ALMA MATER

Hark, the student's voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear,
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee,
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sanded
Shall the years go by,
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry.
Bless the college of our fathers,
Let her never die.

President of the Advisory Board

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

The Christian work on the campus is carried on co-operatively by the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations. Each Association has its own constitution and form of organization and interpretation of purpose. But in order that certain phases of the work may be better carried out, a joint effort is made in these particular respects.

Organization:

The Y. W. C. A. CABINET and the Y. M. C. A. CABINET are the two executive arms of the student membership. They are ultimately the controlling voice in the carrying out of plans and the directing of the work.

The ADVISORY BOARD consists of the President of the College, the general secretary of the Christian Associations, and eleven members of the faculty elected by the two cabinets. The functions of this Advisory Board are: (a) to hire the general secretary and fix his salary; (b) to have general charge with the two cabinets of the financial campaign and with them to approve the budgets of the two Associations; (c) to assist and approve the plans and policies of the Associations.

The GENERAL SECRETARY of the CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS has the general administration of the work of the Christian Associations.

The object of the Association is to create a fellowship of students vitally interested in the highest meanings of life, and thereby to develop the highest type of Christian character in the men who are to represent the College, and to influence them to devote themselves to the Christianizing of all relationships. The Association aims to be the expression of practical Christianity. It is for those who believe not in knowledge for the sake of knowledge alone, but for what it can do in creating deep moral convictions of right and personal standards of worth.

MEMBERSHIP in the Association may be either active, or associate. Every man who contributes may become a member. Opportunity will be given all those who wish some active part in the work.

For the purpose of securing efficiency in the organization the Young Men's Christian Association on the campus has been centralized and divided into four great departments under which all activities of the Association can be classified. Any student, either freshman or older man, who is interested in extra curriculum work can find some phase of service in one or the other of these departments for which he is particularly suited and which will open the way for a more responsible position on the cabinet the following year.

ADMINISTRATION: Heading this important division is the President of the Y. M. C. A. and those making up this department give their time more to the perfecting of the organization as a unit rather than to aiding in outside service. The regular officers of the Y., vice-president, secretary, and treasurer naturally are placed in this department. Besides these are the editor and business manager of the Handbook. There is an assistant in finance whose work it is to handle finances and direct the financial campaign.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: To aid in realizing the aim of this department, which is "To interpret through various means, the life and teachings of Christ for the College student" the director has divided his work into committees under the guidance of a chairman. Devotional meetings with varying programs such as: open forums, music, pageants, lectures, etc., under the leadership of the chairman, offer unlimited opportunities for service and leadership. The committee on Christian World Education tries to bring to the attention of the campus through speakers, literature, and discussion the importance of education along the lines of new social gospel, industrial relations, race relations, and international relations.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: This department aims to extend the purpose and message of the Christian Association to groups outside the college community, and to provide ample means of expression to students for their ideals of service. Deputation to churches is one of the most useful of any of the Y. functions. A series of sacred concerts given in neighboring cities will feature this work during the coming year.

CAMPUS SERVICE: This department has for its aim the meeting of the social and general welfare needs of the student body. A special social committee is planning some interesting things for the coming year. A committee has charge of freshman work. This committee co-operated with other organizations in serving the freshman in every way possible. The Y. room, which Mrs. Blow gave and so handsomely equipped, is left to this department to care for and keep as convenient as possible for the students.

THE HONOR SYSTEM AT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in the formulation and adoption of the Honor System. It was inaugurated here in 1779. Early in college days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has continued in actual and successful working without interruption until the present day.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things; first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and the class rooms, and second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the formal examinations, as well as in all latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

1930-1931

To the Students and Prospective Students of the College of William and Mary:

In order that there may be a thorough understanding of the Honor System as it is interpreted and will be applied in the College of William and Mary in Virginia, we, the members of the Students' Honor Councils are sending each student and prospective student this circular letter.

By matriculation into the College the student pledges himself to maintain the Honor System. If the student does not wish to uphold this Honor System he must not matriculate.

