Tribe Women's Tennis to Face No. 34 Wisconsin in First Round of 2005 NCAA Tournament

William and Mary's women's tennis team, ranked 20th in the nation, will travel to Clemson, South Carolina to face No. 34 Wisconsin on Friday May 13 in the first round of the 2005 NCAA Tournament ... Should the Tribe win that match, it will face either No. 11 Clemson or No. 58 Furman in the second round the following day, with the winner of that match advancing to the tournament's final site at the University of Georgia in Athens, Georgia ... This is W&M's 14th appearance in the NCAA Tournament, the 10th time in the last 11 seasons and the fourth straight year that the Green and Gold has appeared in the event ... W&M earned an automatic berth into the tournament by winning the 2005 Colonial Athletic Association tournament.

W&M Wins CAA Record 18th League Title

W&M earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by winning the Colonial Athletic Association Tournament on April 24 ... It was W&M's second consecutive conference title and the 18th time that the Tribe won the CAA in the last 20 seasons ... No other CAA school has won as many league titles in any other sport ... W&M finished second in the CAA the only three years that it did not win the conference tournament.

Two Tribe Individuals Picked to NCAA Individual Tournament

W&M sophomore Megan Moulton-Levy, currently ranked 37th in the nation, was selected to compete in the NCAA Singles Tournament, while she and senior Candice Fuchs, ranked 21st in the nation, were picked to the NCAA Doubles Tournament ... This is the fourth straight season and the eighth time in the last nine years that the Tribe has had participants in both the singles and doubles tournaments ... Moulton-Levy will make her first appearance in the event ... It will be the third doubles appearance for Fuchs, all with different partners ... Junior Megan Muth, ranked 70th in the nation, is the fourth alternate in the singles field, after advancing to the second round of the event last season ... Moulton-Levy is 6-6 this season against the singles tournament field, while she and Fuchs were 4-6 this year against the doubles field.

Awards Pile up for Megan Moulton-Levy

In her first season of collegiate competition, sophomore Megan Moulton-Levy has already earned some significant accolades ... She became the 11th W&M player to be named CAA Player of the Year and the sixth to be named the Most Outstanding Performer of the CAA Tournament ... Monday it was announced that she had been selected as the ITA East Region Rookie of the Year, the fifth Tribe player to earn that honor ... Moulton-Levy is just the third player in school history to earn all three awards in her career and the first to win them all in the same season ... Current junior Megan Muth was named CAA Player of the Year and Tournament MVP last season and was named the region's rookie of the year in 2003 ... Six-time All-American Lauren Nikolaus (1998) was named CAA Player of the Year in 1996, 1997 and 1998, was the CAA Tournament MVP in 1997 and 1998, and was the ITA East Region Rookie of the Year in 1995.

CAA Dominance

This season the Green and Gold continued its dominance of the Colonial Athletic Association by winning the school's 18th women's tennis title ... Since the conference began sponsoring women's tennis in the 1984-85 season, the Tribe has a record of 103-3 (.972) in all dual matches (including postseason) against CAA opponents ... Of teams that have been in the CAA for more than four seasons, W&M's women's tennis team is the only team (in any sport) in conference history to have never lost a home contest (regular or postseason) to another CAA opponent ... W&M has won 18 of the 21 CAA titles awarded, finishing second the other three times.

Home Sweet Home

The Green and Gold ended the regular season undefeated in its 10 home matches ... W&M also won its final six home matches of the 2004 season, giving the Tribe an active 16-match home winning streak ... The last time the Tribe went undefeated at home in the regular season was 1998, when the team was 11-0 in the regular season in Williamsburg ... W&M also went 2-0 at home in the CAA Tournament that season ... The Tribe ended 1998 in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament.

Reaching the Century Mark

This season senior Amy Wei became just the fourth player in W&M history to compile 100 career doubles victories, while senior Lena Sherbakov became the seventh Tribe player to win 100 singles matches in her career ... Wei reached her milestone on April 6, when she and junior Megan Muth, then ranked 48th in the nation, defeated Cristina Arribas and Alexa Korotkevich (Virginia Commonwealth) on April 6, 9-7 ... Wei enters the NCAA Tournament with 101 career doubles victories ... The school record of 107 is held by Johanna Sones (1994-97) ... Six-time All-American Lauren Nikolaus (1995-98) is second with 105 and Chris Mast (1979-82) is third with 102 ... Sherbakov picked up her 100th singles win on April 23 in the semifinals of the CAA Tournament, as she defeated Molly Molony (UNC Wilmington), 6-3, 6-1 ... She now has 101 singles victories, two away from tying Lindsay Sullivan (2001) for sixth in school history.

