

United States Ship Chesapeake

Octo<sup>r</sup> 8th 1807.

The Court of Enquiry (which this day resumed was again adjourned on Monday last) taking consideration your present feeble state of health have voted against to adjourn until Friday the Sixteenth at which will again assemble on board this Ship.

~~and~~ I hope your recovery will perfectly reestablish your and enable you to attend if you think proper on land at the places mentioned.

I am very respectfully your obedient servant

Yours James Barron

Hampton

J. M. W. Saxe

Judge Advocate.

Faint handwritten text, possibly a name or address.

Faint handwritten text, possibly a name or address.

Handwritten text on the right edge of the page, possibly a date or reference number.