The 2004 Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year, Kevin Epley is in his second season as the head coach at William and Mary. With a career record of 75-32 (.701), Epley came to Williamsburg from Fresno State, where he coached women's tennis for three years.

Despite a variety of injuries that plagued the Tribe throughout last season, Epley earned his third conference coach of the year honor in his four-year career, leading the Tribe to its 17th CAA title and the program's ninth NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 10 years. As W&M's injured players regained their health, the Tribe ended the regular season on a five-match winning streak, before winning three straight matches to claim the league title. In the first round of the national postseason, the Green and Gold upset No. 22 Illinois, before falling to fourth ranked Duke in the second round.

Epley also led W&M to a multitude of individual honors. The 2003 ITA East Region championship doubles team of Megan Muth and Amy Wei earned All-America honors after reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament, and opened the 2004 fall season ranked second in the nation. Muth was named the CAA Co-Player of the Year and the ITA East Region Player to watch as a sophomore, just missing All-America honors in singles after advancing to the second round of the NCAAs. Four Tribe players earned all-conference honors and the College had nearly as many CAA Players of the Week as the other nine teams combined. This fall, Candice Fuchs and Megan Moulton-Levy won the region doubles title, the second time Epley has coached the regional champs in his two years at W&M.

While at Fresno State, Epley led the team to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and a final national ranking of 25th or better each year, including a program-high eighth during the 2001 season. The Bulldogs won the Western Athletic Conference championship and Epley was named the WAC Coach of the Year in both 2003 and 2002. There, he coached eight All-Americans, two WAC Players of the Year and a WAC Freshman of the Year. His teams achieved a combined grade point average of 3.6 or higher each year at Fresno State.

Prior to his time at Fresno State, Epley was an assistant coach at the University of Arizona for the 1999-2000 season, helping the Wildcats to a No. 24

"I can't say enough about Kevin. He's a wonderful person and an excellent teacher and motivator."

Billie Jean King

20-Time Wimbledon Champion

final national ranking and a trip to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. He was also an assistant coach at the University of Alabama for the 1998-99 campaign.

Epley has significant experience in coaching some of America's top professional players, including working with legendary Billie Jean King as an assistant coach for the 2000 United States Olympic Women's Tennis Team, helping the U.S. win a gold and bronze medal in singles and another gold medal in doubles. In the summer of 2001, he was the head coach of the Saint Louis Aces of the World Team Tennis pro league, which included players such as Andy Roddick, Rick Leach, Lindsay Davenport and Jared Palmer. Epley served as an assistant coach on the U.S. Women's Tennis Federation Cup Team from 1996-2002 and also was a personal coach for Davenport and Patty Schnyder.

Epley grew up in the Baltimore area and graduated from Southern Methodist University in 1996 with a degree in finance. He was the team's No. 1 player and captain, and was twice selected to the Commissioner's Honor Roll for Academic and Athletic Excellence.

Assistant Coach Erica Perkins

Erica Perkins Assistant Coach. First Season Washington State (2001)

Coaching Experience

William and Mary Assistant Coach, 2004-05

Georgia Southern

Head Coach, 2002-04

Assistant coach Erica Perkins brings an impressive array of playing and coaching accomplishments in her first year at the College. The head women's tennis coach at Georgia Southern for the last two seasons, she was a standout player at Washington State, where she advanced to the NCAA Individual Tournament three times and is the school's all-time leader in career singles victories.

In her two years at GSU, Perkins led the team to an overall record of 22-21, including a Southern Conference Tournament semifinal appearance in 2003. She coached the conference's freshman of the year and sportsmanship award winner last season, and had four players named ITA Scholar-Athletes. In both years, her teams earned ITA All-Academic team honors, with cumulative grade point averages of over 3.5, the highest for any GSU women's team in each season.

While at WSU, Perkins helped lead her team to the NCAA Tournament four times, while earning spots in the NCAA Individual Tournament in singles three times (1999, 2001 and 2002) and doubles in 2002. A three-time Pacific-10 second team selection, she was nationally ranked as high as 34th in singles and 11th in doubles during her career. The school record-holder with 87 career singles victories, Perkins is the only player in school history to compete in four NCAA Team Tournaments, the only player to compete in the prestigious ITA National Indoor Championships and the only individual to participate in the NCAA Singles Championship. She was selected | enrolling at Washington State.

"We are extremely fortunate to have Erica as an assistant coach this season. Her experience as a head coach and an outstanding college player will be a tremendous asset to the team."

Head Coach Kevin Epley

as a first team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2002 and earned ITA Scholar-Athlete honors three times.

An outstanding player at University Prep High School in Seattle, Perkins was named her high school's athlete of the year all four years and was a four-time Washington State A/B champion.

