DR. J. A. C. CHANDLER, President

PRESIDENT'S GREETINGS

The College of William and Mary welcomes you to its halls. Many students who for generations have entered this College have received here inspiration for greater work. May your stay be pleasant and may the instruction and inspiration which you receive bear fruit of such a type that each of you will go forth to render in some particular field service that will bring good to your community, to your state and to your nation.

J. A. C. CHANDLER,

President.

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

The dominating motive which characterizes the conduct of faculty and student body at the College of William and Mary is service. For many years, students have left this institution imbued with this spirit and have wrought well.

Your enrolling in this institution puts you into fellowship with this fine group of men and women. We hope you, too, will be imbued with this same spirit and that you will be stimulated to achieve to the full extent of your ability. To this end, broad knowledge, sound scholarship and straight thinking are of primary importance. We commend these objectives to you.

We hope that you will lose no opportunity to prepare yourselves for the service which has characterized others who have gone before you. You can rest assured that you will find help and friendly counsel from students, faculty and administration. Into this fellowship, we bid you welcome.

Very truly yours,

K. J. HOKE,

Dean of the College.

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF WOMEN

Of all the classes in the College of William and Mary, you are most to be envied. By one year, the past of the college is a little richer for you even than for the class preceding. The future holds for you the promise of rich intellectual beauty for this ancient and vigorous institution. Your own fine idealism (if this be the gift you bring to us) will increase such a beauty for yourself and for others.

You have come to William and Mary from different motives. Some of you have been lured by the desire for adventure in community living; others, by the charm of the environment here. Some have followed a path trodden by your families and friends; some have been led by associates whose companionship you crave. Perhaps only a few have thought deeply of what you may seek here for your physical, mental, and spiritual growth. Yet you feel at least vaguely that you want to grow. May it be our privilege to help you to take root securely and to develop into fearless, strong, wise, magnanimous women.

As aids to growth may you find here the friendship of administrators, of instructors, and of fellow-students; the stimulation of able minds; a challenge to your best endeavor; and a simple love of truth which will enable you to face understandingly your own failures and successes and those of your friends.

The intelligent love of a student for a college is one of the most enlarging experiences of life.

GRACE WARREN LANDRUM,

Dean of Women.

It is through the courtesy and efforts of these organizations that this Handbook is compiled and presented to the incoming classes. Student Activity Credit is given by the College to all members of these associations, which wield no little influence in almost all Campus activities, and are foremost in principle and objective of all College societies. They meet on the common ground of all Christian religions for the religious and social advancement of all Christian students.

THE CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS

The Christian work on the campus is carried on co-operatively by the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations. Each Association has its own constitution and form of organization and interpretation of purpose. But in order that certain phases of the work may be better carried out, a joint effort is made in these particular respects.

Organization:

1. THE CO-OPERATIVE CHRISTIAN COUNCIL (C. C. C.) consists of three men and three women, chosen from among the officers of the respective associations. They have two duties: (a) the general oversight of the joint budget, which consists of those funds set aside for speakers, socials, office, etc., in which both groups participate; and (b) the right to elect the members of the Advisory Board, and guide the policy of the joint efforts of the Associations.

2. THE ADVISORY BOARD consists of the President of the College, the general secretary of the Christian Associations, nine members of the faculty, elected three each year by the C. C. C., for a term of three years, and of four students, consisting of the two Association presidents and of two appointed by these in their respective Associations. The functions of this Advisory Board are, (a) to have general charge of the financial campaign and approve the budgets of the respective Associations; (b) to assist and approve the plans and policies of the Associations.

3. THE Y. W. C. A. CABINET AND Y. M. C. A. CABINET are the two executive arms of the student membership. They are ultimately the controlling voice in the carrying out of plans and the directing of the work.

Purpose:

The common purpose of the two Associations "to try to live like Christ lived, and to aid others in living like Him." This purpose takes its expression in the various forms of activities, found on the following pages.

The Young Men's Christian Association is an organization of the students, administered by the students, and existing solely for the students of the college. Throughout the years, the sons of William and Mary who are devoted to the cause of humanity and unselfish service have been affiliated with this association.

The object of the Association is to create a fellowship of students vitally interested in the highest meanings of life, and thereby to develop the highest type of Christian character in the men who are to represent the College, and to influence them to devote themselves to the Christianizing of all relationships. The Association aims to be the expression of practical Christianity. It is for those who believe not in knowledge for the sake of knowledge alone, but for what it can do in creating deep moral convictions of right and personal standards of worth.

MEMBERSHIP in the Association may be either active, or associate. Every man who pays his regular "Y" fee becomes a member. Opportunity will be given all those who wish some active part in the work.

For the purpose of securing efficiency in the organization the Young Men's Christian Association on the campus has been centralized and divided into four great departments under which all activities of the Association can be classified. Any student, either freshman or older man, who is interested in extra curriculum work can find some phase of service in one or the other of these departments for which he is particularly suited and which will open the way for a more responsible position on the cabinet the following year.