The Honor System is the very foundation of student life in the College of William and Mary. This must be understood by every student at the outset. The Honor System is not merely a name nor is it a convenient means of escaping spying by the Faculty. The College of William and Mary has the distinction of having first originated and introduced the Honor System into American collegiate life, the System having been established here in 1779, and has been in continued existence here ever since. The Honor System has always been and must be maintained as the working principle of student life and as the indispensable expression of the spirit of the College of William and Mary. The Honor System simply requires that a student should act honorably, no more, no less.

Stealing, cheating, the violation of a written pledge, and the failure or refusal to report such offenses are breaches of honor upon which a student may be placed on trial by his fellow students, to determine whether he is fit to continue a member of the College.

As applied to scholastic work the following interpretations of the Honor System are set forth by the Student Honor Councils:

- I. All scholastic work, whether it be in the lecture room, the library, the student's room, or elsewhere, is under the Honor System. All cheating, whether in work pledged or unpledged, whether in tests, assignments, or examinations is a violation of the Honor System. Giving aid to any student or receiving aid from any student, without the consent of the professor, in tests, assignments, or examinations, is cheating.
- II. All written tests and examinations given in the classroom will require a formal pledge. The pledge is required not for the purpose of creating the obligation but to remind the student of the obligation already existing under the Honor System.
- III. For any forms of scholastic work other than written examinations and tests in which the professor desires the use of a pledge, the professor or instructor will prescribe the form of pledge to be used and will make clear the scope of the pledge and responsibility of the individual under the pledge.

The student's "sense of honor" is not inherited; it is acquired. And it is acquired in some specific environment. It is therefore relative to that environment. In the College of William and Mary the older students furnish the environment; and unless the older student jealously guard the Honor System by reporting cases of dishonor and ostracizing the dishonest, the new students will not acquire that "sense of honor" necessary for an efficient Honor System.

The Honor System is supported and handled by the students themselves and they are wholly responsible for it. Violations of the Honor Code are reported, not to the Faculty, but to the Student Honor Councils. It is the duty of every student to report another student seen in a dishonorable act. Loyalty to the student body demands it. If a student fails to report another student because he is a close associate the Honor System is defunct. Reporting cases is not spying or talebearing, for the Honor Councils are representatives of students themselves.

THE INDIAN WAR CRY

I

The Indians are taking the war path today,
Old Green, Gold and Silver plunge into the fray.
The fight may be hard and the game may be long,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

CHORUS

William and Mary forever and aye!
Cheer her again, boys, we'll yet win the day—Ray!
Tri-color's waving, it floats there on high,
An emblem of vict'ry touching the sky.
So shout out the war cry and fight to the end,
They'll never, no never, beat W. & M!

II

Their line's shot to pieces, their backs cannot gain,
Just watch the old Indians romp away with this game.
We've got them all going, there's nothing to fear,
So rally again now and give the old cheer: RAY!

III

When the fight goes against us, struggling in vain,
When all of their efforts seem surely to gain,
When hope seems to leave us, the chances all gone,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

SOME THINGS TO REMEMBER

NIGHT FOOTBALL

All home football games are played at night. William and Mary inaugurated this system some years ago, and since then many colleges and universities have adopted the idea.

CHEERING

All freshmen are compelled to attend football games. They are expected to learn the cheers immediately upon arrival, and to purchase megaphones at the college shop. Obtaining megaphones—which are very small and inexpensive—is demanded of the incoming class, men and women alike, who must bring them to all home games. Failure to comply with this rule will subject parties concerned to penalties instigated by the head cheer-leader.

FRESHMAN RULES

Hazing is absolutely not permitted at William and Mary. Shortly after registration, upper classmen are appointed to issue specific rules by which the frosh must abide. These will be published in The Flat Hat and all freshmen are expected to know them.

MAKING FRIENDS

It is an age-old custom for students at William and Mary to exchange salutations. Whether names are known or not, a “hae, gentlemen,” or “hae,” or “hello” is expected. Conceit or egotism in the freshman class is ousted by the upperclassmen, who demand respect from all newcomers of the first year.

Shortly after the beginning of the term, the Christian Associations instigate a reception at which men and women are given the chance to become acquainted, not only with members of their class, but with all officers of administrations.

