

Deed of Gift for Oral History Interview Recordings

I, Hans C. von Baeyer, do hereby give to the College of William and Mary Earl Gregg Swem Library all right, title or interest in the recorded oral interviews conducted by David Pratt on 2/12/13, and I grant to the College of William and Mary all of the rights I possess in these recordings (and any transcripts or related documents of same), including all intellectual property rights. This gift does not preclude any use that I may make of the information in these recordings.

I also understand that, subject to instructions specified below, these recordings and transcripts will be held in the Swem Library at the College of William and Mary; will be accessible to researchers; and may be used in public presentations including, but not limited to, research reports, audio and visual documentaries, worldwide web sites, exhibits, or publication.

Please initial next to ONE of the lines below:

JB Recordings and transcripts may be used without restriction. This means the recording of your oral history and other interview materials will be available via the World Wide Web.

_____ Recordings and transcripts are subject to the restrictions as specified on the addendum to this deed.