ADMINISTRATION: Heading this important division is the President of the Y. M. C. A. and those making up this department give their time more to the perfecting of the organization as a unit rather than to aiding in outside service. The regular officers of the "Y", vice-president, secretary, and treasurer naturally are placed in this department. Besides these are the editor and business manager of the Handbook. There is an assistant in finance whose work it is to handle finances and direct the financial campaign.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: To aid in realizing the aim of this department, which is "To interpret through various means, the life and teachings of Christ for the College student" the director has divided his work into committees under the guidance of a chairman. Devotional meetings with varying programs such as: open forums, music, pageants, lectures, etc., under the leadership of the chairman, offer unlimited opportunities for service and leadership. The committee on Christian World Education tries to bring to the attention of the campus through speakers, literature, and discussion the importance of education along the lines of new social gospel, industrial relations, race relations, and international relations.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: This department aims to extend the purpose and message of the Christian Association to groups outside the college community, and to provide ample means of expression to students for their ideals of service. A committee on Boys' Work promotes this work in Williamsburg by means of Christian guidance in club work. Deputation to churches is one of the most useful of any of the "Y" functions. A series of sacred concerts given in neighboring cities will feature this work during the coming year. This year the committee in charge plans to conduct, besides these, educational tours to study in Richmond and Norfolk the social welfare work and such industries as these two cities afford.

CAMPUS SERVICE: This department has for its aim the meeting of the social and general welfare needs of the student body. A special social committee is planning some interesting things for the coming year. A committee has charge of freshman work. This committee co-operated with other organizations in serving the freshman in every way possible. The "Y" room, which Mrs. Blow gave and so handsomely equipped, is left to this department to care for and keep as convenient as possible for the students.

"We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

"In this task we seek to understand Jesus and follow Him."

MEMBERSHIP IN THE Y. W. C. A.

Every woman at William and Mary who is interested in the aims of the Y. W. C. A. and who wishes to strive with other women will be given the opportunity to join in September. By her membership in the Y. W. C. A., a student also becomes a member of the World's Student Christian Federation, which is composed of many different student movements in forty different countries of the world.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

BIG SISTER PLAN

Every year the Y. W. C. A., in co-operation with the Women's Student Government, organizes a band of "Big Sisters," who feel that this endows them with a special kind of friendly ownership and interest in their "Little Sisters" of the freshman class. This year, the "Big Sisters" of this year's Freshman Class will be interested upper-classmen.

It is the special duty of the Big Sister to help her Little Sister to get settled into the swing of collegiate life. After freshmen are accustomed to William and Mary, each Big Sister retains her special interest in her protege.

MEETINGS

Alternate Thursday nights is the time set for meetings of the Y. W. C. A. There will be either a lecture, entertainment, Vespers, or discussion groups. This year an activity credit will be given for participation in Y. work.

The Y. W. C. A. Committees represent almost every phase of Campus activities and major interests of the college woman's life. Every member is urged to choose carefully the committee in which she feels the greatest interest, and to which she feels the most enabled to contribute by her work and enthusiasm, and participation in the different discussion groups of the several committees.

THE Y. W. C. A. ROOM

The Y. W. C. A. Room is on the first floor in Barrett Hall. It is open at all times for the use of the co-ed students, and they are especially invited to enjoy it.

Committees

The following are the organized groups which control the varied activities of the Y. W. C. A. in all fields of Campus life.

Vocational Committee

The Vocational Committee endeavors to help girls choose vocations and plan courses in college that will lead up to them. The group maintains an employment bureau through which girls may obtain work on the campus.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

Music Committee

The music committee plans musical programs for Y. W. C. A. meetings. This group will make up the choir for chapel for next year. It will make a song book of Y. W. C. A. songs, devotional and camp songs.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee has charge of the money-making part of the Y. W. C. A. program. Next year there will be discussions on the average College girl's budget, discussions on current books, and plans for rummage sales and bazaars.

Social Committee

The Social Group of the Y. W. C. A. has charge of all social activities of the organization. It has for its purpose the encouragement of fun and joy in our play to fill our lives with the happiness they are due to have alongside the work.

Devotional Committee

It is the duty of the Worship Committee to strive toward a creative and working knowledge of God through quiet periods, through fellowship with each other and through service. Once a month it is the duty of this committee to report to the entire Y. W. C. A. its findings by means of a worship program given on the regular meeting night.

Publicity Committee

The Publicity Committee makes attractive posters to advertise all Y. W. C. A. functions. Next year this group has decided to take up the study of poster psychology. If you are interested in this phase of Y. W. C. A. work be sure and sign up for it.

THE BEST ALL-'ROUND FRESHMAN

For the past four years it has been the practice of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet to elect the Best All-'Round

Freshman and to send her to the conference at Blue Ridge. The woman selected must be outstanding not only in the Y. W. C. A., but in other activities as well. She must be a capable leader, and have a high scholastic standing.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

This year, more than ever, does the Y. W. C. A. offer the new student exceptional opportunities. Since the Administration of the College has decided to grant Student Activity Credit for membership in this organization, there are few co-eds who can afford to pass up the opportunity of membership. There are a certain number of activity credits to be required before a degree from the College may be given. Do not miss this chance with its double advantages. Join now.

SPEAKING OF ANCHOVIES

In which Ye Editor attempts to prove that a word to the Wise is worth two in the bush—or something.

As we were saying, speaking of anchovies, it was two weeks after we arrived greenly upon the Campus before we stopped trying to go to breakfast in the Library. On one occasion we sat through half of a class in advanced calculus before we discovered that it wasn't Greek 101. Right there and then we took a solemn oath that if it ever came into our power to guide those who followed us into strange places, that we would make sure to turn their footsteps in the right direction.