Perkins graduated with honors from Washington State in 2001 with a degree in history and a minor in French, before earning her masters degree in athletic administration from the school in 2003. She was born February 2, 1979 and lived in the Seattle area before

Season Outlook

By most standards, William and Mary's women's tennis accomplishments last season would be classified as an unqualified success. The Tribe won its 17th Colonial Athletic Association championship and advanced to its ninth NCAA Tournament in the last 10 years. W&M recorded 20 victories for the eighth time in school history, including wins over No. 22 Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and two other victories over top 25 teams.

Tribe individuals were well-recognized with conference, regional and national accolades. Megan Muth and Amy Wei earned All-America honors by reaching the quarterfinals of the NCAA Tournament after claiming the ITA East Region Title in the fall. Muth was named the CAA Co-Player of the Year, CAA Tournament MVP and ITA East Region Player to Watch. W&M individuals received almost as many conference player of the week honors as the other nine CAA schools combined and four players were voted to the all-league first and second teams. All this was accomplished despite a variety of challenges in a season fraught with injuries.

"Last year was a good season for us in a lot of ways," said head coach Kevin Epley, now in his second year at the College. "We won the CAA title, made the NCAA Tournament and won a match there as well. I couldn't be more proud of how the team regrouped in the middle of the year, determined to make this a successful season, and then did that, entering the NCAA Tournament on an eight-match winning streak.

"Without downplaying any of last year's achievements, we think that we can far exceed them this year. Virtually our entire team is intact from last season and if everybody can stay healthy, this could be a tremendous year for us."

All four W&M seniors have been nationally ranked in singles or doubles the last two seasons and will provide leadership to the younger players on the team.

Kate Boomershine did not play in the fall of 2004 and also saw limited action in the spring of last season due to injury. Primarily playing No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles when she was in the lineup, she helped the team with a number of big victories. None may have been more valuable than when she and Lena Sherbakov teamed up to aid the Tribe in clinching the doubles point against Illinois in the first round of the NCAAs.

A two-time All-CAA selection in both singles and doubles, Candice Fuchs also saw limited action last season, but quickly returned to form this fall and is expected to return to the top half of the Tribe lineup. Ranked 99th in the nation in singles at the start of the fall season, she and freshman Megan Moulton-Levy were 22nd in the preseason spring rankings after winning the 2004 ITA East Region title.

Senior Lena Sherbakov stepped up her play last season, going 23-11 in singles, including a 17-9 record at the top two spots in dual matches. She was ranked 82nd in the preseason rankings in singles and also played well in doubles this fall with a 7-1 record and two flight championships when partnered with Kristen Dunbar.

Rounding out the senior class is Amy Wei, an All-American in doubles last season with Megan Muth, after the two advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Individual Tournament. Second in the nation in the fall preseason rankings, the pair won the 2003 East Region doubles title and tied a school record with 31 wins last season. A very good singles player as well, Wei entered this season ranked 109th in the country after earning first team All-CAA honors for the second consecutive year.

Leading the junior class is Megan Muth, the CAA Co-Player of the Year last season after earning first team all-conference honors in both singles and doubles for the second straight year. Along with her All-America doubles honors with Wei, Muth was named the ITA East Region Player to Watch in 2004, and was named CAA and ITA East Region Rookie of the Year as a freshman. She opened the 2004 fall season ranked 15th in the nation in singles, backing that up with three wins over ranked opponents and two top flight finals appearances in the fall.

W&M's other junior is Lingda Yang, who had 12 singles wins in the bottom half of the lineup last season. She opened the spring by winning eight of her first 12 matches, including a three-set victory at No. 4 to clinch the Tribe's 4-3 win over Penn. Yang also had big singles wins later in the season, helping the Tribe record close victories over No. 23 Notre Dame in the regular season and No. 22 Illinois in the NCAA Tournament.

Sophomore Alex de Guzman had a 6-3 singles record in dual matches last year and opened the spring by winning five straight contests. In doubles, she and Yang teamed up to go 5-3 in dual matches, including victories against Wake Forest and Ohio State.

Kristen Dunbar, another sophomore, led the Tribe with a .765 winning percentage in singles matches last season and was 11-2 in dual matches. She recorded the decisive points in W&M's wins over No. 23 Notre Dame and No. 22 Illinois in 2004 and carried that success through to the fall, winning her flight at the Kentucky Invitational. Dunbar also proved to be a solid doubles performer this fall, winning two flight titles with Sherbakov, after competing in just six doubles contests all of last season.