Seeing 20-20

Four players this season have already won at least 20 matches in both singles and doubles ... Sophomore Megan Moulton-Levy has the highest combined total with 55 victories (27 singles, 28 doubles) ... Also in the 20-20 club are senior Candice Fuchs (25 singles, 28 doubles), junior Megan Muth (24 and 26) and senior Lena Sherbakov (28 and 23).

W&M Earns Highest Ranking in Eight Years

The Tribe was sixth in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association National Rankings on March 15, the highest ranking for W&M since the Tribe was fourth in the nation on March 18, 1997 ... That season the College advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament, ending the year with a record of 23-7 ... The No. 6 national ranking is the second-highest for a W&M team in any sport this season, trailing only the football team, which ended the season ranked third in Division I-AA.

Not a Sin to Win

W&M extended its winning streak to seven matches with a pair of victories over ranked teams in Las Vegas in early March ... The Tribe defeated No. 57 Penn, 6-1, in a neutral-site match on March 9, before beating No. 30 UNLV, 5-2, on March 12 ... It was the Tribe's first trip to Las Vegas since March 6, 2002, when the Green and Gold lost to UNLV, 5-1.

W&M Dominated CAA Weekly Awards

On Tuesday April 12 the Colonial Athletic Association announced that the Tribe's doubles team of senior Candice Fuchs and sophomore Megan Moulton-Levy were once again selected as the league's doubles team of the week ... It was the third time the pair had been selected for the honor this season, also earning the award on March 16 and April 5 ... Fuchs was also named the CAA Singles Player of the Week on April 12, the third different W&M player to earn the honor this season ... Senior Lena Sherbakov earned the award on March 30 and Moulton-Levy received the honor on March 16 ... Since the league began naming tennis players of the week last season, W&M has taken 13 of the 26 awards.

Taking Care of Business

W&M has won 109 consecutive matches (including 71 shutouts) against unranked teams, a streak that has endured for more than 11 years ... The Tribe's last loss to an unranked opponent was March 6, 1994 at San Diego (6-3), when only the top 30 teams in the country were ranked (currently, the ITA ranks the top 75 teams in the nation) ... Since that time, W&M is an incredible 185-15 (.925) against teams outside the top 25.

W&M Beats Duke For First Top Five Win in Five Years

When the Tribe upset fifth-ranked Duke, 4-3, on the road on March 2, it marked the first win for the Green and Gold over a top five team in over five years ... Coincidentally, the last time W&M upset a top five team was also the last time that the Tribe had defeated the Blue Devils, recording a 6-3 win over then No. 5 Duke on Feb. 9, 2000 in Durham ... This year's victory over the Blue Devils was also the first time that Tribe head coach Kevin Epley had ever led a team to a win over a top five opponent.

Another Big Win

The Tribe's decisive 6-1 win over No. 16 Clemson was its first over a top 20 opponent since defeating No. 14 South Alabama, 4-1, in Williamsburg on May 10, 2003 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament ... It was the Tribe's largest margin of victory against a top 20 team since defeating No. 9 Northwestern, 6-1, in Williamsburg on January 26, 2002.

Conference Confusion

Although W&M is a member of the Colonial Athletic Association, the Tribe played just two CAA schools in the regular season (Old Dominion and Virginia Commonwealth) ... W&M was originally scheduled to play CAA member James Madison on Jan. 30, but that match was canceled when inclement weather prevented JMU from making the trip to Williamsburg ... The Tribe had six regular season matches against the Atlantic Coast Conference (Clemson, Duke, Maryland, Virginia, Virginia Tech, Wake Forest) ... W&M will also played three matches against Conference USA (South Florida, Tulane, TCU) and two each against the Big East (Notre Dame, West Virginia) and the Big 10 (Northwestern, Ohio State) in the regular season.

Season-Opening Success

W&M has won its last 17 season-opening matches and has started the year by winning at least the first two matches in each of the last 14 seasons ... This season, the Tribe opened on Jan. 23 with home wins over East Tennessee State (7-0) and Richmond (6-1) ... It is the 10th straight season that W&M has opened at home.

W&M Duo Wins 2004 ITA Doubles Title

rently ranked 21st in the nation, won the ITA East Region doubles title this fall ... The pair won five matches against unranked opponents, including a 9-8 win over Olga Borisova/Marianna Yuferova (Virginia Commonwealth) in the final, to claim the title ... It marked the second straight season that W&M took the region's title and was the third regional title in the last three seasons for the Tribe ... Last season, current senior Amy Wei and junior Megan Muth won the East Region doubles title ... Muth won the region's singles championship as a freshman in 2002.

2004 Fall Review

W&M had a successful fall season, with a team record of 56-34 (.622) in singles and 36-19 (.655) in doubles ... Tribe individuals won the title match in three singles flights and four doubles flights.
