PREVIEW

The Tribe returns nine starters from a team that advanced to the CAA Semifinals last season. W&M returns 82.1 percent of its scoring from last season, including all-conference midfielder Wesley Drew.

COACHING STAFF

Peel Hawthorne enters her 23rd season at the helm of W&M, producing 249 victories during her tenure. She will once again be assisted by Quan Nim Anderson (9th season) and Kristen McCann (3rd season).

THE TRIBE

W&M returns 21 players from last season and will be led by the senior quartet of Wesley Drew, Courtney Farino, Kelsey Jackson and Sarah Louie. The Tribe also welcomes five newcomers to the fold.

HISTORY

The College has advanced to the NCAA Tournament on two occasions - 2000 and 2002 - along with garnering four AIAW Nationals apperances. In total, W&M has produced 10 All-Americans.

CAA FIELD HOCKEY SILVER ANNIVERSARY TEAM

The Colonial Athletic Association is celebrating its 25th Anniversary in 2009-10 and to commemorate the occasion, the league will sponsor a Silver Anniversary team for each of its sports. Each team goes through a process of nominations from each institution's sports information department, before the final team is screened and chosen by a panel of coaches and administrators.

Anna Davis, the 2005 CAA Defensive Player of the Year, represented W&M on the 25th Anniversary Field Hockey team. She was a first-team All-American selection in 2005, while garnering first-team all-league honors in each of her final two seasons.

BUSCH FACILITY UPGRADES IN 2009

The W&M field hockey program begins play on a world-class surface starting in the fall of 2009, as the Tribe renovated Busch Field this past summer with AstroTurf 12TM. The renovation of the 20-year-old facility includes a total revamp of the field, underlying pad, and drainage systems to create a competition surface that ranks alongside those used at the U.S. National Training Centers in Virginia Beach, Virginia, Chula Vista, California as well as at last year's Olympic Games.

Busch Field has been the permanent home of the William and Mary field hockey program since the 1990 season. The facility opened in 1989, and the field hockey program played three contests on it during the 1989 season. The Tribe has enjoyed a distinct home-field advantage over the last 20 seasons, amassing a 123-60-2 record (.670) at Busch Field.

The facility was made possible by a generous grant from Anheuser-Busch Brewing Corporation. Busch Field opened in June of 1989 with the Busch Gardens-William and Mary Soccer Tournament, and was dedicated on November 1, prior to the men's soccer game against East Carolina. The first field hockey competition on the turf was September 30, 1989, a 7-0 victory for the College over American. In its initial season at Busch Field, the Tribe went 3-0, out-scoring opponents, 16-1.

The facility has been a difficult one for Tribe opponents, as William and Mary has out-scored its opposition, 449-289, through the 2008 season. W&M has scored an average of more than 2.4 goals per contest at Busch Field, while holding opponents to less than 1.6 tallies.

With a seating capacity of 2,271, the facility features a computerized lighting system that makes night games possible. The 120×75 -yard playing surface combines a two-inch poured pad with Astroturf that is tacked down, rather than cemented, making the mini-stadium unique in the United States. When the facility opened, it was nominated as one of Athletic Business Magazine's top-10 national designs. Busch Field is also located next to an irrigated natural grass area that is used for recreational sports.

In the spring and summer of 2009, William and Mary embarked upon a total reconstruction of the playing surface, pulling up the old carpet and tearing out the sub-base before re-sealing the area with an asphalt base, and tacking down a new Astroturf 12TM surface. The field surface is now identical to that used at the U.S. National Team Training Centers, and to that used at every Olympics since 1976. Also part of the reconstruction was a new, green, irrigation system with a dedicated well and sophisticated drainage system that recaptures both the water drawn from the well and runoff from precipitation to keep the source replenished.

At one time, Busch Field was home to William and Mary field hockey, men's and women's soccer and lacrosse programs. With the completion of Albert-Daly Field in 2003, Busch Field has become the exclusive home of W&M field hockey.

In its 20 seasons, the Tribe has only had two losing seasons at home. Combined with its impressive overall mark, the College also has had success in conference play at Busch Field. The Tribe is 46-25 (.648) in conference affairs, both regular season and post season, at Busch Field. The facility has played host to a trio of Colonial Athletic Association Field Hockey Championships (1993, 1998, and 2004).

