Prelude

Processional:
"God of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand" — Warren

The William and Mary Choir

Invocation

The Reverend John E. Harwood, Jr.
Campus Minister, The Methodist Church

Responsive Reading — Psalm VIII

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visited him?
For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beast of the field;

The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

I Shall Sing unto Eternity - (for Double Choir) — Durante

Baccalaureate Sermon
The Reverend Robert E. Cushman, Dean
The Divinity School, Duke University

Hymn: "Whene'er We Come into the Halls" — Weekes-Hatton

1. Whene'er we come into the halls
To learning's purpose set apart
Be Thou from Whom all knowledge falls
Be Thou in every mind and heart

3. What is all science but a stair
On which we climb, O Lord, to Thee?
And all our art a mirror fair
Wherein Thy gracious form to see?

2. In vain we read the sage's word
And vain to us the poet's song,
If we in these have never heard
Thy Voice, that breathes the lines along.

4. O come, Who art our need supreme,
That all our learning be not in vain,
Reveal Thyself, in only theme
That merits human toil and pain.

The Lord's Prayer

The Reverend John E. Harwood, Jr.
