A Wurlitzer 1250 Christmas

NO. TONAWANDA, N. Y.—"Give yourself a happy Twelve Fifty Christmas" was Ed Wurgler's (sales manager, The Rudolph Wurlitzer Company) advice to the nation's music operators as he helped Bob Bear trim the Wurlitzer sales department Christmas tree.

Wurgler (left) is placing a miniature of the Twelve Fifty model phonograph in a prominent spot on the tree, while pointing out that "music operators across the country will do themselves a favor by taking similar action on their routes."

"The Wurlitzer Twelve Fifty is on thousands of locations and has a time proven reputation for reliability, economical operation and earning power" stated Wurgler.

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

The Christmas cheer will be flowing this year once again, at least out of the jugs, but there are a number of distributors and operators who won't even pretend that Santa Claus has been too good to them this year . . . One exception is Paul Laymon's, where there's no evidence of the blues this time of the year—or any other, for that matter. Even though Paul is still taking it easy at home, resting up after his and Lucille's strenuous trip, in which they covered 7,000 miles across country, the place radiated with holiday cheer a week ahead of Christmas. Mrs. Laymon, UNbroadened by travel, had the assistance of Charlie Daniels, Ed Wilkes, Stan Turner and Red the "Demon Mechanic" in setting up a handsome Christmas tree on the front counter. And looking almost as good as genuine snow was the creamed soap suds decorating the branches . . . Another place evidencing early signs of the holiday was Badger Sales Co., where W. R. Happel Jr. seems to take a real delight in playing Santa Claus to his customers and even casual visitors like ourselves.

Noticed that the new C. A. Robinson tenant is fully moved in, the window at 2307 W. Pico Blvd. reading Automatic Enterprises, Distributor of Lyon Automatic Cup Dispensers . . . Al Bettelman, who was holding down the Robinson home front while Charlie took the Reno run, noted that Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer, seems to have favored the Nevada city over L. A. this year . . . Speaking of Nevada, Automatic Games are in the process of realigning their Las Vegas setup. Sammie Donin has moved back down to L. A. and Dannie Jackson is looking over the Vegas deal while Georgie Warner also visited there before making the San Diego territory. Sammie ran up to Oakland to spend the holidays with his family and will probably concentrate on the local picture upon his return. Meanwhile the Pico Blvd. building is for sale, complete with powder room and penthouse.

Looked over the new "'51-50' Rocket" Rock-Ola at General Music and duly impressed with its compact and attractive selection of 50 records. Bud Parr and Fred Gaunt appear ready to do a great sales job on the machine as soon as they get their first shipment for sale . . . Keeney's new 4-way Bowler attachment is the thing (with apologies to Keeney and Phil Harris) these days at Badger Sales, where the first shipment of Williams' "Music Mite" is eagerly being awaited and Universal's "High Score" bowling game appears a live one with its 15 pins instead of 10 . . . On the Row: Norman Christ of Lompoc . . Lancaster's Cece Ellison . . . G. G. Cooper and Jack Neal from Riverside . . . S. L. Griffin of Pomona . . . Ventura's Perry Irwin . . . Jack Mallette of Claremont . . . Johnny Ketchersid of Artesia . . . C. E. Stevens from Duarte . . . Big Bear's Jack Spence . . . Bud Holloway and Ben Goodsell from San Bernardino . . . Maywood's Jack Meyers . . . Kenneth C. Wolfe from San Diego . . . Charles Hartman of Bakersfield . . . L. J. Holmber of Santa Ana.

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL, MINN.

It seems as if last week all of the operators from Grand Rapids, Minnesota decided to come in and do their Christmas shopping and machine shopping. Seen in town on the same day were Walter Johnson, Frank Mager and Gabby Clusieu . . . In town for a quick trip was Dick Henderson, of Willmar . . . Hank Krueger of Fairfax, also made a quick trip into town, and he says that he will be so busy this winter that he will not be able to do any ice fishing . . . Charlie Sersen of St. Cloud and his son Tommy who is attending the College of Mines at the University of Minnesota, picked up three rebound shuffle boards, which were donated to Pioneer Hall and Centennial Hall, which are men's dormitories at the University.

