Weintraub Stresses 5-Point Program At NYS Ops Meeting

INGSTON—The March meeting of he New York State Operators Guild, nc. was held at the Governor Clinton Iotel here on the 18th. The regular usiness meeting was omitted to allow mple time for a report from Morris Veintraub, Managing Director, New York Automatic Vending Association, n which he urged operators to abide by the NAMA 6-Point Self-Regulation Program as it pertains to cigarion Program as it pertains to cigartte vendors.

Weintraub's talk highlighted the reed for cooperation among operators teed for cooperation among operators is a unit, in removing cigarette vending machines from locations which the frequented by teen-agers and which are not supervised as far as machine sales are concerned.

Weintraub asked the ops to use the NAMA stickers which outline the 'Minors Forbidden' law, and to remove machines in the upstate area which find themselves in vulnerable positions of attack from anti-teenage smoking groups. Weintraub covers the entire State regularly, urging operators to abide by all laws which concern automatic merchandise machines.

Amend NYS Liquor Law To Exclude Ops From $100 Alteration Fee

ALBANY—The Laverne-Lounsberry amendment to sub-division 99d of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law passed through both houses here last week Alcoholic Beverage Control Law passed through both houses here last week, thereby relieving coin machine operators of having to pay a $100.00 fee for the placement of a machine on location. The law which referred to a "substantial alteration" and which included coin machines now excludes these machines via a clause which reads "providing any installation of equipment or amusement device does not alter the seating capacity . . . shall not require a fee." Details of the bill and the affects this legislation will have on operators in New York State will be published next week in Cash Box.

BULLETIN

N.Y.S. Senate and Assembly send Operators' Licensing Bill to Governor for Signature

The New York State Assembly, following approval by the Senate, unanimously approved the Laverne-Lounsberry amendment to the Robinson-Esquiral Bill 982, thereby sending to Governor Nelson Rockefeller for his signature within 30 days, a bill which will license games operators in New York State and which will legalize free-play where pin games are now permitted to operate. Earlier reports from Albany appear below.

ALBANY — The Laverne-Lounsberry Bill which calls for a license for oper-ators of amusement machines in New York State, and which is industry-inspired, passed the Senate here late Wednesday afternoon March 25. The York State, and which is industryinspired, passed the Senate here late Wednesday afternoon, March 25. The substituted Senate Bill was then sent to the Assembly for a vote late Thursday afternoon and at press time there was no official word that the Assembly had acted on it. Industry leaders in Albany advised Cash Box that the License Bill stood "an excellent chance" of receiving the approval of the Congressmen, thereby establishing a license fee of $600 payable every two years by owners and operators of "one or more machines." The bill also will legalize free-play pinball machines where pin games are now legal, thereby amending the Robinson-Esquirol Act 982 which prohibits the operation of a game which offers "a thing of value." The Laverne Bill changes a free play from a "thing of value" to a "legal offering which must be played out at once and can not be recorded."

The legislation received tremendous opposition from liquor dealers, hundreds of whom were on hand lobby-radically change the liquor license laws in New York State. The liquor dealer-lobbyists fought the bill for dealer constituents.

Coin machine industry leaders here have spent the week attempting to inform the liquor dealers of the contents of the bill stressing that "this legislation will benefit the dealer or location owners possibly to a greater extent than it will the operator of games." Reasoning is that the amendment will automatically legalize all coin-operated equipment which here to fore was subjected to harrassment from police officials who enforced the previous legislation "to the letter of the law." It is expected that locations could now benefit from income from machines not heretofore permitted. They also said that locations lost income from machines which were removed after charges of "racketeering" were placed against ops. Licensing is designed to prevent hoodlum types from entering into the business of operating equipment. Complete details of both bills will be reported upon in Cash Box next week.

Pennsy Ops Unite

HARRISBURG—The Amusement Machine Operators of Pennsylvania held a meeting here Sunday, March 22nd, and voted to consolidate forces in a drive designed to strengthen the association's membership and its standing before the state and local legislatures.

President Sam Daub succeeded in bringing together factions which heretofore reportedly weakened the association association.

At the close of the meeting, all side

At the close of the meeting, all sides were working in harmony and the common goal was termed "strength in unity." Members elected James Amato, Treasurer, and Joseph Lasala, Business Manager.

