

Narrator: Kevin Kosanovich
 Interviewer/Indexer: David Pratt
 Interview Date: 9.24.12
 Interview Time: 12:30 PM—1:05 PM

Time	Topic
00:00:30	Stephens Project and Kevin's role as grad assistant
00:07:45	Plans for this year: bigger presence at Homecoming, interview more women, more non-faculty staff and retired faculty
00:11:30	Interviewing current students: willingness to be frank, "Post-Ellen"
00:15:45	Williamsburg and W&M as LGBT spaces: though a few out people in the '60s and '70s, no real gay rights movement at W&M until the '80s; campus more welcoming in the '90s and beyond, with exceptions. Definite town-gown split in this regard.
00:23:00	Interviewing difficulties: infrequent, as interviewees self-selected.
00:25:40	Interviewer (David Pratt)'s role in the project: keep it going past Kevin's time as grad assistant.
00:29:50	Oral history as good history, as activism.
00:31:25	-END-