Tribe Field Hockey

Senior All-Conference Midfielder Wesley Drew

The William and Mary field hockey team looks to build on a strong finish to last season and use that to vault back into the national discussion and earn a spot in the 2009 NCAA Championships. With eight of the top 10 scorers returning from the 2008 squad, head coach Peel Hawthorne ('80) looks to have the deepest and most experienced squad in several years, and will add the talents of seven freshmen as well.

FORWARD

The attacking third will be led by junior Jenna Cinalli, the Tribe's top option a year ago and one of the best forwards in the CAA. Cinalli has well-established herself as one of the main beneficiaries of her teammate's passes, leading W&M with eight goals last season and adding a pair of assists for 18 total points. She had a pair of game-winners, including in the CAA tournament against Hofstra, and ranked among the conference's top-10 scorers in conference play, with five of her eight goals coming against CAA opponents.

Joining Cinalli up front in likely starting roles will be redshirt-sophomores Mikala Savaides and Kelsey Nawalinski, one year after both earned all-rookie honors for the Tribe. Savaides started every match for W&M and totaled 10 points on four goals and two assists while placing 16 of her 21 shots on-goal, while Nawalinski started 18 of the team's 21 matches in her redshirt-freshman season and is deadly both on the run and in penalty-corner sets with three goals and two assists to her credit.

In the mix either to start or pick up significant playing time as reserves are three veterans in senior Sarah Louie, junior Michelle Krewinghaus, and junior Rebecca Wagner. Wagner was one of the team's top options in 2008, scoring four goals and four assists during the season, including three tallies to first put W&M on the scoreboard. Louie and Krewinghaus were the top two reserves last season, appearing in 14 and 13 matches, respectively, and totaling six shots between them.

Freshman Ashley Kyle is also expected to serve up front, after a standout prep career at Scripps Ranch in San Diego. She was a two-time all-state honoree for the Falcons, and led the team to each of the last two CIF Division 2 state titles. Named MVP of the state championship in 2007, Kyle graduated with 53 goals and 37 assists, including 27 and 19 in 2008.

MIDFIELD

Without question the deepest part of the field for W&M will be the midfield, where no players graduated last year, and none of the seven returning veterans appeared in fewer than 19 matches. The leaders in the midfield and on the team will be senior Wesley Drew and junior Jenna Cinalli, who ranked as the top two scorers for W&M in 2008.

Drew was a first-team All-CAA and all-state honoree after last season, when she fed 10 assists to her teammates while accounting for five goals by herself. Her 10 assists marked the first time since 1990 that a Tribe player had reached double-digits in assists, and was just the fourth such effort all-time at the College.

Also likely to battle for starting spots are the trio of Kelsey Jackson, Leah Zamesnik and Erica Eng. A senior, Jackson will be counted on to hold or improve her pace of seven points (three goals, one assist) in 19 games from 2008. As a true freshman, Zamesnik played all 21 matches in 2008, starting 19, and scored two goals and had two assists, including the game-winner in overtime against Hofstra on October 12. Eng also scored a pair of goals in her 20 appearances to go with a lone assist, and topped the team with nine of her 11 shots coming on-goal.

Providing depth will be the final two returnees, as well as a bumper crop of four freshmen. Junior Liz Loudy made three starts in 20 appearances last season, and sophomore Caitlyn Davies had eight starts in 19 appearances as a true freshman. Lynsey Clyburn also joined the team last year after earning a pair of all-state honors for Granby in Norfolk, Virginia, and will have four years of eligibility remaining after redshirting in 2008.

True-freshmen in the midfield will include Ali Moran and Sarah Morehouse. Moran played her high-school hockey at Merion Mercy Academy in Pennsylvania, where she earned first-team all-state accolades in 2008 while leading her team to the state title game. A second-team all-state honoree in 2007, Moran scored 11 goals as a senior. Morehouse is an imposing 5-8 presence in the midfield, and led Lake Braddock Secondary to Patriot District championships each of her first three years. Named first-team all-district and to the district all-tournament team in 2007, she was forced to sit as a senior due to injuries while her teammates ran to the Virginia AAA state semifinals, but was voted team MVP following the season in recognition of her leadership and dedication.