The Tribe's lone rookie is Megan Moulton-Levy, a very talented player who burst onto the college scene this fall by defeating the nation's 19th ranked singles player in the first match of her college career. She defeated four ranked players on her way to a team-best No. 33 singles ranking in the preseason spring rankings, while she and Fuchs won the ITA East Region doubles title on their way to a No. 22 national ranking.

As is the case every season, the Tribe will face one of the toughest schedules in the nation. Fifteen of W&M's 22 opponents were ranked in the preseason ITA poll, including eight in the top 25 and four in the top 10. The Tribe's season starts with a pair of home doubleheaders, before matches at Northwestern and Ohio State on February 11 and 12. W&M returns home the next weekend for a match against Virginia, which precedes what may be the toughest nine-day stretch of the season, in which the club will face three preseason top 10 teams. The day after hosting the Cavaliers, the Tribe hosts Clemson, ranked third at the start of the season. Three days later, the Tribe will head south for a match against preseason No. 8 Duke. The team briefly returns home, before starting its spring break trip at preseason No. 9 Tulane on March 6.

From there, the Tribe travels to Las Vegas for matches against UNLV and Penn to close out spring break. W&M plays at Wake Forest the following weekend, returning home for four matches in eight days against Maryland, South Florida, Fresno State and Virginia Tech. Road matches against Virginia Commonwealth and Notre Dame are up next, before the Green and Gold hosts CAA rival Old Dominion on April 13, the College's final home match of the regular season. The Tribe closes out the regular season on the road the following weekend with matches at Texas and TCU.

W&M Advances to 13th NCAA Tournament

For the 13th time in school history, and the ninth time in the last 10 seasons, William and Mary advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2004 ... The Tribe won a match in the national postseason for the eighth time, upsetting No. 22 Illinois, 4-2, in the first round, before falling to No. 4 Duke in the second round ... W&M has a 17-13 record all-time in the NCAA Tournament.

Tribe Wins League Record 17th CAA Title

The College's Colonial Athletic Association dominance continued last season, as the Green and Gold won the conference tournament for the 17th time ... No other CAA school has ever won as many championships in any one sport ... W&M hosted the entire women's and men's league championship for the first time since 1996 ... The Tribe has finished first or second in the CAA in all 20 years the league has crowned a champion.

Megan Muth and Amy Wei Earn All-America Honors

Junior Amy Wei and sophomore Megan Muth became the first Tribe individuals since 1998 to earn ITA All-America honors, as they advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Doubles Championships ... The ITA East Region champions in the fall, the duo tied a school record for most wins in a season by a doubles team with 31 and ended the year ranked 16th in the nation ... Muth and Wei upset the No. 1 team in the nation, Lauren Barnikow/Erin Burdett (Stanford), in the first round of the NCAA Doubles Tournament, then won again in the second round to reach the quarterfinals.

Accolades Pour in for Muth

Including earning All-America honors and winning the regional title in doubles, Megan Muth led the Tribe with numerous awards in 2004 ... The Colonial Athletic Association Co-Player of the Year, she was also named the ITA East Region Player to Watch as a sophomore ... Muth earned first team all-conference honors in singles and doubles for the second straight season and was named the 2004 CAA Tournament MVP, after a regular season in which she was recognized as the league's singles player of the week twice and was picked with Amy Wei as the conference's doubles team of the week three times.

Tribe Sends Two Individuals to NCAA Tournament

In addition to the team's participation in the NCAA Tournament, Megan Muth and Amy Wei were also selected to compete for individual titles ... The two reached the quarterfinals of the doubles competition ... Muth was also picked to the singles tournament, where she won her first round match ... It was the third straight season, and the seventh time in eight years, that W&M sent at least one singles player and a doubles team to the NCAA Individual Tournament.

Kevin Epley Named CAA Coach of the Year

In his first season as the Tribe's head coach, Kevin Epley was recognized by his peers as the Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year ... He has been recognized as his conference's coach of the year three times in his four years as a head coach ... Epley also received the honor from the Western Athletic Conference in 2002 and 2003 when he was at Fresno State ... 2004 was also the third straight time that he led his team to a conference championship ... A W&M mentor has been named CAA Coach of the Year nine times in the last 18 seasons.

Three Tribe Players End Season in National Rankings

Three William and Mary individuals were nationally ranked in either singles or doubles at the end of the 2004 campaign ... Leading the way was Megan Muth, who finished the year ranked 23rd in singles and 16th in doubles, with Amy Wei ... Lena Sherbakov ended the season at No. 116 in singles, after reaching a high of 78th during the spring ... The doubles team of Kate Boomershine and Candice Fuchs were as high as seventh in the country in the first rankings of the year ... Fuchs was also 16th in the preseason singles rankings, while Wei was 65th in the initial poll.

