PRESIDENT JOHN E. POMFRET,
Twenty-first president of the College of William and Mary in Virginia

TO THE CLASS OF 1950

In behalf of the Faculty and the Administration I wish to extend to the Class of 1950 and other new students a cordial welcome. We are especially happy to welcome back several hundred men students whose education here was interrupted by military service.

In order to care for the large number of ex-service men who are returning, the College has had to resort to temporary housing. The enrollment has increased from a normal 1300 to a student body of approximately 1500. However, the proportion of men and women students has been restored to normal with the return of hundreds of men students. In fact, the College during this session will have the largest men's enrollment in its long history.

Many students throughout the country have this year been unable to gain admission to college. You, who are more fortunate, should take full advantage of your opportunity. Above all, you should never lose sight of academic obligations such as classroom appointments, thorough preparation, and achievement commensurate with your abilities. Once you gain this plateau of success, your problem of adjustment to college will, for the most part, have been solved.

Every student has an adviser, and should come to know his adviser as soon as possible. Your adviser can be of tremendous assistance to you, not only in assisting you with your academic problems, but in helping you decide what activities will be most profitable to you, and how much time you can afford to devote to extra-curricular matters. To ignore the prospect of working closely with your adviser is to waste a real opportunity. Likewise, do not hesitate to make the acquaintance of the officers and faculty of the College. William and Mary is a closely-knit community, based upon the friendliness of students, faculty, and administrative officers.

JOHN E. POMFRET, President.

TRADITIONS AT WILLIAM AND MARY

There are many traditions here. They will undoubtedly be pointed out to you many times in the course of your college life. We ask, however, that you consider only five traditions, five customs which are not limited to past glories but which are applicable to your present day life as a college student and to your future life as an alumnus of this College.

The first tradition is the tradition of belonging. You will have the feeling of ownership the minute you enter the College yard, seeing for the first time the quiet dignity of the Wren Building, the tall, majestic trees, the cool sweep of the College Green. Who comes here belongs here. This is the first tradition.

The second tradition is the tradition of fellowship. There is a custom here of the universal greeting, to professors, to fellow students, to visitors on our campus—all of whom may be strangers. Here we speak because we want to, because we feel a common ownership, a common bond closely related to the tradition of belonging.

The tradition of scholarship is the third tradition. Great scholars have gone before you here and great scholars will undoubtedly follow. The choice of study is yours, and you can gain much or you can gain little, depending upon you. College serves only as a means of stimulation, but the desire to learn must come from the individual.

The fourth tradition is the tradition of honor. This tradition is perhaps William and Mary's most revered for it is a tradition of thought and conduct. In another part of this book, you will find a clear statement of the principles, purposes, and ideals of the honor system. It is enough to say here that fundamentally your life is governed by your own sense of honor and by it you will be judged.

The fifth and most important tradition, to which all the others contribute is the tradition of service. Only through a deep appreciation of the traditions of belonging, fellowship, scholarship, and honor fostered during the period of College residence can the real understanding of service be attained—service not only to the College and community, but to the broad principles of democracy, for which the College of William and Mary has long been known.

COLLEGE SONGS

Alma Mater

Hark, the students' voices swelling,
Strong and true and clear,
Alma Mater's love are telling
Ringing far and near.

CHORUS

William and Mary, loved of old,
Hark, upon the gale
Hear the thunder of our chorus,
Alma Mater—hail!

All thy sons are faithful to thee
Through their college days,
Singing loud from hearts that love thee
Alma Mater's praise.

Iron shod or golden sandaled
Shall the years go by;
Still our hearts shall weave about thee
Love that cannot die.

God, our Father, hear our voices,
Listen to our cry,
Bless the college of our fathers,
Let her never die!

J. S. WILSON, '02.

William and Mary Hymn

Beneath thy trees, within thy halls,
Dear College, we give praise to thee,
To pledge ourselves, whate'er befalls—
To pledge unfailing loyalty,
Our hearts are with thee, dear William and
Mary,

However far we stray.
Our noble College, hear us now—
Thy children sing to thee today!

Dear College, old in years and fame,
And richly old in honors, too.
Time shall not dull the shining name
Whose gleam our songs will e'er renew.
And as years go by, dear William and Mary,
Thy fame will never cease.
But each new year rejoice to see
Thy children's praise to thee increase.

