Twenty-first President of the College, inaugurated this year on 250th anniversary

TO THE CLASS OF 1947

In behalf of the Faculty and the student body of the College I am extending to the freshman class a cordial welcome to the campus. In view of what has been happening in all the colleges in America during the past two years it would seem unnecessary to labor the point that education is not being carried on here or elsewhere in a manner even approaching normal. During the past year some 400 boys left this campus without graduating. It seems unlikely that any boy in this class of 1947 will remain here long enough to take a degree.

On the other hand every boy privileged to be in college even for a semester or a year will gain immeasurably from the experience. The study of certain subjects such as mathematics, physics, and English will stand him in good stead when he takes the qualifying examinations for further training in the armed services. Residence here, even for a relatively short time will enable a student to accumulate a substantial amount of credits towards graduation at some later time. Finally, the experiences and adjustments that a boy of sixteen or seventeen must make in the classroom and on the campus will in themselves be invaluable.

In these trying times a boy or girl should gain much through his or her associations at William and Mary. The morale of the student body is high and has become strengthened as the ranks closed. The quality that binds us all together is that of friendliness which has always existed here to a rare degree. In keeping with the times many activities associated with campus life will have disappeared, and students are more and more thrown back upon their inner resources. A great compensation is to be had, however, in the discipline and regularity of living that comes of more rigorous study and reflection.

The Class of 1947 has a greater responsibility than the freshman classes of preceding years. In the absence of those who have gone from here before their time the freshman class is called upon to maintain undiminished this spirit of friendliness, to form on its own initiative the habit of serious study, to develop with as little waste motion as possible regularity in living, to assist willingly in keeping alive such valuable cognate activities as Student Government, the Flat Hat, the William and Mary Theatre, the Choir, and the religious activities of the Campus. Every student should keep in good physical condition for this is a duty that each owes to his country, and furthermore every student with any aptitude for sports and games should try out for one of the athletic teams. Finally all should unite in upholding the Honor System, for if that great act of faith among us should fail, something irreplaceable will go out of this College.

JOHN E. POMFRET, President.

TRADITIONS AT WILLIAM AND MARY

There are many traditions here. They will undoubtedly be pointed out to you many times in the course of your college life. We ask, however, that you consider only five traditions, five customs which are not limited to past glories but which are applicable to your present day life as a college student and to your future life as alumni of this College.

The first tradition is the tradition of belonging. You will have the feeling of ownership the minute you enter the College yard, seeing for the first time the quiet dignity of the Wren Building, the tall, majestic trees, the cool sweep of the Sunken garden. Who comes here belongs here. This is the first tradition.

The second tradition is the tradition of fellowship. There is a custom here of the universal greeting, to professors, to fellow students, to visitors on our campus—all of whom may be strangers. Here we speak because we want to, because we feel a common ownership, a common bond closely related to the tradition of belonging.

The tradition of scholarship is the third tradition. Great scholars have gone before you here and great scholars will undoubtedly follow. The choice of study is yours, and you can gain much or you can gain little, depending upon you. College serves only as a means of stimulation, but the desire to learn must come from the individual.

The fourth tradition is the tradition of honor. This tradition is perhaps William and Mary's most revered for it is a tradition of thought and conduct. In another part of this book, you will find a clear statement of the principles, purposes, and ideals of the honor system. It is enough to say here that fundamentally your life is governed by your own sense of honor and by it you will be judged.

The fifth and most important tradition, to which all the others contribute is the tradition of service. Only through a deep appreciation of the traditions of belonging, fellowship, scholarship, and honor fostered during the period of College residence can the real understanding of service be attained—service not only to the College and community, but to the broad principles of democracy, for which the College of William and Mary has long been known.

HISTORICAL FACTS ABOUT THE COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

- 1943—With simple ceremonies, appropriate to wartime, the College, on February 8, celebrated its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary, inaugurated John Edwin Pomfret as its twenty-first president, and invested John Stewart Bryan as its fourth American chancellor.