William and Mary All-CAA Selections

NCAA Postseason History

William and Mary's rise to national prominence is due, at least in part, to the team's success at the NCAA Championships. Although the College had previously placed athletes in the NCAA Tournament as individuals or doubles teams, William and Mary first reached the NCAAs as a team in 1989. In the spring of 1992 the Tribe achieved its first victory at the NCAAs, defeating 15th ranked University of Miami in the first round.

Last season, W&M advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth time in the last 10 years and the 13th time in school history. The Tribe upset No. 22 Illinois in the first round at Duke, before falling to the fourth ranked Blue Devils in the second round.

It was during the spring of 1997 that the Tribe earned its first victory in the round of 16. The Green and Gold posted a 5-0 victory over fifth-ranked Georgia to earn a trip to the quarterfinals for the first time in school history. In 1998, the Tribe again advanced to the quarterfinals as it earned a 5-3 victory over sixth-ranked California in the round of 16.

Although William and Mary can boast of team accomplishments at the NCAA Championships, numerous individuals and doubles teams have also had success at the NCAAs. The first individual to represent the Tribe was Namratha Appa-Roa, who qualified in the singles draw in 1986. During the past 17 years, W&M has placed a member of the team in the singles draw of the NCAAs 23 times, while 15 teams qualified for the doubles championship.

Current players Megan Muth and Amy Wei are the most recent W&M individuals to compete in the NCAA Individual Tournament, earning All-America honors after advancing to the quarterfinals. Muth also won her first round singles match in the postseason last year.

The Tribe saw its first NCAA All-American in 1991 when Kristine Kurth advanced to the second round. Julie Shiflet would pick up the honor in 1992 when she reached the round of 16. Karen van der Merwe earned two of her three All-America honors in 1992 when she advanced to the round of 16 on the singles side and teamed with Michele Mair to reach the round of 16 on the doubles side. She added her third honor in doubles in 1993 when she teamed with Katrin Guenther to reach the quarterfinals. Guenther would add another All-America honor in 1995 when she teamed with Lauren Nikolaus to reach the quarterfinals at the NCAAs. Nikolaus would add a whopping five more All-America honors to the Tribe's trophy case, as she captured the award in singles in 1996, 1997 and 1998 and in doubles with Johanna Sones in 1997 and Michelle O in 1998.

In all, 10 different athletes have captured 19 All-America honors for William and Mary, while 26 different athletes have represented the team in 38 events at the NCAAs in either singles or doubles since 1986.

In 2003, W&M reached the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in nine years.

Women's Tennis Hall of Fame

The ITA Women's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame was created to celebrate the milestones in women's collegiate tennis, from the early struggles for recognition to the achievement of full-fledged intercollegiate competition. Established by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association, the Hall of Fame is operated by the College of William and Mary and is housed in the McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center on the William and Mary campus.

The Hall of Fame aspires to preserve the history and further the development of women's intercollegiate tennis through the collection of printed materials, trophies, photographs, equipment and other significant items.

Each year, the Hall of Fame enshrines exceptional players, coaches and contributors in women's intercollegiate tennis. The ITA Hall of Fame Committee selects inductees from the following categories:

- Outstanding collegiate players
- Players who attended college and had a significant impact on women's tennis
- · Outstanding collegiate coaches
- Individuals or corporations playing a major role in the development of women's intercollegiate tennis

Millie West serves as the curator of the ITA Women's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame. An integral part of William and Mary athletics for more than 40 years, she is currently Director of Special Projects for W&M, after retiring in 1991 as the College's Associate Athletics Director. West also served as Women's Athletics Director and coached both tennis and swimming in her tenure.

A highly successful fundraiser, she has been a key in the success of the four BASF Wightman Cup tennis tournaments held at the College, as well as the annual Joseph J. Plumeri/W&M Pro-Am golf tournament which has reaped great benefits for the Tribe. West coordinated W&M's Indoor Tennis Center Project, which brought the state-of-the-art McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center to the Williamsburg campus. She was inducted into the ITA Women's Collegiate Tennis Hall of Fame in 1998, and has also been selected to the William and Mary and Mid-Atlantic Tennis Hall of Fame.

A 1957 graduate of Georgia College, West received that school's Alumni Achievement Award. She serves on executive committees for the Virginia Sports Hall of Fame and Williamsburg Community Health Foundation and is a member of the Old Point National Bank Advisory Board.

William and Mary

The College of William and Mary The Best Small Public University in the United States

For more than 300 years, William and Mary has been a symbol of academic distinction in America. Now, in its fourth century, the College is prepared to educate the leaders of the 21st century.

The College of William and Mary was founded in 1693 by King William III and Queen Mary II of England. Four Presidents of the United States received their education at the College - George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and John Tyler. The current chancellor of the College is former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, and he took over the post from former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher.