Don Ehman, secretary of the Minnesota Operators Association, was seen in and around town shopping for machines . . . Dick Grant of Seaton, Minnesota has decided to add a few bowling machines to his route . . . Frank Davidson of Spooner, Wis. was in a hurry to get his business done so he could get back home again . . . Danny Heilicher who is associated with his brother Amos at the Advance Music Company, has returned from a cross country hop. Danny is in the reserves and since he had to put some time in, he made the cross country jaunt. We later heard that he wound up in Miami for a couple of days, which is not bad. Do you need a passenger, Danny?

Phil Smith and his family has finally moved into their new home at 2645 Jersey Avenue, St. Louis Park, which is a suburb of Minneapolis. Carl Petterson of Fergus Falls, was seen in and around town and from the information that was received he added more bowling machines to his route . . . F. W. Schoefter of Valley City, N. D., finally is up and around after being laid up in bed for two weeks . . . Jack Backus of Jamestown, N. D. was in town for sevaral days and stated that we have a lot more snow down here than in his home town, which is further north than the Twin Cities.

EASTERN FLASHES

Collections this past week took a slight jump, much to the surprise of the operators, who weren't looking for any increases right before the holidays. Usually the slump continues until after Christmas. However, there had been a decrease during the past few weeks, and the increase was mighty welcome. Wholesaling activity, for the most part, is quiet. Operators are picking up whatever they need for the moment for the holidays, and buying mostly records, parts and accessories for their immediate needs. With conditions as they are, and all anticipating limited amounts of new machines available in the near future, wholesalers expect operators to begin active buying immediately after the holidays.

The dirmer party held by the Associated Amusement Machine Operators of New York at the Latin Quarters on Sunday night, December 17, was acclaimed a tremendous success by the officers. Altho they had been limited to 300 tickets, and these were sold out weeks ago, the night club management were able to accommodate an additional 25 guests. Joe Hirsch, business manager, supervised the arrangements and greeted all the members and their guests as they arrived. Louis Rosenberg, popular president, was gifted with a gorgeous gold wrist watch and gold band by the membership upon his arrival. His wife was presented with orchids. Everybody had a grand time, enjoying particularly the unusually fine floor show . . . Bob Charles, Binghamton Amusement Company, Binghamton, N. Y., and his wife, drove down especially to join the fun . . . At the Dave Lowy table, as his guest, was Herbert Horowitz of Gibraltar Factors . . . Sam Bushnell of Standard Factors was also seated at this table . . . The Runyon table, spotted right up against the dance floor, kept the men folk's eyes popping when the girlie revue was on . . . Joe Kochansky had his beautiful young daughter with him. Joe, by the way, leaves for a Miami Beach vacation . . . Mike Munves wasn't fooling when he told us he's going away to Bermuda with his missus for a vacation. He leaves this week by boat. Joe Munves will curtail his road activities for this period, and remain at the office until Mike returns.

Sol Tabb of Hy-Sol Music Co. Brooklyn, left Monday, December 18, for this period, and remain at the office until Mike returns.