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES FEE

This fee is mentioned here because it is separate and distinct from those fees assessed by the administration. The students' activities fee is not compulsory, but is necessary for students who participate in athletics, debate, dramatics, campus elections, and any other form of college activity not included in ordinary academic work.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

At William and Mary there are three literary societies, two for men, the Phoenix and Philomathean, and one for women, the J. Lesslie Hall. These societies hold weekly meetings, and from time to time, inter-society contests are held.

INTER-COLLEGIATE DEBATE

Inter-Collegiate debating at William and Mary is under the jurisdiction of two debate councils, one for men and one for women. During the past session, ambitious schedules were undertaken, William and Mary sending teams as far south as Georgia and as far west as Missouri.

DRAMATICS

Dramatics at William and Mary are governed by two organizations, the Dramatic Club, which puts on an annual play, and the Department of Dramatics under the direction of Miss Althea Hunt. Miss Hunt's dramatic classes produce their work before public audiences at various times during the year.

GLEE CLUBS

There are two Glee Clubs on the campus, one each for the men and women. During the past session, the men's club went into the Southern intercollegiate meet in South Carolina and placed second. The women's club took first place in the state. Each year the glee clubs present some type of play. Last year the joint glee clubs presented "Plus Mary" a musical comedy.

MUSICAL COMEDY

It is the practice of the Varsity Club, assisted by the Men's Glee Club, to offer each year a womanless musical comedy. These go by the same name each year and are merely numbered consecutively as "Minus Mary," "Minus Mary II," "Minus Mary III," "Plus Mary."

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The executive council of the men's social fraternities is known as the Inter-fraternity Council. Two representatives from each fraternity form this council, with a purpose of working together and forming an everlasting friendship.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL

The executive council of the women's social fraternities is known as the Pan-Hellenic Council. Two representatives from each fraternity form this council, with the same purpose as the men's fraternities.

CAMPUS
AND

LOOKING EAST FROM THE WREN BUILDING

THE CAMPUS TRIANGLE

THE WREN BUILDING

The Old Main Building, renamed the Sir Christopher Wren Building, after its famous designer, is the oldest of the campus group. For the most part, its walls are those of the original building structure of 1695. Until the close of the session 1927-28, it housed the academic subjects, exclusive of the sciences, law, and business administration. In the south wing was the original chapel, memorable for its valuable portraits, and its tablets in memory of former professors and distinguished alumni.

This is the only building in America designed by Sir Christopher Wren, who drew the plans for the Drury Lane Theatre and St. Paul's Cathedral in London.

The building was burned thrice, was used as a hospital during the Revolution and a Confederate Barracks in the Civil War; it was the state capitol from 1700 to 1705, and is now completely restored to its colonial likeness.

BRAFFERTON HALL

Southeast of the main building and facing the home of the president stands Brafferton Hall. Here are located some of the administrative offices of the college—those of the alumni secretary and the treasurer.

Brafferton Hall was built from funds derived from the estate of the Honorable Robert Boyle, the distinguished natural philosopher, who, in his will, had provided that four thousand pounds sterling of his money should be employed in "pious and charitable uses." Dr. Blair, the first president of the college, being in England at the death of Boyle, urged the Earl of Burlington, Boyle's nephew and executor, to direct the fund to the support of a school for Indians in connection with the College of William and Mary. Burlington invested the funds in an English manor called The Brafferton in Yorkshire, from which most of the rents were to go to the college in Virginia. Brafferton Hall was built in 1723 from the proceeds of the Brafferton estate, and until the beginning of the Revolutionary War was used as a school for Indians.

THE PRESIDENT'S HOUSE

The president's house is northeast of the Wren Building. Since its erection in 1732, 19 of the presidents of William and Mary have lived there, eleven of whom were ministers. Cornwallis drove President Madison from the home during the Revolution, and used it as his headquarters. While it was still occupied by French troops after Washington's victory, it was burned and restored at the personal expense of Louis XVI of France.