Operator Phil Eisenberg, Chairman of the Board, asked for a vote of appreciation for Pres. Sam Daub. A massive change was made in by-laws approval of expenditures, and aims of the AMOA. The cost of these changes must be borne by increased membership at $120 per year (including MOA dues). Immediate plans call for presentation of industry-gathered figures, before the State legislature, highlighting the standing of the commachine industry in the state, as an important segment of the economy.

HOW MANY DID YOUR FIRM SHIP IN 1963?

When you stop to consider that the above figure represents an increase of $10,385,903 over the coin machine export volume for 1962, it would be wise to check your export sales figures and compare the increase. Chances are your export sales program needs revitalizing.

The most economical way we know of reaching the buyers for the coin machine export market is with a Cash Box Advertising Program. Highlighting our export issues are four quarterly Export Volume Reports published the moment sales figures for machines are made available.

The Cash Box ANNUAL COIN MACHINE EXPORT VOLUME REPORT for 1963 will be published during the week of April 6th, as part of our regular April 11th issue.

In addition to the four quarterly reports for the year 1963, a comparison between 1962 and 1963 complete fiscal years will be presented with an analysis. This ANNUAL EXPORT REPORT will also carry the valuable country-by-country listings with phonographs, amusement machines and vending equipment separated for quick reference. It is the only coin machine report of its kind and export firms advertising in this and other export issues published during the course of the year benefit from the invaluable readership among coin machine importing firms all over the world.

Eastern Flashes

The combination Passover-Good Friday holydays brought the work week to an early end last week with some firms closing down all day Friday and most leaving before the close of the day's regular business schedule.

The Denise Darcel photo which appeared in Cash Box last week has brought more comment than any other feature which appeared in the coin machine section in the past month and we wonder if anyone noticed that the pool table that the well-endowed celebrity played on was a Valley bumper game (!)

Abe Green, Barney Sugerman and Irving Kaye have formed Scopitone Inc. U.S.A., and will manufacture the Frence-movie-music machine on these shores for consumption by the US coin machine industry. Alvin Malnick, a Miami attorney, is also part of the group which make up the firm's management. Jack Mitnick, veteran coin machine sales exec, is Managing Director of the company. Williams Morris Agency will produce the necessary films, which together with Scopitone's library of movies from Europe, is expected to be more than enough to keep locations jumping with the new entertainment medium.

Mike Munves heard from brother Joe who is heading eastbound via the northern return route and arcade sales really couldn't be better.

Meyer Parkoff and Murray Kaye and staff hosted about 25 operators at a Depreciation-Tax Forum last week and the boys are better informed on the financial end of the business, having listened to the experts for about two

Bert Betti and family off on an Easter Holiday Cruise, to the Caribbean.... Sam (Music Moments) Morrison stopped by the office to explain the shortage of coins all over the country: coin collectors are hoarding 'em and getting 10% and 15% more than they paid for them upon the resale. Who do they sell to? Other coin hoarders, states Sam, who collects coins himself. "The growing shortage of nickels will undoubtedly help my dime play business," observes UJA-Coin Division meeting April 8th will probably be held in a hotel so watch for the announcement or you'll be waiting for the meeting to start hours after it's over. Should you go to UJA headquarters by mistake.) We'll carry the site and UJA will do a mailing to keep everyone informed.

Meanwhile, the list of ticket-holders for the June 6 Victory Dinner continues to grow as Harry Suskind, this year's guest-of-honor bowls over tables-full-of-guests. The recording artists and comic-entertainers are also lining up on Siskind's side, so look for a smash show.

Al D'Inzillo, who doubles on US Billiards actions as well as Albert Simon Inc. distrib business, has his hands full with orders for the new 'Pro' line. Art Daddis is still on the road and continues to sign up new distribs for the 6-pkt. line.

Games ops in the Metro NYC area aren't completely sold on the idea of a license to operate equipment, which is the heart of the Laverne Bill, a Senate bill which was, at press time, awaiting action last week. Many ops feel that the license may lead to governmental control and eventual loss of license due to violations brought about by infraction of rules similar to the situation the location owner has today—problems with minors, gambling, and other misdeeds of which the op has no control. On the other hand, some coinmen believe the license is the main step in the direction of legitimacy and a wedge against possible future taxation. At press time, no word from Albany.