DEFENSE

The defense looks to be much improved from a year ago, when the unit ranked among the NCAA's top-50. Returning at the forefront is a pair of fourth-year veterans in Maura Checchio and Courtney Farino. After redshirting her freshman year, Checchio has been one of the team' top defenders for the past two seasons, starting 33 of her 37 matches including 19 of 20 in 2008. Last season, she earned her first career assist and point on a penalty corner against Longwood. Farino may have only appeared in 13 matches last year, but she led the team and ranked third in the CAA with four defensive saves on the year. Farino's total is the third-most for W&M in the last 10 years, behind only All-American Anna Davis' ('06) 11 in 2005 and seven in 2004.

Also looking to fight for a starting job will be several returning veterans, including redshirt-sophomore Jen Harr, junior Danielle Scissom, and sophomore Ashley Kintzing. Harr made nine appearances as a reserve last year, and scored the team's only goal against fourth-ranked James Madison in the CAA semifinals. A key reserve each of the last two years, Scissom will look to make a move up the depth chart in 2009 after a great spring training effort. Similarly, Kintzing played only sparingly as a freshman, but has impressed in practice and will challenge for more exposure this year.

Two freshmen will be looked to primarily for depth, and to challenge to start as the season progresses. Maria Caro was a second-team All-American for Bridgewater-Raritan in New Jersey, leading her team to the North 2 Group IV championship match each of her four years. As the team captain in 2008, Caro scored 13 goals and a school-record 18 assists, including a hat-trick in the Group Semifinals. Christine Johnson played her high school career just up the street at Jamestown High School, and was first-team all-district, all-region, and all-state selection as a senior in 2008. Playing as a defender in 2006 and 2007, and in the midfield last year, Johnson totalled 21 goals for the Eagles.

GOALKEEPER

After earning CAA all-tournament honors last year in her first full season as the starting goalkeeper for the Tribe, redshirt-junior Carrie Thompson returns this year to make a run at all-region honors and to try and lead W&M back to the NCAA Tournament. She ranked just outside the national top-25 with 5.48 saves per contest in 2008, and in the CAA, ranked third in total saves with three shutouts including a 1-0 upset over No. 19 Rutgers.

In line to receive minutes at back-up to Thompson is a pair of underclassmen in redshirt-sophomore Camilla Hill and redshirt-freshman Elizabeth Frey. Hill appeared in three matches last season, including the entire second half against No. 5 Duke, and made 12 stops on a .632 save percentage. Frey was an all-state goalkeeper for Frank W. Cox High in Virginia Beach, and led the Falcons to the 2006 and 2007 state championships.

HEAD COACH PEEL HAWTHORI William & Mary

William & Mary (1980)

Entering her 23rd season on the sidelines for William and Mary, Peel Hawthorne is on the brink of tremendous personal milestones while also looking to direct her most talented and experienced team in years. Since returning to her alma mater in 1987, Hawthorne has compiled a 249-188-2 overall record (.569) and a 67-47 (.588) ledger in the Colonial Athletic Association. Including four seasons at Connecticut College, she is 280-205-5 (.577) in her coaching career, and will coach her 500th match this season when the Tribe hosts Northeastern on September 27th.

Entering the 2009 campaign, Hawthorne ranks highly on the national coaching lists, including the fourth most matches coached and the seventh most wins among active Division I head coaches.

Hawthorne has led William and Mary to the NCAA Tournament twice, in 2000 and again in 2002, ending a 20-year drought at the national level. After a 12-8 regular season in 2000, the Tribe was awarded one of eight at-large berths and took No. 5 Michigan to double-overtime before falling 3-2. Two years later, another 12-8 season produced another at-large selection, and another match-up with the No. 5-ranked team (this time Maryland), and another double-overtime affair that ended 2-1 against the Tribe.