We honor thee, not for our gain
But to make known thy majesty,
Thy truth and courage that remain
However harsh the fates may be.
As through troublous years, dear William and
Mary,

Our country fought, so thou hast fought and won,
And lived to hear thy children singing to thee now.

O thou, our guardian and our guide,
Renew our courage every hour,
And keep thy spirit by our side
To aid us with its watchful power.
Throughout all our lives, dear William and Mary,
We pledge our loyalty.
Dear college, now and evermore thy children cry
"All Hail to Thee!"

THE LIBRARY

The Library of the College contains approximately 200,000 catalogued volumes, and receives regularly 1200 periodicals. Students are privileged to go freely to the stack rooms to select the books they need, or to browse at leisure.

The Library is open on week days from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m.; on Saturdays from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.; and on Sundays from 2 to 6 p. m. and from 7 to 10 p. m.

Freshmen should become acquainted with the War Memorial Book Shelf and the Records Collection. The War Memorial Book Shelf is a collection of recently published books of significance exhibited in the Saunders Reading Room. The Records Collection contains a worthwhile group of classical and semi-classical recordings. Both collections were established by the Friends of the College of William and Mary for student use.

The principles of the Honor System are to be observed in the Library. The stealing of books from the Library is considered an offense similar to the theft of other property on the campus. Lying or any form of deceit in regard to the use of the reserved books or to the borrowing of books is considered an infraction of the Honor System and will be reported to the Honor Councils.

To each freshman the Library offers guidance by a professionally trained librarian in the preparation of his first term paper. The purpose of this is to acquaint him with the resources of the Library and to facilitate his use of them. An appointment for this service may be scheduled at the circulation desk.

1. The Student Government of the College requires that a student refrain from unnecessary and loud talking in the Library rooms.

2. All books borrowed from the Library except reserved books should be charged at the circulation desk.

3. Most books may be kept out for two weeks, subject to a fine of two cents a day after that time. If necessary, a book may be recalled by the librarian at any time.

4. Books which are on reserve may be borrowed from the Library at 9 p. m., to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the next morning; or 5:30 p. m. Saturday, to be returned by 2:30 p. m. Sunday. A fine of twenty-five cents for each book will be charged if it is not returned on time and an additional charge of five cents an hour until it is returned.

5. Books in the reference department may not be taken from the Library at any time.

6. Current numbers of periodicals may be borrowed from the Library between 9 p. m. and 10 p. m. to be returned by 9:15 a. m. the following morning. A fine of fifty cents will be charged on each periodical which is returned after 9:15 a. m. and ten cents an hour for each additional hour, until it is returned to the periodical desk. Not more than three periodicals or three issues of a single periodical may be borrowed by one person overnight.

Student Emergency Loan Fund

Small sums of money, up to $10.00, may be borrowed at any time from the Office of the Chairman of the Committee on Student Aid or from the Office of the Assistant Dean of Women. No interest is charged, but students should repay these loans as soon as possible in order that others may have the use of the money. Students having need of larger sums should consult the Auditor. The Student Emergency Loan Fund was established by The Friends of the College of William and Mary.

COLLEGE REGULATIONS

I.

The College assumes that men and women of college age are able and willing to maintain standards of self-discipline appropriate to membership in a college community. Therefore, the College purposely refrains from promulgating a rigid code of discipline. However, it reserves the right to take disciplinary measures compatible with its own best interests.

The discipline of the College is vested in the President by the action of the Board of Visitors. Cases involving minor infractions of discipline are handled through the offices of the Dean of Men and the Assistant Dean of Women respectively. Serious infractions are considered by the Discipline Committee, which represents administration, faculty, and students.

Aside from cheating, lying, and stealing, which fall under the Honor System, and infractions of the rules set down by the Women Students' Government Association and enforced by the Judicial Committee, the fundamental test for disciplinary action by the College authorities is whether the behavior complained of tends to throw discredit on the name of the College of William and Mary, or to manifest ungentlemanly conduct on the part of the students.