GROUNDS AND OTHER BUILDINGS

CITIZENSHIP BUILDING

The Citizenship Building is a two-story brick structure to the southwest of the main building. In this building are housed the Marshall-Wythe School of Government and Citizenship, the School of Jurisprudence and the School of Economics and Business Administration.

EWELL HALL

Ewell Hall, formerly called Science Hall, was erected in 1905. With the removal of the lecture rooms and laboratories to the buildings recently erected, it is occupied by the department of home economics, music, shorthand and typewriting.

ROGERS HALL

The William Barton Rogers Science Hall was erected in 1927 as a memorial to the alumnus of the college who founded the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It cost $300,000 completely equipped with laboratory apparatus and furniture. The ground floor houses the department of physics while the second and third floors house the department of chemistry. In addition to the standard laboratories for the various fields of physics and chemistry, there are lecture rooms, reading rooms, and private laboratories for research work. It is a fireproof building embodying many new features of laboratory construction. This building is the first one of an academic group which is planned.

WASHINGTON HALL

Washington Memorial Hall was erected in 1928 as a memorial to George Washington, licensed as a surveyor by the college in 1749, and the first Chancellor of the college after the Revolution. The building cost $200,000.00.

The ground floor houses the Department of Biology while the second and third floors furnish lecture rooms and offices for the Departments of Education, English, Fine Arts, Mathematics, Philosophy, Latin and Modern Languages. In addition to lecture rooms the first floor accommodates the offices of the Dean of the College, Dean of Men, Dean of Women and the Registrar.

The building is of fireproof construction and is the second of the group of academic buildings planned by the administration.

COLLEGE LIBRARY

Before 1908, the library was immediately back of the Chapel in the main building of the College. In 1908 a new building was erected with funds given by Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the College. In 1921, the Carnegie Corporation gave an additional $25,000. This money was used in erecting a larger stack room. The rapid growth of the College in the past few years had made it necessary to enlarge the stack room again, and to provide additional reading room accommodations. With an appropriation from the State of Virginia the old building has been enlarged at a cost of $120,000.00 by the erection of a three story structure between the former reading room and the stack room. The library will now have capacity for about 400,000 volumes and reading room space for 500 students at one time. At the north end of the stack room, cataloging and office rooms have been erected. The basement of the new three story structure has been so built that it may be used in the future as an additional stack room. The new reading room on the first floor connects with the old reading room. A fund of $20,000 has been given by Mr. William Lawrence Saunders and Jennie Morton Saunders to furnish this room suitably in memory of their uncle, Robert Saunders, former president of the College. On the second floor there is an additional reading room, almost as large as the first which will be used for periodicals and special collections of reserved books. On the third floor is a very comfortable reading room which will be set aside for the law library. The library has at this time 70,000 books, and an unusually valuable collection of rare books and manuscripts. The most valuable books and manuscripts, together with the college records, will be kept in a new concrete vault, built for this purpose. The collection of manuscripts is constantly receiving valuable accessions through gifts from the many friends of the College. The books are cataloged according to the Dewey decimal system. A dictionary card catalog, kept up to date by the use of the printed cards of the Library of Congress, makes the resources of the library available. About 5,000 books are added to the library annually. The number of current periodicals regularly received is 500.

On the walls of the new reading rooms will be hung portraits of distinguished alumni, eminent Virginians and benefactors of the College. The portraits belonging to the College constitute one of the most valuable collections of early original portraits in the United States. Students are encouraged to consult books not only in the reading rooms but also in the stack room, to which they are admitted at all times without any formality. As the library is conducted according to the honor system, any dishonorable practice on the part of a student will be referred to the men's honor council or to the women's honor council. To increase the serviceableness of the library, the librarian offers each semester a series of thirty-six lectures in the use of reference books, for which a student receives two credits. The library is open every day in the year from 8:30 to midnight, except Sunday, when the hours are from 2 p. m. until midnight.

SAUNDERS READING ROOM

As a memorial to Robert Saunders, Professor of Mathematics, 1833-1848, President of William and Mary, 1847-1848, the large reading room on the first floor of the library has been equipped at a cost of $20,000.00 by William Lawrence Saunders and Jennie Morton Saunders.