William and Mary was the first college to institute an honor code of conduct. The premier academic society, Phi Beta Kappa, was founded by William and Mary students in 1776. The Society of the Alumni, founded in 1842, is the sixth oldest alumni group in the nation. Now the College is designated as a "Public Ivy", and ranks 15th among the best regional business schools.

Lake Matoaka provides an on-campus field laboratory and recreational activities, and includes an ampitheatre to host concerts.

The Wren Building is the oldest one in the United States in which classes are still taught.

- W&M ranked sixth among all public universities in the analysis.
- W&M ranked 30th overall among the nation's best universities.
- The average freshman retention rate is 96 percent.
- The College's student/faculty ratio is 12/1.
- Over 46 percent of the classes at W&M have less than 20 students.
- The maximum enrollment for freshman seminars is 17 students.
- W&M ranked 17th in graduation rates for national universities.
- Over 20,000 internships are posted on the school's web site.
- 10,400 high school students applied for 1,300 spots in the freshman class for the 2003-04 school year.
- More W&M graduates go on to earn doctorates than any other university in the state of Virginia.
- Over 83 percent of freshmen at W&M were in the top 10 percent of their high school graduating class.

In addition to the historic Williamsburg setting of the College, there are many other attractions offered within a reasonable driving distance from campus. W&M is located within three hours of Washington, D.C. Whether you like surfing at Virginia Beach (one hour away) or skiing at Massanutten (less than three hours away), there is something for everyone in the W&M vicinity.

Tribe Athletics

"Exercise and recreation ... are as necessary as reading; I will say rather more necessary, because health is worth more than learning. A strong body makes the mind strong." —Thomas Jefferson, W&M Class of 1762

Few colleges in America can boast of the combination of athletic and academic excellence both men and women in basketball, cross country, that is found at the College of William and Mary. Each year, more than 500 Tribe student-athletes, competing on 23 Division I teams, prove that it is possible to simultaneously excel at the highest levels of athletics and academics.

Athletic Excellence

The 2003-04 season was one of the best in Academic Success W&M history, as the Tribe captured six CAA than the next closest competitor. Seven teams competed in their respective NCAA Tournaments, highlighted by Ramon Jackson's national championship on the parallel bars. It has become championships and send seven or more teams to the NCAA Tournament each season.

Each year the goal of the athletics department is to finish in the top 100 nationally in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings and in recent years W&M has far exceeded that standard. Punctuating this run is the College's 58th-place ranking for the 2002-03 campaign, marking the eighth field) and Ann Schnell (women's golf). time in the last 10 years that the Tribe finished in the top-four in Virginia and first or second in the Colonial Athletic Association.

William and Mary fields Division I teams for golf, gymnastics, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field. There are also field hockey, lacrosse and volleyball squads for women of the College, while there are two additional sports (baseball and football) for

The Tribe's athletic accomplishments do not titles to push its total to a dominant 76, 26 more come at the expense of its students' academic responsibilities. 83% of all athletes earn a degree while a formidable 36 athletes have been selected Academic All-America since 1992.

In 2002-03 the CAA began a Scholar-Athlete typical for W&M to win at least five conference of the Year award for each of the league's 21 sports. Not surprisingly, W&M set the pace with five athletes winning the honor, more than any other school. The College continued to set the standard in 2003-04 with another five athletes claiming the honor: Ali Henderson (women's cross country), Adam Otstot (men's cross country), Adam Hess (men's basketball), Chris Parsons (men's track and

While at William and Mary, Lauren Nikolaus was a three-time CAA Player of the Year and was named National Senior Player of the Year in 1998. She earned six All-America honors in her career and competed in the NCAA singles tournament four times and in the national doubles championships three times, including 1998 when she reached the semifinals.

Timothy Sullivan President

Timothy J. Sullivan first came to William and Mary as a freshman in 1962. He left four years later with a bachelor's degree in government, a Phi Beta Kappa key and membership in Omicron Delta Kappa.

Sullivan was elected president of the College on April 9, 1992 by the Board of Visitors and was sworn in as president on June 1, just eight months before the College began its 300th anniversary celebration.

Sullivan's life has been intimately linked with William and Mary. His wife, Anne Doubet Klare, was a fellow member of the class of 1966. Like other William and Mary alumni, they were married in the chapel of the Sir Christopher Wren Building.

After receiving a law degree from Harvard University in 1969, Sullivan went on to serve in the Army Signal Corps in Vietnam, where he received the Army Commendation Medal, First Oak Leaf Cluster and Bronze Star.

