

Coin Machine People packed the house last Monday evening (5/4) when the Amusement Trades Division of the Combined Jewish Appeal spearheaded the 1964 fund raising campaign with a dinner in (of all places) the Carnegie Theater lobby. Which was made available through the courtesy of theater owners Lenny Sherman and Oscar Brotman. Among the coinmen in attendance were CDA Chairman Sam Stern, prexy of Williams Electronic Mfg. Corp. (Sam was the guiding hand behind the formation of the embryo coin machine segment of the Amusement Trades Division of CJA); David Gottlieb, president of D. Gottlieb & Co.; Herb Oettinger and Phil Schwartz, United Mfg. Co.; Gil Kitt, Joe Robbins and Bill Milner, of Empire Coin; Nate Feinstein, Harold Schwartz, Fred Skor and Howie Freer, all of World Wide Distribs; Ross Scheer, Western Trails Amusement Co.; Stan Levin, Atlas Music Co.; Hank Ross, Marcine (Iggy) Wolverton and Bob Jones, of Midway Mfg. Co.; and Lee Brooks of Cash Box.

Another (surprise) attendee was genial Cyril Shack, of London, England, who was a visitor here, and decided to come along and enjoy the fun. This, he said, gave him an opportunity to see as many of his large host of friends in coinbiz in one place—at the same time. The result of this huge attendance was—as Leo Buntman asserted—that the amusement trades group went considerably over the top already in fund pledges. Much of the credit went to Emcee Irv (Kup) Kupcinet, Max Robert Schrayner (the guest speaker), this organization's chairman, Ray Marks. And, of course, coinbiz's efforts.

Congrats to Ed Ratajack, who was named to the post of vice president in charge of sales for L.T. Patterson Distribs, of Cincy by Barry Mour. Ed will concentrate on national sales of "Foosball Match" and "Ice Hockey" amusement games produced by Automaten Foerster, of Nuremberg, Germany, and other European manufactured coin-operated products. . . . Joe Kline, Sam Kolber and Fred Kline, of First Coin Machine Exchange, "snowed under" at the firm's showrooms last week.

Ross Scheer, of Western Trails, is anxiously awaiting the return of his secretary, Billie Eichenbaum, who's vacationing. The entire staff is doubling up on chores during her absence. . . . We chatted with D. B. Momsen, prexy of Kiddie Carousel Co., of Rice Lake, Wisconsin, t'other day. He's tickled over the success Western Trails Amusements is having with his kiddie ride line. Momsen is a retired navy commander, who saw action during World War II.

Construction of the new building on a site across the street from the main Seeburg plant is proceeding well. Stan Jarocki info's that the way the building program is coming along the plant will be completed in record time.

Thursday, May 7, was the target day for MOA officers to meet with amusement games manufacturers to commence planning for the 1964 MOA Convention (October 14-16, in the Sherman House). The session was to be chaired by MOA Prexy Lou Casola. The meeting was to be held in the Sherman's Jade Room.

When we chatted with Rowe AC Mfg. vice president Fred Pollak we were advised that the firm has greatly intensified its nationwide sales effort on all Rowe products (Rowe-AMI "Tropicana" coin-operated phono, Rowe vending machines of all types, and the exciting, new AC "Customusic" equipment). . . . Over at Chicago Dynamic Industries most all the ChiCoin execs are busy as blazes booking orders on the new "Bronco" 2-player, 5-ball pingame, according to Mort Secore and Ralph Wyckoff.

The big action this week at Bally Mfg. Co. is on Bally's "Sky Diver" single-player, and "Bongo" 2-player. Bill O'Donnell and Herb Jones were looking forward to the amusement games manufacturers' meeting last Thursday noon with MOA officers to help set up for the upcoming MOA Convention.

George Hincker, ad chief at Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp., informed that most everyone is in town this week, and busily engaged at the huge plant. However, Dr. Dave Rockola was in Europe to take in the Hanover Fair and the Paris Exposition. Donald Rockola just returned to Chi. He visited the Hanover Fair briefly with Al Adickes, of Nova Apparate. Frank Doyle explained to the West Coast on business. In at the offices were Edward G. Doris, Dave Howle, George and Hugh Gorman.

The word from Johnny Frantz, prexy of J. F. Frantz Mfg. Co., is that sales on his counter amusement games are holding up well as the Spring season progresses. . . . A distrib who's working pretty hard these days is Herb Perkins, of Purveyor Distribs.

Chet Gore, prexy of Exhibit Supply, reports that earliest indications are that he'll have an excellent summer season with his "Vacuumatic" card vendors and plastic card sealers. . . . Local action on the Gottlieb "World Fair" flipper amusement game is keeping Joe Schwartz and Mort Levinson on their toes.

EPITOME OF QUALITY Rock-Ola builds it simple. Rock-Ola builds it solid. Rock-Ola builds in the quality it takes to keep the rich full stereo sound of a Broadway album or single coming in loud and clear to Main Street 24 hours a day. That's why the versatile new Grand Prix is a solid hit in any location.

Every component in the famous Rock-Ola mechanism is functional. The entire assembly is a masterpiece of simplicity, engineered for maximum performance with minimum servicing. These Rock-Ola features tell the story: a "common" receiver system; automatic money counter; exclusive Mech-O-Matic intermix; and new transistorized amplifier.