PHI BETA KAPPA MEMORIAL HALL

The Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall was completed and opened for use in November, 1926. The funds for the erection of this hall were furnished by the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa as a memorial to the fifty founders of the Society. The building is used as an auditorium and as a home for Phi Beta Kappa guests.

THE GEORGE PRESTON BLOW MEMORIAL GYMNASIUM

This building was given to the college in 1924 by Mrs. George Preston Blow, of Yorktown, Virginia, and La Salle, Illinois, and by her children, in memory of Captain George Preston Blow, of the United States Navy, whose father and grandfather were alumni of the college. It is one of the largest and best equipped gymnasiums in the South, containing a standard size swimming pool, shower baths, lockers, basketball court, large gymnasium hall, running tracks, monogram and trophy room, and a large hall for Y. M. C. A. and other meetings. In addition to the dedication tablet, a large bronze tablet in the entrance hall carries an inscription, setting forth the purpose to which the building is dedicated.

CARY FIELD PARK

The whole campus of the college contains about three hundred and fourteen acres, one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared. The eastern portion of the campus, covering about thirty acres, is used for buildings; the western portion is used for athletic purposes. The latter portion of the campus is known as Cary Field Park, named in honor of T. Archibald Cary, who gave the funds for grading the baseball and football grounds and for building the grandstand. Additional ground has been graded and affords ample room for all outdoor sports.

THE MIRIAM ROBINSON MEMORIAL CONSERVATORY

The Miriam Robinson Memorial Conservatory was erected in 1926, on the South Campus, adjoining Tyler Hall, through the joint efforts of the Board of Visitors and friends of the College, in memory of the little girl whose name it bears.

It consists of a greenhouse for decorative plants, a well-equipped laboratory or class room for teaching practical floriculture, and a cool house at the opposite end of Tyler Hall for class work.

An apartment for the use of the Director of the Conservatory, between the north greenhouse and Tyler Hall, has been enlarged during the past year. The purpose of this Conservatory is to provide for classes in practical floriculture, which are given as electives, without fees from the students or cost to the College, and emphasizes the cultural value of flowers and decoration in education.

Due to the activities of the Conservatory, considerable planting has been done on the campus, and a beautiful natural park, with an artificial lake, has been begun.

DORMITORIES FOR MEN

There are three dormitories for men with total accommodations for more than three hundred seventy-five students.

All dormitories are heated with steam, lighted with electricity, and screened. Each room is supplied with pure running water from the artesian well on the campus. There are hot and cold shower baths on each floor. The rooms contain all necessary furniture, such as steel lockers, dressers, tables, chairs and single iron bedsteads and mattresses. All freshman students except those coming daily from their homes are required to live in the college dormitories and board in the college dining hall.

TALIAFERRO DORMITORY

This is situated on the south side of the main thoroughfare leading to Jamestown. It has been remodeled so that the rooms are very comfortable. This dormitory accommodates forty men.

MONROE HALL

The men's dormitory known as Monroe Hall was opened for use in September, 1924. The cost of this hall, including equipment, is $200,000.00. It is a thoroughly modern fireproof structure containing memorials to many distinguished alumni and affording accommodations for 168 students.

Beginning with the session 1929-30 this building will be used exclusively by freshmen and adequate supervision for insuring satisfactory conditions for study will be provided.

OLD DOMINION HALL

The Old Dominion Hall, "The Virginia Hall of Fame," was completed in 1927 as a dormitory for men. It contains one hundred rooms, each room bearing the name of a Virginian who has played a prominent part in the making of our country. This building cost $175,000.00 and houses 170 men students. In addition to the dormitory rooms, it contains a Social Hall 90 feet by 40 feet, and two memorial parlors. It was opened for use September, 1927.

WASHINGTON HALL, COMPANION BUILDING TO ROGERS HALL

OLD DOMINION HALL—BOYS' DORMITORY

DORMITORIES FOR WOMEN

All women students of the college, except those who come daily from their homes, are required to live in the college dormitories and board in the college dining hall. Exceptions to this rule will be made only in the case of mature women who are twenty-five years of age or over.