Previously voted the CAA Coach of the Year in 1995 and 2001, Hawthorne won the award for a third time in 2004 while also earning her first state coach of the year honor after leading the Tribe to a 7-0 CAA record. It was the first time in school history that W&M had gone undefeated in conference play and was the first outright regular season league title in school history. In 2003, Hawthorne shepherded the Tribe to a 6-1 league record and the Green and Gold's first-ever share of the regular season CAA title.

She has mentored 34 players to a total of 52 all-region honors and has coached seven All-Americans, including five (Anna Davis, Kelli Duggan, Ann Ekberg, Kelly Giles and Claire Miller) in the last six seasons. Hawthorne also was selected as the W&M Society of the Alumni Coach of the Year following the 2001-02 academic year.

In 2004 and 2005, W&M players garnered the conference's top honor, both offensively and defensively. During the 2004 campaign, Kelly Giles became the first Tribe player to win Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Player of the Year honors. Along with that distinction, Giles garnered the VaSID State Player of the Year award, also becoming the first W&M player to be bestowed that honor. In 2005, Anna Davis took home the CAA Defensive Player of the Year award. She not only led the CAA, but ranked second nationally in defensive saves with 11.

Since W&M joined the CAA in 1991, Hawthorne's charges have collected 91 all-conference honors, including a program-high seven honorees in both 2000 and 2001. Coupled with the nine All-South Atlantic Conference selections during Hawthorne's first four seasons, the 22-year Tribe head coach has produced 100 all-conference performers and six Players of the Year. Since VaSID began honoring a field hockey all-state team in 2000, 19 of Hawthorne's players have garnered the distinction, including five in 2005.

Hawthorne's players have also enjoyed success in the classroom. In total, 22 players have received 45 National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) National Academic Squad honors since 1994. A record eight athletes were honored in 2007 and seven last fall, contributing in large part to the College earning distinction as a NFHCA National Academic Team each of the past two seasons.

Consistently one of the top teams in the CAA and competitive regionally and nationally, the Tribe has amassed a winning record in 16 of Hawthorne's 22 seasons at the helm, including 17 seasons of 10 or more victories. Since the CAA tournament ceased including every conference member in the 2000 season, W&M has missed the field only once, and been seeded first or second in five of the nine years. The CAA has sponsored field hockey as a championship sport since 1991, and in that span W&M is 12-17 in the conference tournament with appearances in the title game in 1991 and 2002.

TRIBE FIELD HOCKEY

Far and away the winningest coach in school history, Hawthorne's 249 career victories at the College are nearly three times as many as the 86 recorded by her former mentor, Nancy Porter, who coached at the College from 1974-80. Hawthorne set the school record in 1993, as the Tribe shut out Villanova, 2-0, on October 9. Including her four years as a player from 1976 through 1979, she has either coached or played in 292 (77 percent) of the W&M field hockey program's 377 victories since the start of the 1973 season.

The head field hockey and lacrosse coach at Connecticut College for four years before returning to W&M, Hawthorne produced three All-Americans, 15 All-New England players and six USFHA Northeast players while posting a 31-17-3 (.637) record with the Camels. As lacrosse coach, she led her teams to a 35-15-1 (.696) record and four postseason bids.

In 2005, she was a member of the W&M Athletics Task Force and was part of the NCAA Re-Certification Subcommittee on Equity and Welfare. A member of many professional organizations, Hawthorne is a former Division I representative for the National Field Hockey Coaches Association, has served as the South Region Chair for the NCAA Division I Field Hockey Committee, and has served as a member of the South Region All-America Selection Committee. In 2003, she was head coach for the South team at the NFHCA Senior All-Star Game.

Hawthorne holds a U.S. Field Hockey Association Level II coaching certification, was site director and head coach of several USFHA Development Camps, and was the Head Futures Coach for eastern Virginia. She also served as a USFHA summer league volunteer coach and is the director of the Colonial Field Hockey Campheld each June at W&M. She has experience as a field hockey clinician at many levels, hosting the NFHCA Coaches Clinic at W&M, as well as participating in VHSLCA and NCAA Youth Education through Sports (YES) clinics.

