppered with difficult opponents. In total between both the NFHCA and womensfieldhockey.com polls, seven teams are ranked among the top 20 with another four at least receiving votes. W&M notched a victory in its first game over a ranked foe this season, knocking off then-No. 19 Richmond, 5-3, on Sept. 16. The Tribe will have its most difficult portion of the schedule upcoming. Along with the tough CAA conference ledger, the Tribe will face six more opponents ranked among the top 20 and another two currently receiving votes.

Six future W&M opponents are listed among the NFHCA top 20. The list of ranked foes include No. 3 ODU, No. 4 North Carolina, No. 5 Duke, No. 7 Virginia, No. 15 James Madison and No. 19 Hofstra. Northeastern and Drexel are receiving votes for the STX/NFHCA national poll. W&M already owns a victory over Miami (Ohio), 4-3, and the Redhawks were in the also receiving votes category at the time of the contest. Seven Tribe opponents are ranked in the womensfieldhockey.com poll with No. 3 ODU, No. 4 Virginia, No. 5 UNC, No. 6 Duke, No. 11 Hofstra and No. 16 James Madison,

BEST START SINCE 2000

The Tribe started the season a perfect 5-0 before falling in its most recent affair with Princeton. The 5-0 start marked the first time since 2000 that W&M has won five straight to open the season. During the 2000 season, the College opened with seven-straight victories. The 5-0 start is only the fourth five-game winning streak to start a season in school history. Aside from 2000, the Tribe accomplished the feat in 1978 and 1979

CIMARELLI NAMED TO NATIONAL HONOR ROLL

Following her three-goal performance in the Tribe's season-opening victories over Ball State and Miami (Ohio), senior forward Gina Cimarelli was named to the womensfieldhockey.com National Honor Roll. Cimarelli was one of seven players on the list with Lauren Crandall of Wake Forest taking home the national player of the week accolade.

Cimarelli became the first Tribe player since 2004 to be named to the national honor roll. Kelly Giles (10/4) and Heather Kibbee (10/25) were on the weekly list during that campaign. Cimarelli scored a pair of goals in the Tribe's 4-1 victory over Ball State, before notching the game-winner 21 seconds into overtime against Miami (Ohio).

FRESHMAN FIRSTS

In the Tribe's pair of home-opening victories over Davidson (4-0) and Radford (2-0), a trio of W&M freshmen notched the first points of their careers. Freshmen Courtney Farino and Wesley Drew scored their first career goals, while fellow rookie, Sarah Louie registered her first career assist. Against Davidson, Farino pushed the ball inside the left post, following a cross-crease pass from senior Gina Cimarelli in the waning moments of the match. Louie found Drew to ice the Tribe's match against Radford in the 60th minute. Louie grabbed a rebound off a penalty corner and found Drew in front of the goal, giving the Tribe a 2-0 victory.