Sullivan came back to William and Mary in 1972 as an assistant professor at the Marshall-Wythe School of Law where he specialized in teaching contract law. He rose quickly, becoming an associate law professor in 1974, then full professor and associate dean in 1977.

In 1981 and 1982, he was visiting law professor at the University of Virginia School of Law. He served for nearly three years as executive assistant for policy for then-Governor Charles S. Robb. Sullivan returned to Marshall-Wythe in 1984, as the John Stewart Bryan Professor of Jurisprudence. He became dean of the law school in July 1985. He is a member of the Virginia

State Bar and the Ohio State Bar and a Fellow of the Virginia Bar Foundation and the American Bar Foundation, and he currently serves on the Board of Directors of the American Arbitration Association.

Sullivan was given the Freedom of the Drapers' Company in London in November 1992. In April 1993 he received an LLD (hon.) from the University of Aberdeen. He received the Outstanding Virginian Award from the Virginia 4-H Foundation in 1999.

Active in public service, Sullivan has been executive director of the Governor's Commission on Virginia's Future, counsel for the Commission on the Future of the Virginia Judicial System, a member of the Virginia Board of Education and the Governor's Task Force on Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault on Campus. In addition, he was appointed by Governor L. Douglas Wilder as chair of the Governor's Task Force on Intercollegiate and Interscholastic Athletics. President Sullivan served as chair of the Council of Presidents for 1998 and 1999.

Henry Kissinger Chancellor

Soldier, statesman, academician, author, peacemaker Henry A. Kissinger was installed February 10, 2001, as the 22nd Chancellor of the College of William and Mary. The former U.S. Secretary of State and Nobel Peace Prize winner also delivered the Charter Day address. Mr. Kissinger, who succeeded Margaret, The Lady Thatcher, as chancellor was selected by the Board of Visitors to a seven-year term that began July 1, 2000. Mr. Kissinger will officiate at ceremonies such as the spring commencement and future Charter Day celebrations, which commemorate the College's founding in 1693. He will also help the College extend its international reach by guiding the establishment of relationships with institutions and people around the globe.

The College's charter established the position of chancellor, stating that the role should go to "one eminent and discreet person," who would serve as the College's representative to the English crown. During the pre-Revolutionary war era, either the Bishop of London or the Archbishop of Canterbury held the position. The first American chancellor was George Washington, who served from 1788 until his death in 1799.

Born in 1923 in Furth, Germany, Mr. Kissinger immigrated to the United States in 1938 to escape Nazi persecution. After studying accounting at the City College of New York, he served in the U.S. Army and the military government of the defeated Germany after World War II.

In 1969, President Richard M. Nixon appointed him Assistant for National Security Affairs, and subsequently head of the National Security Council and Secretary of State, a post he held until 1976.

During his time with the government, Mr. Kissinger led efforts to establish detente with the former Soviet Union, opened the People's Republic of China to the outside world for the first time since Mao Tse Tung came to power in 1949, helped limit the spread of nuclear weapons, helped resolve some of the differences between the Arabs and Israelis, and played a vital role in bringing an end to the war in Vietnam.

For his efforts to end the war in Vietnam, Mr. Kissinger and his North Vietnamese counterpart, Le Duc Tho, were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Today Kissinger is an international consultant and author.

Athletics Administration

Terry Driscoll Director of Athletics

With an extensive resumé that includes four years as a student-athlete, a professional playing career and numerous jobs in the athletic business world, Edward C. "Terry" Driscoll is entering his eighth year as the athletics director at the College of William and Mary.

Driscoll's tenure has seen a wealth of improvements across the board in the W&M athletics department, from new facilities to increased fundraising for the Tribe. In addition, the Tribe has reached all-time highs in the annual Director's Cup rankings that summarize excellence in all sports.

Upon the death of legendary Tribe athletics director John Randolph, W&M president Timothy J. Sullivan chose Driscoll to be the new leader of the department, saying "Terry brings outstanding management and leadership skills to the position."

Since Driscoll took over as athletics director, he has overseen the construction of more than $6 million in facilities, including the new Plumeri Park (baseball), Albert-Daly Field (soccer, lacrosse) and the Busch Courts (tennis). Driscoll has also increased the annual fundraising totals for noncapital projects from $1.36 million in 1995 to around $2.7 million currently. He also has served on numerous conference and NCAA committees, including a stint as president of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference.

The Tribe has also had outstanding success across the board since Driscoll came to Williamsburg. In 2002-03, W&M had a school-record 10 teams compete in the NCAA Tournament. Four teams won conference titles, while six were in the top 25 at the end of their respective seasons. One of the department's goals each year is to finish in the top 100 in the annual Director's Cup rankings, and that has happened in all but one of the years that Driscoll has been the AD, with a high ranking of 42 occurring in 1997. In addition, W&M had captured 76 CAA Championships coming into the 2003-04 school year, by far the highest total among all conference schools.