Hawthorne also served for nine years on the Executive Committee of the U.S. Women's Lacrosse Association and is past chair of that organization's Sports Medicine committee. As a member of the American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) subcommittee on Eye Safety in Sports, Hawthorne chaired the organization's task force on women's lacrosse. She was instrumental in establishing an ASTM manufacturing standard for protective eye wear for the sport.

A field hockey and lacrosse standout at W&M, Hawthorne graduated with a bachelor's of science degree in physical education in 1980. In her career, the Tribe field hockey team posted a record of 52-13-7 and made two trips to the AIAW Nationals, finishing fifth in 1979. A defender, she helped the team allow just 0.92 goals per game during her career, while scoring five goals. The Tribe totaled 37 shutouts in her career, more than half the total number of games played in the span and the most in any four-year period in school history. Hawthorne was an NATA certified athletic trainer for six years and has an M.Ed. in the field from Virginia. She enjoys water skiing and has been an instrumentalist and vocalist for a contemporary Christian band for 12 years.

TRIBE FIELD HOCKEY

A fixture on the Tribe sidelines for most of the past decade, Quan Nim Anderson was promoted to associate head coach entering her ninth season as the top assistant at William and Mary. A 1999 graduate of the University of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in social work, she came to the Tribe after serving as the assistant coach at Davidson for one year.

During her eight years with the Tribe, the College has posted an overall record of 88-70 (.557), including a 34-22 (.607) ledger in Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) action. In 2004, Anderson helped guide the Tribe to its first perfect conference record at 7-0 in CAA play. Over the last six years, five W&M players have earned All-America accolades, including Anna Davis, who in 2005 became the first Tribe player to earn first-team honors since 1979. Over Anderson's eight-year career at W&M, 19 players have earned all-region and VaSID All-State honors, while 28 players have garnered All-CAA accolades.

In 2002, the Tribe amassed a 12-9 overall mark and received one of eight at-large bids in the NCAA Tournament. Despite putting a scare in the No. 5 Maryland Terrapins, the Tribe fell 2-1 in double overtime. In the last seven years, William and Mary owns 13 wins over teams ranked in the top 20, including five over top 10 competition.

As a senior at Iowa in 1999, Anderson received second-team NFH-CA All-America honors and was named to the All-Big Ten and all-region first teams and the NCAA All-Tournament squad. She also earned all-region honors in 1995 and 1998 and was a second-team All-Big Ten pick in 1998. Anderson played in 86 games at Iowa and finished with 69 points on 29 goals and 10 assists. She was a two-year captain and received the Dr. Patricia Hicks Award given for overcoming adversity and showing perseverance and great strength of character.

During her career, Anderson served as the site director and head coach of the under-19 team for the USFHA Futures Regional site at W&M and has coached regional teams at National Futures tournaments since 2002. In 2004, Anderson was a member of the NFHCA Regional All-America selection committee, and in 2003, she was the assistant coach for the South team in the USFHA North/South Senior All-Star game.

Anderson is married to Jeff Anderson. The couple has two daughters, Dakota (4), and Gabriella (2).

Kristen McCann is entering her third season with the W&M field hockey program this fall after joining the Tribe in the spring of 2007. She has brought a wealth of experience to Williamsburg after earning All-America honors at North Carolina and playing on the U.S. National Team for five years. Prior to joining the W&M staff, McCann coached the Walsingham Academy team in Williamsburg.

McCann played with the U.S. National Team from 2000-04. During that stretch, she earned 74 International caps and tallied 20 goals. She played in the World Cup in Perth, Australia, helping the U.S. to a ninth place finish. McCann also earned a silver medal on the 2003 Pan American Games team.

During her career at North Carolina, McCann was a two-time All-American, earning first-team accolades as a senior in 2000. She guided UNC to a national runner up finish in 2000, while earning ACC Player of the Year honors. She also helped the Tar Heels to the 1997 National Championship, scoring 12 goals as a redshirt-freshman. McCann was named to the ACC 50th Anniversary team in 2002 after scoring 59 career goals for UNC.

McCann earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from North Carolina in 2001. In May of 2007, she completed her master's from William and Mary in public policy.