Millie McCarthy addressed the Pennsylvania Amusement Machine Operators Association last Sunday and her talk was reportedly sprinkled with vital industry problems and the solution in most instances was seen through stronger association. Mrs. McCarthy was scheduled to fly back to Albany following the meet, in order to be on hand for the close of the State Legislative Session, and specifically the position of the two coin machine bills—concerning alterations and licenses.

Sol Lipkin of American Shuffleboard, and Clifford D. Oldham, of ARA, discussed recreation a la shuffleboards, and refreshment a la vending machines respectively, when they addressed the Eastern Regional Meeting of the Intl. Assoc. of Swim Clubs, Pools and Beaches, of which Bob Blundred is Executive Secretary. The meet was held March 18-19 in Atlantic City, NJ. American Shuffleboard will launch a promotional campaign directed at owners of swim clubs throughout the nation, according to Blundred.

The vending machine industry is in the headlines again. Sam Margolis, S&H Vending, Philadelphia, has been named by Sen. John L. McClellan (D. Ark.) as the vending machine operator who received 275 shares of Sonny Liston's stock in the promotion corporation which staged the Clay-Liston fight last month in Miami, for his help in setting up the corporation. McClellan said the stock was worth $100,000. S&H operates cigarettes and candy in the Philly, Delaware and Chester County areas. Garland Cherry, an attorney, and secretary of Intercontinental Promotions Inc., told the Senate sub-committee investigating the boxing profession, that "according to hearsay" Liston gave the stock to Margolis. investigating the boxi the stock to Margolis.

Wurlitzer execs A. D. Palmer and Bob Bear delighted with the continued eak sales on the "2800" phonograph. Harold Kaufman, New York City distrib, agrees that the "Top Ten Tunes" is one of the prime reasons for the Seeburg's swinging with 'Twin Packs' now and ops are taking the initial Sinatra release as quick as Atlantic NY Corp, can get 'em out. Evidently the Sintara name is still magic on the machines and there is no end to the number of selections a machine will carry. Witness the jukes about this nation which feature nothing but Sinatra selections. No word on the artist named to carry the second Twin-Pack. Speaking of 'packs,' check the Seeburg 'Pick-a-Pac' next time you're in the showroom. The possibilities are unlimited. 15 selections, up to 315 items, handles twelve different prices.

Suren Fesjian, President of Mondial Commercial Corp. and Mondial International Inc., will depart for Europe on Wednesday, April 1st. He'll visit the southern countries of Europe, following Dick Sarkisian's recent tour which covered the northern territory. Mondial is constantly in touch, in person, with its network of official distribs, all of which makes for smooth exporting of Gottlieb, Williams, ChiCoin, Midway, Southland and Urban equipment.

Chicago Chatter

An on the spot tour along Chi's coinrow definitely reveals that Spring is a last, with major activity in all types of amusement and vending quipment. Coinmen in all phases of coinbiz, manufacturing, distribution and operating, stress the approaching arcade and amusement park season, along with increased business in all other types of locations. . . . A spirited increase n sales is reported by Sam Stern, prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp.; and sales manager Jack Mittel, who state that Williams' "Grand Slam" baseball amusement game, and "Oh Boy" two-player flipper game are being pushed ard in production to meet the heavy demand in all territories in this country and overseas.

After chatting with J. H. Keeney president Art Weinand and Clayton Vemeroff t'other day we learned that sales have been steadily increasing in Keeney's "Colorama." Also export biz is booming at Keeney. . . At this ime there's no doubt, according to Alvin Gottlieb, that D. Gottlieb & Co's. ery popular 4-player flipper skill amusement game, "Ship-Mates" is easily ne of the most accepted and demanded amusement games ever created in the Gottlieb factory. To this, Nate Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg eagerly concur. . . . On the distrib level Joe Kline informs that the heavy operator raffic at First Coin Machine Exchange warms the cockles of his heart. Other pusy First Coin staffers are Sam Kolber, Fred Kline and Cliff Mueller.

