Dear Brother

Your kind and very welcome letter came to hand on Thursday last, in proving its contents I was indeed happy to know that you still remain at school and are progressing so rapidly with your studies. But I am sorry that you expect to give it up so soon. For it is undoubtedly the best employment you can engage in to what I think you had better do, this is to what I think you had better do, this is to go to church by forty capable of attending your own door in any society it will most abundantly with the advantage that you have within your reach you certainly ought to apply yourself and if