PRIORITIES

In this day when "priorities" mean so much to a world at war, here are some interesting priorities to note about the College of William and Mary:

The first American college to receive a charter from the crown; this was dated 1693, under seal of the Privy Council.

The first and only American college to be granted a coat of arms from the Herald's College, 1694.

The first American college to have a full faculty of president, six professors, writing master, and usher.

The first medals awarded in America as collegiate prizes were those donated by Lord Botetourt, 1771.

The first Greek letter fraternity was founded at William and Mary on December 5, 1776. This fraternity, the Phi Beta Kappa, is the great honor society of the foremost institutions of learning in America.

The first honor system.

The first elective system of studies, 1779.

The first schools of Modern Languages and of Law were established in 1779, under the influence of Jefferson.

The first college to teach Political Economy was William and Mary in 1784.

The first school of History was founded here in 1803.

DISCIPLINE

The College assumes that men and women of college age are able and willing to maintain standards of self-discipline appropriate to membership in a college community. Therefore, the College purposely refrains from promulgating a rigid code of discipline. However, it reserves the right to take disciplinary measures compatible with its own best interests.

The discipline of the College is vested in the President by action of the Board of Visitors. Cases involving minor infractions of discipline are handled through the offices of the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women respectively. Serious infractions are considered by the Discipline Committee, which represents both administration and faculty.

Aside from cheating, lying, and stealing which fall under the Honor System, and infractions of the rules set down by the Women's Student Government Association and enforced by the Judicial Committee, the fundamental test for disciplinary action by the College authorities is whether the behavior complained of tends to throw discredit on the name of the College of William and Mary, or to manifest ungentlemanly conduct on the part of students.

Hazing or the subjection of a student to any form of humiliating treatment is forbidden. The College regards any evidence of the misuse of alcohol as a serious breach of accepted standards of deportment, and such abuse is punishable by probation or dismissal. By regulation of the Board of Visitors students are not allowed to have automobiles.

In general the College strongly disapproves of all forms of vandalism and disturbance. Students who deface property or destroy fixtures will be dealt with summarily. Students who through noisiness or other disturbance continually annoy their neighbors will be asked to withdraw.

Manners and behavior that would not be tolerated in the student's home cannot be tolerated in the classrooms, the dining halls, or the dormitories. The College highly approves of regular habits of living, and these include hours of rising and retiring that are compatible with regular classroom appointments and regular study habits. Long experience has shown a striking correlation between irregular and slovenly habits of living and lack of adequate performance in the classroom. Students are expected to keep their rooms reasonably clean and tidy at all times. It is important that the students' rooms be as presentable as the College grounds, the classrooms, and the dining halls.

The College reserves the right at any time to suspend or dismiss a student whose conduct or academic standing is in its judgment unsatisfactory.

Registration as a student of the College of William and Mary implies that the student will familiarize himself with these general regulations governing the conduct of students, and that he will abide by such regulations so long as he remains a student at the College.

THE LIBRARY

The Library of the College contains about 180,000 catalogued volumes. It receives regularly 1,265 periodicals. Members of the faculty and students are allowed to go freely to the stack room and consult books. It is open week days from 8:00 a. m. until 10:00 p. m., except from 6:00 p. m. to 7:00 p. m., on Saturdays after 6 p. m.; Sundays from 2:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m., except from 6:00 p. m. to 7:00 p. m.

The principles of the Honor System are to be observed in the Library. The stealing of books from the Library is considered an offence similar to the theft of other property on the campus. Lying or any form of deceit in regard to the use of the reserved books or to the borrowing of books is considered an infraction of the Honor System and will be reported to the Honor Councils.

1. The Student Government of the College requires that a student in the Library rooms, should forbear unnecessary and loud talking, in order that he may not attract attention and disturb others.

2. All books borrowed from the Library must be charged at the circulation desk.

3. A book may be kept out for two weeks, subject to a fine of two cents per day for every day over that time, if the book has not been renewed. If necessary, a book may be recalled by the librarian at any time.

4. Books which are on reserve may be borrowed from the Library at 9:30 p. m., to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the next morning. A fine of twenty-five cents for each book will be charged if it is not returned on time and an additional charge of five cents per hour until it is returned.