One day, while we were playing Kelly Pool in Bob Wallace's den of iniquity, a classmate came up and informed us that we were editor of the Indian Handbook. We remember the incident particularly because the news so startled us that we missed a set-up on the eight ball. From that time on we have been a different man; a man with one sole purpose and motive in living. We were going to show the freshman and, of course, freshman, class of 1937, the way to success and happiness on the Campus. We marched out of the College Shop pool room and were half way down to Tom McCaskey's R. K. O. Theatre before we realized that we still carried our cue stick,—but this is digressing.

The age old custom of giving advice died a horrible death in 1929 when everyone gave you infallible tips on the Stock Market, Race Horses, and the Five-Year-Plan. Advice became one of the Add Vices. So we decided not to put any advice in the Indian Handbook. We hope simply to outline the course that some five hundred or more of us have travelled since we entered the Halls of the Ancient and honorable College of William and Mary,—to point out the bumps, and to illustrate the advantages of certain modes of procedure in campus living.

William and Mary has always possessed a sort of individual dignity that emanates from the student body as a whole. You, Ducs, and you there, Duceesses, will soon learn that the Rah-Rah racket will have to be confined to that series of imposing, highwalled grey buildings about three blocks southeast of the Campus. The natives call it Eastern State, and it specializes in cases of abnormal psychology, which brings us to another important matter—

HEY-HAZING

Careful scientific and psychological research have definitely indicated that school spirit is not situated in the seat of the pants, so when the frosh decides that he or she is nature in the raw, and refuses to be mild as far as freshman rules are concerned, such cases are handled by the Tribunals of the Men and Women's student bodies, who find new methods of making life unpleasant for habitual offenders. The methods of these two organizations, however, do not include hazing, and it is not advisable for frosh to start any little private riots on their own. John (Bring-home the) Bacon is presiding officer of the men's Tribunal, while co-ed offences are handled by the judicial council.

Upper-classmen will ask that you wear duc caps, per the time honored William and Mary custom. Better do it, on account of you'll look better and feel better with them on. Ducs also sport green ties to honor a nine-month celebration of St. Patrick's day. Go to all football games, and when Cheer Leader "Shorty" Horton exhorts you to vocal efforts in behalf of dear old William and Mary, lend him your ears, and your voices. It wont hurt you, and it may help the team. Don't stray from the sections allotted to your class, and remember that the only reason an upper-classman has for correcting you is the fact, that he has gone through a frosh year himself. But this sounds just like a big sister.

RUSHING

Don't scurry for cover, boys and girls, when a flock of wild eyed Amazons or badge-bearing males swoop down on you at rushing season. They are the

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

Greeks of the campus, and they are looking for fraternity and sorority fodder. (Fodder, dear fodder, come home with me now.) If you throw that tomato, Lou, I'll—but pardon us. Many of you will be asked to join certain societies, and the decision is one we cannot help you make. The best tip, however, when being quizzed by an upperclass Grecian, is to give an imitation of a little neck clam with lock jaw. Still, if you have a good gift of gab, it won't hurt to air it infrequently. In the matter of expense, a good fraternity or sorority can be managed on a rather slim budget. The Depresh hit us all, you know, and there are few millionaires or millionheireses at W. and M. Be sure to abide by rushing rules in all cases.

CLASSES

In the classroom there is little of difficulty for the freshman to encounter. Your professors are friendly, and they are sincere in a desire to help you through your courses. We never heard of a Prof who flunked a student because he liked to see him sitting in his class for a second term. There is just one simple rule to keep in mind for all classes and all courses. You are here to pass them. Your professors are here to pass you in them upon demonstration of your accumulated knowledge. The administration goes even so far as to offer unlimited "cuts" (absences from classes unexcused) if you can maintain an average of 85 in all subjects. Hie ye down to the College bookstore and get your books, pounce on the first lecture as if it were a nice red, rosy apple, and digest it. Retain the pouncing habit throughout the semester, water it down with text book assignments, and you will avoid mid-semester academic biliousness.

GENERAL

James Monroe was meandering down the main drag of old colonial Williamsburg, one sunny September afternoon, and a strange upper-classman approached him.

"Hae!" said James simply, in greeting.

"Hae, Sirrah!" replied the upper-classman.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

This little bit of unrecorded history has no definite purpose in this book. It simply serves to explain that ever since that time, Freshmen are encouraged and expected to say, "Hae, gentlemen!" to any group of upper-classmen. Rather an ingenious way of becoming acquainted, what? When John Tyler was a duc at W. and M. he learned his Alma Mater, and all the school yells and songs. Later he became President of United States. So, you see, it pays to follow frosh rules. As for you, girls, mayhap there will be women presidents when you embark on your careers, so you'd better learn the songs and yells, too, just to be on the safe side.

You will notice that this bit of chatter is interspersed among the pages which describe the campus and its buildings. In this part, we wish to advise (oh! oh! Advice, you will rear your ugly head) that all members of the class of 1937 read this part of the Indian Handbook. We assume that you will. You know, you are required to carry this book wherever you go during your first month on the campus. Don't forget that! Not our fault at all, Old Beans, just part of the rules, you know.

