Kingsmen To Earth

HOLLYWOOD — The Kingsmen, whose version of "Louie, Louie" on Warner Records was the first in a long string of hits, have been signed to the Levin Resnick-Berkman production company. The deal, negotiated by the group manager, Mel Shayne, calls for the group's disks to be released on L-R-Earth Records.

The group, recently expanded to seven members, have already completed work on their first single, "Freak Me," written and produced by Levin Resnick and Joey Levine.

VIKING LAUNCHING — Celebrating the release of his label's first product Bobby Goldsboro was joined at the Domino Lounge in Birmingham by companions Larry Henley (second from left), Steve Norris (center) and Walt Williams in launching Viking Records' first single. Goldsboro's firm goes into full swing this week on the deck "Let Me Be Your Baby" with which Freeda Williams (right) initiates the product flow for Viking.