Driscoll's leadership skills were developed in his collegiate years. As a student-athlete at Boston College, Driscoll captained the basketball team to the National Invitation Tournament championship game as a senior, and was named the tournament MVP. In addition to being named an All-American, his success in the classroom with a major in biology garnered him an Academic All-America honor.

After graduating from BC, he was the fourth pick of the NBA Draft, selected by the Detroit Pistons, just three picks after the Milwaukee Bucks chose UCLA's Lew Alcindor, later to be known as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Driscoll chose to play a year in Italy first, but then returned to the U.S. to play for the Pistons, Washington Bullets and Milwaukee Bucks before going back to Italy as a player and coach until 1980.

Driscoll then entered the corporate world in 1980, working for Kazmaier Associates, Inc., an international sporting goods sales and sports marketing firm. After Kazmaier purchased Bike Athletic in 1986, KSG Inc. was formed with the objective of becoming the first, and only, national sales agency in the sporting goods industry. By 1987, Driscoll was president of the company and had expanded the agency to all 50 states just two years later. In early 1990, Driscoll's contribution to a marketing research project for the NCAA was the initial step moving him from product marketing and sales to sports marketing and management. The result of the project was a joint venture between Kazmaier Associates and Host Communication - with Driscoll being named managing director and chief operating officer of NCAA International.

In 1993, Driscoll diversified his experience in the athletic world by working as the executive director of the 1994 World Cup site in Boston. In September of that year, Driscoll was again enlisted to launch a new business, Eagle International Group, an event management and services company. As vice president, Driscoll worked with Hawaii Pacific Sports as well as organizing the Women's World Volleyball Grand Prix, a five-week competition in Honolulu.

Driscoll resides in Williamsburg with his wife, Susan. The couple has two children - Keith, 28, a 1997 graduate of Holy Cross and Leslie, 24, a 2001 graduate of William and Mary.

Barbara Blosser Sr. Executive Associate AD

After serving 12 years as the College's associate athletics director, Barbara Blosser was promoted to her current position of senior executive associate athletic director in April of 2004. Blosser started her career at William and Mary as the head efforts, she was named the first recipient of the women's basketball coach in 1978 and guided the Tribe to a VAIAW crown in her first season with a school-record 16 wins (16-13). Her 1980 Tribe team (11-14) placed third, while the 1981 squad (16-16) was VAIAW runner-up. She was also at the helm during the 1984-85 season when William and Mary made the jump to NCAA Division I. Overall, she finished her coaching career with 115 wins, 84 of which came at William and Mary.

When the College's men's and women's athletic programs merged in May of 1986, she moved to administration, first serving as the Assistant to the Associate Athletics Director. Over the past 16 years, her administrative responsibilities at W&M have included the monitoring of financial aid matters, coordinating the scheduling of athletic facilities, supervision of coaches and staff and, currently, serving as the person primarily responsible for administering the day-to-day operations of the department.

From October 1992 to June 1993 and August 1995 to July 1996, Blosser also served as acting athletics director in an interim capacity. For her

John Randolph Inspiration Award. Blosser has served on various committees such as the NCAA Strategic Planning Committee and the Colonial Athletic Association Competition Committee.

Blosser began her coaching career at the helm of the women's basketball program at Ashland College in Ohio. During two seasons there, she led the Eagles to successive 15-7 and 16-8 ledgers. Her 1977 squad won the AIAW Region V Championship, while her 1978 team took the OAISW Small College title.

A former three-sport standout at Ohio State, Blosser graduated Cum Laude in 1975 with a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education. At OSU, she was selected to both Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She competed in basketball, field hockey and tennis and captained both the basketball and field hockey squads her senior year. She went on to earn her master's degree from the University of North Carolina Greensboro in 1978. In 1993, she was selected as a member of the first class of women inducted to the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Student-Athlete Support

Goals

We take pride in the many achievements of William and Mary athletes, both in the classroom and on the playing field. These support services and many others are in place to help each student-athlete achieve their goals. It is our hope that at the completion of their undergraduate career they can reflect upon:

- 1. An academic experience that prepared them for a successful career.
- 2. An athletic challenge that brought many rewards.
- A feeling of loyalty and pride in identifying themselves as a varsity athlete with a degree from The College of William and Mary.

Compliance and Academic Support

As members of the Colonial Athletic Association and NCAA Division I, the College is committed to full compliance with all NCAA and conference regulations. The department has a fulltime Director of Compliance committed to assisting students, staff and coaches through education and monitoring of compliance issues.