In this volume you will find sundry mentions of all items which will be of importance in your college life. For example, if you turn a few pages, you will come upon the section which describes the Honor System at W. and M. This is important, for it was at this college that this system came into existence. In this pamphlet you will find all the rules and regulations of both men and women's student bodies. Herein there is a mention of the honorary fraternities and their values. Any rules which do not appear in this book will be posted in the College Shop or on the campus bulletins.

EXTRA SPECIAL

Publications and various student organizations on the campus are maintained by the Board of Control, which regulates the Student Activity fee. The payment of this fee is the freshman's first responsibility, and it is important, particularly because those who have not paid it may not enjoy the following privileges:• They may not vote in student body elections; join any fraternity or sorority; work on the staff of any college publication, such as the Flat Hat, the Colonial Echo, the Literary Magazine, or the Indian Handbook.

This fee is levied to support publications and organizations. It is the duty of every William and Mary man or woman to subscribe to it.

ANOTHER THING

You may never have heard of the Muse, Terpisshore (is that spelled right?), but no doubt most of you care to shake a hoof at the Saturday night dances, especially since there is little else to do in Williamsburg on Saturday night. The formal dances of the College are sponsored by the William and Mary Cotillion Club, or the German Club. Dances, in the past, have not been as successful as they might be.

The Cotillion Club will change its time honored custom of submitting bids to prospective members from the usual date in the latter part of the second semester, and will offer pledgeship to some forty men soon after school opens. The advantages and functions of the club will be explained at the time. It is highly advisable to join this organization.

With proper support, William and Mary dances will be better, more enjoyable affairs for your entertainment during this coming year than ever before. Show an interest.

ALMA MATER

Hark, the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear;
Alma Mater's love they're telling,
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale,
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail.

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing out from hearts that love thee,
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod and golden sandaled
Shall the years go by,
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry.
Bless the college of our fathers,
Let her never die.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

THE WREN BUILDING

The Old Main Building, now called the Wren Building from the well-founded belief that its plans were drawn by Sir Christopher Wren, is the oldest of the campus group. For the most part, its walls are those of the original building structure of 1695. Until the close of the session 1927-28, it housed the academic subjects, exclusive of the sciences, law, and business administration. In the south wing was the original chapel, memorable for its valuable portraits, and its tablets in memory of former professors and distinguished alumni. This building is being restored to its original form and appearance through the generosity of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr.

WREN BUILDING

THE PRESIDENT'S HOUSE

Northeast of the Wren Building is the president's house. Since its erection in 1732 it has been the residence of the successive presidents of the college.

BRAFFERTON HALL

Southeast of the main building and facing the home of the president stands Brafferton Hall. Here are located some of the administrative offices of the college—namely, those of the alumni secretary and the treasurer.

Brafferton Hall was built from funds derived from the estate of the Honorable Robert Boyle, the distinguished natural philosopher, who, in his will, had provided that four thousand pounds sterling of his money should be employed in "pious and charitable uses." Dr. Blair, the first president of the college, being in England at the death of Boyle, urged the Earl of Burlington, Boyle's nephew and executor, to direct the fund to the support of a school for Indians in connection with the College of William and Mary. Burlington invested the funds in an English manor called The Brafferton in Yorkshire, from which most of the rents were to go to the college in Virginia. Brafferton Hall was built in 1723 from the proceeds of the Brafferton estate, and until the beginning of the Revolutionary War was used as a school for Indians.

ROGERS HALL

The William Barton Rogers Science Hall was erected in 1927 as a memorial to the alumnus of the college who founded the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It cost $300,000 completely equipped with laboratory apparatus and furniture. The ground floor houses the department of physics while the second and third floors house the department of chemistry. In addition to the standard laboratories for the various fields of physics and chemistry, there are lecture rooms, reading rooms, and private laboratories for research work. It is a fireproof building embodying many new features of laboratory construction. This building is the first one of an academic group which is planned.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

WASHINGTON HALL

Washington Memorial Hall was erected in 1928 as a memorial to George Washington, licensed as a surveyor by the college in 1749, and the first Chancellor of the college after the Revolution. The building cost $200,000.00.

The ground floor houses the Department of Biology while the second and third floors furnish lecture rooms and offices for the Department of Education, English, Fine Arts, Mathematics, Philosophy, Latin and Modern Languages. In addition to lecture rooms the first floor accommodates the offices of the Dean of the College, Dean of Men, Dean of Women, and the Registrar.

The building is of fireproof construction and is the second of the group of academic buildings planned by the administration.