PICKING UP STEAM

After a trying start against one of the most difficult schedules in the CAA, William and Mary got the ball rolling once conference play started, splitting the CAA schedule at 4-4 and returning to the conference tournament after a one-year hiatus. Included in that five-week stretch were seven of the team's eight victories, including shutout wins over Longwood, Virginia Commonwealth, and No. 19 Rutgers.

GOING THE EXTRA MILE

William and Mary had six matches go into extra periods in 2008, the most in the CAA and just one shy of the program record set by the 1983 squad. The Tribe went 3-3 in those contests, with single-overtime wins against Penn (3-2), Towson (2-1), and Hofstra (6-5). Only one match went beyond the first overtime period, a heart-breaker that Delaware won on penalty strokes.

A HELPING HAND

Junior Wesley Drew led the Tribe with 10 assists on the year, becoming just the fourth W&M player to have 10 or more helpers in a season and the first since Joanie Quinn dished out 10 in 1990. Perhaps more impressive still, Drew accomplished the feat without having any game with more than one assist, joining Karen Thorne (11 in 1982) as the only two athletes to do so. On the average of 0.48 assists per game, Drew ranks third in school history behind Thorne's 1982 mark (.61 apg) and Pixie Hamilton's 0.5 apg in 1979 (11 in 22 games).

GOLDEN PLAY FOR SILVER WIN

With the 1-0 upset over 19th-ranked Rutgers at Busch Turf last October, the Tribe field hockey team picked up not only its first win of the season over a ranked team, but the 25th victory over a top-20 team in the last 16 years. No. 19 is a dangerous place to be when playing W&M - since 1993, the Tribe is 6-1 in games against that ranking.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT

The 2008 squad had only three seniors on it, setting up 2009 to be run by a very deep and experienced group of veterans. Lost to graduation were just 19 of the 108 points scored (seven of 39 goals, five of 30 assists), and 50 of 212 shots taken.

TOUGH ODDS

Fourteen of the Tribe's 21 opponents were either ranked in the national top-20, or receiving votes just outside of it, when they squared off with the College on the field. In the final NCAA RPI, W&M ranked 34th in the nation, with only one team ahead of them winning fewer than eight games (Michigan, 8-12) and just four other teams finishing under .500. Despite an 8-13 record, W&M finished ahead of eight teams that finished .500 or better, and six of those won 10 or more games.

MAKING A GREAT FIRST IMPRESSION

Entering the CAA tournament as the No. 4-seed, William and Mary downed Hofstra for the second time in 2008 in the conference quarterfinals, and improved its record in the tournament's opening round to 10-2 all-time.

EXPAND THE TROPHY CASE

Welsey Drew was elected a team captain while only a junior and backed up that honor with outstanding play during the season, scoring five goals and 10 assists to lead the team with 20 points. She earned numerous post-season accolades, including All-CAA first-team, VaSID all-state first-team, selection to the CAA All-Tournament team, and the W&M President's Award for field hockey.

Former Tribe standouts Jes Kacerek (left) and Katie Broaddus (right) presented Virginia Tech President Charles W. Steger with a check for the Hokie Spirt Memorial Fund along with a plaque and shirt.

Student-athletes are often acclaimed for what they do on the field and in the classroom, but it is particularly heartwarming to see the fruits of their giving back to the community. Those sentiments are evident in the William and Mary field hockey program as they have donated their time and effort to the benefit of the community in various facets. Particularly, over the last two seasons, the Tribe has undertaken two community projects to benefit former Tribe player Jessica Nixon, who is battling cancer, during the spring of 2008 and in helping to raise money for the Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund in the aftermath of the tragic shooting on the Virginia Tech campus in 2007.

HOKIE SPIRIT MEMORIAL FUND

Following the tragic events at Virginia Tech during the spring of 2007, the William and Mary field hockey team designed and sold t-shirts to help raise money for the Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund. Led by 2008 graduate Jes Kacerek and current senior Katie Broaddus, the Tribe rallied around, designed t-shirts with the help of local sports appearal store Colonial Sports, and sold them to faculty and students. While the gesture sent a message, the outpouring of support from both the campus and the Williamsburg community was overwhelming.