All entering students are assigned to a faculty academic advisor assigned by the director of Academic Advising. Students remain with this advisor until their sophomore year at which time they select a faculty advisor in their chosen major.

Within the athletic department, the Academic Support Coordinator is a valuable resource for student-athletes serving in a liaison role with the various student service offices throughout the campus community. The College has offices for Volunteer Services, Career Services, a Writing Resource Center and Oral Communication Studio, to name a few.

The department offers a variety of study, life and career building skills programs, but holds firm to the concept of self-determination—each student must take responsibility for his or her collegiate experience. Our goal is to assure that there is a support system in place to assist students to make positive and informed decisions.

Strength, Speed and Conditioning

Tribe athletics is very proud of the Joseph W. Montgomery Strength Training Center, a 5,000 square foot weight training facility. Under the guidance of the Head and Assistant Strength Coach each sport is provided with a program designed to enhance individual strength and flexibility development specific to the skills and movements required for their sport. Individuals are educated on proper lifting techniques and workouts are monitored to assure safety at all times.

Sports Psychology

The athletic department has on staff a sports psychologist, who holds a Ph.D. in sports psychology. All consultations are confidential and all student-athletes, teams or coaches are welcome regardless of the issues they wish to discuss. Consultation is available for sport psychology education, performance enhancement skills training, strategies for dealing with stress or injury, or for personal issues that may affect performance. The

Sports Medicine

The Division of Sports Medicine provides a comprehensive health care program for the department of intercollegiate athletics. The staff consists of a team physician, seven full time certified athletic trainers, two graduate assistant athletic trainers and medical specialists from the local community. The team physician has overall responsibility for supervision of the sports medicine program. Tribe athletes have the luxury of rehabilitating and treating injuries in a state-of-the-art athletic training facility.

The priority for the athletic training staff is to enhance and assure lines of communication and cooperation among its staff, student-athletes, parents, coaches, the Student Health Center and involved medical specialists. Through a team approach to health care the sports medicine program can offer comprehensive health care services to the student-athletes in a caring and cooperative manner.

Facilities

The College of William and Mary and its student-athletes take a great deal of pride in the quality of its athletic facilities. Over the last several years, the College has bolstered its lineup of venues to match the success that the Tribe has shown in the athletic arena, which has been unmatched in the Colonial Athletic Association. William and Mary boasts some of the finest athletic arenas in the nation, from its newest venue, Albert-Daly Field, to the oldest, Walter J. Zable Stadium at Cary Field, a campus landmark since 1935. The College is committed to providing the student-athlete the most enjoyable and rewarding atmosphere possible.

Tribute to Mark McCormack

William and Mary Reflects on the Life of Mark McCormack

"Mark McCormack was truly an honored son of the College. Few individuals in the course of their lifetime have the chance to see and feel and know the influence they have had on the quality and character of an institution. Mark's influence on William and Mary can be seen not only in the physical buildings he made possible by his generosity, but in the highest level of excellence he expected from his alma mater and from those of us fortunate enough to call him a friend."

-W&M President Timothy J. Sullivan

"Obviously his loss is enormous, to both the athletics department and the general campus community. He was an icon and a founder of an industry and his generosity touched many within the W&M community. What made Mark even more special was, despite his hectic schedule, he always found the time to show a special interest in the lives of our student-athletes and took the time to establish lasting personal relationships."

—W&M Director of Athletics Terry Driscoll

"There is no way that I can adequately express the loss of a person like Mark McCormack. He was a devoted contributor of time, resources and talent to the College of William and Mary, and especially the men's and women's tennis programs.

-W&M Director of Special Projects Millie West

"Personally, the area that impressed me most about Mark McCormack was that he always wanted to blend in and not stand out. He came to the tennis center he built for our program and would just want to watch, he wasn't out to call attention to himself or make himself look impressive. Professionally, he was the W&M men's tennis program. He donated the money and vision to build the best tennis center in the nation, but he also gave the program much more in terms of his time and interest in its progress and success."

—W&M Head Men's Tennis Coach Peter Daub

"There are not enough words to describe what Mark McCormack has done for me and the W&M women's tennis program. His generosity and support played a direct role in all of pur team's successes. One of the many traits that I truly admired was his ability to treat everyone with respect and make them feel special and appreciated."

—Former W&M Head Women's Tennis Coach Brian Kalbas

A devoted and dedicated supporter of Tribe athletics, he and his wife, Betsy Nagelsen founded W&M's McCormack-Nagelsen Tennis Center, endowed a tennis scholarship and were continuing sponsors of the ITA Women's Tennis Hall of Fame. Also a member of W&M's Board of Visitors, McCormack chaired the College's fund-raising campaign in 1993 that raised $153 million and was the honorary chair of the College's current $500 million campaign.