TYLER HALL

Tyler Hall, built in 1916, is a three-story brick building containing twenty-seven very large, airy rooms, some of which have separate study and sleeping apartments. The construction of the building in two distinct units obviates the noise incident to long corridors. This hall also is distinctly modern in all its equipment. This dormitory will be used for men after the present session.

JEFFERSON HALL

Jefferson Hall, the dormitory for women, was erected by funds provided by the General Assembly in 1920. This brick building is two hundred feet by forty-one, and is in every respect modern, sanitary, and attractive. In the basement is a gymnasium eighty-eight by forty-one feet, and a swimming pool of the capacity of forty-five thousand gallons. The main, or ground floor, contains the main entrance, the parlors and the apartments for the director of women and for the women teachers. The second and third floors are the dormitories proper. The rooms are fourteen by fifteen feet in size, and each accommodates two students. There is in each room running water, hot and cold; two large closets, and two single iron beds, besides a dresser, a table and chairs. The building accommodates one hundred and twenty-five students.

The gymnasium in the basement of Jefferson Hall is modern in all respects. Its floor space, eighty-eight by forty-one feet, is sufficient for basketball and indoor games and exercises. Adjoining this open court are the swimming pool and the dressing rooms. The gymnasium is supplied with steel lockers, shower baths and modern equipment.

KATE WALLER BARRETT HALL

The Kate Waller Barrett Hall was erected by the college in 1927 as a memorial to Dr. Barrett, one of the leading figures in the movement for the higher education of women in the South, and at the time of her death in 1925 a member of the Board of Visitors of the College. It cost $225,000.00 complete, and houses 176 women students. It is the central building of three women's dormitories, one of which (Jefferson Hall) is already completed, and the other is to be constructed in the future. Barrett Hall is of modern fireproof construction.

CHANDLER HALL

Chandler Hall, named for the present President of the College, will be finished and ready for use in June, 1931. It is a three-story fire-proof building located on Jamestown Road and connected by an arcade to Barrett Hall. It cost $152,000, contains seventy-five bed rooms with connecting bath between each pair of rooms, and possesses all modern conveniences. Suites of rooms on the second and third floors may be used for housing women's fraternity groups.

FRATERNITY HOUSES

A number of fraternity houses afford comfortable accommodations for men or women. The Board of Visitors considers that the fraternity houses are subject to the same rules and regulations as the college dormitories. They can be entered at any time for inspection by members of the faculty and officers of the College.

THE PRACTICE HOUSE

The practice house, a feature of the department of home economics, is a large two-story frame structure. All remodeling and renovating were done under the supervision of the department, it presents a very attractive appearance.

Under the supervision of a professor, who is a member of the practice house family, a group of three or four students, juniors and seniors in home economics, lives in the practice house for a period of twelve weeks, and, during this time, does all the work of the household. Although it is not the purpose of the practice house to duplicate home conditions exactly, every effort is made to create a pleasing, home-like atmosphere, in which the students should form the highest possible standards for home-making. Visitors are welcome at all times.

TRINKLE HALL

The old dining hall, which has been remodeled and enlarged for the use of both men and women, has become one of the most attractive buildings on the campus. The building complete has cost $150,000.00, and seats from 900 to 1,000 students. It is sanitary, artistic, and beautiful. Especially has the main dining room hall been commented upon for its great beauty.

INFIRMARIES

The college maintains two infirmaries. In the one for men, which is a separate building off the campus proper, the college physician has his office, and one of the nurses is in attendance. The infirmary for women is housed in ample and comfortable quarters in Tyler Hall. The college physician and another nurse are in charge of this infirmary. A new infirmary for men and women is now under construction, and will be ready for occupation by September 15, 1930.

PLACES OF INTEREST IN AND AROUND WILLIAMSBURG

Williamsburg was formerly known as Middle Plantation. By act of the General Assembly at Jamestown in 1699, provision was made for the removal of the capitol to "Williamsburg." Thus the city was renamed and the capitol relocated.

Williamsburg is being restored to its colonial likeness by Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The exact time and cost of this tremendous project has not been allocated, but the work has progressed rapidly in the past three years. Houses have been demolished, restored or removed; brick pavements have replaced concrete; extensive research work has been going on, and over seven million dollars has been spent in making Williamsburg a shrine for tourists from all over the world.