Hazing or the subjection of a student to any form of humiliating treatment is forbidden. The hazing of students in a state supported institution is a violation of the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The College regards any evidence of the misuse of alcohol as a serious breach of accepted standards of deportment, and such abuse is punishable by probation or dismissal. By regulation of the Board of Visitors students are not allowed to have automobiles except by special permission of the President. Firearms may not be kept in the dormitories. They should be deposited in the office of the Dean of Men.

In general, the College strongly disapproves of all forms of vandalism and disturbance. Students who deface property or destroy fixtures will be dealt with summarily. The defacement or destruction of state property is a violation of the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia. Students who through noisiness or other disturbance continually annoy their neighbors will be asked to withdraw.

Manners and behavior that would not be tolerated in the student's home cannot be tolerated in the classrooms, the dining halls, or the dormitories. The College highly approves of regular habits of living, and these include hours of rising and retiring that are compatible with regular classroom appointments and regular study habits. Long experience has shown a striking correlation between irregular and slovenly habits of living and lack of adequate performance in the classroom. Students are expected to keep their rooms reasonably clean and tidy at all times. It is important that the students' rooms be as presentable as the College grounds, the classrooms, and the dining halls.

II.

Any undergraduate who marries without the full knowledge and consent of his or her parents will be required to withdraw. Such consent must be submitted to the College in writing by the parents prior to the marriage. Information concerning the regulations governing the admission and residence of married undergraduates may be obtained from the office of the Registrar.

III.

Students are expected to be present at all their regularly scheduled classroom appointments. This rule applies especially to the periods just preceding and following the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Holidays. Absence at such times interferes with the orderly progress of academic work and is contrary to collective interests of the College. Students who do not conform to the catalogue regulations respecting attendance at such times will be placed on Absence Probation. Students also who fail to meet a registration date will be placed under such probation. For a second offense a student will be required to withdraw from the College.

Attendance rules do not apply to students on the Dean's List.

At the Christmas recess all residences for men and women students close at 12 noon on the day following the end of classes, and re-open at noon on the day before the resumption of classes. At the end of the session the residences will close at 12 noon on the day following graduation exercises. Students may not remain in the residences beyond 12 noon on the days specified. Exception will be made for those men who are employed, in which case arrangements must be made with the Assistant Dean of Men.

IV.

Students desiring to have overnight guests in any one of the dormitories or sorority houses are required to make arrangements in advance with the Assistant Dean of Women or the Dean of Men, as the case may be.

All guests must be registered with the Hostesses in the residences for women students, and with the Hostesses or Student Dormitory Managers in the dormitories for men students. Visits of such guests should be limited to three days and confined to week-ends. Guests will not be entertained during the periods of examinations.

V.

In order to maintain a proper balance between hours of employment and academic loads, the College requires that all student employment on the campus or in the city be assigned by the Chairman of the Committee on Student Aid.

VI.

The social standing of every student is identical with the academic.

VII.

The College reserves the right at any time to suspend or dismiss a student whose conduct or academic standing is in its judgment unsatisfactory.

Registration as a student of the College of William and Mary implies that the student will familiarize himself with those general regulations governing the conduct of students, and that he will abide by such regulations so long as he remains a student of the College.

Activities

Colonial Williamsburg

The educational facilities of Colonial Williamsburg are available to all students enrolled in the College of William and Mary.

Students at the College of William and Mary are issued complimentary tickets which give them the privilege of visiting the exhibition buildings at their convenience and as often as they desire. These tickets may be obtained at the Goodwin Building where the administrative offices of Colonial Williamsburg are located.

This cooperative agreement with Colonial Williamsburg will make it possible for students to have a unique opportunity to study colonial history and culture. Freshmen are urged to visit the restored buildings as early as possible during their freshman year in order that they may know what is available for them.

The William and Mary Theatre

Four plays are produced each college year by students under faculty direction. Presented during the 1945-46 season were: Pygmalion by G. B. Shaw; Murder in the Cathedral by T. S. To these a chamber-music trio or quartet will be added. Season tickets may be reserved by students in connection with the payment of college fees or may be purchased early in the college year. A special rate for season tickets is granted to students and faculty.

Student Government

Welcome to William and Mary! The student body welcomes the class of 1950 and wishes each new student a happy and successful stay at William and Mary.