5. Books in the reference department must not be taken out of the building at any time.

6. Current numbers of periodicals may be borrowed from the Library between 9 p. m. and 10 p. m. to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the following morning. A fine of fifty cents will be charged on each periodical which is returned after 9:15 a. m. and ten cents per hour for each additional hour until it is returned to the periodical desk. Not more than three periodicals or three issues of a single periodical may be borrowed by one person overnight.

COLLEGE SONGS

Alma Mater

Hark, the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear,
Alma Mater's love are telling
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail!

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing loud from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod or golden sandaled
Shall the years go by;
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our fathers,
Let her never die!

J. S. WILSON, '02.

William and Mary Hymn

Beneath thy trees, within thy halls,
We come, dear school, with praise for thee,
To pledge ourselves, whate'er befalls—
To pledge unfailing loyalty.
Our hearts are with thee, dear William and Mary,
However far we stray.
Our noble college, hear us now—
Thy children sing to thee today!

Dear school, thou'rt old in years and fame,
And richly old in honors, too.
Time shall not dull the shining name
Whose gleam our songs will e'er renew.
And as years go by, dear William and Mary,
Thy fame will never cease,
But each new year rejoice to see
Thy children's praise to thee increase.

We honor thee, not for our gain
But to make known thy majesty,
Thy truth and courage that remain
However harsh the fates may be.
As through troublous years, dear William and Mary,
Our country fought, so thou hast fought and won,
And lived to hear thy children singing to thee now.

O thou, our guardian and our guide,
Renew our courage every hour,
And keep thy spirit by our side
To aid us with its watchful power.
Throughout all our lives, dear William and Mary,
We pledge our loyalty.
Dear college, now and evermore thy children cry
"All Hail to Thee!"

Student Government

TO THE CLASS OF 1947

The student body of the College of William and Mary governs itself through its own organization known as Student Government. Every regularly enrolled student is a member of Student Government, and it is both the privilege and duty of every student to exercise his prerogative as a member of this organization by his full support and cooperation in its activities. Through his vote each student expresses his will as an active member of Student Government; only by his sincere and intelligent use of this vote does the student fulfill his most important function as a member of the College community. But through his willingness to give of his time and energy towards the conduct of its various activities, the student accomplishes his most vital role as a part of the living and growing organization.

Student Government performs its functions through the Student Assembly, which is composed of twenty-four members elected by the several classes, and ten ex-officio members. The President of the Student Body is the speaker of the Assembly. Practically all student activities of the various types have their inception in the Assembly. Among its more important functions are the interpretation of the Constitution of the Student Body, the conduct of student elections, the hearing of petitions, the approval of new organizations, the appointment of student committees, and the encouragement of campus improvements. In addition, the Assembly fosters worthy student enterprises, and since the beginning of the War, it has sponsored bond drives and numerous campus war activities.

Student Government at the College in its recently organized form is now beginning its fourth year. During the past three years it has steadily grown in influence on the campus. It belongs to the students; it is not a static organization, but a living and developing one. Its continued growth depends on every student of the College.

GREETING TO THE NEW STUDENTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Women Students' Cooperative Government Association is happy to welcome the class of 1947 and all new students entering the College. Upon entrance, all women students become members of this organization, and we hope that you too will come to feel, as we do, pride in its ideals, standards, and potentialities.

MARJORIE LENTZ
President of the Women's Student Government

The Association was formed by women students desiring a greater voice and responsibility in the conduct of their affairs. Through the three councils, and with the understanding help and advice of faculty and administration, we try to carry out the task we have set for ourselves. Our aim is to make our college community a better and happier place in which to live, and it is toward this goal that Women Students' Government works.

As a member of the Association, every woman student assumes a definite responsibility, for aims involving a large student group cannot be successfully carried out without the full cooperation of every member of that group. Therefore, we hope that you will realize the important part you have to play in student government, and will develop a sincere interest in the work of the Association. The greatest asset to any organization of this kind is a student body with an appreciation of the ideals and principles of student government; with a genuine belief in the value of student government; and with the necessary qualities of individual and group responsibility, and personal dignity and integrity. We hope to find these qualities in you, who are now members and prospective leaders of Women Students' Government.