THE OLD CAPITOL

At the east end of Duke of Gloucester Street are the foundations of this historic old building in which Patrick Henry delivered his famous speech against the Stamp Act Congress. The Capitol was built in 1700-1705, was thrice burned, and is soon to be reconstructed.

THE HISTORIC GAOL

This small, thick-walled colonial prison once housed Governor Hamilton, of Detroit, who was captured at Vincennes by George Rogers Clark. Here also thirteen of Blackbeard's pirates were held until they were taken to Capitol Landing Road and hanged on trees.

BASSETT HALL

South of the old capitol, at the end of a long lane of trees, is the former home of John Tyler. Here Tyler was notified by the son of Daniel Webster of the death of President Harrison, and the former repaired immediately to Washington where he was sworn in as President of the United States.

THE RALEIGH TAVERN

This is one of the most historic buildings in Williamsburg. The Raleigh Tavern, kept by Henry Weatherburn, was the birth-place of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary society organized by students of William and Mary as the first Greek letter fraternity to exist. Here the House of Burgesses met after they had been dissolved at the capitol by Governor Dunmore. Thomas Jefferson was a frequent visitor to the tavern.

THE POWDER HORN

This single-storied, cone-shaped structure stands across from the court house on Duke of Gloucester Street. From this depository Lord Dunmore, rebel Governor of Virginia, stole quantities of powder and stealthily placed it aboard a British man-of-war, only to pay for it after Patrick Henry had mustered an armed force to conduct a visit to His Lordship.

THE WYTHE HOUSE

The Wythe House is a square brick building opposite the Palace Green. The house was built in 1755 and named after George Wythe, first professor of law in America and faculty member of William and Mary College. Besides instructing Jefferson, Monroe and other famous men of history, Wythe designed the flag of Virginia. His house was used as the headquarters of Washington during the Revolution.

THE PALACE GREEN

This is the huge yard that prefaced the Governor's Palace in colonial times. It was once terraced off with a deer park on one side and an artificial lake on the other, surrounded by thousands of dollars worth of box-wood.

BRUTON PARISH CHURCH

This is the oldest Episcopal Church in continuous use in the United States. Built in 1715, Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Patrick Henry, the Randolph family and many other people whose names are remembered in history were frequent worshipers here. The church contains many interesting relics of the past, which are viewed by hundreds of tourists every year.

THE BLAIR HOUSE

About a block from the college, on Duke of Gloucester Street, is the former home of John Blair, a close relative of Dr. James Blair, founder and first president of William and Mary College. John Marshall lived here while a student at the college.

JAMESTOWN

Jamestown Island is approximately six miles from Williamsburg. Here in 1607, the Goodspeed, the Sarah Constant and the Discovery landed with their small band of settlers to found the first permanent English settlement in America. Here, too, a Dutch ship landed the first slaves to be brought to this country. The island is particularly famous as the scene of the dramatic episode involving Powhatan, Pocahontas and Captain John Smith.

YORKTOWN

About eighteen miles from Williamsburg is Yorktown, the scene of the surrender of Cornwallis to Washington in 1781. This historic old town contains the first customs house in America, aged homes dating from the beginning of the eighteenth century, monuments that recall unusual acts in history. The famous home of Thomas Nelson, the Grace Church, the Moore House and many other important shrines are found in this town that began its history far back in 1691.

The Indian nine came into the past season with one of the best line-ups they have had for some years. White, a “duc” heophyte, surprised the fans with a grand duplication of former pitcher Jimmie Wallace’s excellent mound maneuvers.

Fifteen out of the nineteen games ended with William and Mary victorious, the unsuccessful four going to Harvard, V. M. I., Navy and Hampden-Sydney. The team emerged with the Virginia Conference Championship again.

Demarest and Bradley came to the fore after a series of tough breaks the previous season, the former holding down the third bag and Bradley reaching for the flies. The club fought some hard battles, and we understand that next season there will be some harder ones in the offing, but Coach Kellison has the men and experience and the ability to combine them. Which leads us to expect an eventful year in baseball.