COLLEGE LIBRARY

Before 1908, the library was immediately back of the Chapel in the main building of the College. In 1908 a new building was erected with funds given by Mr. Andrew Carnegie and other friends of the College. In 1921, the Carnegie Corporation gave an additional $25,000. This money was used in erecting a larger stack room. The rapid growth of the College in the past few years had made it necessary to enlarge the stack room again, and to provide additional reading room accommodations. With an appropriation from the State of Virginia the old building has been enlarged at a cost of $120,000.00 by the erection of a three-story structure between the former reading room and the stack room. The library will now have capacity for about 400,000 volumes and reading room space for 500 students at one time. At the north end of the stack room, cataloging and office rooms have been erected. The basement of the new three-story structure has been so built that it may be used in the future as an additional stack room. The new reading room on the first floor connects with the old reading room. A fund of $20,000 has been given by Mr. William Lawrence Saunders and Jennie Morton Saunders to furnish this room suitably in memory of their uncle, Robert Saunders, former president of the College. On the second floor there is an additional reading room, almost as large as the first, which will be used for periodicals and special collections of reserved books. On the third floor is a very comfortable reading room, which will be set aside for the law library. The library has at this time 70,000 books, and an unusually valuable collection of rare books and manuscripts. The most valuable books and manuscripts, together with the college records, will be kept in a new concrete vault, built for this purpose. The collection of manuscripts is constantly receiving valuable accessions through gifts from the many friends of the College. The books are catalogued according to the Dewey decimal system. A dictionary card catalog, kept up to date by the use of the printed cards of the Library of Congress, makes the resources of the library available. About 5,000 books are added to the library annually. The number of current periodicals regularly received is 500.

On the walls of the new reading rooms will be hung portraits of distinguished alumni, eminent Virginians and benefactors of the College. The portraits belonging to the College constitute one of the most valuable collections of early original portraits in the United States. Students are encouraged to consult books not only in the reading rooms but also in the stack room, to which they are admitted at all times without any formality. As the library is conducted according to the honor system, any dishonorable practice on the part of a student will be referred to the men's honor council or to the women's honor council. To increase the serviceableness of the library, the librarian offers each semester a series of thirty-six lectures in the use of reference books, for which a student receives two credits. The library is open every day in the year from 8:30 to midnight, except Sunday, when the hours are from 2 p. m. until midnight.

SAUNDERS READING ROOM

As a memorial to Robert Saunders, Professor of Mathematics, 1833-1848, President of William and Mary, 1847-1848, the large reading room on the first floor of the library has been equipped at a cost of $20,000.00 by William Lawrence Saunders and Jennie Morton Saunders.

PHI BETA KAPPA MEMORIAL HALL

The Phi Beta Kappa Memorial Hall was completed and opened for use in November, 1926. The funds for the erection of this hall were furnished by the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa as a memorial to the fifty founders of the Society. The building is used as an auditorium and as a home for Phi Beta Kappa guests.

THE GEORGE PRESTON BLOW MEMORIAL GYMNASIUM

This building was given to the college in 1924 by Mrs. George Preston Blow, of Yorktown, Virginia, and La Salle, Illinois, and by her children, in memory of Captain George Preston Blow, of the United States Navy, whose father and grandfather were alumni of the college. It is one of the largest and best equipped gymnasiums in the South, containing a standard size swimming pool, shower baths, lockers, basketball court, large gymnasium hall, running tracks, monogram and trophy room, and a large hall for Y. M. C. A. and other meetings. In addition to the dedication tablet, a large bronze tablet in the entrance hall carries an inscription, setting forth the purpose to which the building is dedicated.

CARY FIELD PARK

The whole campus of the college contains about three hundred and fourteen acres, one hundred and thirty acres of which are cleared. The eastern portion of the campus, covering about thirty acres, is used for buildings; the western portion is used for athletic purposes. The latter portion of the campus is known as Cary Field Park, named in honor of T. Archibald Cary, who gave the funds for grading the baseball and football grounds and for building the grandstand. Additional ground has been graded and affords ample room for all outdoor sports.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

THE MIRIAM ROBINSON MEMORIAL CONSERVATORY

The Miriam Robinson Memorial Conservatory was erected in 1926, on the South Campus, adjoining Tyler Hall, through the joint efforts of the Board of Visitors and friends of the College, in memory of the little girl whose name it bears.

It consists of a greenhouse for decorative plants, a well-equipped laboratory or class room for teaching practical floriculture, and a cool house at the opposite end of Tyler Hall for class work.

An apartment for the use of the Director of the Conservatory, between the north greenhouse and Tyler Hall, has been enlarged during the past year. The purpose of this Conservatory is to provide for classes in practical floriculture, which are given as electives, without fee from the students or cost to the College, and emphasizes the cultural value of flowers and decoration in education.

Due to the activities of the Conservatory, considerable planting has been done on the campus, and a beautiful natural park, with an artificial lake, has been begun.

DORMITORIES FOR MEN

There are three dormitories for men with total accommodations for more than three hundred seventy-five students.

All dormitories are heated with steam, lighted with electricity, and screened. Each room is supplied with pure running water from the artesian well on the campus. There are hot and cold shower baths on each floor. The rooms contain all necessary furniture, such as steel lockers, dressers, tables, chairs and single iron bedsteads and mattresses. All freshman students except those coming daily from their homes are required to live in the college dormitories and board in the college dining hall.

Taliaferro Dormitory

This is situated on the south side of the main thoroughfare leading to Jamestown. It has been remodeled so that the rooms are very comfortable. This dormitory accommodates forty men.

Tyler Hall

Tyler Hall, built in 1916, is a three story brick building containing twenty-seven very large, airy rooms, some of which have separate study and sleeping apartments. The construction of the building in two distinct units obviates the noise incident to long corridors. This hall also is distinctly modern in all its equipment.

Monroe Hall

The men's dormitory known as Monroe Hall was opened for use in September, 1924. The cost of this hall, including equipment, is $200,000.00. It is a thoroughly modern, fireproof structure containing memorials to many distinguished alumni and affording accommodations for 168 students.