MARJORIE LENTZ,
President of the Executive Council.

TO THE CLASS OF 1947 FROM THE JOINT HONOR COUNCILS

When you enter the College of William and Mary, it is your privilege to become an integral part of the Honor System.

Our Honor System is based upon the honor of the individual student, and is enforced by the students through representative Councils elected from and by the Student Body. Upon your matriculation you will be given instruction concerning the principles of the Honor System, and will then be asked to sign a pledge to the effect that you understand and will uphold it. This will bring new responsibilities to each of you; and to many of you, a new experience of life under an Honor System. Since the inauguration of the System here in 1779 students of the College have profited by its advantages. This you may do, also. For example, during examinations there are no proctors, and students are free to leave the examination room at any time.

At William and Mary stealing, cheating, lying, and failure to report an offense are considered breaches of the Honor Code and as such are punishable by dismissal from College. Therefore, it is your responsibility to thoroughly familiarize yourself with the Honor System since ignorance of it may bring the possibility—even the probability of breaking it, and at once there follows an injury to the character, the reputation, and the future of the individual student and equally grave lowering of the morale of the student body, for this must always suffer by the disgrace of any of its members.

The success of the Honor System is dependent upon the support of the students, and we are intrusting its future success to you. We know that you, as well as all classes that have come before you, can be counted upon to maintain the high ideals as established here.

Yours truly,

ELIZABETH SEAY, Chairman,

A MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1947 FROM THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

It is of the greatest importance that you, as students entering the College of William and Mary and coming under its system of student government for the first time, understand and abide by the rules set up by the Women Students' Co-operative Government Association. It is the function of the Judicial Committee, as a part of that Association, to interpret these rules to you and to deal with any violations of such rules. But this is not the only purpose and duty of the Committee.

At the end of each school year the Committee makes a thorough study of the current regulations and suggests certain changes in them to meet changing conditions, to eliminate any undue restraint, and to further clarify the meaning of the rules. If approved by the administration, these revisions are then embodied in the rulebook for the next year. The Judicial Committee thus attempts to see that each rule has a clear reason for its existence, and that the regulations are made as simple and as fair as possible.

During the orientation period at the opening of the College year, these social, house, and park regulations will be fully explained to you in group meetings under the leadership of upperclassmen. After passing an examination covering this material, you are then expected to conform not only to the letter, but to the spirit of these rules. The Judicial Committee can work successfully only if it has the hearty cooperation of every woman student, and if all students feel a real responsibility for seeing that others, as well as themselves, uphold at all times the high standards of the College.

FRANCES PENDLETON, Chairman,
Judicial Committee

Fraternities and Sororities

A WORD ABOUT GREEK LETTERS

Until May 1943, there were eleven fraternities and nine sororities on the campus. In May, however, under the action of the Fraternity Association, composed of representatives of all men's fraternities, it was unanimously decided to suspend rushing of new members for the 1943-44 session. Fraternities will hold informal meetings this year, but will not be united as formal organizations.

The sororities will continue their rushing practices as before, and a list of the sororities and their members follows.