The past football season has ushered the William and Mary team further into the foreground than it has ever been before. Starting off with an overwhelming defeat of Guilford, the Navy later accredited us with a hard-fought-for touchdown, and Emory and Henry, rivals of long standing, succumbed to the William and Mary determination when the final whistle left them twenty-seven points behind. Suffering from the V. P. I. defeat of the year before, the Indians this season went after them with tooth and nail, but walked from the field with a seven to six defeat that furnished the grandstanders the thrill of a swift, eventful, and spectacular football game.

A real war on the gridiron ensued when William and Mary sent her "Fighting Virginians" to clash with Harvard. Finishing with a thirteen-to-thirteen tie, the tri-colored rooters shouted their hoozahs to the dogged spirit of the Indians, and the latter cleaned up the remaining games to win again the Virginia Conference Championship. And "Red" Maxey won for the second consecutive year the title of highest state scorer.

Once more William and Mary stepped into basketball technique to capture three-fourths of the games. Playing twenty-four games last year and winning eighteen, the team this season came out of sixteen battles with twelve victories, finishing, as they did before, with the Virginia Conference Championship.

Mitchell Mozeleski captained the team for the second time and the close of the season found him on the all-state with a record of high achievement.

Climaxing their college basketball careers in the game with Hampden-Sydney, Mozeleski and Sauerbrun are leaving two holes that will be difficult to fill, but if that freshman squad retains the neat trim and beauty of form and excellence of playing which was so prevalent this season, Coach Kellison isn't going to let the varsity team suffer.

William and Mary is looking forward to a perceptible softening of some of these hard, close games that troubled them this season, and when the new schedule is released there probably will be some familiar names on the line-up that are in for a good licking.

Snuggling into a fourth Virginia Conference Championship with a net total of 94 1-12 points, "Scrap" Chandler's dangerous Indians came through the season's war-path like wild-fire. Submissive to no team save the Navy, William and Mary trackmen performed numerous outstanding feats with ace-high results, and the forthcoming season offers more optimism because of a few stellar freshmen who will add their abilities to those of the varsity.

Scott, crack dash man; Baldacci, record broad jumper; and Mozeleski, Willis, Zabel, Taylor and Baggett will not be in the new season's meets. These men will be missed strongly, and the tri-color rooters are expecting "Scrap" Chandler's policy of whipping good men into the harness to be resumed, for "Scrap" has a way of making good athletes.

William and Mary sponsored the first women's state conference tournament in hockey in 1930. The purpose of this tournament was to create a better acquaintance with other schools of Virginia, as well as to further a mutual interest in hockey. Among those colleges participating were Sweet Briar, Hollins, Randolph-Macon, West Hampton, George Washington, Farmville, Harrisonburg and Mary Baldwin.

It is the hope of William and Mary that such tournaments will become annual events.

BULLETIN BOARDS

Bulletin Boards will be found in all the academic buildings. During the reconstruction of the Sir Christopher Wren Building, a green fence surrounding the structure offered a place for bulletin boards, but since that has been removed all announcements are posted in the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. rooms, the College Shop window, and the academic buildings. Other important announcements are made during meals in the college refectory, and published in the Flat Hat.

MAIL

The new Post Office is situated about fifty yards from the campus entrance, on the north side of Duke of Gloucester Street. Students living in the dormitories may rent boxes here to secure mail. Those living in fraternity and sorority houses and private homes receive delivery service.

TEXT BOOKS

The College Shop supplies the students with text-books. This store is on the corner and to the left of the campus facing the college gate. The College is contemplating a text-book sales service which probably will materialize in the near future.

LAUNDRY

All students' laundry is handled by the College. A new brick building, adequately equipped with machinery and labor, was erected last year for this purpose. Students must call here for laundry, but methods for collecting same will be announced upon registration.

EMPLOYMENT

The Y. M. C. A. conducts an employment bureau for those students desiring positions. All that is necessary is to turn in your name to the General Secretary together with the kind of work desired. Dr. Chandler also offers work in the college dining hall to those students who make good grades and make application for jobs.