The school year 1946-47 will mark the return to normalcy for every college in the nation. The last few years have tried the patience of every student and faculty member in American colleges. Programs of study have been suddenly disrupted, shortages of everything have stolen many of the joys and carefree times enjoyed by peace time students, and, as in every war since the College's founding in 1693, too many of our fellow students will not be back to share the pleasures and benefits of the American college educational system which they fought to preserve.

You, the class of 1950 and the returning servicemen, will lead in restoring student activities to their former peace time basis. You are fortunate indeed in being able to attend college at a time when you shall be the ones to determine the future normal of the college. A sincere interest on your part in student activities, the most important of which is student government, is essential for a successful and enjoyable return to normal. The first steps have been taken in this direction with many changes having been made in the past year including a complete redrafting of the student body constitution and by-laws. You are urged to familiarize yourself with this new constitution and by-laws which are presented in the following pages and to help your class officers help you by letting them know what you want.

The student body especially welcomes the returning servicemen. Yours has been a job well done, and the desire on your part to return to William and Mary, or to enter for the first time, after having been away from school for several years is to be highly commended. It characterizes the fortitude and intelligence displayed at Anzio, Salerno, Normandy, Guadalcanal, Truk, Saipan, Biak, Tacloban, and in Tokyo and Berlin.

You have been aided in your return by a gracious people showing their gratitude for what you have done through the benefits of the "G. I. Bill." Take full advantage of this opportunity which has been afforded you, and don't be discouraged if it seems rough at the beginning. Becoming adjusted to the "old grind" again will not be easy, but that it can and has been done is evidenced by the "G. I." average which so far has been consistently above that of the student body by a neat margin.

The student body will naturally look to you for leadership because of your age and experience. Participate in student activities of all kinds, take an interest in student government and hold the offices the students will ask you to fill. You will find after receiving that old "sheepskin" that you have learned things from this experience that books could never teach.

F. E. CLARK,

President of the Student Body.

TO THE CLASS OF 1950 FROM THE JOINT HONOR COUNCILS:

The College of William and Mary has no priority which it cherishes more deeply than its Honor System. Established in 1779, it was the first to appear in any American college or university. Although the mechanics of the system have been somewhat modified, the same underlying principles that molded the System of 1779 provide the foundation of the 1946 code. The very essence of the system is individual responsibility; each student is an integral part of it. Not until each member of the student body realizes the significance of the principles of honorable conduct can the Honor System be of value.

The Men's and Women's Honor Councils are elected by the students. The members of the respective councils are chosen by you to deal with infractions of the Code. The breaches of the Honor Code are lying, cheating, stealing, and failure to report an offense. These breaches are punishable by dismissal from the College. Upon entering college, each student is instructed in the principles embodied in the Code. He is asked to sign a pledge card stating that he fully understands the System and intends to abide by it. Therefore, if either of the Councils is convinced that a student has committed an offense, he is asked to withdraw from college, since he has proven his incompatibility with the system upheld by his fellow students.

Honor Council*

Every member of the College is a member of the System and is obliged to accept its terms. It is assumed that all who enter the College of William and Mary in September, 1946, will take pride in upholding the System. The rules are those of decent and honorable behavior that the individual should follow throughout life. We feel certain that you, as the Class of 1950, will share our beliefs.

A WELCOME TO THE NEW WOMEN STUDENTS FROM THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Women Students' Cooperative Government Association wishes to extend a very sincere welcome to the Class of 1950 and all new students.

You are all automatically members in this organization when you enter the College of William and Mary. We are proud of our self-governing system and hope you will share with us our feeling of pride and respect.

The Association was organized because the women students, believing in self-government, wanted a greater voice and responsibility in the conduct of their affairs. The work of the organization is carried on by three councils with the aid and advice of the Faculty and Administration. Our aim is to represent and further the best interests of the women students.

We can only accomplish this aim with the help and cooperation of each individual member. That means that each member must assume a definite responsibility. You should help the officers of the W.S.C.G.A. represent you the way you want to be represented.

We hope that each of you will realize the important role you have to play in Student Government, and that you will have a real interest in the work of the Association. The greatest asset we can have is a student body with an appreciation of the ideals and principles of student government and with a genuine belief in its value; also, a student body that has a sense of individual and group responsibility, and of personal dignity and integrity.