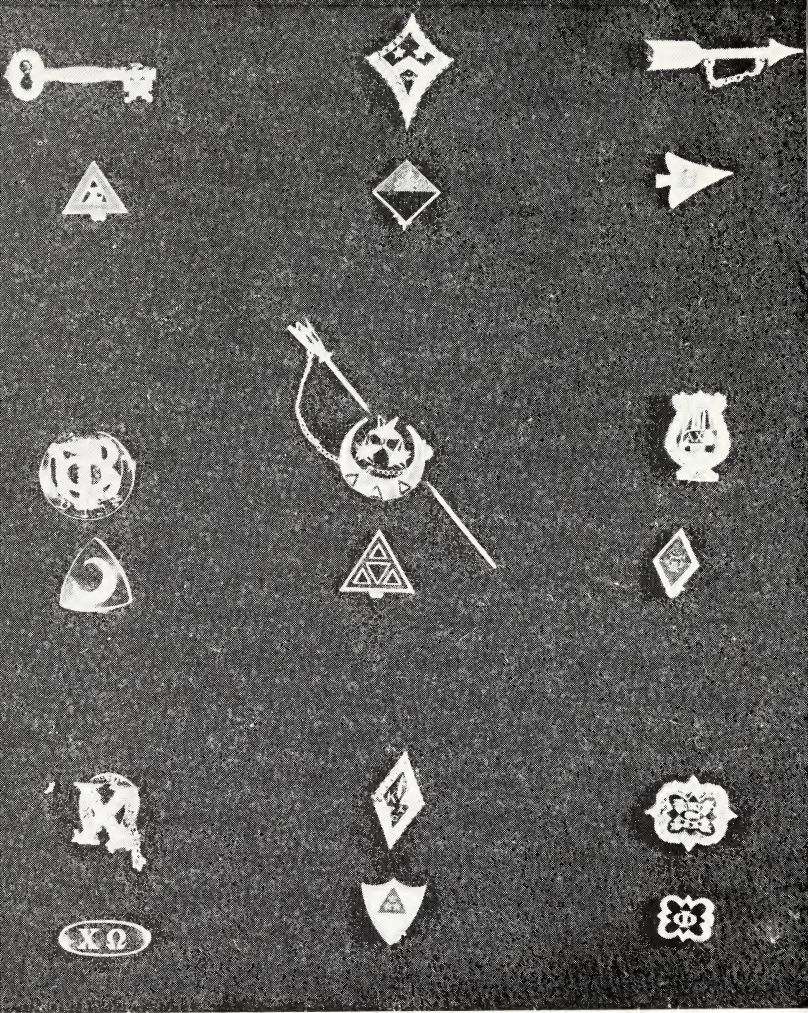

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL MESSAGE

Dear Freshman,

I know you must be a bit bewildered, as we all were, as Freshmen, to be suddenly thrust into a confusing maze of Greek letters, rushing rules, and sorority lingo. Possibly you know more than I did when I arrived at W. and M., but perhaps with three years of experience behind me, I can probably help you a little by telling you what I have learned about sororities.

I didn't know, but perhaps you do, that sororities are groups of girls organized for the purpose of fostering a definite and lasting friendship and mutual service among their members. There are nine nationals here, that is, sororities with chapters at other colleges.

Including their pledges, the membership of these organizations ranges from 30 to 60 girls. New members are chosen mainly from among the newly enrolled women after a period of natural association and about 10 days of formal rushing—a system by which sororities become acquainted with the girls, and are, in turn, judged by the new students who accept their invitations. An invitation to a sorority comes unsought and is not applied for.

There will be free association for you with sorority women until formal rushing begins. This is so we can all get together for fun and good times, but it is not to be considered as a period expressly created for upperclass and underclass gals to get to know each other. College is for learning and, by the way, one of the chief aims of all the sororities is high scholarship. If at any time you have a visitor when you have to study, feel free to ask her to postpone her visit. And don't forget, the best way to get to know people on campus is through campus activities!

There are several terms you'll learn to use:

ACTIVE—A fraternity girl who has been regularly initiated.

CHAPTER—Greek letter names given to the individual groups of the national fraternity organization.

PLEDGE—Newly elected member of a fraternity who has not yet been initiated.

RUSHING—The system by which fraternities select and pledge new members.

SILENCE DAY—The day between preferentials and acceptance day when there is to be no correspondence, spoken or otherwise, between freshmen or transfers and sorority women. This day is to give you a chance to do some good hard thinking and actually make up your mind what you want to do.

Rushing during the week is informal, and it isn't necessary to change from your classroom clothes. For the Sunday and Monday parties it is customary to wear a hat and carry gloves. And always remember that in this job of selling yourself, neatness and genuineness are all-important. Be yourself. It is your self that fraternities are interested in. The sorority women realize that unless your likes and general personality fit in with theirs, neither you nor they will be happy in the group. If you disguise your personality before you join the organization, circumstances afterwards may be unhappy.