Sol Tabb of Hy-Sol Music Co., Brooklyn, left Monday, December 18, for a five week stay in Miami Beach. Sol, his wife and four children are driving down. He intends to see all his many New York friends there . . . Milty Green, American Vending Company, and his beautiful blond wife, also leave for the sunny climes of Miami on Tuesday, December 19. Milty has quite an office in Miami, and at one time lived there all year around . . . Al Koondel reminds us that his son is being bar-mitzvahed on January 13, and expects to be host to many coinmen friends. Lucky Skolnick, Al's partner, planning on a party, but it can't take place for a number of months . . . As we mentioned in last week's column, Barney (Shugy) Sugerman and his family off for a Miami vacation. (He left on Wednesday, December 20.) . . . Al Herman, Boro Automatic Music Company, Brooklyn, had quite a time at the operators' dinner. The trade claims he's one of the best looking coinmen around—as well as one of the nicest . . . Jack Semel mighty proud of his brilliant daughter, whose advances in the medical field keeps progressing rapidly. The young girl was appointed this week to the staff at the Long Island Hospital (one of the country's leading hospitals) as a consultant . . . "Senator" Al Bodkin and his dark haired beautiful wife spread plenty of sunshine at the dinner, as usual . . . Sam Stern, Williams Manufacturing Company exec, visited his distribs in Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore. At Baltimore, he attended the 25th anniversary party of General Vending Sales Corp. . . Also on hand for this big party was Frank Mencuri sales manager for Exhibit Supply Co. . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., highly pleased over the music operator reaction to ChiCoin's "Band Box," and reports large number of orders from coinmen in his area . . . Irving Fields, fabulous piano player, and writer of Miami Beach Rhumba, and scores of other tunes, opens at the Saxony, Miami Beach, Fla., on January 5. Irving invite

DALLAS DOINGS

The Yuletide spirit has hit us all and I do mean spirit. . . . This day began with the Mayor of East Waco bounding through the door with gifts for all. With the gifts came the gab about his "Debbie". The usual round of open houses were attended by most of the operators. We started at American Distributing Company and were hosted by those terrific Matassa Boys. By the way, "the thing" is on display at American and when I last saw it, it was complete with Christmas decorations. . . . The open house at Buck Nash's place started at ten in the morning and continued until four the following morning. What a party that must have been. . . . Many of the local ops were taking advantage of the holidays by catching up on their hunting. A. G. Friedel, and Leonard Kollman among them. . . . The Dallas operators wish to express their sympathy to Boyd Wiley, whose wife passed away Friday, December 8th.

Phil Weinberg missing the Christmas holidays and being missed by his many friends. Phil flies in from Washington, D. C. Christmas eve. . . . Carlo Lewis dropped by with raves about his and Tony's Night Club, Lake Inn Lounge, located in Marlin, Texas. The boys are doing all right with the big name hillbilly artists. By the way, Carlo is riding around in a spanking new Olds. . . Ray and Reba Barnes in Dallas overnight. Took in the Cipango Club for a gala evening. . . Commercial Music Company has been host to Gary Sinclair of the Rudolph Wurlitzer factory, for several days. Gary says he likes the way things get done down Texas way and likes us southern people just fine. . . . Tommy Chatten just returned from two delirious weeks in two different hospitals. We're glad to see the old boy back on the job. . . B. H. Williams is breezing through Oklahoma this week, working with his Okla. City office. . . Business is great in Fort Worth, according to Benny McDonald. . . . Jack Askew of Commercial will use his Christmas holidays going to and from Canada. Jack will visit with his family for ten days. . . . George Prock returned from West Te

The end of the year will be just about here when you read this column. And that takes us back over the many weeks which have gone by. The bigs and that takes us back over the many weeks which have gone by. The bigs are also as the Winter months came on. Urgings from this publication for months to all engaged in the field to "get set" for a tough and long struggle ahead when no new equipment would be in sight. The fact that production is over 80% off right now and will probably go down even more. Ops should awaken to the facts as they read their daily papers, listen to their radios and any, in the field dare predict what tomorrow can bring. In fact, there are some who are of the wholehearted belief that this entire biz, as far as new products manufacturing is concerned, can be closed down, but all of a sudden. That would leave many an op destitute and he would be paying more for old and used machines that he'll pay for new machines right now. . . We all fall feel we'd like to get out there and take just ones smash, one hard sock with all we have, at every dammed red in the world. But, this is the time to remain calm. Keep cool. ## How To Use "The Confidential Price Lists"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Confidential Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Confidential Price Lists" acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Confidential Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. "The Confidential Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory. METHOD: "The Confidential Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.