In just 15 minutes, the group sold out of the 150 shirts that Colonial Sports had produced, and by noon, the team had taken over 1,000 orders for additional shirts from students and staff. Colonial Sports also began selling the shirts at its location, and more than 3,000 shirts were sold.

Each shirt cost $10 with all the proceeds going to benefit the Hokie Spirit Memorial Fund, which was used to cover the expenses that include assistance to the victims and their families, grief counseling, memorials, communications expenses and comfort expenses. The maroon T-shirts were emblazoned with the logos of the William and Mary and Virginia Tech. The back of the shirts read "Today we are all Hokies. April 16, 2007." The timing of the original sale coincided with "Orange and Maroon Effect" Day on April 20, and many of the shirts were visible during the ceremony at the Wren Building on the campus of William and Mary.

The idea sprung from a text message between Broaddus and Kacerek. The original idea was to come up with something that everyone could wear to the "Orange and Maroon Effect" Day ceremony. The hope was to sell the remaining shirts and donate the money to the Hokie fund, and they far out-reached those expectations.

On May 9, Broaddus and Kacerek made the four-hour trek to Blacksburg to meet with Virginia Tech President Charles W. Steger. The William and Mary students spent 30 minutes with the Hokie President. Along with a check for the Hokie fund, they presented him with a shirt and a plaque embroidered with the Virginia Tech and William and Mary logos with the slogan, "Today we are all Hokies. April 16, 2007."

STIX FOR NIX

In April of 2008, the Tribe held various fundraisers to help benefit former field hockey captain and 2003 graduate of the College Jessica Nixon, who is battling cancer.

"It was a remarkable weekend," head coach Peel Hawthorne said. "We had so much support from so many people. I have spent a lot of years coaching teams, but I have never felt more proud of the Tribe family. It was a moving experience to see the accomplishments of these young alumnae who have rallied around their lifelong friend and teammate. We even had the parents of alumnae come back to participate in the day. Jess' battle with colon cancer continues, but what an inspiration she is. All the qualities that made her an exceptional student-athlete are now being channeled into her fight with this disease. She is making great progress, and it was really something special to see her walk the 5k course and be cheered at the finish line by all the participants and organizers."

The weekend began with the Stix for Nix 5K Fun Run fundraiser, which was organized by Nixon's former teammates Jordan Steele Marrota (Class of 2003), Julie Zoolkoski (Class of 2003), Ann Ekberg (Class of 2003) and head coach Peel Hawthorne. Carl Zoolkoski, brother of Julie Zoolkoski, served as race director, and the Steele family of Williamsburg also lent a hand with Jordan's brother Joey, sister Jocelyn, mother and grandmother assisting with planning, publicity and registration. Sisters from Pi Beta Phi sorority also assisted with publicity and served as course marshalls, while Tribe field hockey palyers and SAAC reps assisted throughout the day as well.

The 5k was followed by a field hockey tournament featuring W&M, Davidson, VCU and Radford as well as a W&M Alumnae squad. Approximately 25 former players participated in the 5K and/or the tournament, including Davidson head coach Ginny Sutton (Class of 2005), VCU head coach Kelly McQuade (Class of 2005), VCU assistant coach Shannon Karl (Class of 2006), Monmouth University assistant coach Maggie Long (Class of 2007), Zoolkoski, who is the head coach of American International, and Steele, who is an assistant coach at Stanford University. The race raised approximately $10,000 for the Stix for Nix organization, which was formed to benefit Nixon and Colon Cancer research and awareness.

On Sunday, April 13, former W&M assistant Tess Ellis (RA-Dathletics) organized a fundraiser hockey clinic at Busch field. Approximately 65 players from ages 8-17 participated. Alumnae coaches Sutton, McQuade, Karl, Long, Zoolkoski and Steele volunteered for the day as did W&M head coach Peel Hawthorne and assistant coach Quan Nim Anderson. Former Tribe players Jes Kacerek (Class of 2008) and Ann Ekberg (Class of 2003) as well as current freshman Camilla Hill (Class of 2011) assisted with the clinic which raised an additional $3.600 for the Stix for Nix cause.

Additional information on Stix for Nix can be found at http://www.stixfornix.org.