We hope to find these qualities in you, who are now members and prospective leaders of the Women Students' Cooperative Government Association.

A MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1950 FROM THE JUDICIAL COMMITTEE

Members of the Judicial Committee welcome you, the new students of the College of William and Mary. You, as members of the Women Students' Government, are each given the privilege and the responsibility of making, understanding, and abiding by its regulations.

In your orientation program you will become familiar with the regulations as they now stand. You will each be given the Women Students' Government handbook that may be used for study and reference throughout the year. Should questions arise in your minds, the representatives on the Committee, your housemother, house president, and house committees, as well as upperclassmen are always there to clarify the regulations. After instruction in the meaning and operation of the social, house and park regulations given by your upperclassman sponsor, you will be given an examination. Upon passing it you will be expected to conform not only to the letter but also to the spirit of these rules.

It is the function of the Judicial Committee to interpret these rules and to deal with any violations of them. Each year the Committee makes a thorough investigation of the existing rules in order to clarify them, revise them if necessary, and thus eliminate any undue restraint. If revisions are accepted by both the students and the administration they are then embodied in the rule book for the next year. In this way the Committee attempts to see that each rule has a reason for its existence and that they are as clear and fair as possible.

We hope that you will make conforming to these rules an integral part of your college life. Student Government can be successful only so far as each one of you feels a responsibility towards upholding its principles and the high standards of the College at all times.

JUDICIAL COMMITTEE.

FRATERNITY ASSOCIATION MESSAGE

The present extensive system of collegiate social fraternities had its inception at the College of William and Mary with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa on December 5, 1776. Phi Beta Kappa was established as a secret organization and so remained until 1831, when the Chapter at Harvard University, as a result of vigorous assault on anti-democratic organizations by the leaders of the Anti-Mason political party, was forced to divulge its secrets. Since that time Phi Beta Kappa has been a purely honorary fraternity, membership in which constitutes the highest honor which can be achieved by a college student.

The first social fraternity, in the modern sense of the term, to be established at the College of William and Mary was Theta Delta Chi, which placed its Epsilon Charge here in 1853. Sigma Alpha Epsilon followed in 1857, and a few years later, 1871, Pi Kappa Alpha received permission to establish a chapter. These three remained the only fraternities at the College until 1890, when chapters were established by Kappa Alpha and Kappa Sigma. Sigma Phi Epsilon, which had been founded at Richmond College a few years before, entered the fraternity field at William and Mary in 1904.

The limited number of students at the College rendered unnecessary further fraternity expansion until about 1919. In that year the College began a period of rapid growth, and the greatly increased enrollment led to the establishment of a number of new fraternities on the campus. Most of these organizations were started as local clubs, but all have now been absorbed by national fraternities. From 1922 to 1931, the following national fraternities established chapters at William and Mary: Sigma Nu in 1922; Phi Kappa Tau in 1926; Lambda Chi Alpha and Phi Alpha in 1927; Pi Lambda Phi in 1929; Alpha Phi Delta in 1930; and Sigma Pi in 1931. Sigma Rho, a local fraternity was established in 1937.

The Fraternity Association, composed of the presidents of the various fraternity chapters, acts as a governing body and in this capacity draws up regulations for the conduct of the individual chapters; prescribes rules for rushing; and in general promotes wholesome inter-fraternity relations.

Because of the depleted male enrollment during the war, the Fraternity Association, in May, 1943, unanimously decided to suspend all fraternity activities for the duration.

During the college year 1943-44, local social clubs were established to provide social life and fellowship among the men. These clubs were organized with the provision that they would be dissolved at such time as fraternities were reactivated.

In September, 1945, President Pomfret, at a meeting of all fraternity men, agreed to the revival of the eleven fraternities which were on the campus in May of 1943 and to the re-establishment of the Fraternity Association.

The Fraternity Association met informally until February, 1946, drafting a temporary constitution and rushing rules to be used only for the year 1945-46. In February, 1946, officers were installed; fraternities were officially reactivated in April and the most unique rush week in William and Mary's fraternity history took place. Three fraternities had only one representative, while several others had from two to five. Approximately seventy-five fraternity men entertained over four hundred students, pledging more than two hundred.