Beginning with the session 1929-30 this building will be used exclusively by freshmen and adequate supervision for insuring satisfactory conditions for study will be provided.

Old Dominion Hall

The Old Dominion Hall, "The Virginia Hall of Fame," was completed in 1927 as a dormitory for men. It contains one hundred rooms, each room bearing the name of a Virginian who has played a prominent part in the making of our country. This building cost $175,000.00 and houses 170 men students. In addition to the dormitory rooms, it contains a Social Hall 90 feet by 40 feet, and two memorial parlors. It was opened for use September, 1927.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

DORMITORIES FOR WOMEN

All women students of the College, except those who come daily from their homes, are required to live in the college dormitories and board in the College dining hall. Exceptions to this rule will be made only in the case of mature women who are twenty-five years of age or over.

Jefferson Hall

Jefferson Hall, the dormitory for women, was erected by funds provided by the General Assembly in 1920. This brick building is two hundred feet by forty-one, and is in every respect modern, sanitary, and attractive. In the basement is a gymnasium eighty-eight by forty-one feet, and a swimming pool of the capacity of forty-five thousand gallons. The main, or ground floor, contains the main entrance, the parlors and the apartments for the director of women and for the women teachers. The second and third floors are the dormitories proper. The rooms are fourteen by fifteen feet in size, and each accommodates two students. There is in each room running water, hot and cold; two large closets, and two single iron beds, besides a dresser, a table and chairs. The building accommodates one hundred and twenty-five students.

The gymnasium in the basement of Jefferson Hall is modern in all respects. Its floor space, eighty-eight by forty-one feet, is sufficient for basketball and indoor games and exercises. Adjoining this open court are the swimming pool and the dressing rooms. The gymnasium is supplied with steel lockers, shower baths and modern equipment.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

Kate Waller Barrett Hall

The Kate Waller Barrett Hall was erected by the college in 1927 as a memorial to Dr. Barrett, one of the leading figures in the movement for the higher education of women in the South, and at the time of her death in 1925 a member of the Board of Visitors of the College. It cost $225,000.00 complete, and houses 176 women students. It is the central building of three women's dormitories, one of which (Jefferson Hall) is already completed, and the other is to be constructed in the future. Barrett Hall is of modern fireproof construction.

Chandler Hall

This dormitory for women is the latest addition to the campus. It is located next to Barrett Hall and is of similar architecture. The conveniences afforded by this dormitory are those of a modern building.

FRATERNITY HOUSES

A number of fraternity houses afford comfortable accommodations for men or women. The Board of Visitors considers that the fraternity houses are subject to the same rules and regulations as the college dormitories. They can be entered at any time for inspection by members of the faculty and officers of the College.

THE PRACTICE HOUSE

The practice house, a feature of the department of home economics, is a large two-story frame structure. All remodeling and renovating were done under the supervision of the department, it presents a very attractive appearance.

Under the supervision of a professor, who is a member of the practice house family, a group of three or four students, juniors and seniors in home economics, lives in the practice house for a period of twelve weeks, and, during this time, does all the work of the household. Although it is not the purpose of the practice house to duplicate home conditions exactly, every effort is made to create a pleasing, home-like atmosphere, in which the students should form the highest possible standards for home-making. Visitors are welcome at all times.

TRINKLE HALL

The old dining hall, which has been remodeled and enlarged for the use of both men and women, has become one of the most attractive buildings on the campus. The building complete has cost $150,000.00, and seats from 900 to 1,000 students. It is sanitary, artistic, and beautiful. Especially has the main dining room hall been commented upon for its great beauty.

INFIRMARY

The College maintains one large and spacious infirmary for the use of the students. This infirmary is one of the latest additions to the buildings of the College and is modern in every respect. Nurses are on duty at all hours and the College doctor has regular office hours to the students.

BUILDINGS IN RICHMOND

The Richmond division of the College occupies two buildings at the corner of Shafer and Franklin Streets, Richmond, Va. The main building, a substantial three-story and basement structure, is used both for class rooms (first floor) and as a dormitory (second and third floors). The dining hall is in the basement, which has high ceilings and is well lighted. In the east wing of this building are the laboratories and studios. The College buildings in Richmond are valued at $140,000.

BOYS' DORMITORY

OLD DOMINION HALL

THE HONOR SYSTEM AT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

Among her many priorities, William and Mary justly claims that of leading the way in the formulation and adoption of the Honor System. It was inaugurated here in 1779. Early in college days when no other idea of college government prevailed throughout America than that the student should be watched like a suspected criminal for offenses, either actual or potential, the faculty of William and Mary appointed a committee, whose head was the distinguished jurist, Beverly Tucker, to draw up a statement of the spirit and content of an honor system by which the conduct of the students of the old college was to be guided. At once put into operation, this system has been in continuous existence since its establishment.