The Stix for Nix 5K race raised approximately $10,000 to benefit former Tribe player Jessica Nixon and Colon Cancer research and awareness.

William and Mary game-by-game results for every season since 1973. William and Mary was a member of the South Atlantic Field Hockey/Lacrosse Conference from 1985 through 1990. W&M began playing field hockey as a member of the Colonial Athletic Association when the league first sponsored the sport in 1991.
The CAA champion has always been determined by a postseason tournament.

The College of William and Mary is a public university located in Williamsburg, Va. Founded in 1693 by Royal Charter issued by King William III and Queen Mary II of England, William and Mary is the second oldest college in the country after Harvard. William and Mary has a long history of liberal arts education and a growing research and science curriculum that demonstrates a strong commitment to undergraduate research. The College, which became a state university in 1906, has been designated a "Public Ivy," and for nine straight years has been ranked by U.S. News & World Report as the sixth-best public university in the country – and the nation's top small public university.

Also referred to as "the alma mater of a nation," the College has educated four U.S. Presidents - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler, which is the third most of any college in the country. William and Mary also claims several firsts, including the 1776 creation of Phi Beta Kappa - the country's first academic honor society - the first honor code of conduct for college students, and the first collegiate law school, established in 1779. William and Mary is also home to the Sir Christopher Wren Building - the country's oldest academic building still in use - and the President's House, the oldest home of a university president still in use.

WILLIAM & MARY FACTS

Second oldest educational institution in the U.S.

In addition to four U.S. Presidents, W&M has educated a number of this country's key historical figures, including U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice John Marshall and 16 signers of the Declaration of Independence.

W&M is one of only eight U.S. institutions of higher education designated a "Public Ivy." A Public Ivy is a stateassisted institution that offers a superior education at a cost far below that of Ivy League schools.

U.S. News ranked W&M sixth among all public colleges and universities and 32nd among both public and private institutions in 2009.

> Newsweek named W&M "hottest small state university" in 2006.

U.S News and World Report rated the School of Education 48th in the country in 2010.

W&M ranked 18th in graduation rates for national universities in 2009.

The Princeton Review named W&M a the 'Best of the - 10mg Southeast' school in 2009.

The W&M Law School ranked 30th in the nation in 2008.

The History Department's doctoral program ranked fourth in the nation for U.S. Colonial History in 2010.

W&M ranked as the sixth-best public university in the country in the inaugural guide, "America's Best Colleges 2008" by Forbes Magazine.

The Princeton Review rated W&M the third among the top 50 best value public colleges nationally in 2009.

Phi Beta Kappa, the premier academic honor society in America, was founded by W&M students in 1776.

W&M's 11-to-1 student-faculty ratio is the lowest among the top public universities. Nearly 50 percent of William and Mary's classes have fewer than 20 students.

W&M libraries, including the main Earl Swem Library, were rated the eighth best College Library in the Country by the Princeton Review in 2008.

Business Week rated the W&M Undergraduate Business Program in the top 10 among Public Institutions in the Forbes Magazine ranked W&M's MBA program in the top - 50.

William and Mary is committed to building and maintaining outstanding facilities for all 23 of its varsity athletic teams. The College has demonstrated this commitment by investing approximately $16 million toward the construction and upgrade of its athletics facilities during just the last six years. Among W&M's recent projects was the completion of the $11 million, 30,000-square foot Jimmye Laycock Football Center, which was dedicated in June of 2008. This past summer, the Laycock Center renovated the foyer to include photos, information and memorablia on the Tribe's storied football tradition.

This past summer, Busch Field experienced a renovation that included a total revamp of the field, underlying pad, water cannon and drainage system. The renovation created a competition surface that ranks alongside those used at the U.S. National Training Centers in Virginia Beach, Va., Chula Vista, Calif., and that used at last year's Olympic Games.

In 2005, Kaplan Arena received an upgrade with the installation of 6,900-square foot permanent wood floor along with rubberized sports flooring on the open end of the arena to accomodate track and field and other multi-purpose activities. A year earlier, the home of Tribe soccer and lacrosse, Albert-Daly Field was dedicated, providing the programs with a $1 million all-natural grass facility.