The music business is certainly not taking a back seat either these lovely an... Spring days. A visit at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. with Edward G. Doris, Dave orted Howle, George Hincker and Jack Barabash indicated that phono and vending 10% nachine sales are definitely up. . . . We received very optimistic sales reports ell to from genial Stan Jarocki at the Seeburg Corp. We've known John A. Stewart, rowin Seeburg vice president (Financial Division), for many years. Thus, it is a listinct pleasure to hear of his appointment last week, as announced by Jack C. Fordon, executive vice prexy, to the executive staff of the firm's Music Instrunent Division in Laconia, New Hampshire.

Those happy grins on Atlas Music Co. prexy Eddie Ginsburg and Stan Levin ell us that business is great at Atlas Music. Stan reports that the Rowe-AMI Tropicana" phono and Rowe vending machines are very popular among area perators. A second service school session was held in Atlas Music's show-looms last Wednesday evening, March 25, with Cliff Bitting and Hank Hoevelaar conducting the classes, and Frank Bach, Ray Grier and Johnny Havrilla loing the "kibitzing." . . . Oops! Our typewriter slipped, when we referred to Bally's new "Bongo" as "Bingo" in last week's column. Herb Jones however, sez it this way: "Bongo' or 'Bingo'—it's still the hottest amusement game in for the wears! And, our sales figures easily bear this out!"

The outlook for this season is extremely good in Chicago Dynamic Industries, according to Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff. Amusement games receiving warm acceptance everywhere are ChiCoin's "Spotlite" puck shuffle alley, case "Cadillac" big ball bowler, and "Champion" rufle-target range. . . . By the way: I've word from hard working MOA director Fred Granger is that contracts and of and floor plan availabilities will be mailed during April to all prospective exhibitors for the 1964 MOA Convention, October 14-16, in the Sherman House a well Hotel. A massive area, 30,000 square feet of exhibit space will be available to my.

During a brief visit at Empire Coin Machine Exchange with Gil Kitt (Empire's owner) and sales chief Joe Robbins we noted that there is a sharp increase in sales to equip arcades. Jack Burns and Bill Milner are kept plenty busy these days chatting with ops. Jack also spends much of his time calling on the trade out in the field. . . . The big sellers at United Mfg. Co., according to Bill DeSelm and Herb Oettinger, are United's "Tempest" puck shuffle alley, "Tornado" big ball bowler, and "BankPool" billiard-type shuffle alley. . . . How's this for success: the gang at Midway Mfg. Co. is spelling it out in high style that Midway's new "Top Hit" baseball amusement game is proving as just that—a 'top hit.' Hank Ross and "Iggy" Wolverton know they have a winner in this one (no pun intended, Hank).

Another factory enjoying the benefits of a prospective excellent Spring season is Marvel Mfg. Co., where prexy Ted Rubey reports heavy production in Relays, switch assemblies and electrical scoreboards for shuffleboards. Also, Marvel's "Slugger" counter amusement game is selling well, according to Estelle Bye. . . . Chet Gore, of Exhibit Supply Co., always looks forward to the coming of Spring with eager anticipation. His "Vacuumatic" card vendors and plastic sealer machines are much in demand these days.

Rowe AC vice prexy Fred Pollak and Paul Huebsch just returned from a tour of the eastern seaboard. While there they visited the Whippany plant. Jack Harper is out of town on business. . . . The mad sales activity at Wico Corp. was heightened last week when the general offices were moved next door in an expansion of the facilities, according to Ed Ruber. Ed tells us that he and Denis Parsons are enjoying fine activity with the new Wico vending parts dept. . . There was a heavily attended service school class at World Wide Distribs on Wednesday evening, March 18, hosted by Irv Ovitz, Howie Freer, Dan Garapola and Ted Dadal. Equipment studied was Seeburg's "Marquee" and "Modular" line of cold drink vending machines. Al Getlitz, Seeburg's vice prexy, and midwestern regional manager, was on hand also. Ed Jorgenson, Seeburg field engineer conducted the classes.

Bernie Shapiro, a longtime exec in vending business, advised last week that he exited his post at Interstate Vending Co. He'll shortly announce his new connection. . . . Over at National Coin Machine Exchange we noted that the action that's usually generated by Spring is very much in evidence. Mort Levinson infos that export business is exceptionally good this year. Prexy Joe Schwartz expects a banner Spring season this year.