But glorious and inspiring as is the historical origin of the Honor System, it is with its operation now and in the future that the men and women of the new day at the old college are primarily concerned. In the first place, it is of vital importance that every new student enrolling in September, should clearly understand what the Honor System really is and what it means in his life and in the corporate life of the College. Ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability of breaking it, and at once there follows a well nigh irreparable injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and an equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members. It is in this spirit that the present serious attempt is made to set forth, especially for the benefit of the students, just what the Honor System is and what is required of each in order to translate it into his life.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

The Honor System may be defined in a word as individual responsibility. It brings home to the individual man or woman who would stay at the noble old college and get the advantages she offers, his personal responsibility for her fair name and honor. It emphasizes two things: first, that the student must recognize that he is answerable in the very fullest degree for every one of his actions and dealings with the members of the faculty and with his fellows, in his or their rooms, in the dining halls, the athletic fields, the social centers, and the class rooms; and, second, that he must recognize his personal responsibility for the well-being of the college in every phase of life in which he touches her existence.

Such phases, in the large, will at once suggest themselves to every one. They include, primarily, everything which touches the securing of aid, assistance, or profit in scholastic work of whatsoever kind, whether in term class work, periodical tests, or in the work handed in to the instructor, though it is to be regretted that in the formal examinations, as well as in all latter respect, students otherwise most sensitive to the Honor System do not seem to feel its demands so keenly as in regard to the others. A slight reflection, however, will convince one that work of this kind should also be included in the scope of the Honor System. It is a source of pride to all lovers of the college that public opinion of the students is now, and has always been, most healthy, vigorous, and uncompromising in its condemnation of all infractions of the Honor System falling under the heads just enumerated.

As to all offenses touching the taking of property which is not one's own, in any form, it goes without saying that these come most completely under the condemnation of the Honor System, and find swift and deserved punishment at the hands of the student body itself.

To the Students and Prospective Students of the College of William and Mary:

In order that there may be a thorough understanding of the Honor System as it is interpreted and will be applied in the College of William and Mary in Virginia, we, the members of the Students' Honor Councils are sending each student and prospective student this circular letter.

By matriculation into the College the student pledges himself to maintain the Honor System. If the student does not wish to uphold this Honor System he must not matriculate.

The Honor System is the very foundation of student life in the College of William and Mary. This must be understood by every student at the outset. The Honor System is not merely a name nor is it a convenient means of escaping spying by the Faculty. The College of William and Mary has the distinction of having first originated and introduced the Honor System into American collegiate life, the System having been established here in 1779, and has been in continued existence here ever since. The Honor System has always been and must be maintained as the working principle of student life and as the indispensable expression of the spirit of the College of William and Mary. The Honor System simply requires that a student should act honorably, no more, no less.

Stealing, defrauding, and lying, are breaches of honor upon which a student may be placed on trial by his fellow students, to determine whether he is fit to continue as a member of the College.

As applied to scholastic work the following interpretations of the Honor System are set forth by the Student Honor Councils:

- I. All scholastic work, whether it be in the lecture room, the library, the student's room, or elsewhere, is under the Honor System. All cheating, whether in work pledged or unpledged, whether in tests, assignments, or examinations is a violation of the Honor System. Giving aid to any student or receiving aid from any student, without the consent of the professor, in tests, assignments, or examinations, is cheating.

II. All written tests and examinations given in the classroom will require a formal pledge. The pledge is required not for the purpose of creating the obligation but to remind the student of the obligation already existing under the Honor System.

III. For any forms of scholastic work other than written examinations and tests in which the professor desires the use of a pledge, the professor or instructor will prescribe the form of pledge to be used and will make clear the scope of the pledge and responsibility of the individual under the pledge.

The student's "sense of honor" is not inherited; it is acquired. And it is acquired in some specific environment. It is therefore relative to that environment. In the College of William and Mary the older students furnish the environment; and unless the older student jealously guard the Honor System by reporting cases of dishonor and ostracizing the dishonest, the new students will not acquire that "sense of honor" necessary for an efficient Honor System.

The Honor System is supported and handled by the students themselves and they are wholly responsible for it. Violations of the Honor Code are reported, not to the Faculty, but to the Student Honor Councils. It is the duty of every student to report another student seen in a dishonorable act. Loyalty to the student body demands it. If a student fails to report another student because he is a close associate the Honor System is defunct. Reporting cases is not spying or tale-bearing, for the Honor Councils are representatives of students themselves.

Reread this letter carefully and keep for reference. The System will be explained by the representatives of the Honor Councils at the beginning of the session.

Faithfully yours,

THE STUDENT HONOR COUNCIL.

(Alma Mater is on Page 12)

THE INDIAN WAR CRY

The Indians are taking the warpath today,
Old Green, Gold and Silver plunge into the fray.
The fight may be hard and the game may be long,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

Chorus

William and Mary forever and aye!
Cheer her again, boys, we'll yet win the day—Ray!
Tri-colors waving, it floats there on high,
An emblem of vict'ry touching the sky.
So shout out the war cry and fight to the end,
They'll never, no never, beat W. and M.!

II

Their line's shot to pieces, their backs cannot gain,
Just watch the old Indians romp away with this game.
We've got them all going, there's nothing to fear,
So rally again now and give the old cheer: RAY!

III

When the fight goes against us, struggling in vain,
When all of their efforts seem surely to gain,
When hope seems to leave us, the chances all gone,
We'll rally against them and sing the old song: RAY!

They're going to win, it won't take long—
So sing a song and praise renew
To Our fighting men and Wahoo—wahoo.

HIKE ALONG

For the team of thirty we fear no harm,
For the team of thirty we fear no harm,
Give us a show—and we will win;
Hike along, William and Mary, hike along.
(Additional stanzas are used for particular games, etc.)