The Fraternity Association admits that there are improvements which can and should be made in the fraternity system at William and Mary. We hope that the Class of 1950 will have a real interest in fraternities and we look to you with confidence for real assistance in the rebuilding of these organizations with the goal of making them wholesome, sound and respected student organizations which can contribute much to William and Mary.

THOMAS W. ATHEY, President
Fraternity Association.

PAN-HELLENIC COUNCIL MESSAGE

In welcoming you, the class of 1950, I would like to explain our rushing system. This year because of the small enrollment of girls, we are incorporating a quota system into our rushing plan. We will not say that it is perfect—nothing is perfect. Along with its faults please try to understand that we are thinking of you. We feel that a quota system is the only way we can make rushing possible this year. On this, your campus, prevails a rare and friendly relationship between sororities. We want to keep it this way. Without this quota system we feel that we may destroy this valuable quality.

According to this quota system, each sorority will be privileged to pledge the same number of girls—this number will be in ratio to the total enrollment of freshman and transfers. Each sorority will be allowed to bid as many girls as they wish, but in order of preference. This means that only those girls will be accepted who fall within the quota. There is a chance—which we feel we must take—of a girl's being on three sorority lists and still not be accepted. This can be remedied, possibly, by informal rushing and bidding on a quota system after mid-semester grades come out in November. You have the privilege of listing three sororities of your choice on preference. Please do this, if it is at all possible.

I realize that you are being thrust into a maze that will undoubtedly be confusing. We wish to make rushing as easy as possible for you. On Sunday, September 22, the sororities will hold an Open House. This is customary each year and will help you to get acquainted with the Greek Letters. There will be association between sorority and freshmen women before formal rushing begins provided two sororities are represented. Rushing will begin Thursday, September 26, at which time sorority women will visit the freshmen at their rooms in the dormitories. On Monday, September 30, formal rushing begins in the houses.

I suggest that you read and learn the rushing rules printed in the Indian Handbook. These will also be posted in your respective dormitories. Sorority women must learn them and it is wise for you to know them too because the responsibility of upholding them falls on both sorority women and freshmen.

There are several terms which you ought to know:

Active—A fraternity girl who has been regularly initiated.

Chapter—Greek letter names given to the individual groups of the national fraternity organization.

Pledge—Newly elected member of a fraternity who has not yet been initiated.

Rushing—The system by which the fraternities select and pledge new members.

Silence Day—The day between final parties and acceptance day when there is to be no correspondence, spoken or otherwise, between freshmen and transfers and sorority women. This day is to give you a chance to do some hard thinking and to make up your mind as to what you want to do.

Except for the Thursday party, rushing is informal and it is not necessary to change from your classroom clothes. It is customary to wear a hat and carry gloves at the final party on Thursday. It is very important for you to appear neat and natural. The sororities are choosing and you are choosing. Sorority women want girls whose personalities fits in with their group. Don't try to disguise yourself—be natural!

If you cannot accept an invitation to one of the houses, do not fail to decline by phone or by note put in the boxes in the lobby of Barrett Hall. If you do not attend a party and do not decline, you will probably be dropped from their list.

During rushing you will meet both upperclassmen and other freshmen. On your visits to the sorority houses you may find one that you will be happy in. On the other hand, you may not. Remember, it is not vital to your college career and you can have an extremely happy and successful college life without joining a sorority.

Remember to make your decision with an open mind and carefully consider the merits of ALL of the sororities. Be independent in your decision. Just because your new-found friend likes a house is not a sign you'll fit into the picture. It's going to be your sorority, choose it yourself.

ELLEN DIGGS, President,

4. Alumnae will be under the same restrictions as undergraduate sorority women at all times.

5. Sorority women may wear their pins at all times.

6. The Pan-Hellenic Council will hold mass meetings for freshmen and transfers on Thursday, September 19, at 4:00 and on Wednesday, September 25, at which problems concerning rushing and rush rules will be freely discussed and explained.

B. Pledging and Repledging:

1. There shall be no pledging or bidding of any student, freshman, transfer, or old student during the period beginning with the last day of class of winter school session until the Pan-Hellenic pledge day terminating formal rushing in October.

2. Repledging and initiation of a woman may take place at any time according to the discretion of the individual sorority.