If you cannot accept an invitation to a house, do not fail to decline by telephone or in the boxes in designated dormitories.

All of the recognized sororities on campus are members of the College Panhellenic Association and choose two of their members to represent them on the Panhellenic Council. The Council draws up the rushing code, sponsors the faculty reception in which they were aided for the first time last year by the Fraternity Association, sponsors discussion groups and mass meeting, and holds exchange dinners.

Sorority life like family life is successful only when it is a mutual experience of "give and take". Your good name and achievements will reflect favorably on your sorority just as its prestige will reflect on you. In the same way your shortcomings will discredit the organization.

Let me suggest to you that you read carefully this year's rushing rules printed in the Indian Handbook. Sorority girls are required to know them backward and forward, and it's an excellent idea for new girls to know them thoroughly too. Responsibility for adherence to these rules is partly yours too.

I think you'll enjoy "rushing", for it gives you such a good opportunity to meet many new upperclasswomen and freshmen. Maybe, in your visits to the various sororities, you'll find one where you feel "at home". But, on the other hand you may be like a former roommate of mine and find that although you have friends in most of the houses, no one of them really stands out in your mind as the one you want to join. She didn't join a sorority, and yet she has had an extremely happy and most successful college career.

Just think it all over carefully before you choose a sorority. Make a special effort to know all the girls before you pledge, especially underclass girls, for they will be the ones you will live with. First impressions are often deceiving, and your decision may affect the four best years of your life.

Whether you decide to go sorority or not, may you have a very happy, eventful college life.

Sincerely,

MARJ A. RETZKE,

PAN-HELLENIC RUSHING RULES FOR 1943-1944

A. Free Association:

1. There shall be a free association of freshmen and transfers with sorority women until closed rushing begins, including orientation week. The following exceptions must be observed:

- a. There is to be no sorority talk by any sorority member. Information about each sorority will be found in the Indian Handbook, and in short histories of each sorority which will be available at the respective houses when formal rushing begins. Literature, publications, and periodicals of the sororities will also be available at all times in the College Library.
- b. Absolutely no money shall be spent on freshmen or transfers or gifts sent to them by sorority women; nor shall freshmen or transfers spend money on sorority women or send them gifts.
- c. No dates shall be arranged on or off campus by sorority women for freshmen and transfers, or by freshmen and transfers for sorority women.
- d. There shall be no overnight visiting between freshmen or transfers and sorority women at any time.
- e. New women are not allowed in sorority houses until formal rushing begins, with the exception of open house on Sunday, September 19.

2. Town women will be under the same rules as all other freshmen, transfers, and sorority women.

3. Y. W. C. A. "big sisters" who are sorority women will be under the same restrictions as all other sorority women.

4. Alumnae shall be under the same restrictions as undergraduate sorority women in all cases.

5. Sorority women may wear their pins at all times.

6. The Pan-Hellenic Council will hold mass meetings for freshmen and transfers at intervals throughout the period of free association at which problems concerning rushing and rush rules will be freely discussed. Those interested are urged to attend.

7. The Pan-Hellenic Council will sponsor "mixers" for freshmen, transfers, and sorority women at intervals throughout the period of free association. All girls will be invited to attend at least one of these parties.

B. Pledging and Repledging:

1. There shall be no pledging or bidding of any student, freshman, transfer, or old student, during the period beginning with the last day of class of the winter school session until the Pan-Hellenic pledge day terminating formal rushing in November.

2. Repledging and the initiation of a woman may take place at any time, according to the discretion of the individual sorority.

C. Open House:

1. In conjunction with the Freshman Orientation Program each sorority house shall be open to freshmen on Sunday, September 19. The purpose of this invitation is to create better feeling of understanding and democracy. No entertainment or refreshments may be provided.

D. Formal Rushing:

1. Eligibility rules: No woman shall be rushed unless she has attained an average of 1.5 at the first mid-semester grading period she is in college, and 2.0 every grading period thereafter. Old students of the College of William and Mary must have attained a 2.0 at their most recent grading period. At all times the student must have completed the required number of hours. Upon entering the college at any time a transfer cannot be rushed until she has been in the college for at least one marking period and has at that time received a 2.0 average.