FIGHT, FIGHT, FIGHT FOR THE INDIANS

Oh, we will fight, fight, fight for the Indians,
When the Indian Team appears;
We will pull like Hell for the Indians
When they hear our mighty cheers.

Wah-Hoo-Wah!

We will circle the ends for the Indians,
And we'll romp right down the field—
Touchdown! Touchdown! Indians!
And ————— line will surely yield.

Lyric by Brown and Wilson March by G. M. Small

Oh! fight away you Indians,
Oh! fight away today.
The team that held the Crimson,
Will surely win the fray.
And as the ball goes over,
And the game is won,
Our voices swell,
To sing the song of victory.

The policy of William and Mary Athletics adopted by the 3-3-3 committee in 1927, calls for (1) a manager of athletics; (2) Seasonal coaches in the major sports; (3) a full-time assistant coach in all major sports; (4) a full-time freshman coach.

This policy was changed from the plan of having an Athletic Director in charge of all sports, and since its installment, William and Mary has been well represented in all sports.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

Monograms may be won in both major and minor sports. The major sports include football, basketball, track, and baseball. Swimming, wrestling, tennis, and golf, constitute the minor activities.

The usual collegiate eligibility rules are in effect at William and Mary. The college is a member of the Virginia-North Carolina Conference, and abides by the rules of that body.

Social Fraternities

Herein are listed the Greeks of the Campus. The Freshman must consider carefully a fraternity or sorority through a medium of its personality, power and purpose.

The Indian Handbook

1933-1934

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

There are at present thirteen social fraternities for men on the William and Mary Campus. All of these are national fraternities. While William and Mary may claim the distinction of having the oldest fraternity in the country, Phi Beta Kappa, this has been an honorary fraternity for a long time. The first social fraternity was Theta Delta Chi, which established a chapter here in 1853. Second was Sigma Alpha Epsilon which established its Virginia Kappa chapter on this campus in 1857. Pi Kappa Alpha established the third fraternity chapter here in 1871, the Kappa Alpha Order and Kappa Sigma completed the list of those established before 1900 by installing chapters here in 1890.

Very little changes in fraternities took place during the next few years, and Sigma Phi Epsilon was the only fraternity to establish a chapter here during the years of 1900 to 1922. Virginia Delta chapter was established here in 1904.

With the increasing enrollment of men students in the College about 1919 there arose a need for new fraternities. Epsilon Iota chapter of Sigma Nu was installed in 1922, and there was again a lull in fraternity establishment at William and Mary. In 1926 a local fraternity, Phi Epsilon Beta, joined the Phi Kappa Tau national fraternity to become Alpha Theta chapter. Following this fraternities were established here in rapid order. Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Alpha both established chapters here in 1927. Pi Lambda Phi came into fraternity affairs in 1929 to be followed in 1930 by Alpha Phi Delta, and in 1931 by Sigma Pi. Thus it has only been during recent years that fraternities have been settled on the campus. About one-half of the men's student body belong to social fraternities.

The fraternities are supervised by the Inter-Fraternity Council, composed of two representatives from each chapter. This Council draws up rules and regulations for the conduct of chapters, lays down rules for rushing, and promotes inter-fraternity relations. For the past three years William and Mary has had a deferred system of rushing, but with this year an early rushing season will be established. The Inter-Fraternity Council provides penalties for the breaking of rushing rules, and supervises rushing. The new rushing rules are as follows:

A. Time and Limits—

1. The formal Rushing Period shall commence the first Saturday in November of each year at two o'clock p. m.

2. The formal Rushing Period shall close the following Friday at twelve o'clock midnight.

3. From twelve o'clock midnight, on Friday until the following Sunday at noon no Fraternity man may speak or mention a Fraternity to a freshman.

Section "B" will be published in an early issue of the Flat Hat.

C. Penalties—

1. A violation of Section B by either freshmen or fraternity shall be immediately reported to the President of the Inter-Fraternity Council, who will immediately call a meeting of the said Council for the purpose of hearing the case and charges. If any freshman is found guilty, he shall be denied the privileges of being formally rushed and pledged until one week after Silence Day. If any Fraternity is found guilty of violating said rules, it shall be prohibited from rushing during the formal Rushing Period. Any Fraternity refusing to accept the disciplinary action of the Council after a proper hearing has been had, shall be suspended from the Inter-Fraternity Council for the remainder of the school year.

D. Formal Rushing Period Regulations—

1. Parties, banquets, smokers, oyster roasts, and other social functions are to be limited to a total of three by each Fraternity.

THE INDIAN HANDBOOK

2. Total rushing expenses per Fraternity is not to exceed $85.00, and an itemized account of all expenses is to be turned in to the President of the Inter-Fraternity Council by each Fraternity not later than noon on Silence Day.

3. No freshman is allowed to spend the night in a Fraternity House.

4. No fraternity may pledge a man who has failed to pay his activity fee. Each Fraternity shall give a list of their pledges to the Secretary of the Inter-Fraternity Council not later than six o'clock p. m., on the day of pledging, who will check all lists with the Treasurer for the Board of Control.

5. The penalty for violation of any of these rules pertaining to the formal Rushing Period, shall be the loss of the privileges of pledging men for one month following Silence Day. A second violation shall mean suspension from the Inter-Fraternity Council for the remainder of the school year.