C. Open House:

1. In conjunction with the freshman orientation program, each sorority house shall be open for freshmen and transfers on Sunday, September 22. The purpose of this invitation is to create a better feeling of understanding and democracy. No entertainment or refreshments may be provided.

D. Formal Rushing:

1. There shall be no association of freshmen and transfers with sorority women during the period termed "closed rushing" outside set rushing hours.

2. There shall be no sorority talk during the period by any sorority woman, patroness, or alumna. "Sewing up" at any time before the end of rushing is sorority talk. Scrapbooks and publications may be used. Songs may be sung.

6. The following program of rushing rules has been adopted by the Council for 1946-47:

 1. The visiting group of any one sorority shall consist of not more than four or less than two women.
 2. No sorority women may visit a rushee for more than twenty minutes. This means two groups of the same sorority must not follow each other unless the twenty minute period has not elapsed.
- b. There shall be no rushing on Saturday, September 28, or Sunday, September 29.
- c. Rushing in the houses will begin on Monday, September 30, and is by invitation only. Dates for all girls shall be arranged by the Council.

2. The amount in excess of ten dollars in payment for the histories must be deducted from the 30 dollars maximum.

3. Note paper and cigarettes will not be deducted from the 30 dollars.

4. If a freshman or transfer cannot accept an invitation, she must notify the sorority inviting her on receipt of the invitation. If she does not decline the invitation, and does not go to the house, she will probably be dropped by that sorority. Decline by telephone or by note in the sorority box in Barrett Hall.

F. Quota System:

1. Each sorority will be allowed to pledge an equal number of freshmen and transfers. This number will be decided by dividing the total number of freshmen and transfers by ten.

2. Old girls will be included in this system.

3. Final parties do not necessarily mean a bid.

4. Each sorority may bid as many girls as they wish but the list will be in order of preference. Only those will be accepted who come within the quota. Freshmen and transfers will be allowed three choices in order of their preference.

Regulations Governing Fraternity and Sorority

Social Affairs

1. A proposed calendar of events planned by a fraternity during each semester must be submitted to the Assistant Dean of Women at the beginning of the semester. This proposed calendar should include dates of regular meetings, pledgings, and initiations, as well as dates of parties, dances, serenades, receptions, teas, and other social events contemplated by the group. The proposed calendar will be reviewed by a Sub-Committee of the Committee on Students' Recreation which will return an approved calendar to the fraternity.
2. No more than three dances or parties can be held by a fraternity during the session and not more than two such parties can be held during any semester. For the purpose of these regulations a party is defined as a dance, dinner, (attended by both men and women students), or dinner dance.
3. Parties or dances are not permitted to be held off the campus except at the Williamsburg Lodge or Williamsburg Inn.
4. No dance or party may be scheduled unless a request is made at least three days prior to the day of the party.
5. Before a dance or party is held, a complete list of chaperons and guests must be submitted to the office of the Assistant Dean of Women before noon on the day of the party. Names may not be added after this hour. Chaperons must be persons associated with the College.
6. Parties may be held on Friday or Saturday nights only, except on special occasions specifically approved. No parties will be allowed on Saturday nights when College dances are scheduled.
7. Fraternity activities will not be scheduled in conflict with College convocations, lectures, plays, musical events and similar College functions.

8. Parties held on Friday and Saturday nights must be brought to a close in time for the women to be in their respective houses at 12 o'clock midnight. Picnics and such other affairs must be brought to a close in time for the women to return to the campus by 8 p. m. Parties held on special occasions must be brought to a close in time for the women to be in their respective houses by 11 p. m.
9. Any fraternity which has been placed on probation by the College will be denied the privilege of scheduling social affairs.
10. Each fraternity is held responsible for the conduct of its members and guests in conforming with these regulations and with standards appropriate to a college community.
11. The privilege of holding parties on special occasions, subject to such rules as may appear desirable in each case, may be granted at the discretion of the Committee on Students' Recreation.

Athletics

Facilities

The George Preston Blow Gymnasium was built in 1924. In this gymnasium are two basketball courts, swimming pool, five handball courts, volley ball courts, showers, lockers, trophy room and athletic administrative offices and social room.

The Women's Gymnasium and swimming pool are located in Jefferson Hall.