2. There shall be no association of freshmen and transfers with sorority women during the period termed closed rushing outside set rushing hours.

3. There shall be no sorority talk during the period by any sorority member, patroness, or alumna. "Sewing up" at any time before the end of rushing is sorority talk. Scrapbooks and publications may be used without comment from the members in the sorority houses. Songs may be sung.

4. Rushing shall be confined to the William and Mary campus. There shall be no driving of rushees in cars except of rushees not living in dormitories. These girls may be brought to and from dates at the sorority houses.

5. There shall be no outside entertainment at either of the rushing parties or at the open house, and no men may attend either party or the open house, or be in evidence during any time when rushing is going on in the houses. No sorority may request men to rush for them.

6. There shall be no telephone messages or conversations of freshmen or transfers with sorority women during closed rushing except concerning an invitation from a sorority.

7. The following program of rushing has been adopted by the Council for 1943-44:

a. Rushing in the houses will begin on Tuesday, November 16, and is by invitation only. Dates for all girls shall be arranged by the Council.

b. The amount in excess of ten dollars in payment for the histories must be deducted from the forty-five dollar maximum.

c. Note paper and cigarettes will not be deducted from the forty-five dollars.

9. If a freshman or transfer cannot accept an invitation, she must notify the sorority inviting her upon receipt of the invitation. PHYSICAL EDUCATION

All students are required to take physical education.

The physical education program is organized and conducted to give every student skilled instruction in a number of activities. The policy of the Department is to allow students the opportunity to select activities. Each activity is of eight weeks' duration. Especial emphasis is placed on golf, swimming, and tennis, and students may take advanced work in these activities. Instruction is provided in the following activity courses: apparatus, badminton, basketball, boxing, dancing, fencing, touch football, golf, handball, individual activities, riding, softball, swimming, tennis, track and field, tumbling, volleyball, and wrestling. The men's program this year also included a program in commando gym.

Intramural Sports

Provision is made for participation in the following intramural sports: badminton, horseshoes, touch football, tennis, track and field athletics, boxing, wrestling, and swimming. Because of the body building, social, and character-forming values of competitive sport, every encouragement is made to have students enter into one or more forms of intramural athletics. Schedules are arranged for dormitory, fraternity, and independent competition.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The general supervision of athletics for men has been delegated by the President to an Athletic Committee. The President and Faculty Committee constitute the General Athletic Council.

The College is a member of the Southern Conference, and the Faculty Committee chairman is charged with administration of the Southern Conference rules on eligibility.

A competent staff of coaches, all of whom have academic rank in the College, who are appointed for the full academic year, provide instruction in the following intercollegiate sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, fencing, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and track and field athletics, but will probably be curtailed during the 1943-44 season.

Facilities

The George Preston Blow Gymnasium was built in 1924. In this gymnasium are two basketball courts, swimming pool, three handball courts, volley ball courts, showers, lockers, trophy room and athletic administrative offices and social room.

Cary Field Park, named in honor of T. Archibald Cary, provides the following facilities: tennis courts for men and women, hockey field for women, archery range for women, baseball field for men, stadium for football and track and field athletics, with a seating capacity of 9,000, practice fields for varsity and freshman football, and space for softball and intramural games.

Fight, Fight, Fight for the Indians

Oh, we will fight, fight, fight for the Indians
When the Indian Team appears;
We will pull like hell for the Indians
When they hear our mighty cheers.

Wah-Hoo-Wah!

We will circle the ends for the Indians,
And we'll romp right down the field—
Touchdown! Touchdown! Indians!
And ————— line will surely yield.

Indian Warrior Song Wa-Hoo

(Chorus)

Sing a song to our fighting men,
A song of victory
Sing along while they win again
For William and Mary.
The brave of the bravest, fleet and strong,
They're going to win, it won't take long, so
Sing a song and our praise renew
To our fighting men and Wa-Hoo