Cary Field Park, named in honor of T. Archibald Cary, provides the following facilities: tennis courts for men and women, hockey field for women, archery range for women, baseball field for men, stadium for football and track and field athletics, with a seating capacity of 9,000, practice fields for varsity and freshman football, and space for softball and intramural games.

ATHLETICS FOR MEN

Physical Education

Two years of Physical Education taken during the freshman and sophomore years with a passing grade each semester (continued during the junior and senior years in the event of an incomplete or failure) are required of every student for graduation from the College of William and Mary. (One credit each semester.)

The Physical Education program is organized and conducted to give every student skilled instruction in a number of activities. The policy of the department is to allow students the opportunity to select activities. Instruction is provided in the following activity courses: Badminton, Beginning Swimming, Boxing, Basketball Fundamentals, Golf, Group Games, Handball, Individual Athletics, Life Saving, Soccer, Softball, Track and Field, Touch Football, Tumbling, Tennis, Volley Ball, Water Polo and Wrestling.

A special course in adapted sports is offered for students with physical handicaps.

Intramural Sports

Provision is made for participation in the following intramural sports: Badminton, Horseshoes, Touch Football, Tennis, Track and Field, Boxing, Wrestling, Swimming, Soccer, Volley Ball, Softball, Steeplechase, Foul Shooting, Handball, Table Tennis, Shuffleboard, and Basketball. Because of the body building, social, and character-forming values of competitive sport, every encouragement is made to have students enter into one or more forms of intramural athletics. Schedules are arranged for dormitory, fraternity, and independent competition.

Intercollegiate Athletics

The general supervision of athletics for men has been delegated by the President to the Faculty Committee on Athletics.

The College is a member of the Southern Conference, and the Chairman of the Faculty Committee is charged with administration of the Southern Conference rules on eligibility.

A competent staff of coaches provides instruction in various sports. A full program of intercollegiate athletics has been scheduled for the 1946-47 session.

Athletic activities for women are sponsored and supervised by the Department of Physical Education for Women in close cooperation with the Women's Athletic Council. Faculty members of the Department sponsor the clubs of the Association, coach the varsity teams, train the officials, administer the tests, and supervise the games, tournaments and other events of the athletic program.

Women's athletics are conducted at William and Mary to afford every student an opportunity to participate in sports activities. Limited intercollegiate contests are held in certain activities and recognition is given to varsity teams.

The intra-mural program of the Women's Athletic Association offers an opportunity to all to engage in some form of competition and to win recognition for participation and skill. One or more teams are entered by each dormitory and sorority in competitive sports events. The winning teams receive points which are credited toward yearly awards for the residence groups, and each individual receives points based on her team's standing in various tournaments.

Awards for accomplishment are the intra-mural emblem, inter-collegiate monogram, and individual honor awards. When an individual accumulates 350 points, she is awarded an intra-mural emblem. The honor award, a gold medal, is given to reward the sports accomplishments of an individual who attains a total of 500 points; these points represent a distribution of participation in dormitory or sorority leagues, open meets, dance or fencing clubs, tests and managerial services.

FOOTBALL SONGS AND CHEERS

Fight, Fight, Fight for the Indians

Oh, we will fight, fight, fight for the Indians
When the Indian Team appears;
We will pull like hell for the Indians
When they hear our mighty cheers.

Wah-Hoo-Wah!

We will circle the ends for the Indians,
And we'll romp right down the field—
Touchdown! Touchdown! Indians!
And.....line will surely yield.

Indian Warrior Song Wa-Hoo

Way down in old Virginia long before the white man came

Wahoo-oo-oo; Wahoo-oo-oo.

There lived a famous Indian chief, and
Wahoo was his name.

Wahoo-oo-oo; Wahoo-oo-oo.

War was his one great delight,
And when he went out to fight,

This refrain would echo through the night:

(Chorus)

Sing a song to our fighting men,

A song of victory

Sing along while they win again

For William and Mary.

'The brave of the bravest, fleet and strong,

They're going to win, it won't take long, so

Sing a song and our praise renew

To our fighting men and Wa-Hoo.

Green, Gold and Grey

When the green, gold and grey

Go out on the field today,

We're going to win that game,

We're going to spread our fame.

O when the green, gold and grey

Go crashing through each play,

We're going to win, we're bound to win,

We're going to win today. We're going to win today.
